Bass & Cowboy Lead Herd at Calgary Stampede

By Tanya Randall

Fresh off of a fantastic Fourth of July run, Kaley Bass and her steadfast steed Wonders Cowboy Dan vaulted to the lead in the WPRA World Standings with their $115,500 Calgary Stampede Championship.

Although all of the pool money Calgary counts toward the WPRA World Standings only half of the $100,000 does, making it equivalent to Rodeo Houston, held earlier this year. The $65,000-haul moved Bass from 15th to 1st in the standings, just ahead of Stampede Co-Reserve Champion Fallon Taylor.

Bass, a 21-year-old two-time NFR veteran from Kissimmee, Fla., started her 2014 Calgary experience with a victory in the open round of Pool A competition and bookended Brittany Pozzi's two round wins with another in the fourth.

Pozzi was forced to crack out her 4-year-old futurity mare Kisskiss Bangbang ("Mona") for the Stampede since her veteran mount was sore. The daughter of all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of CD Nick Bar, by WPRA World Champion sire Dr Nick Bar, proved to be a quick study in rodeo, winning and placing in all four rounds to lead Pool A in total money with $17,000.

Bass was second in Pool A money with $15,500. With Championship Sunday clearly on her agenda, Bass left Cowboy in Calgary where Britany Diaz and Taylor Jacob looked after him while she returned to the States to run her backup horse Wonders Moon Song, at Casper, Wyo., Sheridan, Wyo., and Vernal, Utah.

Meanwhile, in Pool B, Rodeo Houston Champion Nancy Hunter and her great horse Flit N Fizz ("Fuzz") jumped out to an early lead, winning the two opening rounds easily. With her spot on Sunday assured, Hunter chose to rest Fuzz, a 16-year-old son of Dr Nick Bar out of Sting It, by Power Train, and run her ailing daughter-in-law Amy's horse Big Papa. Although she didn't have high expectations for a check, she knew the rest would do Fuzz good and cheer up Amy, her oldest son Josh's wife, who is need of a heart transplant.

With Fuzz cooling his jets back in the barn, the talented stallion Slick By Design (Designer Red x Dreams Of Blue, by Dream On Dancer), was figuring out the setup for Michele McLeod. The duo posted two of the fastest times of the rodeo to win the third and fourth rounds in the Pool to advance to Championship Sunday.

Other top money earners joining Bass, Pozzi, Hunter and McLeod on Sunday were defending Stampede Champion Jean Winters, Sherry Cervi, Mary Walker and Britany Diaz, whose husband Issac also qualified for Championship Sunday in the Saddle Bronc Riding. The remaining 12 contestants one last chance at the Championship Round on Wildcard Saturday.

Taylor, who had some tough going in Pool B, had a flawless run aboard Flos Heiress, also a daughter of Dr Nick Bar (who's get and grandget won $63,000 at Calgary), to turn in the fastest time of the entire rodeo, a 17.21 to win the Wildcard Round—of which only 11 competed after Shelly Anzick drew out. The last spot in the Championships went to Lisa Lockhart, who finished 6/100ths back aboard Alan Woodbury's Dash Ta Vanila. Lockhart had climbed Nila after riding Fast An Gold ("Chism") in the first two rounds of Pool B.

In Sunday's Semifinal Round, Walker and Lockhart went out with hit barrels. The reality of what she was doing hit Pozzi's young mare, who developed a case of the "baby bails" on the backside of her left turns. Cervi and Stingray slipped and scotched on the ground they had to work with and Hunter's Fuzz went a little deep on the first and nearly slipped into it on the backside.

McLeod was forced to jump ride Catachat Cash of Brittany Grant's (her brother Morgan won the $100,000 in the tiedown roping and finished second in the championship round of the steer wrestling). Slick had developed a dangerously high fever, which will take him out of competition while he recovers.

Taylor and Bass tied for the fastest time and Winters and Diaz also advanced to the Finals.

"I could see that the ground was a lot slower than it was in the Wildcard," said Bass, describing her runs. "He handles bad ground really well, so it worked out for the best. I know him so well and have so much confidence in him. I was glad to be on him when the ground wasn't so great."

Bass and Cowboy, a 14-year-old gelding by Wonders Pal, a son of Wonder Otoe, out of Jackies Cowgirl Bar, by Cowboy Dans Bar, have been partners since her family purchased him as a 3-year-old from his breeder SeBelle Dymmek.

Running in reverse order of qualification, Diaz and Dasher Dude ("Rootie") ended their dream early with a costly fallen first barrel. Winter and Crickets Peppy Zan, who was solid all Stampede long, made another business run of 17.62. Taylor and Babyflo equaled their time, but a runoff wasn't to be when last on the ground, Bass and Cowboy took the $100,000 by a mere 1/100th of a second.

"He stays pretty strong even when I have to run him twice in one day," she said. "He gets better the more that I run him."

With that in mind, Cowboy is still going to be her main gun at the big rodeos, like Cheyenne, where they placed third in the first go on Tuesday morning before heading 1,260 miles to Salinas, Calif. (By-the-by, Google Maps recommends a plane ticket as your first optional route between Salinas and Cheyenne.) However, look for her 6-year-old Moon Song to be getting a few more opportunities to learn the ropes than she otherwise would have had without the Calgary Championship and WPRC World Standings lead.

mek, Bayou West Pads and Elgin Veterinary Hospital, celebrated her Calgary Championship with Taylor Jacob's mother Robyn, who had stayed in Canada with Cowboy while her daughter went back south.

"She was the only family friend I had with me," said Bass. "I was glad to have her to celebrate with. She was with me when I won Ponoka. I told Taylor she's not getting her mom back!"

Bass, her high school rodeo pal Alicia Stockton, who won Guymon earlier this year, and Jacob have had three rigs with two horses in each going down the road all summer. Plus, they have Taylor's mom with them for extra help.

"I want to thank Taylor's mom for being up there with me and helping me," said Bass, "and Taylor for leaving her trailer up there so I had a way to make it back to the States. Alicia Stockton helped me out a lot too. I have to give a big thanks to all three of them because they've all helped me big time this summer."

Stateside Scramble—Morgan & Will Merada, Scott & Fallin For Fame win big

By Tanya Randall

It's always hard to play the what-if game. What if Calgary didn't count? It's really hard to say since many of the contestants that didn't spend the week in Canada were attempting to rake in the cash at the lucrative Mountain States and Wilderness circuit rodeos leading up to the Cheyenne Frontier Days and California Rodeo in Salinas.

With a year's worth of "out west experience" under his belt Will Merada, better known as Shelley Morgan's Radar has been making tracks in the Top 10 all year long. Morgan and Radar won $11,000-added, one-run rodeo in Sheridan, Wyo., for $4,682 and picked up another $2,922 just down the Interstate at the $13,125-added, two run rodeo in Casper, Wyo.

Morgan, a 2009 NFR qualifier from Eustace, Texas, was out in Friday morning slack at Sheridan.

"I knew when he was coming in that he was really, really running," said Morgan, who is sponsored by Cactus and SoundHorse Technologies. "We've been over running the first barrel a little bit, so I just bumped him. Usually I don't bump him because he's so ratey and turny. He sucked up the first barrel and had a smoking second and third. I knew it was going to be good, but I didn't know it was going to be THAT good!"

Unfortunately, she caught a barrel in the short round at Casper to place higher.

At the time of this interview on Tuesday morning, Shelley and her family—husband Rex, who has been with her the whole time on her summer run—and their boys Zach and Tanner—were en route to the Cheyenne Frontier Days. She had Nampa, Idaho, on Wednesday and could rest until the following weekend when the Utah rodeos started.

"I have to be picky what I enter with Radar," said Morgan. "We try to pick and choose where we go."

Radar, a 7-year-old gelding by Light N Lena out of Meradas Oh Kay, by Freckles Merada, has tricky feet to manage—he's a little lacking in the sole and wall department—and since Morgan put him in SoundHorse Technologies' glue-on shoes, the plucky gelding has been firing.

"I really believe the SoundHorse shoes (Victory Elites) we have on him have made a difference," said Morgan. "He's been a completely different horse since we've had those on him full time. I give them a lot of credit."

In Colorado Springs, the Cinch Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo Days was wrapping up its week long run. Although the rodeo wasn't PRCA-sanctioned, it was a WPRA approved barrel race and counted toward the WPRA World Standings. As added bonuses, the winner earned a bye into RFD-TV's The American and the BP Shootout at the conclusion of Rodeo Houston.

Stuntwoman Ann Scott and quirky gelding Fallin For Fame ("Buzz") got off to a rough start in the qualifying round when her stirrup broke running into the arena.

"I ride a trophy saddle that I won in like 1998, and I've been waiting for it to fall apart," she laughed. "BUT, I don't want to change anything because that's what I've always ridden in. I was coming down the alleyway and hit my stirrup on the gate and it just completely fell off—my right stirrup. I thought 'What am I going to do? Hold up the rodeo and tell them I need a new stirrup?' I decided that I was just going to hang on and turn him loose."

Last money hole in the qualifying was a .58 and she ended up one out with a .59, but was coming back to the progressive round during the performances.

From Colorado Springs, Scott went to Casper, where she hit the first barrel, and then on to Sheridan, where she was just a little long. Their next stop was Vernal, Utah, for the $10,000-added, one-run Dinosaur Roundup.

"We ran our fastest time ever on a Standard Pattern," said Scott. Their 16.81 was worth $4,215.

From Vernal it was back to Colorado Springs, where she and Buzz won their Friday night performance with a 16.98, the fastest run of the rodeo. With two ripping runs back to back, Scott chose to let Buzz rest and turned out of Estes Park, Colo.

For the finals at Colorado Springs, the top two from the short go got to make a second run for a $15,000-first place check. As the winner of the short go, Scott got to pick her ground position.

"They took us out in the arena with Boyd (Polhamus)," recalled Scott. "They asked me if I wanted to go first or second. It had been raining. The ground was a little hard so it was a little slick. It seemed like it was a little better after it had been ran on, so I said second."

Jody Sheffield was a 17.7 and Scott was a 17.4.

"I really have to thank my friend, Amy McClung-Robinson, who was with me and helping me drive," she said. "My horse is a total nutball, so there's not that many people I can trust him with. As soon as I ran my first run, I had to give my horse to her while I did an interview with RFD-TV and went in the arena with Boyd. After my second run I had to give back to her to cool him out while I got the big check and did interviews."

Her total haul from Colorado Springs was $16,000. All totaled, Scott won $20,215 on the week and jumped to 14th in the WPRO World Standings.

After making her run at Cheyenne this morning—she and Buzz

DENA KIRKPATRICK has trained barrel horses for over 25 years, producing countless top caliber money earners. Her methods are proven to build a solid foundation that produces consistent and fast one smooth-motion turns.

IAN FRANCIS is a legendary horseman from Australia and is often described as the best horseman in the world, winning titles in more events than any other. He has a remarkable ability to teach, coach and get the best out of every horse and rider he helps.

An official representative of the MR4 ActiVet Laser will be onsite for demonstrations and teaching.

SCHOOL OBJECTIVES

- Foundation and proper horsemanship before barrels
- Determining what your horse needs
- Improving rider-to-horse communication
- Analyzing and focusing on technique
- Instilling a solid foundation plan proven to build champions

THE RUNDOWN with Ali Armstrong

Mattsfreckledcowboy
7 Year old Bay Roan Gelding, 14.2 hands
HISTORY: He has a big personality, he is full of himself! He loves to play. I bought him when he was a 4 year old, & switched him to the left barrel first a little over a year ago. I have won $39,916 on him since we bought him in July of 2011.
DESCRIBE YOUR RUNS: My runs were smooth & very consistent, when he is smooth like that he usually clocks well.
FUTURE PLANS: My plans are to go to college and rodeo while I'm there. Then I plan to train barrel horses for a living.
BIT: Sherry Cervi square twist long shank, but I warm him up in a snaffle bit
HEAD GEAR: None
SADDLE: Martha Josey
SADDLE PAD: Schneider performance pads
LEG GEAR: Iconoclast sport boots
FEED: Heritage Performance made by Big V Feeds
HAY: Bermuda grass hay
SUPPLEMENTS: Animal Element detox, Oxy-Gen original formula
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Dr. Jill Beaty (Chiropractor), Kevin Sherman (Farrier), Dr. Leroy Howell (Vet) & Dustin Lucas (Dentistry)
SPONSORS: Iconoclast sport boots & Schneider performance pads

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“Don’t worry about tomorrow. God is already there.” That’s what a sign in a shop’s window read and I thought of the multitudes of people passing by and hoped they took it to heart.

Worry is wrong because it doesn’t see an all-sufficient God. God has promised that He will protect and provide for us. Whenever we worry about circumstances, whatever they may be, it shows we lack faith to take God at His Word.

God is not the author of worry. Only the devil would have us worry because it hurts our fellowship with God. The Bible tells us “the prudent man foresees evil and prepares himself” (Proverbs 22:3) and that’s a big difference from worrying about something. Pray about everything, do what you can and leave it in God’s hands. What satan intends for evil, God can turn to good in ways you can’t even imagine.

When you recognize worry trying to get into your mind, ask God to take it away from you and be careful not to speak words of fear and worry. Speak words of faith and praise for God and you’ll be amazed at what happens when the words of your mouth and positive rather than negative.

I urge you to rid yourself of worry and all anxiety. Then you’ll be free to live in the peace of God with a heart full of joy. Then no matter what happens, God will see you through.

Put your trust in an all powerful God and then enjoy the abundant life that Jesus came to give you!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
