Lisa Lockhart & Fast An Gold Win Second Straight Spanish Fork Champions Challenge

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Reserve World Champion Lisa Lockhart has owned the Wrangler Champions Challenge Rodeos in 2015. She won three thus far—Scottsdale, Ariz., and Logandale, Nevada, both on the incomparable An Oakie With Cash (“Louie”) and most recently Spanish Fork, Utah, on Fast An Gold (“Chism”), the now 17-year-old gelding, by El Roco out of Romanna Glass, by Raise Your Glass.

“It’s always so hard,” said the mother of three from Oelrich, S.D. “I always feel so bad. I come home from the winter rodeos and it’s so far out to California and Spanish Fork, I’ve got to give Louie a break. Chisum has got the call the last two years on all of that.”

Lockhart and Chisum clocked a 17.17 to out run a stellar field that included Michelle McLeod, Callie duPerier, Fallon Taylor, Bri-tany Diaz, Nancy Hunter (who won the Redding, Calif., Champions Challenge), Trula Churchill, Sarah McDonald, Mary Walker, Carlee Pierce and Sherry Cervi.

Lockhart is currently second in the world standings with $57,171 earned from 17 rodeos. She said this year her travel plans have changed from previous summers.

“I’m not going to Canada,” she said. “I’m busy with kids. I’ve missed so much, trying to make it work, and I just said, ‘The heck with it!’ I don’t have to panic, not being around half the time. I got to watch my son at the (South Dakota) Jr High Rodeo Finals. It was great.”

Lockhart said it’s not that she’s not going continue to haul hard—rodeo is her business after all, but her success at the Champions Challenges have made it easier to focus her time on her children, Cade, Thane and Alyssa.

The next three weeks will be fairly hectic with junior rodeos. Thane won the South Dakota Jr High Finals in the calf roping, so he’s headed to Des Moines, Iowa, for Nationals, which unfortunately coincide with the South Dakota State High School Finals, which Lockhart is hopeful Alyssa will qualify for during the next two weeks of regional rodeos.

“I’m trying to make the most of my time at home,” she said. “I finally got to see one of my kids’ graduation. I had never got to see a Kindergarten or eighth grade graduation. I got to go to a graduation (Thane’s eighth grade graduation), and it was awesome.”

Ultimately, Lockhart is hoping for her ninth straight NFR qualification.

“From the beginning of the year I’ve done things differently,” said

Let The Games Begin

As crazy as it seems, only four months remain in rodeo’s regular season. But some of the most lucrative rodeos lie ahead.

This past week, two-time Michele McLeod was the biggest mover, picking up $8,010 on Kellies Chick (“Skye”), owned by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin. McLeod, Whitesboro, Texas, and Skye topped the Old Fort Days Pro Rodeo in Fort Smith, Ark., for $3,596, placed second at the Spanish Fork, Utah, Wrangler Champions Challenge for $4,160 and finished 11th at the Hugo, Okla., pro rodeo for $254. McLeod now sits 10th in the standings with $32,933.

Currently, several new faces are amongst the Top 20 going into the summer run.

Last year’s sensation Sarah McDonald didn’t leave her South-eastern Circuit until the Fourth of July and banked $64,000 and a rookie championship. Now, she’s already got $54,616 in the bank heading into the summer. She’s also got an invite to that little $100,000 shindig north of the border.

Callie duPerier, who battled McDonald for the coveted rookie title, has her sights firmly on an NFR qualification. She's already hit 40 rodeos this year and sits fourth with $53,801.

Lucrative winter runs also have Alexa Lake, Cassidy Kruse and Meghan Johnson in the Top 15. Strong starts to the 2015 season last fall have kept Southeastern circuit members Layna Kight and Victoria Williams in the hunt. Kight is hoping she has the right horse power in Eyesa So Famous and Williams is hoping that trailer gremlins stay away in 2015.

Those in the top 15 are hoping that their current placement gives the confidence needed to advance as they are the hunted. A pack of wolves is on their tails.

Although she's already in the Top 15, Kaley Bass's Wonders Cowboy Dan thrives on the hectic summer schedule. The bulk of their earnings has always come from the summer run. However, unlike last year, when a Calgary Stampede Championship bumped them to the top of the heap, Bass wasn't invited this year. She'll have to stay stateside to earn her summer fortunes.

Carley Richardson was one of the richest barrel racers over the Fourth of July last year. She lost the use of her main mount Doda Flit at Cheyenne which quelled her momentum. This year she's hoping for sound horses to push her up from her current 20th position.

NFR qualifiers Mary Walker (currently 22th), Christine Laughlin (27), Carlee Pierce (42) and Samantha Lyne (65) are going to have to push hard, and hopefully, make their most of their Calgary invites to return to the NFR. Both Walker and Laughlin have made late season jumps before. In fact, Laughlin basically started her NFR run at the Reno Rodeo last year, and in 2012, a late season wind-fall, helped Walker earn her first NFR qualification and subsequent World Championship.

RODEO BIBLE CAMP

"ATTITUDE OF A CHAMPION"

COPPER SPRING RANCH

You are invited to the 4th Annual Copper Spring Ranch Rodeo Bible Camp—"Attitude of a Champion," July 7-9, at the ranch in beautiful Bozeman, Montana. This is a rare opportunity for today's and tomorrow's competitors to work with nationally recognized past and present rodeo champions.

Instructors include World Champion DEAN GORSUCH and NFR qualifier BEAU CLARK in steer wrestling, TREY JOHNSON 2000 PRCA Rookie of the Year Heeler, JUSTIN DAVIS NFR qualifier in team roping heading, 5-time NFR qualifier RUSTY SEWALT in tie down roping, standout futurity horse trainer LESLIE WILLIS in barrel racing and LANA TIBBETTS National Intercollegiate Goat-Tying Champion.

The camp features instruction in tie down and breakaway roping, barrel racing, steer wrestling, team roping, and goat-tying that includes ground work and live cattle. Designed for cowboys and cowgirls of all ages, the camp provides a wholesome environment for this Western family-style sport.

CSR rodeo bible camp has an exciting mix of rodeo-oriented training by highly regarded clinicians plus it offers a chance for hours of fellowship with positive-minded mentors. Curriculum includes motivational teaching and positive practice instructions that give participants the tools to win inside and outside the arena.

The cost is $300 with food and lodging included, additional family members are $150. Campers may sign up for another event at no additional cost. THE RUNDOWN w/ Tiany Schuster

Tresarainbow "Elton" 15 hands, 1,050 pounds
HISTORY: I bought him from Jolene Jones back earlier this year (Feb/March). She did an excellent job of training him. Where I just finished him out. All the hard work was done. She gets all the credit for hauling him to Walmart and Home Depot and everywhere in between! My biggest task was to just tell him it wasn't training time anymore. And that didn't take long!

WINNING RUN: And then the Slot Race comes along. I won it last year on Prissy French Girl. And was on the phone just hours before with Raymond Flowers (PFG owner) and he asked how things were going up there at DC Show. I said not as good as I would like. I don't have a chance in the world. I have no business being in this race....(sigh). Raymond said something like, "Well, it is what it is. You can just do your best and that's all you can do."

"Raymond, my horse is going to get put me in the 3D. There are some good colts here and my colt generally never gets faster. I'm already slow. I don't think it's looking good for the rest of the year."

I don't know about the rest of the year, but this was the first time he ever got faster. Mike Kurty had fixed a MAJOR shoe issue 2 hours before the slot race, that I was having in the hind end, where we were stepping on them and pulling them off. That was the ticket. Right there. And that was the first time I ever got faster. Fast enough to win. He NAILED what felt like a perfect 1st barrel. He set up so dang hard at the second, but he listens extremely well and is not a barrel hitter, he said nooo problem when I needed him to stay up a bit more to clear it. If he had an ounce of dishonesty in him, I would have been launched out the pen. And going to the third.... don't ask me what happened, because I don't know... what I do know, is we were running a straight line to it and then he bailed right and I was thinking WHAT ARE YOU DOING!?!?! That cost me TONS of time. Fortunately enough for me, that first barrel WAS my money barrel!

PLANS: My plans are to keep him healthy and finish out the year if I don't sell him before hand. He is so fun to ride and reminds me so much of Notable Bully. That's why I bought him. He is entered in OKC. Just keep going and maybe who knows... he just maybe my next Notable Bully, LTE: $12K+

Great Race to benefit Families of Western Heritage

Wow! The 4th Annual Copper Spring Classic, a benefit barrel race established to help families of Western heritage in need, was bigger and better than ever. More than 700 runs were made over three days at Copper Spring Ranch's indoor arena on a standard pattern. $30,000 plus was paid out to contestants in the open and youth races who hailed from nine states and Canada.

Future Fortunes was on hand and added their $10,000 bonus for enrolled offspring who ran in the Sunday $5000 added 5D Open giving a new opportunity for horses and riders in Big Sky Country to get some substantial money.

The Saturday church service featured Victor Marx, martial arts instructor and president of the highly regarded ATP Ministries. Everyone was on the edge of their seats as they listened to his incredible testimony and of his outreach rescuing young victims in the sex trafficking world. Recently, he and his team traveled to Iraq rescuing victims from ISIS.

After the 4D Church Race on Saturday, Dr. Chris Ray, DVM, MS, DACVS, gave a presentation on lower extremity issues followed by a question and answer period. Dr. Ray's Equine Services is located at CSR. A dinner and dance rounded out the evening. And then Sunday started out with an incredible message from Weston Paul on Purpose, Plan, and Perseverance.

Times were lightning fast all weekend. The Friday night warm up race winner was Sam Feather ridden by Ty Frame with a time of 17.235. The Saturday church race got even faster: Dobie Hills and Lauren Reiser ran a 17.005. The $5,000 added Copper Spring Classic Open 5D event winner was Top Of The Sail ridden by Milee Dailey with a scorching 16.917. Duallers Queen and Ashley Sudan were second with a 16.979. Myers Ranch sponsored the 2D

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The safest and best place to be in these turbulent times is right in the center of God's perfect will for you. From experience, I can tell you that it's a might good place to be and look what Jeremiah 29:11 says, "For I know the thoughts I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope."

Of course, there are times when people insist on going their own way and doing a think according to their flawed reasoning. Then they wail and beg God to get them out of the mess they created. This is called God's permissive will and the results might not be what they wanted.

Romas 8:28 tells us..."all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose." This is telling us we need to pray about everything and seek God's will for our lives. Just talk to God and ask His help and He won't ever let you down. He'll put you where He can use you and it's a wonderful feeling to know that you're serving the Lord and your life counts for something.

So do not be afraid of anything you read in the papers or hear on the news. God is still in control. Remember the words in Deuteronomy 3:22 which should be a comfort: "Do not fear for the Lord your God fights for you." Hallelujah!
