Commanding Performance for Kristi Steffes & Captain Mito Legacy at College National Finals

By Tanya Randall

Kristi Steffes completed her collegiate rodeo career with the 2016 College National Finals Rodeo Championship aboard her home-raised gelding Captain Mito Legacy.

"Each run it seemed like he got better," said Steffes of Captain. "I tried to keep the same game plan for all four runs. It just seemed like each run he got stronger and I got more comfortable. I think I got less nervous as the week went on."

Steffes and Captain finished second in the first go to Blue Mountain Community College's Jessica Lewis and Bogies Flashy Jet. They were 10th in the second go, which was won by 2014 CNFR Barrel Racing Champions Taylor Engessor and Cool Rowdy of Gillette College. Steffes and Captain took second again in the third round to the University of Arkansas' Abby Searcy and Dashing Wood Bar. A second place finish to Blue Mountains' Danyelle Williams and Sonny (grade) gave Steffes and Captain the championship.

The 21-year-old Black Hills State University senior and her 15-year-old equine were making their fourth and final appearance at the CNFR, held in Casper, Wyo. They had made the short go at the CNFR previously when Steffes was a freshman and just missed making the short go her sophomore year and hit a barrel to make it back last year.

Steffes, who is a few classes shy of finishing her degree in elementary education, began her college career at Gillette College in Wyo., and has spent the past two years at Black Hills State in Spearfish. She had rodeo scholarships to both schools, and also competed in breakaway roping and goat tying.

"It was a great experience," she said, wanting to thank her coaches at both schools – Will and Ginger LaDuke at Gillette and Glen and Shelly Lammers at Black Hills State.

Steffes went into the CNFR as the reserve champion barrel racer in the Great Plains Region.

"I only ran Captain about half of the college rodeos," said Steffes, who hails from Vale, S.D. At the remainder of her regional rodeos, she rode HH Three Little Pigs ("Bentley"), who belongs to the Hansen family of Dickinson, N.D.,-- her older sister Nikki's in-laws. "As Captain's getting older, I've really tried to be selective of where I run him."

Captain, who was bred by the Steffes family, is by the all-time leading living barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy out of Mito Silver Bell, by Captain Mito. Mito Silver Bell was her sister Nikki's high school and college rodeo horse. He also pulled a check or two for the elder Steffes on her NFR run in 2012.

French Flash Hawk "Bozo" - 1987 - 2016 Courtesy WPRA, by Laura Lambert

He was a World Champion Barrel Horse. He was an AQHA Horse of the year. He was a Wrangler National Finals Qualifier. He was a champion Derby and Sweepstakes barrel horse. His accomplishments are pages long. Most importantly though, he was a member of the family.

Kristie remembered, "He was the first thing Chuck saw in the morning and the last thing he saw every night. He was an important member of our family, and we loved him more than words can say."

"Bozo," as the world knew him took on life on his own terms. He was deemed an outlaw when the Peterson's purchased him as a two-year-old, where he was ridden in the feedlot. It didn't take long for an incredible bond to form between Bozo and Peterson. She knew everything about him and understood his independence. To her, he was so much more than a barrel horse.

"Bozo was meant to do what he did. He absolutely loved running barrels, in fact, I believe it was his passion. Competing made him happy and he always ran with his heart - every single run. He was independent his whole life, never needing or wanting much affection. He liked to be on his own and do his own thing but, when it came to running barrels, he loved to please," Peterson said. Not many of us will have the fortune to own a horse like Bozo and only a few will truly understand how much of a connection he and his owners had. He was a true champion that in keeping with his tradition, picked his own time to pass on.

"We were a little worried about him this year because he was 29 and we knew how hot it was going to be during the summer. He was so sensitive to mosquitos and bugs in general. With all the rain we were having we knew it was going to be hard on him. We had even considered taking him to Colorado with us this summer when we left, but we didn't know how well he would handle all the travel," Kristie said.

Bozo died peacefully at their home. He knew it was time and they did, too. He left an incredible legacy behind. It was him and his success that led the Peterson family to the Frenchmans Guy bloodlines. The family had also just decided to purchase a PC Frenchmans Hayday (Bozo's full brother) bred broodmare so that there would always be a little bit of Bozo on their place.

In a fast paced world where horses are bought and sold, traded, and people move on, Kristie Peterson and Bozo had that special bond where each loved and respected the other.

in-law Nikki and Alfred Hansen and the Hansen family. "I've been riding him about seven years now."

Steffes also qualified for the Badlands Circuit Finals last year on Captain and she hopes to do so again this year.

"I'll probably go to most of circuit rodeos again this year," she said. "I may venture out to a few bigger rodeos, but I'll mostly stay in my circuit."

She's got a busy week ahead of her with circuit rodeos in Granite Falls, Minn., Clear Lake, S.D., and Dickinson, N.D. Then she and her sister will head to Colorado for Pike's Peak in Colorado Springs and the Independence Stampede in Greeley on Monday and Tuesday.

Ripley and RR French Silk Pie Dominate Barrel Daze

The 5th Annual $6,250 added NutraLix Bakken Barrel Daze was a great success with fantastic weather. Over $20,500 was paid out over Father's Day weekend at the Richland County Fairgrounds in Sidney, MT. Over 300 runs took place on the fast standard pattern, which was WPRA, NWBRA, UBRA, UBRC, BBR, and OBRA approved.

The big weekend winner was Roxanne Ripley from SD aboard her great horse RR French Silk Pie with a 17.434 and a 17.365, winning the Open 1D and Seniors for a weekend total of $1,124.

Tisha Larson won the Sat Wrangler WPRA Sidepot on JL Indigo with a 17.710. Rayna Rice on Moonster Express with a 17.810 won the Sun Netzer Law office WPRA race. Saturday & Sunday's youth race was won by Sheyenne Jacobson from WY on Mia Ground Hog. The Futurity sidepots were won by TK Lawrence on the great youngster Beacon Crime. The Copper Spring Ranch Church race generated $500 to bless Louanna Woolsey.

A Special Thank you to our generous sponsors NutraLix, Copper Spring Ranch, Green Acres and Rodeo Rigs, Sidney TBID, KC Transport, Mitchell's Oilfield Services, Town Pump, Plains Horizon Equine Insurance, Netzer Law Office, Cattle-Ac, Rod Iron Grill, J3 Exploration, State Farm-Mike Morasko, High Plains Vet Clinic, Classic Equine, Cenex Harvest States and US Bank. # Smith & Dashes Centerfold Turn Up the Heat at Colorado Classic Futurity

By Hope Sickler

Well known barrel racer and horse trainer, Sue Smith, is known in the barrel racing industry for making a horse into a legend. With proper training, diligent care and a world of knowledge, Smith gives her barrel horses the best chance to succeed. Once again, history is replaying itself with 5-year-old Dashes Centerfold.

Not only were the temps hot this past weekend in Colorado Springs, Colorado at the 3rd Annual Colorado Classic Futurity, but Blackfoot, Idaho's Smith and Dashes Centerfold made two smokin' runs to edge out the remaining tough field of futurity horses to capture the futurity championship. With a 34.755 on two runs, Smith left Colorado Springs with not only a little bit of a sunburn but some deeper pockets and some very cool prizes.

"I was very impressed with the event and thought that it was ran and set up great by the producers. It is virtually the only outdoor venue for a futurity throughout a horses futurity year, which can be difficult for futurity horses, but the producer made the arena similar to the setup in Buckeye, Arizona and that seemed to help a lot of the horses handle the big outdoor arena," Smith explained about the event.

Prior to the Colorado Classic, Smith hadn't ran the 5-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Diamonds Tiny Effort in an outdoor arena, so she took her to a jackpot the Monday before the event and did some time-onlies on the mare to ensure that she would be ready for the following weekend.

"I was going to run her in slack at a circuit rodeo the week before but I ended up getting fouled with a couple of other rodeos, so I couldn't make the one I was going to run her at. I then took her to a jackpot and just eased her through to see how she felt and she felt outstanding. She doesn't look at much and really focuses on the task at hand."

Smith describes the classy looking sorrel mare as very business-like and one who takes her job very seriously. "Centerfold" as they affectionately call her, loves her job and it is easy to see that when she runs the cloverleaf pattern.

In the first round of the futurity, Smith and "Centerfold" had a bit of ground trouble which in turn caused Smith to ride more conservative than she typically does, but they still ended up placing 6th in the round with a 17.598.

"She really tried to work and still made a nice run but I could tell that the ground was just a little too loose for her," said Smith.

In the second round of the futurity, Smith knew she was going to have a nice run after "Centerfold" turned the first barrel.

"Once she turned the first barrel, I knew she was about to lay a run down. She was so snappy in her turns and I had a few people comment that her second barrel was one of the quickest turns that they had ever seen. Although I knew she was going to be fast, I don't think I was aware that we were going to be as fast as we were. I was astounded and so pleased when I heard our time."

As they crossed the timer, a 17.157 was read; the fastest run of the futurity and fast enough to put them in the driver's seat for the average, stallion incentive and the slot race.

"I am very fortunate to be able to ride a mare that makes my job so much fun. She is one in a million and I am very excited to see what the future holds for her."

Pay It Forward with Jill Moody

By Jill Moody

School is out for the summer and everyone is packing up and heading out on various rodeo adventures. As you drive through the main gate to the rodeo be prepared to enter suburbia cowboy style.

Whether you are staying for a day or for a week you are going to have neighbors and laws. The lines of the law get pretty blurry; sometimes in order to keep the peace you just have to be neighborly. It all comes down to being polite and considerate of those around you.

If you know the parking space is going to be limited build a pen for your horses not a pasture. When you pull in late at night try to keep the unloading process as quite as possible. People around you are trying to get some much needed rest; save the partying for the dance and the family disputes for inside the trailer.

Keep your horses penned or tied up. Your neighbor will not appreciate your loose horse drinking the bucket of water that they packed from a half mile away, or grazing on their hay in the back of the truck.

If a tied horse kicks your loose horse don't start pointing fingers if you want to get invited to the block party. Keep your dogs reeled in. Not everyone appreciates crotch sniffing and garbage raiding and not all dogs play well with others.

As for your kids, just keep them tied up (coming from the crazy dog lady who lets her dogs run wild)! If you have a problem with your neighbors kids politely talk to the kids and explain how throwing rocks at the tin building scares your horses before you start yelling at the parents. You might be surprised to find out that rodeo kids are pretty darn courteous and respectful if they are treated fairly.

Be considerate of the fairgrounds and the people left to clean up after you leave. Find a trash can or at least keep your garbage picked up and in a pile. Think before you dump waste water and sewage. You may think you're in the middle of a pasture but you neighbors will turn up their noses at you.

As you make the circle on the rodeo trail you will soon learn which neighborhoods suit you. More specifically you will learn who lives in what house and choose your neighborhood accordingly.

If you don't like dogs don't park next to the crazy dog lady. If you don't like kids opt for the dog lady. If you're not into toga parties avoid the empty lot next to Animal House. If you can't choose your neighbors, or even if you can, be polite and considerate and your neighborhood will be a blissful little cul-de-sac. Just make sure your rig will fit under the "Welcome to Cowboy Suburbia" sign.

*Jill Moody is a 2-time Reserve World Champion, & a 2-time NFR Average Champion. She and her great mare Dolly hold the second fastest average time over 10 rounds at the NFR. # McKenzie Morgan & In Firewaters Honor Capture All American Youth Championship

By Tanya Randall

McKenzie Morgan and her family-raised gelding In Firewaters Honor ("H2") picked up the 1D Championship at the All-American Youth Race in Jackson, Miss. They placed in both rounds and won the short go for $9,620.

"It was a lot of fun," said the 13-year-old eighth-grader from Marysville, Tenn. "I had always wanted to run a 13 (second run) there. This is only my second year to go to All American Youth. Last year, I got in the Top 20 but I didn't have the best weekend. I've always wanted to win it, so winning it was like a goal achieved. It was exciting."

Making the win more special was the fact that her family raised H2, who was bred by Morgan's late grandfather and mentor Danny McKee. He is by Firewater Special, a son of Fire Water Flit that the family owns, and out of Cachicka Bound, a daughter of the late barrel horse and sire Mr Honor Bound.

"They always say it's fun to win on one you made yourself," said Morgan, who wanted to thank her family and friends as well as Chad Hensley for all their help and support. "My whole family pitched in and made him. He amazes me. I'm very blessed with my athlete, for sure."

Morgan first caught national attention when she swept the NBHA Colonial Open and Youth in 2014 and qualified for the Semifinals of RFD-TV's The American. Tragically, she and her step-father had an accident en route to the Semifinals in 2015. H2 was pinned upside down in a sitting position for several hours.

"He was supposed to be out a year and he came back in three months," said Morgan, who credited Dr. Josh Harvey of Outlaw Equine with H2's recovery. "He was very, very sore."

This year, they returned The American Semifinals and advanced clear to the Finals in Arlington.

Morgan said she saves H2 for the bigger barrel races. She has the Mid-America Youth Barrel Extravaganza in New Castle, Indiana, this week and then H2 will get a break because he'd run quite a bit. In July, they have the No Bull Barrel Race in Decatur, Ala., and the NBHA Youth World in Perry, Ga.

BFI owners purchase RRITR

Corky Ullman and Daren Peterson of Ullman Peterson Events, LLC, have purchased the "One Day One Million" Reno Rodeo Invitational Team Roping (RRITR) and Ladies Only events from founder Perry Di Loreto.

The events have been held in Reno Nev., since 1996 in conjunction with the Reno Rodeo and the Bob Feist Invitational (BFI), which Ullman Peterson Events purchased from Feist in 2012. This year's 20th Annual RRITR on June 21-22 will again be operated by the Di Loreto family, and team ropers will experience the same high quality format, payoffs, cattle and staff they've come to expect.

"On the 20th anniversary of amateur team roping's most prestigious events, we are proud to announce our acquisition of the 'One Day One Million' RRI and Ladies Only events from Perry," said Ullman of Santa Ynez, Calif., who with his wife, Kristi, owns real estate in Hollywood and cattle ranches on the West coast.

The high-stakes #11 jackpot was the first amateur-only roping in this country to provide a purse of $1 million in just one day. Di Loreto's goal when he started the roping was to assemble the finest equally-matched amateur ropers in the country and provide them top-quality production staff, sponsorship from industry leaders, and unparalleled payoffs – all while also raising funds for charity.

In 2015, RRI champions Scott Leach and Jess Harris won $200,000 for catching four steers in 37.7 seconds, while 24 other teams also earned at least $7,000 each. Plus, the three-head average paid the winners $12,000, and each go-round of the roping paid $8,000 to win. In the Ladies' Only, champions Sissy Rieken and Jessy Rembsburg earned $30,000 for their time on four.

"The success of the RRITR has been most gratifying because we not only were able to take amateur jackpot team roping to the highest level money-wise, but more importantly because of the good causes we have been able to support in our community since 1996," said Di Loreto. "We cannot think of two finer gentlemen in the team roping world than Corky and Daren to now take the reins."

A real-estate developer for more than 40 years, Di Loreto took up roping when he was 47 years old. He won the Reno Rodeo Invitational in 2005 and purchased his PRCA card at age 55.

"Over the last 20 years, I can say the RRITR has been a "trifecta" win for me personally," he said. "My daughter Teresa and I have produced a successful nationally recognized invitational event, dedicating all proceeds to outstanding nonprofits. And then the thrill of winning the event with my partner David Faught – it doesn't get much better than that in the roping world!"

Ullman said he and Peterson feel honored to become involved in the legacy of Di Loreto, who in addition to being the producer of the prestigious RRITR, is also a successful developer, licensed airline transport pilot, founder of the Nevada Military Support Alliance, dedicated community philanthropist, and team roping champion.

"The acquisition of the 'One Day One Million' events made perfect sense for Corky and I," said Peterson, who works in residential and commercial construction in Franktown, Colo., and Cave Creek, Ariz., and who is an owner, with his wife Kami, of Longhorn Productions and Dynamite Arena. "Perry and his daughter Teresa have set the standard for amateur roping events. The RRITR's commitment to charity and the Nevada community is a true reflection of Perry and his family. We look forward to the next 20 years of RRITR and continuing to support the Nevada community."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I know that I know more today than I did when I was a baby. And you do, too. I also know that I will have more knowledge 10 years from now, and so will you. It's life.

That said, I know there are people my age that have more experience than I do in a lot of areas. Horse training, the medical field, rocket science, football, construction, communication. Hundreds and hundreds of things.

In 1 Cor. 12:4-7, it says, "There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God who works all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to EACH ONE FOR THE PROFIT OF ALL." Does this sound like we are all alike? Of course not!

I believe that God pointed out to me this week the value of other peoples' gifts. And I am pursuing in my heart to enjoy, and benefit from, those gifts. God's instruction to me was simple. I hope that you will consider it for yourself as well.

He said, "Stop listening to people, trying to hear what YOU know that THEY don't. ....and start listening to them to hear what THEY know that YOU don't." Ya I know, it's pretty humbling. But I know I'll be the better for having learned yet another great lesson on the road to being more like Jesus!
