$100,000 Splash -- Lisa Lockhart & An Oakie With Cash Win Calgary Stampede

By Tanya Randall

If $100,000 is on the line at a barrel race, don't bet against Lisa Lockhart and her great buckskin gelding An Oakie With Cash ("Louie"). The Oelrichs, S.D., team has picked up three $100,000 checks in their careers—back-to-back championships at RFD-TV's The American and most recently, their $116,500 championship at a soggy Calgary Stampede.

"I'm so fortunate," said Lockhart, who is sponsored by Polaris Ranger, Circle Y Saddles, Classic Equine, Cowgirl Tuff, De-Tye Veterinary Supply, Signature Quarters, Woody's Performance Horse Feeds, B Bar Heart Performance Horses and Platinum Performance. "That rodeo is so prestigious. It's amazing rodeo. There are so many international spectators. There's a lot on the line. It's a difficult setup. There are a lot of variables when you're at Calgary, and the stakes are high."

Lockhart and Louie started their championship run in the second set at the tournament-style rodeo, which advanced contestants based on money won. They won three of the four rounds of their qualifying pool for $16,500 and squeaked into the Championship Showdown in the mud.

The ground was so questionable for Sunday's Round of 10 that the committee decided to postpone the barrel racing until after the bull riding so they could add three loads of sand to the arena. Luckily, Lockhart was the ninth on the ground and had an idea about what to do.

"Sherry (Cervi) and I discussed it," she said. "One of the committeemen came up to us before the barrel race—before they stopped it—and he said 'It's not good out there.' Sherry looked at me and said, 'Have you ever had a committeeman come up to you tell you it's no good out there?' Sherry and I were horrified. She asked, 'What are you going to do?' I said, 'Keep it controlled. I'm sorry, but I'm so glad I'm not first.'

"I told Sherry in the past it's actually seemed better as crazy as that sounds. I don't know if it softens the hard pan...or what, but in the past it has not been bad in the mud. This year, earlier in the day some horses were slipping; the calf ropers said it was really greasy on top.

"I just felt bad for the girls that went first. You could tell as each girl went they went a little harder. It was one of those things where you had to ride conservatively, but yet you can't lope the pattern and think you're going to be okay because someone is going to go faster. It's hard to safety up like that."

On both of her runs, Lockhart chose to let Louie do his thing and she took comfort in knowing that "Louie is Louie" and would handle whatever was to come.

"He's just so selfless," she said. "He'll just do what you ask him to do, bless his heart."

Bred by Tim and Kelly Bagnell's B Bar Heart Performance Horses in Polson, Mont., Louie is one of the most loved barrel horses in the country. The 12-year-old buckskin is by reining horse, turned pro rodeo calf horse Beibers Oakie and is out of the Judge Cash daughter Lady Kaweah Cash. Like his sire, Louie's career started in the show pen as a reined cowhorse before he went to Lockhart's for barrel training and never left.

Now that Lockhart has the No. 1 position in the World Standings with $129,903 (only half of the $100,000 counts toward the standings), Louie is only going to see selective runs the remainder of the year.

"I would like to keep it lower key and get my young horses going, and try to get some circuit stuff going," said Lockhart. "Time will tell too. I'm definitely letting off the accelerator with everything that's happened."

With Fast An Gold ("Chism") out three months due to an injury from a bad stumble at the South Dakota High School Finals Rodeo with Alyssa, Lockhart's 8-year-old A Streak Of Fling gelding will be getting a lot of runs.

"He's been in my trailer a couple of years, but he hasn't really got to run anywhere," she said. "This is a perfect opportunity to allow me to do it. I'm sure a lot of things are going to be above and beyond his abilities, but you don't know where you're at until you try it. I really haven't made enough runs to know where he's at or what he's going to do."

After making her first run at Cheyenne with Louie—as of this writing she was winning the first round—Lockhart was headed to Rock Springs, Wyo., to the National High School Finals Rodeo to watch her oldest, daughter Alyssa, run poles. Then it's on to the National Little Britches Finals, and as she's promised her youngest son, some possible time at the lake with family.

"We're even making plans with my sisters and the cousins to do something like going to the lake," she laughed. "We haven't done that in forever. My youngest is like can we do something fun without horses? Before you know it, it's time for them to go back to school."

Assured Win for Cassidy Kruse In Casper and Sheridan

By Tanya Randall,

Wyoming cowgirl Cassidy Kruse and her tough gelding JKR Assured Win ("JJ") swept their home state rodeos in Casper and Sheridan. They may have been the only two rodeos she worked over weekend, but taking top prize on every run they made netted Kruse $12,252 and kept her in the hunt for her first National Finals Rodeo berth.

"It was a really good weekend," said Gillette, Wyo., native.

She started her week on Wednesday in Casper, running in slack after the rodeo performance. They made the first go winning run of 17.04.

"My game plan going in was just to make my run and whatever happened, happened," she said. "My horse made a really good. When they announced my time, I was really excited, but I knew there were a lot of tough people left to run."

From Casper it was up the Interstate north to Sheridan for the Thursday night performance.

"Everyone had said it was a much bigger pattern than a (WPRA) standard—not that I was concerned about that or anything," she admitted. "I just took it as another run. He smoked another run. I couldn't believe my time; we were winning it by 2/10ths."

Their victorious 18.19 in Sheridan was worth $4,708.

Kruse and JJ were able to have a day and half at home before returning for the short go in Casper.

"I knew I just need to go in there and make a smooth run, and we'd be just fine," she said. They ended up winning the short with a 17.24 to sweep the rodeo for $7,544.

Kruse is currently eighth in the WPRA World Standings with $57,763. She and JJ earned that money the hard way since entry limits kept her out of all of the lucrative winter rodeos except for San Angelo, which was unlimited.

The 19-year-old filled her permit at her first pro rodeo last summer on a backup horse and she bought her card expecting to be back on JJ, who was recovering from a collateral ligament injury to his left front coffin joint, for a late season push. Unfortunately, she wasn't able to get on him until the end of August with the season ending in a month's time.

"This is technically my rookie year because this is the first time that I've been to any of these rodeos," she said, adding that she's had to be mindful of JJ's past injuries when entering. That's part of the reason she only worked Casper and Sheridan last week. "My horse has had some injuries in the past, so I really try to choose arenas that I know normally have good ground. I had never run in the outdoor pen at Laramie, so I just chose to do Casper and Sheridan because they were close to home."

With all the lucrative rodeos in the Mountain States Circuit, Kruse has been able to stay closer to home and give her main partner some time at home.

"When I was gone all winter, we weren't home for six months," she said. "Now all the rodeos are closer to home and it's nice to bring him home, even if it is just for a day-and-a-half for him to relax."

The 14-year-old gelding, bred by Jack and Karmetta Ruppel of Sargent, Neb., is by Dashes Emblem out of Miss Assured Best, by Princely Best. Kruse purchased the gelding as a 6-year-old in September of 2007.

"The reason we ended up with him was I had another really nice horse before him that was stuck by lightning and killed," she said. "He kind of just fell into our hands. It's been great since the first day we bought him."

On Tuesday, Kruse and JJ were running at Cheyenne. They're out at Nampa, Idaho, on Thursday. They've also entered Ogden, Spanish Fork and Salt Lake City, Utah.

“Oxy Sox is an essential part of my daily program. Foot health is very important to me and my horses traveling down the road. I feel Oxy Sox improves circulation and decreases any inflammation I have found in the hoof wall or the heel. When I am on the road, I feed Oxy Sox daily to prevent any issues that can arise from unwanted surfaces such as gravel or rock.”

Dunbar & Make It Holland Dig Colorado

By Hope Sickler

Del Rio, Texas cowgirl Jessica Dunbar had a very lucrative stay in Colorado while competing at the Pikes Peak Or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs. The college student kept it consistent with her 9-year-old mare Make It Holland affectionately known as “Miss Piggy”, filling her personal piggy bank up with over $15,000 for the win!

“Miss Piggy” is a daughter of Make It Anywhere and out of Miss Holland Fling, who is out of Moon Fling, the same dam as A Streak Of Fling. Veteran barrel racer and NFR qualifier Jana Bean trained the mare and Dunbar has owned her for close to five years. Dunbar explained that owning “Miss Piggy” has been one of the biggest blessings of her life and credits all her success to the petite yet mighty mare.

“She has been an absolute blast to own and ride and I continually feel blessed for the opportunity to have her as my dancing partner in the arena. She helped me win my very first saddle in high school and has obtained several other large goals for me, this being a very big one,” said Dunbar.

Dunbar credits the mare’s giant heart and try for their success and says they share a bond that makes them the standout team that they are.

“She tries her absolute best every single run she lays down and we share this great bond which I think is very important in our industry.”

While Dunbar says “Miss Piggy” tends to strive in the smaller pens, she knew she had the talent and the horsepower to do well at the Norris Penrose outdoor arena in Colorado Springs.

“I knew we would have to make some adjustments running in that large arena and she handled it great. We covered a lot of ground and continued to stay consistent which was huge,” Dunbar said.

Dunbar was a little nervous as to how her mare would handle the pressure and stress of running more than once in one day but was pleasantly surprised when the mare only got faster and better after each run.

“I was afraid she would be exhausted after my second run and not want to work, but surprisingly she ran faster with each run. Like I said, she’s a smaller horse but she doesn’t know it! She tries harder each run.”

During their final run, they had a stumble while running to the first barrel which Dunbar was afraid would cost her but thankfully it didn’t.

“She worked phenomenal. I was very proud of her. It was definitely my biggest accomplishment to date and I feel extremely blessed to even have had the opportunity to compete at such a great rodeo.”

Dunbar pocketed over $16,000 in addition to a customized

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Passwords seem to open a lot of doors in this modern age of electronics and many times you can't transact your business without the proper one. Some people have so many passwords for various pursuits that they have to write them down to keep track of them. And, then they have to keep changing them for security reasons. The main password you have to remember in this life on earth is the name of "Jesus." That name is above every name and carries incredible power. It will open doors, heal the sick, impart wisdom and effect glorious miracles. Don't forget to use it often to access the creator of the universe of whom nothing is impossible. Jesus said in John 14:6, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." And, in Revelation 3:20 He Said "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him and he with Me." The name of Jesus is a simple password to remember. It covers everything and won't ever need updating. It is safe from security breaches. It's your password to enter into the glorious everlasting life in eternity that God has prepared for His children. Hallelujah!
