Stevi Hillman & Cuatro Fame Earn Their Spurs In Reno

By Tanya Randall

Stevi Hillman is getting closer to her goal of the WPRA's Top 15, thanks to the biggest win of her career at the Reno Rodeo in Nevada. Hillman rode Cuatro Fame, owned by Jason and Melissa Mouton of Scott, La., to claim the famed Silver Spurs and $10,025.

"My first run wasn't what I expected," said Hillman, who trains barrel horses and works as a radiology technician. "We were a little off. We ran a 17.7. He had some ground trouble, which he normally doesn't. He just got by the second and just kinda didn't feel like himself. I just try to make every run count, so I knew I had to give it my all my second run. I worked him in the arena in between (runs) just to get him confident on the ground again because that wasn't like him. So, I took him back in after slack and just worked him. He just really snapped and fired after that."

After they failed to draw a check in the first round, their second round time of 17.06 was good enough for second. They came back to the short mid-pack in the average, when Cuatro decided he was really going to fire in the finals, winning it with a 17.08, after taking a little leap into the arena.

"It's not normal for him," she laughed, noting that most people were talking about his little rare. "To run him three times in the same arena...he's just ready to go. He obviously didn't want me to hold him any longer. It didn't throw we off or anything. I'm used to him throwing bratty things at me every now and then. He's a pretty cocky horse."

Hillman, who is currently 21st in the WPRA World Standings with $27,740, also worked Lehi, Utah, during the Reno Rodeo. She left Cuatro in the care of Jana Bean, while she ran Morning Traffic ("Martini") at Lehi.

"We hit a barrel at Lehi to place," she said. "It's nice to have a back up horse that's running right there too to help when Cuatro is tired or has two runs in one day."

Hillman has been running Cuatro for about a year-and-a-half, after the Moutons sent him to her to sell. It wasn't an instant fit for the pair.

"It was hard at first," she admitted. "I do better with horses that I train because I know their moves and I can put their feet where I want them. It was a struggle getting with him in the beginning. I knew what he was, so I knew we had to come to a middle ground. A lot of it was miscommunication. It was just spending time with him and getting to know what he needed. Getting him happy and keeping him happy was probably the No. 1 thing that made our runs better. We've just grown so much together that it's easy for me now."

"He's a very particular horse. When he doesn't know what's going on, he gets scared and then he gets pissed off. You just have

Bill Parker, May 19, 1954 - June 23, 2016

Bill Parker, a three-time qualifier for the National Finals Rodeo, and the only competitor from Montana to qualify for the NFR in both team roping and tie-down roping, passed away June 23. He was 62.

Parker qualified once in tie-down roping (1980) and twice in team roping (1979, 1982).

As a team roping header, Parker paired with David Motes at the 1979 NFR and they finished second in the average with a time of 110.1 seconds on 10 head. Parker finished 11th in the world standings that year with $16,912.

Parker's performance helped him win the 1979 PRCA Team Roping Rookie of the Year honor.

Parker roped with Brad Smith, the 1978 team roping world champion heeler, at the 1982 NFR, and they placed in three rounds and were 14th in the average with a time of 45.9 seconds on six head. In his 1980 NFR appearance as a tie-down roper, Parker finished fifth in the average with a time of 153.4 seconds on 10 head to move up to 10th in the final world standings.

Parker remains the only tie-down roper from Montana to qualify for the National Finals Rodeo and the only tie-down roper from Montana to make the Top 5 of the world standings in the 79-year history of the Cowboys' Turtle Association/RCA/PRCA (1937-2015).

He also was a standout in the PRCA circuit system.

Parker was the Montana Circuit year-end champion in team roping (1979) and tie-down roping (1984). What's more, he was the RAM Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo all-around and team roping champion in 1980 and the tie-down roping champ in 1987.

He stopped roping in 1993 and then started back up competing again in 2010 in PRCA rodeos. He finished 159th in the 2015 world standings while competing on a part-time basis.

Parker is survived by his wife, Jann. There will be a funeral service at 2 p.m., July 7 in St. Bernard's Catholic Church, 226 Wicks Lane, Billings, Mont. Arrangements are being handled by Dahl Funeral Chapel in Billings. --Courtesy of www.ProRodeo.com needs reassurance.

"I just love him. He's got a great personality. He's such a good horse."

After a few seasoning expeditions in 2015, Hillman decided to go for the NFR in 2016. Although their winter wasn't quite like she'd hoped, once they got to the bigger outdoor pens, Hillman and Cuatro found their groove.

Hillman left Reno for Colorado on Sunday. She ran her backup horse Morning Traffic, owned by Michelle Darling, at the qualifier to the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo and advanced to the second round. Afterward she made a quick trip north to Greeley, Colo., for her first run at the Independence Stampede on Cuatro Fame that Monday night.

She's out in Oakley, Utah, on Wednesday, Belle Fourche, S.D., on Friday and then Mandan and Killdeer, N.D., on Saturday, Livingston, Mont., on Sunday, Red Lodge, Mont., and Cody, Wyo., on Monday.

"It's just crazy," said Hillman. "I think after Cody and Red Lodge we have a couple of days to get to Vernal (Utah)."

Hillman wanted to thank her sponsors Nutrena and Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals as well as her horses' owners.

"I want to thank Jason and Melissa Mouton for their never-ending support and Michelle Darling for allowing Morning Traffic to be with me," said Hillman, who also wanted to thank her husband Ty

"I have the best team that I could ask for to be on the road."

For Melissa Mouton following Hillman's journey is allowing her to live her dream, even though illness has kept her from riding Cuatro herself.

Bred by Brandy Wilson-Mehl of Satanta, Kansas, Cuatro—normally called Truck, but now called Cuatro as not to confuse him with the actual vehicle on the road—is by Dash Ta Fame out of Princess Streaks, by Streak Laico Bird. Cuatro, 9, is a half-brother to Old Fort Days Futurity Champions Streakin Henry and Memes Streakin Dash, both by Dash For Perks.

Mouton bought him as a 4-year-old after she was diagnosed with Lupus.

"When I was diagnosed with Lupus five years ago, I wanted a project horse to occupy my time," said Mouton. "I had balance issues and my muscles ached constantly, making it hard to ride, so a lightly started horse would've been easy for me to start hauling and enjoy."

"With him I really bit off more than I could chew. He was a handful. I guess the good Lord knew what I needed to keep me going because this horse pressed every button I had. It made me find my determination to get up and going."

After speaking with his breeder, Mouton formulated a plan for the head-strong gelding.

"From then on I decided that there was going to be lots of days that he would stay saddled all day and get ridden two or three times a day until he finally started to get with the program," she said. "I started hauling him and made some nice runs, placing in the 1/2D, but always felt he could do more. I had an issue with him stepping off the second barrel, so I took him to Dr. Cliff Honnas, who diagnosed him with Kissing spines. We operated on him and within three months he was back up and running."

Mouton eventually decided to sell the gelding because she knew that her illness would keep him from achieving bigger things. After tuning on him for three months, her friend Heather Simon suggested sending him to Hillman to sell.

"At that time, Stevi spoke to us about getting him rodeo seasoned before marketing him, which we agreed to," said Mouton. "Later in the year, we traveled back to Weatherford and we got together to discuss what avenue we would take with him. We knew that Stevi's dream was to hit the pro rodeo trail and we knew we had the horse that could compete at that level, so we offered him to Stevi to haul."

Mouton, who had to slow down her farrier and horse-starting business because of her illness, said she's blessed to be a part of Hillman's dream all the while seeing the horse she put her blood, sweat and tears into succeeding at the highest levels of the sport.

"Stevi thinks we are doing her a big favor by sending Cuatro down the road with her," she said, "but in all honesty, she's the one who is helping me to live my dream. I feel so blessed to watch this team winning."

Cayla Melby Is Making Her Move, Wins Wainwright, Alberta, Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Rookie Cayla Melby of Burneyville, Okla., is picking up steam in her quest to follow in her mother Jane's footsteps and qualify for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

Over the past weekend, Melby picked up $8,313 at rodeos in the United States in Canada. She won the Wainwright Stampede in Alberta for $5,702 and placed ninth at Sundre, Alb., for $620, sixth at High River, Alberta, for $758 and sixth in the first go at Reno, Nevada, for $1,233.

"I'm kind of a Sally about being on the road, so I flew home for a little bit before I flew out to Reno," said Melby, who is sponsored by G Bar G, Healthy Coat, Iconoclast, GetPatched.com and Big Time Hunting. "I hit a barrel in the second round, so my mom drove my good horse up to her for Innisfail (Alberta). I flew just in case she didn't make it."

Even though she had Docs Frosty Blue Bar, a 7-year-old gelding by TT Dakota Kitabars out of Yonder Grace Goes, by Yonder Jack Goes, in Canada, the elder Melby drove all night so her daughter could ride Shameon U ("Gator") at Innisfail. It proved to be a profitable drive with Cayla winning the rodeo for $2,745.

At Wainwright later in the week, she rode Brookstone Jo, the 6-year-old Brookstone Bay gelding out of Sheza Jo Baby Jo, by Proudest Effort, in the first round.

"I haven't ran that horse in over a month," said Melby of Jo, who placed third in the first round at Wainwright and also led the two-run average at Reno for much of the rodeo with Jane. "Mom's been riding him. She told me to try loping him through the barrels before the rodeo, and it was a little iffy. He's a little different ride compared to the other two. The other two you kinda slow them down before you get to the turn and help them and him you go as fast as you can until you get past the barrel. When I loped him through, I told mom maybe I should just get on the white horse and she said this pen wasn't really set up for him.

"I was up later in the slack and it was a little deeper for us than in a perf, so it took a lot of hustling to get him around the barrels. I just like to sit still so when I have to wiggle I have to think about it a little bit."

She was back aboard her favorite stick, Gator, a 7-year-old gelding by Fameonu out of Gay Sunny Delight, by Gay Bar Sun, for the short round victory.

After running at Wainwright, Jane Melby headed back to Reno with Jo, while Cayla stayed in Canada and picked up checks on Docs Frosty Blue Bar at Sundre and High River. By Monday, both ladies were in Ponoka, Alberta. They'll work rodeos in Airdrie and Williams Lake, Alberta, too, before heading stateside on June 30th.

Melby said her mother figures she's broken into the Top 15, but it's hard to tell with the results coming from Canada not always figuring into the standings right away.

"She keeps up with it," she said. "I try not to think about it too much; it stresses me out!"

The WPRA currently has her leading the rookie standings and 19th in the WPRA World Standings with $29,108.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I have 16 chickens (the grandchildren think they are theirs). And, they annoy the wham out of Mike. But I got a great word picture the other day. One of those chickens is a little banty. Cylee named her Tessie.

EVERY spring she takes to settin'. She will wait till the others lay and then she hops on those eggs like a chicken on a bug! (Sorry, I couldn't resist.) She would never get out of the nest if I didn't make her. So, I grabbed her up the other day and carried her out to the outside pen. When I set her down on the ground her little wing kinda popped up and out rolled an egg! She had it clamped in there all the way around the barn and I didn't know it. It was hidden!

And God said....LOL! If you read Psalm 91 you will get to verses 3-4 which say, "Surely He (God) shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence. And He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge."

Well, God is sooo much bigger and smarter than a chicken. And I thought how Tessie hid that egg and I didn't even know it was there. That's how God hides us, so even trouble can't see us or find us. What a great place to be!
