Jana Guthrie & Waylon James Cash In At Xtreme Million Finals, Win $32,061

By Tanya Randall

Jana Guthrie has been on a hot streak since climbing aboard Waylon James, owned by her good friend and trainer Carlos Renato, this past March. They won the qualifying round at the WCRA's Women's Rodeo World Championships, placed in their first pro rodeo and topped the Xtreme Million Finals for a $32,061 paycheck!

"The people that put on the Xtreme Million Finals are just incredible," said Guthrie of the Burns-Shaw family and their crew who produced the event. "They're innovators. They're smart and so sweet. I think it's just amazing to give us such an amazing opportunity to win that kind of money. We were very pleased and glad that we went. We were very impressed with the whole organization."

The Xtreme Million Finals, along with the Blackhawk Reunion, held June 15-26 in Salina, Utah, awarded $1.115 million between the two events.

Guthrie also placed 11th in the Xtreme Million on her derby horse FurociousLadyChaser ("Mac") to win an additional $6,262. The reator from Canton, Texas, was the second highest money earner of the event with $38,323.

Amelia McCumber, a physician's assistant from Atkinson, Nebraska, and her 8-year-old gelding Aint Seen Famous Yet were high money earners placing in the Xtreme Million with all three of their runs to earn $46,425.

Guthrie and Renato decided to head to Utah after Guthrie's friend Autumn Woodruff was the second high money earner at last year's event.

"When she posted about it on Facebook I messaged her about it and got all the info," Guthrie explained. "We always thought if it aligned with our schedules we'd like to go."

Guthrie made five runs over the weekend—two on Mac and three on Waylon James. The first day, Friday, her derby horse slipped, while Waylon James ran a 15.1, which at the time was sitting in the big checks. The next day, Mac won the Derby with a 15.076, putting himself in the Million 1D checks, but Waylon James tipped the first barrel.

"I had just got off my derby horse," Guthrie explained. "I rode him like I was supposed to ride my derby horse. I really didn't help Waylon James much going to the first. I didn't get my approach very good. We ended up coming back too close to the first barrel."

On Sunday, Guthrie decided to enter only Waylon James.

"Carlos and I talked after the run and got a strategy together," she said. "He helped me focus on where my approach should be at the first on Waylon. On Sunday, I felt like I was really prepared. I only entered Waylon that day. I decided to give the derby horse the day off. He'd already done his job on Saturday. I felt like it was Waylon James' turn to shine. We did just that."

They turned in the fastest time of the event, a 14.839, to win the Xtreme Million's $28,041 first-place check.

Ironically, Guthrie didn't even know she had won. She knew she had a great run and was leading it, but she had clients from Utah show up and was visiting with them rather than paying attention to the rest of the race.

"I didn't even know it was over and that we had won until I pulled it up 20 minutes later," said Guthrie. Renato also won $5,232 after placing in the 2D of the Xtreme Million.

THE RUNDOWN w/Jana Guthrie

Waylon James, 15.1-15.2 h., 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Kathy James

SADDLE: ProTech Horse, a Brazilian lightweight saddle

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever

LEG GEAR: Polo wraps

SHOEING: David Lewis farrier; steel shoes

HAY: Hay-Rite alfalfa cubes

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Flair strips. "While we were in Utah, Autumn Woodruff let us use her PEMF machine. Waylon James just loves that. He loves to go to the spa at Outlaw Equine. Dr. Josh Harvey takes good care of him when we're not running. We just try to do everything we can to keep him happy. Pretty much whatever Waylon James wants, he gets! We call him the King around our barn!"

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "Carlos has his training program for him. He keeps him really strong and really fit."

THANKS: Carlos Renato, Josh Harvey DVM, David Lewis

"We were like two kids in a candy shop. So happy and thankful. It was just a blessing. What do you do when you've found out that you've won that kind of money? Just scream like two little girls. It was really special because Carlos won quite a bit on his derby horse and ended up placing in the Xtreme Million too. It was really awesome!"

Guthrie was quick to give credit to Renato for all his help. "I've been riding with Carlos for about 12 years," she said. "He's been the biggest influence on my barrel racing career. He's who really stepped me up to the next level, where I'm at now."

Guthrie is currently testing the waters on the Fourth Of July run. She's also entered in the WCRA's Days of '47 and Cheyenne Frontier Days.

"There's no real gameplan right now," she said. "We're just testing the waters."

She's also grateful for the realty team at Acker Properties Group who have helped make her barrel racing dreams possible.

"I'm on a great team back home," she said. "My teammates have really stepped up to the plate. Yesterday I had to have a key and a lock box delivered to one of my new listings. One of my teammates stepped up and did it right then and there. I've had a couple of showings while I've been gone. I'm just so blessed to be in a career that I love and still be able to make money and be able to chase my dreams. It's a fairy tale to be honest."

A GENETIC TWIST – WAYLON JAMES

Carlos Renato's Waylon James is one of the most successful barrel horses sired by Clayton, the clone of Charmayne James' 10-time WPRA World Champion Gils Bay Boy ("Scamper").

Waylon James is a combination of James' World Champion mounts in that his maternal sire, Black Dash, is a son of Streakin Six, as was her 11th World title winner Cruisin On Six ("Cruiser").

The 10-year-old gelding is out of the Black Dash mare Shiney Black Dasher. The mare is a full sister to Easys Tiny Streak, a pro rodeo money earner for James as well as Rainey Skelton's first American Semifinals qualifier. She's a three-quarter sister to James Jolly Taylor ("Grasshopper") and Streak Sense, the 2013 BBR World Finals 1D Champion with Andrea Cline.

Skyler Nicholas & Perrywater Dash Capture National Junior High Barrel Racing Championship

By Tanya Randall

Rockdale, Texas, barrel racer Skyler Nicholas and her 10-year-old mare Perrywater Dash ("Jessie") were crowned the 2022 National Junior High Rodeo Finals Champion Barrel Racer in Perry, Georgia.

Nicholas, the 14-year-old daughter of Jeremy and Lisa Nicholas, and her family trained mare won the aggregate by .35 over a field of 154 contestants.

"My parents have done so much for me," she said. "There's no way this would be possible without them. I can't even imagine. All the glory to God. This mare wouldn't even be in my life without him. I'm so grateful for the blessings he's given me."

Nicholas and Jessie were third in the first round and second in the second to lead the aggregate on two heading into the short round.

"First round I was just going for a solid run," she said. "This was her first time running back to a solid gate where she had to turn off, so I was a little nervous about that. She handled it like a pro, like she'd done it a million times before. The second round, again, I was just really trying to make a solid run to make it back to the short go."

In the short round, Nicholas tried to focus on making another solid run.

"I didn't come in there thinking about a world championship," said the rising freshman. "I find if I think about the saddle or title, I do something crazy stupid that I've never done before. I just went for a solid run. I'm grateful for every run I get on Jessie. I went in there thinking it was just another run, have fun and be blessed to have made it this far."

They split second in the short round to win the aggregate.

SPONSORS: Iconoclast, Hay-Rite, MVP and Double J

"Short rounds have never been my forte, so to have a good short round run was a big deal for me," Nicholas said. "Just knowing that it was on Jessie, who has been my heart horse from day one. She's been there for me for every run. It's just a big deal."

The Nicholas family purchased Jessie as a yearling from her breeder Vickie Adams. She is by Stratospheric, a race-winning First Down Dash, Mr Jess Perry son Adams stood briefly before his passing, and out of Fire Waters Free, a daughter of Adams' great Fire Water Flit ("Milo") out of a mare that also traces back to the legendary Slash J Harletta.

"My dad broke her to ride and then she went to my mom," said Nicholas. "She was such a sound, sane colt that I started riding her when I was just 7 and she was only 3. My mom liked her but she didn't think she had that fire to be that winning futurity horse. She did well but she never won big.”

Nicholas’ dad really liked the mare and started heeling on her. When it was time to find a step-up horse for her, Jessie fit the bill. “I needed a step up horse, not something that was going to go win everything, but something sane and a little faster,” she said. “We started winning 3D and 4Ds. We thought in two more years that we’d sell her and get something faster. Two years came and that mare moved up with me. She continued to get faster and I rode better. She was the perfect mare for me. She is my biggest blessing in life and I’m forever grateful for that mare.”

Nicholas and Jessie have several big wins at the larger Texas jackpots, but they were limited on rodeo experience until two years ago.

“About two or three years ago, I started meeting a lot of friends that did junior high rodeo,” she explained. “They did breakaway and goats. I thought I want to get into that, especially breakaway roping because there’s a big future in that. I went to my dad and said I wanted to learn to rope and goat tie. My Mom said, ‘Well if you’re doing that, you might as well do poles. We can train a colt in that.’”

Nicholas got her feet wet in the Youth Rodeo Association in 2021 before moving on to junior high rodeo. While competing for Region 9, she qualified for the Texas Junior High School Rodeo Finals in barrel racing, pole bending and breakaway. Unfortunately, her pole horse sold right before the state finals so opted not to compete in that event.

At the state finals, Nicholas finished co-reserve champion after tying with Josie Whittington. Both young ladies finished behind London Gorham.

Nicholas, who is homeschooled, plans to continue her rodeo career in high school. She’ll also continue to train horses with her parents.

“Training colts is what my whole family does,” she said. “I can’t imagine going to public school. There would be no time for colts. That’s what I plan on doing in life, so it’s my first priority.”

Michelle Darling & Morning Traffic Earn Silver Spurs at Reno Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Michelle Darling made her first trip to Reno, Nevada, a memorable one with a $13,232 championship at the 103rd Reno Rodeo, held Jun 17-25.

“For a newbie, I had a lot of fun,” said the Medford, Oklahoma, barrel racer. “I’ve never been out West this early. It’s such a cool rodeo.”

The $62,500-added rodeo was limited to 96 entries. Each contestant got their first run in slack the morning of their performance. Darling used the format to her advantage, knowing her great mare Morning Traffic (“Martini”) would enjoy the peace and quiet of slack.

“It’s quiet and she focuses a little bit better,” said Darling, “so, I knew I was going to go for it. A lot of girls go in there to make runs that get them in the average. I knew I was going to send her pretty hard that morning and get all that I could out of her.” They won the first round with their run of 17 flat.

“She showed up and smoked a run,” Darling added. “She felt amazing, but she’d also had almost five days off since her last run.”

For their second run, Darling focused on staying clean.

“I thought to myself, ‘Get her by that second barrel!’” she recalled. “She’s going to be a little short because the crowd is on the second barrel and it’s really loud over there. She smoked another run. I thought it was a little bit faster, but I was tenth on the ground. The last couple of nights when the perf had been won the girls had been first out on the ground. I knew being 10th out—just make your run and stay in there for the average.”

Their 17.32 didn’t place in the round but put Darling third in the aggregate going into the short go.

After Stevi Hillman and her great horse Cuatro Fame (“Truck”) posted a 16.9 and defending world champs Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet (“Rollo”) clocked a 16.85, Darling figured she and Martini were just running for an average check.

“Those were unbelievable runs,” she said. “I was just going in there for an average check, trying for a clean run. She even had a little slip on the third barrel and it cost her a little bit, but she just kept moving her feet.”

Their 17.05 was third in the short go and gave them the slimmest of victories—1/100ths of a second!

“I still didn’t think I had won it,” she said. “When I heard Leslie hit a barrel and they said I was sitting first by 1/100th of a second, I was like ‘No Way! No Way!’ I usually go straight back to the trailer because she doesn’t like being up there by all the noise, but when I heard them say, ‘New name, new game, new champion’ and they called my name, I screamed! I had no idea I had won it. That was just so cool. We all want to win it, but I had no idea I would win it. I was just so excited. I don’t even know where to start!”

Darling, who is making her first big push for a National Finals Rodeo qualification, appreciates all the support she’s received while on the road.

“I’ve had so many people reach out to me and encourage me,” she said. “It’s so tough out here and my anxiety is awful. It’s just one run at a time. All my homework is done so all I can do is let it happen.”

Before the short round, it was a simple text from past Reno Rodeo Champion Ivy Hurst that motivated her.

“She said, ‘Go make a run. Martini can win that rodeo!’ I said, ‘Ok, I will!’ I thought about Diddy winning that rodeo. He was a smaller horse. I thought about Ivy losing him. I kind of went in there to make a run for her,” she said.

The Reno Rodeo victory bumped Darling from 16th in the WPROA World Standings to eighth. She’s headed into the lucrative Fourth of July run, known as Cowboy Christmas, with $43,858 won.

The Silver Spurs in her truck also meant that her travel plans changed for the Fourth

“I entered everything,” she said. “I made the decision that if I didn’t do well at Reno that I was going to Greeley. Then I would hit Belle Fourche, Mandan and those over there. But I entered over here (on the West Coast) too in case I did well at Reno. I was going to turn Greeley out and go up to St. Paul, Molalla, Eugene, Livingston and Cody.”

Darling was making her way to St. Paul, Oregon, at the time of this interview. She’s hauling with her 7-year-old daughter Demi and a newly acquired pet hamster Reno. She’s got Martini and a new 6-year-old mare Clara Jane—registered as ClarasFancyFirewater—that came from Holly Reed, in the trailer.

“She’s not really seasoned,” Darling said of the 6-year-old Flaming Fire Water mare. “I haven’t got to run her yet, but I’ve been making practice runs on her when they open the arena up in the morning. Right now, she’s really a companion horse for Martini. I may run her at Eugene. Right now, I’m just trying to get her ready and let her feel the rodeo ground and learn how to stand up square. That futurity ground is a whole different ball game.”

GET ON HIM!

Drawing up at the end of the Reno Rodeo allowed Michelle Darling to spend a lot of time in Reno. After the morning slack, contestants were allowed to ride in the arena and most of the barrel racers took the time to work their younger horses.

It was during one of those sessions that Darling got to take a spin on Ty and Stevi Hillman’s TSH Pendleton, who just happens to be the oldest foal out of Darling’s mare Morning Traffic (“Martini”).

Hillman had ridden Martini, a daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of Evening Traffic, by Dash Thru Traffic, when Darling was pregnant with her daughter Demi. The mare helped Hillman qualify for her first National Finals Rodeo with an exceptional win at the Pendleton Roundup—hence the name of her Dash Ta Fame son.

“Stevi and I were talking and I told her that I’d never ridden one of Martini’s babies,” Darling said. “I had always sold them. I like raising them and selling them after I’ve started them, but Martini’s were so valuable as babies it wasn’t even worth starting them. I just sell them as weanlings or yearlings.”

After much badgering, Hillman talked Darling into taking a spin on Pendleton.

“I was giving her every excuse not to ride him, and finally, she was like, ‘Get on him!’” Darling laughed. “I let the stirrups all the way out because it was in her saddle. She’s so tiny, I felt like a giant! I just sent that sucker and he was amazing! He felt so much like Martini, but the Dash Ta Fame is there. I felt Martini in him a lot. It was so much fun. It made my day!”

New World Record in Brazil, 16.109

Over the past few years, the world record on a standard pattern is really heating up in Brazil. Just this past week the horse Order A Victory LW and Edson Carlos Da Rosa shaved more off the previous record lowering it to 16.109 at Rancho Mariana in Altinópolis/SP. The previous record of 16.213 was set by In Love Fame HR in March 2022 in Brazil. The pair earned a $100,000 Reals (Brazilian currency) for breaking the record. The 10 yr old gelding is by leading Brazilian sire Victory Fly VM and out of the American mare Slostartfastfinish, who also produced the big American winner Runnin Ricochet Bar (winner of $171,244 per Equistat). Order A Victory LW is owned and was also bred by Fazenda Nossa Senhora De Lourdes and is one of the leading barrel racing earners in Brazil.

For reference, a standard WPRA barrel pattern is defined as 90 feet between barrels one and two, 105 feet between barrel 1 and 3 and barrel 2 and 3. Also, there is 60 ft between barrels 1 & 2 and the score line where the lasers are placed.

The video of this smoking fast record is on our Facebook page at Barrel Racing Report. Congratulations to all the connections!

Thank you to Diogo Zopone for the information.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I think we could all agree that if anything good is going to come to us in this time we are living in, it will come from God, through His children.
Last week, Mike and I received a card and letter from a man, thanking us for taking care of him and his brother when they were little and their single parent dad was in the hospital...about 30 years ago.

What I remember of that time was that they were great kids and we could help. He remembered so much more and put it all in that letter. It made me cry.

A few days later, I believe that God asked me to challenge/encourage the people who attend Church at the Barn to do the same thing for someone/someones in their lives. Someone who may have encouraged you, mentored you, taught you, loved you when no one else did!

It won't take you a lot of effort, but your kind/thankful words just may be what someone needs to hear... Matthew 7:12 is the scripture which says do unto others what you want done to you. Let's all spread some cheer this week! Have a wonderful Independence Day!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
