Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo Awards $1 Million to TX 4-H'ers

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo awarded 70 Texas 4-H members with four-year, $16,000 scholarships totaling $1,120,000 during the Texas 4-H Roundup in College Station, Texas, June 13.

As one of the oldest Show scholarship programs, more than 2,000 scholarships have been awarded to Texas 4-H members since the Show's first major educational commitment in 1957.

These scholarships are just part of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo's more than $16 million annual commitment to scholarships, research, endowments, calf scramble participants and junior show exhibitors. Also included is support of the Rodeo Institute for Teacher Excellence™, School Art participants, and other educational and youth programs.

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is a 501(c)(3) charity that benefits youth, supports education, and facilitates better agricultural practices through exhibitions and presentation. Since its beginning in 1932, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo has committed more than $265 million to the youth of Texas.

The 2012 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo will run Feb. 28 – March 18. For more information, visit www.rodeohouston.com.

Heiligbrodt Race Dispersal

Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt, Houston, Tex., ranked among the nation's leading Thoroughbred owners for nearly two decades, announced on Monday, June 20 that they will disperse their Heiligbrodt Racing Stables beginning with approximately 80 head slated for a July 12 session, immediately following the last session of the Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearling Sale in Lexington, Ky.

The Heiligbrodts have owned or co-owned 118 stakes winners, including 1997 Arlington Million winner Marlin with $2.4 million and, since 2005, have claimed over 650 wins and $21.5 million in earnings.

Bill Heiligbrodt, 70, a retired financial services and banking executive, grew up in rural South Texas, where Quarter Horses prevailed and where he and Corrine established a ranch near Palacios to breed and compete with cutting horses. Between 1990 and 1999, they won five NCHA Open World championships with Cash Quixote Rio (1990 and 1992) and Meradas Little Sue (1995, 1997 and 1999), who retired as cutting's all-time leading money earning mare with $670,000.

During the same time period, Bill formed a racing partnership with fellow Texans Ted Keefer and Buddy New. Their first purchase was a $5,200 yearling colt named Appealing Breeze that would run out $553,327.

In 2001, the Heiligbrodts sold Meradas Little Sue for a record $875,000 during the NCHA

Futurity Sales, and phased out of cutting competition.

The Phase I Heiligbrodt catalog, handled by Bluewater Sales, will include horses three and up currently racing, as well as two-year-olds in training; bred mares with 2011 foals at side; and yearlings. Catalogs and race performance records will be available online at fasigtipton.com, beginning June 22. --Courtesy of www.SallyHarrison.com

Carthage Turns Rodeo Into Benefit For Tornado Victims in Joplin

The Carthage (Mo.) Saddle Club PRCA Rodeo almost didn't happen over the June 17-18 weekend. Officials had considered canceling the fourth-annual event in the aftermath of the devastating tornado that ripped through neighboring Joplin, Mo., less than a month earlier.

What the rodeo committee did instead was create an event that stood tall as a demonstration of unity that links rodeo and the Missouri community.

The Carthage rodeo became a benefit for the people of Joplin, which is just 15 miles from Carthage, raising money via donations and a silent auction.

Rodeo attendees – there were 400-600 each night, according to committeeman John Hency – were also encouraged to bring canned food to help their neighbors from Joplin.

It was an emotional night June 17, when the ceremonies started with the presentation of an American flag that had flown above one of the schools in Joplin and was found among the rubble after the tornado.

"You'll notice that it's dirty, and you'll notice that it's torn," rodeo announcer Tim Fuller told the crowd, "but one more thing you ought to notice, is that it's hanging there proud – just like the city and the citizens of Joplin."

John Hacker, managing editor at the Carthage Press, noted that the community of Carthage was very receptive to the rodeo and benefit, and that many of those in attendance were likely from Joplin.

The amounts of money raised and food collected were still being sorted out as of the afternoon of June 20, but no matter the numbers, the rodeo brought some distraction and relief – both of which were very much needed – to those from Joplin. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

GAC Tweaks Schedule for Upcoming Telecasts

Great American Country has pushed the upcoming telecasts of Seminole Hard Rock Xtreme Bulls events, presented by B&W Hitches, back half an hour from their previous timeslot.

The next telecast will be the Xtreme Bulls event from Reno, Nev. It will air on July 3 at 10 p.m. eastern time, with reairs on July 4 at 2 a.m. (ET) and July 10 at 10 p.m. (ET). The Xtreme Bulls stop in Cody, Wyo., will air on July 17 at 10 p.m. (ET), and again on July 18 at 2 a.m. (ET), July 24 at 10 p.m. (ET) and July 25 at 2 a.m. (ET).

The tour will then take a break on GAC until September, since there are no Seminole Hard Rock Xtreme Bulls events scheduled in July or most of August. The tour stop in Bremerton, Wash. – scheduled for Aug. 28 – will first air on GAC on Sept. 11 at 10 p.m. (ET).

GAC is available on Dish Network channel 167 and DirecTV channel 326. Cable subscribers should check their local listings for availability.

FEEDING PROGRAM: Omolene 200, Race Ready, Alfalfa Hay and grass hay, free choice, Sta-Sound, Platinum CJ

TACK: Old Circle Y Sports Saddle, Gordy Alderson Handmade Twisted Wire Gag bit

WHAT IS YOUR ROUTINE LEADING UP TO A RODEO RUN? I try to keep Worm on a consistent routine, he gets fed at the same time morning and night. I try to feed between 4:30 to 5:30 before most rodeos. Because he is young I try to get on a little earlier, especially where it is cool. I let him dictate how much time he needs before we run, I just go by feel if he needs more time I take more time, if he doesn't I don't. I try to be on at least 30-40 minutes before I run. I like to walk a lot before I lope him to make sure he is all loosened up. It just depends on the day how much we lope. I just kind of make sure he is paying attention to me, flexing both ways and such. He knows his job, knows when it is his turn, and so at that point I just try to stay out of his way, help him when he needs it and leave him alone when he doesn't.

DO YOU HAVE A SPECIFIC CONDITIONING PROGRAM FOR YOUR HORSE WHILE YOU ARE ON THE ROAD? I try to ride him everyday. Somedays that doesn't work due to the weather or travel. He is young and in good shape and feels so good so it is important to keep him ridden each day. I walk, long trot and lope depending on how frisky he is that specific day. I just try to keep him as mentally level as I can while we are on the road. Just like an athlete in heavy training, he needs to train some everyday.

WHAT LEAD YOU TO BECOME A BARREL RACER? It was bred into me. My grandfather was the 3rd person sign the petitions the Cowboys' Turtle Association (the forerunner to the RCA and later the PRCA). What way of living is better than being with your horse everyday and traveling around and seeing all the sites?

IF YOU WERE TO SHARE A TRAINING OR RODEOING TIP, WHAT WOULD IT BE? Set yourself some goals, make a plan, and do what you need to do for yourself. Don't worry about what everyone else is doing, take of yourself and your horse and do what you need to. There are going to be good days and bad days and take them all in stride. If you have a bad day don't beat yourself up just go on to the next day. On the other hand don't be to high on yourself after a good day either. It is easy to see someone else out there working their horse and think you better work your horse, but maybe your horse doesn't need it. Don't stress over things you don't need to stress about. You have done the training, you have done the preparation, have confidence in yourself. Go make your run and don't worry about what everyone else is doing. My goal is to go make a nice smooth run each time and not worry about anyone else's deal.

HORSE: Bogies Lil Skeeter “Skeeter”

FEEDING PROGRAM: Alfalfa twice per day, 3/4 scoop of whole oats and 1/4 scoop Omolene 200 once per day with Silver Lining Herbs Competitors Edge

TACK: Little S Hackamore, Martin Barrel Saddle that I won at an Elite Barrel Race, Bayou West Saddle Pad (The Hybrid)

WHAT IS YOUR ROUTINE LEADING UP TO A RODEO RUN? I haven’t been feeding him before I run because he seems sluggish, so I feed him after I run. He doesn’t take a lot of warming up, if I am on him too long before I run he just isn’t quite as snappy. I try to get on no more than 45 minutes before I run. It takes me 10-15 minutes to warm him up, then I stretch his front legs, then for a few girls before me I just walk him and then we are ready to run. If I get on too early, I will just get off and stand with him until it is time to get back on.

DO YOU HAVE A SPECIFIC CONDITIONING PROGRAM FOR YOUR HORSE WHILE YOU ARE ON THE ROAD? I have never really been on the road a whole lot so I don’t have a routine yet. When I am at home I long trot him a lot and once or twice a week I rope on him to keep his mind right and keep him in good shape.

WHAT LEAD YOU TO BECOME A BARREL RACER? I didn’t start out loving barrel racing. I just didn’t have the horses to consistently win at this level. I have always liked to run barrels but it wasn’t my favorite thing until I got a horse (Skeeter) that loved to run barrels. Roping was always my thing in high school and college until I started working Skeeter. He was easy to train and liked to do it. I really do love it (barrel racing) now, I think I have turned into a little bit of a barrel racer!

IF YOU WERE TO SHARE A TRAINING OR RODEOING TIP, WHAT WOULD IT BE? One thing that I had a lot of trouble with in the past is that I knew I was good but I would get somewhere and think everyone was better than me. If you know you are good and you know you can win, don’t let any of those negative thoughts enter your mind. I went into the College Finals knowing that my horse was good enough to win and I could win. I had to keep my confidence and not change my plans to win. If I would went in there trying to run him harder than normal just to beat the other girls, it probably wouldn’t have worked out.

SMART, SWEET & GOOD LOOKING

FLICK N COYOTE - 2005 Black 15.2 hand Gelding

Dr Meter Reader si 90-Shaka Flick si 105, No Brakes Now si 104

Wiley is a gentle, really broke gelding that will fit any age rider. He is running in the 2D and 3D and has the potential to be a 1D horse. He has been hauled in TX and OK and has already won slightly under $2500. He loves to run barrels and is a pleasure to ride, he spins, has big stops, counter arcs and bends any way you would want. Light and rides around in a Junior Cowhorse bit. His sire is a Stakes winner on the track and his dam is a Stakes winner who is also a track record holder. Wiley has a lot of personality and will be smarter than most of your friends! He loves people and would enjoy having someone dote on him. Would make a great youth horse or great for someone who just wants to have fun at the barrel races. Home Raised, $12,500

Headin' For Home

H4H Classic by Mike Morrison

Do you really trust God? I mean do you REALLY trust God? Do you believe God's Word and all the promises He made in the Bible? Of course, if you don't keep your word and do what you say you'll do then you probably won't trust God to do what He said He'd do. Numbers 23:19 tells us that God is not a man that He should lie. If God said it, you can have it.

God made a system in the earth and in us that will produce everything we need in this life with plenty to give away to help others. But we can't just lie on the couch and eat doughnuts all day and expect all good things to just be dumped in our laps. God expects us to do our part and He warns us over and over to steer clear of any strife, resentment and offense in our lives or His principles won't work for us.

God said to ask and we'd receive (Matthew 7:7) but many times people don't receive because they ask "amiss" (James 4:3). Maybe they're asking for something they shouldn't have or maybe they are just complaining about a problem.

Charles Capps said to pray the answer to your needs. Capps gave this prayer as a good example: "Father, in the name of Jesus, Your Word says that whatever I desire, when I pray, I believe I receive it and I shall have it. So I'm doing that now. I have given, so I believe that it is being given unto me--good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over. I proclaim that all my needs are met according to Your riches in glory by Christ Jesus. I can pray this, Father, because it is according to Your Word, and I know that Your Word works!"

Study God's Word. Pray about everything you do. Follow the leading of the Holy Spirit and you'll have good success!
