Lockhart Regains No. 1 Ranking With Challenge Win

By Tanya Randall

Multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Lisa Lockhart reclaimed the No. 1 spot in the WPRA World Standings with a $5,400 victory at the $16,000 Wrangler Champions Challenge in Spanish Fork, Utah, on May 31.

Lockhart, Oelrichs, S.D., is very ritualistic about the rodeos she enters and her commitment to the Wrangler Champions Challenge has added more travel to her usual itinerary.

"The Champions Challenge was a little detour for me, but it's worked out very well at this point in time," she said. "I'm glad I did it."

She and Fast An Gold ("Chisum") turned in a 16.99 to best the field of 10 champions.

"I hadn't been there in a couple of years because I've been doing other things," she said of Spanish Fork, "but I remember it was always a fast track. They have such a cool setting there. It's like a football stadium. There are bleachers all around and the arena's like a little bowl. It's so awesome."

She was a little concerned listening to the times of the first few runners, because Chisum hadn't made many runs since last summer.

"It started off with some pretty fast times," said Lockhart, who is sponsored by Circle Y Saddles, Classic Equine, Cowgirl Tuff, De-Tye Veterinary Supply, Signature Quarters, Woody's Performance Horse Feeds, B Bar Heart Performance Horses and Platinum Performance. "I'm thinking, 'Oh boy!' I had taken Chisum two weeks before to Redding, and we were just long. Of course, that's in the back of my mind. I thought, 'Come on, Chisum.' I know what he's capable of doing. He's had a lot of time off since last summer." Luckily, the 16-year-old gelding by El Roco out of Romanna Glass, by Raise Your Glass, rose to the occasion.

"He felt great and he felt really sharp," she said. "Sometimes he's not the best at running out an alley, and it was definitely kind of a narrow alley with lots of people around. I just kept my fingers crossed that he'd keep running. At Redding he didn't (run out) at all. I can't fault him. He ran hard. His turns were very fast and efficient, and he ran hard out the gate. I was very surprised at my time, more than surprised—elated!"

With An Oakie With Cash ("Louie") out for the year recovering from a stifle injury, Chisum will be Lockhart's main ride for the remainder of the season.

"It's a great time of year for him honestly," she said. In year's past, Chisum has carried much of the load at Lockhart's circuit rodeos and many of the larger outdoor runs. "If I'm going to be riding him I'd rather it be now than the winter rodeos. I'm completely confident in him, that he's going to take care of me."

She's also got a few young ones waiting in the wings.

"I've got a young horse right now that needs to go," Lockhart said. She actually took him to his first rodeos in Canada last week-

Childers & Just My Choice Triumph at Old Fort Days Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Molly Childers, Mead, Okla., and her cutting-bred gelding Just My Choice ("Ozzy") topped the $5,000-added Old Fort Days Rodeo, held May 26-31 in Fort Smith, Ark. Their 16.48 bested the field by nearly 2/10ths and was worth $3,173 of the $15,866 total purse.

"It was pretty dang good," said Childers of her winning run from the Thursday night performance. She got "lucky" and moved up to third on the ground after three other contestants turned out. Carlee Pierce and Dash Ta Diamonds had been leading since Tuesday morning slack with a 16.64.

Childers was initially a little apprehensive since she'd been having trouble running past the first barrel at Kay Rodgers Park.

"I was so frustrated with myself," she explained. "Every run I had made in that pen the last two weeks I ran past the first barrel. My game plan the other night was 'I'm going to nail the first barrel, no matter what! I don't care what happens the rest of the run! I'm turning the first barrel!'"

"It was a really loud perf and he got a little excited back there and I just tried to keep him really calm. I eased him up the alleyway until he could see (his first barrel) and took off. It was just flawless. He was running hard and working really well. In my head, coming back from the third barrel I was thinking 'this is kind of slow; I hope he speeds up; this feels slow.' When I came across the time line and they said my time I was like 'Oh my God!' It was really, really smooth though. I know that's where he made up some time. He was just really smooth and flawless."

Childers said that Ozzy's been making more and more runs like that.

"He's been coming on," said the wife of Jason and mother of 4-year-old Avery. "We've had a few timing issues the past couple of end and said the experience was rather humbling. "That's part of the process and sometimes you don't get off of one until you're forced to. That's how Louie came into work. Sometimes you do what you've got to do. I'm keeping my doors open to see what transpires. For now I'll ride Chisum and keep plugging away and go with the flow."

After Spanish Fork, Lockhart's real race began when she left the rodeo to try to make home in time for her daughter Alyssa's rodeo. "I drove all night home to get to my daughter's regional qualifier high school rodeo," said Lockhart, who has three children—Alyssa, Thane and Cade with husband Grady. "I missed the first go. When I pulled in they were setting the barrels up. My husband called and said, 'Where are you?' I said, 'I'm at the edge of town. Don't let them start. I've driven 800 miles just to see this!' Talk about a photo finish! I got there just in time to say hello and give her a couple of words of encouragement and she won the barrel race. It was so worth it!"

Her son Thane also qualified for the Wrangler National Junior High School Finals Rodeo in Des Moines in the calf roping and goat tying. Unfortunately it's the same weekend as Alyssa's state high school finals. Lockhart won't enter any rodeos that weekend so she can watch her daughter, while her husband will go to Iowa with her son.

"Everybody's got something going," she laughed, noting that she really needed to mow the yard before she left for a two week run to Canada, but couldn't because it was too wet. "It's so exciting to watch them too. It's hard to get it all in, but we just do the best we can for everybody."

Ozzy, a 6-year-old gelding by champion cutting horse sire SR Instant Choice out of Rose Red 072, by Justa Swingin Peppy, practically made an "instant" barrel horse. The gelding was found by Childers' good friend Rodney Agnew, who has found her several good horses from the cutting pen.

"I guess I have a knack for the ones that are cow-bred," she noted. "The one thing they've all had in common—even though they were more performance bred instead of race bred—was they could really, really run and were really athletic. That's one thing that I look for. Speed is important in barrel racing but if they're athletic they don't necessarily have to be the fastest one out there."

Ozzy, whom she purchased as a 3-year-old, started out as a calf horse for her husband and didn't get started on the barrels until he was coming back from an injury as a 4-year-old.

"He had gotten hurt and my husband had left to go work in the oil fields," explained Childers, a real estate appraiser who also works part-time doing promotions for Bluebonnet Feeds. "When he was ready to start rehab, he needed just 20- to 30-minutes of just walking and trotting—slow stuff. I thought if I'm going to be just walking and trotting I may as well just start him on the barrels. He caught on like you wouldn't believe!"

Ozzy probably had just three months on the pattern before placing at the BBR Finals Futurity in 2012.

"Everybody asked me this year why I wasn't running him at Fort Smith in the Derby and I said because when it was time to nominate him his 3-year-old year he hadn't even been started on the barrels," she laughed. To be eligible for the Old Fort Days Derby a horse must have been paid in full to the Futurity. "He didn't know what a barrel was!"

Childers started seasoning Ozzy to rodeos last year and almost made the Prairie Circuit Finals.

"I didn't realize I was that close to making it until right at the very end so I had like this last ditch effort to try to get enough rodeos to go," she said. "We were just out of it."

This year qualifying for the Prairie Circuit Finals is definitely on her mind as is the All American Finals in Waco, Texas.

"I'm just going to take it one run at a time," she said. "He's still pretty young. He's been doing really, really well. He's a really good horse. He's got a great personality. My little girl rides him; he's that sweet of a horse. He actually likes her better than any of us. She can yell for him across the fence and he'll come running to her."

Rollins & Wright Top Copper Spring Classic

Copper Spring Classic
May 31-June 1, 2014, Bozeman, MT

The 3-day Copper Spring Classic had 96 entries in the Friday Warmup, 200 in the Saturday Church Race and 265 in the $5000 added 5D Sunday Race. Copper Spring Ranch would like to thank all the contestants for their overwhelming support.

The Copper Spring Classic was started by the Gilhousen family and ranch managers Brian and Lisa Anderson as a benefit to help families of western heritage who were in need of financial assistance because of illness and other catastrophic circumstances.

It follows a longstanding tradition in the West to assist needy ranch families through rodeo and barrel racing events. At the same time, the Classic provided an opportunity for like-minded rodeo families to share their Christian fellowship during church services. On Sunday, the popular pastor, Trey Johnson of Weatherford, Texas was on hand to provide a positive message for several hundred participants.

The Classic was also supported by many local businesses and over two dozen national and regional corporate sponsors.

PUT SPEED AND GOOD LOOKS IN YOUR NEXT BARREL HORSE

JL SIROCCO

2010 AQHA Champion Canada Hi-Point Three-Year-Old Colt

Sirocco is a AAA race winning stallion by Dash Ta Fame, out of a winning barrel racing Band Of Azure mare. Fee $1500 (includes first cooled semen shipment). Nominated to VGBRA and 5-State Breeders, and others as foals come of age.

PRAISE FOR JL SIROCCO

I have two coming 2 year olds by Sirocco that are beautiful! I bred to Sirocco after riding his full sister and seeing a picture of Sirocco himself. I asked around and was told he was even better in person. Jill has an amazing eye for a horse and knows her pedigrees, so I knew I couldn't go wrong. In my business, I train futurity colts and sell them after their futurity year, my goal is not only to have a winning season on a very talented colt but to also look good doing it, Sirocco is helping me be all that! I believe that JL Sirocco is going to be the whole package, looks, speed, ability and awesome conformation, what more could a barrel racer ask for!

I'm awaiting another colt to be born this year and plan to breed two more mares to him.

THE RUNDOWN with Rebecca Hughes

Runnin Ta Fame ("Runnin")
10 Year old Sorrel Gelding, 16.3 hands
OWNER: BLANCHE WHATLEY, DEMING, NM
HISTORY: Runnin is owned by Blanche Whatley of Deming NM. She raised him. He was injured on the track at 3 and only had about 30 days of riding between then and when I started him when he was 7. I don't rush my horses so last spring he was consistently running in the 3D and occasionally jumping up in the 1 and 2D's. I was rodeoing on his full brother a little last year. I made the second round at Cheyenne but had been having trouble with over reaching and he cut himself pretty bad so I ran Runnin the second round. It was his first rodeo perf so I decide I would just have to go for it. One shot and hopefully he would focus on me and not the crowd. It worked. He slipped on the third barrel and fell to his hip and still placed 8th in the round. I just kept hauling him here and there a little and he just got better and better. We place in the second round at Denver, won a round at Tucson. Place In the second round at San Angelo and made the short go but hit a barrel. He has just gotten more confident every run.
LEG GEAR: Leather splint boots
FEED: Bluebonnet Intensify Omega Force
HAY: Free choice coastal Bermuda & 20 lbs alfalfa a day
SUPPLEMENTS: Equidite Supplements & Formula 707 Gastro Essentials
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Magna Wave (Robyn Murry), Max Energy Bracelet on his hind pastern and a Back On Track blanket

I am currently hauling futurity colts, derby horses, and competing in rodeos every weekend. Oxy Fluidity has become an essential part of my feeding program. I give 20 cc every week and 10 cc before I run on all my horses. It is very nice not to have to worry about your horses getting sore from injections because Oxy Fluidity is an oral paste. It is fast acting and provides so much relief for my horses when I know they are a little sore after a weekend of competing. I have seen such great results with this product I even take it myself!

Gadbois Grabs 5 Grand in Vegas

By Julie Mankin

"It was a little surreal," Kris Gadbois said of her stellar weekend in Sin City. "The whole weekend...I was a little speechless the entire time."

Gadbois – a dentist from San Diego, California – placed five times in the 1D on two horses to earn $5,079 over the three-day NBHA SuperShow in Las Vegas on May 29 and June 1. The competition was tough – around 700 horses ran each night and Gadbois placed right behind Michele McLeod and Slick By Design in one race.

"Those top 10 times were consistently tough," she said. "For both my horses to get in there and place like that was really special." Gadbois won the most money and placed in the top five of each race aboard her 8-year-old gelding, CRCS Regaldash. "Snoop" was bred in California and campaigned at futurities by Danyelle Campbell in 2010. After surgery to clean up a fractured hind splint, Gadbois bought him and has been running him since January 2012.

"To come back from that type of surgery, where the incision is 11 inches long and they removed a six-inch fragment, is pretty remarkable," she said. "He clocked decent the first year and after about nine months he really started running harder and feeling better. Now he's really shutting off the clock. He just kept going. He's tough; hardy and incredibly talented."

Gadbois, who lives in San Diego with her husband, a Navy surgeon, also has a 6-year-old mare she sent to futurities with Campbell. Sheza Frenchman Guy ("Bugs") was purchased by Gadbois at the Myers sale as a yearling and she had Melanie Southard put 60 days on the filly before Campbell started hauling her.

"She won about $40,000 and made almost every short round that year," said Gadbois. "She's a great mare; very kind, sweet and cute. Typical Frenchman's Guy. We gave her the year off last year and I started running her this year. I struggled getting along with her but now it's clicking. I wanted to go to Vegas and get on that wall with her and see what she would do. She impressed me this weekend." Gadbois grew up in Butte, Mont., but then went to dental school in Minnesota before the Navy moved her to San Diego about eight years ago. While she's no longer on active duty, she's still a dentist for the Navy.

"There's a barrel race around here every weekend generally," she said. "And some really good associations. All the pro rodeos are about seven hours north of here, unfortunately, so it's hard to rodeo unless you live in the central part of the state. Still, the weather's nice year-round; I can't complain!"

Gadbois had designs on winning Rookie of the Year in the California Circuit but with working five days a week and living so far south, it wasn't to be. Still, Snoop pulls great checks when she does get to rodeo. And she may take Bugs back to Oklahoma City for the derby in December. In the meantime, she won't miss the SuperShow.

"I love Vegas," she said. "It's a lot of fun and the ground is good and the NBHA does such an exceptional job to run all those people in that one time frame."

Orsburn Sweeps Cervi Youth Championships

By Julie Mankin

Lea Orsburn of Hornbrook, Calif., swept both rounds of the 13-17 division on May 31 and June 1 at the Sherry Cervi West Coast Youth Championships in Ceres, Calif.

The event started six years ago while Cervi was on the coast for the spring pro rodeos, and last year the dates moved later into May. Now she flies to the event, which experienced its most entries ever last weekend. More than 200 kids entered the two divisions (12 and under; 13-17) and each got a prize bag that Cervi herself helped fill, while saddles went to average winners.

"It's a lot of fun," said Cervi. "This year, we had a lot more kids that had never been there before and entries were up. We also have a 4D jackpot, but the whole weekend is really about the kids."

Shane and Kim Parson own the Diamond Bar Arena where the West Coast Barrel Racing Association (WCBR) event is held, and Jamie Hinton helps produce it. They hold the event along with valued sponsors The Rowdy Rose, Jud Little Ranch, Renew Gold, the Potter Ranch, Cervi Rodeo Company and Beard's Quality Nut. Eight Crown C saddles were generously awarded by Martin Saddlery, and other sponsors include Hatco, Oxy-Gen products, Cowgirl Tuff Company, Vetericyn, Gypsy Tails, Western Wind and Judy Gillum, Farnam Horse Products, ReVita Vet, Classic Equine, OceanSpray and Hughson Nut Company.

Orsburn won the average of the older division with times of 17.6 and 17.5 aboard a mare named Dance N Spin A Lena for a cool $928. "Spin" has her own Facebook page and came out of Oregon as a 3-year-old.

The average winner in the 12-and-under category was Whitlee Burgess and her horse Dude. She clocked a 17.6 followed by a 17.7 to earn $731. The reserve championship went to last year's winner, Stevie Mae Scott-Smith. The daughter of three-time NFR qualifier Lita Scott placed second in the average on her mom's former California Circuit Finals horse, She Was Free ("Snit") but won a round with a smoking time on Jettin On Jewels ("Julie"). Both are horses raised by Lita Scott. Stevie Mae also placed in the Open on both horses to take $2,125 home to mom.

"The new date seems just right; most kids have just gotten out of school, the weather's awesome, and everyone has fun," Cervi said. Her personal sponsors offer lots of gifts, so she gives a shout out to Martin, Classic Equine, Silver Lining, Oxy-Gen, Resistol and all the rest.

"Four or five of the girls who won saddles had never won a saddle before," said Cervi. "I remember when I won my first saddle, so that's really cool and rewarding to give a kid her first saddle."

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

How are things going in your world? I hope you can answer truthfully and say that all is well. However, we know that we're imperfect people living in an imperfect world so unpleasant and hard situations are bound to come up.

A lot of our circumstances are of our own making but we must remember, too, that we have an enemy, the devil, who only wants to steal, to kill and to destroy. He can't hurt God so he tries to get to God by attacking us because we are God's people made in His "image and likeness."

Some might wonder why satan is allowed to operate this way. Well, satan is the ruler over this natural, temporal world (2 Co. 4:4) from the time Adam bowed to him instead of God in the Garden of Eden. So satan took over the authority and dominion that Adam had in the earth and he can manipulate things and use unwitting people to further his purpose of destroying God's people.

No matter what kind of problems you may be facing, whether it's sickness, financial, family trouble, or whatever else, you are not alone. God is on your own side. Romans 8:38 says nothing in this world can ever separate us from the powerful love of God. Jesus wants to fix whatever is wrong in our lives and He will never turn anyone away. He desires that all men be saved.

"The Word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword" (Hebrews 4:12). Watch the words that you speak so the devil doesn't get an opening into your life. The answer to our difficulties lies in the spoken Word of God coming out of our mouths. We are told repeatedly in Scripture to "believe only" and "all things are possible if you only believe."

Cast out all doubt and fear and put your trust in the One who loves you with a love that will never end (Jeremiah 31:3).

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
