Tandy Meyers & Streakin Dusty Light Pocket $31,834 at Bonus Race Finals

By Tanya Randall

Sallisaw, Oklahoma, barrel horse trainer Tandy Meyers and her 8-year-old gelding Streakin Dusty Light ("Beep") made two smoking runs at the Bonus Race Finals, held July 6-11 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to win an amazing $31,834!

"Where else can you go and run an aged horse and win that kind of money?" said Meyers. "It's a blessing for those of us with open horses."

Meyers chose to enter producer Renea Bolling's newest race, the limited-entry, high-stakes Ultimate, which gave her two runs which counted toward both the Bonus Race payout and the Ultimate payout.

"Renea does an awesome job!" said Meyers. "I think more people are starting to realize what kind of show she's putting on. She's giving people the opportunity to win a lot of money without having to spend a lot. I'm very thankful."

On their first run in Tulsa on Saturday, Beep clocked a 13.990, which finished eighth in the Bonus and seventh in the Ultimate, for $2,709 and $5,242, respectively. Meyers said although he ran well, Beep wasn't as sharp as he could be.

"I had been off of him," Meyers said. She and Beep had competed at the Runnin WJ Race with the $50,000 Future Fortunes Bonus in Texarkana, Arkansas, the second week of June. Although they placed high and won some money, Beep came up sore when she got home. "I had taken him to my vet, Dr. Don Lee, and we were doing therapy. We were trying to prepare him to run in Tulsa, so he hadn't run in a couple of weeks. I knew I had room for improvement."

Their second run on Sunday set the pace for both the Ultimate and Bonus with a 13.734. The victory in the Ultimate was worth $16,128, while the Bonus win paid $6,897.

"He usually comes back stronger every run," she said. "The ground was good, but it was deep. He just plowed through it."

Beep has never had a shortage of speed and Meyers thought the gelding was honest enough to do well in the small pen. Brooklyn Owens at Complete Equine Performance in Muldrow, Oklahoma, had seen the setup on Monday, and when Meyers brought Beep in for his therapy, she told her it was promising.

"She told me, 'This is your setup.'" Meyers admitted. "I was like, 'I hope you're right!' I had run him at Carthage, Missouri, at some of Renea's races. That's a really small pen; what I call a trap. He's run good there. He's not a barrel hitter, so I thought he would (do well in Tulsa).

"But I placed really good at the pro rodeo at Fort Smith and that's a bigger pen. He's done really well in bigger pens too. He's run a 16.8 at the Barrel Bash in Guthrie. He and Red Man Jones were the only 16.8s for the weekend. She won it Saturday and I won it Sunday."

Bred by Larry Ammons, Beep is by CS Flashlight out of Streak Of Dusty, by A Streak Of Fling. He comes from A&M Performance Horses, the same partnership of Ammons and Stephen MacDonald that created Sarah Rose Wag's great Fame Fling N Bling. As a 2-year-old Beep was consigned to the 2015 Fulton Performance Horse Sale, where he sold to Meyers' longtime client Gary Hess for $10,500. He's now owned by a partnership between Meyers and her mother.

When Meyers got the gelding at 2, he was riding nicely and had been lightly started on the pattern.

"You could tell he'd been around the barrels," she said. "He was easy to train and very willing. The reason I don't think he excelled as a futurity horse was he let his surroundings get to him. He had a hard time focusing at some of the bigger stuff. He didn't really do anything wrong. He just didn't shut off the clock. Probably about his 5- and 6-year-old he started getting things together, and he can really, really run. Then we started having a little issue with his right deep flexor. We ended up doing PRP on him. It just seems like ever since then he's gotten stronger and stronger."

Meyers has also tried a few more rodeos with Beep this year but said she hasn't drawn very well.

"My intentions this year were to try to make the circuit finals," she said. "I'm in the Prairie Circuit. The ground situation has kind of hindered us. It seems like I've never drawn the right day. I'm probably going to try to hit some more rodeos. He loves the rodeos. He loves the crowd. It just seems like I didn't draw very good."

"Right now, I'm planning on going to these bigger barrel races. He can be a little bit high maintenance so I can't hardly run him if it isn't something bigger."

She's also hoping that she'll have something trained and ready to take with Beep to the rodeos, so he doesn't have to make all the runs.

Meyers came by her profession honestly. Her parents both competed in rodeo and later trained race horses. Her father, today at 77 years old, still ropes and trains a couple racehorses. Her family too is involved with training horses. Her husband Doug Cheney, a farrier, starts their colts and gets them going until they're ready to be hauled. Her daughter, Mia Meyers, also rides when her "real job" allows, and her boyfriend Levi Pettigrew is also a roper and a farrier.

"We've actually converted him over to starting colts too," she said of Pettigrew. "We had some that were a little rank and they couldn't get him bucked off. I told him I need to get him starting them on the barrels for me. I don't like to ride them until they don't buck anymore!"

He's just a natural and has great hands. He's been an asset to our program, too."

Big Time Bonus

Renea Bolling's Bonus Race Finals, which featured the Ultimate, Bonus and Open races, paid out $468,782 not including the value of 16 saddles, 55 buckles and many more prizes. The race drew 908 riders and 1,312 horses for total entries of 3,653 including sidepots.

To qualify for the Bonus Race Finals, contestants had to place in a qualifying spot at approved races. Contestants could also earn spots into the Bonus Race at the Finals by competing in the Open.

Bolling also added the Ultimate to this year's finals. Limited to 300 entries, this high entry fee ($1,200), high-stakes race, gave contestants two runs in the Bonus with those times also carrying over in the Ultimate payout.

Kylie Weast and her family-bred, NFR qualifier Hell On The Red made three runs below 14-seconds to be the high money earners of the event with $37,224.

Andre Coelho & Fabulous JJ Ice The Competition at Glacier Chaser Classic

By Tanya Randall

Bill and Cheryl Kennedy's Smoke Creek Quarter Horses had an exceptional Glacier Chaser Classic. With trainer Andre Coelho in the saddle, Fabulous JJ topped the futurity for $6,125, while Slym Shady finished for $2,470. Including sidepots, the Smoke Creek outfit collected $9,553.

"We had a great week," said Bill Kennedy of Bennett, Colorado. "We went up to my place in Montana and stayed there the week before the futurity. Andre got to trail ride them. They were all relaxed. When Andre exhibited them, he said they feel great and this is going to be our week. It turned out to be our week."

Both horses were bred by the Kennedys, sired by Frenchmans Fabulous, and out of the first two Dash Ta Fame mares the couple had purchased.

"I just always knew that Fab always crossed great on Dash Ta Fame mares," said Kennedy. "That year I actually used Fab a lot. I think I used him three or four times. I think I sold all the other babies because as soon as people would come out and say, 'Oh man, I want that one!' People come and we've got to sell them. We really like that cross. It's worked good."

JJ is out of J Quick Fame, the second mare the Kennedy's purchased.

"Cheryl ran her in rodeos, in the futurities and the open," said Kennedy. "We always knew she would be a great producer and it seems like she's turning out that way. JJ is a lot like J." Owner and trainer just had to be patient and let JJ come into her own.

"Andre and I just kept waiting," Kennedy said. "Andre just always thought she was a little too small for him, but I kept telling him to wait, that her speed would show up. Let's take our time. Then last month Andre said, 'Bill, I feel her. She's coming on now.'"

In the first round, JJ was a 15.605 for second and then came back with a 15.360 to win the next round and futurity average.

"He told me, 'Bill, I can really feel it right now. If I just clean up a couple of little things we can go faster. She wants it and believes in it now," recalled Kennedy. "We knew we had to beat Vauna's great horse and we didn't think we could outrun her horse in a drag race. Man, J showed up and it worked out perfectly. We were really happy."

Ironically, Kennedy almost had JJ sold a few weeks before the Glacier Chaser Classic, but much to his surprise, she didn't pass the pre-purchase exam.

"She was lame and the girl turned her down," Kennedy explained. "We didn't know what was wrong so we ran her to Texas two days later and had her checked. She had an abscess. That's all that was wrong with her. She checked out 100 percent sound. Andre got her back going and we went and won the Glacier Chaser Futurity!"

Brazilian team roper and PRCA World Champion Junior Nogueira had also tried to buy JJ once before but Kennedy told him that he wanted her to go to the NFR in the barrel racing, not the team roping.

"Right after I posted that she'd won the futurity, Junior texted and said, 'Looks like God was on your side. Twice He was on my side. So, now it looks like JJ will stay around for a little bit.'" Slym, a gelding, is out of the first Fame mare the Kennedy's purchased SF Tiny Bit Of Fame. The mare has been an exception producer with BFA Juvenile and 5 State Futurity Champion Tiny Stormy Weather and Colorado Classic Champion Famous Lady Pistol.

"To me, he has the best mother in the world," said Kennedy. "We ended up selling her to Brazil. I got some great embryos out of her, a Blazin Jetolena, a No Pressure On Me. That mare had done nothing but produce."

Ironically, Kennedy had tried to sell Slym because he'd rather keep fillies than geldings or stallions. He was consigned to the Copper Spring Ranch Sale but ended up as a repurchase.

"I don't know what happened, nobody believed in him or liked him," said Kennedy. "I think he brought $7,500. Sue Smith was right beside me and she said, 'Bill, you are not going to let that horse sell for $7,500.' I said, 'Sue, I brought him here to sell.' Sue looked at me and said, 'Bill, don't do it. Buy him back!'"

"When I brought him back out of the trailer, Andre was like 'Oh, thank you! Thank you!' He didn't want me to sell him. He had already started him and could tell he was going to be the real deal."

Slym actually won the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity's Sale Graduate Incentive this past spring.

"It turned out to be a good decision," he said. "I'm glad we kept him."

Kennedy said it was worth waiting for both horses to mature and win in their own time.

"Really, for those two horses, their lights just turned on," he said.

"It's just clicked in their brain that this is what I do and this is what I love. Andre is really awesome in supporting me. When I tell him that these are going to take a little more time, to trust me, they're going to be there, he's like 'Ok, Bill.' He knew too. He'd ridden both of their mothers. He knew it would just be a matter of time before they put it all together."

The end goal of course is to hopefully see a Smoke Creek barrel horse at the NFR.

"We're trying to make them great futurity horses, but what I really want is for a couple of Smoke Creek horses to go to the NFR," Kennedy said. "We're trying not to run their legs off when they're babies, just pick and choose where we want to take them, prepare them for the next life they'll have."

"When things go wrong, as they sometimes will;
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill;
When the funds are low and the debts are high;
And you want to smile but you have to sigh.
When all is pressing you down a bit-
Rest if you must, but DON'T YOU QUIT;
Success is failure turned inside out;
The silver tint on the clouds of doubt;
And you can never tell how close you are;
It may be near when it seems far.
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit
It's when things go wrong that you must NOT quit."

Shelley Morgan & HR FamesKissAndTell Hold World No. 1 With Rooftop Rodeo Win

By Tanya Randall

Two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shelley Morgan continues to hold the lead in the WPRA World Standings after a $6,292 weekend.

The Eustace, Texas, barrel racer topped the $6,500-added Rooftop Rodeo in Estes Park, Colorado, and took fourth at the $8,500-added Dinosaur Roundup in Vernal, Utah, aboard her 7-year-old mare HR FamesKissAndTell.

"I didn't do anything over the Fourth of July and I was excited to get it turned around this week," said Morgan, who has won $67,922 on the season. "I won Greeley, which I consider before the Fourth of July even though it counted."

With a near record number of entries everywhere, the draw, which has always been a factor, has had its magnitude amplified. Morgan thinks she had more favorable draws this past weekend than over the Fourth.

"I think she struggled a lot last week (over the Fourth of July run)," said Morgan. "I think her draw definitely helped her out this week."

Morgan started off in Vernal in slack on Thursday night.

"I felt like (the ground) at Vernal was the best it could be," she said. The committee graciously split the 10 head performance with a tractor drag half-way. "Every time I walked by that arena they were in there working it. It was amazing. I thought it stayed equal through the whole rodeo. I thought they did an amazing job with it. It makes it so much nicer to know when you run your horse you have a chance."

She ran in Friday night slack at Estes Park, which had its share of ground challenges earlier in the rodeo.

"They worked really hard to make it better," Morgan said. "When we walked up to the office to pay our fees, that's the first thing that someone said, 'We've got the ground better!' They really do care. They just had trouble with it in the beginning."

"It's like I told someone earlier. Sometimes you're on the good end of those situations and sometimes you're on the bad end. I guess this time I got the good end this week. I got the bad end over the Fourth."

Morgan has just two Wyoming rodeos this week with her first run in Casper on Wednesday, Sheridan on Friday, and hopefully, back to Casper for a second run on Saturday.

"I'm trying to do 'Less is Better' and make them count," she said. "We're just hanging out being tourists right now."

After "dropping down" off the mountain to run at Laramie, Wyoming—she hit a barrel on Kinda Heavenly ("Phoebe")—Morgan and her husband Rex returned to Estes Park.

"We asked them if we could hang out here because it was nice and cool for the horses," she said. "We've had a good time here in Estes. We've gone up to the mountain (at Rocky Mountain National Park) and ate at the Stanley Hotel. We just got back from kayaking. We're going to cook out on our grill tonight and enjoy this cool weather!"

Twists And Turns

Traveling in the intermountain west can be entertaining, especially if you're not used to driving and pulling a heavy trailer through the mountain passes.

Shelley Morgan is always grateful she her husband Rex to drive her, especially last week when the rodeo was basically in Rocky Mountain National Park. Estes Park is one of the highest rodeos in the country at more than 7,200 feet. Getting there can be tricky if you don't know what you're getting into.

"Some people that came to Estes had a hard time," Morgan said. "If you just put it in Google Maps it will send you down some pretty rank passes. My husband does pretty good researching. It took us forever to get here because we went around."

On their trip to Vernal after their Fourth of July run, her husband did want to try to save some driving by trying the Flaming Gorge. While locals say it's not bad, it can be an undertaking for some.

"I was like 'Why would we do that? We've heard for years not to do that!'" laughed Morgan. "He's like, 'I know, but I can handle it.' I was like, 'Let's just don't, please!' It's so much longer around. I'm like, 'No! We're not going down Flaming Gorge!'"

After taking the long way around, Morgan said they did drive part of the way up to Flaming Gorge after putting the horses away in Vernal.

"We went back sight-seeing," she said. "We went up to Red Canyon. It was really pretty. The part we were on wasn't too bad, but we didn't go up all the way (to Flaming Gorge). It might have been different if you have a trailer pushing you too. I'm just glad we didn't take any chances with the horses!"

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: In the heart of rodeo season, it's all about maintaining health rather than training or conditioning. "I just give her days off," said Morgan. "Her last run was Friday night and she's just been hanging out at Estes. I might take her for a walk tomorrow, pony her from another horse. I'm really big on not pounding their feet if I don't have to. I try to keep them pretty quiet. I took her to the arena this morning and let her run around and roll. I want her to have fun, but I want her to keep it toned down. Save those feet for those barrel runs! I don't ride her every day out here. Every now and then if I get to a rodeo early I might walk her or trot her in the arena. Technically, I don't work barrels on her, but if there's a set of barrels in there, would I walk or trot around them? I might. I don't hardly ride her at all in between runs."

San Angelo Rodeo to be held in Spring 2022

The 90th Annual San Angelo Rodeo will be held in spring 2022 on the San Angelo Fairgrounds, a press release from the San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo announced June 29. In 2021, the Board of Directors for the San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo Association opted to split the livestock show and rodeo/midway events due to the COVID-19 pandemic and regulations regarding capacities events were facing. Though the livestock show faced numerous challenges with Winter Storm Uri and a citywide water crisis, both events benefited from the change in scheduling. With the success of the April event in 2021, the association will hold the 2022 rodeo and midway events April 1-17. The increased prize money to the rodeo payout for 2021 will be a large incentive for contestants to continue to make their rounds to San Angelo. The April weather also looks to be more promising for families attending the midway functions. In consideration of the numerous factors facing both the livestock show and the rodeo, the association voted to move forward with the 2022 Livestock Show in February. Staff for the association is working on a detailed schedule for the event but are expecting the event to run Feb. 3-20.

Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo Will Be Live Streamed

Pluto TV, the leading free streaming television service, and PBR, the world's premier bull riding organization, has announced a new multifaceted partnership that will kick off by bringing PBR's signature streaming service RidePass, and its stable of live events, talent and fans, to an all-new arena.

Beginning July 20th, 2021, PBR RidePass will stream exclusively on Pluto TV as both a linear channel and on-demand, featuring hundreds of hours of live professional bull riding, rodeo, other western sporting events, and more. Additionally, Pluto TV will market its service to PBR fans, becoming one of the sport's largest partners.

As the leading destination for fans of bull-riding and western sports content, the launch of PBR RidePass on Pluto TV will mark a transition from the digital network's origin as a subscription-based streaming service to an ad-supported streaming channel. With a growing audience of over 50 million global users on Pluto TV, the PBR RidePass channel will super-serve western sports fans by providing them with front-row streaming access, for free, to fan-favorite western sports content. Programming includes PBR's Unleash The Beast and Pendleton Whisky Velocity Tour, marquee rodeos including WCRA Triple Crown, Indian National Finals Rodeo, Bill Pickett Invitational Rodeo, and National High School Rodeo Finals, premier horse and equestrian events, including "Road to the Horse," highlight shows, and western sports shoulder programming.

The first marquee rodeo to be carried live on Pluto TV is Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo on July 20-24 from Utah Fair Park, with all five rounds of competition free on Pluto TV.

"This new relationship with Pluto TV allows PBR to super-serve fans with hundreds of events and thousands of hours of great western sports programming now available for free," said Sean Gleason, Commissioner and CEO, PBR. "With PBR's linear and streaming live event content all within the ViacomCBS family through CBS and Pluto TV, we will benefit from tremendous synergies to grow this first-of-its-kind sports network."

PBR RidePass on Pluto TV represents an expansion of the FAST leader's growing footprint in live sports and events programming, building on Pluto TV's existing appointment viewing for franchises and iconic sporting events. This marks a first-of-its-kind deal for Pluto TV, bringing education and amplified brand awareness via in-event marketing and broadcast television promotion and activations as an official PBR partner. As the streaming sector continues to expand, with more and more new entrants joining the space to provide a variety of offerings, this partnership demonstrates a new paradigm for niche streaming services and broader platforms to work together. Albeit across screens or in stadiums, this symbiotic relationship provides a mutual vehicle to speak to, and engage with, brand-new audiences while collaboratively growing user bases.

"Pluto TV is excited to be the new exclusive home for PBR RidePass, our first dedicated live sports and lifestyle channel featuring PBR's marquee lineup of live rodeos, bull-riding and western sports. HEADIN' FOR HOME

'Classic' by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Since we aren't hermits and don't live by ourselves on the top of a mountain somewhere, this week let's talk about playing well with others! Groan...I know...there are just some people that rub us the wrong way! Why is that?

After all, to know us is to love us, right? The number ONE reason is because God made each and every one of us unique. Romans 11:29. Romans 12:6. And somehow that has become politically incorrect.

But if we can look at that 'difficult' person like God does, and really look at the gifts in them, we will find that chances are we don't have that gift.

I believe it's a grand design to cause us to have to rely on each other. (Most people shudder here, especially us 'self-sufficient' thinkers.) Think about it.

Why are we attracted to someone? And then marry them. And then 6 months later find out the very thing that attracted us to them is now driving you up the wall. YOU NEED THAT GIFT, THAT'S WHY!!

This week, let's look for the good in everyone. Romans 12:10. Let's talk to someone who has seemed unapproachable to us. We may find that they may be our new best friend! And better yet, we get to use OUR GIFT to be a blessing to someone new!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
