Cowgirl Christmas Unwrapped

By Tanya Randall

St. Paul, Oregon; Belle Fourche, South Dakota; Molalla, Oregon

It takes a little more than 30 minutes to drive from St. Paul to Molalla, but it's almost 20 hours between the Oregon cities and Belle Fourche, S.D. Two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi made it worth the effort winning the three rodeos for $15,301 of her $27,789 total from the two weekends of rodeos surrounding the Fourth of July.

"It was a pretty relaxed Fourth of July actually," said Pozzi, who hails from Victoria, Texas. "It was way easier to get to more rodeos. There was no flying this time. I did have to do a lot of driving by myself though."

Pozzi competed at nine rodeos over the holiday. She turned out of three—two conflicted with the short round at Ponoka, Alberta, where she placed third on Yeah Hes Firen ("Duke") for $8,058, and Window Rock, Ariz., was just a little further out of her way than she wanted to go.

Her richest win of the Fourth of July run came aboard her old pal Sixth Vision ("Stitch"), who she has back in her trailer for a brief period, at St. Paul, Ore.

"It was a no brainer," Pozzi said of her decision to ride the 15-year-old gelding by Streakin Six out of Dream N Win, by Dash For Cash, among the famed Christmas trees. "This was the fourth time he's won it." Stitch also placed ninth at Livingston, Mont.

It was also the third time Pozzi had won Molalla. She won it on Stitch twice and this year on Duke, who also took the victory at Belle Fourche. Duke, a 9-year-old gelding by Alive N Firen out of Splendid Discovery, by Shoot Yeah, also placed fifth at Cody, Wyo.

Pozzi also picked up her first pro rodeo check on her home-raised Steele Magnolias, a 5-year-old daughter of Magnolia Bar Jet out of Kings Frosty Lady, by Roan Bar Eighty. Steely is the first foal that Pozzi raised. She's a full sister to Pozzi's first futurity winner JJ Bar Jet, who is now winning WPRA money for Jo Scarmardo, and shares the same sire as Marvins Wonder, who helped Pozzi earn her first WPRA World Championship.

Next on top for Pozzi is Casper, Wyo., Colorado Springs, Cheyenne, Wyo., Salinas, Calif., and the Utah run of rodeos heading up to Lawton, Okla. She plans on taking her futurity colts as well as her stud, Be A Magnolia Runner, to the Northwest.

Cody, Wyoming

Armed with two talented horses and two rigs, Lindsay Sears collected $28,356 from rodeos held during the two weekends sandwiching the Fourth of July.

"It wasn't that grueling with the rodeos spread out this year," said the two-time and defending WPRA World Champion. "Martha (Sugar Moon Express) only made four runs and Moe (Ima Guy Of Honor) did the rest. They both worked good and did their jobs."

Sears, Nanton, Alberta, and Martha, a 12-year-old daughter of Dr Nick Bar out of Baby Blue Jeans, by Six Fols, picked up $8,588 from the $20,000-added, one run Cody Independence Stampede. They were the only team to turn in a sub-16-second run. The duo added another $6,492 from St. Paul, Ore.

Moe, a 9-year-old gelding by Frenchmans Guy out of Dontunderestimateher, by Jet Of Honor, carried the day in Airdrie, Alberta, picking up $2,576 for third and in Livingston, Mont., earning $475 for 13th.

Martha and Moe shared the load at Greeley, Colo., and Ponoka,

Scamper, 1977-2012

Gills Bay Boy, better known as Scamper, was laid to rest on July 4, 2012 at the age of 35 according to Charmayne James Facebook page. The 1977 son of Gill's Sonny Boy out of the Headed West mare, Drapers Jay bred by Walter Draper, may have started out as just a feedlot horse but he was destined to take Charmayne James and the world of barrel racing to new heights. Starting in 1984, Scamper and Charmayne James teamed up to start a string of 10 straight World titles, winning their 10th title in 1993.

In 1985, Round 7 of the National Finals Rodeo as Scamper and James entered the arena, the bridle broke. Even though this could have spelled disaster as the bridle fell completely off at the third barrel, the team made it through the run and raced home to a round win and a legend that would grow with each impending run. This run helped them to a second World Title in 1985. From then on, Scamper wasn't just carrying James, he carried the hopes of the whole barrel racing world.

Each year, as they won yet another title, everyone would speculate how many in a row were possible. Each year through injury, bad ground, long miles and many other obstacles James and Scamper did what they did best, win and win often! In those years of barrel racing fans didn't wonder if Scamper and Charmayne could win, the question was by how much.

The statistics from their 10 year run are mind boggling. Through his career, Scamper won over $1 million. According to WPRA records, he was the NFR Average Champion 5 times (1984, 1986, 1987, 1989, 1990 and 1993). In fact, in 1986 he set the NFR Average record of 138.93 on 10 runs and held it for nearly 25 years until it was broken in 2010. Below are listed his earnings by year, but one figure that stood out was the $151,969 the team earned in 1986, nearly 2.5 times the earnings of the Reserve Champion that year. For some perspective on those earnings, a brand new 1986 1 ton truck listed for just over $13,000 (according to an online NADA Guide).

WPRA Earnings by Year for Charmayne James and Scamper during their 10 title run: '84-$53,499; '85-$93,847; '86-$151,969; '87-$120,002; '88-$130,540; '89-$96,651; '90- $130,328; '91-$92,403; '92 $110,868; '93 $103,609

After 1993, Scamper was semi-retired and went to a few rodeos here and there before being retired completely. After his barrel career he received induction into the ProRodeo Hall Of Fame located in Colorado Springs, Colo. in 1996.

After the amazing 10 title run many pondered what made Scamper the legend he was, was it his unique style, conformation, breeding? What made him so special? Well, the one thing everyone who ever watched him could agree on; he had a heart that could not be matched. That same heart and immaculate care by his companion of 31 years, Charmayne James, kept him going to the ripe old age of 35, an age most pasture pets never attain, much less a horse with over ten years worth of rodeos and thousands of miles behind them. He must have stayed around just waiting to see if he needed to get back out on the road and defend his record, but don't worry Scamper, it is safe. Rest In Peace.

Alberta, with Martha making the first run and Moe closing.

"I rode Martha in the first round at Ponoka and Greeley," said Sears. "I made the decision to switch because of the ground conditions."

Sears is currently competing at the 100th Annual Calgary Stampede after which she'll head to Nampa, Idaho, Cheyenne, Wyo., and possibly Salinas, Calif.

"I try to rodeo based on how things are going," she said. "I do all my own entering. Sometimes that's a little detrimental because I get distracted. But, I'm too much of a control freak to have someone else enter me."

Livingston, Montana

Randa Kellogg, Point, Texas, and Zaks Okie Ree claimed the top spot in Livingston, Mont. The duo pocketed $4,747 of the $23,735 total purse for being the best of 110 entries at the $10,000-added rodeo.

"We've accomplished our goal for this year," said Kellogg. "We were trying to get enough money won for the (winter) rodeos next year, and it kind of spiraled out of control! I just want to get through this year with a horse that's sound and healthy for next year."

Kellogg, who has a successful training and futurity business with her husband Boe, is currently sitting in the Top 20 in the WPRA World Standings.

In 2001, Kellogg (née Kinchen) finished 16th in the World with her talented horse Insoshiney. Sadly, the road took its toll on Shiney, who had been plagued with foot problems, and Kellogg lost the gelding.

"Shiney dying was very difficult," she said. "I know now that when your times start slowing down, you and your horse are getting sore or you're just having a hard time, it's time to come home."

Mindfully of Ree's age and inexperience—"she still struggles with the different ground"—Kellogg planned a limited Fourth of July run that had her headed home after Red Lodge, Mont., for a short break. She'll go back West for Nampa, Idaho, next week and is entered through Dodge City, Kan., the first week of August.

Rick Large, who owns the 6-year-old daughter of Okey Dokey Dale out of the Royal Quick Dash mare Royal First Down, has been very supportive of Kellogg's travel plans.

"Rick is great," said Kellogg. "He lets me make the decisions and helps me make that decision work."

Window Rock, Arizona

It's been 29 years since Mary Walker last competed during the Fourth of July run. She was prepared to be exhausted, but outside of a few all night drives, the run was more profitable than tiring.

"I hadn't been out here in 29 years," she said. "I was really impressed. The hospitality and rodeo committees were great."

Walker, wife of steer wrestling legend Byron Walker, was equally impressed with her "gift" for winning the Navajo National 4th of July Rodeo in Window Rock, Ariz.

"They gave an iPad 3 to the champion," said Walker. "I thought it was a great gift. Everyone needs a computer on the road these days."

Walker and her talented gelding Perculatin ("Latte") also picked up $2,943 at the $9,000-added rodeo.

"It's a really neat rodeo," she said. "It was my last one over the Fourth. We left Oakley, Utah, and drove all night. I tell you what, that's the roughest road between Oakley and Window Rock! I hope I never have to go down it again! When we got there, they were watering the arena, and then it came a flood. With all the rain, the ground was perfect!"

Walker finished Cowboy Christmas with $15,314 and moved up a spot in the WPRA World Standings. She and Latte, an 8-year-

2011 Barrel Racing Report Barrel Horses of the Year

After tallying thousands of votes, they are here, the 2011 Barrel Racing Report Barrel Horses of the Year. It was another amazing year for Barrel Racing, spectacular runs, arena records set and broken, and big checks written at barrel races throughout the country all done with the help our equine partners. The Barrel Racing Report wanted to honor those who made the year so great.

We'd like to thank you all for your participation in our third year of voting. We also would like to say thank you to the committee for their skillful help. The voting was based 50% on popular and 50% on committee. Through the combined efforts of the barrel racing community we have brought you a select group of barrel horses, their jockeys and owners.

We would like to thank all the owners and riders of barrel horses across the country for their contribution to the industry we all love and enjoy. We salute the 2011 Champions, they are a select group of horses that have earned their honors by competing at the toughest barrel races in the country. Congratulations to the 2011 Champions and all those who were nominated!

riders: Benette Barrington-Little & Ashley Nelson
 owner: Jud Little Ranch

It's no surprise to see JL Dash Ta Heaven in Championship standing as a Barrel Horse of the Year. The 2005 sorrel stallion owned by the Jud Little Ranch has won honors in 2009 as Champion 4-Year-Old Stallion and in 2010 as Champion 5-Year-Old Stallion. In 2011, JL Dash Ta Heaven pulled double duty in the arena. He competed with jockey Benette Barrington-Little all across the nation at Pro Rodeos and also with jockey Ashley Nelson at the BBR World Finals and the Old Fort Days Derby. With Nelson, he set an arena record at the BBR World Finals running a blazing 14.881 in the State Fair Coliseum against a tough group of contenders. This was one of many arena records JL Dash Ta Heaven owns throughout the country. His rodeo career was just as impressive. With Barrington-Little aboard the team won the NILE, American Royal, Old Fort Days and Springdale Pro Rodeos along with numerous other placings. Currently, Barrington-Little and JL Dash Ta Heaven sit 4th in the World Standings.

CHAMPION: SUGAR MOON EXPRESS

00 s. m. Dr Nick Bar-Babys Blue Jeans, Six Fols
 rider/owner: Lindsay Sears

In the Rodeo Horse division, it came down to a very familiar name, Sugar Moon Express, better known as Martha and owner/rider Lindsay Sears. This famous team cruised to their 2nd World Championship in 2011 using a super consistent NFR to win the Average and bag the World Title. The pair has also been the Reserve World Champion twice in the past. There aren't many rodeos the pair hasn't won on their way to over $1.6 million in lifetime earnings. After overcoming a potentially career ending injury from the 2010 NFR, the team showed up at Reno in the early summer of 2011, pulled a check and from there on it was Martha being Martha. The team placed at rodeos like Ponoka, Cody, Livingston, Cheyenne, Spanish Fork, and Puyallup throughout the year. Sears and Martha ended up with earnings of $238,864 for 2011 along with winnings at Calgary. This year Sears and Martha sit #3 in the World with earnings of $72,418.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When you ride into the arena, it is with the intention of winning. That's why you spend countless hours training your horse, driving miles and paying an entry fee.

You've heard the old saying, "It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game." That might be true if you're teaching very young children but it does not apply to barrel racing where you're actually showcasing your horse. If your horse makes a good showing, that could mean a good sale for it or others you might have back home.

Likewise, you need to have a winning attitude in life so no matter what comes against you, you have confidence in the promises of God so you don't fall to pieces when the devil and the world puts trials in your path. Just because you're a Christian doesn't mean that you won't have problems in life but it does mean that Jesus will see you through all of them if you let Him.

It tells us in 1 John 5:5, "Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?" When you put your trust in God and have faith in His Word, miracles often happen. I've seen it firsthand myself! Remember Scripture tells us that, "...the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour." (1 Peter 5:8) Notice it does not say he IS a roaring lion, only that he imitates one trying to scare you and steal your joy. The Bible also tells us that "He who is in you is greater than he who is in the World." (1 John 4:4)

If you're a born again believer, you'll have the joy of the Lord and that makes you a winner!
