She's Back! VF Expensive Taste Wins Snake River Stampede For Abby Phillips

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier Abby Phillips and her great mare VF Expensive Taste ("Andi Anderson") returned to the winner's circle at the $41,000-added Snake River Stampede, held June 15-20 in Nampa, Idaho, after a 14-month injury hiatus due to a fractured hock.

"I feel like I'm riding her like I need to and I feel like we're becoming a team again," said Phillips, who pocketed $11,293. "It's perfect timing with all these big rodeos coming up. We'll just see what happens. I've got all the faith in her."

Although she's not certain when or what happened, Andi was diagnosed with a fractured hock in March 2025. After surgery Phillips opted to give her extra time to recover.

"When I looked at that x-ray I thought our career was over," said Phillips. "I know she's a very special horse, and she's given me her all to get me to the NFR. I felt like I owed her that in return with her comeback. I wanted to see her up for a long career. If I rushed it for her, or for me, it wouldn't have been right."

Instead of six months of turnout, Phillips gave Andi seven. And she started the mare's recovery with 90 days of conditioning. "I didn't even make a run on her until January, and I didn't rodeo on her much at the beginning," Phillips explained. "I wanted to bring her back slowly. Her health and well-being was my top priority."

When Phillips did start taking Andi to rodeos again the mare's strong will that made her a challenge to train from the very beginning resurfaced without focus. After a disastrous trip to Florida for late winter rodeos, Phillips knew Andi was physically ready, but she wasn't quite there mentally.

"Andi Anderson is definitely Andi Anderson," laughed Phillips. "Andi has been anything but easy her whole life, so her comeback tour was no different. We had to back off and get her attitude and passion back in check, get her doing things the right way."

"I had to go back to doing things like I did when she was young. She needed a little bit of hard work because I was treating her like she was fragile, and she's not fragile at all when it comes to being strong willed."

Phillips, who calls the Wilderness Circuit home in spite of living in Marshall, Texas, left for the summer early to get Andi back in the outdoor pens. She had three circuit rodeos at the beginning of June.

"I came out early because it had been over a year since she's been here with the outdoor Standard patterns. The ground was going to be different for her, and I wanted to get her used to it again."

Then two weeks ago, the pair started really gelling again.

"Driggs (Idaho) and Sisters (Oregon) is when she finally started to catch fire," she said. "She's won checks everywhere, but they were just lower checks. I could tell she was close, but she wasn't exactly firing like I know she can. I knew it was just a confidence thing for her. It was something she needed to find again. Sisters was the first big check she got this summer. She was fourth. That's where it clicked for me. I knew that she was starting to catch her confidence."

Phillips went into Nampa, the biggest indoor rodeo of the summer run, in good spirits.

"I knew that was a place she likes," she said. "I think even for myself mentally, I knew it was time for me to be OK and call on her or ask her for it. Before I was just sitting back and letting her build her confidence making smooth runs. Nampa was the rodeo where I told myself that I needed to change my mindset. Now it's time for me to ask my horse to win."

Andi responded to Phillips' request with three solid runs.

"She made great runs," she said. "She's showing me that she's right there. I honestly think she needed me to ask her a little bit."

Phillips is entered up over the summer. She said she knows that it would take a "Hail Mary" summer to qualify for her second NFR. While she believes her horses—Andi and VQ Im Buzzed ("Big P") are capable of it, that's not something plans on asking of them.

"When I left Texas my goal was to make my circuit finals and get back into the winter rodeos," she said. "Andi has already smashed one of them. She's probably got the circuit finals made for us. Now, we've got our eyes on some bigger goals, but we're going to keep them realistic. If she keeps winning like she is and is happy and Big P keeps winning and the team is happy, we're going to keep riding the train. If that seems like it's too far of a stretch, we'll be happy getting into the winter rodeos."

RODEO NOTES:

Thompson and Lambo Beat Tough Field of Youth Competitors at the All American Youth

By Julie Mankin

When the dust settled on the wicked-tight finals of the All American Youth on June 17-20 in Shelbyville, Tenn., only nine-hundredths of a second separated the top five.

Josie Thompson's 15.016 on Ty and Mary Ethridge's 6-year-old gelding Its Eazy Bein Famous ("Lambo") held on to claim the $8,000 first-place check by a scant eight-one-thousandths of a second over Braia Vogel's 15.024.

"He likes that pen a lot," said 16-year-old Thompson of Cooper Steel Arena, where she clocked a 14.7 in November to win The Mega by almost three-tenths on Lambo for $7,018. "He's done good there almost every time we've taken him."

Thompson of Decatur, Tenn., is in her second full season riding Lambo. In Shelbyville, the pair raked in $12,604, including Open monies and the Teen sidepot.

"He runs really hard and gets really low in the turn," Thompson said of the little bay with the big ego that she took to futurities last year. "This year he's gotten a lot more seasoned and consistent, and just matured a lot."

She placed second to 20-year-old Vogel, who was riding a 9-year-old grandson of PYC Paint Your Wagon, all weekend. In the first round, Thompson's 14.977 placed second to Vogel's 14.976 for $1,371. An even faster 14.886 placed Thompson second again in the second round behind Vogel's 14.796 and put her second in the average for another $1,046. Vogel's mount stumbled badly in the finals. Thompson was surprised Lambo's 15-second run won, but she was super proud of his three consistent runs with no exhibitions.

"We plan to season him at more rodeos this summer and get him more solid," said Thompson, who won a round of the International Finals Rodeo on Lambo in January and plans to haul him soon to the NBHA Youth World.

Lambo was bred by Jan Iberlin and her daughter, Kortney Scheer. He's by Eddie Stinson and out of the Frenchmans Guy daughter Frenchmans Eazy – a mare out of Our Blue Velvet, by Perks Alive out of a granddaughter of both Easy Jet and Rocket Wrangler.

In Shelbyville, Thompson also placed seventh on FamousJeff for $1,013 and got some 2D checks on TTFamousSparky for $925, giving her an All American total of $14,542. She and Lambo had actually placed seventh at last year's All American.

"We had one other horse of Mary's that was by Eddie Stinson and we really liked him," said Thompson. "And we really like Lambo, so we bought a yearling that's a three-quarter sibling to him."

She and her mom (Lacey), a former kindergarten teacher, ride or train about 15 horses per day, said Josie, who is home-schooled and will be a junior. Her Dad, Craig Thompson runs an equine facility in Cleveland, Tenn. The mom-daughter combo are campaigning a futurity horse this season and have one they're preparing for 2027. Instead of high school rodeos, Josie competes at IPRA rodeos and is working on making her sixth IFR this winter.

Cheers -- Devin Young & Jettin To Docs Bar Top College National Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Texas A&M University's Devin Young and Jettin To Docs Bar ("Tequila") dominated the College National Finals Rodeo, winning the barrel racing championship by nearly a second in a four run aggregate.

The rising sophomore biomedical sciences major from Rosanky, Texas, and her 12-year-old gelding finished .72 seconds ahead of Northwest Mississippi Community College's Reagan Chance and A Rose In Bloom.

"I've had Tequila going on eight years now, so I feel like I know him pretty well," said Young, who finished sixth in the Southern Region and made the trip to the CNFR, held June 16-20 in Casper, Wyoming, as part of A&M's women's team. "I knew I just needed to push him with the barrels so close to the fence. Really my only game plan was to push him and let him turn."

Young and Tequila, who was named AQHA/NIRA Women's Horse of the Year, were second in the first go to defending collegiate champions Acey Pinkston and Streakin French Bullet. They topped the second and third rounds. Their Aggie teammate Ceily Simpton and her horse Twist Off Fame got them by a nose in the short round.

"In the first round, he went in there and totally blew us away," said Young of Tequila's performance. "He smoked a run, and then he just stayed perfect after that. I was very happy with how we ran this week."

A&M's domination in the barrel racing—Young's championship plus Simpton's third-place finish and McKinlee Paschal's fourth-place finish on her gelding DDD Shownestrekname—coupled with Lucy Richard's placing in the goat tying gave the Aggies the women's team title.

Young and Tequila have basically grown up together. She was just 11 and Tequila only 4 when their partnership began.

"I was competing at a local playday, and a judge, who was flagging there, asked us if we would help him and his wife sell a horse. He didn't work out as a breakaway horse. They tried to sell him for $5,000 and couldn't, so they wanted someone to ride him around at the youth rodeos so people could see him."

Although Tequila had been started on the barrels, he quickly got up to speed with Young. A year later, they won their first of two back-to-back Texas Jr High School Rodeo State Championships in 2019 and 2020. They were reserve champions in 2021.

Moving into high school, they qualified for Nationals her first two years and then won the Texas High School Rodeo State Championship in 2024. They also made it all the way to the final four at The American that year.

"We'll give Tequila a well-deserved break," she said. "We might go to some barrel races. We like to go to the bigger races in Texas and Oklahoma."

Her main focus however is school. She hopes to attend pharmacy school, so college rather than pro rodeo will remain her focus.

"With my major, I need to stay down here during the year," she said. "They don't offer many online classes. Once I get in a com-

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I try to keep him really good shape, especially coming up here (to the CNFR). I knew it was going to be a long week. Usually, we're not in the arena. We have a lot of land, and I like to just get him out and moving around. We usually walk 10-15 minutes, trot 15 minutes and lope 5-10 minutes.

THANKS: To her parents Tab and Amanda Young, grandfather Carlos Wilhelm, Doug Hollar, who owns Tequila's sire and broke him to ride, and the Aggie rodeo sponsors Wrangler, Yeti and Resistol.

fortable spot, I would love to (pro rodeo). I think Tequila would do great, and I have another mare, who is doing really good, that I think would work really well."

SHAKE THE TREE

A lot of people glance at Devin Young's Jettin To Docs Bar ("Tequila") and easily assume he's "cow" bred because of his size and build. While his initial calling was supposed to be as a rope horse, Tequila has proved to be a champion against some of the leading barrel bloodlines.

His sire is Rosey Joe Doc, a son of NCHA World Champion Sire Son Ofa Doc. Rosey Joe Doc is out of a granddaughter of Magnolia Bar, sire of Lynn McKenzie's WPRA World Champion Magnolia Missle.

Tequila carries speed through his tail female line from siblings of legendary horses. His dam is Jettin In Rosebuds, by Rosebuds Boy Cody, and her dam is Wish I was A Jet, a race winner bred by the late actor Powers Booth (perhaps best known as Curly Bill in Tombstone).

Wish I Was A Jet is by Jet Toro, a full brother to the legendary Easy Six, who was the sire of WPRA World Champion Sire Streakin Six and the significantly influential Six Fols, sire of Marthas Six Moons and World Champion producer Baby Blue Jeans.

Tequila's third dam is the race winning Secret Wish, by Dandy Bar. Her dam is Barred's Belle, a sister to Miss Night Bar, the dam of the immortal Jet Deck.

Champions crowned at 2026 College National Finals Rodeo

After finishing as college rodeo's reserve champion bareback rider in 2025, Kooper Heimburg of Missouri Valley College got the title that he has been working for, but he had to share it.

The bareback riding at the 2025 College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) has been extremely tough and close through the first three rounds of competition. That continued in the final round where the top three athletes were separated by just two points. During the final round, Tarleton State University freshman Daxtyn Feild rode Sankey Pro Rodeo and Phenom Genetics horse Lewandowski's Shoutin' Shoes for 85 points, the highest of the night.

Feild started the night in third place but that 85 put him in the lead. Then Carson Hildre from Clarendon College and Heimburg rode. When it was all said and done, all three athletes tied for the championship with a total score of 326.5 points on four rides.

This was Heimburg's fourth qualification and last time for the San Tan Valley, Arizona, athlete to compete with college rodeo's best. Feild, from Roosevelt, Utah, is following in his uncle Kaycee Feild's footsteps. The older Feild won the title here in 2008 before going on to win six world championship buckles in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association. Hildre is from Velva, South Dakota and is also making his first appearance for the Texas college that has produced several collegiate champions.

Tie-down roper Tyler Hansen started his CNFR strong and finished the same way. The senior at Bismarck State College in North Dakota earned the championship with a total time of 38.3 points. Hansen, who is from Killdeer, North Dakota, also qualified for the Finals in the Ford Wyoming Center in the team roping.

In the breakaway roping Jessi Everett, a native Texan attending Texas Tech University, rose to the top. Everett had a total of 9.9 seconds on four runs for the championship. The communications major is competing in that event in the Women's Professional Rodeo Association and making a career for herself with her own social media agency.

Tagg Bond made history in the saddle bronc riding earning the top score in every category. He won the three preliminary rounds of competition. The Clarendon College athlete from Eden, Kansas, came into the final round as a favorite to win the championship. Then, he won the final round with an 85-point ride. His total score of 340 points earned him the championship by a whopping 17 points. His domination in the bronc riding also earned him the Men's Rookie of the Year title.

Clarendon College won their third and final individual title in the steer wrestling with Andrew Morian from Gardnerville, Nevada. This is Clarendon's first championship at the timed-event end and it helped them win the men's team title. Morian had a substantial lead coming into the finals and a fourth-place finish Saturday sealed the deal. He had a total time of 17.1 seconds for the win.

The goat tying has been close all week and it finished the same way. Josie Mousel had a slight edge coming in, and kept it with a 6.4-second run in the finals. She had a total time of 24.4 seconds to earn the championship for the University of Wyoming. Mousel is a junior who will return to Laramie in the fall to finish her degree in ag communications. She also earned points here in the breakaway roping and took the women's all-around title.

The Northwest Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association took home the team roping title with Marcus Marriott and Sam Saunders. Marriott is a sophomore from Canby, Oregon, who is attending Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, Oregon. He did the heading for Saunders, who is a freshman at Treasure Valley Community College in Ontario, Oregon, not far from his hometown of Homedale, Idaho. They stopped the clock in 4.4 seconds in the final round to give them 23.1 seconds on four runs and the championship.

The women's barrel racing champion is a Texas A&M Aggie who didn't place in the final round, but was consistent enough throughout the competition to win the title. Devin Young, a freshman from Smithville, Texas, who plans to go to pharmacy school, had a total time of 55.0 seconds. Young also helped carry the Aggies to the Women's Team championship and was named Women's Rookie of the Year.

The bull riding title was won by an Odessa (Texas) College athlete, but Wyoming fans were on their feet cheering for one of their own. Hayden Welsh grew up near Gillette, Wyoming and while he is following in his father, Bobby Welsh's footsteps, his

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are comforts in our lives that are special to each of us. I love old denim jeans, the smell of sagebrush, puppy breath, babies and horses. Not necessarily in that order. Guys may enjoy a 454 engine, a John Deere tractor, or their favorite fishing hole. And even when you've been away from them for a while, when started again, they are easily picked up. . . .like there hadn't been an interruption.

When my mare got hurt early last year, it put an end to the barrel racing. I had lots of young ones to ride, but there wasn't any traveling. Bummer of a year. So when I finally got entered in a barrel race last weekend, for some dumb reason I was really nervous.

I even had thoughts that I might fall off!! The first day was weird. My mare was nervous. Couldn't even hold a lead. I felt like a newbie. It didn't go real bad. We were in the 8D I think. LOL!

But the next day, we both relaxed and enjoyed the day. Our time was faster. Made it to the 7D! But I loved being there! It all came back and was enjoyable.

I know that sometimes we walk really close to the Lord. We read our Bible, we pray, we go to church. But then, the devil gets us distracted with life or problems and we drift away. A slow move away from the Lord, just trying to manage on our own.

But then, one day, we realize that we are swimming upstream and we look back to God. When we do, He's right there waiting to help us. We pick our Bible back up, we pray and get our bottoms back to church! When we do, things start falling back into place and turning around to go the right way.

Pressure comes off and we enjoy the journey with Him! It's the best place to be.
