Schulze Dominates Run at the Rose Futurity for $12K

By Julie Mankin

Just 10 weeks after sweeping the Dixie Classic Futurity in Hurricane, Utah, with an arena record, Kim Schulze of Larkspur, Colo., and her 5-year-old bay mare Ain't Seen Sassy Yet ("Gritty"), nearly did the same in Montrose, Colorado.

On June 6-7, the three-time Mountain States Circuit champ blitzed the field at the Run At The Rose to put up a 30.475 on two that won the Futurity average by almost a half-second over Pete Oen and Epic Path Ta Fame.

"She absolutely loves it," said Schulze of the mare that runs in a hackamore and pins her ears between each barrel. "She's a pretty amazing horse. And she hasn't made a run like she can truly make yet. She has the most wicked first barrel. Jordon [Briggs] told me to ride further up into the hole two-handed. I said, 'I can't - I'll fall off!' When I got her, I seriously didn't know if I was cowgirl enough to ride this horse."

Schulze and her husband Shayne lived at Chuck and Kristie Peterson's place in Colorado during construction of their own house when Jordon was just a little girl. Schulze thinks of the world champion as a daughter.

"Jordon trained Gritty," said Schulze. "She deserves the credit. She didn't have time to campaign her at futurities and posted her for sale last May. She sent me a couple of videos and I bought her sight-unseen."

In true Jordon style, the mare never wants to hit a barrel, and makes textbook-perfect turns. In Montrose, Gritty and Schulze clocked a pair of super-consistent 15.2s - one of which won the second round - for a Futurity haul of $8,540. That first run also placed fourth in that day's Open for another $1,190. Schulze's smoking second run also won that Open for $2,047, bringing her Montrose total on Gritty to $11,777.

"People ask me if Jordon is upset that she sold this mare," said Schulze. "I just say no - Jordon could make one like this anytime she wants. She's proven it over and over."

Gritty was bred by Lisa Miladinovich, who owns her sire Ain't Seen Nothin Yet (by Frenchman's Guy out of the Dash Ta Fame daughter Smart N Famous). And she's out of Hotsass, by Royal Shake Em (104) and out of the Dash For Cash daughter Dashing Stardust.

"I've had her a year and have just been learning how to ride her," said Schulze, who overcame a life-threatening liver injury when a horse kicked her in 2017. "Jordon does such an amazing job. Her husband Justin broke Gritty and those two have an amazing program. They're both just horsemen. I can't say enough good things about them."

Schulze said the mare has a monster move off a barrel, and the veteran trainer said her goal for this weekend's Colorado Classic Futurity, also in Montrose, is to ride her deeper into each turn so Gritty won't have to step off to leave.

The young mare was so watchy as a 4-year-old that Schulze said it might take her 20 minutes to get from the horse trailer to the venue. And at one race last winter in Arizona, Gritty heard the camera flash behind her at the second barrel and ran away in a panic

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: just a cold-water hose and I mud her legs

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I lope a lot of circles, and I walk and trot through the pattern about every time I get on her. Then a horse knows it doesn't have to run every time it sees a barrel.

THANK YOUS: For starters, Justin and Jordon [Briggs]. They truly did an amazing job. And Lisa bred an outstanding horse. Also, my husband and my family are my biggest supporters. Plus, my wonderful friends who are so supportive.

toward the eye.

But Schulze has been around that block. She trained Speedy, her old NFR-caliber gelding, as well as her current rodeo horse, 12-year-old French Me Or Else that she bought from Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi as a filly.

“Elsie” was actually in the trailer to Montrose also, because Schulze was entered in the Cortez and Durango circuit rodeos between futurities. But when Elsie tried extra hard to buck her off one day in the warm-up arena, the wide-eyed trainers nearby asked Schulz – a grandmother of three – how she’d managed to stay aboard.

“I told them, ‘I don’t want to hit the ground because I’m old!’” she said, laughing.

Now, more than a dozen years after Schulze finished 16th in the world on a horse Kristie Peterson gave her as a 2-year-old, Peterson’s daughter is playing a role in Schulze’s success.

“Their program is good to me,” she said. “That whole family has been a blessing to me. They are a Godsend, and I feel like this horse is, too.”

Scheid Dominates Grid Iron Maturity with BJO Buttercup & SS Kellie Dancer

Over this past weekend in the north country, Sigrid Scheid and her team of horses hit the rodeo and barrel race scene by storm! Scheid ended up being the Reserve Champio at the Belcourt, ND Prorodeo on SS Kellie Dancer and then went to the Grid Iron Barrel Race to win the Breeders Maturity & Open Maturity on BJO Buttercup and winning Reserve in the Open Maturity again on SS Kellie Dancer. All told between barrel races and rodeos she ended up winning $13,528! We caught up with her to get a little more info about her big weekend!

BRR: Can you walk us through both your winning runs on BJO Buttercup at the Grid Iron Maturity?

Scheid: She felt great to warm up and was quiet in the gate both days so I wasn't sure if she was going to fire or not. I had to wake her up a little in the alley before taking off. Her first run felt great she fired hard and didn't get short on me going on into the turns. Her 2nd run was a little more wild; she didn't quite finish the first as good as she normally does but I just tried to keep her momentum going forward and she smoked second and third. I thought we'd be slower than the day before but she was over a whole tenth faster. I was pretty tickled with her!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs on SS Kellie Dancer at the Grid Iron & Belcourt?

Scheid: I went into Belcourt with pretty minimal expectations. I'd never ran her in deep shifty sand like that so I wasn't sure how she would like it. I told myself we're just here to gain some experience and get seasoned to some perfs (performances). But she went in there and just rocked it, you can feel her just dig in and grit up when the ground is tricky. I knew she was going to be fast when we crossed the timer but we were only the 2nd ones out so we had the rest of that perf, slack and another perf to sweat it out through. I was so proud of her for stepping up and clocking with those horses.

For her first run at Grid Iron she felt great in her warm up. I felt pretty confident going into our run because she likes that pen. We'd won the futurity average at the Blitz there the fall before. It was a great run, her turns were nice and soft, I barely had to touch her.

BRR Breeder: Sigrid Scheid

She still surprises me every time they announce her time. She just clocks.

Our second run was a little more wild. She'd had a long weekend after the rodeo Friday night and the first round Saturday and the weather was windy and hot. She was a little ornery to warm up (lol) so I knew she was going to run hard I just tried to stay quiet and keep her paying attention to me and she clocked pretty close to the same time as the day before. She's just loves to run barrels and is a lot of fun to run.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about BJO Buttercup & SS Kellie Dancer's career up to this point and share some of their big wins?

Scheid: Bev (BJO Buttercup) was a Futurity horse in 2023. She was pretty much my first real futurity horse and I probably should have won a lot more on her, but I was just learning the ropes. We ended up the year placing in the Pink Buckle futurity average and that's an accomplishment I'm pretty proud of. She ran my first 16.9 on a standard that next spring and the following summer I started seasoning her at the pro rodeos, placed pretty good at a couple, tipped a few barrels to win another couple, and then ended up just a few shy of making circuit finals.

Then the following year (last year) along came Hazel (SS Kellie Dancer) for her futurity year and we decided to focus on the futurity's and derby's again. Hazel started the year off strong winning the ARP Spring Fling futurity in Gillette, WY. We had to miss a couple due to some injury's/abscesses but were able to finish out the year strong. She won the Blitz futurity, West Fest futurity and slot race, and then we went down to the Young Guns League where she finished 5th in the first go second in the second go and 3rd in the average. Now we've ventured back into the rodeo scene and her and Bev have done pretty well through out the winter. Bev pulling checks at Bismarck and Minot. Hazel placed at Rapid City, Huron and now Belcourt. I'm excited to kick off the summer run with them!

BRR: What did you do this past couple weeks to have your horses at their best?

Scheid: I've just been trying to keep their lungs built up. They've been working pretty good so I haven't done much pattern work at all. Trying to keep it fresh and fun for them.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend prior to entering the arena?

Scheid: I do best when I'm not trying to go out there and win. I tell myself let's just go make a nice cruise through. And usually my horses will take care of the throttle for me. I try to visualize my runs a lot too, I really think that helps. Imagining where I'll sit, what each turn will feel like and where I'll put my hands.

BRR: How did you get started barrel racing?

Scheid: I did the 4-H events as a kid. Barrel racing was always my favorite. I wanted to go fast!

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Scheid: A grape Celsius, Norman (cowboy corgi), and a good podcast or audio book!

BRR: What is the funniest thing your horse does?

Scheid: Hazel looooves butt scratches. She will swing her butt right in your face. She's hard to say no to.

Austyn Tobey Gains Ground at Canadian Pro Rodeos

By Tanya Randall

Austyn Tobey and her talented team of horses went four for four at the Canadian rodeos in Alberta during the first full weekend of June. The Bemidji, Minnesota, barrel racer collected $7,049 on the weekend to move to No. 6 in the WPRCA World Standings with $56,994.

Tobey started off at the Rocky Pro Rodeo in Rocky Mountain House in slack.

“It was underwater, so I rode TR Lying Badger, ‘Bam Bam,’ my Mandan horse,” said Tobey referring to her big win at the North Dakota Roughrider Cup in the mud last season.

They placed ninth for $628.

Slack for the Newell Pro Rodeo in Brooks was next. Even though it was still wet, she opted to run Frisky Ta Fame. They tied for seventh, earning $563.

The Bonneyville Pro Rodeo was Tobey’s next stop. Although it was drier than it had been, it was still wet for the rodeo performance, so she jumped back on Bam Bam. They got another ninth place check, earning $697.

Tobey saved her best finish for her last rodeo of the weekend—the Lea Park Rodeo in Marwayne.

“By the time we got to Lea Park on Sunday, it was much drier,” noted Tobey. “There was still plenty of moisture, but it wasn’t mud.”

She and Frisky got a $5,161 victory.

Tobey started riding Frisky, a 10-year-old Firewater Ta Fame daughter, out of the Streakin Again mare Streakin Porsche, a year ago. The mare was futurityed by Brett Monroe and derbied by Cayla Melby Small. Jackie Ganter rodeoed on Frisky until an injury sidelined her for a year. When Frisky recovered, the mare’s owner Chuck Nelson sent her to Tobey.

“She’s got a very unique style. It’s her way or the highway. It’s a little difficult, but I mesh with her pretty well.”

Tobey’s other money earner Bam Bam is a 10-year-old daughter of Lions Share of Fame, out of two-time National Finals Rodeo Champion TR Dashing Badger (“Dolly”), by Mr Illuminator.

She also has Cayla Melby Small’s Justasiexpectedblack (“Busy”) on the trailer too, which leaves her with a good problem to have—picking the right horse for each rodeo.

“I know them all pretty well,” Tobey said. “Frisky is hard because she’ll really excel anywhere. The more space she has to use her speed, the better. Bam Bam will work anywhere. Typically if the ground is not good, I’ll get on her. Busy, I’m still getting her completely figured out. She likes open spaces. They all pretty well like open spaces.”

Tobey said her horsepower influenced her decision to return to Canada, and so did her mentor multiple NFR qualifier and IPRA World Champion Jane Melby.

“I came up here in 2023 and did not have a good experience,” she said. “Ever since I got Bam Bam, I told myself if I ever went back, I’d love to have her with me. Now having three horses that like open spaces, there’s no better place than Canada. Jane encouraged me to think about coming back up here again too. That’s what triggered my decision.”

Tobey plans on staying in Canada through the Ponoka Stampede before dropping back stateside for the Fourth of July run.

“I’ll go to Hamil, Isanti and Spooner—they’re good rodeos in my circuit—and the NFR Open,” she added.

The two-time Great Lakes Circuit Champion is excited to be on the hunt for her first NFR qualification.

“It’s amazing,” she said. “I’m trying to soak up every single second of it. It was always a thought but never a reality. I grew up watching Jane do it and got to experience it behind-the-scenes. Then I saw my built-in sister, Cayla (Melby Small) do it. Now doing it myself, there’s nothing better.”

2025 Summer Run Recap!

As we start the 2026 summer run we thought it would be fun to see where the standings were in 2025 this week (June 10, 2025) compared to this week in 2026 (June 9, 2026). Then look at what it took to make the 2025 NFR when the season ended on September 30, 2025.

- Just like last year Kassie Mowry sits atop the World Standings with over $130k in earnings.
- In 2025, the #15 hole right now had $36,411 in earnings and September 30, 2025 Katelyn Scott qualified to her first NFR with $130,764.
- That's a difference of $94,353!

That just goes to show how much is up for grabs at the summer rodeos!

• In 2026 (in our unofficial standings) Gracen Harman sits #15 at $37,685.

• If you added $94,353 to her total; it would take a cool $132,038 to make the NFR in 2026!

It's going to be a busy summer run for everyone as they scramble to qualify to the 2026 NFR! Good Luck & Safe Travels!

Funeral Service for Alan Woodbury, 81, of Dickinson, will be 10:00 a.m. Monday, June 15, 2026 at Stevenson Funeral Home, Dickinson. Burial will follow at Dickinson Cemetery.

Visitation for Alan will be from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Sunday, June 14, 2026 at Stevenson Funeral Home, Dickinson, with a Celebration of Life Service taking place at 4:00 p.m.

Alan passed away Saturday, June 6, 2026 in Rochester, MN.

Alan W Woodbury was born on August 28, 1944, in Carson, North Dakota, Alan was the son of loving parents who instilled in him the values of hard work and kindness. He graduated from Carson High School in 1962 and, shortly after, married the love of his life, Connie L. Hull, on November 27, 1965, in Page, North Dakota. Their journey together was a beautiful testament to their shared dreams and ambitions, particularly during their time at North Dakota State University, where Alan earned his double major degrees in Agricultural Economics and Animal Science in 1970. Alan and Connie welcomed two children, Rick and Bobbi, into their lives.

In 1970 the family moved back to Dickinson and began building a bright future together in Dickinson, North Dakota. As Alan transitioned from sales to management at the PV Elevator, their family grew with the addition of two daughters, Jill and Angie. In 1983, Alan took a bold step by purchasing the mill and rebranding it as Woody's Feed, a name that would soon become synonymous with quality across the nation. His dedication and expertise led to the construction of a specialized horse feed mill and an oat processing plant, contributing to the success of racehorses that graced prestigious tracks, including winners of the Kentucky Derby.

Alan's unwavering commitment to excellence extended not just to his business but also to his beloved quarter horses. A true horseman, he proudly raised numerous champions, including Rosas Cantina CC, Tell Em Belle, Banker, and Jag. Banker became a household name in steer wrestling, being crowned Horse of the Year at the National Finals Rodeo, showcasing Alan's talent for recognizing and nurturing remarkable equine athletes.

Retiring from mill work in 2023, Alan dedicated his time to cultivating the next generation of champions while fostering memories with family at his farm in Dickinson. The doors of his home were always open to his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, who brought him immeasurable joy. Alan cherished each moment spent with family and friends, whether discussing ranching, sharing stories, or simply enjoying each other's company.

Alan is survived by his loving children, Rick Woodbury, Bobbi (Chuck) Maher, Jill (Patrick) Healy, and Angie (Todd) Barlow. He was preceded in death by his parents and his beloved wife, Connie, who passed away in 2017.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to organizations that support equine welfare and agriculture, causes close to Alan's heart.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When problems arise, we look for answers. It's most frustrating when the problem is not one of our own making and we aren't sure where to start. AARRGGHH! But, we still need the answer.

All we have to do is listen to the national news. This in itself can make honest people cringe! We probably aren't all going to jump in the truck and head out to parts unknown with a megaphone to broadcast our solutions. Aaanndddd I'm pretty sure that we aren't getting the whole story.

Where do we turn? God! What is HIS opinion? One thing for sure, God will never lie to us! So, we can listen to that still small voice on the inside of us and do what He says. You may be the one in the truck with the megaphone! Maybe I will run for a public office and bring change.

For sure, we can all pray. We vote for good Godly men and women. We do what's right, because it's right and we do it right. And we don't quit. Our forefathers didn't quit!

I hope that your week of "perseverance" went well. This week it's "Godliness"! No better example to follow than Jesus! We've got this!
