Kassie Mowry Banks $49,039 at Bonus Race Finals, Wins $28,150 on Sir Epic

By Tanya Randall

All-time leading barrel racer Kassie Mowry added $49,039 to her nearly $6 million in career earnings at the Bonus Race World Finals, held June 12-18 in Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Mowry went to the Bonus Race World Finals because she had heard such good things about the event. Scary weather aside, it's an event Mowry hopes to fit into her schedule again.

"Renae (Bolling) has always put on a good show and this one did not disappoint," she said. "They ran almost 60 an hour. It was so smooth, no hang ups. It was such a pleasant race. They had really consistent ground, which is really important for an event that runs over a week. If you haven't gone, you're missing out."

"There were activities for everybody. There were so many things to do for people who went with their families. I saw water slides. They had a live band. I took six horses, so I didn't get to partake, but it looked like a lot of people were having fun!"

The star of the Dublin, Texas, based trainer's herd was the 5-year-old gelding Sir Epic, owned by Dave and Lori Zabel. Sir captured top honors in the Ultimate Bonus—the high stakes race—and the regular Bonus for total earnings of $28,150.

"That race didn't have exhibitions," Mowry explained. "That's what was challenging for me and these younger horses, especially my futurity horse—no chance to go around the barrels before they ran. I don't do a whole lot of exhibitions, but they always get to trot through once to see where everything is at. That was the biggest thing—for me—about him winning that. For him to run the fastest time of the show without getting to go in (the pen before) was a really big deal."

Sir's 14.129 was the fastest of the 1,720 entries at the event. He also double-dipped with his second run, placing with his 14.412 as well.

Bred by Karma Loftin, Sir is by 1.6 million dollar sire JL Sirocco and out of So Very Epic, a daughter of Epic Leader out of multiple champion producing Streakin Six mare Streakin Sider.

From the time he was baby, Sir has been more reactive to things than his peers, but he's always had exceptional talent.

"Sir is just very sudden," Mowry explained. "He's very protective of his body, a little spooky. Like at Glen Rose the other day, someone was spraying their horse on the other side of the trailer, and he had a meltdown from the water running under the trailer. He just reacts, but he's so incredibly talented. There is no doubting his ability."

As a 4-year-old futurity horse, Sir won several rounds, but that big aggregate title eluded him. He came close at his last futurity, earning the reserve title at the BFA World Championships to his stablemate Force The Goodbye. He's won $222,860, according to QData, in his brief career.

"That horse can run anywhere and clock," said Mowry. "He did it in all kinds of pens—big, small. That's the coolest part about him. The consistency is coming. We always knew that about him; he just started out that way with the inconsistency as a baby. He was always very reactive. As he matures, he's getting a bit more predictable. The hardest part to find in one is what comes so naturally to him—to be fast and turn fast. There's all the time in the world left for him to grow up."

Mowry will head out on July 2 for her summer run with Emmett, Jarvis and Dove. She's running at three rodeos stateside before heading to the Calgary Stampede. She also entered a few smaller rodeos for the younger two horses to get some seasoning. She'll be back at home to prep her 2024 futurity colts at the end of the month.

"I love them," she said of her 2024 crop. "They're a good group."

Slingin Firewater & Tyler Rivette Bank $20,766 at Colorado Classic, Win Stallion Incentive Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Slingin Firewater and Tyler Rivette scored a $13,355 victory in the $90,000-added Stallion Incentive Futurity at the Colorado Classic, held June 16-18 in Montrose, Colorado. They also took second in the $10,000-added Horse Hair Analysis Open Futurity and placed fifth in the open slot for an additional $7,411 including open carryovers.

"He's been really good," said Rivette of Redman, who has drawn a check at nearly every futurity he's entered since his debut at the BFA World Championships in 2022. "He's just been solid all year."

Redman, a 4-year-old red roan gelding, and Rivette were 12th in the first round of the Stallion Incentive Futurity with a 15.796 and came back with a 15.416 that placed second in both the incentive and open futurities.

"The first round he just made a smooth pass," recalled Rivette, who trains out of Maysville, Oklahoma. The second round I put a little more pressure on him, and he ran the second fastest time of the whole futurity."

Owned and bred by Rosemary Harrison, Redman is by $8.1 million dollar sire A Streak Of Fling out of the Firewater Ta Fame mare Firewater Traffic. He got his elementary education with Laura Alexander and Chase Miller before Rivette started his barrel training.

"I have two A Streak Of Flings for this year and they both took to it very easily with the training and everything. The mare is a lot quicker and snappier than he is. He has a really big stride and is smooth and fast. It's easy for him. He doesn't take many steps around a turn. He kind of drags his butt and is in and out of a turn. He's fast and there's no substitute for speed."

The filly, Lightz Camera Action, out of the Disco Jerry (TB) mare Ahairfasternmom, also picked up a check in the second round.

"The filly, the first round, she made a good pass," Rivette said. "Everyone was like, 'You just sat on her.' Then I kind of asked her for a little bit more and her speed got in the way. On her, I just need to 'catch a ride' and let her do it."

Redman, on the other hand, has exhibited some future rodeo horse characteristics.

"I normally can call him, and he'll step up," Rivette said. "He handles the pressure really well. He normally steps up to the plate. He's very laid back but he's a personable horse. Nothing ever rattles him. He really just goes with the flow. He's pretty much all business, but he loves attention."

So far in his career, Redman won the Kinder Cup Slot Futurity, was the reserve champion at the OKC Rookie and were finalists at the BFA Juvenile, Lone Star Shootout, Kinder Cup, Barrel Bash Select Stallion Stakes and Old Fort Days futurities. His lifetime earnings are now over $109,000, according to QData.

As of right now, Harrison plans on having Rivette run Redman through his derby year.

"We've had several people try to purchase him," said Rivette,

Pete Oen & RP Tres Hombres Capture the Colorado Classic Open Futurity Title

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion Pete Oen guided RP Tres Hombres ("Woody"), owned and bred by Roger Primm and his daughter Rachel, to a $6,318 victory in the $10,000-added Horse Hair Analysis Futurity at the Colorado Classic, held June 16-19 in Montrose, Colorado.

Oen, who trains out of Maysville, Oklahoma, also picked up $8,652 aboard Streak Gypsy Streak, owned by Angela Richardson, after placing sixth in the Open Futurity and seventh in the $90,000-added Stallion Incentive Futurity. Shakemup Frenchgirl, owned by Rick Gaston, picked up $3,403 for placing in the first rounds of both futurities. Oen also placed eighth in the Open Maturity aggregate on RP Recoil N Strike, Woody's half-brother who also belongs to the Primms.

Woody is a 4-year-old by Tres Fortunes out of the champion performing and producing Dash Ta Fame, Sold Short mare Dashin Julene ($77,472 QData earnings). In addition to being a half-brother to 2022 AQHA Reserve World Champion Junior Barrel Horse RP Recoil N Strike ($43,016 QData), Woody is also a half-brother to multiple aged event finalist RP Dashinoutofmysocks ($40,0001 QData).

The gelding was started by Brandon Cullins and joined Oen's barn last September. Although he picked up 2D checks through the first few months of his career, Woody has recently stepped up.

"He went really fast right before the BFA at the Parker County 3-Year-old mock race," recalled Oen. "I was really expecting better things of him at the BFA through Oklahoma City, but it just didn't happen for some reason."

Oen said that Woody is a lot hotter than his half-brother RP

Recoil N Strike, a stallion by Coil (TB).

"He's really a polar opposite of his brother RP Recoil N Strike," Oen said of Woody. "He's a little more fragile than Recoil N Strike, which is kind of weird because Recoil N Strike is by a straight Thoroughbred stallion. I would have thought it would have been the other way around."

"With Recoil N Strike, you go as fast as you can the whole time, from the time you take off running. (Woody) is really big strided and runs quite a bit on his own, so you really let him pick his speed to the first and sit still. After he turns the first you can kick him a couple of times across the pen, but you don't get really aggressive with him. It's the same thing to the third."

At Ruby Buckle at the end of April, things started to click for Woody. He was a futurity money winner there after posting a 16.9 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

"He's been up and down, running six-seven tenths off and then he jumped up and ran a 16.9 at Ruby Buckle," chuckled Oen.

At the Colorado Classic, Woody won the opening round with a 15.527 and followed it up with a 15.603 to take eighth in the second. Oen said some routine veterinary maintenance coupled with an equipment change and warmup philosophy helped the fractious gelding.

"I played with some different bridles," he said. "I rode him with a bonnet for quite a while, but I took it off of him because I thought he started kind of not running with it on. This past week I threw the bonnet back on him and changed his bridle again, and it seemed to work. It was either something that he really liked, or it just worked for this particular setup."

Oen said he also changed his warmup routine for Montrose. "In the past I'd get him on his toes and make sure he was listening to me," he explained, "not really waking him up but making sure he was really responsive to me. At this particular event, I took a little bit different approach with him. I really tried to keep him as calm and quiet as I could during my warmup. That seemed to

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "I really worked on trying to keep him mentally quiet. In the exhibitions, I breezed him through twice of the four-five times he got to exhibition. I really tried to figure out how to get in this horse's head. He's a personable horse. In his slow work, he's absolutely amazing, but he's a little rattled about going fast still."

Fame Fire Rocks Taycie Matthews to a College National Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

2018 International Finals Rodeo Champion Taycie Matthews captured the national championship in barrel racing at the College National Finals Rodeo, held June 11-17 in Casper, Wyoming. Matthews, who hails from Wynne, Arkansas, represented the University of West Alabama, where she is a business administration major.

She and the 6-year-old mare Fame Fire Rocks (Poppy) topped the four-run aggregate after a heated battle with Montana State University's Tayla Moeykens.

The two ladies traded wins in the rounds. Matthews won in the first two rounds—turning in the fastest time of the rodeo, a 13.74, in the second. Moeykens gamely tried to catch Matthews by winning the third round and short go, but Matthews was right on her heels, placing second in each.

"My goal was just to be clean each run," said Matthews, who won the reserve championship at last year's CNFR aboard her talented stallion Heavenly Firewater ("Bud The Stud"). "I just gave it to the Lord and He just took care of me."

Matthews' run for the national championship began last fall. She was on the bubble to make her first National Finals Rodeo when she opted to go to a college rodeo rather than make a last minute push.

"I hit a barrel at Pendleton to make it (to the NFR)," recalled

Matthews, who finished 19th in the 2022 WPRA World Standings. "It was the week before that last week. I just took that as a sign from God that it wasn't my time. I didn't really want to go to California (for the last rodeos of the season), so I skipped them and went to the college rodeo."

Matthews was winning the Ozark Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association until the very last round of the last rodeo, when her sister Jaylie beat her.

"I decided to run one of my young horses in the short go at the last rodeo just to get some experience," she said, "and my sister ended up winning it."

The women's rodeo team for the University of West Alabama won the national team title with Matthews, her sister who placed in the first three rounds of the barrel racing, as well as Raven Clagg and Heather McLaughlin.

Now, Matthews is starting the summer run of pro rodeos. She left Casper on Sunday for Reno, Nevada, where she runs on Monday. Matthews currently sits 15th in the WPRA World Standings with $35,538, thanks to Poppy's winter rodeo efforts.

Bred by Rustic River Ranch, Poppy is by $3 million dollar barrel horse sire and champion performer Firewaterontherocks and out of the graded stakes winning mare WR Aces Fame, by Dash Ta Fame. WR Aces Fame comes from a stacked family of stakes winning racehorses and barrel futurity champions. She is out of WR Red Ace, a New Mexico High Point 3-Year-Old Racing Filly and stakes winner of $313,416. WR Red Ace is a full sister to champion barrel horse producer LA Cassia, dam of Lady La Dash ($149,896 EquiStat) and LA Fame ($103,399 EquiStat). WR Red Ace is also a three-quarter sister to champion performers and producers Miss Fortunes Fool and Silver Creek Dash.

As a yearling Poppy was consigned to the 2018 Heritage Place Winter Mix Sale and sold to Gene and Lynn Schmidt for $10,000. She was started under saddle by Audra Masterson and trained for barrels by Janna Brown. Poppy got a slow start to her 4-year-old campaign but finished strong, winning the BBR Southern Territorial Futurity and running out $40,000.

Matthews' mom Kim purchased Poppy at the beginning of 2022 for herself but only managed about a handful of rodeos on the mare before her daughters took over.

"I had originally left the house (for the summer and CNFR) with Bud and another gelding," Taycie explained. "Bud hit himself at Fort Smith, so I drove back home that night and picked her up. I ran her at Crossett (Arkansas) the next day and then headed out west."

Poppy won for both girls with Matthews placing on her at the pro rodeos leading up to last year's CNFR, where her sister ended up riding her. Matthews finished the 2023 pro rodeo season on her as well after Bud got hurt in late July.

College Rodeo Crowns 2023 Champions

Championship Saturday at the 2023 College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) began with the top 12 student athletes in nine events roping and riding for individual and team honors. The night ended with the crowning of 10 individual and two all-around national champions along with new women's and men's national champion teams.

The night began with bareback riding. Kade Sonnier, a graduate student in health and human performance at McNeese State University, qualified in eighth place in the finals but made a bid for the title when he scored 84.5 points on Vold Rodeo's horse Brubby Spoon. Sonnier's total of 314 points on four rounds held first place until the final bareback rider of the night.

Weston Timberman, who was born and raised in Casper before moving to Columbus, Montana, came in with the highest total after the first three rounds. Rodeo insiders were anticipating the matchup between Timberman and Vold's horse Crossbreed's Captain Hook – the horse Missouri Valley College's Ty Pope rode to win last year's title. The freshman science major at Clarendon College matched Sonnier's score of 84.5 and won the championship by 11 points. Timberman was instrumental in Clarendon College winning another men's team championship and also earned men's rookie of the year honors.

Kincade Henry of Mount Pleasant, Texas, became one of the few tie-down ropers to win back-to-back college championships. The junior ag business major at Texas A & M University – Commerce came into the finals with a 2.7-second overall lead. His time of 10.5 seconds was good enough for second in the round and his second consecutive college title.

The first upset of the night came in breakaway roping. Makayla Farkas of Leona Valley, California, was in third place when the night began. The senior kinesiology major at West Hills College tied for second in the round with a time of 2.7 seconds and roped the championship with 10.9 seconds on four runs.

The saddle bronc riding had been a battle all week with a single point separating Quintin McWhorter of California Polytechnic State University – San Luis Obispo and Damian Brennan of Western Texas College. The pair were the final two cowboys to compete with McWhorter, an ag education graduate student from Petrolia, California, going first. McWhorter scored 85 points on Vold Rodeo Company's bronc named Jerry's Justice for 323.5 total points. Brennan, an Australian who just wrapped up his junior year in farm and ranch management, and Vold's bronc Moon Valley combined for 84 points, tied for second in the round and matched McWhorter's total. Both athletes were crowned national saddle bronc riding champions.

JT Ellison, a senior at the University of West Alabama, came into the finals with a three-second lead overall. As the final competitor in steer wrestling Ellison, who majored in cell and molecular biology, made a business-like run of 6.7 and won the championship by 1.3 seconds.

The goat tying was the tightest event with six-tenths of a second separating the top eight finalists when the night began. Almost every cowgirl clocked a time in the six-second range. When the dust settled Montana State University senior Paige Rasmussen jumped from third to first overall when she won the final round with a time of 6.0 seconds. The psychology major from Bozeman won the all-around cowgirl national championship here in 2021, but this was her first individual national title.

A pair of Texans took national honors in the team roping. Slade Wood, a freshman from New Ulm, and Logan Moore, a junior from Pleasanton, held a lead of almost two seconds when Saturday's action began. They finished second in the round and were named champion header and heeler, respectively. Wood is a business major representing Southwest Texas Junior College and Moore is a wildlife biology major at Wharton County Junior College.

Taycie Matthews of Wynne, Arkansas, won her first national title in her third trip to the CNFR. Matthews, a junior business major at the University of West Alabama, won two of the first three rounds and finished second in the other. She was the 12th barrel racer to compete in the finals and her time of 13.94 was good enough for second in the round and won the championship by 32-hundredths of a second. Three of the 12 finalists in barrel racing were from the University of West Alabama and Matthews led her team to the school's first women's team championship.

The night ended with Tristan Hutchings winning his second collegiate bull riding championship in three years. The Idaho native just wrapped up his senior year at Sul Ross State University in Alpine, Texas, with a degree in agriculture. Ironically, he drew the same bull that cost him the 2022 bull riding title here – Vold Rodeo Co's Night Trip. Although he bucked off at 7.56 seconds, Hutchings won the title as the only bull rider

Cowboy Channel+ To Offer New "Everything We Got" Package

Bringing Rodeo Fans All-Inclusive Subscription Option for $119.99 Per Year

Effective immediately, Cowboy Channel+, an international over-the-top subscription video streaming service focused on western sports and lifestyle programming, will offer a new all-inclusive subscription package to rodeo fans worldwide. Called the "Everything We Got" package, this new annual subscription bundle will include a dynamic lineup of live rodeo and western sports programming from around the United States, Canada, and Brazil, along with exclusive original content and an in-depth on-demand library on Cowboy Channel+.

"Rural Media Group now has signed five-year agreements with several major rodeo associations, including the PRCA, CPRA, Brazilian Rodeo, and the NHSRA, which enables us to bring our viewers and rodeo fans the most comprehensive television and digital coverage in western sports," said Patrick Gottsch, Founder of Rural Media Group. "We finally know our costs and content for the next five years, which makes the Everything We Got subscription possible, and, what I believe, the easiest option for those looking for all access to every event our networks broadcast and live stream."

The $119.99 all-inclusive annual subscription to Cowboy Channel+ will now include: The National Finals Rodeo (NFR)

Live streaming + on-demand of all programming on The Cowboy Channel

Live streaming + on-demand of all programming on The Cowgirl Channel

PRCA — up to 950 different regular season ProRodeo performances (big, medium, and small)

CPRA — 28 Canadian regular season Pro Rodeo performances

The Canadian Finals Rodeo (CFR); Brazilian Professional Rodeos: 10 LNR-produced rodeos and bull riding events around Brazil, including Barretos; National High School Finals Rodeo; National Junior High School Finals Rodeo; Little Britches Rodeo; Junior NFR; World's Largest PRCA Archive on VOD; Spanish Language Feeds for the Top 10 PRCA Rodeos; And much, much more

Before the Everything We Got package, subscribers to Cowboy Channel+ were required to pay $99.99 for an annual subscription plus another $99.99 for the NFR, as Rural Media Group has three different rights fees to pay to PRCA alone. The PRCA then uses those right fees to enhance the organization, with much of the different payments being passed on to the rodeo committees and then cowboys and cowgirls as payouts are being increased along with improvements to rodeo grounds, infrastructure, and more. There were also additional individual streaming fees for NHSRA, CPRA, Brazilian Rodeo, Junior NFR, etc. As new agreements were finalized, it was time to examine the pricing model and app structure. Under the new Everything We Got all-inclusive subscription package, all rodeo associations and programming are still getting their individual fees, but now, all pricing has been combined on the front end to streamline the subscription process for Cowboy Channel+ subscribers.

Current annual and monthly subscribers can instantly upgrade their subscriptions to take advantage of this new deal on the platform they signed up on. Subscribers wishing to continue with a monthly or their existing annual subscription will also get all the new content in this package, excluding The Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

In addition to the new Cowboy Channel+ "Everything We Got" subscription, Cowboy Channel+ is also adding another new feature and now offering the opportunity for people to purchase gift cards for the app. As gift cards are purchased online by visiting www.cowboychannelplus.com/gift they will then be sent to the recipient with all details for their new subscription. The service does not start until the recipient starts their new subscription by entering their individual activation code provided on the gift card.

For more information regarding signing up, upgrading, or purchasing and activating gift cards, please read the FAQ at www.cowboychannelplus.com/faq-upgrade or contact our customer service department at customerservice@thecowboychannel.com.

PRCA One-Hour Special on CBS

PRCA one-hour special to be televised on CBS. National Television outlet CBS will broadcast a one-hour special at 1 p.m. (ET) on Sunday, July 2 titled the "CBS Sports Spectacular — 100 Rodeos in 100 Days".

The special will focus on the 100 PRCA rodeos in 100 days, including the Reno Rodeo, which concludes June 24.

It will showcase the foundational values of the PRCA, delivering a slice of Americana to a national audience with plenty of prayer and patriotism on display.

Some of the PRCA's most iconic rodeos will be featured, along with today's biggest ProRodeo stars like seven-time world champion Stetson Wright. The PRCA's legendary animal athletes and their impact on ProRodeo will also be highlighted in the hour-long special.

Many Americans share the values of those in ProRodeo but may not be familiar with the iconic sport or its colorful characters. This television special is a way to introduce our incredible way of life and our elite, professional athletes to a broader population, outside our loyal fan base. The athletes of ProRodeo spend months traversing our great country in pursuit of their gold buckle dreams, which they hope will ultimately lead them to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas each December. National exposure on a major television network has the potential to create a healthy buzz and a renewed appreciation for the sport and its athletes.

We'll have more details soon but for now, mark your calendars, tell your friends and be sure to watch CBS Sunday, July 2 for the "CBS Sports Spectacular — 100 Rodeos in 100 Days".

Pro Fantasy Rodeo brings July Fantasy Game

Pro Fantasy Rodeo Partners with CINCH to bring you Christmas in July Fantasy game. Rodeo athletes aren't the only ones on the quest to hit major pay days this summer. Presented by CINCH, Pro Fantasy Rodeo is bringing rodeo fans a Christmas in July Fantasy Game with proceeds benefiting the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. Play to win your share of over $60,000 in cash and prizes.

The grand prize is a 2023 SXT Dodge Challenger! Get entered for only $19.95 and show your support of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. For every additional $5 donation, you're entered for a chance to win a one-of-a-kind Hall of Fame Champion Buckle.

Earn more buckles and bragging rights by inviting nine friends to join a FREE Summer Special League. The player with the highest earning team wins a League Champion Buckle! Champion buckles will also be awarded to the highest earning overall Summer Special League, as well as the title of "Joe's" and an invite to the PRCA Challenge. Can the Joe's beat the Pros? The PRCA Media Team, "Pros," challenge you to see who knows rodeo best.

Win even more by opting into the $10 Prize Challenges offered by Las Vegas Events and The American Rodeo. Pick the winning team and you could be headed to the 2023 National Finals Rodeo or The 2024 American Rodeo.

Entries open today, June 19 at 5 p.m. Click here or visit profantasyrodeo.com to build your team by selecting a contestant from each rodeo event. PRCA and WPRA official standings will be tracked for all rodeos occurring in July. Entries close on June 30.

The highest earning professional rodeo cowboy or cowgirl during the month of July will also be rewarded with the title of "Hottest in July." Whoever wins the most will receive $2,500 cash, a Champion Buckle and a pair of Hyer boots.

Cinch Playoffs play big roll in WNFR Qualification

The Cinch Playoffs will play a bigger role than ever before in deciding who makes it to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo with a payout of $1.1 million on the final weekend of the 2023 season.

Last September, the PRCA, the State of South Dakota, Experience Sioux Falls and Cinch announced the Cinch Playoffs will have athletes competing for the Governor's Cup and vying for the $1.1 million purse, Sept. 28-30, 2023, at the Denny Sanford Premier Center in Sioux Falls. It will be the richest rodeo in South Dakota history.

The Cinch Playoffs provides one last opportunity for ProRodeo athletes to qualify for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. The contestants will include the top four finishers from each event at the Cinch Playoffs in Puyallup, Wash., earlier in September, and the top eight out of the standings of the Playoff Series presented by Pendleton Whisky.

In addition to bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding, breakaway roping will be held at the Cinch Playoffs.

The 2023 ProRodeo season concludes Sept. 30. The Top 15 athletes in the PRCA | RAM World Standings in each event will qualify for the Wrangler NFR.

The Cinch Playoffs will air on The Cowboy Channel and stream on the PRCA on Cowboy Channel Plus App. For more information, visit cowboychannelplus.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are many ways to train a barrel horse. There are many types of saddles, blankets, bits, trucks, trailers. We all have our preferences and styles. We all have our opinions on what works and what doesn't. We all like a different type of horse.

I have been outrun by squatty little horses, long and lean thoroughbreds and everything in between. At a barrel race in Montana about 5 years ago, a friend I hadn't seen in a while told me that my 16 hand futurity colt was too big. He went on to say that the ideal barrel horse should be about 14-1.

I don't know about you, but if I'm bigger than the horse I don't have much confidence I'm going to succeed! Lol! All of that is fine and good in this wonderful horse world we're involved in. But our opinion means nothing compared to the instruction/direction of God.

I can't think of a time that I came up with a plan, ran it by God and He said, "Sherry, that's a great plan! Let's do it YOUR way!" Never..... God is first place. His ways are first place. His instructions should be top priority.

We shouldn't make a plan and then ask God to bless it. We should ask God what His plan is and do that. And when we do, according to Matthew 6:33, every good thing will be added to us!
