Quick Work for Taylor and Flash at Red Desert Classic

By Tanya Randall

Last Thursday morning, Denise Taylor asked her 12-year-old twins, Kyle and Camille, if she could find a hotel with a swimming pool would they want to go to Rock Springs, Wyo., for the week-end. Fate worked in Taylor's favor. She late entered her homebred gelding Leader In A Flash in the Red Desert Classic Futurity, held June 1-3 at the Sweetwater Events Complex, and came home with a championship.

"We went to Rocks Springs to have fun as much as anything," said Taylor. "My kids are like little fish. If we go somewhere, there has to be a pool. The kids and I have just been playing these last two weekends, just swimming three times a day and running barrels."

With the Red Desert Championship, "Flash" pulled the first checks of his barrel career with a $3,471 victory in the $5,000-added Futurity.

"He's always been real consistent," the Ogden, Utah, barrel racer said. "It's just now starting to click at top speed, but he's always been really honest. He's just kind of coming along."

The Red Desert Classic was Flash's third futurity.

"He wasn't ready soon enough for the Arizona and Washington futurities," explained Taylor, who trained her first futurity horse at age 11 and won her first futurity at 13. "I took him to the UBRA Futurity at the end of April, and he was just out of placing in the 2D money. I took him to Gooding over Memorial Weekend and he was just out of the 1D money."

Taylor knew Flash was ready to tackle another futurity, but she wasn't expecting to nearly win the futurity across the board. They won the first go and finished second in the second to win the average by more than a half-second.

"They both were just gorgeous," said Taylor of her runs. "His first run was great and his second run was outstanding. It was unbelievable, probably the nicest run that I'd ever made in that pen."

Taylor's made many trips to Rocks Springs for the Red Desert Classic, and she said thankful for the contestant friendly event.

"I always think that Red Desert puts on a fabulous futurity," she said. "They try so hard and its always well run. The time only's—they allow you do what you need to do as a trainer to get your colt ready. For me, that was a huge deal because my colt was so inexperienced. Yet, they are always able to stay on schedule. They just do a tremendous job."

Homegrown

Flash is one of four colts that Taylor has raised out of Juan Slick Chick, a daughter of the Truckle Feature son Seven Two Juan out of Bounce Of Gold, by Pa Jones. Taylor bought the mare as a four-year-old from her breeder Kim Squires, Carnegie, Okla.

RIDER/OWNER/BREEDER: DENISE TAYLOR

"I ran her as a 5-year-old," recalled Taylor. "She won money at three futurities. She did good, not tremendous, but certainly respectable."

Juan Slick Chick entered the broodmare band the next year when Taylor was pregnant with the twins.

"We just kept breeding her because she had such nice babies," she said.

She made the first cross because of her husband.

"There were a lot of Special Leaders around our area when my husband first got out of vet school," she explained. "The Special leaders were so nice to work on. Mind is like everything to me, so when he said they were nice to work on I usually go with that. I stray occasionally and I'm usually sorry!"

The first foal, Eyes On Target is Taylor's open horse. The 12-year-old gelding by Special Leader is Flash's full brother.

"He never ran at the futurities," Taylor said. "He's got a funny front foot to shoe, and every year he kept bowing a tendon. I think the first time that I ran him he was like 7. He doesn't have quite the athletic ability in the turns that this colt does. This colt's a little shorter coupled and he's kind of the whole package."

The next foal was a sorrel filly, which her husband Dean Taylor, DVM, claimed as his own.

Juan Slick Chick's third foal, She L Be The Juan was her most

CM Dynamite Frost Passes

On the night of June 2, the Crago Ranch lost one of their great stallions, CM Dynamite Frost during a lightning storm. The 1998 buckskin son of Doc O Dynamite and out of the great Sun Frost mare Sierra Frost was bred by Chuck Crago and remained with Chuck & Mary at the Crago Ranch for his entire life.

CM Dynamite Frost was an own son of the great performance sire Doc O Dynamite, also sire of Rachael (Myllymaki's) Boyle great NFR barrel horse Easy Does It Doc, and out of an own daughter of Sun Frost, a $2 million dollar producer of performance horses and NFR qualifiers. He was destined to produce greatness in the arena.

CM Dynamite Frost was the Reserve Champion in the SDRCHA Breeders Futurity as a 3 year old. He won the 2010 AQHA Region 2 Show in Heading and was Reserve in Heeling. In 2009, he was the Reserve in both Heading and Heeling.

His get have went on to excel in calf roping, team roping, barrel racing, and all the performance events. In fact, just recently Kali Parker placed at the Magic Valley Barrel Futurity on CM Dynamite Image by CM Dynamite Frost. His get will carry on his legacy for years to come.

Woman Bull Rider Makes History

Move over Kaila Mussell, you have company in ProRodeo's most exclusive club.

Maggie Parker, a 19-year-old permit holder from Shaftsbury, Mich., became the first woman in PRCA history to earn a check in a bull riding competition June 2 at the Bennington PRCA Rodeo and joined Mussell (a saddle bronc rider) as the only female contestants to place in any roughstock event.

Parker, coached by 1970 World Champion Bull Rider Gary Leffew, scored 70 points on New Frontier Rodeo's B12 to finish sixth in a field of 38 and earn $190 (plus $270 in day money), the first step on her way to becoming the first woman to qualify to buy her PRCA card.

"I'm in this for the same reason the guys are," Parker said, "because I love doing it. I didn't set out to prove a point beyond being able to prove myself."

The first post-ride phone call went to Leffew at his place out in Santa Maria, Calif.

He was just about as excited about the breakthrough as Parker. "Maggie Parker has been a pleasure to train," Leffew said. "If there's going to be a girl make it in professional bull riding it's going to be her. She has the heart and grit in her soul that it's going to take to get it done."

"I had her switch hands, where she could learn to build all new habits, and I wanted her on at least 100 bulls before she entered rodeos. She is about halfway there, but is entering anyway, so any wins between now and her 100 will be a bonus."

The two Kansas rodeos over the June 1-3 weekend were the fifth and sixth for Parker since buying her PRCA permit last November – she'd previously competed at California rodeos in Auburn, Stonyford and Riverdale, and in Poteau, Okla.

The win at Bennington went to Wrangler NFR qualifier Trevor Kastner. The other Bennington champions were bareback rider Jared Keyton (83 points), steer wrestler Chancey Larson (4.4 seconds), team ropers Quincy Kueckelhan and Christopher Young (5.1 seconds), saddle bronc rider Isaac Diaz (86 points), tie-down roper Hunter Herrin (7.9 seconds) and barrel racer Kyra Stierwalt (16.27 seconds). -- Courtesy of www.wpra.com

AQHA Cloning Update

AQHA's legal team has filed a Motion to Dismiss the cloning lawsuit filed in Judge Mary Lou Robinson's Federal District Court here in Amarillo. The Motion presents extensive case law that, as a voluntary private association, AQHA has the right to make and adopt its own regulations without intervention by the courts. The Motion also explains that a careful analysis of the Plaintiffs' Complaint reveals that there is no factual or legal basis for a viable antitrust claim against AQHA. AQHA will continue to provide you updates and vigorously defend the lawsuit. --Courtesy of www.aqha.com

Ardith Bruce Honored

On June 1 the town of Fountain, Colorado honored 1964 Barrel Racing World Champion Ardith Bruce. The town erected a new welcome sign which contains a picture of Ardith Bruce barrel racing and states "Welcome To Fountain: Hometown Of Ardith Bruce: 1964 Barrel Racing World Champion". Ardith Bruce won her 1964 Championship aboard her great horse Shaws Kingwood Snip (aka Red) and said none of it would have been possible without her great gelding. Ardith Bruce is the grandmother of WPRA barrel racer and former Board member Amber Bruce West. At nearly 81 years old, Bruce still rides frequently. The ceremony was attended by city people and Bruce's friends and family. Ardith Bruce has lived in Fountain, Colorado now for almost 50 years.

successful futurity horse until Flash. She L Be The Juan was sired by Cruise N Kinda Guy, a futurity-winning son of Frenchmans Guy that Taylor trained and rode.

"She was 13th at Oklahoma City," said Taylor. "She won go rounds at five different futurities. She had a heck of time keeping the barrels up, but we did leave them all up at Oklahoma City. She broke her hip the next year, so she hasn't had much of a career. I am back running her, but just a little bit. She's never been quite the same."

Taylor went back to Special Leader for Flash, because she liked Eyes On Target so much.

"We decided to do an embryo transfer to try and get another one," she said. "I didn't know this until after the foal was born, but my husband had actually flushed two embryos and we threw one away because we didn't have a mare to put it in! So, I tell him thanks for keeping the correct one. This is a nice, nice colt."

This weekend the battle at the top continued. #1, Brittany Pozzi, won the rodeo in Santa Maria, CA and placed at Central Point, OR to win over $2K on the weekend while #2, Carlee Pierce, stayed closer to home and won the biggest rodeo of the weekend, Ft Smith, AR and just a shade over $3k.

Pozzi currently has $84,769 and Pierce has $81,950, so with slightly less than $3K separating them, they are in a virtual dead heat as we head into the bigger purse summer rodeos over the next few weeks.

The Canadian rodeos are starting to get busy and with the Canadian Finals Rodeo carrying such big purses many of the top WPRA barrel racers are heading across the border to try to qualify to the lucrative CFR. It will be interesting to see how this plays into the strategies of the leading barrel racers as we move through the summer

As you look through the results, most of the rodeo horses average about 10 years of age, this weekend a couple horses didn't realize they were too old to win. At 20 years old, SX Docslider and Shali Lord placed second at the Elizabeth, CO rodeo winning

$1,205. SX Docslider is a former Round and Average winner at the WNFR and is still going strong.

Meanwhile in Cherokee, IA, Briana Reynolds and her 19 year old gelding, Mega Hoss, took home second place and $1,020. In the rodeo world, be sure to respect your seniors!

The biggest winner of the weekend was Mary Walker and her great horse Perculatin. The team earned $4,613 and jumped her from #18 in the world up to #13.

Contestants Cash In at Copper Spring Classic

On June 2 & 3 the first Copper Spring Classic Barrel Races were held at the Circle L Arena near Belgrade, MT. Over 200 contestants turned out for the benefit to help needy ranch families. The event was sanctioned by the WPRA, NWBRA, and UBRC.

In preparation for the event, two nationally recognized arena preparation and barrel racing production experts from D & G Barrel Productions of Henrietta, Texas were at Copper Spring Ranch and Circle L Arena to provide suggestions for ground work for the event. They were Phil Goostree and Chuck Dunn who have worked together to produce major events for over thirty years like the Word Barrel Futurity, Oklahoma City; the Rose Place in San Antonio, Texas and the Heart of Texas Barrel Race at Waco, Texas. The experts said both the outdoor and indoor arenas at Circle L were being managed by owner Rod Cline with practices that followed the recommended procedures. For quality arena ground preparation, Goostree said several factors need to be considered.

For one he said, the proper grooming equipment needs to be used in the correct fashion.

“Our goal,” he said, “is to make the arena as best as it is possible for both the first horse to run and last horse in the arena.”

Goostree said they are looking for ground that is comfortable and a little loose on top and firmer down below for a couple inches when the horses run around the barrels.

“A lot of arenas will have two inches of loose and right under that a hard pan which doesn’t provide a sound footing,” he noted. “You have to break up the hard pan so the horses can get into it and they don’t end up sliding and slipping.”

Along with that factor, the arena “dirt” needs to be the right mix of clay, sand and the correct moisture content, he said.

After the preparation, it was time for the first day of the race, which included a free horsemanship/barrel racing clinic, the 4D

Chinks and Church Race and a cowboy church service. The Classic was following a long-standing popular tradition in the southwest where rodeo events are combined with benefits to assist needy ranch families of western heritage. At the same time, the Copper Spring Classic provides the vehicle for giving Christian ministry to horse community participants.

“We’ve been involved in events like this in Texas and have enjoyed the combination of the Christian fellowship and rodeo competition with hundreds of like-minded ranch families who share our common values,” said Copper Spring Ranch Asst Manager Lisa Anderson.

The Chinks & Church Race was won by Amber O’Donnell on the O’Donnell Quarter Horse broodmare, Dr Nicks Miss Bully (Dr Nick Bar-Bullys Magic, Bully Bullion). O’Donnell picked up a $296 check on her royally bred mare. This mare crosses two great lines of barrel horses. Dr Nick Bar being a former NFR barrel horse and sire of Lindsay Sears’ standout, Sugar Moon Express, while Bully Bullion has produced winners at every level himself.

The Sunday Open was won in the fastest time of the weekend of 15.137 by Jerrie Dolan on her 11 year old bay gelding, Sls First Freckle. Sls First Freckle is by great performance sire Missin Freckle and out of a granddaughter of Moon Lark. Anyone in the north country knows the name Missin Freckle, he produces top horses in the barrel arena, roping arena, and also is known for kicking out good ranch horses. Not far behind and actually placing 2nd in the 1d both days was Montana barrel training legend, Jon Ottun, on Avastin (Bully Bullion-Beautiful Dreams, Major Meyers). For years Jon Ottun has been training futurity horses and has won about every futurity in the north country.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A lot of people take more care in getting their horses ready for a competition than they do in getting themselves ready to face another day in the world with its wiles and snares.

The make sure their tack is in top condition. They make sure their horses are shod properly, their skid boots fit right and there are many rubs which can be used to keep off distracting insects. Then they carefully warm up their horses so they will be able to perform at their maximum.

Yet, some of these same people jump out of bed and hurry around to get going without a thought of their own protection. Read Ephesians 6:10-17 and see where we are admonished to "put on the whole armor of God, that we may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." It only takes a few minutes to read a little Scripture and talk to God but it will make all the difference in how your day turns out.

We need to thank God for all His blessings and ask for His continued help in protecting us, providing for all our needs and prospering the work of our hands. And, don't neglect to thank God when you get back home again for His protection in getting you to and from the event safely. Thank Him, too, that your horses suffered no injury. Remember God loves animals too. Jesus chose to be born in a place where animals were kept and He once rode an unbroken colt into town amidst noisy, cheering crowds.

Jesus said He'd never leave us nor forsake us. He's the best friend you'll ever have so, treat Him like He is your best friend!
