Jeanne Anderson and Flaming Firebug Light Up Reno

By Tanya Randall

Two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jeanne Anderson of White City, Kan., and her tough-as-nails sorrel gelding Flaming Firebug made a powerful comeback with a $9,455 victory at the Reno Rodeo, held June 15-23.

"I'm surprised we did that well," said Anderson, who is sponsored by Pro Earth Animal Health's Equi-Sure. "I wasn't even going to go. He's been lame since February, and I didn't even know I was going to go until the day before we left!"

Anderson had been dealing with a nightmare of front feet problems with her 13-year-old equine partner. She long suspected an abscess that finally blew out at Firebug's coronary band on June 2.

"My horseshoer said it would take 30 days to heal," Anderson said of the inch-and-a-half opening on Firebug's tender coronary band. "I said, 'Well, we have 20.'"

Not wanting her hauling partner and follow WNFR qualifier Tana Poppino to have to make the trip alone, Anderson threw Firebug on the trailer and her niece's horse just in case.

Anderson and Firebug, who was sporting glued-on shoes, made their first run during the 2 p.m. slack on June 20. They turned in a 17.59 to finish sixth in the first round. That night in the performance, they turned in the fastest run of the rodeo, a 16.95 to win the second round.

"The ground always seems to be slower in the afternoon and faster at night," she said. "For the Finals, it was wet and cooler so the ground was slower."

In the short, Anderson and Firebug split fourth with five-time WNFR qualifier Brenda Mays and her great horse Judge Buy Cash.

"I was worried because I was 10th out," she said. "I was just going to be happy if we hung in there for a check. When I walked out to get my spurs, I thought 'Oh, this is muddy.' It felt cool, or cool to me, and that must have kept it from drying. He pulled it out for us."

Anderson was also concerned that fitness would be factor for Firebug, who wasn't in much shape due to his layoff, and a lengthier run at Reno wasn't going to help matters.

In an effort to make the rodeo run faster, the Reno Rodeo committee opted to change the setup for the barrel racers. Instead of running from the traditional north end, they ran from the roping boxes on the south end of the tri-oval shaped arena.

"They did have the pattern set way down there," said Anderson. "The third was down there near the gate we used to run from, and the first barrel was half way down the arena. It was a long ways and a lot of girls were having trouble with it. On my first run, I thought about easing Firebug down there a ways, but ... he wanted to run."

Anderson suspects that Firebug started to tie-up during the short go since he "warmed up funny" and they later had to stop at Dr.

Garth Lamb's in Las Vegas for fluids because Firebug didn't seem right when they stopped to rest the horses along the way.

"He just has so much heart," said of the Tigeraflame-Copper Bug gelding, bred by Stan and Mary Steyskal, Papillion, Neb. "He just seems to run no matter what."

Next on tap for Anderson and Poppino is Pecos, Texas, followed by Greeley, Colo., and slew of Fourth of July rodeos.

Cowboy Christmas: 31 stops and $3.3 million

It is called Cowboy Christmas not because it is the busiest week of the rodeo season – there are a few weeks that have more events – but because the Fourth of July week offers the most money in the shortest span of time during the regular season.

This time around there will be 31 rodeos that begin and/or end during the week of July 1-7 with total prize money in the (ritzy) neighborhood of $3.3 million.

Cowboys trying to work their way to the year-end Wrangler National Finals Rodeo will crisscross the Western United States trying to compete in as many as nine rodeos and improve their standing. Trevor Brazile broke the Cowboy Christmas earnings record last year with $39,993 in a single week and over the years six men have surpassed $30,000 during the Fourth of July week.

There figure to be four rodeos that week with more than $250,000 in total purse – Ponoka, Alberta; St. Paul, Ore.; Cody, Wyo., and Greeley, Colo. – and another half dozen with more than $100,000. --Coutesy of www.prorodeo.com

Reigning World Champions Win Spurs at Reno Rodeo

After nine days and nights of competition, the best of the best were crowned at the $488,238 Reno Rodeo.

Two of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) reigning world champions earned titles. Kaycee Feild, from Payson, Utah earned his second set when he tied with Ryan Gray from Cheney, Wash., in the bareback riding. They each had 249 points on three rides. Feild, who is the reigning world champion, also earned the championship here in 2009. He was the high money winner with $8,973. Gray earned $7,711 for his first title here. He also got to take the spurs while Feild will have to wait while they make his.

The big money winner here is also the reigning world champion in tie-down roping. Tuf Cooper from Decatur, Texas, roped and tied three calves in 25.3 seconds to win $12,834. Cooper is currently seventh in the PRCA world standings, so the money he won here should move him up in the world standings.

All of the winners here are going to use the momentum and confidence they gained going into the ever busy Fourth of July rodeo season known as “Cowboy Christmas.” Among those is Cody DeMoss, from Heflin, La., who won his third pair of spurs here. DeMoss also competed in team roping here in 2005 when he won the saddle bronc riding and all-around titles.

After sustaining a broken shoulder at last year’s Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (WNFR), he came back at the National Western Stock Show Rodeo in Denver and won the saddle bronc riding championship. He is looking for his ninth WNFR qualification and would like nothing better than to win his first world championship.

“Reno is one of my favorite rodeos, and I always look forward to coming here,” DeMoss said. “Winning Denver got my winter season off to a great start. Hopefully winning Reno will do the same thing for my summer.”

Half of the team roping championship will stay in Nevada for the first time since 1953 when Bige and Bud Duncan won. Jade Corkill who lives just an hour away at Fallon did the heeling for Kaleb Driggers from Albany, Ga., to win the title. They were the high team back and basically needed a solid run to get the title. They did just that, stopping the clock in 5.6 seconds to place third in the final round and get the championship with a total of 17.2 on three runs. They each earned $10,605.

There was a near capacity crowd at the final performance despite unseasonably cool and windy weather. Plans for the 2013 Reno Rodeo are already underway.

Reno Rodeo Champions

All-Around Champion Bobby Mote, Culver, Ore., $4,773 won in bareback riding and team roping

Bareback Riding (tie) – Ryan Gray, Cheney, Wash., $7,711 and Kaycee Feild, Payson, Utah, $8,973, 249 points each

Steer Wrestling – Les Shepperson, Midwest, Wyo., 14.2 seconds, $10,625

Team Roping – Kaleb Driggers, Albany, Ga., and Jade Corkill, Fallon, Nev., 17.2 seconds, $10,605 each

Saddle Bronc Riding – Cody DeMoss, 252 points, $9,297

Tie-Down Roping – Tuf Cooper, Decatur, Texas, 25.3 seconds, $12,834

Women’s Barrel Race – Jeanne Anderson, White City, Kan., $9,455

Bull Riding – Cameron Bland, Maben, Miss., 168 points on two $7,555

Bakken Barrel Daze Pays out $20K+

First Annual $8,000 added KC Sandcastle Bakken Barrel Daze was a success. Paying out $20,800 with 300 plus runs, made Bakken Barrel Daze the largest One day event not only in Montana but the region. Rain and then shine made for a beautiful day for the entrants from ND, WY, SD, MT and Canada. Dana Penrod on Major Guy ran a 17.27 on the standard pattern in the Chaznline Challenge $2,000 added 4D race. She pocketed $1531 by winning the both the $4,700 added open 5D and 4D along with a gorgeous pair of Custom spurs donated by Cliff Dahl.

The Ridge Line Contractors $800 added Youth race was won by Alexis Shipp. Ashley Ouzts and KTS Scrap Iron continued their winning ways as they won the WPR $250 added side pot. Vicki Gilje on IMA Bay Gourmet won the Senior $250 added race. Thank you to all the sponsors for making this the largest One day event not only in Montana, but the region.

Thank you to KC Sandcastle, Chaznline Construction, Ridge Line Contractors, S/L Services, J & L Pitliners, Sonda's Solutions, Longhorn Services, Yellowstone Homes, Restorex, H & W Scoria, Mitchell's Oilfield Service, Ryan's Electric, Prewitt & Company, Cattle-Ac, Cliff Dahl, Continental Resources, South 40, Franz Construction, PJ's Auto Glass, Morasko Ins. Agency, High Plains Vet Clinic, Sunrise Equipment, Tim Rohlf, Bradlee Cole, Sidney Red-E-Mix, Lee's Tire Center, Netzer Law Office, Rau Designs, Northstar Autobody. A bigger and better event is planned for 2013.

Brian Wheeler and SX Dr Peacharita Triumphant at All American Youth

By Tanya Randall

If you're going to bake a cake, you have to break a few eggs. If you're trying to win a barrel race, you're going to hit a few barrels.

In his short barrel racing career, teen sensation Brian Wheeler has hit his share of barrels to win big races, but he's well on his way to redeeming all of them.

"Last year I hit a barrel to win it and the year before I was third," said the 15-year-old barrel racer from Hattiesburg, Miss. "I was real happy to I got to win it this year."

Wheeler pocketed $8,934 for the victory in the 11th Annual All-American Youth Barrel Race, held June 21-23 in Jackson, Miss. He also picked up $1,766 in 1D money on MS Frenchman Bully for total event earnings of $10,700.

His 1D Championship didn't come without some intense moments however. Wheeler had to lift his leg to keep from hitting the first barrel and then saved a fallen third barrel to win the Finals in 13.891, the fastest run of the event.

"I hit it pretty good going into it and she snaked around it when I leaned down to pick it up," recollected Wheeler of his third barrel. "I was just too close; I wasn't going to let it go. I came that far; I wasn't going to let it go over just by a little bit."

The All American was the first major event for Peach since December. The 8-year-old daughter of Dr Nick Bar out of SX Frenchmans Peach, by Frenchmans Guy, was diagnosed with a hyper-extended fetlock.

"We're not really sure where she got hurt," said Wheeler, who is sponsored by Triple Crown Feeds, Lubrisyn and Sure Step Hoof Packing. "We think she hurt it playing in the pasture. We could tell a little at Oklahoma City. Right after that, we were at the Holiday Classic when we really started trying to figure out what was wrong with her. She's got a lot heart. She doesn't really show a lot of pain so it was really hard to figure out what was wrong."

The entire time Peach continued to work well and win, said Wheeler. "She won the second go of the Holiday Classic with the second fastest time of the weekend and won the Youth at the BFA, so she never quit clocking or anything,” he added. “We could just barely tell it. Dr. Greg Ford really had a hand in getting her back running.”

Mindful of the mare’s health, Wheeler opted to play it safe on qualifying run.

“The first day I just wanted to ease her through there because I wasn’t sure what she was going to give me,” he said. “I think the first go was her third run in six months. I just wanted to be cautious on her and she worked a nice pattern. She gave me what she had.”

Having the Finals made, Wheeler opted to scratch the mare from the second round.

“You could tell by the (Finals), she was more comfortable on her feet and moved better,” said Wheeler, who wanted to thank his parents Brent and Stephanie Wheeler and older sister Ashley Backstrom for their help and support. “She worked really, really good in the Finals. I really didn’t think she had it in her. I figured she’d run a .1 or an .0 was about the best that I could get out of her since I hadn’t ran her in a while.”

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Summer is here and everyone I know in the northern country is trying to fit a year of OUTSIDE activity into 3 months. Yards, hay fields and kids in every sport! And let's not forget us adults! For me it's more barrel racing! So I recently entered a big barrel race. I took three horses. Two of them I ran past the first barrel and I couldn't get the Jake brake off the third horse. But interestingly, in the 4D system, I placed...won some money and some beautiful awards. Go figure!

So my grandson asked me how I did. I told him what had happened, how I was disappointed in how my horses worked (how bad I rode them!) He's a very serious 7 year old and after giving it some thought he said, "Grandma Sherry, here's what you need to do. You need to practice going around that first barrel the right way (ya think????) until they do it right. EVERY DAY Grandma Sherry, you need to practice it EVERY DAY and you'll get better!"

It just blessed my heart to get that sage advice from someone so young. But then, immediately, I got advice from my heavenly Father, One who had been here all eternity! And HE said, "Sherry, if you would practice what I teach you in the Word...EVERY DAY...I WILL ALWAYS CAUSE YOU TO TRIUMPH!" It says so, right her in 2 Cor. 2:14. "Now thanks be unto God, which always causes us to triumph in Christ...."

We so often look to the world for our direction. When I'm standing in the checkout line at the store and reading the covers of all the magazines there, it is remarkable how many of them have articles that promise if you do this or do that you'll win or get help. After all you know, actor or actress so and so consulted so and so and they now have life peace. Seriously????

Generally the person that has been their life coach is a failure in their own life. BUT GOD is not a failure! He's our life coach! His Word will guide and direct us into all truth, John 16:13 and His truth will make us free, John 8:32! That's how to spend all those wonderful summer days, hearing and obeying the Word of God. No matter what we do, WITH HIM we will win!

Have a very rewarding summer!
