Rose Hildebrandt & BHR Speedy Frost Turn Up the Heat at Dash & Dance Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Rose Hildebrandt and her 5-year-old mare BHR Speedy Frost turned in two consistent runs to win the Dash & Dance Futurity in Spearfish, S.D. The victory was worth $3,081 for their runs of 13.774 and 13.791.

"I can't say they were the prettiest runs," said Hildebrandt, who resides in Valentine, Neb. "In that pen, I think nailing your first barrel is a big deal, and she nailed it 100 percent. The first run, she got a little stiff coming off of the second barrel, but her speed's quick. It didn't cost me a bunch, but it did cost me a little, probably to win the round. She was consistent. She kind of did the same on the second day. I did send her a little hard to the first, maybe the run was a little sloppier, but she made up for it."

Bred by the Pederson's Broken Heart Ranch of Firesteel, S.D., Speedy is by BHR Super Frost, a son of Frenchmans Guy out of a AAA daughter of Wild Deck, a son of Top Deck (TB). Her dam is BHR Miss Speedy, by Shake It Special. BHR Miss Speedy is a half-sister to leading barrel horse sire BHR Frenchies Socks, and a full sister to BHR Speedy Socks, a horse Hildebrandt futurityed years ago.

Hildebrandt has owned Speedy since she was a late 3-year-old. "I got her in a trade," she said. "The irony is we had bid on her when she was a baby. My husband (Kelly) had called Chad Pederson to bid on this filly over the phone. When he found out the gal that bought Speedy Socks was bidding on her, he quit bidding. When I traded for her I didn't even know she was the filly we were bidding on originally. I just knew I liked the bloodlines."

Speedy made her futurity debut at Lynn Kohr's Roper Apparel & Footwear Futurity over Memorial Weekend, and finished 14th in the average.

"She got thrown to the wolves pretty fast," she said. "I'm pretty proud of her."

Hildebrandt also won the second go of the futurity with John and Michelle Witt's Cash Lion Around. The Lions Share Of Fame gelding turned in the fastest time of the futurity, a 13.562.

"I went in on him, thinking he would do really well, and he ducked in front of the first barrel and got a no time," she said. "We did a little schooling and won the second round, but it doesn't work very well when you have a no time the first day."

Hildebrandt grew up in a non-horse family. She honed her training skills under the guidance of Wayne and Phyllis Cornish. After rodeoing through high school and college, Hildebrandt discovered futurities and liked staying in one place better than hitting the road.

just had two derby horses and that was it. That was a little odd. I haven't had that for several years."

Hildebrandt said with her 20-year-old son in college she hopes to haul further to more events out of her native northern plains.

Alders & Straight Money Honey Cash in at MN Futurity

By Hope Sickler

Winona, Minnesota hosted the B. Tuff Barrel Race and Futurity produced by SC Productions, LLC last weekend, that many northern barrel racers and futurity trainers flocked to. SC Productions, LLC (Shawn and Casey Varpness) are known for putting on great events, so many had this event penciled in months ago, including Jason Alders, who left Winona with the futurity win.

Alders and his home raised 5-year-old bay mare, Straight Money Honey, by Strait Firewater and out of Allison's Dun Honey, by Driftwood PCS Snip, collected the open futurity average title with a combined time on two of 30.565

Alders and "Moe" as they affectionately call the pretty bay mare, had a good, smooth run in round one which placed them second in the round.

"She inhaled the first barrel and had a really nice second barrel as well. We stepped off the third barrel a little on the back side but she ran home pretty hard for such a little horse. We posted a time of 15.369 which won us second in the first round," Alders explained. Prior to the weekend, Alders had sent her to their trainer after their May futurity, where he and "Moe" won 5th in average.

"I hadn't ridden her in over a month since I sent her back to our trainer after the futurity in May. A friend of ours hauled her down to Winona on Friday night so I could get a feel for her again and make sure she had a chance to get in the arena before the first round of the futurity since she had never been there before." For their final run on Sunday, Alders was feeling some nerves of excitement.

"I was a little nervous on Sunday. With the reverse order, I ran right away on Sunday. I wanted to make sure that I didn't drive her too hard into the first and kept my hands quiet. I was also hoping that she would run within 1-2 tenths of her run on Saturday."

With another great run with three smooth turns, Alders and

"Moe" posted a time of 15.196 which was again good enough for second in the second round.

After the times were tallied, it was announced that Alders would be taking home the championship.

"Winona was the third stop for the NRF Tour- Minnesota Futurity- that is produced by Erin Bayer and Sue Craig. They produced a great futurity! It was also a Breeder's Incentive Futurity that made it even better since "Moe's" sire, Strait Firewater, was a breeder's stallion. MN Futurity & B.Tuff Continued on Page 14

Alders and "Moe" left Winona with $2,504 in total earnings, along with a beautiful saddle sponsored by American Auto Body, MVP Exceed, Pony Warmers Horse Cooler, Do Not Conform Hat Company Gift Certificate and Trailer Fresh prizes.

"That was the first saddle that I have ever won so I was beyond thrilled and proud of our girl, "Moe"," said Alders.

Glowing Performance For Vauna Walker & Famous Shiney Hiney at Idaho Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Vauna Walker and Sheila Hill paired up for another winning barrel horse—Famous Shiney Hiney, the champion of the Idaho Barrel Futurity held in Caldwell, Idaho. The 4-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of the Frenchmans Guy, On The Money Red mare Frenchmans Red Money, won $1,568 for the trainer, owner duo.

Walker, Pingree, Idaho, said she was pleased with how Shiney has come together in recent months. She was especially pleased with how the mare handled the difficult entryway at Caldwell.

“It’s got an interesting entryway,” she explained. “It’s got two doors, one on the right side and one on the left. If you go in the right door you’re clear on the right side of the arena. A lot of people go in and set their horses up. I learned the year that I won on (CP Konea) that if walk them in and set them up to start them, you don’t have enough momentum because the first is a little close.”

Walker carefully started all her horses outside the entryway.

“You can’t start them hard because it’s sand on pavement,” she said. “I train for it at home for a couple of weeks. I come out of my round pen, which if you’re looking at the barrel pattern, it’s clear on the right side of the first barrel. So they have to make an arc and get back to the first barrel. So I trained for it all week and it worked perfectly with Shiney. She just did exactly what we’d been doing. She ran really hard to the first barrel. It’s starting to be really fun because she’s running harder all the time and staying solid.”

Although a fellow competitor or two has heckled her for “cheating” on her homework, Walker believes in being prepared for all situations.

“Any arena that has an entryway that’s different, you can train for that at home,” she said. “I’m a big believer in that—trying to duplicate the conditions, trying to duplicate the entry.”

Shiney, however, hasn’t duplicated the demeanor of the many other Dash Ta Fame mares that Walker has ridden.

“She’s been really interesting for me to ride,” said Walker. “Most of those Dash Ta Fame mares are really hot and they’re scramblers, but this little filly’s been kind of different. She’s pretty laid back. I’m always wondering if she’s going to run, and she’s running a little faster all the time.”

After Walker was a little disappointed with how Shiney clocked at the January futurities in Arizona, she chose to skip the lucrative Diamonds & Dirt Futurity in Bryan, Texas, to give mare more time and less pressure to develop.

“She just does what you ask her to do,” said Walker. “She’s different from anything I’ve ever ridden. I guess she’s more like the Frenchmans Guys, just her style, the way she runs in and turns. Shelia came to my house last week actually and made a couple of runs on her. She’s really excited because she’s one that she wants to keep. She kind of runs with her head up and up underneath herself in the turns and she’s a little easier to ride. We’re kind of excited.”

Shiney will have a small reprieve before the fall run of futurities.

“We’re going to bring her along easy,” said Walker. “She’ll coast through the summer. She’ll go to some local jackpots, maybe some bigger 4Ds, but I’m not going to go anywhere big for the next couple of months. I’ll basically ride her around at the ropings (her husband Randy is an avid team roper) and let her grow up. She’s been maturing steadily. Our plan is to peak her again in the fall.”

In the meanwhile, Walker and Hill will hit some of the Wilderness Circuit rodeos with their older horses. They’re up in Delta, Utah, this weekend.

Walker will also spend more time riding her young horses. A registered nurse, Walker is only working one day a week now so she has more time to ride her youngsters.

“We’ve got lots of young horses,” she said. “I’ve got four colts of every age. I’ve got four 3-year-olds and the 2-year-olds are just coming back. We usually get them started by somebody else. We’ll ride them a little this year, but not a lot. I don’t like to start them on barrels until they’re 3. I like them to be grown up before I start that. The 3-year-olds I have this year have just been fun to ride. I have a lot to be excited about with these young horses and more time to do it!”

Murnion and Terrys Cash Too Win 1D All Alone

The 2015 $7,000 added NUTRALIX Barrel Daze had a tough start with over an inch of rain Friday night. A lil delay on the start did not deter the record number of racers. Over $26,000 was paid out over the weekend at the Cow Town, Miles City, MT.

Carrie Murnion was the HUGE Open 1D winner on Saturday riding winning the 1D to the tune of $2700. Carmel Wright, recent Ram Circuit Finals winner, sped through the pattern Sunday running a 17.42 winning the Open 1D, Wrangler-WPRA and Church race. Riding famed Sweetheart Special for $636, $358 and $109 respectively. Carmel had a weekend total of $1835. Alyce Hager was the Saturday Senior 1D winner on Docs Worth Watching. Roxanne Ripley won Sunday's Senior with a 17.675 aboard RR French Silk Pie. Rylee Bice aboard Pistol was Saturday's youth winner, while Sunday's Youth winner was Danica Hoppman on Lonaker The Futurity Sidepots were won both days by Kassie Meyer riding Little Gee Kitty.

The Black Iron Grille was the Saturday night destination, as we celebrated June Tibbetts and Hadli Anderson's birthdays. Copper Spring Ranch sponsored the $1,000 added Church race. Wonderful Christa Phalen lead the Sunday church. It was both enlightening and personal as attendees shared what the Lord had done in each of their lives.

A special thanks to all of our Fine sponsors for making this event possible NutraLix, Rodeo Rigs, Copper Spring Ranch, Rick and Leslee Green, Steadman's Ace Hardware, Town Pump, Plains Horizon Equine Insurance, US Bank, Bill Champion, Black Iron Grille, Murdoch's Ranch & Home, Billings Livestock Horse Sales, Horizon Implement, Farmers Elevator, Miles City Saddlery, Horizon Implement, Classic Equine, Riverside Marine and Cycle, Dally'O, Tim & Pati Lechner, Miles City Livestock Center, Comfort Inn, Westfeeds, and Farm Bureau Insurance-Jim and Ellie Krise.

We look forward to another great event in 2016. Come and Join

Headin' For Home

“Classic” by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Summer is here and the fairs, rodeos, and barrel competitions are too numerous to count. Not all the contestants can win but their hopes are running high as they discuss their new horses, new training strategies and past performances.

A lot of factors determine the outcome of each competition but we can be sure on one thing—we can all win in the race of life which is the most important race we will ever run. Where we go when we leave this earth and where we will spend eternity takes precedence over the mundane decisions we are faced with every day. Some people seem to wallow in their difficulties and like to say if it weren't for bad luck, they'd have no luck at all!

Yet, God's Holy Word tells us we're “blessed in the city and blessed in the country” (Deuteronomy 28:3) and even though we will have troubles, God will see us through them all. If you've made Jesus the Lord of your life, He will never leave you nor forsake you. The Bible teaches that “with faith, all things are possible to him who believes.” Line up your thinking with what God says about you. Say what God says about you. Say that you're blessed and highly favored.

Even if you don't take first in the barrel competition, you can still be a winner in life. You can have peace, a heart full of joy, and sleep well at night if you turn your life over to Jesus, trust in Him, talk to Him and believe He'll work all things out. Keep your priorities straight and focus on things that are most important. You can live a happy, satisfied life and that makes you a winner!
