Chouest & VF A Sporty Design Score an $8,000 Win

By Tanya Randall

Max Chouest saved his best horse for last—the aged event champion and pro rodeo money earner VF A Sporty Design—to win the $8,000 1D Championship at the All American Youth, held June 20-22 in Jackson, Miss. Chouest, an 11-year-old from Cut Off, La., rode four horses and a pony to total weekend earnings of $13,757 at the $28,000-added event.

He started out the event qualifying Diamonds & Dirt Futurity Champion DTF Way Ta Fire for the finals with a ninth-place 1D run his first time ever on the 4-year-old Chasin Firewater-Dash Ta Fame gelding's back. He also qualified 5-year-old The Riverboat Gambler when he placed in the 2D.

Following the directions of Talmadge Green, Chouest rested the 4-year-old and improved his performance on the 5-year-old that ran out nearly $30,000 in futurity earnings with Green last year by winning the second round.

"I was one of the last people to ride," Chouest said of his run on Riverboat. "When I went through the gate and he snapped the first barrel, I was like 'Oh God.' He had a good run."

The second go victory on Riverboat, a Carrizo gelding out of Shesa Prissy Gambler, by Raise The Gambler, put Chouest at the top of the 2D with his favorite horse Smart Lil Spade, a 7-year-old gelding by Smart Lil Traveler out of Miss Judi Locks, by Mr Matlock. He also managed to qualify his race pony—Catch Me If You Can, that ended up 2nd in the 2D Pony Average, in the 5D.

Up to the Finals, Chouest hadn't placed on Sporty, an 11-year-old gelding by Designer Red out of Skidmores Tiny Hope, by Gonetruckin. He hit a barrel in the first round and had the 19th fastest time in the second.

"It was actually better than the run I made when I won on him," said Chouest of his qualifying run on Sporty, "but I was last on the drag right after a big drag."

With five horses back in the finals, the youth was feeling the pressure to do well.

"I knew I had a good chance going into the finals, but I wasn't sure about it," said Chouest, who started barrel racing two years ago, thanks to his sister Allie's interest.

Green, who knew his very competitive young charge was too concerned with the leading times, told him just let his horses work and that he had all the horsepower in the world underneath him to win.

"I told him if I was running with a $1 million dollars on the line," said Green, "you're on the one horse I'd want to be on."

Chouest and Sporty turned in the fastest time of the event, a 13.932, to win with just 14 horses left to go.

"He had a good first and second but he kind of blew off the third," said the youngest son of Dino and Joan Chouest, "and I didn't think he was going to have that good of a time."

For Green the time was no surprise. When he first started working with Max and Allie, Dino Chouest asked him if he could have any horses out there, which one would it be and why. VF A Sporty Design was Green's answer.

"That horse didn't get the credit he deserved as a futurity horse. He was as good a horse as there was out there. He carried my weight and won Old Fort Days across the board and won the last Speedhorse in Oklahoma City across the board. I told Dino that horse carrying Max's weight—if he gets a decent run, they can't out run him."

Sundre, Alberta Canadian Pro Rodeo Rescheduled

The second scheduled CPRA rodeo for this past weekend, the Sundre Pro Rodeo, was postponed due to the flood conditions that have prevailed in much of southern Alberta through recent days. Sundre has been re-scheduled to August 23-25.

The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth Will Go On

The Stampede Park in Calgary, Alberta, home of the Calgary Stampede, was recently covered in flood waters that affected many areas in Southern Alberta; however, the show must go on so according to their Facebook updates, the Stampede will continue on as schedule on July 5-14, 2013.

This is the statement posted on the Calgary Stampede Facebook page: The Spirit Of This City Cannot Be Washed Away

As floodwaters recede, community spirit continues to run high. The power of people is rebuilding this community--along with Stampede Park. Our dedicated volunteers, employees, sponsors and other community partners are giving uncounted hours to restore our city.

Southern Alberta's floods have taken their toll.

Many communities have been in the water's path. People have suffered great losses. As we rebuild, our thoughts are with the people touched by this catastrophic event. As we prepare to welcome you through our gates, we are once again reminded that the people of this community are at their greatest together.

Combs Making Great Recovery

While Liz Combs was saddling her great horse Skeeter (Bogies Lil Skeeter) to compete at the Reno Rodeo, he spooked and as she was trying to untie him he jumped and pushed her against the trailer. She sustained a head injury which required surgery.

Here is the latest update from Liz Combs via Facebook which sounds like encouraging news:

"Hello, I thought I would give everyone an update! I am doing so much better today and it is obvious that it is only by the grace of God. I have never felt more blessed than I do right now. Even the doctors cannot believe the recovery I am making after such a bad bleed. I have absolutely no brain damage!! God is so good and I am counting it all joy. Thanks to my great friends Emily (Efurd) who called 911 right away and essentially helped save my life. Jesus has been taking care of me. I should move out of ICU tomorrow. Thanks again everyone for all the prayers!"

Our thoughts and prayers are with Liz Combs and her family as she continues to recover.

Rayna Rice Rocks Bakken Barrel Daze

Over $14,600 was paid out at the 2nd Annual KC Sandcastle, LLC Bakken Barrel Daze. After a previous night's rain and days of prior rain, the barrel race came off wonderfully. A beautiful day encompassed the Richland County Fairgrounds.

Much work on the ground made for fast runs and a great payout for the 175+ entrants. Past NFR qualifier, Rayna Rice shined brightly with her two young horses. Winning over $1,360 for the afternoon, Rice and A Streakin Easy by A Streak Of Fling, won the Open 5D for $585.

The Youth sidepot sponsored by Barkan Backhoe & Trenching was won by Paige Moore for $358 aboard HC Docs Berts Money. The Futurity sidepot sponsored by Lee's Tire was won by Rice for $129 aboard RB Firewater Fortoe. The WPRA sidepot sponsored by Netzer's Law office was won by Rice for $277.50 aboard A Streakin Easy. The Senior Sidepot sponsored by PJ's Auto Glass and Radiator was won by Vicki Gilje for $192 aboard Ima Bay Gourmet.

Generous sponsors KC Sand & Transport, Chaznline Construction, L & T Enterprises, J & L Pitliners, S/L Services along with Sonda's Solutions, Mitchell's Oilfield Service, Enerstar, Plains Horizon Equine Insurance, Cattle-Ac, High Plains Vet Clinic, Prewitt & Company, State Farm-Mike Moraski, Equibrand, and South 40 are what makes and event like this possible.

A Special thank you to Sunrise Equipment, Mike Steffans, J & L Pitliners, and Park & Rayna Rice for the use of their equipment. We look forward to an even bigger event in 2014, with a lil less stress from Mother Nature. Thanks for everyone's support.

Bass and Cowboy Dan Win Wainwright for $5K

By Julie Mankin

Anyone in Canada last week needed a mudder to win money. After torrential rains slammed Alberta, some rodeos were completely cancelled and others were buried under virtual lakes of water. Luckily, Kaley Bass' horse was raised in Florida and is accustomed to rain.

Twenty-year-old Bass won the first round at the Wainwright (Alberta) Stampede by almost a tenth of a second aboard Wonder's Cowboy Dan, placed third in the average and nailed the average title on June 23 along with $5,190

"It's been raining like crazy and flooding everywhere," said Bass. "It had rained just enough for the first round that it was fast, though. My horse felt really good. He likes the mud. When we came back for the short round, it was a lot slower and boggy, but it wasn't unsafe."

The 13-year-old gelding "has a lot of try" and handled the soggy conditions well despite being last out on the ground in the top-10 finals. It's a big win, coming on the heels of a slower-than-usual winter season for Bass.

After 10 days at his first NFR in December, Cowboy was a little tired and still sore, she said.

"The new year rolls right in after the Finals and a horse doesn't get much of a break," she said. "During Christmas, I drove straight from Vegas to Florida to spend a few days, then drove back to Texas and then to Denver. It was a lot of hauling and I felt bad for him."

So Bass decided to give Cowboy a break and stay in Texas instead of hauling out to California this spring. The well-deserved rest is showing; she's clocking faster in Canada than she did last summer. Bass has had Cowboy since he was 3, and trained him along with her sister, who was the first to compete on him. However, the two would squabble over who got to run him, so their father went out to find another horse just like him.

They bought Cowboy's full sister, Girl Pal Wonder, which settled the feud several years ago (both horses are gray and came out of S'Belle Dymmek's breeding program). By Wonder's Pal by Wonder Otoe, the two are out of a half-thoroughbred mare named Jackie's Cowgirl Bar.

And now Kaley has both brother and sister in her trailer for the big Fourth of July run with traveling partner Alicia Stockton – a New York native who lives now in Stephenville, Texas. They'll skip Greeley, since the short round is over Calgary, but will hit most of the others, including Cody, Livingston, Red Lodge, St. Paul and Molalla.

"Alicia and I are going together like we did last summer, and it's been fun," said Bass. "She's doing great too; she made the short round at Wainwright and has a great horse. I see her and I having a great summer."

In the meantime, Bass is more than a little excited to compete for the first time at the Calgary Stampede, where she's up in the first bracket. As of this week, the Stampede Grounds were completely under water, but she's not worried.

"We've been hearing things up here that they have it all figured out as far as how to drain the water and get it started on July 5 like normal," said Bass, who would be a great bet to win in wet ground at Calgary. "I don't want my horse swimming, but I sure don't mind a little mud."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Over the years, I have learned many things about God. There have been things that I argued against only to find in the Bible that I was wrong! (Perish that thought!!!) And the older I get, the more I know that I don't know A LOT! But I have come to the knowledge that it is of vital importance to put the Word first, last and in between. Just being obedient to what God tells me in the Bible and not let anyone's opinion or perspective sway me off what HE says. You know what I mean. There are FACTS and there is TRUTH!

For instance.....my grandson, Cody asked his Papa Mike how old he was. Mike said, "I'm 61". Cody said, "Papa, you look like you are 50!" (What a compliment!) Then he turned to me and said, "Grandma Sherry, you look like you are 69!" Sigh.....the truth is, I am not 69!!! (No laughing here!) But in Cody's eyes, I look older than I am and Mike looks younger than he is!

That's reasonable to Cody because he doesn't know the truth about our ages, but it LOOKS like to him we are the ages he thinks we are. It's reasonable to some people that God tests us and tries us to find out what we are made of. Read James 1:13. God doesn't tempt anyone. When we are at a loss to explain the too soon home going of a child or loved one, we lie and say God took them. Read John 10:10. Jesus came to give us life (not TAKE it). When a symptom of sickness comes on us, we expect to go through however long it takes to get better and we gut it out. Read 1 Peter 2:24. By Jesus stripes we are healed! NOW!

I encourage you this month to take the Word of God into your life and USE IT to defeat everything and anything the devil brings against you. Your victory is sure in Him! The truth makes us FREE according to John 8:31 & 32.
