Silly Season—The Summer Run Is In Full Swing

By Tanya Randall

For many professional sports, the summer offseason has another name—Silly Season. Not named for the antics of the athletes—although that does seem to be a recurring theme no matter what sport you follow—silly season is a time of new rules, regulations, trades and deals.

For rodeo competitors, summer is the season and how well it goes can be a deal-breaker on National Finals Rodeo inspirations. Lucrative rodeos such as Reno, Calgary and Cheyenne, the trailer race over the Fourth of July and hundreds of other rodeos across the American West and Canada can change fortunes.

While the fortunes of a few will likely remain unchanged, the WPRA World Standings is about to become a benchmark for some and source of heartbreak for others. It's often said that anyone in the Top 40 by the start of the summer run has a shot at making the NFR. It's possible to make it with even less earnings than that as former NFR qualifiers Christine Laughlin and Christy Loflin can both attest.

Last year, it took $59,900 to make it to Las Vegas, and in all likelihood will take that or more to make it this year. Based on last year's numbers, it's safe to assume that Mary Burger, Ivy Conrado and Michele McLeod are going to the NFR. While the rest of the field is trying to earn their spots, that triumvirate will be jockeying for position for a world championship run.

Burger, the 2006 WPRA World Champion, and her home-trained champion Sadiefamouslastwords ("Mo") have No. 1 solidly in hand at the moment thanks to their Rodeo Houston Championship. While Burger, Pauls Valley, Okla., has been getting in her circuit rodeos in hand (barrel racers must attend a certain percentage of circuit approved rodeos in order to qualify for circuit finals rodeos) before summer, she's also been padding her lead.

Over the weekend, Burger and Mo topped both Strong City, Kan., and Hugo, Okla., for $3,293 to aid in her circuit and world championship pursuits. She currently has $86,048 won in 30 rodeos.

Conrado, Hudson, Colo., is giving Burger a game chase, even though she's limiting the rodeos on her family-raised superstar Cfour Tibbie Stinson in preparation for the big summer run. She and Tibbie recently won the Wrangler Champions Challenge in Spanish Fork, Utah. They set a new arena record with their 16.65. (The previous record of 16.77 was set in 2014 by Sarah McDonald and Fame Fling N Bling.) Although a tipped barrel at Elizabeth, Colo., cost them a check, the Challenge win jumped their World Standings total to $67,564 by $3,944.

**Editors note: Cfour Tibbie Stinson and Conrado's smoking time of 16.65 was on a standard pattern at the Spanish Fork, UT Champions Challenge has now become the fastest time on a standard pattern at a rodeo in recent years* and one of the fastest times ever run on a standard pattern period. "Tibbie" and Conrado just bested the time of 16.68 run by leading freshman sire, JL Dash Ta Heaven & Benette Little, at the Dodge City, KS ProRodeo in 2011 for the fastest time on a standard pattern at a rodeo in recent history. The Champions Challenge actually produced 4 times in the 16s on a standard pattern which showed the quality of horses running and also displayed the work the committee put into the ground preparation. (There are no official records of this information, this is the best information available.)

With the Champions Challenges counting toward the WPRA World Standings, Conrado is jumping a plane this weekend for the Kissimmee, Fla., Champions Challenge, where she'll run her sister Paige's horse Debs Sporty Win ("Bubba"). Family friend Tassie Munroe has been running Bubba—placing at Silver City, N.M., over the weekend—while Paige awaited the May 20 arrival of her son John Wayne Dove.

Meanwhile, Tibbie is getting a week and a half off until North Platte, Neb., and Conrado will ride some younger horses at her Mountain States rodeos to make her rodeo count.

McLeod, Whitesboro, Texas, isn't far behind Conrado with $60,650. She picked up just $967 by placing at Silver City and Clovis, N.M., with her newest teammate Stitches Honor N Fame. Luckily, McLeod has a ton of horsepower, courtesy of Jason Martin and Charlie Cole's High Point Performance Horses. The team plan is to have two rigs on the road this summer, with the talented stallion Slick By Design having choice plan of running at his favorite rodeos to limit his time in the trailer.

Sabra O'Quinn & Bring It On Guys Conquer Fort Smith

Ocala, Florida, barrel racer Sabra O'Quinn and Bring It On Guys ("Nosey") finally won an Old Fort Days Championship, winning the pro rodeo for $3,055.

"She did really well at the Futurity and Derby," said O'Quinn of the 7-year-old Frenchmans Guy, Paddys Irish Whiskey mare that belongs to her biggest supporter Tom Clark. "She was reserve in the Derby last year and was third, I think, her futurity year."

O'Quinn ran in a Thursday night performance, "I've got to give a big kudos to grounds crew there. I think there was money won throughout that whole entire rodeo, and that's a big deal. I think they did a really great job. There were fast times in slack and during the rodeo. It was really fair. For a weeklong rodeo that's really hard to do."

2016 WORLD STANDINGS

As of June 6, 2016 - Courtesy of www.npru.com

1 Mary Burger	$86,048
2 Ivy Conrado	$67,564
3 Michele McLeod	$60,650
4 Cassidy Kruse	$45,901
5 Jackie Ganter	$45,534
6 Kimmie Wall	$40,994
7 Mary Walker	$38,531
8 Carley Richardson	$37,509

Fort Smith was O'Quinn's first stop on her way out West—where it's dry, unlike her hot, humid home—to rodeo for the summer. Unlike years past, she doesn't have to make any detours with futurity colts; it's just rodeo this time.

"I'm just going to rodeo for the next couple of months and see how things go," said O'Quinn. "I've got her and Wonder Oro, my older rodeo horse that I've had for a while."

O'Quinn also placed on Oro, who was making just his third run after 18 months off due to injury, at Elizabeth, Colo., over the weekend. She is currently 32nd in the WPRA World Standings with $15,239, though she has no dedicated plans to an NFR run.

"I just got out here and I want to let my horses get a little acclimated," said O'Quinn, who is sponsored by Triple Crown Feed, Formula 1 Noni, Wrangler and Formula 707. "This week I'm just doing Garden City (Kan.). Then I'll have North Platte (Neb.) and Pleasant Grove (Utah). I'm not going to run them death. I'm just trying to pick the bigger places that I've been to before, places that I know Oro likes and places Nosey will like."

Nicole Riggle & Shoeless Joe Biankus

Nicole Riggle and Shoeless Joe Biankus picked up $3,542 on the weekend, winning Central Point, Ore., and placing second at Santa Maria, Calif., the only two rodeos she worked on the weekend.

"HE'S BACK!" exclaimed Riggle, who grew up in the Northwest before moving to Scottsdale, Ariz. "He got hurt in October 2014 and I just started running him again in October 2015. He had a minor suspensory tear in the right front."

Riggle got Shoe, a 13-year-old Captain Biankus, Beduinos Best Boy gelding from Bobo McMillan in 2013.

"She raised and trained him," Riggle said. "He hadn't been to many rodeos when I got him, but he was a really solid open horse. Bobo had done really well with him. She had always told me that when I was ready for him that he was mine. When my good horse (Chowchilla Filly) got hurt, I bought him. I seasoned him all of 2014 and he did really well for me. He ended up getting hurt at Lewiston. Now he's back and I think, better than ever."

Riggle spent last year seasoning Shoe's understudy Bogies Royale Opey. She also bought So Streakin Famous ("Gucci") to season along the way.

"Now, I've got a trailer load," she said. "Two that are pretty seasoned and one that's coming along. I'm really excited for this year. This is the first year that I've had more than one horse to run."

Riggle, who is sponsored by Seabuck, Lame-A-Way, AquaStride, Usher Brand, Equine Noni, and uses Pulsed Electromagnetic Therapy by Kelly Estes, has a crazy week ahead of her. She runs at Sisters, Ore., on Thursday, Livermore, Calif., on Friday morning and then drives to Utah for Cedar City and Delta. She'll hang out in Utah until Pleasant Grove before heading down to Reno with the grueling Fourth of July run to follow.

She currently sits 25th in the WPRA World Standings with $16,654.

PUT SPEED, GOOD LOOKS AND RED IN YOUR NEXT BARREL HORSE

JL REDDY TO CHARM

2014 stallion by Red x BF Silver Charm, Takin On The Cash
$500 Introductory Fee, will ship semen until July 1.

Jill Lane QUARTER HORSES

JL Reddy To Charm—one of Red's last foals—reminds me so much of Red with his personality, that beautiful front end and the effortless way he moves I've decided to breed him to a limited number of mares this year. And also because barrel racing success is on both sides of his papers, BF Silver Charm's foals thus far have earned over $83,000 barrel racing.

Congratulations to Hannah Sharon and JL M80 at the Copper Spring Classic, winning 1st in 1D Futurity Sidepot, 3rd 1D Future Fortunes Bonus and 10th in the 1D Open 5D (running 17.4 and 17.2 on a standard). Also to JL Red River and Raegan Tracy 1st FF 2D, Hannah and JL Red Knickers 6th FF 2D, JL Rocthespaniard and Cally Goyins 1st FF 3D.

JULY 11-13, 2016

RODEO BIBLE CAMP

ATTITUDE OF A CHAMPION

AT COPPER SPRING RANCH

You are invited to the 5th Annual Copper Spring Ranch Rodeo Bible Camp—Attitude of a Champion—July 11-13 at the ranch in beautiful Bozeman, Montana. This is a rare opportunity for today's and tomorrow's competitors to work with nationally recognized past and present rodeo champions.

Instructors include: in team roping TREY JOHNSON 2000 PRCA Rookie of the Year Heeler, 8-time NFR qualifier CHARLY CRAWFORD in heading, 14-time WPRA World Champion JACKIE HOBBS-CRAWFORD in breakaway, 5-time NFR qualifier RUSTY SEWALT in tie down roping, NFR qualifier BEAU CLARK in steer wrestling, 2-time NFR qualifier JANA BEAN and standout futurity horse trainer LESLIE WILLIS in barrel racing and LANA TIBBETTS CNFR Goat-Tying National Champion.

The camp features instruction in tie down and breakaway roping, barrel racing, steer wrestling, team roping, and goat-tying that includes ground work and live cattle. Designed for cowboys and cowgirls of all ages, the camp provides a wholesome environment for this Western family-style sport. However, prizes will only be awarded to those 18 and under.

CSR rodeo bible camp has an exciting mix of rodeo-oriented training by highly regarded clinicians plus it offers a chance for hours of fellowship with positive-minded mentors. Curriculum includes motivational teaching and positive practice instructions that give participants the tools to win inside and outside the arena.

The cost is $300 with food and lodging included, additional family members are $150. Campers may sign up for another event at no additional cost. Scholarships are available, please send a letter requesting assistance. Information and enrollment forms may be found at CopperSpringRanch.com or by calling 406-585-7008.

Great opportunity to tune up for the National High School Rodeo Finals in Gillette Wyoming, July 17-23

Harrison Hails as NBHA Vegas Super Show Queen

By Hope Sickler

Raised in Oklahoma and now living in Golden Valley, Arizona, Patty Harrison may have come into the world of competitive barrel racing at a later age but she has worked hard to make sure her name would be one to be known in our industry and this past weekend in the city of lights in Las Vegas, Harrison added another win to her resume at the NBHA Las Vegas Super Show.

Harrison and her very mighty sidekick, Docs Blue Eyed Dream, ended up reserve champions last year at the NBHA Las Vegas Super Show, so this year Harrison was hopeful that she would finish on top of the leaderboard.

"It has been my dream for 11-years to win the NBHA Las Vegas Super Show and now I can breathe a sigh of relief knowing that "Rusty" has made that dream a reality," laughed Harrison.

"Rusty" as she affectionately calls the 14-hands-tall Doc Bar x Two Eyed Jack 15-year-old gelding, started his life as a ranch horse before becoming a barrel horse.

"I got him from a gal in Missouri and that girl got him from another gal in Missouri who had just recently started him on the pattern. Before that, he was just a ranch horse. I found him and saw right away that he was having some problems turning his first barrel. I knew what he could be if I got him to turn the first so I bought him."

With help from reknown clinician, trainer and barrel racer Lynn McKenzie, Harrison figured the pint-sized gelding out.

"Lynn's (McKenzie) tactics really hit home for me. The constant reminder that smooth is fast really helped me in figuring "Rusty's" first barrel out. It took the right bit, the right approach to the first barrel and a lot of work to figure it out but I am so glad that I stayed diligent about it," explained Harrison.

In Vegas, Harrison and "Rusty" were already known as a force to be reckoned with, having much success there before. In the warmup race on Friday, Harrison and "Rusty" finished 23rd in the 1D with a time of 14.5.

"After our run on Friday, I went and watched our run on video and figured out where I had lost time in our run because I knew that a 14.5 was a little slower for us in that pen. After reviewing our run, I knew what I had to do on Saturday in order to be faster in hopes of winning a big check."

Harrison stuck to her plan and she and "Rusty" blazed the cloverleaf pattern in 14.147-seconds which was the fastest time of the day on Saturday with over 700 entries!

"I was as thrilled as could be! My friend joked with me that I was no longer the bridesmaid because last year I was holding the fastest time of the day until the very end when our time was beat, so winning the race on Saturday this year was such a happy moment in my life," said Harrison.

Going into the final day of the 3-day event, Harrison knew that she needed to be clean and smooth and "Rusty" would take care of the rest.

"I was 341st out and thought that was perfect because I would be top of the ground and right before the big rake. I knew that I was going to have a great opportunity so I needed to capitalize on it and we did. We had a smoking run and we broke the arena record with a 13.902!"

Posting the fastest run of the weekend and the new arena record, Harrison claimed the 1D Championship and pocketed over $5,700 in just three days of barrel racing! She also won a gift certificate

Pay It Forward with Jill Moody

By Jill Moody

Last week I gave you some food for thought and asked you to think about what you are actually thinking as you race around the barrels. Do random thoughts of your hat falling off or how annoying your mother's shouting is pop into your head instead of the "to do" list of position, distance, speed, lift, release, look? And how can anyone successfully negotiate a barrel pattern unless they are focused on every detail of that list?

I can't personally answer that question without digging into psychological stuff that I know nothing about. I can identify with the struggle of forgetting to think about and/or do what I'm supposed to be thinking about and/or doing when I go to the left barrel first. I know what I want it to feel like when I go to the right and I can adjust accordingly but to the left I'm just along for the ride. It just doesn't feel right and I can't think fast enough to get my body reacting to my horse quick enough to get it to feel right.

Once again the questions of, how fast can we think, and what are we thinking about, arise. I don't feel as though I ride a lefty very effectively. Too much to think about and I can't think that fast! My advice to a novice, a trainer, or a seasoned competitor who is struggling to get their thoughts in order (myself included) is to devise a "to do" list and then curtail the need for speed so you CAN think fast enough to execute the list.

As you're comfort zone increases you can increase your speed and eventually you'll find yourself reacting without thinking and you'll have room for oddball thoughts that will have you scratching your head and wondering, "What was I thinking?"

As for me, I'm going to pencil out a "to do" list and head for the practice pen and think about going to that dang left barrel first. I'll venture to guess that my horse will adapt to the left handed pattern quicker than I. He's told me several times that he knows what he is doing and I'm over-thinking it!

Jill Moody is a 2-time Reserve World Champion, & a 2-time NFR Average Champion. She and her great mare Dolly hold the second fastest average time over 10 rounds at the NFR. Moody made 10 runs in 138.26 turning over $133,000 in 2010. Jill is a multiple futurity champion, Badlands Circuit Champion and owns multiple amateur association finals championships in the Dakotas. Jill is also a 2-time Female Athlete of the Year by the South Dakota Sports Writers Association.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I would like to talk to you about marriage! After 42 years with my husband, I am still surprised at what I don't know about him! It's a daily mystery! And I know that we have all, at one time or another thought that we knew what they were thinking or what they would do, but really, the only person who can read our thoughts.... is us! That frown on my face could just be my misplaced smile! No really, it's a frown. I'm real straightforward! LOL!

I recently listened to a leading marriage minister talk about how to make your marriage "as days of heaven on earth." I was shocked!! You mean I don't have to fight my way through this marriage thing? Do you know what it was? He said, "To be in a successful marriage, you must daily meet needs that you don't have....." Ookkaayy. It is no secret that men and women are different! I am attracted to Mike because he isn't like me. And then I get frustrated because he isn't. That is so stupid! So, since I heard that statement and I know what Ephesians 5:21-33 says, I have had a lot less frustration. When I find myself wondering, "WHAT THE HECK WERE YOU THINKING!!!" I stop and realize it is a great opportunity to meet a need that I don't have. It IS an adventure! But a great one!
