Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba Earn Their Spurs in Reno

By Tanya Randall

Northern California native Nellie Miller picked up her first set of trophy spurs with a $12,277 victory at the historic, $37,500-added Reno Rodeo, held June 16-24.

"You don't get a chance to win a rodeo like that very often," said Miller, a 2010 National Finals Rodeo qualifier. "Whenever you win first, it's extra special."

Family ties to the event also made the victory special.

"I love Reno," she said. "It's one of my favorites. I used to go every year as a kid. There are so many good memories there any way, to win it makes it extra special."

The victory also occurred on her dad, Sam's birthday. He was the reason she attended Reno all those years as a spectator, and he's also the reason she has her winning horse—Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister").

Bred and trained by her father, Sister, 9, is by the Dash Ta Fame, Easy Jet stallion, KS Cash N Fame, and out of her high school rodeo horse Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike. She's a half-sister to Miller's NFR qualifier Rebas Smokey Joe ("Blue Duck").

Miller and Sister made their runs on Wednesday, June 21. At Reno, contestants made their first runs in morning slack and their second runs that night during a performance. Miller and Sister won the first round with a 17.10 and finished fourth in the second round with a 17.26. They were a whisker behind second-round winners and two-run average leaders Sydni Blanchard and Famous Heart-breaker going into the short round.

In the Finals, Miller and Sister turned in their best run of 16.98 to finish second behind red-hot rookie Taci Bettis and Bogie Is A Smash, who turned a good draw on the ground into the fastest time of the entire rodeo, a 16.91.

"She worked really good on my first run," noted Miller, "really all three runs. The Final run was just perfect. You don't get many perfect runs, and that was one of them."

Miller had been entered at Prineville, Ore., but turned out after making the short round in Reno, so she'd save the traveling on Sister, who had a little vacation earlier in the month due to a tie-up.

"A few weeks ago, she had tied up, so we gave her some time off to get over that," Miller said. California was experiencing a record-breaking heatwave during that time. "I rode her on a hot day and she over did it. I've never had that happen. It was stressful getting through that, but I think she's good to go now."

The young mare had a tremendous winter that put Miller near the top of the World Standings before she ever returned to home for the spring run of rodeos in her home state.

"I was really happy with her this winter," she said. "I had never been to Texas on her, or those building rodeos. She just handled it great. She did awesome for having never been in that situation. It's very different—the buildings I have ran in compared to the ones in Texas, with the blind first barrel. For a horse that's never been in that situation it can be a learning curve, but she hunts the barrels so well, she just picked it up every time."

Miller was set to run in the first round for the Pikes Peak Or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs Pro Rodeo on Monday morning, but opted to turn out after winning Reno. Rather than make a harried trip to Colorado, Miller and her husband James took a leisurely trip with the upcoming rush of Cowboy Christmas. Sister will get a day or two off before Miller kicks off her Fourth of July run at the Greeley Independence Stampede on Wednesday.

Second Phase of Study Link Distribution to Begin June 26

Survey link to be available to everyone involved in the equine industry

The American Horse Council Foundation (AHC) is pleased to announce that the survey link for the update of the economic impact study is now available! Individuals will be able to share this survey with others involved in the industry, as well as post the link on social media to encourage others to take the survey.

"We were advised to do the rollout of the survey link in two phases," said AHC President Julie Broadway. "The first phase included AHC member organizations and their affiliations which served as our initial sample frame. The survey link needed to be sent to a known population size so we can accurately judge the response rate. For example, if we send the survey link to 500 people and 100 reply, we know that the response rate is 20%, and the results must be increased to characterize the full population according to statistical survey methodology."

"Phase two will consist of an open link that will be sent out via social media, press releases, email blasts, etc. This invites anyone that wants to complete a survey the ability to do so using the social networks of our member organizations to increase participation in a 'snowball' effect," continued Ms. Broadway. "The questions are exactly the same as in the phase one survey link, but the URL for each survey link is slightly different so The Innovation Group can distinguish these responses from the control group. We certainly want as many people as possible to complete the survey, it just needed to be done in phases so the statisticians and economists can interpret the data correctly."

The main survey is designed to capture the impact of individual horse owners (whether commercial or recreational) and industry suppliers of equine-related goods and services. To take the horse owner & supplier survey please click here: https://innovationgroup.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_00aYvVhg aWHgpnL?Source=Request Please note, all personal information collected in the survey will be confidential and will not be distributed. The AHC encourages Individuals to share the study link above via email, social media, etc. in order to ensure maximum participation.

The 2017 Economic Impact Study will contain expanded demographics with youth participation and additional segments of the industry, including Equine Assisted Activities and Therapies, Equine Sanctuaries and Rescues, Equine Academic Programs, and Equine Youth Organizations. If you are interested in receiving one of these survey links, please contact the AHC at info@horsecouncil.org.

"I left my kids home with my parents," noted Miller. She and James have two young daughters. "There's just so much driving. You're just in the truck the whole time. I figured it was better if I left them at home for this first little trip. We'll probably pick them up after the Fourth."

After Greeley, Miller will drop down the Prescott, Ariz., to run the now un-retired Blue Duck, who at the ripe age of 22 placed fourth, earning $1,241, at the Livermore Rodeo, the second weekend of June.

"He's been run once in like the past two years," laughed Miller. "I don't want to run him very much, but I figured for one run he'd do pretty good. It's so comfortable for me to get on him, because I'm so familiar with him. It's kind of fun."

She'll go back north to run Sister at Red Lodge and Livingston, Mont., and Cody, Wyo., better known as the Gateway Rodeos—so named for their proximity to the entrances of Yellowstone National Park. Unfortunately, Miller didn't get into the Calgary Stampede, but is hopefully she'll get into Days of '47 Cowboy Games Rodeo in Salt Lake City, Utah, another mega payout event.

Miller, who is currently sixth in the WPRA World Standings with $60,102, said rodeo now is "a lot different" than it was seven years ago when she qualified for the NFR.

"I don't know if it's me or the whole game has changed," she said. "The horsepower is just insane. With the breeding, so many people have it dialed in. There are so many good horses and riders. Before, I just had Blue Duck, but now it seems like you need more horsepower. You need two horses to do it. That's been a challenge for me, finding something else to ride that can compete well."

Betting On Bettis—Taci Bettis & Bogie Is A Smash win Lehi, second at Reno

By Tanya Randall

Rookie sensation Taci Bettis of Round Top, Texas, is currently the WPRA's leading rookie and is rapidly climbing the WPRA World Standings. She and her 9-year-old gelding Bogie Is A Smash ("Smash") won the Lehi, Utah, Roundup for $1,802, and they turned in the fastest time of the Reno Rodeo in the Finals to jump from mid-pack to second, for $6,877.

"The spring in general has been amazing," said Bettis, who is sponsored by She-Fit Apparel, Classic Equine and Oxy-Gen. "When I started doing so good, I thought, 'Well, I'll go out there and give it a try.' When I did so well at Reno and won Lehi, I thought, 'Well, I guess I'll stay out here a little longer.'"

Bettis had filled her WPRA permit last year at Eagle, Colo., en route to the Elite Rodeo Athletes qualifier in Salt Lake City, Utah, but delayed buying her card so she would be eligible to defend her two AQHA World Championships, one of which was the Amateur. Unfortunately, that title defense never came to pass because Smash, a gelded son of the late Bogie Biankus, was injured in September and out until March.

Yet, Bettis remained firm in goals. She looked at the injury as a part of God's plan and took the time to finish out Smash's backup, Bogies French Bug, a grandson of Bogie Biankus through Frenchmans Bogie, sire of last week's All-American Youth Champion.

"I knew I was going to pro rodeo," said Bettis, "but you never know how strong they're going to come back. I just decided to enter a couple and I just started winning. He came back strong, I think he came back stronger than before."

Bettis, who is hauling with multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Tammy Fischer, from whom she bought Smash, is entered up through the Fourth of July. On Monday, they ran at the first round of the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs—both she and Fischer have made the second round—and from there it's on to

From there, they'll head to St. Paul, Ore., the Livingston Roundup in Montana, the Home of Champions Rodeo in Red Lodge, Mont., the Black Hills Roundup in Belle Fourche, S.D., the Sitting Bull Stampede, Mobridge, S.D., then hopefully back for the short go at Greeley on July 3 and finally Cody, Wyo., in the morning and Oakley, Utah, at night—a 420-mile journey over the hills and through the woods.

"I'm pretty excited to see what happens over the Fourth," she said. "I don't have any expectations. I've never been out here. This is all new to me, so I'm just taking it all in, by each rodeo. But, I'm feeling extremely blessed."

Bettis is currently 19th in the WPRA World Standings with $28,573.

Hillman & MCM Imasharpguy win Santa Fe, Springdale

National Finals Rodeo qualifier Stevi Hillman of Weatherford, Texas, isn't weakening in her quest for her second straight trip to Las Vegas.

She and MCM Imasharpguy ("Sharpie"), owned and bred by Matt and Bendi Dunn of Bismarck, Mo., won two pro rodeos over the weekend. They topped the Rodeo of the Ozarks in Springdale, Ark., and the Rodeo de Santa Fe in New Mexico for $6,052 on the weekend.

After taking the lead in Springdale with its stadium-like seating during a performance, Sharpie got a little tight at the second barrel at Santa Fe, which forced Hillman to square the gelding in the turn with two hands to keep from hitting it. The gelding wasn't impressed with the crowds right on the fence.

"(The second barrel) was like 20 feet off the fence," noted Hillman, "so super close to it. There were a ton of people sitting there because it was one of the 'hospitality' areas and there was a lot going on."

Although he's coming to terms with the crowds, Sharpie, a 5-year-old by the Frenchmans Guy son, A Sharp Frenchman, out of the great NFR qualifier and champion producer Mulberry Canyon Moon, by Marthas Six Moons, is taking to the rodeo world quite well.

"He's not stressing at all," said Hillman, who also won the Fiesta de Los Vaqueros in Tucson, Ariz., earlier this year. "I sit here at Colorado Springs and twice have gone to check on him, and he's snoring and sleeping so hard. So, I believe he's content on the road. He's very happy and loves what we are doing. Simple Solutions, Scientifically Proven[®]

"East Texas heat and humidity is brutal, especially during the summer months. That is why I keep Firewaterontherocks and my horses in training on Summer Games Electrolyte year around to replace minerals lost in sweat and to encourage drinking."

—Robyn Herring, WPRA barrel racer and owner of the million-dollar sire Firewaterontherocks

CHALLENGE:

- Competing in hot, humid climates
- Dehydration
- Lack of stamina in hot weather
- Non-sweater
- Poor drinker when shipping or competing
- Prone to tying-up

SOLUTION:

Summer Games[®] Electrolyte

Summer Games
research-proven formula:

- Encourages drinking
- Maintains energy levels and reduces muscle fatigue
- Replenishes key electrolytes and trace minerals
- Supports electrolyte balance, reducing the risk of dehydration, non-sweating and tying-up

Chamberlain Cashes in at Destry's Free 4 All

By Hope Sickler

Young Chayni Chamberlain has had a very memorable last few years on the back of her big grey gelding, Dat Flowin Bunny, including winning ERA rodeos, barrel races and running at RFDTV's The American in AT&T Stadium. This past weekend in Glen Rose, Texas they earned another big win at Destry's Free 4 All Barrel Race.

Chamberlain and the talented gelding cashed in after they stopped the clock with a blazing fast run of 14.888-seconds. The competition was fierce, with over 1,600 runs made over the weekend, and Chamberlain continued to inspire other young barrel racers as she won with grace and integrity.

Flo Jo, as they affectionately call the 16-year-old athlete, is by Whose Dat Bunny and out of Hota Moore by He Hota. Flo Jo used to be guided by Chamberlain's mother, Callie, until Chamberlain took ahold of the reins, and a strong bond was forged. Chamberlain explains that it is Flo Jo's heart that makes him a true winner.

"Flo Jo has a heart the size of Texas and he loves running barrels," explained Chamberlain. "He is as honest as the day is long and gives his all every run that he makes."

Having to make some minor adjustments before her second run, Chamberlain sent Flo Jo in the arena trusting that he would make his honest "Flo run".

"We had a good run in the first race, but had to make a few adjustments at the second barrel before our second run. We cleaned it up and I trusted that Flo would make his signature run this time

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Like most of us, I have asked the question, "How do I know how to hear from God?" It's easy. It's a KNOWING in your heart.

You will not hear Him with your physical ears. In the Bible, when He spoke like that, people thought it thundered. Your answer to hearing Him is as simple as you hear yourself say, "Something told me I shouldn't have done that." Now, God is not a Something, but when you just KNOW in your heart, you should heed it. He won't yell at you. He will not count to three after He has told you something like some of us do our kids.

Since I'm running a rabbit here, I'd like to ask the question of parents who do that...if a truck is coming and your child runs out in the street and you tell them to come back and they are waiting for the proverbial count of three before they come back, do you think they could get run over? Of course. Children are smart. They can learn to mind you the FIRST time you tell them something. If we teach them to mind us, they don't get to practice disobedience for two counts and you get to save your breath.

So, as God's children, wouldn't we all benefit from hearing and obeying the first time? Yes, we would. And I'm not saying that God will have a truck run over you. He does NOT do that. But if we don't heed Him, we can get in a pickle. If we get in a pickle, He will help us out of it. But really. Let's get it right the first time and skip the remodeling!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
