Carroll Collects at Rooftop Rodeo in Estes Park, Colorado

By Hope Sickler

When 26-year-old Floridian Katie Carroll showed up to the beautiful town of Estes Park, Colorado to run at the annual Rooftop Rodeo, she had made the decision to let her run there be the deciding factor on whether to stay out on the road or head back home.

During slack Saturday morning, Carroll and her 6-year-old Apaloosa mare Fast N Easy Memories, By Troubled Memories and out of a daughter of Special Effort, were up in the slack Saturday morning and laid down a smoking run in the big sandy arena stopping the clock at 17.51; the fastest run of the rodeo at the time by almost half-a-second!

"Estes Park was a deciding run for me on whether to stay on the road or not. It was a good set-up for "Easy" with the left barrel off the fence a little and the other two on the fence. The fast entry with the closed exit was also very ideal for what she seems to like better," said Carroll.

Carroll was first out in slack and gave the rest of the barrel racers a blistering fast time to chase. While many other good runs were made, the closest ran to her time in slack was a 17.9.

"When they announced my time and that I had taken the lead by over 4-tenths of a second, I couldn't hardly believe it. I thought the ground must've gotten really good that morning and there would be a lot of fast times besides mine so we packed up and headed to the next one unknowingly holding the lead. Then later in the day, a friend of mine texted me and told me that I was still leading it after slack."

Carroll bought Fast N Easy Memories affectionately known as "Easy" as a late 3-year-old with great aspirations for the young, promising mare. However, a tail bone injury a month later which required 6 months of rest, slightly changed their plans some.

"With the tail bone injury, "Easy" didn't get broke until June of her 4-year-old year. She spent 30-days at Roebuck's Reining Horses and I took over after that. She was the easiest horse I've ever dealt with and took to the barrels so naturally that I started calling her "Easy," explained Carroll.

Carroll didn't grow up in a rodeo family, so everything she knows, she has taught herself.

"I learned everything the hard way through trial and error," laughed Carroll. "I got my first horse at 15, broke her and patterned her myself and ran her until deciding I wanted to be more competitive and ventured out to buy a nice colt."

Carroll's plan for the rest of the season now that she has decided to stay out on the rodeo trail a little longer is to take it one rodeo at a time and see how "Easy" feels as the summer goes on.

"I only have one horse of this caliber and she is young so I want to be sure that I do what is right by her. When I left home, I said as long as I stayed in the top 5 in the rookie standings that I would keep going. We have been sitting in that 5th spot for a while now so I have going back and forth about giving up for this season. However, after Estes Park, I will tough it out a little longer and see what else is in store for "Easy" and I."

Digging It -- Jessie Telford & Famous Cool Whip Win Vernal Dinosaur Roundup

By Tanya Randall

Jessie Telford nabbed her "biggest pro rodeo win ever" at the Dinosaur Roundup in Vernal, Utah. The Caldwell, Idaho, horsewoman and her home-bred Famous Cool Whip pocketed $3,717 for their time of 17.2.

In 2015, Telford made headlines with multiple futurity winner Playguns Fame, while his stablemate was more known for clocking up big wins in rounds.

"Playgun got in the average way more than Cool Whip," laughed Telford. "Cool Whip would have the fastest run of the whole weekend and I'd hit a barrel the next day."

Bred by Jessie and her champion cowhorse trainer husband, Jake, Cool Whip is by the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of Had A Kanita, by Docs Rocky Top, a noted rodeo horse sire in the Northwest. Had A Kanita carried Telford through high school and college as well as some of the professional circuit rodeos.

Cool Whip went through the Telfords' training program. He was broke by her husband's assistant Jason Gay as a 2-year-old before the Telfords took over his training.

"I usually start riding them at about 60 to 90 days," Telford said.

"We do a little bit of everything before I start them on barrels.

They all get turned back on. (For cutting and reined cowhorse competition, turn back riders are responsible for keeping a cow from running away from the herd and cutter.) My husband ropes, so you can swing a rope on them. We work the chutes off of them... just things to keep their minds busy. I usually start them on barrels toward the end of their 2-year-old year. I won't put them on the she decided to haul him with Playguns Fame, who was a 5-year-old last year.

"I knew I had a good horse in the Playgun," said Telford. "I really had to talk my husband into (letting me going to the futurities). Once I had him convinced that I was going to go to a bunch of futurities last year I thought, 'Well, I've got one year to go, so I may as well throw both of them in the trailer. He wasn't ready to go. He definitely wasn't ready in January, but he just kept getting better and better. There were at least three futurities that he ran the fastest time of the whole weekend—the open and everything—but something would happen in the first or second run."

By Fall, Cool Whip was really putting things together, finishing second at the Fizz Bomb Futurity—a three run aggregate.

Telford's initial plan this year was to season both Playgun and Cool Whip at the circuit rodeos, but she sold Playgun in January so Cool Whip's had all the runs.

"I just decided that I would take him to a couple of smaller ones and see how that went and go from there," she said. "The first two rodeos I took him to, he placed second at one and third at the other. The next weekend was Delta, Castle Dale, and Cedar City, and he won Delta and Castle Dale."

Telford added that the ground conditions in the Wilderness Circuit have been favorable for her to season Cool Whip, who was used to the "prima donna" ground at the futurities.

"The ground conditions in the Wilderness circuit are phenomenal," she said. "The committees care so much about having fast ground. There are multiple circuit rodeos that will be won with a 16 (on a WPRA Standard Pattern) and you won't find that hardly anywhere else."

Telford currently sits second in the circuit and 56th in the World Standings with $13,422 won at 11 rodeos.

"When I set out I thought it would be really awesome if I could make the circuit finals and I think after the first two weekends I rodeoed, I had the circuit finals made. Now, I'd like to end up in the Top 50 to where I could get into those bigger rodeos in the winter if I wanted to, but it's not like I'm going to go hard by any means. It would be two or three where I could do down there and back, not go down there and stay," she said.

With her husband's thriving training business—he won the National Reined Cowhorse Association's Snaffle Bit Futurity—the disciplines crown jewel in 2015—Telford splits her time between barrel racing, reined cowhorse events—where she competes as a non-pro—and junior rodeos. Not surprisingly the family has scheduling and logistics down to a science.

"It's just priorities," she said. "I'm not going to lie; it's really, really busy. There's a lot of scheduling that has to take place. We've got two little girls that are 10 and 11, and they both junior rodeo, so we're trying to get all the junior rodeos scheduled in there too."

For example, she was Vernal Thursday night and Elko Friday for a 1 a.m. slack run before driving six hours to the junior rodeo where she met her husband and the girls, Shawny and Sierra.

This Wednesday the family leaves for Brazil for a week.

“My husband has a clinic down there and we’re going go down there for a week. The day we fly back, I’m up that night at Nampa. I’m not really craving that day, to be honest, sixteen hours of flying and then go run.”

Telford wanted to thank her husband for all his help and support.

“He’s been extremely supportive of me being able to go more this year,” she said. “He’s been a major influence in helping me get my horses running correctly. When we get home, I’m up in Nampa, Spanish Fork and Ogden. I’ve got an all-night drive and he’s going to help me.”

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I heard this story. An old Eskimo took his two dogs to the fights every Friday and Saturday. Each week people would bet on which dog would win the fight over the other, the white one or the black one. Finally, he retired his dogs from the fights. He was visited by a young man who asked how he always seemed to know which one to bet on. When the old Eskimo bet on his dogs, he always bet right. His answer, "I always bet on the one I had fed that week."

Makes sense doesn't it. (I am not for dog fighting by the way.) It's the same way for us. Whatever we think on or about, good or bad, will determine just how things go for us. If you think you are stupid, fat, ugly, skinny, or weak, then that's how things will go for you! What good or bad thing are you feeding yourself?

BUT WHAT DOES GOD SAY? Philippians 4:8 in the Message Bible says, "Summing it all up, friends, I'd say you'll do best by filling your minds and meditating on things true, noble, reputable, authentic, compelling, gracious – the best, not the worst; the beautiful, not the ugly; things to praise, not things to curse." If we will do this every day, we will win the fight over the worlds' way of thinking, which is always negative! I would rather win!!
