Winning Note for Carlee Otero & Crew at Music City Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Carlee Otero and AM Regina George and Blingolena, two of her three talented horses, swept the $30,000-added Music City Rodeo, held May 28-30 in Nashville.

"I took a chance and gave them both a shot," said Otero, a realtor and five-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Perrin, Texas, "and they both showed up. Maybe the better verbiage is I showed up for them, because they always seem to show up."

The sweep paid $9,669.

"It's such a good rodeo," she said. "They just want to do good by everybody. They improved by leaps and bounds. I wanted to be supportive of that rodeo because I like the committee. I'm so glad I went back."

Last year's event was a very successful one-run rodeo over three performances, but the event's location in Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville meant trailer parking for slack was tight. This year they opted for a progressive first round off site with the top 36 advancing to one of three performances downtown.

"I think the format was really, really good," said Otero. "It gave everyone a chance to enter and get into Bridgestone."

"Also, it's a good week out there. It brings money to the community because we all kind of camped out and made it a fun little week before we head off for the summer."

The first round was held on May 26 at the Williamson County Ag Expo Park in Franklin, Tennessee. Otero opted to run Sly, the 8-year-old Blazin Jetolena, Dash Ta Fame gelding that did the heavy lifting to qualify her for the 2024 NFR.

"Thy had it set up on a big standard pattern," noted Otero. "I knew at some point, I had to get Sly's running lungs and legs back under him. He was in shape but it's different than making runs. I chose to run him in that bigger pen, knowing I was going to go inside to a little pen. Regina and my timing are just a little bit better because I've been running her and Twix (Cathys Kandy). Luckily our plan worked out really well."

Otero and Sly topped the progressive round in 17.03. As the fastest qualifier, Otero was seated into third and final performance on Saturday for her second run but made a trade to the first performance since she was up in the performance at the Old Fort Days Rodeo in Fort Smith, Arkansas, that same day.

In the tiny confines of Bridgestone Arena, Otero and Regina, her 8-year-old A Smooth Guy mare out of Oro Rose, by Man In The Money, clocked a 13.08 to win the two-run aggregate by .35 over last year's champions Makenzie Mayes and Chicado Moon.

"It's tiny in there," she chuckled. "I'm not going to lie. It was tinier than I even remembered from last year!"

At Fort Smith, a $7,500-added one-run rodeo, Otero was back on Sly and finished second by .01 behind Alyssa Urbanek-Wade and FeelinWillieWicked. Their $3,014 from Fort Smith bumped their weekend haul to $12,683 and bumped Otero into the WPRA's Top 10.

Otero said she's home for a week, while she and her calf roper husband Michael Otero's boys attend football camp and she shows some property, before heading out for the summer run of pro rodeos.

“Sunday is our go day,” she said. “Michael and I are both out at Woodward (Oklahoma) Monday morning for slack and then we’ll head to Sisters, Oregon and Driggs (Idaho).

“Our game plan this year, now that I’ll have three horses, is to pick the arenas that suit each one the best. My goal is to be able to keep them all fresh still by the end of summer, where we’re not coming home exhausted.”

Otero said she’s extremely thankful to have a talented group of horses because that means less wear and tear on each horse.

“Nobody’s overly tired or exhausted,” she said. “I’m very, very blessed and literally just taking it all in because it doesn’t happen very often.”

However, it also makes her job as their jockey much more challenging.

“The only similarity that those three horses have is that all three of them want to turn,” she said, “but their running and turning styles are 100 percent different. I really have to rely on my brain and mental game. Like, ‘OK, this is the horse we’re running.’ Michael is obviously the superstar behind this because he’ll be like, ‘Get your head in the game. Now, we’re on Sly. This is what you’re going to have to remember to do’ or with Regina, this is what you have to remember to do to make sure you give her space.

“I’m getting better at it, but I still have days where I’m like ‘Gosh dang it! I didn’t ride him the right way!’ It’s definitely a challenge, but it’s a challenge that I accept because I like challenges.”

Otero also refuses to “duck off” to smaller jackpots to get her timing with her horses between rodeos.

“I refuse to just show up for a $50 jackpot and waste a run,” she said. “First of all, they don’t deserve that. They make enough runs. I’m just trying to do my best to stay on my game and show at the rodeos and do my part because they’re solid enough. They want to win. They’re going to give me their all every time anyway, so I just have to do my part. I have to put in as much effort as they do. It always seems to work out. Whenever it doesn’t work, I can go back and watch videos. 99 percent of the time, it’s because I failed.”

Otero said she likes to go back and watch some of her best runs before making a horse change.

“I always try to think about my favorite run,” she explained. “What did it feel like? What did it look like? Before Nashville, I went back and watched my 13.20 at the NFR on Regina and reminded myself what our game plan was, how to get the first and maintain momentum in those tiny pens. I went in there and tried to mimic that.”

Jenkins Dashes to $44K in High Stakes at Virginia Classic

By Julie Mankin

Shaela Jenkins hit the biggest barrel-racing jackpot of her life in Lexington, Va., when she and 11-year-old Hez Dashin For Money (“Dash”) won the High Stakes on May 29. She figures she’ll buy more diesel with her $43,800 windfall.

“I’ve just got to slow my mind down and ride him every step,” said Jenkins. “If I make a mistake, he will most of the time make it up for me.”

With a time of 14.515, Jenkins won the $40,000 first-place check in the slot race at the Virginia Barrel Classic Futurity & Derby by just .081 seconds over former NFR barrel racer Christine Derenzo on My Flashy Jess. Derenzo earned $23,000 for second.

“I knew it was a lot of money, but I treated it as just another run,” said Jenkins. “I really wasn’t nervous. I figured I’d go in there and ride my horse to his spots and see how it turned out. I wasn’t trying to do anything special. Most of the time, the runs that feel the slowest end up clocking well. I wasn’t trying to go in there and blow the walls off. If I ever get too anxious, then I quit thinking in my run.”

Jenkins tipped the first barrel the following day. But she already had that fat check in her pocket. And just the week prior, she and Dash had earned a little over $28,000 in Georgia and Texas. In fact, Jenkins did make the Circuit Finals one year rodeoing on the registered Paint (Dash is pure chestnut), but would rather go to the super shows, she said, and win a lot more money.

Her family picked him up as a 4-year-old after her farrier suggested she try him. Dash is by the On The Money Red son Hit On The Money out of a granddaughter of both Streakin Six and Ronas Ryon – with Dash For Cash on both sides maternally, as well. Jenkins’ run also won Friday’s Open Race for $2,566, as well as the AQHA 4D for $594 and Friday’s All Riders 4D sidepot for $640. She reckons the gelding has racked up more than $250,000 since she began training him when he was 7.

“I like On The Money Red horses; they fit me really well,” said Jenkins, who trains barrel horses for the public in Palatka, Florida. “They’re naturally hot horses and I’m so quiet, they just fit me. I’ve had people ask if he’s old because he walks into the alley flat-footed.”

Jenkins is currently trying to create another Dash by breeding a mare to The Money Depot by On The Money Red. She’ll next haul Dash to another slot race in South Carolina.

Bowser Shatters Arena Record in Virginia, Wins Derby for $23K

By Julie Mankin

A tiny slip made Kelly Bowser's horse catch the second barrel leaving it in the High Stakes slot race. But the 67-year-old trainer from Swanton, Ohio, went ahead next and obliterated the arena record to win the Derby at the Virginia Barrel Classic on May 28-31 in Lexington, Va. His ride? Chad and Mandi West's 7-year-old son of Tres Seis that overcame a devastating bout with Lyme Disease. Quarento Tres – nicknamed "Opie" but often called 43 because of the Spanish numbers in his name – earned $23,461 with just one blistering run of 14.255. The time won the Derby by more than a tenth of a second for $6,375 and won two Open races for $5,892, plus the Big Money for $4,940 and the Big Bucks for $3,853. The closest time to Bowser's was also the only .4 of the event. It was put up in the Derby by Blaise Wheeler on the Leslie Willis-trained Felice Seis, also by Tres Seis.

Opie's big wins are reminiscent of Bowser's other famous trainee, also out of a Strawfly Special daughter. An NFR qualifier, Dash Ta Diamonds ("Arson") who now counts lifetime earnings estimated at more than $545,000.

"Opie is faster in a straightaway, and Arson ran around the barrels as fast as he ran to them," explained Bowser.

In Lexington, Bowser also made two stellar runs on Patrick Hoopes' 5-year-old stud Three Way To Be Epic to rake in $18,048. The horse is by Epic Leader out of Size Three Bikini, by Tres Seis and out of Famous Silk Panties (Kelly and Danielle Bowser also own their own 4-year-old stud by Epic Leader).

On the stallion, Bowser's 14.756 Friday earned $9,404 for sixth in the High Stakes plus Open and sidepot monies, and his 14.789 racked up nine more paychecks – including a top-10 finish in the Derby – for another $8,644. Bowser's eight-hour drive to Lexington paid $41,657 total. But the veteran trainer also hit pay dirt in several incentives including Future Fortunes, Pink Buckle Double Down and Tomorrow's Legends, making his weekend worth just over $50,000 total.

"People think I do this for a living," he said. But no. His entire career, Bowser has been a plaster- and drywall-finisher by trade. He still works full-time doing that, although in recent years he's limited projects to remodels, additions and repairs. And he trains up to seven barrel horses each day. Bowser prefers to start his horses as 2-year-olds and finish them at 3.

When one went to bucking last winter and his gloves made the reins and saddle horn run through his hands, he just chose a spot to jump off. Did we mention that Bowser also shoes his own horses?

Bowser has known Chad West since West was just a teenager. The longtime friend had purchased Opie as a 2-year-old out of the BBR sale in Oklahoma City.

"They had raced him and he wasn't fast enough," said Bowser. "They ran him through the Pink Buckle Sale and no-saled him, then sold him for the same price in the BBR sale."

Bowser said Opie was "pretty broke" for a racehorse at 2, and when he put him on the barrels, the gelding just kept progressing. "We kept sending Chad the videos, and he asked, 'How come you never send any bad videos?'" recalled Kelly. "But he never did out the horse had Lyme Disease, and to be treated. Finally, with optimal gut health, he became more consistent at 5 when he won the $76,000 Pink Buckle Derby victory thanks to a 16.7, and followed that up by winning the BBR Derby. In May, the duo set the arena record at Old Fort Days, which was broken a day later.

Opie is a gentle giant that loves people, said Bowser, who recently let an 8-year-old girl cool off the gelding right after a local run.

“He’s everybody’s buddy,” he said.

Bowser’s wife, Danielle, likes to point out the fact her husband never wears spurs or uses a whip. And that Opie is built like a train and doesn’t actually look like he should be able to run barrels. But the horse turns perfectly correct in vintage Bowser style.

Pink Buckle Select Sale to Feature 100 Elite Horses and 15 Young Guns League Prospects

The Pink Buckle is excited to announce the return of the 2026 Pink Buckle Select Sale, taking place Oct. 7, 2026, at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma, during the Pink Buckle Barrel Race, held Oct. 3-11.

The Pink Buckle Select Sale has quickly become a leading industry event for buyers looking for elite barrel racing prospects, proven bloodlines and horses backed by the industry's richest incentive program. The 2026 sale will feature 100 elite Pink Buckle horses, along with an exciting addition for the coming year — 15 Young Guns League prospects.

The sale preview will begin at 10 a.m., with the live sale starting at noon.

Consignments will open June 1 exclusively for Pink Buckle stallion owners. If space remains available, limited public consignments will open July 1.

"Our focus is on continuing to offer a selective group of elite horses that represent the quality behind the Pink Buckle and we're excited to highlight a very select amount of Young Guns League prospects into the lineup for 2026," said Kayla Jones, Marketing Director for Pink Buckle. "This sale continues to showcase some of the industry's top horses, breeders and consignors while creating even more opportunities through both the Pink Buckle and Young Guns League programs."

In addition to the elite lineup of horses, Pink Buckle sale graduates continue to be eligible for significant opportunities at future Pink Buckle events, including:

- $200,000 5D Sale Graduate Incentive
- $100,000 Futurity Sale Graduate Incentive

Additional consignment information, forms and updates will be available at PinkBuckle.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

This weeks challenge is...perseverance! Glad we are done with self control? NO! Remember we are ADDING to each week from 2 Pet. 1:5-9.

And when we get to verse 8 and we've been working on these things, the Word promises us that we will be, "neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Other translations may say we will not stumble or fall. So, what is perseverance? The first thing that pops into my head is "not quitting". Ohhhh there are days when I want to quit. I want to quit on people, quit on working, quit on eating right! Anything and everything. Let's don't.

The end goal here is to be victorious in life, and if we quit and get "weary in well doing", we'll never arrive. Gal. 6:9 says we'll reap if we hang in there. (Loose translation!).

Friends, we can do this. We all have challenges and weaknesses and sometimes we just plain miss it. But when we do, DON'T STAY THERE! Get up, repent, get going, start over, get help. Whatever it takes! We'll all be in the winner's circle when Jesus says, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant!"
