Jolene Montgomery & In Tha Beginning Capture Lance Grave Invitational Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Jolene Montgomery got her second futurity championship of the season with her homebred In Tha Beginning ("Melania") at the Lance Graves Invitational, held June 3-6 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The victory aboard the 4-year-old mare, now owned by Lindsay Stock, was worth $6,849.

Melania is the first homebred champion for Montgomery, who raised the mare out of Chicados Bully, a daughter of Chicados Cash out of Bully Bowlan Bug, Less Return mare Return Of The Bully. Trained and ridden by Montgomery, Return Of The Bully was a multiple futurity champion and earner of more than $136,000.

"We bought her at Jud's first dispersal sale," Montgomery explained. "I'd seen her on the for sale list, but I figured because she was out of Return Of The Bully that I couldn't afford her. So, we didn't go look at her or anything. We were at the sale and Kerby and I may have been drinking a little. When she walked in, she was kind of terrible looking. Then they announced that she only had one eye and barely halter broke. So, we raised our hand and bought Chicados Bully for $1,350!"

When Montgomery left for the Arizona futurities the following January, her husband Kerby started working with Chicados Bully. The mare was one of the first horses he'd started under saddle.

"He saddled her while I was gone and he called me and said, 'Hey, this mare's a bronc!' He hadn't really broke anything yet so I thought 'Oh, she's probably fine.' Well, I get back home and saddle her, and she is bronc! I spent more time on the ground with the mare than I ever have. She was scary broncy!" laughed Montgomery.

That spring Montgomery won the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity on the JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding JL Jamaican Me Rich. Word around the barn was that Jud Little was closing JL Dash Ta Heaven's books to the public the following year, so Montgomery bought a breeding. The only mare she had available was Chicados Bully.

Lacking the funds to flush the mare, Montgomery let her carry Melania while she lightly continued her training.

"In Tha Beginning learned the barrels in the womb," joked Montgomery. "After she foaled out, we weaned In Tha Beginning a little early so I could go back to training on Chicados Bully and then I futurityed her as a 5-year-old."

Luckily, Melania was the complete opposite of her mother when it came to her initial training. Montgomery's husband broke her and then her sister Haylee Layman rode the mare for three months as a 3-year-old when Montgomery was busy with outside horses.

"She was a pet from the beginning, surprisingly enough," Montgomery said. "I thought she would be on the hotter side... she looks way more like Chicados Cash than Dash Ta Heaven."

Melania has a solid futurity career so far, placing at most of the ones she's entered. However, she's really come on since the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas, where she placed fourth.

At Lazy E, Melania won the first round with a deceiving 15.737.

"Her first was just super, super smooth," said Montgomery. "In the videos it looks like she's in super slow motion. She's not the catty, squirrely type. She's a big old girl. Her shutting off the clock is pure power and no wasted steps. Her first run was just beautiful. It doesn't look like she's doing much, but she's really powerful and

THE RUNDOWN w/Jolene Montgomery

In Tha Beginning "Melania", 15.3 hands, 1,250-1,300 lbs.

BIT: Kathy James with a twisted-wire mouthpiece

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Blanket-Top Zone

LEG GEAR: Classic Fit (formerly Cross Fit) from Classic Equine

SHOEING: Rims on all four; shod by J.O. Duke

FEED: Big V Heritage

HAY: Cube-It alfalfa cubes once a day and free-choice coastal hay

SUPPLEMENTS: Forco, Horse Hair Analysis supplements

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Magna Wave and Cold Water Spa when available.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She stays turned out 24/7. She stays in the same pasture she was raised in. She's such a big girl I really don't like to stall her. She's just big and tight muscled, so I want her loose. I really don't have to condition her much. I only work barrels on her a couple of times a week. I really just lope and make her get collected up. She will get lazy so I do have to get her collected and quicken up her feet a little bit. She's pretty easy."

She was fourth on her second run with a 15.791.

“In the second run, she ran harder than she ever has,” Montgomery said. “She did slide around and get a hair by them. She did pop me up going into the second. She hit her front end a little bit, but it didn’t throw us off too bad. She got a hair by the first two and I almost pulled her into the third. It wasn’t perfect but it was good enough to win it.”

Montgomery also won the second round with Bear Creek Quarter Horses Canyons Moon Light (“Moonie”) with the fastest time of the futurity, a 15.617.

“The first go, I let her get a little strong, so I got back on her after the first go and just backed her off. For the second run, she was back to her little princess self. She’s a sweetheart,” said of the 4-year-old daughter of Guys Canyon Moon, another horse that went through Montgomery’s program.

Montgomery wanted to thank Lance Graves, the Lazy E and Twisted Sisters for producing the event, her super intern Shian Blackburn, her husband Kerby, her sister Haylee and all her sponsors for making this win possible with Melania.

Jordon Briggs & Famous Lil Jet Top Old Fort Days Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Former Nationals Finals Rodeo qualifier and multiple aged event champion Jordon Briggs is bumping on the door of the WPRA's Top 10 after a $3,106 victory at the $5,000-added Old Fort Days Rodeo, held May 31 through June 5 in Fort Smith, Arkansas. She and her great 7-year-old gelding Famous Lil Jet ("Rolo") turned in a 16.44 in the Thursday night performance for the win.

"I've been telling people I think he likes the Cowboy Channel!" laughed Briggs. "Last year I struggled with him in the perfs. He would perk his ear and not run really hard because he was looking around. Now this year, it seems like he clocks tremendous in perfs. I think he likes them now."

Briggs got to have a girls' weekend with Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, while their husbands Justin and Garrett had their daughters Bexley and Tinley for the week until they all met back up at the Redbud Spectacular in Oklahoma City for the rope horse futurity on Saturday and Sunday. The girls started out at slack in Hugo, Oklahoma.

"Hugo went terrible for the both of us," said Briggs. "My horse stumbled and pulled a shoe. I just had all sorts of trouble. So, my spirits were a little down going into Fort Smith because I had just had the worst run I had on him in a long time the night before."

Since Rolo (Dash Ta Fame x Blazin Black Beauty x Blazin Jetolena) was a 5-year-old futurity horse, he never got to run at Fort Smith. Briggs also admitted the straight approach to the first barrel had always given her fits when she competed there in the futurity.

"I'm a little bit of a swooper to the first barrel and it's really hard to get that there," she said. "Brittany and I rode in the arena before the perf and we were talking about it. I think it's a 'Lisa Lockhart at the NFR' approach to the first barrel, where you hug the right side and then hit the mouth of the alleyway to the left so that you can get that swoop. I did that in the perf and it worked out great. My horse really fired! He was running!"

Rolo was running so hard, he got a touch by the second. "After I got by it a little bit, I thought I definitely better two hand check for the third barrel because it's out in the middle of nowhere. I think he handled it really good," she added.

From Fort Smith, the two headed to Durant, Oklahoma, where they both placed. Briggs picked up another $938 for fifth to bring her weekend earnings to $4,044. The successful weekend moved Briggs to 11th in the WPRA World Standings with $24,246.

This week, Briggs has Woodward, Oklahoma, and Cleburne and Weatherford, Texas, before Rolo gets a little break before she starts her Fourth of July run with Pecos, Texas. In the meanwhile, she's having to pack up their place in Chilton, Texas, and move it to their new home in Tolar.

"I didn't enter Reno," she said. "I had a lot of anxiety about driving all the way out there for mainly that rodeo. I should have but I wasn't ready to leave that early. I still have to do a lot of packing because we're going to be moving right in the middle of all the really good July rodeos."

From Pecos, Briggs will hit Greeley and Colorado Springs, Colorado, Oakley and West Jordan, Utah, before hitting The Gateway Rodeos: Cody, Wyoming, Red Lodge and Livingston, Montana. "I'm going to stay out the whole month of July and see how it

Fonda Melby & RF Back For The Cash Sweep B Tuff & MN Breeders Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Fonda Melby and the talented 5-year-old stallion RF Back For The Cash ("Heatwave") won their second straight aged event with a sweep of the B Tuff and MN Breeders Futurities, held June 4-6 in Winona, Minnesota. They swept the open and breeders at the Grid Iron Futurity two weeks prior.

Melby and Heatwave won the first round in 14.769. "The first run, I just tried to set him up for success," she explained. "He stepped in a little too soon coming into the first and we got by it a tad. He kind of shuffled his feet a little bit on the back side, and all I could think was, 'Do not hit the barrel coming back!' I knew if we got around three barrels we were going to win something. His second and third were pretty much picture perfect."

Melby knew Heatwave's time wasn't too far back of his previous runs in that arena, but event host Shawn Varpness put the pressure on when he broke the futurity arena record on the 4-year-old mare SC Dont Judge Me.

"He ran a 14.301," Melby recalled. "I didn't know if I had enough to outrun that horse, but I dang sure tried." Before making her run, Melby and her husband Ryan studied videos of Heatwaves prior runs in that specific arena to find the best approach to the first barrel."

"He helped me see a different place to start my drift to the first barrel to get him to straight ahead longer and then step in," Melby explained. "When I made my run, we did just that and he aced the first barrel. He kind of shuffled his feet a tiny bit on the back side of the second and his third was awesome. He ran a 14.389, which was second in the round. He still won the average by a lot." The futurity sweep was worth $3,797, plus an additional $594 in open 1D carryover money.

By the late Judge Cash, Heatwave is out of the NFR qualifying mare and champion producer RC Back In Black, by Ninety Nine Goldmine out Rabbit Redux, by Royal Quick Dash. While the colt was always gentle and willing, he was incredibly accident prone as a youngster.

"He had several abscesses," Melby said. "He cut his right front ankle over the tendon sheath as a 2-year-old and we thought he was going to be crippled forever. Then he capped his right hock shortly after the tendon sheath healed. He had a rough start, but he came out of it and has been sound ever since."

Melby, a former Badlands Circuit Finals and dual Great Lakes Circuit Finals qualifier, plans on finishing out the futurity season with the colt and she'll also run him at a few Great Lakes Circuit Rodeos. He'll get his first outs this weekend while Melby's main rodeo horse gets jump rode at the state high school rodeo finals. "I think next year as long as he's doing well and likes the rodeos, we'll probably campaign him at the rodeos a little bit more. We don't necessarily have any large goals in mind, just see how it goes. If it's going well, we'll change our goals."

Heatwave has also been covering mares this spring.

"We've actually bred quite a few mares to him this year, 15 or 20," said Melby. "About half of them are ours and half of them are outside mares. We bred five mares last year, so there's five on the

A Crossover Career

Multiple circuit finalist and recent futurity champion Fonda Melby didn't grow up barrel racing. The equine veterinarian from Backus, Minnesota, actually grew up showing cutting horses and picked up barrel racing after graduating from veterinary school as means of building her own practice. "I had a little cow horse that wasn't making it as a cutter that I would go run barrels on," she explained. "I'd set up at these shows to grow my practice. When my little horse got hurt, I realized I really liked running barrels. At that point, Molly Otto and I had got to be good friends and I bought Frosted Cookies through her. The rest is history after that. I bought my permit, started going to rodeos, made the circuit finals, bought more horses... just one thing led to another."

While she did work on small animals in the beginning, Melby's practice is largely sports medicine. Given the seasonal nature of Minnesota horse sports—"Most people turn their horses out in the pasture for the winter," she noted—Melby is able to travel during the winter months.

She has however inadvertently built her reproductive services. She and her husband Ryan have two stallions, the Frenchmans Guy son Guys Special Leader, as well as their multiple futurity champion RF Back For The Cash.

ground. Two are ours and three are other people's. We're liking what we've seen out of those colts so far. We're excited to see what he produces."

New World Record Set On Standard Pattern in Brazil, 16.369!

Story by Shannon Kerr

Last week was the running of the 30th ABQM Congress in Araçatuba, SP – Brazil. The event was held over a 10 day span and the competition was extremely fast. Out of 1,829 entries of the barrel racing event, it took a 16.6 or better on a standard pattern to be in the Top 10. It was during the Open Senior class that rider and trainer Evelino Rocha made a fast run aboard the great mare ROLLIN IN THE FAME. So fast, in fact, that their run of 16.369 set the new World Record on a standard pattern. This would be the second time in their career to break the record (their previous record was 16.399 in 2017).

As soon as the crowd saw the time they rose to their feet in cheers and applause and the ABQM judges stopped the event and the pattern was remeasured to insure the record was legitimate. Not only was the pattern remeasured to ensure accuracy, Rocha was asked to weigh to make sure he was at least 75 kilograms (165 lbs), the mare was checked to make sure she had no spur marks or blood anywhere on her body and her bit was examined to make sure that it was within the parameters of the rules of the ABQM association. Rollin In The Fame was also escorted to the quarantine holding location and her blood and urine were collected for drug testing. (results are still pending from the drug testing).

"The first time I broke the record it was very emotional. I couldn't stop thinking about my run and I spent a month as if I was floating on air. Now after the second time, the emotion is greater than the first time. Not only was I able to break the record again, I was also champion of the ABQM Congress, one of our most prestigious and most difficult to win events. However, after about 2 days I had to go back to thinking about my next run and I had to get my other horses ready for their runs as well." said Rocha when asked about his run and breaking the record twice in his career.

Rollin In The Fame was imported into Brazil and has had a stel-

Draw It Out® Horse Health Care Solutions Announces WPRA Sponsorship

Draw It Out®, maker of DiO horse health care solution products, announces its continued sponsorship of the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA).

"Draw It Out is honored to sponsor the WPRA and support its professional athlete members in enhancing the well-being, health, and performance of their elite equine partners," notes Jon Conklin, Draw It Out CEO. "We look forward to introducing our complete Draw It Out equine product line to WPRA members."

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association, the longest running women's sports organization in the country formed by women for women, is the recognized leader for women in the sport of rodeo. Based in Colorado Springs, CO, the WPRA empowers female rodeo athletes to achieve competitive excellence while embracing rich traditions and values that include love of animals, competition, and the western lifestyle.

"We are pleased to continue our partnership with Draw It Out as an Official Horse Care Product of the WPRA," said Jimmie Munroe, WPRA President. "We look forward to working with them to build both our brands over the next two years and provide great products to our members."

The Draw It Out equine and dog product lines include: DiO Silver Hoof EQ Therapy for horses, Citraquin Environmental Defense Spray for horses, DiO Horse Shampoo with Lavender, DiO Plus Horse Liniment, DiO Horse Liniment Concentrate and Gel formulas, DiO MasterMudd Equibrace horse poultice, DiO Rapid Relief Restorative Cream for horses, DiO SuperClean Stall Wash for horses, ShowBarn Secret line: Dentangler & Shine, Sheen & Conditioner, Braiding Spray, and DiO Dog Liniment Spray.

DiO products are made with all-natural formulas that undergo rigorous 3-step testing and third-party independent analysis. Product ingredients are 100% USA sourced and human pharmaceutical grade.

To locate a DiO retailer or purchase products online visit the DiO website, For dealer inquiries, call 844-434-6462 or email sales@drawliniment.com.

St. Paul Oregon Pro Rodeo Gives Away Scholarships

Alexandra Hernandez and Olivia Veeman each received $4,000 scholarships from the St. Paul (Ore.) Rodeo Foundation on June 7. Hernandez, a 2021 graduate of St. Paul High School, played volleyball and basketball and ran track throughout her high school career. She was part of her school's FFA chapter, National Honor Society, DECA, Key Club, Health Occupation Club, and was editor-in-chief for her school's yearbook. Veeman, a 2021 graduate of Veritas School in Newberg, Ore., was part of the drama club, ran track and field for two years, and was part of the concert choir and yearbook club. Hernandez, who won the scholarship given to a St. Paul High School student, volunteered at the rodeo as part of the school's booster club, parking cars and helping with setup. Veeman's father, Dr. Richard Veeman, is the official veterinarian for the St. Paul Rodeo. Both women plan on going into the field of dentistry. This year's St. Paul Rodeo is June 30 through July 4, with performances daily at 7:30 pm (MDT) and a matinee on July 4 at 1:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale online at StPaulRodeo.com.

Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo Logo Put on Pepsi Cans

To celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo in Abilene, Kan., the rodeo's logo will be placed on Pepsi cans in the central Kansas area. Mahaska Bottling Co. will distribute 60,000 Pepsi cans, with the rodeo's logo on the back, at area grocery and convenience stores. The cans will be sold in 12 and 24 packs and will hit the shelves in the next few weeks, said Larry Brake, rodeo committeeman and coordinator of the project. The cans will be distributed in the general area of Salina, to Concordia, to Manhattan, Kan. The same project was done for the rodeo's 50th anniversary in 1995. The 75th Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo is scheduled for Aug. 4-7 at the Central Kansas Free Fair. Performances start at 7:30 p.m. (CDT). Tickets are $13 for adults and $5 for kids ages 6-12. They can be purchased at various locations around the Abilene area, online at www.ckff.net and at the gate. For more information, visit the website at WildBillHickokRodeo.com or call 785.263.4570.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I was talking with a friend the other day and she made this statement and it was a shazam statement to me! She said, "If faith is the size of a mustard seed, how big is unbelief?" I kinda tilted, then the light bulb went on!

Matthew 17:20 tells us that if we have faith as a mustard seed, we will speak to the mountain, it will move and nothing will be impossible for us. That's an awesome Bible promise, isn't it? However, the same could be said of unbelief.

When we are plugged into the world through tv, newspapers, and every other media which is spewing unbelief and lies, we are taking in a whole lot of mustard seeds. Just not the right kind. Your heart and mind can get so full of the world that it will come flowing out of our mouth. Matthew 12:34-37 says so.

We need to stay full of the word of God! We need more of the word of God then the word of the world. We cannot win if we spend 24/7, 6 days a week being in the world and one hour a week at church.

The wrong mustard seeds are growing in us! But praise God we can turn it around! Seek God FIRST and a LOT this week and watch what God can do in your life!
