Karen Gleason & Her Homebred Mobetta Fame Sweep Glacier Chaser Derby

By Tanya Randall

Karen Gleason and her 8-year-old gelding Mobetta Fame made the most of their last aged event appearance at the Glacier Chaser Classic, held July 7-10 in the Majestic Arena at Kalispell, Montana, sweeping the $6,000-added Treasure State Quarter Horses 2D Derby. The victory was worth $5,445, plus an additional $2,507 in carryover earnings.

The Touchet, Washington, barrel racer said Mo's runs were "just spot on."

"He was on fire and feeling good," Gleason said. Just a tenth of a second separated Mo's two runs. "He was feeling better every day that I was there! He was really confident and wanted to be there."

Making the win even sweeter is the fact that she's raised Mo. "You just know the horse through and through," she said. "To say you've delivered them in the pasture and up through the training—sometimes a little bit of hard work. It's all worth it in the end. It's just amazing."

Gleason and her husband Brad, the 1997 PRCA World Champion Steer Wrestler, raised Mo, who is by the late A Smooth Guy. He is out of the Gleason's cornerstone Dash Ta Fame mare Daves Jet Ta Fame.

"I see the dam coming through," Gleason said. "I've got several out of the dam, and I see her through the whole line, crossed with our stud and different studs. She was quite the mare."

Mo has been one of Gleason's biggest winners with multiple aged event titles to his credit, including year-end titles in the WPRA for his futurity and derby years.

"He's fun," she said. "He's fun to be around too. He's got a super fun attitude. He wants to go do. That makes your spirits happy."

With Mo eligible for many of the top incentive programs, Gleason has tried to concentrate on those competitions, like the upcoming Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

"I've been trying to do more of those because they tend to hold my money together a little better and then go off and dabble with some rodeos to get seasoned still," she said.

She also noted that Mo is in the West Coast's Top Shelf Breeders program through his dam, unlike the others that are strictly by sire.

"It's kind of interesting," said Gleason. "I enrolled his dam because we have a lot of colts out of her that are out there running." Top Shelf also awards bonuses at rodeos too, so it's not just the aged event and jackpot horses getting a slice of the pie.

"We're trying to season to the rodeos a little bit," added Gleason, "but he's still a little unsure. He gets a little scared on the footing. He's starting to figure it out and I guess I am too, figuring out how to ride him to give him confidence. He likes the whole setup of them. He likes to go and he likes the crowd. He just wants to try and do his best and sometimes the ground doesn't hold him."

Gleason has a couple of circuit rodeos coming up and she entered the Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho.

"I thought that setup would be kind of similar to the buildings that he's used to," she noted.

Gleason wanted to thank her husband for being her biggest supporter. She also wanted to give a shout out to Justin Bailey, who starts all of her 2-year-olds.

"He does an amazing job starting our colts," she said. "I can

Cool As Ice -- Kathy Grimes Homebred KG JusticeSlick Win Glacier Chaser Classic

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier and veterinarian Kathy Grimes and her homebred 5-year-old mare KG JusticeSlick ("Indie") turned in two solid runs to capture the $9,000-added Jill Lane Quarter Horses 2D Futurity at the Glacier Chaser Classic, held July 7-10 in the Majestic Valley Arena in Kalispell, Montana.

"I was just really kind of surprised," said Grimes, who hails from Medical Lake, Washington. "She had two fast, nice consistent runs. She's been kind of green. With my schedule the past couple of years with rodeo and being gone five months out of the year. I didn't get her started until she was 3 and I didn't start hauling and taking her places until this January actually. She's one of those that you realize that you should have been seasoning a lot longer."

Grimes and Indie were third in the first round with a 16.122 and came back with a 15.961 to take second in the next round and win the average. The futurity victory was worth $5,405, but open carryovers and incentive money bumped their earnings to $7,526.

Indie is by leading barrel horse sire Slick By Design and out of Grimes homebred NFR mare KG Justiceweexpected ("Issy"), by Judge Cash out of Do It For Beau, whom Grimes also raised.

The mare has come a long way since her first competition in late February.

"I was mortified with where we were at," laughed Grimes. "She was scared of the barrels and really looky. She's come a long way getting more solid and confident."

Knowing the mare needed more seasoning, Grimes sent Indie with her friend Leah Crockett to the High Cascade Futurity in late April while she fulfilled her veterinary commitments during breeding season.

"She was taking her derby horse and I said, 'Why don't you take her along and ride her?," Grimes explained. "She hadn't even ridden her yet. She took her and she won that futurity. I was feeling bad because she won that futurity on her and I was barely starting to get checks on her! I feel a little vindicated now that I've won a futurity on her too!"

Indie hasn't made it easy.

"She's pretty turny and quick and you've got to give her some confidence during a run to keep her moving forward and focused on me rather than what the barrels look like," noted Grimes.

At Kalispell, the little mare had a mini meltdown after her stalling buddy was taken away before the second round of the futurity. Grimes wasn't sure what to expect of her run.

"When she took her horse away, poor Indie lost her mind," she chuckled. "She was upset in the warmup and whinnying. I thought I have no idea what we're going to have on the second run but I hope she gets focused once we get out there. She ran such a great time once we got out there. I was really surprised."

Grimes also picked up $1,165 in open money, including a win in the Thursday night warmup race on her homebred KG Jukebox Hero. The 5-year-old stallion is by leading sire Blazin Jetolena and out of Issy, making him a three-quarter brother to Grimes' other NFR mount KG Blazin Nine Oh.

"He had just a smooth solid run, just like I know he can do," she said. "Then in the futurity, when it matters, we get by the first barrel a little bit or not quite as snappy at the second. Just like that 4/10ths goes by.... I just keep waiting for our turn."

Grimes also picked up a check in the Derby on Issy's full brother, KG JustStealingCash, for total weekend earnings of $9,061.

"I have two studs and a mare with me right now," she chuckled.

Grimes wanted to thank the Glacier Chaser crew for a great event. Even though she hasn't made it to the event each year, it has always been a special one for her. She won the slot race at their inaugural event in 2015 on Issy.

"She was 8 years old at the time," Grimes recalled. "I was trying to break into the rodeos at the time and it wasn't going very well. I thought I'll just go back to where she does well, which is an indoor pen for us. They were having a slot race and giving $10,000 to the winner. She won that and it was really nice. Now I'm getting to do that on her offspring, so that's really fun."

Grimes and her crew are headed to Salina, Utah, for the Red Rocket Futurity. They'll also have the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming, in August.

Three-Win Weekend for BryAnna Haluptzok and RC Black In Famous in the Great Lakes Circuit

By Tanya Randall

BryAnna Haluptzok of Tenstrike, Minnesota, is working hard to keep her 2022 National Finals Rodeo hopes alive.

The Great Lakes Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion won three rodeos and $8,465 over the weekend. Combined with an $8,553 effort over the Fourth of July run, Haluptzok finds herself back in contention, sitting 16th in the WPRA World Standings with $40,552. "It was definitely a very good weekend," said Haluptzok, who is currently in Colorado Springs for the NFR Open (formerly the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo).

"We've had a good two weekends. For a while there it was pretty devastating watching my name fall from the Top 5, the Top 10 to Top 30. We're slowly creeping back up there."

Haluptzok started the 2022 season white hot. A strong fall at the Texas fair rodeos coupled with her circuit finals championship had her in the No. 1 spot early in the season.

However, shortly into the winter run she was down to one horse after Mr Cool Eddie went out with a mystery lameness in San Antonio, Texas. Then after the California run, her main mount Perks Pazazz ("Betty") had to be retired.

"She did fine out there but when we came home, she must have done something to herself in the pasture," Haluptzok explained. "Unfortunately, she's done, done. That took me some time to get used to, but she'll make some nice babies for me."

In the meantime, she found Cat Mai Flash, a young Tres Seis gelding that kept her going most of the spring.

"I was really lucky that I found that Tres Seis gelding when I did," she said. "I didn't have Eddie, so I was running Betty. Then Betty got hurt. He's really young and not seasoned at all, so he's inconsistent, but when we put a run together, he's really nice. He kept me winning enough checks to stay in the Top 30."

In June, Haluptzok got RC Black In Famous ("Pickles") through Jane Melby, who had been riding the mare for her owners Chuck and Lisa Nelson.

Pickles was bred by Ryan Melby and Jane Melby. Their son Colton was responsible for picking her sire Famous Gold Coin because he thought the Palomino son of Dash Ta Fame out of Queens Coin, by Pocket Coin (TB), would throw a copper-colored buckskin when crossed on his mother's National Finals Rodeo qualifier RC Back In Black, by Ninety Nine Goldmine. When Pickles came out black the younger Melby sold her within a day.

Heidi Gunderson futurited the mare and qualified for the Badland Circuit Finals on her as well. The past two years, she's been in Melby's barn. Haluptzok got Pickles at the beginning of June. "She had just come out of the breeding barn so I didn't run her for three weeks," she said. "I just started running her two-and-a-half, three-weeks ago."

"At first it wasn't super great. I think I knocked barrels the first six runs on her. I talked to Heidi Gunderson, and I sent Jane's all my runs and she looked over them and talked me through them over the phone. With the help of both of them, we got it figured out."

Following a successful Fourth of July, Haluptzok spent the weekend in her home circuit. She started off running Pickles in slack at the $8,000-added Heart of the North Rodeo in Spooner, Wisconsin, where she picked up $3,365 for the win.

"They were really nice this year, hand raking after every run," she said. "The ground was great. It's probably the best it's ever been there. I was a little worried about running her in that pen because it's a weird setup. The second and third are in the middle of nowhere. I had to help her place her feet a little at the second and third, but she worked great!"

That night, she ran Flash at the $2,500-added Upper Peninsula

Championship Rodeo in Iron River, Michigan. The plucky, young gelding finished sixth after running 11th out on the ground to win $393.

On Saturday, Haluptzok and Pickles got the $1,879 win at the $3,500-added Isanti Firefighters Rodeo in Minnesota in front of friends and family.

"That was really fun because a lot of my family was there," she said. "I got to visit with them. Their loud cheering is what caused us to win that one."

Haluptzok and Pickles finished the weekend with a $2,828 victory at the $6,350-added Hamel Rodeo & Bull Ridin' Bonanza in Minnesota.

to storm all day and that arena doesn't handle water well," she said. "They stayed just north of us and we just got a few sprinkles, so I was able to run her.

"That pen is tricky too because it's super narrow with a really long alleyway. The angle to your first is really weird. I just had to check her once and she inhaled her first barrel. Her second and third are pretty much automatic. That one was pretty fun and we won that one too."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I don't like change. And apparently, neither does my horse. I am not a novice at seasoning young horses, but I do forget just which part of growing up is the hardest for colts. Cuz they're all different. Some don't like banners, some don't like blankets, some don't like drinking out of a bucket and some think you've lost your mind when they have to run toward the bleachers with PEOPLE IN THEM!

Snap is 4 now, and I decided I'd better get with it and put overreach boots on before we TROTTED the pattern... I know, it's pathetic! LOL! I've seen horses high step around like they were on hot pavement and assorted other things, but Snap was different. It was this bowing, trying to lay down without moving her feet thing. She could have won a limbo contest going forward!

A first for me, and obviously a first for her. But alas. If we're going to be ready next year, there will be a lot of changes for both of us. And I don't like change. Did I say that already?

But there is a person in our lives Who never changes. I don't know about you, but that brings me great comfort. Jesus is the same. Yesterday, today and forever! Hebrews 13:8. He's a sure thing in a very unsure world. Praise God!
