Classy Cowgirl, Lisa Lockhart, Crowned Calgary Champion

The 2019 Calgary Stampede started off being dominated by palomino mares (and mares named "Sister"). In Pool A, Ivy Conrado and KN Fabs Gift Of Fame "JLo", a 10 year old palomino mare, won the first day in muddy conditions. Nellie Miller won the next two days on her 11-year-old mare, Rafter W Minnie Reba "Sister". Then as the arena dried out, the times got faster. On day four, Jessica Routier and Fiery Miss West "Missy", an 8-year-old palomino mare, impressed the nearly 20,000 fans with a run of 17.05 seconds. A couple runs later, Conrado ran a 17.01 which was only .02 off the current arena record of 16.99 (held by Tiany Schuster, 2017). Advancing to Showdown Sunday were Conrado winning $17,500, Nellie Miller at $17,000 and Routier and Jessie Telford both earning $8,000.

Pool B recorded even faster times as the reigning Calgary Stampede Champion and current WPRA World Champion, Hailey Kinsel tied the arena record on DM Sissys Hayday "Sister", an 8-year-old palomino mare, their first run. The following day, Jennifer Sharp and Six French Smooches "Smooch", an 8-year-old mare, stopped the clock at 16.96 to set a new arena record. But they would only hold it for a couple runs before Kinsel and Sister would set a new arena record of 16.93! Kinsel stayed consistently fast the next two days with runs 17.04 and 17.03 respectively. Her clean sweep of winning all four rounds earned her $22,000 while Sharp collected $11,500, Emily Miller earned $8,750 and Lisa Lockhart $7,500 which moved them all one step closer to the championship and that $100,000 first place check.

The six contestants in each Pool who didn't advance, came back for the Wildcard round on Saturday. It's a last chance opportunity with only the top two moving on to Sunday. Throughout the Calgary Stampede there were several horse changes in the barrel racing and it ended up being just what Callahan Crossley needed when she decided to run Amberleigh Moore's backup horse, Blue Duck Down "Ducky". They were a great fit for their first run ever, and the reining Canadian Champion won the Wildcard round with a

Copper Spring Ranch & Sherry Cervi Youth Championships Award $15K in Scholarships in 2019

Copper Spring Ranch is nestled in the Northern Rocky Mountains of Bozeman, Montana. This gorgeous ranch is owned by the Gilhousen family who strive to follow the true Montana ranching lifestyle in supporting the state's ranching and equine industry. The ranch, while boasting a contemporary style, is a true working ranch in that they raise cattle, hay, and breed, raise, and train American Quarter Horses. Their focus is on speed-bred and classic bloodlines.

The ranch hosts a variety of youth camps and clinics focusing not only on improving skills within rodeo but also on family and faith. These camps help mold young people inside and outside of the arena. No matter the discipline, Copper Spring Ranch wants to do their part in "paying it forward" in the equine industry so that this way of life continues for generations to come.

Sherry Cervi Youth Championships along with Copper Spring Ranch will be awarding an astonishing $15,000 in scholarships this year. The Sherry Cervi Youth Championships Scholarship program began last year and is continually growing. Both Sherry Cervi Youth Championships and Copper Spring Ranch strive to support the youth of our industry in order to develop the next generation of champions while preserving our Western heritage and lifestyle.

CSU equine veterinarians team up with the Daddy of 'Em All

In the last two weeks of July, rodeo competitors from across the country head to Cheyenne, Wyoming for the largest outdoor rodeo in the world, Cheyenne Frontier Days. For the third year in a row a team of equine sports medicine veterinarians from CSU will be there to provide top notch care for the equine athletes.

CSU will be on the rodeo grounds from 12-6pm on the Thursday the 11th and from 7am-6pm on Friday the 12th to provide veterinary care for the competitors horses. The CSU team will then return for the remainder of the slack from 7am-6pm on July 15-18 and from 10am-6pm on all performance days (July 20-28).

All standard ambulatory medicine is available for the competition and performance horses, including basic emergency care, lameness exams including radiography, ultrasound, shockwave and joint injections. Common systemic therapeutics will also be available. Chiropractic care will be an option on the 12th, 18th, 19th, 23rd, 24th, 25th and 26th.

CSU's equine team will be set up in Barn 15. When they are not busy with patients they may be located at the north end of the arena. The veterinarians are happy to work with the competitors' regular veterinarians.

The partnership between CSU is excited to and Cheyenne Frontier Days is an example of both organization's commitment to animal health. It is hoped that this ongoing relationship will provide the best for the equine athletes as well as foster relationships that showcase the care and wellbeing of the four-legged athletes

Days of '47 Cowboys Games & Rodeo Gets Underway Friday

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo presented by Zions Bank in Salt Lake City will kickoff rodeo action on Friday, July 19 with some of the top names in professional rodeo.

A total of 288 competitors will take their shot at a share of the over $1 million in prize money and a Gold, Silver or Bronze medal that will be awarded on Wednesday, July 24. There will be 32 competitors in each of the following events: bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, ladies breakaway roping, barrel racing and bull riding.

2018 Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo champions in all events will be back to defend their Gold medals including three that are looking for a three-peat. Bareback rider Wyatt Denny, saddle bronc rider Cody DeMoss and barrel racer Hailey Kinsel are hoping to go three-for-three at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo, but it won't be easy as they will face some tough competition with reigning Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA), Professional Bull Riders (PBR), World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) and College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) Champions ready to take aim at the title.

Although he has scaled back on his rodeo schedule, 24-time world champion Trevor Brazile will compete in Salt Lake City in the team roping. He and partner Trey Johnson will be looking to add their first gold medal to their trophy case.

A new event added in 2019 will be the ladies breakaway roping. The field is stacked with talent from WPRA world champions to college champions to high school stand-outs. The fans are sure to love this new event and will want to keep their eyes on 2016 WPRA Breakaway Roping World Champion Jackie Crawford. WPRA leading rookie of the year Taylor Munsell is coming off a dominate performance at the College National Finals Rodeo after finishing second at RFDTV's The American in February. Joining Crawford and Munsell will be reigning WPRA World Champion Kelsie Chace, Lari Dee Guy, JJ Hampton and Hope Thompson.

The barrel racing is likely to be the most electric event of the week with all three medalists back for 2019. Reigning WPRA World Champion Hailey Kinsel will be looking for her third straight title in Salt Lake, while Lisa Lockhart is hoping she can edge Kinsel this year much like she recently did at the Calgary Stampede. Brittany Pozzi Tonozi will also be looking to move up on the medal stand and will make the trip to Salt Lake City with husband Garrett Tonozi, who will be competing in the team roping. One can bet the barrel racing will not disappoint with great action each and every night.

The full field of 32 competitors in each event will be divided into four groups of eight each and will compete in one of the first four performances (July 19-20, 22-23). The top two from each performance, along with two via the Wild Card category will advance to the Gold Medal Round on July 24. The 10 competitors in each event in the Gold Medal Round will compete in a sudden-death format with the winner collecting a Gold Medal and $50,000 cash.

Tickets are still available at smithstix.com. For more information on the event visit www.daysof47cowboygames.com.

With the field set for Championship Sunday, it was expected to be an amazing day of barrel racing. Kinsel won the long round by one-hundredth over Lockhart who was riding Rosas Cantina Cc "Rosa", a 9-year-old mare. Nellie Miller was third, and Emily Miller was fourth, only one-hundredth ahead of Conrado. Just when it seemed the race was as close as possible, the top-four Showdown round proved otherwise. Due to ties in the past, the Calgary Stampede times to the thousandths of a second in the Showdown round.

Emily Miller ran first on her 9-year-old grey gelding Namgis D 33 "Chongo", led in by her dad Tom. She reached down to make sure the first barrel didn't fall and set the pace with 17.194, which was her fastest run in Calgary. Nellie Miller and Sister then recorded a time of 17.402. As it came down to the final two barrel racers, Lockhart and Rosa went to the lead with 17.116. Then it was Hailey Kinsel and Sister. The fans were extremely loud as they crossed the finish line in 17.119, and then came the realization that only three thousandths of a second had determined the Calgary Stampede Barrel Racing Champion.

Lockhart, who has ran at Calgary numerous times and won the title in 2015, said it was the tightest race she's ever seen there. She was filled with emotion as she was awarded the Calgary Stampede bronze and $100,000 check. "I've cried several times," she said the following day. "Sometimes it doesn't even feel like reality."

It was really special that her team of horses, An Oakie With Cash "Louie", Rosa, and Prime Diamond "Cutter" all played a part in helping her win the championship, and they all walked down the alley at Calgary together. Lockhart qualified for the Calgary Stampede after Cutter helped her win the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo, she rode Louie for three rounds in Calgary, and then she rode Rosa for three rounds. On Sunday, Lockhart's sister, Angie (who is also PBR World Champion Jess Lockwood's mom), was riding Cutter and leading Louie while helping Rosa stay calm and focused down the long alley at Calgary. "Looking at some of the pictures, it is cool to see that was my team and my sister was great help," Lockhart said. "We as barrel racers sometimes need help in these certain conditions so I was very thankful to have my sister with me." She laughed when she admitted that Louie was along because he doesn't like to stay at the stall or trailer by himself. And although Angie questioned if Louie might want to take off running down the alley, Lockhart knew otherwise. "He's a good boy. He just sauntered up there and it helped Rosa stay focused," she said.

While Lockhart describes Rosa as "an overachiever" and a horse that gets nervous, she said, "She's such an amazing athlete." Lockhart works hard to keep her focus and in turn help Rosa stay focused and as quiet as possible. That can be a challenge at Calgary where the fans love the barrel racing and get really loud. "I tend to believe we are a crowd favorite – it's a horse race and it's very simple for people to understand – and it's so exhilarating when you hear the crowd roar racing home from the third barrel," Lockhart said. Like most barrel horses, the more runs they make, the more they anticipate what's about to happen. "On our first run she was so good. I was quiet, she was quiet. By the time it came the final four, she was more apprehensive, her heart was racing I could just tell walking up the alley," she said. Lockhart knows her horses inside and out and she recognized the difference. "I worried about it just a little bit so we definitely didn't have as pretty of a run – our time was faster – but I was asking her for everything she had and it didn't matter what it looked like, just go as fast as you can possibly go."

The result was her second Calgary Stampede Championship! Lockhart earned a total of $107,500. At Calgary, all round money and $50,000 of the $100,000 first place check counts in the WPRA World Standings. It was an important win in helping Lockhart get back to Las Vegas for her 13th NFR and be in contention for a world title. In the WPRA World Standings following Calgary, Lockhart moved up to second. Kinsel, who won $47,000 at Calgary, is now number one. Nellie Miller won $27,000 but dropped a couple spots to third, and Emily Miller moved up to fourth after earning $23,750 in Calgary and is on track to qualify for her first NFR.

Lockhart left Calgary and made the all-night drive to Cheyenne where she ran Louie and advanced to the performances. With little to no sleep and only a McDonald's sandwich her sister grabbed for her before getting out in Billings, MT, Lockhart was looking forward to a couple days at home in South Dakota where her horses could get some rest before they head to Utah for more rodeos. Lockhart always makes her family priority, and she'll stop on the way to watch her son at the National High School Finals Rodeo. It's a lifestyle only those who live and love it can truly understand. "Oh my goodness, it's a whirlwind," Lockhart said about her phenomenal career. "It is very rewarding."

Following Lockhart's win in 2015, the Calgary Stampede recognized the character she has in and out of the arena and honored her with their most prestigious award, the Guy Weadick Award for her outstanding accomplishments in rodeo combined with personality and sportsmanship. This year with the arena record being tied and then broken twice, and three thousandths of a second ultimately determining the Calgary Stampede Barrel Racing Champion, it was a thrilling race in Calgary, highlighted by one of the nicest and classiest cowgirls you'll ever meet, Lisa Lockhart, winning the Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth.

Leia Pluemer & Famous French Bug Climb High at Pikes Peak Or Bust Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Leia Pluemer of Los Lunas, New Mexico, jumped eight spots in the WPRA World Standings with a $13,614 weekend. Her crowning achievement was a $11,719 championship at the Pikes Peak Or Bust Rodeo, held July 10-13 in Colorado Springs.

The uniquely formatted rodeo started with a $500-added qualifying round on June 30. The top 39 from the qualifier along with an invite to the defending rodeo champion advanced to a second round made up of four rodeo performances, held July 10-13.

The second round featured a purse of $9,000 with $2,250 paid to three places in each performance. The two fastest qualifiers from each performance advanced to the Championship Round. The top three from the championship got to make a fourth run for $17,000 of the rodeos remaining $21,000 purse.

With the qualifier on Sunday morning, Pluemer decided to forego entering the Reno Rodeo to avoid a possible travel dilemma from the short go in Nevada on Saturday to Colorado Springs on Sunday morning.

"There's no way you could make that. The short go at Reno was the 29th at 7 p.m. and Colorado Springs was the 30th at 10 a.m. There was no way you could do that and still have a fresh horse to run," explained Pluemer.

With a fresh horse, Pluemer and Famous French Bug ("Sis") made a "smooth, consistent run" of 17.541 to place fifth in the qualifier, earn $719 and advance to the second round.

Following the qualifier Pluemer and Sis hit the road for their Fourth of July run with rodeos in Greeley, Colorado, Cody, Wyoming and West Jordan and Oakley, Utah.

"I didn't win anything over the Fourth," she admitted. "My mare worked really well. She did her part; it was her jockey that didn't."

The following week, the big added money rodeos in Wyoming seemed to be a bust too. They hit a barrel at Casper and had slack cancelled due to extremely wet conditions in Sheridan.

"I was there for the slack," she explained. "There were 60 out of 100 girls in slack that had turned out. We were just going to run be-

Their next three runs would all be in Colorado Springs on Saturday. "I was hoping for the 13th when I qualified because I was entered up in some other places on the 10th, 11th and 12th and I didn't want to turn out of those," she explained.

Pluemer and her gritty 10-year-old mare started off the day by winning the final performance that afternoon with a 17.334 to earn $1,000 and spot in the Championship Round that evening. She was joined by Maddy Dickens, Kelly Yates, Carmel Wright, Ryann Pedone, Dona Kay Rule, Karson Bradley and Sidney Forrest.

Pluemer and Sis topped the Championship Round and she was joined by Karson Bradley and Kelly Yates in the Shootout. With just 30 minutes between her two runs, Sis turned in a 17.434 to win the Shootout for a $10,000 first-place check.

They capped off their weekend by placing seventh at the Laramie Jubilee Days Rodeo in Wyoming for another $517. Their weekend haul bumped them from 24th in the WPRA World Standing to just outside the Top 15 in 17th with $51,353.

A former college rodeo standout, Pluemer and Sis earned the Turquoise Circuit Permit Championship in 2017. They finished second in the circuit last year. Their $39,940 on the season placed them second in the WPRA Rookie of the Year Standings and 35th in the WPRA World Standings.

The experience last year has helped her mentally and her horse physically, she said.

"Mentally, we've got a much better idea of what rodeos we will be going back to, what they look like and what the ground is like. Physically, my mare is a lot stronger. She's a lot more confident in her running style this year," said Pluemer.

She's been partnered with Sis nearly three years. The product of a magic cross, Sis is by Frenchmans Fabulous ("Fab") out of the Dash Ta Fame, Bugs Alive In 75 mare Crickets Fame. Sis was trained by Frankie Drullinger, who bred the mare in partnership with Fab's owner Kenny Nichols.

THE RUNDOWN w/Leia Pluemer

Famous French Bug, "Sister" 15.1 hands, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Curb bit with a small solid port with a roller in the middle. "I couldn't even tell you. I bought it at a yard sale for $5. I carried it around for the last two years at the NFR and no one knows what it is. It's not stamped or anything. She likes it so we're sticking with it."

SADDLE: Tod Slone // SADDLE PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Rims all the way around

FEED: Triple Crown Complete // HAY: Homegrown Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Silver Lining Herbs

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track, Horsecare Ireland's Rambo Ionic blanket and boots and Sportz-Vibe. Massage therapy.

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "She doesn't see the barrels very often. We pony her or I'll ride her. We long trot for 20 minutes." During the summer run: "It's rest when I can. Even still when she has a day off, I'll take her for a walk or long trot her so she gets some movement."

SPONSORS: Best Ever Saddle Pads, Silver Lining Herbs, Rocking M Leather, Purcella Performance Drags, Ride Rodeo Naked, Stirrupz.

Pluemer wanted to thank Drullinger for selling and training Sis as well as her parents Greg and Julie, her summer driver, for their help and support.

Next up in her quest for the Top 15 are the $29,500-added-Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho, which is one round and a finals, the $12,000-added one-run Ogden Pioneer Days and the $20,000-added one-run Spanish Fork Fiesta Days in Utah.

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Last week we talked about me avoiding a woman in the grocery store...this week, let's talk about being avoided...Are there people who avoid us? Yikes! I hope not!

But, let's face it. We aren't perfect and we are not everyone's friend. I'm sure we all think that "to know us is to love us."

Gal. 6:5 Amplified Bible, talks about all of us having faults. Are we working on ridding ourselves of those faults, being more Christ like, or are we just floating along thinking we're all that AND a bag of chips?

When we talk to someone, are we always telling our "old story" and are people sick of hearing it? If Jesus is our Lord, we should be telling everyone about our "new story"!

How we are a new creature in Christ Jesus and that we have put on the new man. Col. 3:9-14. I promise you, the new me is a lot better than the old me WITH LOTS OF ROOM TO IMPROVE! And I want to improve.

I'm quicker to repent. I hold my tongue...longer. LOL! If we Christians are constantly moving toward Jesus, others who don't know Him will want what we have. Let's get to it!
