Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Crowned College National Champions

By Tanya Randall

When Hailey Kinsel says her horse feels like a million bucks, you can almost take her literally.

That's how her 6-year-old superstar DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis"), who carried her to a historic RFD-TV's The American Championship—and a share of the $1 million bonus—felt the night of the short go at the College National Finals Rodeo, held June 11-17 in Casper, Wyo.

With their strongest run of the rodeo—a victorious 14.06—Kinsel and Sis overcame a 4/10th deficit in the average to earn the barrel racing national championship.

"I came out thinking that was a good run and we did the best we could do," said the Texas A&M University graduate from the South Texas farming and ranching berg of Cotulla, Texas. "I really didn't expect to win it. There were a lot of good girls ahead of me I kind of waited around out back, listening to the times. When they said I won it, I was like 'You did not have to do that for me girl! You don't owe me a thing!' I don't know why she does this for me, but she just does!"

Bred and started by Dillon Mundorf of George West, Texas, Sis is by World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em. Kinsel purchased the mare as a 2-year-old for $11,500 at the Texas Best Sale and she and her mother Leslie did all the mare's barrel training. Sis ran as a 5-year-old futurity horse, but spent more time running at rodeos than she did futurities. By late summer, she had won her first pro rodeo. The mare has since split time between college and pro rodeos and hadn't seen such a small setup since running at the American Semifinals Rodeo in Fort Worth.

No stranger to the CNFR, having qualified as the Southern Region Champion Barrel Racer in 2015 and Region Reserve Champion in 2016, Kinsel had a strategy for the small confines of the Casper Events Center. Her first two qualifications, she rode Thunder Stones ("TJ"), who did most of the work during the season at the college rodeos, but this year her young wonder horse got the call.

"My first year I did really well on TJ," she explained. "Last year he didn't really love it. He's evolved as I've been taking him to rodeos. He runs a little harder to the first barrel now. I feel like in that kind of a setup, he'd take a little longer. He's the kind of horse that needs to stretch out and flatten out going into a first barrel to set down for a turn. My plan was to start on her and if she liked it I would stay on her. If not, or if I hit a barrel and went out of it, I would run him. He's a big horse and really likes the outdoor pens, and I just thought she'd be faster."

Each run for the pair got faster as the rodeo progressed. Their first run of 14.85 was 11th behind round winner Kailee Webb of the University of Wyoming and Flying For Perks (Dash For Perks x Lulu Of A Flight x Dinner Flight). They placed fourth with a 14.50 in the second round, which was won by K.L. Spratt of Sam Houston State University and KK Cash Colours (My Cash Guy x Colours Of You x Hot Colours) in 14.33. Kinsel and Sis were ninth in the third round with a 14.48 after Sam Houston State's Loni Lester and A Dash Of Champagne (Dash Ta Fame x Perky Pinky Champagne x Silver Creek Special) blistered a set in a victorious 13.98.

"Earlier in the week, I was the bottom of the ground for two runs, and she definitely didn't like that," Kinsel explained. "They hauled new dirt into the events center. It's good but it's really deep. So, it's not like it used to be where 12th on the ground was as good

12 Champions Crowned at CNFR

From a pair of repeat titlists to a freshman phenom, 12 college athletes earned national championships Saturday night at the 69th annual College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) in the Casper Events Center.

Team ropers Cole Wheeler and Wesley Thorpe were the only repeat champions, winning their second straight title, but their first for Texas Tech University. Last year they represented Weatherford College (Wheeler) and Ranger College (Thorpe). They entered the championship round tied with a team from Gillette College for second overall. Both trailed the leaders from Sam Houston State University by one-tenth of a second. Neither of the other top contenders managed to rope their steer while Wheeler and Thorpe clocked a 5.5 to place second in the round.

A Sam Houston State University freshman from Victoria, Texas, Lane McGehee dominated the bareback riding. He won two of the three preliminary rounds and scored 79.5 points on Harry Vold Rodeo's Spicy Chicken to place second in the championship round, a point behind Sheridan College's Hunter Carlson. McGehee's overall win was by an almost unheard-of 16 points.

McGehee wasn't the only Sam Houston State athlete to win a national championship. Breakaway roper Loni Lester came from second overall to win the title when she clocked a time of 2.7 seconds in the championship round. That was good enough for second place in the round and gave her an overall time of 10.9 seconds. She won the championship by three-tenths of a second through four runs. Lester, a junior from Gonzales, Texas, was also named Women's All-Around Champion.

In goat tying, only six-tenths of a second separated the top seven finalists with three of them tied for the lead. Championship round pressure didn't seem to bother fifth-ranked Tawny Barry of Eastern New Mexico University. The junior from Carter, S.D., won the final round with a time of 6.4, which was enough to earn her the national title by two-tenths of a second.

The biggest jump to claim a national title came from bull rider Cole Melancon of Hill College. The Liberty, Texas, sophomore was ranked halfway down the top 12 at sixth after qualifying for the championship round. He had just one qualified ride in the first three rounds. Melancon put together an 85-point effort on MoBetta Rodeo's Blindside to win the championship round and the national title by 4.5 points. No bull rider was able to make more than two qualified rides during this year's CNFR.

Texas A & M University junior Hailey Kinsel and her mare DM Sissy Heyday that she calls "Sister" are earning a reputation as a tough duo to beat on in a multiple-round barrel race. Kinsel, who won more than $400,000 in the barrel racing at The American in February, used the same formula of consistency to come from fourth place and claim the college championship. The Cotulla, Texas, cowgirl did not win any of the first three rounds, but stopped the clock in 14.06 seconds to win the championship round and the national title.

Tie-down roper Reid Zapalac of Tarleton State University, saddle bronc rider Preston Burr of New Mexico Junior College and steer wrestler Denver Berry of Southeastern Oklahoma State University were the other three new champions who came into the finals with the lead and held on to win titles. Berry, a senior, did it by wrestling his steer in 3.9 seconds to tie for first in the championship round. Zapalac's time of 8.8 placed second in the championship round and Burr's score of 74 was enough to tie for fourth Saturday night. The All-Around Cowboy title went to Cole Frey of McNeese State University who qualified for the final round in both team roping and steer wrestling. Panhandle State University won the men's team championship and Sam Houston State University earned the women's team title.

The College National Finals Rodeo features the top student-athletes in rodeo from the 11 regions of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association competing for national championships.

as first. She tried really hard and really did her best. I just tried to stay clean those first couple of runs, knowing that I wasn't going to be able to smoke one."

After making their third run on Wednesday, Sis got two days off while Kinsel took TJ (Sticks An Stones x See F Jets Candy x Pines Easter Jet) to the North Platte, Neb., pro rodeo on Friday night. Kinsel and TJ finished seventh, earning $649.

On Saturday, Kinsel contemplated running TJ in the short round, depending on where she drew up on the ground. Leia Plummer of the University of Nevada-Las Vegas and Famous French Bug (Frenchmans Fabulous x Cricketts Fame x Dash Ta Fame) had the lead in the aggregate with 43.50 on three runs. Kinsel and Sis were more than 3/10ths back.

"I was kind of waiting on the draw to see what I was going to be able to do," said Kinsel, who drew up second. "If I drew up in the bottom, I was going to run TJ because I figured I couldn't make up 4/10ths on the bottom of the ground. I knew I could with her on the top of the ground. It just kept working out in our favor."

Kinsel said winning a national championship to conclude her colligate career was "pretty awesome," but she couldn't have done it without her Texas A&M teammates—Jimmie Smith, Whitney Thurmond and McKenna Brown—and coach Dr. Al Wagner. Kinsel finished fifth in the Southern Region Barrel Race so she didn't qualify outright, but the team finished second in the Region, which allowed her to compete.

"Without them I would have never made it to Casper and had a chance of winning it," she said. "A huge thanks to them."

Kinsel, who competed her degree in agricultural economics, plans on spending July on the pro rodeo trail. She's currently 41st in the WPRO World Standings with $16,415.

"We're going to enter as we go if we're doing well," she explained. "If not, we'll go home. My goal is to be in the Top 30 by the end of year to get into the buildings in the winter. And, I'd like

O'Quinn and Roarrrr Turn Heads at Colorado Classic Futurity

By Hope Sickler

The temperatures weren't the only thing hot in Pueblo, Colorado this past weekend as futurity trainers from across the country met at the Colorado State Fair Fairgrounds to compete at the 4th Annual Colorado Classic Futurity.

The competition was hot and when it was all said and done, veteran futurity trainer Sabra O'Quinn from Ocala, Florida took home top honors in the futurity aboard 5L Quarter Horses 4-year-old stallion, Roarrrr.

The beautiful bay stallion is by Tres Seis and out of Dash Ta Vanilla, who helped carry Nikki Steffes-Hansen to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in 2012. Dash Ta Vanilla is by Dash Ta Fame and out of one of the industry's best barrel horses to ever grace the cloverleaf pattern, SX Frenchmans Vanilla. He was purchased by Gary Langford (5L Quarter Horses) as a 2-year-old from breeder Alan Woodbury in North Dakota, and was sent to O'Quinn to begin his barrel racing career in the spring of his 3-year-old-year.

would because of the way that Roarr was bred,” explained O’Quinn. “but I told Gary that if he started acting “studdy” I would change my mind but luckily he is just the best-minded stallion....”

In addition to having some of the best bloodlines in the industry, Roarr also is incredibly athletic, super trainable and very intelligent O’Quinn noted.

“All of those qualities combined has made him the incredible athlete that he is proving to be. He is also pretty sensitive, which makes him easier to train. You don’t have to be very hard on him at all, he is very kind and sweet, especially to people.”

This being O’Quinn’s first trip to the Colorado for the event, she was quick to credit the producer, Kayla Jones, and her help for a well-orchestrated weekend.

“I have the upmost respect for anyone that puts on an event. It is a lot of work and not a lot of it is very fun, but the producer, Kayla Jones, did a fantastic job. Props to her!”

Roarr had a bit of a late start at the futurities, no fault of his own, but due to a broken jaw he suffered this winter. O’Quinn and owner Langford had high hopes early on for the stallion but had to take a step back to allow him to heal properly so that he could still have a lengthy career running barrels.

“I ran him for a while in a hackamore but he couldn’t get around the barrels. We didn’t get to any of the earlier futurities this year, so we are very grateful for the effort he is putting forth. He is a solid-minded individual and is just a natural at running barrels,” O’Quinn said.

In the first round of the Colorado Classic Futurity, O’Quinn and Roarr ended up second with a 16.489 behind Sharin Hall and Dreaming Of Fooses smokin’ run of 16.475. In the second round, they placed third with a 16.403 behind the incredible Mimis On Firewater and Jordan Bassett, who posted the fastest run of the futurity with a 16.179, followed by Jordon Briggs and Kn Hoppy

“He worked great and I am very proud of him. He kept moving through his turns and stayed really consistent.”

In addition to winning the futurity, O’Quinn and Roarr won the average in the Future Fortunes and ended up 3rd in the slot race. They pocketed over $5,000 during their stay in Pueblo.

already had a stellar year and its only half-time! She and Mimi's On Firewater, owned by the Webb Ranch, dazzled as they won the second round of the futurity, which also earned them top honors in the slot race presented by Lovendahl Performance Horses, and the Stallion Incentive. With the Slot Race win and all their placings in the Open and Stallion Incentive Futurity, this team grabbed a whopping $7,795 to bring her total for the year to over $88k. Bassett and her team of horses, Magnum & Mimi's On Firewater have been in the spotlight nearly every week since the futurities kicked off in Arizona this January. With half the year left to go, it will be fun to see what else Bassett and her incredible team of horses accomplish!

Bogies French Trick Surprises Liz Broussard With All-American Youth Championship

By Tanya Randall

Having qualified for the Finals out of the 2D, Liz Broussard wasn't expecting Bogies French Trick to post the fastest time of the event to win the 16th Annual All-American Youth Race, held June 13-17 in Jackson, Miss.

"I think by the time it ended I was still freaking out that I ran that time!" said a shocked Broussard. "In the past year with Trick, I've probably only made a handful of really good runs. I've either had solid runs that didn't clock or I've hit barrels. It just never really come together for us until this past weekend."

Their victorious 13.951, the only sub-14-second run of the show, was worth $8,000.

Broussard and Trick finished out of the 2D money with their 14.641 in the first round.

"He made a decent run the first round," explained the 18-year-old from Estherwood, La. "I made a few mistakes. I didn't run him the second round. I just gave him the time off and did the (cold water) spa. When I went to run in the short go, he felt really good. I didn't really do anything different. It was kind of shocking really that he was almost a whole second faster, just with giving him off that one day. He was ready that day."

Bred by Gerald Roberts of Finley, Okla., Trick is by Frenchmans Bogie, a grandson of multiple circuit champion and National Finals Rodeo average finalist Bogie Biankus and leading barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy. The 9-year-old gelding is out of the Fols Gold mare Fols Gold Hooray.

Broussard purchased Trick from Paul Matthews of Rustburg, Va., a year ago. She did well on the gelding at the National High School Finals Rodeo shortly after his purchase, but has battled consistency in the past year.

"The past couple of weeks it's been turning on and clicking," she said. "We were having some pretty solid runs, but he wasn't clocking. I changed a couple of things—I took the tie down off and started breezing him. It wasn't anything major. It was just little changes."

Until Trick's run in the Finals, Broussard had held fast-time honors with her main horse Brand Me Lucky ("Lucky"), who posted a second-round winning 14.039 after tipping to place second in the first round with a 14.085. They ultimately finished fifth in the Finals with a 14.101.

"I had to work for that," she laughed. "He felt really good. The ground was a lot deeper. It wasn't really his type of ground. He's really hard to get by the barrels. He has a roll-back style. I did everything I could to keep them up, pretty much. It was like everything was working against us with him. I think every run I made on him, I was after a big drag or a water drag."

Surprisingly, the $3,468 performance was just the second run back for the 15-year-old gelding, by Dr Red Rock out of MBJ Lucky Diamond, by MJB Bar Cee.

"He colicked last May and had surgery," Broussard explained. "We tried to bring him back in December, but we had some feet issues and we had to change farriers. So, we had to give him an extra four months because of that. Then he was in a trailer accident—a divider came open and he caught it in his flank—so he was basically off a year."

Broussard, who completed her high school studies this year, grew up in a rodeo family. Her dad, Scott, used to ride broncs and her oldest brother caught the rodeo bug when he was 15.

"I've been [dragged] around the rodeos since I was 2," laughed Broussard, who wanted to thank her parents Scott and Julie. "I grew up in the stands."

Broussard will compete at the International Youth Finals Rodeo in Shawnee, Okla., this summer. Plus, she hopes to fill her WPRA permit.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

As most of you know by now, I'm not a patient person. I'm working on it. We are all works in progress. The only perfect person I know is Jesus. And we are instructed to copy Him. And He, being the good God that He is, is constantly teaching us and leading us and doing His best to bless us when we obey the Word.

I AM trying to work on those areas in my life that I know are weak. (If I keep saying that, will I get it?) But just like you, I'd rather blunder along doing what's easy for me. So I'm always excited when I learn about a surefire way to conquer some of those weak spots, and I heard one of those Saturday night when Mike was preaching. He was giving 4 points to victory and the last one was..... practice the presence of God.

Shazam!!!! Here's my answer! I'll bet when I am going through Wal Mart at ramming speed, if I just consider that Jesus has His hand on my cart, I won't be giving the slow lady in the wheelchair the stink eye (I really wouldn't go THAT far.....). And when Mike says that I'm being critical, if I remember that Jesus just might be telling me something, I won't go off all offended!

Seriously, Jesus never leaves us or forsakes us. So why do I grab my keys and head out thinking that He's staying home? He's not. He loves us. We need Him. Practice His presence this week and watch the blessings flow!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
