Ashley Schafer & Full Siblings Born On Derby Day & Famous Cash Can Dominate Colorado Classic

By Tanya Randall

Ashley Schafer swept the Colorado Classic Open and Stallion Incentive Futurities and Maturities aboard 5-year-old full siblings—Born On Derby Day (“Derby”) and Famous Cash Can (“Albany”). Derby added her fifth and sixth futurity title with victories in the $8,500-added Horse Hair Analysis Open and $68,500-added Stallion Incentive. Albany pushed her career earnings north of $135,000 with wins in the $2,000-added Maverick Steel Maturity and $20,000-added Stallion Incentive.

The two mares, born just over a month apart, are from Joe and Carla Spitz’s powerhouse program. They are by NFR qualifier Freckles Ta Fame (“Can Man”) out of aged event champion KR Last Fling, by A Streak Of Fling.

“It was pretty incredible to get to do it on two full sisters like that,” said Schafer, who trains horses with her husband Seth outside of Comanche, Texas. “They’re such special horses. Their parents were two of the best horses that I’ve ever ridden and these are their first two babies. It’s pretty awesome to get to ride and to see it all come full circle.”

Having the Spitzs in the stands made the victories extra special. “They got to be in the win picture,” said Schafer. “We did one with the futurity and derby (winners) together. They hadn’t been to a futurity in years. I usually stop at their place (in Lamar, Colorado) when I come through to see them. They’re very busy people and don’t often get to go. It was really special that they got to be here for it.”

Futurity

Derby, who was purchased en utero by Schafer, collected $30,826 between the two futurities. The Open paid $5,800, while the Stallion Incentive paid $14,269 with an additional $4,823 going to the Spitz on behalf of Can Man. She also won the $500-added Anchor Roofing Open Slot Race for $2,229.

Schafer said Derby worked well in the first round and split second and third with a 15.538 despite some minor bobbles. “I couldn’t tell if she got a little hung up in the ground or if it was that I had been working her really round,” she said. “The next day I squared her back up a little bit and she was super snappy around the backside of her turns.”

They won the second round with the fastest time of the event, a 15.295.

“She was pretty much flawless in the second round,” she said. “She was just running hard and tried so hard for me. She’s so fun. She gives me everything she has every run she makes. I’m just so grateful to have her.”

Derby now has career earnings just north of $120,000. Her previous futurity titles include the Kinder Cup, Kinder Cup Breeders Challenge Qualifier—both running to the right barrel first—HHA’s Elite and the BBR World Finals after being switched to the left barrel first.

“She’s been incredible all year,” she added.

Maturity

Although she’s the older sibling, born on March 31 to Derby’s May 6, Albany followed in her younger sister’s hoofprints with a successful direction change on the pattern. Even though she had

Born On Derby Day “Derby” 14.3-15 h., 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Cameron Schoneberg lifter with square mouthpiece with chain in the middle

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Felt

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy Flexion on front, Classic Equine polo wraps behind

SHOEING: Rims on front, plain on back; shod by Seth Schafer

FEED: Fortify from D&D Nutrition

HAY: Grass, alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Forco, Mega Mag from MVP, Kahm CBD, Pink Himalayan Salt, Silver Lining Herbs as needed, NeutraBac pH

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: MagnaWave and cold salt water spa from WD Equine TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I have a 50 acre coastal field and I do a lot of my conditioning out there. I’ll slow work the barrels about two days a week. She’s to that point that I just have to keep her conditioned and I’ll lightly work her before we go somewhere to make sure she’s sharp.

SPONSORS: Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, Silver Lining Herbs, Forco, Summit, Equi-Boss NeutraBac pH, Schoneberg Performance Bits, Kahm CBD, Rock & Roll Denim, MVP, BetweenTheReins.us won nearly $100,000 as a 4-year-old futurity horse, Schafer decided to make the switch after tipping the second barrel both days at the Ruby Buckle Guthrie this past April.

“I told Joe that I thought I could be more consistent on this mare if I took her to the left," she said. "For the same purposes of switching Derby to the left, I just felt like I was a little inconsistent because they're a little flatter to the left. If I didn't ride them perfectly, I'd catch it coming into it or they'd get a little flat and step out. Joe said, 'Well, go for it!'"

Albany placed in the Royal Crown Waco Maturity and the Old Fort Days Derby in her first runs to the left barrel first. "It was a pretty instant fit for her," Schafer said. "It wasn't like she couldn't win the other way but it's so much easier to ride her that way. I loved it on both of them (Albany and Derby). I feel like it's helping them be more consistent and easier to ride. I need them to let me make mistakes. I'm not a perfect rider."

And The Rest

All totaled, Schafer ended up winning $66,952 at the Colorado Classic, not including any Triple Crown 100 or Future Fortunes bonus money.

She also placed fifth in both futurities with Robin Kuhnhein's Swoon Ta Be Famous, a 5-year-old gelding by Dash Ta Fame out of Frenchmans Guy mare, to earn $13,427.

"Swoon is such a cool horse," she said. "He's been so consistent all year. He just places along. Earlier in the year, he was catching bottom checks in the average, but the last four or five futurities I've been to, he's been third or fourth in the average. This weekend he was fifth. I love him. He's such a consistent horse. There's no surprises with him. He just makes the same trip every time."

The Spitz's 4-year-old French Streakoffame ("Summer"), by Streakin Boon Dox out of Famed French Kiss, by Dash Ta Fame, was sixth in both futurities to win $9,041.

"She ran the exact same time both days, a 15.712," laughed Schafer. "That was pretty cool." Schafer said the mare is really starting to come on now that she's finding her confidence.

"She's a 4-year-old and all the rest of mine are 5 so she's my youngest one and has been a little slower coming on because of it," she explained. "I kind of wait for them to come on and she just hasn't had the confidence that the 5-year-olds had. She's really starting to get the confidence so I'm really excited about that."

Nicole Schmidt's Makin Dark Money also picked up $1,720 after placing in the second round of both futurities.

"He just needs a little more help than my others so I don't always ride him the best," Schafer admitted. "I always tell his owner 'Thank you for being so patient with me because I don't always feel I do him justice!' The second round I rode him a lot better and set him up better and he ended up placing in the round." Schafer is headed home to work on her 2023 futurity hopefuls while her competition crew get a little break before getting legged up for the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming, this August.

She wanted to thank the Run For The Rose and Colorado Classic, which were held on back-to-back weekends in Montrose, Colorado, for being so accommodating.

"It's so awesome how they do it together like that," she said. "We don't often get to run in the same barn two weekends in a row like that. I thought it was helpful to have gone the weekend before to kind of feel out the ground and figure out the angles. They're great producers. Taylor Hildreth and Kayla Jones do such a good job. They're good friends of mine too so I'm happy to go up and support them and what they're doing for the industry."

She also wanted to thank the Spitz.

"They've been such great owners for me for several years," she said. "They gave me the opportunity to own Derby. That's just a dream come true for a futurity trainer. I'm so grateful for them and so happy they were able to be there."

Schafer also wanted to thank her helpers for the week, Alli Martin and her son Brayden, as well as her husband Seth.

"He's my farrier and started most of the colts that I'm riding," she said. "He's super instrumental in making everything function at our place. He's a huge part in all of it."

For those interested in Schafer's training and campaigning process, be sure to check out betweenthereins.us, the training website she hosts with Jolene Montgomery and Joy Wargo.

"We track all the futurity horses that I ran this weekend on the website," Schafer explained. "If people want to go back on the website and watch videos of them from last year and through the training process. They can become a member at betweenthereins.us and check those out."

$26,000 Weekend For Mattie Garrison & ML Holy Til Six at Bonus Race Finals

By Tanya Randall

Mattie Garrison had a rough start to the $65,000-added Bonus Race Finals, held June 14-19 in Shawnee, Oklahoma. She and her homebred mare ML Holy Til Six ("Fergie") had tipped barrels on their two prior runs. Early Sunday morning she had one run left to get things right.

"I had a little heart to heart with myself," said Garrison, a digital marketing manager for the convenience store chain QuikTrip. "I watched our videos and I was like, 'I just need to ride my horse! What are you doing? I need to ride my horse! Just go ride your horse!'"

That's just what she did as the second gunner through the gate, posting the fastest run of the entire week, a 14.908.

"I'm not much of a crier, but I cried multiple times," she chuckled. "I cried after our run. That was the first time I've been full-on tears after a run because I just knew. I knew as soon as I made that run and heard the time that we had a real chance to win this thing. That hit me pretty heavy."

The winning run on Father's Day brought even more emotion as Garrison's late father Ron Stantz, a team roper, was so instrumental in her barrel racing.

"I just hoped my dad was on the back of the saddle with me," she said. "I hope he got to come along for the ride."

THE RUNDOWN w/Mattie Garrison

ML Holy Til Six "Fergie" 15.1h, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Twisted wire D-ring no curb chain

SADDLE: Burns

SADDLE PAD: 5-Star Equine

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice

SHOEING: Barefoot

FEED: Purina Strategy

HAY: Alfalfa and Coastal Bermuda

SUPPLEMENTS: Purina Super Sport, a hoof supplement, U-Gard, Summit

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Chiropractic on occasion

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I'm not a daily rider. I try to get on her three times a week. I do quite a bit of slow work on her. To me, they don't get tired of it as long as you're not stressing them out. We keep our timing and muscle memory sharp that way. As far as conditioning, we have a nice big pasture, so I'll take her out there and trot her and lope her. Sometimes I'll breeze her. I do a lot of core strength work with her—a lot of asking her to pick her back up and really use herself. I'm a big believer in keeping the core really strong because it seems if they're stronger there it helps everything else."

THANKS: "There are so many people that make this possible. It takes a village, especially for us working moms! First, I want to thank God for more blessings than we can count and for watching over us. My husband and my dad for always being in my corner and pushing me to do what I never thought was possible. My son Jake, who cheers for me and tells me to 'go win $20!' every time we run. My amazing mom and mother-in-law, who help keep our house in order when we are away and come with us when it's possible."

Garrison also wanted to thank the amazing professionals who help keep her horses feeling their best—Pine Ridge Equine Hospital, Wendy Winn with Burns Saddlery, Hunter Washburn Equine Dentistry and Jody Wright with Summit JP

Rider/Owner/Breeder: Mattie Garrison

Although her husband Travis followed the live results on SGP to track the remaining 300 runners that day, Garrison refused to look until the very end.

"I don't want to look! I'm trying not to think about it!" she recalled saying. "That was a little nerve-wracking. I'm glad it was the last day because having to sit there through numerous days would be really nerve-wracking!"

By the last five runners, surrounded by her close friends, husband and 4-year-old son Jake, Garrison dared to look.

"When (SGP) said they were done, that's when it hit me all over again," she said. "The tears were flowing again. Honestly, it's still hitting me. I'll probably still be processing this for days, even weeks, after. It's just wild!"

Garrison ended up winning the 1,910-entry, $55,800-added Bonus Race for $6,749 and the high-stakes, 350-entry Ultimate Bonus for $18,900. She picked up $514 in day money Sunday and $232 in day money on her second horse ML Blazin Emma for total earnings of $26,395.

She just wished her dad was there to celebrate with her.

"One of the things I said was 'Man, I wish he could have been there for this!' He raised my mare and I trained her. It was just one of those moments that I wish he could have been here to celebrate with us."

A self-professed student of the game, Garrison started competing when she was 5- or 6-years-old. Never a rodeo girl, she chose instead to focus on local jackpots and the bigger barrel races.

"It's just something that I enjoy," she said. "I do it on the side. It gives me something to go do on the weekends. During the week, it keeps me active and gives me a reason to go outside. I like it like that. It brings a lot of joy to my life."

Garrison had help from friends and a few clinics through the years, but it was mostly her father helping her along the way until her husband filled his shoes.

"My dad and I started raising our own horses years ago," she said. "We liked it better, raising our own. It gave us a chance to know them better. There was a big difference in their demeanor and our ability to work with them and train them. They knew us better, I guess. I've actually been training my own for a while now, at least the last 10 years."

Fergie is out of one of the first horses that Garrison had trained. "Her momma was a very talented mare too," Garrison said of Frenchmans Fleet. "She was a little too excitable. She got a little too hot. Me being younger and inexperienced in the training-side of things, I think I brought her along a little too fast. I decided to breed her and give her a year or two off, and that's when we got Fergie."

Garrison had purchased Frenchmans Fleet, a daughter of PC Frenchmans Mark—a full brother to PC Frenchmans Hayday—out of ImaFleet, by Streakin Six, from John and Cindy Baltezore. She competed on the mare awhile before breeding her to the Baltezore's Dash Ta Fame stud Holy Bart.

Fergie's performance career almost never happened. As a weanling, she cut her right front foot in the fence and was left with a significant scar that still has to be managed to this day.

"It was almost a career-ending injury before she even got started," said Garrison. "We got lucky and she came through it just fine. She's got this really ugly scar that comes with some management but we've been able to keep her sound her whole life. We've always had to manage it and be aware of it. If there's one thing that's made her tricky that's been it, otherwise she's been just a fun horse to ride."

Josh Seeger started the mare under saddle for Garrison. "He did an amazing job," she said. "He even said when he started her that she has a really big move to her. She's always had that special big stride and a lot of power to her movement. He had her 45 days and he had her so broke and easy to handle. She's just always wanted to be a really nice horse."

Garrison said she's "pretty notorious" for starting her horses late and Fergie didn't start competing until the fall of her sixth year. Then the mare got a break for the birth of Garrison's son. In the fall of 2018, Garrison was able to start going steadily and Fergie really started shining the following year.

"The really big stuff has started to happen in the last two years," said Garrison. "A year before that was when she started doing really big things at the local races. 2019 was when she set her first arena record. She still holds it at Cross Bar Arena in Mounds. That moment was like, 'Ok, for sure, I've got something special here.' To see she still holds the arena record three years later is pretty cool."

Garrison is just grateful to have a horse like Fergie in her life.

"I'm just over the moon to have a horse like this and have the opportunity to go," she said. "When you bring motherhood into the picture, it kind of reduces your chances to go. You don't have as much time to get away and go do this stuff. We've had some people try to buy Fergie along the way and I just made the choice to keep her. She is one of those horses that if you had all the money in the world, you might not be able to replace her. I've kept her because I think this is a once-in-a-lifetime chance to go run a horse like this."

Accounting For Success -- Sadie Wolaver & Im A Sharp Frost Crowned College Champs in Casper

By Tanya Randall

Central Plains Champion Barrel Racer Sadie Wolaver added a national title to her resume with a four-run aggregate victory at the College National Finals Rodeo, held June 12-18 in Casper, Wyoming. The Fayetteville, Tennessee, native and her 11-year-old mare Im A Sharp Frost ("Princess") captured the title for Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) in Weatherford, Oklahoma.

"It was a whirlwind of a weekend," said Wolaver, who graduated in May with an accounting degree.

Wolaver and Princess placed no worse than third in all four rounds. They were second in the first two with runs of 14.26 and 14.24 and tied for third in the third round and short go on runs of 14.22 and 14.14. The SWOSU Bulldogs took ownership of the aggregate after the second round and never relinquished it. "She just really ran hard and pushed through her turns," she said.

THE RUNDOWN w/Sadie Wolaver

Im A Sharp Frost "Princess" 15.1h, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Rope nose combination "I actually bought her in that bit. The guy gave it to me. Very seldom do I ever change it."

HEADGEAR: Tiedown

SADDLE: Martin BTR — SADDLE PAD: 5-Star Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four — SHOEING: Aluminum

FEED: Purina Strategy — HAY: Alfalfa cubes and Bermuda hay

SUPPLEMENTS: Complete Equine Performance (CEP) has been a huge game changer for us.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT blankets, Back On Track boots, weekly equine massage, chiropractic care, MagnaWave, swimming at Complete Equine Performance in Muldrow, Oklahoma

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She's really easy. She doesn't really see the barrel pattern unless I think there is something that needs to be worked on. On the road, I try to just trot her around or lunge her with my other horse. I really just try to keep her loose. If it's a normal week, I'll give her a day off after a big weekend, but she normally gets ridden every day. Just 15 minutes of light work, no barrels."

SPONSORS: CEP, FlexiNeb, Territory Medicine

THANKS: Parents Joey and Jennifer Wolaver

"She didn't let the ground affect her. Consistent is the best way to put it."

A three-time CNFR qualifier, Wolaver first qualified in 2020, but the event was canceled due to COVID. Last year, she tipped a barrel in the short round at Casper to tie for the win.

"We were not going to do that this year!" she chuckled.

Wolaver said that Princess favors small pens.

"That comes from being from back East where all you really run in is small pens," she said. She likes small pens and she likes big crowds so Casper fits her pretty well. She loves to go show off a little bit."

She and Princess are starting to find their groove in the larger outdoor pens too. Before heading to Casper, they won the Woodward Elks Pro Rodeo in Oklahoma on a 17-second course.

"For the longest time, really up until last year, I didn't feel like I could run her in a big pen because we weren't experienced with it. Now she does pretty well," she added.

Wolaver and Princess have been a team since June 2016. She had qualified for the National High School Rodeos Finals, but her two barrel horses were injured, so Princess was an emergency buy from her breeders Brian and Lindsay Harper.

She said the David Beadle trained-daughter of A Sharp Frost, out of Comanche Lin, by Tino Silver Chicks, wasn't an instant fit.

"Honestly, she was probably way out of my style of riding when I bought her," she said. "She was a lot of horse for me. It really took a good year to become consistent. We had some good runs here and there, but it was nothing that stayed consistent."

Wolaver is a third-generation barrel racer, having followed her father Joey and grandfather Billy Joe into the arena. She started running barrels when she was just 4 and competed at jackpots until junior high when she took up rodeo.

"I kind of got my feet wet in junior high rodeo on through high school," she said. "Even those don't prepare you for what life is actually like on the road."

A three-time qualifier to the International Rodeo Finals for the International Professional Rodeo Association, Wolaver was the 2019 IPRA Rookie Champ. She filled her WPRA permit the same year. With COVID ruining the 2020 season, she got to defer her WPRA rookie year to 2021.

Wolaver is currently No. 41 in the WPRA World Standings with $18,034. She and Taycie Matthews, the 2022 CNFR Reserve Champion Barrel Racer, are buddying for summer run and were on their way to Reno, Nevada, at the time of this interview. If things go well, they should be out West until August.

Wolaver also hopes to be back for another CNFR. With the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association giving contestants an extra year of eligibility due to the COVID-forced shutdown in 2020, Wolaver will get an extra year rodeoing for SOKSU as a graduate student.

"We were just eight points shy of the team title in Casper," she noted. "It was really fun to be that close. Maybe we can get it done next year!"

If you are fond of a horse and wish to do him a real favor - train him well. Teach him good manners, good habits, both in the stable and under the saddle. You need never worry about the future of such horse if for any reason, you may have to part with him. You assure him of friends wherever he goes. Perhaps the greatest kindness you can do any horse is to educate him well.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We have 'a' roundabout here in Gillette. It's located a block off the main highway behind a popular restaurant. I've watched people run smooth over the top and middle of it.

If you want to experience what a real roundabout is though, you drive 3 hours to Billings, MT. It's exciting! Some people stop when they need to go. Some people keep going no matter what the sign says. And some just plant themselves and watch the action. They are afraid to move forward.

We were just through there on our way to do a meeting further north and I observed these things first hand. It brought to my mind the saying, "Lead. Follow. Or get out of the way!" Mike hates them for all the reasons I just listed.

Maybe, just maybe, if we read the drivers manual, the confusion would be gone. We'd know when to yield and when to go forward.

Friends, it's the same thing with our Bible. If we read it, we'd have the direction/ instructions on how to proceed. The Holy Spirit would lead us through while some get stuck and others are leaping ahead right into a wreck!

Our God is sooo good. Put His Word first place and let him help you navigate safely through this time we're living in!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
