Vegas Money for Jimmie Tew & Sipping On Firewater at Run For The Rubies West

By Tanya Randall

Newlywed Jimmie (Smith) Tew and the electrifying mare Sipping On Firewater ("Stella") hit the jackpot at the inaugural running of the $350,000 Run For The Rubies West Open 4D, a Ruby Buckle Sidepot to the NBHA Professional's Choice Las Vegas Super Show, held June 2-5 at the South Point Casino in Nevada.

With all Ruby Buckle entries kick starting Saturday's Race, Tew and Stella set the fast time bar at 14.505 to win the Run For The Rubies 1D title, worth $15,750. Stella's owners McColee Land and Livestock of Mapleton, Utah, claimed $12,600, while the mare's breeder Crystal Nichols of Nickelbar Ranch in San Angelo, Texas, along with their stallion Shawne Bug Leo, earned $1,575 each.

Tew and Stella also finished third in the NBHA Open to earn an additional $2,241 for total earnings of $17,991.

"It was just so exciting," said Tew, who got her new last name when she married Casey Tew on May 20. "When she puts a run together like that I've learned that it's going to be pretty darned fast. It's been a goal of mine to win a Pink or Ruby Buckle the past three or four years. It's really, really exciting!"

The 7-year-old mare, out of Crystal Nichols' Fire Water Flit, Pa Jones mare Firewater Squaw, was started under saddle by Audra Masterson and later trained and campaigned by Dustin Angelle and Janna Brown. Stella was one of the highest selling prospects in 2019, bringing a $80,000 bid from Tiffani Sonnier as a 5-year-old futurity eligible 4-year-old. She'd won money with Angelle, Brown and Sonnier prior to Tew taking the reins after the mare's purchase by McColee in February.

"I've worked really hard trying to get with her," said Tew. "She's such a strong mare. She's just so powerful that it's taken a lot of adjustments. I have to be able to trust her. I've called Tiffany. I've called Janna. I've gotten help from both of them. I've just worked on it at the house and really tried to put things together."

The best thing about her Vegas run was she left the "panic pull" — as her friend and driver Tess Ingalls calls it — behind.

"She'll go so fast to the barrels that I'll start to pull on my outside rein and it makes her drop her shoulder. That's not her fault. It's mine! She was like, 'You didn't panic pull in Vegas! You've got to keep doing that!' We were laughing about it. I just trusted her. "She's so incredibly strong and fast. It's insane. It's a different kind of strong because she's smaller and compact and it's one blast of speed all at once, like a sports car versus just a long stride."

Tew, a 2020 National Finals Rodeo qualifier and 2018 WPRA Rookie of the Year, also picked up $2,489 in pro rodeo earnings over the weekend to jump a spot to No. 14 in the WPRA World Standings with $29,842.

Although there are several great Texas Circuit Rodeos on the docket, Tew opted to head West to Utah earlier this year. She'll be based out of Spanish Fork, Utah, for most of the summer.

"I've never had great luck at Texas rodeos that are this coming week so we thought we'd just try a different route, and it's really hard not to run at the Ruby Buckle events, when one run pays $12,000!"

She started her week running in Clovis, New Mexico, with her 8-year-old gelding Money On The Six ("Big John"), who also happened to pick up $1,120 in owner money for Tew at the Run For

In addition to Stella, Mini and Big John, Tew also has Manny Dot Com, which belongs to Preslee Nellesen. With all the superb barrel horse power and an injured breakaway horse, the two event hand has opted to focus on barrel racing this season. She said she'll just have to see which setups work best for her "sports car."

"I'm really liking these setups where I can just ease her out there and let her do her own thing," she said. "I've got a whole team of horses with me and I want to use her smartly. I'd like to keep every-one fresh and healthy and just go from there."

This week Tew has Eagle, Idaho, before heading to Sisters and Union, Oregon. Then, Tew will cross the border for the Calgary Stampede qualifier in Innisfail, Alberta.

Athmann and JL Rocochet Rock MN Futurity

JL Rocochet and Lauren Athmann dominated the action at the SC Productions B. Tuff Barrel Race & Minnesota Breeders Futurity in Winona, MN over this past weekend! They placed in the 1st Round and then came back to win the 2nd Round along with the Average in the Open Futurity, Breeders Futurity and the BFA Futurity to win close to $9k on the weekend! JL Rocochet is a royally bred mare by $1 Million Sire JL Sirocco and out of French Pistol Annie (by A Streak Of Fling), the full sister to the winning and siring studs French Streakin Jess and French Streaktovegas and French Streaktorodeo. As an interesting side note, French Streakin Jess sired the Reserve Champion at the MN Breeders Futurity, Packin Ta Fly Bye Ya. The royally bred mare, JL Rocochet, and Athmann look ready for the big summer and fall of futurities!

The Barrel Racing Report caught up with Athmann to ask her a few questions about her big win!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the MN Futurity?

Athmann: My goals for both runs were to be smooth, consistent and to not rush out of my turns.

BRR: You had a big weekend of winning with JL Rocochet! Tell us about her and what qualities she possesses that makes her such a winner?

Athmann: The qualities that make her a winner begins with her breeding. She is sired by JL Sirocco and the dam is French Pistol Anie (A Streak of Fling). She is a horse that is eager to please, works hard and hunts the barrels in the arena.

BRR: Can you share with us an exercise or training tip that was vital to the development of JL Rocochet?

Athmann: Leaving Minnesota and spending the winter in Stephen-

To get my horse and myself ready pre run, I focus on the two of us and lean into the confidence that we have put in the work at home and are ready to compete at our best.

BRR: What are your future plans throughout 2022 for you and your horse?

Athmann: My plan is to continue to compete in futurity events.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Athmann: The three things I always have in the trailer is my Back on Track gear, credit card and my impact wrench.

Jessica Lewis & Bogies Prissy Lady Pocket $7,526 at Idaho Equine Race For The Cash

By Tanya Randall

When Jessica Lewis entered the $15,500-added Idaho Equine Race For The Cash, held June 2-5 in Homedale, Idaho, her entry fee check was one of the smallest she'd written all year, but the payoff for winning the event was "100 percent" the largest she'd ever gotten back.

Lewis and her tough mare Bogies Prissy Lady ("Dixie") took home $7,526 for their weekend of wins.

"It's really nice to run at that kind of money, especially a one day deal," said Lewis, who attended the event with family. They had made the three-and-a-half hour trip from their Pendleton, Oregon, home to the first Race For The Cash back in 2020 when COVID had shut down her home state. This was their second time to attend. "It's run super well. It was quick and the ground was great."

Lewis' homebred mare was on fire from the start. They won Friday's Open for $494 with a 16.715. For the main event on Saturday, they bested 334 entries in the $10,000-added Open with a 16.605 to win $5,381 and the Big Money 3D Sidepot, worth $1,651!

"She's just running really strong right now," said Lewis of Dixie. "She just did everything I asked her to do. There were a couple of girls that were faster but hit barrels. Luckily, she doesn't like to do that very often so it worked out really well."

Dixie, 12, was raised by Lewis' grandparents, Northwest rodeo icons Sid and Randy Rae Britt. She is by the late NFR finalist and champion sire Bogie Biankus, whom Randy rode to multiple Columbia River Circuit titles, and out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Rusty French Girl.

Lewis started the mare when she was 4 and has been running her past six years. They're past VGBRA Barrel Daze Maturity Champions and have qualified for the Columbia River Circuit Finals. Like many of the long-lasting Bogie Biankus-bred horses, Dixie is simply getting better and better.

"I think she would have been there a long time ago if I had learned to stay out of her way," Lewis admitted. "It took me a long time to get out of training mode and really trust her. I think I've figured out how to stay out of her way and just let her work. Finally!"

The special education teacher who is wrapping up her last week of teaching before the summer break is looking forward to the Columbia River Circuit rodeos ahead this summer.

"I figure while she's running so strong I'd better go," she said. "They don't come around very often. While we've got them we've got to use them."

Josey Armstrong's Sheza French Streak & DaCota Monk Top Lance Graves Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Sheza French Streak ("Tiny") was always on the cusp of brilliance but it hadn't yet been her turn until the $15,000-added Jacky Martin Memorial Futurity, held June 2-5 with the Lance Graves International (LGI) Barrel Race in the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The 4-year-old mare, owned and raised by Josey Armstrong and trained and ridden by DaCota Monk, finished second in both go-rounds to win the aggregate for $4,197. She also won the Tomorrow's Legends bonus, worth $3,750, to bump her earnings to $7,947.

Monk, who won the 2020 LGI Futurity on Famous Lemon Drop, also finished third on Fortunate Sun, owned by Vicki Tidwell, for an additional $2,584.

"I love both of them so much," said the trainer from Emory, Texas. "They try hard for me every time. I love winning but I love it more when the horses get recognition. It's like your kid, always practices good and tries really hard, so you want that win for them. It's really exciting when that happens."

Tiny, a daughter of late leading barrel horse sire French Streak-tovegas out of Jazzy Quixote Babe, by Quixote Mac, was sent to Monk shortly after Thomas Bray broke her to ride. Monk's sister Brittainy Hall put additional riding on the mare before he started her on the pattern.

"I think I trotted her around the barrels four times and thought, 'Wow! She's such a natural!' said Monk. "I immediately went left on her because her mane is on the right. To me that's my indication that they're a lot more natural that direction. I was right because she was super easy turning to the right."

Tiny was entered at most of the early futurities but just really hadn't had a breakthrough. Armstrong had actually pulled the plug on entering the mare more because she wasn't winning. Luckily for Monk, she was already paid in full to the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, so she got to go.

"She was 11th in the Trails and 13th in the Finals," noted Monk. "I was finally able to prove my point that she was ready so (Armstrong) let me enter her at Lance's. She's always been right there. She'd always clock way faster the second run because she was more confident."

Before Lance's Monk hadn't wanted to frazzle the watchy mare by pushing her too hard the first run, but in Guthrie, he called on the mare for max effort both runs.

"The first run she went in there and worked perfectly," he said. "She scared me because she was a little bit tight at all three barrels." Monk's original plan for the second round was to be clean. However, when Ryann Pedone and HP Famous Fiesta made a round winning run to put them in average contention, Monk knew he had to chance it.

"I sent her in there as hard as I could and she scared me to death at the first barrel, she skimmed around it so tight," he chuckled. "I figured she was going to work really tight the rest of the run, so I really sent her across the pen. She normally crowds that second but that time she got free and went by it a little bit and I thought she was going to snap back on top of it. Once she gave me that extra step we went on. I really couldn't have asked for her to work any better. She's just super honest and fun. She's really fun to ride."

The LGI was Monk's last futurity until the Cornhusker in late August. Fuel prices and a large crop of 3-year-olds for next year have made staying home a priority.

BIT: L&W 329 Combination with a chain mouthpiece. Monk also has the bit without the mouthpiece. "When I feel like she's getting a little stiff I put the combination back on her. The bigger pens I don't mind running her in the combination, but in the littler arenas, I'll use the hack.

SADDLE: Circle Y Jackie Jatzlau Treeless — SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine fronts only

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: Big V Feeds 12-8 pellet — HAY: Alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP In-Sync, Gut X, Wild Gold Omega 3 Camelina Oil

THERAPIES: MagnaWave, PHT, icing legs post run

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She gets rode a lot to keep her fit because she gets heavy fast. I work her on the barrels once or twice a week, just slow work. Other times is a lot of loping and long trotting out in the pasture. Alisa exercises her a lot for me. Sometimes she'll get two-a-days. She'll get put on the walker in the morning and rode in the evening."

SPONSORS: 5JW Brooks Custom Hats, Wild Gold Omega 3 Camelina Oil, Double XX Equine, MVP, Longhorn Arena & Event Center, Posh & Perks Custom Designs, LS Performance Horses

THANKS: To his wife Paula and daughter Alisa for all their help

Twice As Nice -- Michelle Darling & Morning Traffic Top Old Fort Days & Flint Hills Rodeos

By Tanya Randall

Michelle Darling of Medford, Oklahoma, cracked into the WPRA's Top 15 with a $5,159 effort the first week of June. She currently sits 15th with $29,367.

Darling and her great 10-year-old mare Morning Traffic ("Martini") topped the Old Fort Days PRCA Rodeo in Fort Smith, Arkansas, for $2,953 and won the Flint Hills PRCA Rodeo in Strong City, Kansas, for $1,407. They also placed fourth at the Bennington, Kansas, PRCA Rodeo for $798.

"Man, she just feels so good right now," said Darling, who graduated nursing school as a licensed practical nurse (LPN) two weeks ago.

Darling was reluctant to celebrate her victories because her heart was still heavy from the tragic school shooting in Uvalde, Texas. "It just doesn't seem right," she said. "It's been on my mind so much lately. Just pray for those teachers and parents of those students."

Darling, a mother of three with husband Cody, has often limited her rodeos to the occasional weekend and summer because of her family commitments. She's always been choosy about her rodeos and this weekend was no different. Although there were several rodeos within her area over the weekend, Darling chose to enter just three, starting off with Strong City and finishing up with Fort Smith.

She got the benefit of a rain shower before her performance at Strong City, which gave her an advantage.

"That ground is better wet than it is dry, so I got the fast ground and then it dried out and got slow," she explained. "That ground wet is incredible! It can be flooded and be great!"

At Bennington, Darling almost chose to run a backup horse because she was on the bottom of the ground.

"As I'm sitting there, I thought, 'She feels great. The ground is safe. She takes care of herself. I need to win as much circuit money as I can before I head West for the summer,'" Darling explained. "It was very deep, but Martini just did her job."

Darling was in the last performance at Fort Smith. She was sixth out on the ground, but with a drag at five, she had top of the ground.

"We took full advantage of it," she said. "I sent her as hard as I could to the first barrel. She does what she always does—turned it on a dime! As long as I show up and do my job that mare does hers every single time."

Martini was Darlings' pick out of the 2013 Myers Performance Horse Prospect Sale. Bred by Max Anderson and Lance Robinson, the Frenchmans Guy mare is out of Evening Traffic, by Dash Thru Traffic. She's a full sister to leading sire Traffic Guy and is now Frenchmans Guy richest offspring with documented earnings of $400,000.

With two small children at home, Darling sent Martini to Stevi Hillman to campaign her futurity year. The following year, Martini won several pro rodeos and helped Hillman qualify for her first National Finals Rodeo in 2016.

"The plan was to bring her home and go back to riding after her futurity year," Darling explained, "but I have three kids and with two little ones, I was like 'Wow!' This mare needed rode quite a bit and I couldn't do it at the time, so I knew what was best for her and sent her back to Stevi. She made the NFR on her and Truck that year. After that I brought her home again."

Darling started rodeoing on Martini in 2017 and they've been in the Top 50 every year since 2018. Last year, they finished No. 33 in the WPRA World Standings with $33,674.

This year, they're hoping for an even better finish. They've got Woodward and Ponca City, Oklahoma, this week before starting their summer run with North Platte, Nebraska, and Pleasant Grove, Utah, before the Reno Rodeo in Nevada.

Although the WPRA has approved the Canadian rodeos this season, Darling will focus on the Western states rodeos for her summer run since she wasn't high enough in the standings soon enough to qualify for the Calgary Stampede.

"The California rodeos that I made this year were so good to me. I'd never been out there before. I think I won $13-$14,000 out there. It was incredible. Martini loves California. But I didn't get in the standings quick enough to get into Calgary. Maybe next year," she said.

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

National Finals Breakaway Roping will take place at South Point

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association and Women's Professional Rodeo Association announced in a press release June 2 that the Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping will take place at the South Point Arena & Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nov. 29-30.

The Top 15 breakaway ropers will compete for prize money of $250,000 during the two-day, 10-round performance.

"I'm pleased to see the continued success and growth of breakaway roping since the inaugural National Finals Breakaway Roping in 2020," PRCA CEO Tom Glause said. "Breakaway roping has experienced rapid growth and it is now featured at over 300 PRCA rodeos annually. This success has resulted in an increase of prize money at the NFBR to reach $250,000."

The 2022 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo is Dec. 1-10 at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

Jimmie Munroe, WPRA president, also is excited for the 2022 NFBR.

"The WPRA is looking forward to the National Finals in the Women's Breakaway Roping being held at the South Point Hotel and Casino during the PRCA Convention," Munroe said. "So many committees are having breakaway roping at their rodeos and now they along with fans will have the opportunity to see the best women breakaway ropers in the world compete at the South Point."

The South Point Hotel, which is a hotspot for contestants and visitors during the Wrangler NFR, is glad to be the event venue for the 2022 Wrangler NFBR.

"We are thrilled to host the National Finals Breakaway Roping at the South Point Arena & Equestrian Center," said Ryan Growney, General Manager of the South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa. "When Paula and Michael Gaughan built the South Point, they created a place that Cowboys and Cowgirls could call their home away from home — we call it Vegas Cowboy Central."

The 2020 National Finals Breakaway Roping took place at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, in conjunction with the NFR and Jackie Crawford captured the inaugural world championship. Last year the NFBR took place in Las Vegas at the Orleans Hotel and Casino and was won by Sawyer Gilbert.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Last weekend, we had our very good friend from Australia as a guest speaker at The Barn. Thad, seven, could not wait to meet him! I introduced him to Tim. Tim said, "How ya doing mate?" Thad stood there stunned, the funniest look on his face. He turned to me and whispered, "How does he know how to speak like us?" I stood there with a stunned look on MY face, until it dawned on me that Thad thought Tim would speak in another language! I didn't laugh because he was so seriously confused.

We did get it all straightened out but it reminded me how some people think that when you pray, you need to pray in old English. Thee's, thou's. Lofty prayers with 'est' on the ends of regular words. Like God can't understand your speech if you have a twang, drawl or drop the ings off stuff.

Instead of heading for home, we are headin' for home.

God created us. He loves us. He wants to fellowship with us. He is the creator of heaven and earth. I promise you, He will understand you when you talk to Him, no matter where you're from or how you talk.

Pray and talk to God like He is your best friend! Because He is!
