Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi Earns Her Spurs at Reno Rodeo with Jets Top Gun

By Tanya Randall

Two-time World Champion and 16-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi earned her first set of championship spurs from the 104th Annual Reno Rodeo, held June 16-24 in Nevada.

"Reno has always been really special to me," said Tonozzi, who made her first runs at the historic rodeo back in 2003. "That was my first crack out...to win it 20 years later is pretty amazing. It's really special."

Just a rookie in 2003, Tonozzi was lucky she got into the rodeo. She had just $2,500 in earnings, having purchased her card in March. Then after a smoking first run, her great horse Leroy (Lances Ugly Boy) hit the brakes and sent her to the Reno dirt in front of all the greats of the time.

"I'm on the ground laughing and then turn and look at the clock," she recalled. "I ran a 17.3 and I thought 'Ok!' I did well in the second round and finished third in the average."

That was enough to set her off on a record-breaking summer run. She entered the NFR as the richest rookie in history and the first to lead the field of 15 into the Finals since Charmayne James. "Reno was the rodeo that really kicked off my career," she added.

This year's $11,024 victory was cemented by a stellar arena record-breaking performance in the short round by the Busby Quarter Horses owned-and-bred gelding Jets Top Gun ("Benny"). Their 16.70 was good enough to give them the best three-run aggregate by .01 over Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday.

THANK YOUS: "Obviously this wouldn't have been possible without Jeff and Andrea Busby. They've been amazing. They've been so supportive. Andrea was in Texas when I was in Reno and I think she was as excited as I was, maybe more. It's really fun to have friends like that and win together. It's so fun to win together as a team. That makes it really special."

"I have no words," Tonozzi said of her final run. "He never slowed down. It reminded me of the Duke (Yeah Hes Firen) days. Duke would run so hard into the turn and just swap ends. Their styles are different, but it's the same logic behind it. Run as fast as you can to the turns and as fast as you can around them. He's a big horse and he's not the type that can pause around them and then get back going."

Tonozzi was extremely pleased that Benny's transition from aged event star to rodeo horse was finally coming to fruition.

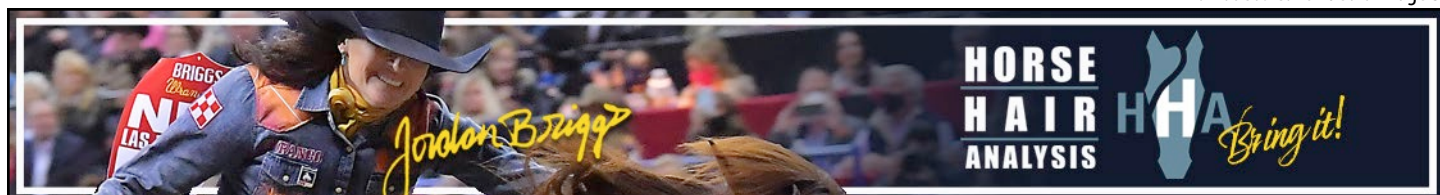

"As amazing as Benny has always been in a building at barrel races, he hasn't been so amazing at rodeos," she said. "He didn't do very well at Tucson and ran smooth off with me two times at Houston. He got a little bit better at San Angelo, hit barrels at Logandale...it's been a struggle. I just kept sticking with it and making some changes. Finally, his second run at Guymon, I saw some change in him."

"In rodeo, you always want your first run to be your best run because most of them are one-headers. He's been a little timid the first run, and then come back the second run and done really well. That's from being used to having an exhibition and being babied—and rightfully so—he was a futurity and derby horse. Finally, I won Cortez (Colorado) and was second at Monticello (Utah). I was like 'Ok. I've finally gotten somewhere with him.'"

Pozzi made a bit change from her Pozzi lifter to a Schoenberg with twisted wire Billy Allen mouthpiece.

"That made a big difference with his first barrel," she said. "His second and third barrel, he's always worked. The first barrel was the one he was running by. I just had to make some adjustments."

It wasn't something that was going to be fixed at a jackpot or an exhibition. It's time and knowing what's the right thing and when to do it. You have to go and pay your dues, and about Logandale, I was thinking these dues are getting really expensive. Thankfully, he came around shortly after that."

Bred by Jeff and Andrea Busby, Benny is an 8-year-old gelding by 7 million dollar sire Blazin Jetolena. The late leading sire also had three horses running in the short round at Reno including Stevi Hillman's RV Brijett, who finished fifth, and Nicole Driggers' Blazin High Octane.

Benny is out of GL Famous First Lady, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Canadian Champion Lady Perks, making her a full sister to Kassie Mowry's weapon Famous Ladies Man.

The gelding was a futurity and derby champion with trainer Janna Brown and has since added to his aged event titles with Pozzi. They won the Royal Crown Derby earlier this year and won the Colorado Classic Maturity the weekend before running at Reno. Benny now has career earnings of more than $450,000.

His most recent victory helped bump Tonozzi from fifth in the WPRa World Standing to third with $61,412 won the season. She picked up $2,943 on Babe On The Chase ("Birdie") over the weekend.

Tonozzi made a big pretty loop during the Reno Rodeo. She ran Tuesday, June 20, at Reno, where she had her first round run in slack that morning. They had their second round run that night in the performance and were just out of the money with a 17.37.

On Wednesday, she ran Birdie at the Rodeo of the Ozarks in Springdale, Arkansas, and placed 10th on the mare's first run back in two-and-a-half, almost three months. Thursday morning, she zipped back to Greeley, Colorado, for the first round slack at the Stampede. She had no luck in Greeley where she tipped the third barrel on the talented stallion SR Industry Titan to win the round.

Tonozzi dropped down to New Mexico for the Rodeo de Santa Fe, where she won the rodeo for the second time on Birdie, before heading to Texas to run Titan, where a slip caused another plus five at the West of the Pecos rodeo.

She was back in Reno Saturday night and caught an early flight to her Colorado home on Sunday morning. Her 2024 futurity crop needed riding and her and husband Garrett's daughter Tinley had swimming lessons that Monday.

For the Fourth of July run that starts later in the week, Pozzi said she and her hauling partner Andrea Busby are going to everything "but Belle (Fourche), Mandan and Killdeer" in the Dakotas. They'll have two rigs on the road and have some air travel to make all their rodeos—Oakley, Utah, Prescott, Arizona, St. Paul, Eugene and Molalla, Oregon, Cody, Wyoming, Livingston and Red Lodge, Montana, and lastly West Jordan, Utah.

Tonozzi drew the last pool of 10 at the Calgary Stampede so she'll have two more weeks of rodeos stateside before heading to Canada.

Emily Efurd & Hyper By Design Tops Utah's Ruby Buckle, Collects $52,814

By Tanya Randall

Emily Efurd guided Hyper By Design ("Sturgill") to her first futurity championship at the $280,000 Ruby Buckle Futurity, held June 20-14 in South Jordan, Utah. Efurd and the 5-year-old gelding, bred and owned by her longtime friend Michele Allison Lyon, collected $52,814 for winning the Futurity and taking reserve in the 1D aggregate of the $600,000 Open 4D.

"I've never won a round at a futurity much less an average," said Efurd, who trains alongside her fiancé Brandon Cullins in Dublin, Texas. "It was really cool because I didn't really expect it of that horse, and he belongs to my best friend and was out of her best mare."

Sturgill is a gelded son of $5.2 million dollar barrel horse sire Slick By Design and is out of On A Hyper Lady, a daughter of noted Southeastern barrel racing sire Mr Hyperspeed, a son of the legendary Nonstop Jet. Although she never ran at a lot of major events, On A Hyper Lady held her own, winning at college rodeos and taking second in the Diamonds & Dirt Sweepstakes and Open 1D in 2014. Sturgill is her first foal.

The gelding was started under saddle by Lyon's husband and used as a ranch horse before heading to Texas for his barrel training late in his fourth year.

"We got him last August," noted Efurd, the 2012 WPRA Rookie of the Year. "I broke my foot not too long before that, so Brandon rode him for the first two months before I got back riding."

Sturgill just had six months on the barrels before he started winning. While it seems like he came together quickly, Efurd said that wasn't the case.

"It didn't really feel that way because he was a little tough to start," she said. "When you go back and look at it, he really wasn't on the barrels all that long before he started being good. I think it snuck up on him."

Efurd said that not having a training timeline really helped Sturgill develop quicker from a mental standpoint.

"It wasn't that he wanted to be bad, he was just so simple minded it took him a little longer to get it," she explained. "At one point Michelle was like, 'If he's not going to make a barrel horse, send him home and we can rope on him.' It became one of those deals—if he makes it, he makes it; if not, oh well. That made it easier to train him. I knew I could just make him a horse and go from there."

Sturgill didn't get entered until March. After just a handful of exhibitions, the gelding started running in the 1D at the local jackpots. "He was stepping up, so I thought, 'Well, I guess I'll enter him in the Ruby Buckle Futurity (at Guthrie in April),' she said. "That was never the plan until he told us that was the plan."

At that first Ruby Buckle, Sturgill ran an 18.3 his first attempt on the WPRA Standard Pattern and then came back with a 16.8, one of the fastest times of all the futurity horses in the second round. "One of the reasons this horse was so hard to start is he's so literal," Efurd explained. "If you show him something and he doesn't take it with a grain of salt, he does exactly that. I kind of schooled him up and away from the barrels the day before I ran him (at Guthrie). When I ran him in the first go, he ran over to the second and jumped out in this huge pocket. I had to pull on him and he stood up and bailed off the turn. Then he came back and ran a 16.8 in the second round. Ever since that second round run, he's been very consistent and right there."

They tipped barrels to place at the Royal Crown in Oklahoma City—their second futurity. At their third event, the Colorado Classic—they picked up $17,075 after placing third in the Stallion Incentive Futurity and fourth in the Open Futurity.

At South Jordan, Efurd just wanted to get Sturgill back in the average again. They were third in the first round with a 16.128 and won the second round with a 16.044.

"My goal was just to place on him in the average," she said. "I knew he was fast enough to win it. He's one of those if you try to go fast, try to get there, he gets a little bit all over the place. I have to think, 'Be patient. Slow down. Don't get too handsy in the turns.' He kind of just did it. He put me in the right spots, just really confident for as little as he's been (run). I was pretty impressed with that."

All totaled, Sturgill has won just shy of $80,000 in three months of hauling.

"It's kind of wild," said Efurd. "You don't expect it to happen like that. It's pretty cool."

Efurd acknowledged the incentive program payouts have a lot to do with his impressive earnings.

"It was amazing to win that much money," she said. "There aren't many places where you can do that. Even the Buckles that we haven't done very good at, we've always seemed to come home with more money than you would think you'd deserve for a 2D or 3D time."

Efurd noted the money that she and Cullins won in Colorado and Utah quickly got earmarked for electricity and lights upon arriving home to the record heatwave in Texas.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are living in the end times. We'd have to be blind not to notice. And, I admit, sometimes it's exhausting and overwhelming. I must trust God that those of us who are here in this time, have what it takes to overcome. If we didn't, God would have had us born in a different time. So, since we have what it takes, we must use it to the glory of God! It's up to us!

We must contend for the faith! When you and I stand up for what's right, God stands up for us. Psalm 35 is a prayer we can pray, that God will contend with those who contend with us. I say, 'thank you Lord'.

Can you imagine trying to fight against God? How dumb is that? They'll lose for sure! When the Lord puts it on our hearts to stand up for whatever is right, let's do it in love, boldness, fearlessness, confidence and any other word that applies to God's victorious army. We fight. We fight to win. We stand on 2 Cor. 2, that God always causes us to triumph! As much as it depends on you and me, let's help make this a better world to live in!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
