2019 Pro Rodeo Summer Run Underway

By Tanya Randall

Things are heating up in the WPRA Standings as barrel racers make the most of the lucrative summer season to punch their tickets to the 2019 National Finals Rodeo or set themselves up for a good start to the 2020 race.

Amber Moore and CP Dark Moon picked up a $3,085-victory at the Strawberry Days Rodeo in Pleasant Grove, Utah. It was the first trip to the rodeo for the three-time NFR qualifier from Salem, Oregon.

"I had never been there before," she said. "The strawberries were amazing. I drove 14-hours to get there and then nine-hours down to Reno. It wasn't on my way to Reno. Last year, I entered but didn't get to go. This year I drew up in a perf and I was like, 'I'm going to go!' It was beautiful. It was so pretty." After finishing up her winter run at Rodeo Austin, Moore went home to get embryos out of Paige. Reproductive roadblocks and wet weather kept her turning out of the few rodeos that she did enter this spring.

"I turned out of a lot of rodeos because it rained," she said.

"I didn't get to run at Redding or Hayward (California) because it rained. I didn't get to run at Clovis, that was the one week I did a get an embryo. My vet told me I could go, but it was going to be 105 and I didn't think I should be running her and hauling her in 105 degree weather, if I really wanted that embryo. So, I chose to sit out of Clovis because Paige was making me a baby."

ProRodeo Hall of Fame welcomes horses for the summer

The ProRodeo Hall of Fame had two horses arrive June 19 as part of its live animal display at the Hall in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Powder River Rodeo's saddle bronc horse Bartender and bareback/saddle bronc horse Diamond Mine were welcomed to the grounds. Both horses are 25 and retired from ProRodeo competition in 2012. They will be at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame until mid-September.

The exhibit will be in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame barn and will be accessible by the public (including handicapped accessibility) during regular museum hours of 9 a.m.-5 p.m. (MDT) seven days a week through August, and 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday in September.

"The Rodeo Livestock Exhibit is very popular with our guests," ProRodeo Hall of Fame Director Kent Sturman said. "We appreciate Powder River Rodeo's willingness to help with this project. Their horses are some of the best in the business, and we are honored to have Bartender and Diamond Mine with us for the summer."

Bartender was selected to compete at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo seven times.

Diamond Mine was selected to compete at the Wrangler NFR in 1999 and took part in many National Circuit Finals Rodeos and Mountain States Circuit Finals Rodeos.

Dees and Siggins win BFI, $120K in Reno

The flag at the 42nd Annual Bob Feist Invitational Team Roping on June 24 was still moving at the end of the final run of 7.2 seconds when 26-year-old Lane Siggins began racing around the arena to celebrate the resulting $120,000 cash prize with partner Junior Dees, 21. The Arizona boys finally vaulted off their moving horses to throw their arms around each other.

"I felt like we were 9 seconds on that run, and when the announcer said 7, my hat just came off," Siggins said later. "I've been practicing to win the BFI at my house since I was 5 years old. I was ready for that victory lap!"

The first-place prize at the BFI in Reno, Nevada, often marks the biggest win of a roper's life. The anchor event of Wrangler BFI Week presented by Yeti, it's held in conjunction this year with the 100th anniversary of the Reno Rodeo. The BFI is the most lucrative but challenging team roping event for professionals in America. Under the traditional format, the 100 best teams in the world are invited to rope six fast steers over an 18-foot head start, for a purse of more than $600,000 in cash and prizes.

A new award this year for the overall fastest time in the first five rounds was given in memory of former BFI champion and three-time fast-time winner Rickey Green. It went to Tyler Wade and Billie Jack Saebens, who clocked a 4.57 to win the third round.

Over five steers, Dees and Siggins became the high callback team, and would compete last. They watched six straight teams make clean runs, and needed an 8.47 for the aggregate win. Their 7.2 edged the six-head time of Oklahoma ropers Cale Markham and Brye Crites by about a second.

Interviewed in the arena immediately after the celebration, Siggins said that Dees had just made him a superstar. In fact, this was just Dees' second time in the BFI, but Siggins had been entering it since he was a teenager.

The Siggins family makes a living near Coolidge, Arizona, riding, training and selling roping horses. When Dees arrived at their house last fall, it was to further his own career riding and training horses. By March, he and Lane had become fast friends and began to enter rodeos together.

"We just click," said Dees. "We get along; he's like a brother to me. We just have fun and have had luck together."

Dees spent his early childhood in Arizona, too, before cutting his teeth as a roper in South Dakota. In fact, during the BFI he was on the phone with his mentor, three-time NFR heeler Matt Zancanella, after every steer. Siggins got a little remote coaching, too, from "Zanc" after missing the haze on the first BFI steer.

"I've wanted to win this all my life," said Dees, who basically grew up on the arena floor at places like the BFI, watching Zancanella compete. The Zancanella family also raised the horse Dees credits with his big win. Famous Dillon was sired by their barrel-racing stallion Lion's Share of Fame — a full brother to Gun Battle, a racehorse with a speed index of 110.

"Dillon" had a half-brother on which Dees qualified for the NFR in 2017, but the horse suffered a career-ending injury last year. Just 8 years old, Dillon went to his first rodeo this spring. On the other hand, Siggins' gray 12-year-old gelding, "Shooter," is a veteran and performed so well that he won the annual Heel Horse of the BFI award from Montana Silversmiths. Registered as Amigos Sonita Las, he has foundation cow-horse breeding.

"Tanner Baldwin trained him, and I've had him three years now," said Siggins, who tweaked his roping style to fit the horse. "I have always liked a tighter feel, to where I need to kick a horse up, but he is so free-rolling that I needed to change a little. I mostly watched Ryan Motes to learn his style, since his horses never take his throw away."

Motes' horse, incidentally, was the 2014 Heel Horse of the BFI. On the fresh steers in Reno, many horses anticipate the stop and cause heelers to miss their shot, hurry their delivery or struggle to dally. But Shooter is honest every time. In fact, Siggins asked Dees to make sure and face on a tight rope to prevent any slipped legs.

On the other end, Riley Minor won his record fourth Head Horse of the BFI award, courtesy of his defending PRCA/AQHA Head Horse of the Year, RK Tuff Trinket ("Bob"). Minor and his brother, Brady, were winning this year's BFI after four steers with a 29.61, but a leg penalty in the fifth round dropped them to 10th callback. Bob also won the award in 2016, when the Minors placed sixth.

"I got this horse five years ago and he's been the greatest blessing in my life," Minor said. "This award means a lot here with this long score and hard-running cattle. Today, he scored so good that we should have been high call."

Wrangler BFI Week presented by Yeti continues for three days following the 42ND BFI. For more information, visit www.bfiweek.com.

The current embryo is by Roarr, a futurity winning son of Tres Seis out of NFR qualifier Dash Ta Vanilla, by Dash Ta Fame. Paige's oldest foal is a weanling by Guys Pocket Coin, a Frenchmans Guy half-brother to futurity great Sissys Little Coin, out of Queens Coin by Pocket Coin (TB).

Moore also has a Paige's full sister. Both are by Darkelly out of SRQH New Highs, by On A High.

Moore ran in Reno on Saturday night and was only back home for the night to drop off Paige and pickup Blue Duck Down ("Ducky") before heading across the border to Ponoka, Alberta. "He's my little cowpony," said Paige of the gelding by Blue Duck Okie out of Miss Quixote Dude, by Mr Morgan Freeman. She got the 9-year-old gelding at the end of December. His main job is to save Paige's legs.

Compared to most Paige will have a relatively easy Fourth of July Run at her Columbia River circuit rodeos in Eugene, Molalla and St. Paul, Oregon.

"St. Paul is 15 minutes from house, Molalla is 30 and Eugene is an hour," chuckled Moore, who is ranked 21st in the World with $28,211. After the Fourth, the next run will be in Pool B of the Calgary Stampede.

North of the border

North of the border, teenager Justine Elliot and her cow-bred mare Blondys Starlight ("Blondy") picked up a $5,730 at the Wainwright Stampede in Alberta, Canada.

"I'm still at a loss for words with how my weekend went there," said the Lacombe, Alberta, barrel racer. "Going into the short go, I didn't expect to win it. Blondy just focused right in and she went for the win."

Elliot, who qualified for her first Canadian Finals Rodeo last year, and Blondy placed fourth in the progressive first round and won the short go to win the average.

"When I was up Friday (for the first go), it was pouring rain pretty good, but it stopped right before the barrel racing, which was nice," she said. "It rained everywhere else I was at this weekend. For the short go, the weather stayed nice."

She said that her 10-year-old mare, by Von Starlight out of Small Towns Gold, by Small Town Baker, doesn't really care what the ground conditions are.

"She's really honest," said the 16-year-old. "It doesn't matter if it's mud, deep or what, she runs the same pattern every time."

Blondy was purchased by her brother Logan at the Supreme Horse Sale in Red Deer, Alberta, as a yearling as a cowhorse prospect. When she proved to be too hot for the show pen, her father, Jody Elliot, a reined cowhorse trainer, started her on the barrels.

Elliot, who wanted to thank her dad for hauling her and making this all possible, hopes to make the CFR again this year, and she'd like to take a year to rodeo after she graduates high school next year.

Three-time NFR qualifier Stevi Hillman's knows her main mount Cuatro Fame ("Truck") loves the Canadian rodeos, so it was no surprise to see her head north of the border to start her summer run. Hillman and Truck, who is owned by Jason and Melissa Mouton, won the Guy Weadick Days Rodeo in High River, Alberta, for $2,502.

The Weatherford, Texas, barrel racer split her horses with Guys R A Mystery, owned by Howie & Toni Dixon in the States. They placed sixth in Pleasant Grove and also rode the gelding by Frenchmans Guy out of Disarray, by Dash Ta Fame, at Reno on Tuesday.

Hillman, who sits seventh in the standings with $50,906, said she has St. Paul and Molalla, Oregon, on her schedule after the Ponoka Stampede. She and Truck, a 12-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding out of Princess Streaks, by Streaks Laico Bird, got a huge boost last year with a $19,324 Ponoka Championship.

Other members in the WPRA Top 15 have been partaking in the Canadian Rodeos as well. The Calgary Stampede qualifiers are using it to get acclimated.

"I felt that being in this climate and experiencing these rodeos would help better prepare (us) for Calgary," said Jimmie Rae Smith, who sits ninth in the standings with $49,374. The McDade, Texas, barrel racer also thought the lucrative Canadian rodeos would mean less stress for her mare Lena On The Rocks and less driving over the crazy Fourth of July run. "I won't be back in the states until after Calgary. It may not be the right decision or people might think I'm crazy for skipping some of the rodeos down there, but's what I (thought) was best for Lena with less miles hauling back and forth."

Over $14,000 Paid Out at 1st Annual Superior Equine Barrel Daze

The 1st Annual $3,600 added Superior Equine Barrel Daze was a great success with fantastic weather and amazing ground. Over $14,000 was paid out June 22nd and 23rd at the beautiful Fallon County Fairgrounds in Baker, MT. The Superior Equine Event was an Extreme Million Qualifier also WPRA, NWBRA, UBRC, BBR, and OBRA approved.

The big weekend winner was Chelsea Shirk aboard her great horse Pimps A Playboy for over $1,300 winning the Sunday Open and Church race and also placing on Guys Im Not Easy. Carmel Wright on PG Eye Bully Fame for $963 included winning both days of the Senior race along with the WPRA Futurity race and placing in Sat & Sun Open. The Rachel's Accounting Service Youth race was won by Hadli Anderson on Eye Appeal Gold both Sat & Sun. Jaycie Rau won the Derby on HP Machismo Sunrise. Extreme Million Race qualifiers were Chelsey Benson on BR Quixote Hancock and Paige Twitchell on Rocket Shadow Blurr. They will head to Salina Utah in June of 2020 for their shot at $2.1 million. The Church Race message spoken by Christa Phalen was incredible; our authority we have as believers. The Church race raised $450.

A Special Thank you to our generous sponsors Superior Equine, Mid-Rivers Communications, Copper Spring Ranch, Rodeo Rigs, Bank of Baker, Twitchell Cattle Company, Cenex Farmers Union Oil, Jackson Contractor Group, Rachel's Accounting Service, Plains Horizon Equine Insurance, Classic Equine, Tim & Pati Lechner, Big Game Casino, D&M Solutions, A Big Thank you to Eddie Coulter and Dean Wang and B&B Septic Services for the use of their equipment on the beautiful ground. Thank you for all who supported and attended; looking forward to 2020. Complete results at rodoerigs.com. --Courtesy of Lana Tibbets

Sweet New Ride for Hollie Etbauer and Bring It On Frost Te at Destry's Free 4 All

By Tanya Randall

Hollie Etbauer is still in shock.

At Destry's Free 4 All, held June 21-23 in Glen Rose, Texas, Etbauer and her homebred 11-year-old mare Bring It On Frost Te took home $6,237 after placing first and second and then took home a vibrant red 2019 Ford Mustang sportscar.

"I still can't believe the weekend I had!" said the mother of three and wife to five-time World Champion Saddle Bronc Rider and PRCA Hall of Fame member Billy Etbauer. "I look out the window and can't believe there's a red car sitting out there! To have this little red hotrod out here is pretty cool. All my kids and Billy—We got here at 10 o'clock last night and we had to run through everyone driving it!"

At the race's conclusion, Etbauer was the last contestant to try her key to see if she would win the car. After winning first and second, she thought she'd used up all her good fortune.

"I'm truly shocked and in disbelief," she said. "I couldn't believe that my mare ran that good. To win first and second was a shock in itself. Then to stand in that line and have a chance at a car...I figured if I was winning first and second there was no way I could win the car! They just kept going...one more person out...one more person out...until it was down to me. I don't know how long it is going to take for the shock to wear off!"

Etbauer and Bring It On turned in a 14.763 on Saturday night and took over the lead in the race. They had their second run on Sunday afternoon, and bettered their time by a fraction. Etbauer said her victorious 14.727 was bittersweet, because she bumped her daughter Jacie out of the 4D win.

"When I ran my second run, it didn't feel as good as the first run," she said. "It wasn't as snappy on the first barrel. Then I snaked across the pen to the second, so I barely missed the second barrel. I think I lifted a leg. At the third, I tapped that barrel. It was one of those plastic barrels so I knew it was going to go down. I dropped my reins to set up. I didn't even run straight home. I was kind of angled off toward the chutes, missing the alley. In my mind there was no way that was faster. When they said my time, I couldn't believe it was faster because it felt wild."

Etbauer said the mare is not the easiest to ride.

"She's probably my hardest horse to ride because she's so reactive," she said. "She's so catty and feely I have to get her to the right spots and then leave her alone. It can get a little tricky. She does need a little help here and there, but not as much as I give her sometimes."

Bring It On is by their stallion PC Frosty Bid out of Dreamalong Ruby, by Shawne Bug. Billy broke the mare to ride and then Hollie started her on the barrels. She'd been in the trailer since she was a 5- or 6-year-old, but in recent years has become Etbauer's main horse.

"She's a cool mare," she said. "I've won more than people realize on her. I keep a book on all my horses. If I go to the little Harrah jackpot and win $25, I log it. I've done a little of this and little of that on her. She's at about $105,000... and a car and saddles and things."

The Etbauers have a strong performance horse breeding program at their home in Edmond, Oklahoma. Nearly everything they ride, from barrel racing to roping, is a homebred.

The travel bug has long worn off since Billy's rodeo days and their focus has been developing young horses the past several years. Etbauer and her daughter Jacie, 20, attend most of the larger barrel races in the region and also hit a few pro rodeos within the Prairie Circuit.

Since they can only ride so many themselves, the Etbauer have several horses from their program by PC Frosty Bid and Whistle At The Babes available for sale.

"I really have to give a lot of credit to Billy," she said. "He starts all these horses. He's demanding, but he also builds a lot of confidence in them. When we get them, they're soft in the face and reactive at their sides. It makes our job easy."

Etbauer also wanted to thank Destry Fleming and the Uwinmore crew for producing the Glen Rose event and taking a risk on such a grand prize.

"I've very thankful for Destry and his staff for having an event like this," she said. "I have team ropers in my house, and they're rolling out the driveway all the time to win Dodge trucks and trailers. We don't have as many producers that dangle that carrot out in front of us like team roping does."

She was also very thankful for the God-given opportunity. "I'd like to thank my Lord and Savior for giving me the opportunity and the support system I have," said Etbauer. "There are a lot of people in our lives that help us perform at this level. I thank God for all those people."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When you read Romans 12:4-8 (you WILL read it, won't you?), you will see that we all have different gifts given to us by God so we can be a blessing to others. I don't see in there where any one person, except Jesus, gets them all.

In that way, we will always have a need for each other and there won't be any Lone Ranger's out there. It's one of the reasons that we are called the 'body' of Christ.

Your hand, for instance, wouldn't be much good without the arm it's attached to. Every day I see these gifts in action, and you have, too. Do you have friends that you could call to help you haul hay, but there are others who would like to bring you treats while you work? Of course.

I remember the day that Karan McCurley dropped by my house and said, "Let's put on a barrel futurity!" I said, "OKAY...what's a barrel futurity?" And in that moment, the Fizz Bomb Classic barrel futurity was born. It was 1982. Karan was the idea person, I was the implementer.

After 4 years, when her schedule became too hectic and it fell solely to me, she was STILL the idea person. Why? Because I can rack my brain for days, and I rarely get an original thought. But if you give me one, I can make it happen! Organization is like breathing to me. And you have God given abilities as well. If you are unaware of them, ask your friends, they'll tell you! They are easy to see in someone else.

My encouragement to you this week is this. Use your gifts to benefit the church or others, and not just yourself. (Gal. 6:10.) Your gift may be the part that's been missing, and when you use it, great things will come of it!
