 RAISING YOUR FUTURE

Second Calgary Conquest for Hailey Kinsel & Dm Sissy Hayday!

By Tanya Randall

The Calgary Stampede, held July 3-12, was one for the record books. Exceptional footing provided by OCD Earthworx set the stage for one of the greatest horse races around the cloverleaf pattern.

The arena record was broken three times. In the first round of Pool C, Michelle Alley and Lipstick N Stilletos broke Kassie Mowry and Force The Goodbye's record of 16.74 set last year with a 16.72, only to have Mowry and "Jarvis" reclaim it with a 16.68 a few runs later. Then, in the semifinals, Hailey Gibson Stillwell and Buncha Dinero slammed the clock as the first runners through the gate with a 16.56 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

Meanwhile, four-time WPRA World Champions Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday were steadily cranking out their fastest runs ever in their five appearances at Stampede Park. They were third in the first round, second in the second and split the win with Kathy Grimes and KG Just Money to be the high money earners in Pool C with $16,250.

Kinsel and Sis, the oldest horse in the Semifinals at age 15, squeaked into the Showdown behind Stillwell and Piper, Heidi Gunderson and Wonder If Im Lucky ("Casey") and Carlee Otero and Blingolena.

Running last out in the Showdown, Kinsel and Sis clipped Stillwell and Piper, 16.80 to 16.81 for their second Calgary Stampede Championship and $66,250, all of which counts toward the WPRA World Standings.

"I wanted it for her for all the years that it didn't go our way," said Kinsel, who first won the title with Sis back in 2018. They were second in 2019 to Lisa Lockhart and Rosas Cantina CC and in 2024 to Leslie Smalygo and Justaheartbeattofame. "Both years I was second I won the 10 round (Semifinals), so I know what that feels like."

"You know if you win that 10-round, you know your horse is capable, but it's anybody's given day and it's just got to be your moment. Things have to go right, and their feet have to fall just right. When you know they're capable, it just makes you want it for them a little more."

Kinsel knew she had to block her emotions to give Sis the best opportunity to win the Showdown, but thankfully the pair from Cotulla, Texas, have become experts at formats like Calgary.

"That's my wheelhouse, prepping and making the right run until we get in that situation where you need THE run," she said, "especially on a horse like her. I'm not saying it always works because it doesn't. It just feels good to me to prep for that. I feel very excited and confident. I think you have to in order to win first, much less second. I've won a whole lot of seconds at these deals too because I put myself in a position to win first. It doesn't always go your way, but you have to be confident that you can and that your horse will show up at the right time. You have to time it perfectly. That's not to say you hold back in the (round of) 10, but you have to keep in mind that you're going to need to ask for all your mulligans in the next run, not your first one."

Kinsel, who sits No. 4 in the WPRA World Standing with $146,407 unofficially, had only made three runs on Sis since Rodeo Houston in March. She cracked the mare out at Dickinson, North Dakota, the last week of June to win fourth.

Sis's next run was at Mandan, North Dakota, over the Fourth of July, where she set a new arena record.

Her only other run was at Cody, Wyoming, where she was last on the drag.

"Cody is the only one I regret," she said, "just because it was swimmingly deep. I was bottom of the drag but didn't know until

- In the 1st Go of Pool C; Michelle Alley breaks Kassie Mowry's Calgary Arena Record, running a 16.72!
- In the same performance Kassie Mowry then breaks Michelle's Record, running a 16.68!
- In the Semi-Finals HAYLE GIBSON-STILLWELL & BUNCHA DINERO run an amazing 16.56 to set the NEW ARENA RECORD!!!
- CARLEE OTERO & BLINGOLENA run a 16.67 in the Semi-Finals to finish 2nd and also now have the 2ND FASTEST TIME at the Calgary Stampede!
- KATHY GRIMES came into the 3rd Go of Pool C and needed to win the round for a chance to advance - and she won the round!!! But, the field is so tough that Mowry, Alley & Kinsel all ran lights out to advance and Kathy ended up 4th high money in Pool C.

I ran because of the condensed drag. Their numbers are always different than our numbers. I made that run and didn't feel like I had the draw to do anything. I almost thought, 'Should I have even made that run?' But I thought, 'No, you're still warming up for next week.'"

Kinsel didn't want to put all her eggs in the Calgary basket, but the rodeo has been very good to her over the years.

"I feel pretty confident going into it that if I prioritize that rodeo, it's going to pay off for us," she said. "I knew I had made enough runs to have her fit to make five runs in four days. I also knew that I wasn't going to waste runs throughout the year at places that didn't pay."

The Calgary Stampede also served up the best footing possible to showcase the equine athletes when they hired Jason Harder and his OCD Earthwork crew.

"It was his first year taking over the ground of the Stampede, and he got it right," said Kinsel. "He was so conscientious the entire time, asking us even on the day the arena record was broken twice, for feedback. 'What do I need to do? What do y'all think? Are you girls happy?' Are we happy? Are you kidding me! We're having fun! We're actually able to just full-send and have a horse race and not having to think about standing up for survival. OCD is a very accurate name for his group because that's how he thinks about it. The man's just obsessed with dirt and he's genuinely a kind, good-hearted person, and to Calgary's credit they sought the best and found and hired him. Hopefully, that's all the proof they need to hire him forever."

Kinsel said that exceptional footing creates a better horse race when conditions are safe, fast and fair. She pointed to the fact that Gunderson and Casey had the worst draw in the Semifinals on Sunday. She was the only one running fifth on the ground. Kassie Mowry and Force The Goodbye were very last in the draw but were only fourth out after a drag.

"She came out and ran a .68 fifth on the ground," noted Kinsel. "That tells you not only is that horse incredible, but she had a chance going in because they had the ground fair."

"The horses that are running right now, they really are elite horses, the best of the best, but we can't put on a show like that if the conditions don't allow. The conditions were as perfect as they could get them, and therefore, it was the greatest outdoor show on earth."

KEEPING THINGS PC

Three of the four horses competing in the Calgary Stampede Showdown carried the blood of AQHA Hall of Fame stallion Sun Frost, who was owned by the Cowan family.

Hailey Kinsel's champion DM Sissy Hayday is by multiple WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday ("Dinero"), who is also a full brother to Kristie Peterson's 1997 Calgary Stampede Champion French Flash Hawk ("Bozo").

Hayle Gibson Stillwell's reserve champion and Calgary arena record holder Buncha Dinero is also by Dinero.

Heidi Gunderson's Wonder If Im Lucky ("Casey") has a double dose of Sun Frost. His sire Lucky Wonder Horse is out of Lisa Lockhart's 2019 Calgary Stampede Champion Rosas Cantina CC, whose second dam is a granddaughter of Sun Frost through Frenchmans Guy. His dam is by PC Mr Sun Peppy, a son of Sun Frost.

PC stands for Pat Cowan who purchased Sun Frost from his breeder Stanley Johnson. Sun Frost stood until his death under the management of his sons—the Cowan Brothers-- through T4 Quarter Horses.

Arena Record For Makenzie Mayes & Chicado Moon at Sheridan WYO Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

2025 WPRA Rookie of the Year Makenzie Mayes of Scoggins, Texas, picked up another $13,017 this past week to remain No. 11 in the World Standings with $70,793, unofficially.

Mayes was the third richest barrel racer over the Fourth of July run, netting $13,603 after placing at St. Paul, Oregon, Oakley, Utah, and Greeley, Colorado.

This past week, Mayes and Chicado Moon ("Rousey"), owned by her aunt Naoma Lebaron, set an arena record at the $21,000-added Sheridan WYO Rodeo with a 16.84 to outrun white hot Michelle Alley and Lipstick N Stilletos, who set the previous arena record of 16.88 during slack.

"It was super-fast," noted Mayes, who was first out after a drag due to a couple of turnouts ahead of her in the Friday night performance. "The ground was good, and I'm pretty thankful for that. It's always nice to know that your horse likes and can stand up.

"I pretty much sent her full-send to the first barrel. It honestly didn't feel like the best run, but she was just running fast."

The $8,844 victory was her biggest check for the week.

She and Rousey also split second in the first round at the $25,000-added Central Wyoming Fair & Rodeo in Casper for another good check, $3,917. Tipped barrels in Saturday night's short go kept them from earning an aggregate check.

"She just overworked the first barrel," Mayes said. "I knew she would be a little bit tighter, and I sent her in there hard, but she just came back super-fast. She went in there to try hard though."

Rousey, an 8-year-old daughter of Guys Canyon Moon, out of Chicado Bully, by Chicado Cash, has been a rodeo star since Mayes started riding the rambunctious mare for her aunt. She has documented earnings of $348,515 through QData without a dime of her open, amateur rodeo earnings included.

"I feel like every win on her is just so rewarding," Mayes said, "just seeing all the hard work pay off. I wouldn't be here without her."

Her success with Rousey led to the purchase of Kita Rita, another Guys Canyon Moon mare. She and Rita picked up $256 at the $7,000-added Cattlemen's Days Rodeo in Gunnison, Colorado, to start off their week.

Mayes is currently relaxing in Salinas, California. The $52,500-added California Rodeo starts on Thursday, July 16, and with three, possibly four days of back-to-back runs, it's almost like a mini-staycation during the hectic summer run.

"It's super cool and the breeze is blowing," said Mayes. She arrived at Salinas on Monday after making the 1,200 mile drive from Laramie, Wyoming, where she ran Rita on Sunday. "I'm excited to stay in one place for a week."

However, she is flying back to Cheyenne, Wyoming, to ride a borrowed horse before reconnecting with her own horses for Spanish Fork, Utah.

Ironically, Mayes had doubts of making the summer run this year until she and Rousey did well at the Music City Rodeo in Nashville at the end of May.

"Nashville is always my turning point for some reason," she said. "I told my mom that if I didn't have so much won before the summer, then I'm not going. Then, of course, she does well at Nash-

“She really didn’t start winning until the next month (August),” she recalled. “We won a little bit, but nothing like we’ve won the last two months. I guess last year she just had to figure out how to take care of herself. How to handle the trailer rides and sleeping. It was just a learning experience for us both.”

Dominant Performance For Molly Otto & Crew at Cowgirl Tuff Barrel Race & MN Futurity

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier and multiple aged event champion Molly Otto of Grand Forks, North Dakota, left the Cowgirl Tuff Barrel Race and MN Futurity, held July 9-12 in Winona, Minnesota, with $30,000 thanks to her four-legged crew.

Busby Quarter Horses' Movin On Bye ("Gator") swept the Open and MN Futurity titles, earning $6,906. They also collected $10,210 in incentive earnings from Future Fortunes, Royal Crown and The Gold Rush Incentive with more to come.

The O'Keefe family's home bred Famous Black Ty mare Fame Miss Hollywood ("Farah") was right on Gator's heels, taking second in both futurities for $6,607.

"I really enjoy them a lot," Otto said of Gator and Farah. "I like riding them and I like running them. They feel like they're going to give me a chance to win something pretty much every time I go down the alley. Obviously, they're colts and they make mistakes here and there, but I feel like when I'm on them, I have a chance."

Gator, a 5-year-old gelding by 19.3 million dollar barrel horse sire The Goodbye Lane out of National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sheza Blazin Move, by Blazin Jetolena, but joined Otto's barn in the early winter of his fourth year.

"Jolene Montgomery had him and he was started on the barrels when I got him," Otto explained. "She likes a hotter horse, and he was too lazy for her. He doesn't have a lot of desire to be hot or go forward."

When searching for another trainer that she could ride behind Gator's owner, Andrea Busby, picked Otto. After all, she'd already proven she could successfully train winning offspring of Blazin Jetolena daughters with Teasin Dat Guy ("Chewy"), the mare that carried her to multiple futurity titles and the NFR Reserve Champi-

"Chewy was really lazy when I got her too," chuckled Otto, "but she just kind of needed a job. I feel like with Gator the more fun I made it, the more he started catching on and really wanting to try."

In his training, Otto often sent Gator on one quick pass through the pattern and then either be done or walk the pattern.

"He would be like, 'Oh that was pretty easy.' Then, the next time, he wanted to try a little bit harder," she added.

The biggest challenge for Otto was getting Gator to figure out his timing.

"He's a little strong and dull, but he's figuring it out as we go," she said. "When I first started adding speed, he'd have a delayed reaction when I'd ask him to rate. It was like he'd think about it and be like, 'Oh yeah! OK.' So that was kind of hard, because he didn't have a lot of desire to go and then when I got him to go, it was hard to get him to come back to me. That was a learning experience."

On top of that, Otto said Gator is "freakishly fast without even trying," but she still has to tap him at home from time to time to keep him loping and not breaking to a trot while exercising.

BRYEL MULLIGAN BENEFIT AUCTION

All proceeds will go to help Bryel Mulligan & family with treatment and expenses, as she battles metastatic breast cancer.

In May, life changed forever with what was initially believed to be a Stage II breast cancer diagnosis. As plans were being made for treatment, additional testing—including CT scans and a bone scan—revealed devastating news: the cancer had already spread to her bones. At just 48 years old, she was diagnosed with Stage IV metastatic breast cancer.

She has to continue this fight as hard as she can because she has a seven-year-old son, Mason, who needs his mom. More than anything, she wants to be here to watch him grow up, celebrate his milestones, and make as many memories with him as possible. While Stage IV metastatic breast cancer is treatable, it is not curable. She is now facing a lifelong battle that will require ongoing chemotherapy, immunotherapy, routine scans, blood work, specialist appointments, medications, and treatments to help manage the disease and strengthen her bones. She also hopes to pursue complementary therapies to support her health and improve her quality of life, many of which are not covered by insurance.

The emotional and financial impact of this diagnosis is overwhelming. The cost of continuous treatment, medications, travel to appointments, lost income, and everyday living expenses will continue to grow. This fundraiser has been created to help ease that burden so she can focus on what matters most—fighting this disease, making precious memories with Mason, and living each day to the fullest.

Every donation, no matter the amount, will go directly toward medical expenses and treatment-related costs. If you're unable to donate, sharing this fundraiser and keeping her in your thoughts and prayers would mean more than words can express.

Thank you for your kindness, generosity, and support during this difficult journey. Every act of compassion brings hope and reminds her that she is not fighting this battle alone.

Krystal Grad & KSJ Rememberthetitan Heat Up Glacier Chaser Futurity With A Win

When it is the middle of July in Montana it means it's time for one of the premier futurity events in the north, the Glacier Chaser Classic. Held in Billings, MT the Glacier Chaser Classic paid out an amazing $294,464. Dominating the futurity was Krystal Grad on her homebred Ksj Rememberthetitan and then she was the Reserve Champion in the Maturity with A Famous French Kiss. We caught up with Grad to find out more about her big win!

BRR: Can you walk us through both your runs at the Glacier Chaser Classic?

Grad: After running the afternoon before in the warm up, I knew I had to make some changes going into the first round of the futurity. I rode him better into first barrel and I stayed 2 handed into the turn a bit longer, giving him a great line into the turn. The first barrel is probably his fastest barrel...when he nails that, I know all I have to do is ride the other 2 good and not get ahead of myself. In the second round, I knew all I had to do was go make the same run again, so I reminded myself not to override and just take one step at a time. We nailed our first again!!! Going across to second, I think I likely got a little ahead of myself and Titan started his turn into second a little soon...he's so athletic he got around it without knocking it, but it was a slower barrel. Going up into 3rd I knew I had to make up some time and he probably had his best 3rd barrel that he's had for a long time!

BRR: When Ksj Rememberthetitan won the Royal Crown Canada Futurity with Brandy McPhee you were injured; tell us about your recovery and how are you doing now?

Grad: Well, that whole time is still kind of surreal...it doesn't even seem like it happened. I just kept telling myself I was fine. I spent the first 3 weeks going insane, not being able to ride or do any jobs that require me to actually use my arm. It didn't stop me from trying to fork hay with my left arm, or clean pens with my left arm... needless to say my left arm got very strong. I was just stubborn and wouldn't let it slow me down, but I was pretty careful not to put myself in a bad situation. At 3 weeks, Titan actually was the first horse I rode. Physically, I think I was fine, but my mental side was very cautious. The next day I rode 2 horses. My arm was quite stiff but I was going on a mini holiday to watch my son play ball in BC, so I rested it a lot there and used redline therapy as much as humanly possible. When I got home, I went back to riding 10 head a day like I hadn't skipped a beat. That Wednesday (4 Weeks post op) I decided to go to a jackpot. I took some colts to exhibition and I took Titan. I entered but had told them I would likely turn out, but we would see how time onlies went. Well as it turned out I felt fine in time onlies, so I stayed entered and just thought I would lightly cruise. Muscle memory has a weird way of taking over cause when I came through those gates, we were flying and I wasn't holding back and neither was Titan!! LOL He ended up running 2/10ths off the arena record and .04 behind his momma, Judge Spice "Stella" and Klancee (my dtr). I think the hardest thing was convincing myself that I would be ok, but I am so stubborn even if I wasn't convinced I was ok, I would still try to prove I was!!! Aug 1 was the date I was "allowed" to actually start riding again. That just wasn't ever going to happen in my mind. Ive been back riding and competing now for almost 2 months, and have won over almost $20K on him and Stevi in that time! It was never an option to be laid up.

THANKS: My Husband and kids, Klancee and Keltyn... they drive me to be my very best!! If I'm gonna need to be away from them, I better make it worth while!! And Montana Aitken, my intern... I don't know what I'd do without her!!! She is an extra me and she has been a true blessing not only to my program but to our family!

BRR: Your horse is obviously a winner; what traits make this horse so special?

Grad: Gosh, just being Stella's (Judge Spice) first baby is the most special thing to me. Stella made me into the trainer and jockey I am today. She showed me confidence and she helped me develop the kind of style I have now and train into all of my horses. Titan is her exact replica, so it's kind of cool to have all those same attributes shine through. The confidence and arrogance run deep in them both, where Stella is more stand offish towards other horses, he is the boss! He wasn't always that way, but I swear when I started winning, that changed at the same time.

BRR: What did you do this past couple weeks to have your horse at his best?

Grad: I did some acupuncture on him a few time as his back gets a little sore. He has kissing spine surgery last summer so we try to keep those muscles as supple as possible. I also just rode him and kept him in shape, making sure he was sharp on any cues I may ask of him. I ride a lot with my body, and a lot one handed, keeping him sharp and responsive is always my main focus.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend prior to entering the arena?

Grad: I just remind myself why I do this. It's not for the glory, it's for the love I have for these horses, and this sport. It brings me so much joy to show the world these incredible animals. The fact that I'm a little part of their story means everything to me. The biggest "WHY" for me however, is my kids...to show them that with hard work and determination, anything is possible. Setting goals, believing in yourself, and trusting in the work you put in will always help you find your way to success.

BRR: How did you get started barrel racing?

Grad: My Dad's side of the family were ropers and they raised quarter horses. My Grandpa and I were inseparable, so when he went for visits with a very good friend of his, Barry Quam, I would hang out with Barry's daughter Rusty Rae!! I was in awe of Rusty and her mom Sherry. Grandpa saw that and put me in one of Sherry's clinics on a mare he got from somewhere!!! LOL! Probably the backyard bush, but man did I love that mare. I had rode since I was 2, but always the old rope horses, so when he bought me Illusion and took me to this clinic, I was hooked and never looked back. I'm sure he regretted that decision at some point!! Lol. Over the years I watched, and read as much as I could about barrel racing, horsemanship and everything else under the sun about horses... I was that horse obsessed little girl!

BRR: Is there any barrel racer you modeled your riding and training after? Where did you come up with your style?

Grad: Well I live in Saskatchewan, Canada...there wasn't at that time very many barrel performance horse operations in this country. I had the opportunity to go ride for Danny Ray at Victory Farms early in my 20s. I learned a lot about bloodlines, training, vet work, just everything surrounding the futurity industry. That year was my first BFA, and I still remember how awe struck I was in the incredible horse flesh there was. This was a whole new world to me. It wasn't until after I had Klancee, 11 years ago, when I truly dedicated myself to becoming the very best trainer and jockey I could be. I dedicated myself to time in the saddle and when I wasn't riding I was watching any and all videos I could find!! Ashley Schafers style was the most similar to mine, and I understood a lot of what she was saying, the why and how she was doing things. I still remember the video I saw and it was like a light bulb went off, and quite literally the next day it all came together and I had my riding style clear as day! Over the years since, I have tweaked and figured out more and more things along the way that work or don't work and now have a training style and jockey style that I know like the back of my hand. I know it so well that I find joy and satisfaction in teaching it to others and helping them find their way to their own styles as well!

BRR: Your favorite snacks to have on the road and when you are competing?

Grad: I do not eat very good on the road, but a staple is my smoothies! Ice, wild berry juice, frozen blueberries and thrive and a bit of water. I cannot go without it!!

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Skunk smell it has to be the worst . . . smell . . . ever . . . I can take some smells. Not skunk.

Mike and I have been riding bikes on the local bike paths for a while now. One of the paths goes by a somewhat stagnant creek. Well. Really stagnant. But it seems a skunk has taken up residence somewhere along there and when we get to that stretch, I hold my breath. Not great, since I'm usually sucking air by the time we get to that spot. This morning. I couldn't hold my breath long enough and I took in this big ole lungful of skunk. And I started gagging, and gagging, and it was awful! Mike was a bit concerned about me.

Did you know that in the Bible, there are references to smells? Phil. 4:18 tells us that our gifts to God are a sweet odor, well pleasing to God.

Sin has a smell to God. Isaiah 65:5 describes sin as "an unpleasantly smelling smoke in His nostrils."

2 Cor. 2:15-16 compares the sweet aroma of Christ with the foul odor of death that comes from rejecting Him.

I sincerely want that sweet aroma of Jesus. I want to repent quickly when I sin. I don't want God gagging over me!!!
