Sure Cash for Veale & Viper at Super Show

Professional's Choice Vegas Super Show
July 6-10, 2011, Las Vegas, NV

Race 1

1D 1 Hit The Bonanza, Callie Rios, 14.272, $1,551
96 pal. g. Mr Deecathlon-Miss Misty Cimota, Triple J Cox
2 VF Firin Red, Alessandra Anton, 14.288, $1,241
3 Frosty Peppy Playboy, Marcia Fuller, 14.305, $931

THE RUNDOWN: ALLISON VEALE

HORSE: Sure Down Dash "Viper"

Brown Gelding, 6 years old, 15 hh, 1100 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: I purchased Viper about 8 months ago from Scamper Hill, who had bought him from the breeder, Carole Lampron, after his futurity year. He was run by Sharin Hall and Kendal Owen in the futurities and was a Fort Smith qualifier. He has approximately 40k LTE.

BIT: I ride him in a snaffle gag, but I run him in the Josey "Million Dollar Bit"

HEADGEAR: He's very simple, I just run him in his bit, no tiedown or anything else.

SADDLE: I ride in a Caldwell, it's a great saddle for really turny horses like Viper, it helps you to really keep your seat.

PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Professionals Choice leg gear on him.

GRAIN: I feed him Ultium. It's the perfect feed to give energy without making him crazy. It also keeps the weight on, and he loves it.

SUPPLEMENTS: The only supplement I give is Synergy. I was using about four different supplements before, but Synergy has everything your horse needs in it.

HAY: I feed him as much Coastal hay as he wants and a small flake of alfalfa.

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Viper has really good, strong feet, so it doesn't take anything fancy for him. He has Eventors on all four feet. As for additional care, he gets chiropractic work monthly.

#1 TRAINING OR RIDING TRIP: I do alot of sidepassing, rollbacks and figure 8's with Viper to keep him listening and moving his body where I put it. He's a very turny horse, so if hes coming in too close to the barrel, I can lift my rein and he will move where I want him. He's a very smart horse, so he doesn't take a lot, just show him and he will do it.

Members of Congress Address AHC National Issues Forum

This year's American Horse Council National Issues Forum, entitled "Congress on a Diet: What It Means for the Horse Industry," highlighted the current budget environment in Washington. The issues forum was part of the AHC annual meeting held from June 19th to the 22nd that also included the annual Congressional Ride-In, AHC committee meetings, and a Congressional Reception.

Several Members of Congress spoke to attendees during the issues forum including Congressman Hal Rogers (R-KY), the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, Congressmen Dennis Cardoza (D-CA) and Brett Guthrie (R-KY), who are the co-chairs of the Congressional Horse Caucus, as well as Congressman John Yarmouth (D-KY).

"The AHC is grateful to have had so many Members of Congress come give us their perspective on the fiscal challenges facing the country. There were several different view points, but the message was clear that when it comes to spending it will not be 'business as usual' in Washington," Said AHC President Jay Hickey. "Without a doubt we will be seeing less federal spending and that could impact the horse industry in many different ways."

The remainder of the issues forum included presentations from several individuals from federal agencies, state health officials and other organizations. Dr. John Clifford, Deputy Administrator and Chief Veterinary Officer for USDA's Veterinary Services, and Dr. Guy Hohenhaus, President of the National Assembly of State Animal Health Officials, discussed some of the issues USDA and state veterinarians face in responding to and mitigating equine disease outbreaks under current budgetary constraints.

"Contrasting the current fiscal environment with recent equine disease outbreaks, such as Equine Herpesvirus, further underscores the importance for USDA, state animal health officials and the industry to maintain a strong partnership and collaborate in our continued efforts to safeguard the health of our horses and our industry," said Dudley Hoskins, AHC Director of Health and Regulator Affairs.

"Presentations by Robert Perrin from the Bureau of Land Management and Anne Merwin of the Wilderness Society drove home the point that recreational opportunities on public land could be in danger," said AHC Legislative Director Ben Pendergrass. "It will be important to fight to preserve adequate funding for public lands, but equestrians are also going to have to explore public/private partnerships with federal, state and local government to keep trails open to equestrians."

Additionally, attendees received updates on the national equine health initiative, the activities of the Unwanted Horse Coalition, the status of the national animal identification system, the Americas Great Outdoors Initiative and a discussion about how the horse industry can improve its political activities with a focus on the 2012 elections.

Deadwood Days of '76 Comes to Life at Hall of Fame Induction

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – To help mark the induction of the Deadwood (S.D.) Days of '76 into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame this weekend, the committee is importing a bit of 19th-century Deadwood color to Colorado Springs.

From a traveling group of more than 50, there will be Deadwood committee members and family dressed to portray some of the town's historic notables, including Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane, Potato Creek Johnny and Shingle Head (Little Frank).

The July 16 induction ceremony in the garden area of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy will enshrine Deadwood's committee, the late three-time World Champion cowboy Burel Mulkey, two-time World Champion Bareback Rider Lan LaJeunesse, PRCA Chairman of the Board and longtime San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer Keith Martin, the late three-time PRCA Bucking Horse of the Year War Paint and trick rider/roper J.W. Stoker.

The induction will be the centerpiece of a week-long celebration that will include a Special Rodeo at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame arena on July 13, the Cowboy Ball at the Hall of Fame on July 15 and a ProRodeo Hall of Fame golf tournament at the Country Club of Colorado on July 18. The third annual Commissioner's Classic Team Roping will be held at 2 p.m. July 16, following the induction. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Seitz Capitalizes in Calgary

Calgary Stampede (Still in Progress)
July 9-18, 2011, Calgary, AB

The Calgary Stampede is in full swing now with Pool A being already in the books and Pool B already having one round in the books. This year at Calgary, each Pool (A & B) has 10 contestants with the top four money earners in each Pool advancing to the Championship. The other six contestants in each pool will compete on Wild Card Saturday with the top two going into the Championship creating a field of 10 contestants in the Championship. Each day the pools are competing for a hefty prize with 1st-$5500, 2nd-$4500, 3rd-$3500, 4th-$2500, 5th-1500 and of course the Championship winner takes home $100k.

In Pool A, Joleen Seitz and Deb Renger took control of the action both winning two rounds and placing throughout winning, $16,500 and $14,500 respectively. Brittany Pozzi and Lindsay Sears rounded out the top four with earnings of $10,500 and $10,000. Seitz and Renger are both fixtures at the Canadian rodeos. Seitz rides her grade gelding Guy to most of her wins. Interestingly, Guy is part Standardbred! Seitz has owned Guy for 8-9 years and they do their share of winning. It is probably safe to say, she will be the only one riding a Standardbred in the Championship on Sunday. To watch the action live each day go to <http://www.cbc.ca/sports/calgarystampede/> and follow the links and enjoy the action.

NOTES W/ CARLEE PIERCE

Everyone dreams of getting that special horse and just hitting the road and making the Finals. Well that dream is well on its way to turning into reality for Carlee Pierce. In the past, Pierce rode horses such as Streakin Reba to rodeo and jackpot winnings close to home but she didn't feel they were ready to hit the road to the big ones. This year, the purchase of Blue Moon Fling (BB) and Rare Dillion (Dillon) changed her rodeo circuit quite a bit and she has jumped from being out of the top 30 in May to being #7 in the World with $50,765. Over the last few years, $55-$58k has made the Finals so with a few more big wins Pierce and Rare Dillion will punch their ticket to the 2011 NFR. In 2008, Rare Dillion made it to the NFR with owner/rider Annesa Self and this year he could go to the finals with a new owner/rider Carlee Pierce. It is thought, that Rare Dillion would be the first horse to make the NFR with two different owner/riders if Pierce can get a couple more big wins over the summer and make the Finals (If you know of another horse which has accomplished this please email tracy@barrelracingreport.com) After a big Fourth Pierce took a quick trip home and then took an easy week going only to Vernal and Laramie. This week she is headed to Casper, Estes Park, Colorado Springs, then back to Casper for the short go (hopefully).

Q: What is the key to getting a new horse (like Dillon and BB) and winning on them right away?

A: You need to be able to ride the caliber of horse you plan to ride. To overmount yourself is bad for the horse and yourself. You should work your way up through different levels of horses so you stay confident in your riding abilities. I am a Mom and have overmounted my daughter too, you just have to realize you (or your daughter) will get to that level but it is easier to step up gradually. I had the opportunity to ride lots of different styles of horses growing up so I have always been able to just jump on horses and ride different horses. I just try to conform into their style and leave them how they are. Most people want to take a horse that is winning and change them to their own style instead of letting the horse stay with the style that let's them win.

Q: What the year has been like?

A: The year is like an out of body experience. My intentions changed after BB did well at San Angelo, I thought maybe I would take her to the circuit stuff. Then when I got Dillon I thought I would make the circuit finals and take off on the road next year. After Dillon took off winning, my husband said you better go with it so we took off. It has been an awesome experience and I love it. My horses are doing great on the road. I have to give them extra care on the road but they are doing great.

Q: Are you doing anything special to keep Dillon running so well?

A: Dillon is extremely spoiled, he gets cookies before he runs (I know you aren't supposed to do that but it keeps him happy!), handfuls of cookies after he runs, we just keep him happy. He gets his magnetic blanket and we keep him massaged. He is a road warrior. He is in love with BB, he is running fast to get back to the trailer to be with her! At Greeley after the first run, he had a pretty run but it didn't clock, but I had left BB out where I was keeping my horses, so the second round I brought her with him and he won the round! He then ran back the same time in the short go with her with him again. So I think from now on she will be with him all the time!

Q: What have you learned out on the road?
A: It is not as easy as I thought it would be on the road, I thought everywhere you went they just would have pens and it would all be easy. Although the committees do their best it is still hard to find places to keep the horses where they are safe and can get good rest, so that is a challenge. Also, if they get sore, you're vet isn't in your back yard so that's makes it a little harder. Another challenge is shoeing out on the road. For instance at Casper, Dillon lost a shoe and I didn't know what I was going to do. Luckily, my shoer, Kyle Kukla, was coming to do Sherry's (Cervi) horses in Casper so he came to put Dillon's shoe back on. Dillon doesn't have the best feet so having Kyle keeping on top of his feet, eases my mind.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I drove by someone's horse pasture the other day and couldn't help noticing that the half dozen horses along the fence all had their rumps to the cold wind.

Then I asked myself, "How do most people 'weather a storm'?" Some are like those horses because they try to ignore the problem and turn their backs to the One who can really help them. Others go straight to God, the Source of all things, to receive the comfort and answers they need.

God wants us to believe in His goodness and love for us. He is willing to act on our behalf and will bless us and freely give us every good thing. (Romans 8:32) God wants us to trust Him, declare in faith that all shall be well with us and expect to see it manifest. No matter how long we've had a problem and no matter how bad the experts say it is, with faith and trust in God we can see a turnaround. Healing and restoration will take place and we can receive what we're believing for!

In Galatians, as well as other places in the Bible, we are assured that we are saved by faith through the grace of God. Grace means undeserved favor with God. We can't be good enough or earn salvation. It's a free gift from God if we only believe. The Greek word for "saved," SOZO, doesn't just mean saved from hell. It also means to heal, preserve and make whole. So by the undeserved favor of God (grace) we are made whole, kept healthy, preserved and prospered. By faith, God's promises comes true in our lives.

No matter what storms you're "weathering" now, don't just turn your back on your problems hoping they'll go away if you ignore them. Instead, run to God and "cast your cares on Him who cares for you." With faith all things are possible!
