Callahan Crossley & Brownie Bi Bogie Triumph at College NFR

By Tanya Randall

Blue Mountain Community College's Callahan Crossley and her gritty gelding Brownie Bi Bogie wouldn't be denied a second time. The 2014 College National Finals Rodeo Reserve Champions widened their three-run lead through the short go with the fastest time of the event to win the 2015 Championship.

At 17, Brownie has made an amazing 29 trips through the barrel racing pattern in the small confines of the Casper Events Center in Wyoming.

"My oldest sister (Jordan Minor) took him for the first time in 2008, and she ended up winning the all-around that year and it was a lot to do with all her barrel points. She ended up taking him four years. My other sister Jade she took him for one year and ended up third in the nation. I took him three years. My freshman year I hit a barrel. Last year I won second and this year I finally won first."

Brownie has only hit two barrels—once with Jordan and the once with Callahan.

"I can't really say he hit," she laughed. "I think we hit it."

Ironically, Crossley was a really worried about getting Brownie around the barrels this year.

"Before I went to the College Finals, I was so worried about him," she said. "He's been so cheat-y; I could hardly get him around the barrels. He would not run. That's not how he runs and I couldn't figure out why he wouldn't run. I could hardly get him past a barrel. When I got there (Casper), it wasn't even a problem. He was running free by them. I never even thought I would come close to one."

They were fifth in round one with a 14.23, third in round two with a 13.95 and split 15th in the third.

"My plan was to get around all three the first time," she said. "It was my slowest time but it actually looked like my best run. My second run was my fastest before the short go. You can never tell what your time is going to be on him. It's usually the same run every time, but the time is different. My third run, the eye didn't work, so they went by the back-up time, or hand flag. I honestly don't know what my time would have been."

Just .72 separated the top 12 barrel racers going into the short go, and Crossley had the lead by a single tenth.

"It was so close between everyone going in, I knew it was going to come down to a one-header—whoever did best in the round," she said. "Being last out, I had the advantage of hearing what everybody did, but I decided to block everything out and go make the best run I could make."

She won the short with a 13.72, the fastest time of the entire CNFR.

Feather River rodeo coach NIRA Coach of the Year

By Sonja Eschenburg, For the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association

Jesse Segura, from Feather River was selected as the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association's 2015 Coach of the Year.

Segura received the award at the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) held at the Casper Events Center on June 17. The competition started on June 12 and runs through June 20. Feather River has ten contestants competing here this year. In fact, Feather River has had student athletes qualify every year since the program was started under Segura's direction 10 years ago. His inspiration has come from real ranch cowboys. Growing up around Winnemucca, Nev., he has been around those cowboys all of his life.

"I liked what rodeo did for my friends," Segura said. "It helped me get my education and I wanted to stay involved. Coaching provided me that opportunity."

His intercollegiate rodeo background started at Lassen Community College at Susanville, Calif., and West Hills Community College at Coalinga, Calif.. Attending community college "cut down costs and helped get required classes out of the way. He later transferred to Cal Poly State University, San Luis Obispo (Cal Poly SLO) where he continued to college rodeo. In 2003 Segura was awarded the NIRA's Men's All Around Champion.

It is obvious Segura has good intentions for his students. He makes education a priority while encouraging success in the arena.

"I them to see the big picture and set up for the future instead of focusing on just right now," he said. "Students need to understand that even though class is important, it is not only about the letter grade, education is a long term commitment."

Segura knows finding the balance between school and rodeo "is tougher than any other college sport." A typical day of practice generally includes working from sun up until sun down. It gets a little crowded with 63 students, but the team practices every event every day. They have two arenas to work with so there is always something going on.

Courtney Wood, a second year agricultural business student at Feather River, is competing in this year's goat tying. Wood says the school's rodeo program is lucky to have Jesse because he always gives it his all. Jesse has made a huge impact on Wood's performance both inside and outside of the arena.

"He really cares about our future and who we are as people," she said. "But he never lets us forget to still have fun."

The mayor of Casper has also proclaimed Thursday, June 17 Jesse Segura Day in the coach's honor.

AHC Opposes Bills to Repeal Interstate Horseracing Act

During the annual American Horse Council (AHC) June meeting in Washington, DC, the AHC Board of Trustees voted unanimously to oppose legislation introduced by Senator Tom Udall (D-NM) and Representative Joe Pitts (R-PA) to repeal the Interstate Horseracing Act of 1978 (IHA).

"The industry is united in its opposition to these bills. The Interstate Horse Racing Act is the framework on which the present-day $26 billion horse racing industry is built," said AHC president Jay Hickey. "Repealing it would be devastating."

In 1978, Congress enacted the IHA to regulate interstate and off-track pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing. Tens of millions of fans enjoy horse racing and wagering on it. Pari-mutuel racing and the money wagered on it are the economic engines that drive and support the horse racing industry.

While the sponsors of the legislation suggest in releases accompanying the introduction of the bills that they will encourage the industry to develop uniform rules and penalties regarding drugs and medications in racing, unlike other bills introduced by Senator Udall and Congressman Pitts, the only effect of these bills would be to repeal the IHA and racing's exemption from the prohibitions of the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act, which regulates interstate wagering on the Internet. By doing this the bills would return racing to the way it operated in the 1950s and 1960s and cause great economic damage to the industry.

"The American Horse Council opposes both bills because they would have devastating consequences for the horse racing industry and the hundreds of thousands of Americans whose jobs are supported by the industry," said Hickey.

Bred by her uncle and aunt, Brownie is by Columbia River Circuit Champion and National Finals Rodeo Average Finalist Bogie Biankus. He is out of Chets Babe, by Chet Young 89'er out of a daughter of Leo Bar, who was a three-quarter brother to Flit Bar. (Flit Bar was by Sugar Bars, a son of Three Bars (TB), while Leo Bar is by Three Bars. Both were out of the great mare Flit.)

The best word to describe Brownie is "unpredictable."

"Everyone in my family has had a love-hate relationship with him, besides me," she laughed. "He doesn't let us bridle him from time to time. We have to undo it and put it on like a halter. He doesn't like men. He hates my dad. He doesn't like getting his back feet shod very much. He's just different. When you think he should be bad, he's actually very good. He's unpredictable."

Crossley and Brownie will spend the rest of their summer running at amateur rodeos and a select few pro rodeos in the Columbia River Circuit.

Ganter and Blazin Baby J Winners in Wainwright

With a line-up of world champions, Canadian champs, Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and Canadian Finals Rodeo qualifiers on the rosters of the two weekend rodeos hosted by Pro Rodeo Canada, it would be hard to believe that it was an 18 year-old, rookie barrel racer who would steal the show.

"I love it," said a jubilant Jackie Ganter, when asked about competing for the first time in Canada. "These was his (Baby J's) first runs back after injury and he came back unbelievably strong."

The Texan and her six year-old horse won the first round of the Wainwright Stampede in Wainwright, AB, with a time of 17.086 seconds. She then captured the championship during Sunday night's "Battle for the Buckles" finals with a total aggregate time of 34.553 seconds.

"He's a once-in-a-lifetime kind of horse," beamed Ganter, who graduated from high school just two weeks ago. "He's my first choice at the rodeos with the most money added."

This starts the craziness now. I've never done this (Cowboy Christmas) before. I'm going to get on a plane now for Reno and then I'll fly back for Ponoka on Friday and then I'll fly out and hopefully back to Ponoka (for the finals on July 1). We sat at a restaurant for two hours figuring out which horse to use where. But, it's fun."

The world rookie barrel racing standings leader also placed second at the Sundre (Alberta) Pro Rodeo for a total weekend haul of $7,569.

RODEO BIBLE CAMP

LESLIE WILLIS will be the barrel racing instructor at CSR's Rodeo Bible Camp. Willis and Championofthehouse (by Furyofthewind) won the Southeastern Arena and Lucky Dog futurities this spring and just this past weekend won the West Virginia Barrel Futurity. Aboard Brookestone Forever she won the Southern Rebel Futurity and BBR Futurity Slot Race. Willis' many accomplishments in the barrel futurity world also include winning $200,000 on two horses over 4 days in December 2007.

Bible camp cost is $300, food and lodging included. Campers may sign up for more than one event at no additional cost. Enrollment forms are at CopperSpringRanch.com. Scholarships are also available, please send us a letter requesting assistance. Other events will include steer wrestling, team roping (heading & heeling), tie down roping, breakaway and goat tying.

Girls On Fire at Colorado Classic Futurity

By Hope Sickler

Kelsey Lutjen is on fire with Tom and Vickie Stockton's home-raised little palomino 5-year-mare, TS Hayday Returns. TS Hayday Returns is by PC Frenchmans Hayday and out of Fair Returns by Complete Return. She and Lutjen have been having great success with one another and can add another championship title to their resume when they claimed the futurity championship at the Colorado Classic Futurity held last weekend in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

"I just got her (TS Hayday Returns) in March after Diamonds and Dirt in Texas. Darla Kennepohl trained her and did a great job with her. She has been really easy and I can honestly say that she loves her job. She absolutely loves to run barrels and she makes my job a lot of fun," explained Lutjen.

Prior to coming to Colorado, Lutjen spent some time working on getting the pretty yellow mare by the barrels, as two down barrels at the Dash N Dance Futurity held in Spearfish, South Dakota a couple weeks prior, cost her a lot of money as well as a new arena record.

"I hit a barrel in both rounds at Dash N Dance so I knew that I had to work on that before coming to Colorado, especially since the futurity got moved inside due to all the rain Colorado had been having. I don't work my horses much at home so when I got to Colorado Springs, I worked on big circles around each barrel during my exhibitions. She felt great during exhibitions and it really felt like she was moving out so I was looking forward to making our runs. She is extremely smart and however you work her before you run, is how she will work during her run."

Lutjen made two solid runs in the futurity and kept the barrels up which was her biggest goal for the weekend.

"She made two nice runs. We got by the first barrel both rounds but she is so gritty and doesn't ever quit moving that it didn't really affect her. I was very pleased with how both runs went. She tried her heart out," Lutjen said.

Lutjen posted a time of 14.862 the first round which was good enough for second place behind Jennifer Sharp and Calfee Stormy Dash.

In the second round, Lutjen stopped the clock with a 14.877 which placed her 6th in the round and totaled her two runs to an average time of 29.739, which put her first in the average.

In addition to their average win, Lutjen also finished third in the slot race that ran in conjunction with the futurity. Another palomino took home the win in the slot race; Buggin Ta Be Fab and jockey Jordan Bassett sealed the win with a 14.817.

"I am very pleased with how the weekend went. I knew what I had to do to get a clean run and we executed it. I am very thankful to ride such a phenomenal horse that literally gives me her all every single run she makes."

Lutjen collected a handful of nice paychecks totaling just shy of $4,600 for the weekend, along with a beautiful trophy saddle made by Cowboy Classic Saddlery donated by Leader Change, LLC.

"The saddle is amazing. I had been hearing great things about those saddles and had been wanting to ride in one so I totally lucked out winning the one at the futurity! I have already ridden in it and I am in love. I cannot thank Kelly Conrado and Leader Change, LLC enough. I also received a trophy pad from Pro Orthopedic Equine along with a fly sheet and some great gift certificates," said Lutjen.

"The futurity was a great one and very well put on." Lutjen is going to give the mare a break from the futurities for a while and plans to hit a couple rodeos this summer on her.

"She has been working so hard and doing so well that I think she deserves a break. After she gets a little time off we will try our luck at the rodeos and see how that goes.”

Kathy Korrell-Rach Collects at the Colorado Classic

Kathy Korrell-Rach and her homebred mare Smoke N Sunshine, 5-year-old palomino mare by Smoke N Sparks out of Runaway Frenchgirl by Frenchmans Guy, were the reserve champions at the Colorado Classic Futurity and also won the Amateur Division as well as the Stallion Incentive pocketing $5,915 for their efforts.

“I feel honored every day to get to throw a leg over Smoke N Sunshine. She is a special mare that clearly loves her job and is already one of the most consistent, talented horses that I have ever been blessed to have from my parents’ breeding program,” said Roch.

Roch was involved in a rollover accident the week before the futurity and lacerated her arm to the bone.

“Despite not being 100%, she (Smoke N Sunshine) more than made up for it and it is so nice to know that I can trust her to take care of things no matter what. It’s particularly special to win the Stallion Incentive since Smoke N Sparks has been a part of the Colorado Classic since its inception. It is surreal to be able to hang tough against the quality of competition that was there and I am elated to have done so extremely well.”

Chouest and RLJ High Intedsity Victorious at All American Youth Finals

By Hope Sickler

Only a couple months after their big win at the BBR Finals in Oklahoma City, Louisiana cowgirl Allie Chouest and her equine partner, RLJ High Intedsity take home another championship title, this time at the All American Youth Barrel Race held in Jackson, Mississippi.

Chouest and “Slick” as they affectionately call the 7-year-old chestnut gelding are no strangers to winning. Purchased back in 2012, Chouest and “Slick” have created a bond and a partnership that is showing to be strong and successful.

The dynamic duo made three trips around the cloverleaf pattern while in Jackson and while the first round didn’t go as planned due to a down barrel, Chouest regrouped and got the job done the last two rounds.

“We had a good run the second round and placed 10th in the round with a time of 14.098. I was very happy especially after hitting a barrel the first round,” explained Chouest.

Before the final round, Chouest and her mentor, longtime futurity trainer and jockey Talmadge Green, stepped away from everyone and put a game plan together.

“Talmadge and I took some time before I made our final run to talk about what I needed to get done. I am so thankful for Talmadge and his guidance. He has been so helpful and always knows what to say to get the job done. I have a wonderful support system and I feel very fortunate to have that surrounding me and “Slick.” Heading down the alleyway, Chouest knew what she needed to do in order to win. She put her trust in her horse, went for it and she got the job done! She stopped the clock with a smoking time of 13.814 which claimed her first in the 1D and the overall championship.

“I knew after rounding the third barrel that we were going to be fast but I didn’t know we were going to be that fast. That horse just amazes me. He gives me his all every time we run down the alleyway and I am so blessed to be able to jockey him. I am very excited to have won the All American Youth. I have been before but I have never won it so this win is pretty special to me and “Slick,” Chouest said.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In Proverbs 17:22 Amplified Bible it says, "A happy heart is good medicine and a cheerful mind works healing...." This is good instruction! So I'll tell a story on myself and we'll enjoy the benefits of a good laugh together and get some healing flowing for the day!

Mike and I are blessed to be able to travel ministering the Word and last summer we were invited to British Columbia. I pray a LOT before border crossings. They can be a breeze or they can be long, drawn out deals...ask me how I know.

Anyway, when we arrived at the border, this very buttoned up, strict young woman began the questioning. Why are you here? How long has it been since you were here last? How long are you staying? We are both answering her questions. (Though I do get concerned that Mike is going to say something smart).

Do you have more than $10,000 cash on you? No. No.
Do you have drugs in the car? No. No.
Cigarettes? No. No.
Alcohol? No. No.
Firearms? Silence. No. (Mike quits answering.)

She snaps, "Sir, why aren't you answering me?" "Because I thought it was redundant for both of us to be talking." "No! You both need to answer my questions!" She resumes.

Magazines? No. Ummm. Yes, I bought two quilt magazines just back across the border.

Silence. Everybody is looking at me. Mike rolled his eyes and said, "PISTOL magazines!"

She started laughing, gave us our passports..... and sent us inside.....

I'd like to think I made her day.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
