Garthwaite & FC Guys Prime Time Score Two in Canada

By Tanya Randall

Former Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Katie (McCain) Garthwaite of Merritt, British Columbia, scored two big wins over the weekend. She and her talented 10-year-old mare FC Guys Prime Time ("Frenchy") topped the $4,000-added Leduc Black Gold Rodeo and the $8,000-added Grande Prairie Stampede for $4,626.

"She's a cool little mare," Garthwaite said of Frenchy. Bred by Cindy Wheeler of Fredricksburg, Texas, Frenchy is by champion sire Frenchmans Guy out of A Prime Example, a daughter for former leading barrel horse sire Marthas Six Moons. "She's very gritty and tough. She amazes me actually. People were telling me great job this weekend, and I just laughed and said 'It's not me; it's all her. I just held on.' She worked really good."

Garthwaite started out her weekend with a run in the small indoor arena at Leduc on Friday.

"We got to Leduc early enough that I got in the arena," she said. "I set some chairs out of the bleachers up and loped her through them. She just felt so good at Leduc. She was just fluid, in-and-out, just nice."

With their 13.367 in the lead for the $2,013 first-place check, Garthwaite said it gave her a lot of confidence for her next run in Grande Prairie on Sunday. However, the biggest concern for any outdoor Canadian rodeo is the weather.

"Rodeoing in Canada this time of year is so iffy," she explained. "You never know if you're going to run in the mud or not; it's kind of luck of the draw. Earlier in the week, it had been dry for the slack and then I think it rained for the first perf. We were lucky. It was dry and sunny, and the ground was great. She just snapped out another run. She worked really great."

Garthwaite was extremely impressed with Frenchy, whom she switched to the left-barrel-first earlier this spring.

"Going to the right, some days she'd be good and some days she wouldn't be that good," she explained. "I was having trouble with my first barrel. I've only got about 10 competitive runs on her to the left."

Frenchy posted a winning time of 15.257 for $2,613, and Garthwaite was impressed with how she handled the set up at Grande Prairie, where the barrels are set in angled pattern off of the Chuckwagon track and arena.

"That was pretty amazing," she said. "I was quite shocked actually. Now that I go left, my first barrel was kind of wide open off in the track. She actually got by my first barrel a little bit, but she did one of those hip by, slide, turn around and leave pretty fast kind of turns. She didn't waste any time, for sure. Her second and third barrels were awesome. Leaving the first barrel she was running really, really hard and I figured just don't hit a barrel and we'll be good."

With the Canadian rodeos just starting up, Garthwaite has a good start to her goal of qualifying for the Canadian National Finals Rodeo. Although she grew up in Oregon, and recently purchased her WPRA card again, Garthwaite's unsure about how much rodeoing she'll do in the United States. She plans on entering the Canadian rodeos through July before making any decisions.

Having qualified for the NFR in 1999, Garthwaite knows the highs and lows of the road. Her own horse was injured before the finals and she rode Randi Rae Britt's Columbia River Circuit Champion Bogie Biankus.

"It was a great experience, but kind of heart breaking that I didn't get to take my own horse," she said. "But if I had it to do over again I'd still take Bogie. He's such an amazing horse. He was consistent and loved his job. They'd load us down the alleyway, and every night he'd stand there and kind of vibrate. He just couldn't wait to get going through the gate. He was awesome for 10 rounds."

In recent years, Garthwaite has stayed close to ranch with her husband Mike, a bulldogger, and 6-year-old daughter Gracie. The couple recently got into the burgeoning Canadian meat goat business by adding 80 head of Boar, Piko and Savanna crosses.

"We've got lots of animals so it's really hard to be gone," she said. "Rodeoing up here is a lot easier than going down in the States."

A lack of horsepower also kept her closer to home until she got

2013 Jud Little Bar Nothin Barrel Bash

The 11th Annual Bar Nothin Barrel Bash at Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma is quickly approaching. This year's event will be held September 25-29 and will have an amazing $60,000 in added money.

The Bar Nothin Barrel Bash will feature a 4 separate AQHA Co-Approved Open 4Ds; a $25,000 added Futurity with an additional $5,000 added Amateur Sidepot; and the Jud Little Ranch Barrel Racing & Timed Event Sale.

The Sale will be held Saturday, September 28, 2013 at the Jud Little Ranch in Springer, OK. The sale will feature 70-75 Jud Little Ranch horses with some of the top performance bloodlines in the country. The catalog will only be available online at www.judlittleranch.com closer to the sale or there will be an app available for download to your phone or tablet.

This year the Friday and Sunday Open 4Ds will be limited to 600 entries. The Sunday Open 4D also features an additional $10,000 in Future Fortunes Bonus Money. This year credit card entries are allowed with a convenience fee. The Tri K Barrel Race will be taking the entries and the races can be entered online at www.fastenter.com. The AQHA entries must be pre-entered. The first Futurity payment is due June 30th. The prizes will include saddles, Cunningham Buckles and more. For more information on the 11th Annual Bar Nothin Barrel Bash events go to www.judlittleranch.com, scroll over to the News & Events tab and look for Barrel Bash.

Another Brazilian High Seller

Submitted by Shannon Kerr

This past weekend in Sete Lagoas, Brazil, the highly anticipated annual auction of Haras Imperial and Haras Annelisa took place. The highest seller was a 2005 bay mare named IM ON FIREWATER (Fire Water Flit x Ima Cruisin, Tiny Charger). She sold to Haras Imperial for R$840,000 (approx. $396,000 USD). She was bred by Vickie Adams and purchased as a prospect by Paulo Dedomo for his ranch Haras ZD in Marilia, Brazil. Haras ZD is also home to one of Brazil's premier stallions, Top Firewater (Fire Water Flit x Bunny Six Moons, Martha Six Moons).

Im On Firewater has earned over R$60,000 (SGP Sistema) and has earned 123.5 points in the ABQM. She is one of the most winning mares in Brazil and has ran a 16.7 on a standard pattern. She did all this under the reins of Thiago Botelho who trained the mare from scratch and went on to win numerous awards with the gritty bay mare.

Another highlight of the auction was the debut of the big brown stallion My Stud Leroy (Dash For Perks x Daves Jet Ta Fame, Dash Ta Fame). Owned by Haras Raphaela and SK Quarter Horses, this futurity and derby winning son of Dash For Perks sold 100 breedings and booked full in his first debut.

Other high sellers were: Shine Fire Bird CMV, a 5 month old buckskin filly by Fire Water Flit x Quick Laico Bird, Royal Quick Dash - R$150,000 ($70,700 USD)

Barrel Ta Fame IMP - 5 month old black stud colt by Dash Ta Fame x Memes Rapid Dash, Dash For Perks R$99,000 ($46,700 USD)
Embryo from one of Brazils best mares and bloodlines of ST Ana-leo (Shady Leo x Trouble Creek, Trouble Two Times) with Holland Ease. R$99,000 ($46,700 USD)

Amanda of Fling IMP, a 4 month old red roan filly by A Streak of Fling x Perks N Fun, Dash for Perks - R$78,000 ($36,700 USD).

About Shannon Kerr: Kerr is a native Oklahoman who has been involved in raising and training barrel horses in the US, Italy, and now Brazil. She was involved in the first influx of top US barrel bloodlines to Europe, and now is involved in breeding top barrel horses and training futurity prospects near Bauru, Brazil, the heart of the quarter horse industry in Brazil.

Imafrenchmanspistol Passes

During the night, on Friday, May 31, 2013, after all efforts had been made to save him, the great gray gelding, Imafrenchmanspistol (Pistol) was laid to rest due to a ruptured intestine. Imafrenchmanspistol, the 2005 gray gelding by A Sharp Frenchman and out of Royalled Out by Lowell D Royal, was bred by Sheila and John Ricketts. For most of his performance career he was owned by Matt & Bendi Dunn (until recently sold to the Ganter family) and ridden by Troy Crumrine; however, he won with several different jockeys in his career. Pistol won over $70,000 in his lifetime at the biggest futurities, derbies, open 4Ds across the country and then also went on to win at rodeos. He was named the 2011 Barrel Racing Report Open 4D Gelding Barrel Horse of the Year as well. He will be greatly missed by all the connections.

Carlee Pierce Taking Time Off from Pro Rodeo

Carlee Pierce, who finished second in the barrel racing world standings a year ago and is third in the 2013 standings, will be taking a hiatus from the sport for an indefinite period to spend more time with her family. "I won't rodeo without my family," said Pierce, a Canadian-born cowgirl who was raised in the northwest Oklahoma community of Freedom said in a statement. "This year my three kids do not want to go, and they want me to stay home more, not just a few days at a time. My family is too important for me; they will always come first." Courtesy www.prorodeo.com

The Barrel Racing Report caught up with Carlee Pierce to ask about her decision to step back from the rodeo trail.

Pierce said, "It has been extremely tough and in the works for a little while. My family has put their activities and summers on hold to be my biggest fans. My Mom and Dad even put their lives on hold to be there for me and make sure my kids had somebody around who is family. Although, they didn't directly ask me to quit, as a Mom I could just tell that it was bothering my kids; me not being involved in everything they do. My older kids only have a few years left at home and high school is supposed to be the best time of their lives. I'm going to do all I can to make sure they have great high school years and I don't want to miss it. My little Jacy is 7 and she pretty much told me she didn't want to drive all the time she wanted to stay home and swim and dance. When I left for Redding, it was really hard and Jacy asked me to pinky promise not to leave for a long time anymore. So that was when I made my decision. I am extremely blessed with great horses and family and great sponsors who believe in me. I will be Mom, wife and run our businesses for awhile and who knows what the future may hold."

Frenchy. Originally purchased for a younger rider that she was helping, Frenchy was found on Facebook. Bryel Mulligan had shared a video that caught Garthwaite's attention.

"I told this girl she should buy her," Garthwaite explained. "She did and had her about a year and then she started having a little bit of trouble with her. So she sent her to me and I fell in love with her. It just worked out that I was able to buy her."

Pay It Forward with Jill Moody

By Jill Moody

With rodeo season in full in swing the rodeo community is about to celebrate Cowboy Christmas with the oncoming Fourth of July. Many of us await this Christmas vacation with more anticipation than the real Christmas vacation and spend it on the road hauling @$$ from rodeo to rodeo. For those of you who are not seasoned competitors finding accommodations for yourself, your dogs, your buddies, their kids and dogs, and all of the horses can be overwhelming if not prepared.

Whether it is living quarter trailers, motel rooms, and/or tents, determining the sleeping arrangements of humans and canines can be challenging but the horses, being the key ingredient to your Cowboy Christmas, need to be comfortable, well rested, and safe. Your rodeo schedule will determine how much down time you will have so use it wisely.

Keep in mind that your horses need a place to lie down and rest. The biggest obstacle in the way of having rested horses is the lack of available stalls and pens at the rodeo grounds. If you happen to find stalls or pens make sure they are safe even if you have to get a flashlight to scope them out. The alternative option is building your own pens. Find a grassy spot or throw down some shavings if the ground is hard, rocky, or muddy. Protecting your horses from biting insects is a must to ensuring that they rest well.

In some cases, as in the event of pouring rain or hail, your horses are better off in the trailer. Hot wire pens are cheap, easy and quick to set up and tear down, and pack easily in your trailer. It is advisable to get your horses accustomed to hot wire at home before trying it in a strange place. Twine string works well for gates and to tie the wire to fences and/or your trailer and remember extra batteries for the charger.

If the ground is hard you can start a pilot hole with a screwdriver and pour water in the hole of the post you are using for a ground. Portable panels will also solve the stalling problem but they are cumbersome and require a lot of space to haul. It takes more panels than you realize to make a decent sized pen or pens. Don't trust velcro or zip ties to hold them together. I use the bungee cords with the little balls to secure panels but some of my horses like to play tug of war with those so once again, twine string to the rescue.

If the weather allows I prefer to have my horses penned by my trailer so I can hear them if they start to fuss and I never leave them for any length of time without a babysitter. Every method of penning your horse on the road comes with some risk and if all else fails a couple of hours tied to the trailer is better than nothing.

If you are planning a Cowboy Christmas vacation use your best judgment knowing that your horses will not perform their best and their health will be compromised if you haul and run repeatedly without some down time. A comfortable and safe place for them to lie day and take a nap is a necessity not a luxury to ensure that everyone has a merry Cowboy Christmas.

Additional note: The books are already opening and closing for the Fourth of July rodeos so pay attention girls or you might be spending your Cowboy Christmas vacation on the beach!

Jill Moody is a 2-time Reserve World Champion, & a 2-time NFR Average Jage Champion. She and her great mare Dolly are the average Record Holders for 10 rounds at the NFR. Moody made 10 runs in 138.26 earning over $133,000.

Jill is a multiple futurity champion, Badlands Circuit Champion and owns multiple amateur association finals championships in the Dakotas. Jill is also a 2-time Female Athlete of the Year by the South Dakota Sports Writers Association. She is sponsored by Equimedica, Dakota 2000, Thomas Ranch & the Barrel Racing Report.

"HHA is the most useful problem solving approach in my practice. This program allows me to resolve health issues when conventional diagnostics fail to find an answer."

Mark DePasio, DVM

HHA
HorseHairAnalysis.com

Horse Hair Analysis provides an extremely accurate profile of a horse's biochemistry. Blood testing, while a good resource for acute problems, crisis situations and liver or kidney issues, is not the best answer for nutrition-related health concerns. The HHA report explains how diet affects digestion, muscle health, energy, attitude and performance.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you seen the big, white guard dogs that many sheep ranchers use to protect their flocks? I have and they are fascinating animals.

These guard dogs live right with the sheep 24/7 and they are very protective about keeping predators away or anything that they feel might endanger their sheep. You can see them out in front leading the sheep when they are being trailed to a different location.

A friend of mine has five of these big guard dogs that live with his various bunches of sheep. The sheep aren't afraid of the huge dogs and know they are safe with them around-even when they are barking. Many times you can see the sheep bedded down and there will be one or two snuggled up to the dog.

But, it's a different story if one of the rancher's stock dogs comes around or barks! The stock dogs are black or brown or tri-colored and are smaller and the sheep can tell the difference in an instant. The stock dogs are used to pen the sheep, trail them around and even catch and hold one if it needs doctoring.

It's as if the sheep know the light colored dogs are good but they need to be wary of the dark colored ones. Remember how a few years back there were a lot of jokes and sayings about how the good guys wore white hats and the villains wore black. The big white guard dogs are the light the sheep follow. Just as Jesus said He is the light of the world and those who follow Him will have the light of life. (See John 8:12)

Stay close to Jesus. Make Him your Lord and Savior and have no fear. He will lead and guide you and protect you. He said He'd never leave us or forsake us. Hebrews 13:5

Jesus said in John 10 that He is the Good Shepherd who gives His life for His sheep. He said He knows His sheep and they know Him. Be sure you know Him!
