$100K Habit – Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Win Calgary Stampede Championship

By Tanya Randall

Hailey Kinsel and her gritty mare DM Sissy Hayday (“Sis”) are making habit of winning big checks—really big checks. At the famous Calgary Stampede in Canada, they added $121,000 to their already legendary resume that includes a $433,333 RFD-TV’s The American Championship, a $53,200 Days of ’47 Championship and a record-breaking $189,384 debut performance at the 2017 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

“She loves this as much as I do,” said the 23-year-old barrel racer from Cotulla, Texas. “The fun part of knowing her so well is that we’ve made every growing step together. I feel like I’m still learning things with her. I feel like we can continue to get better.”

With her horse in mind, Kinsel delayed the Fourth of July, foregoing rodeos like Reno, to save her horse’s legs in a plan to stay out longer and away from the baking temperatures in South Texas until early fall. Even though she was in Pool B—the second group to run—at Calgary, she had a modest Fourth of July Run, winning $10,081, without adding too many overnight drives and extra miles in the trailer for her horses.

Compared to many of her competitors, she had a very fresh horse for the Stampede. Using the mare’s eager speed, Kinsel was able to “give room” on her first runs and perfect them into near arena-record breaking times as the rodeo progressed.

“It was just one run at a time,” she said. “My first run, I just wanted to have a clean and smooth run. I wanted her to have a good experience. After that I could nit-pick where I needed to adjust. There’s no point in staying mediocre. I studied my runs to focus on where to start my turns and the angles I needed to take. With the fences and bucking chutes where they’re at, it’s a very odd feeling.”

Kinsel took advantage of the practice times in the arena to perfect her runs.

“She really stayed straight and true,” said Kinsel. “Anytime you ask a horse to make six runs in the same arena it’s a challenge. I took advantage of the practice times to reinforce boundaries. I just walked and trotted her through and let her see everything while it was quiet.”

After placing in first round, Kinsel and Sis won the next three with their final run in their pool, a 17.04, just 5/100ths back of Tiany Shuster’s arena record of 16.99 on Show Mance last year.

The dynamo duo had just one day to rest before Championship Saturday. With Kinsel’s father and brother joining her mother in attendance, the group went to watch the Wildcard Round, which included Kinsel’s boyfriend Jess Lockwood in the bull riding and her backup horse in the barrel racing with Ericka Nelson.

Days Of '47 Cowboy Games Get Underway July 19

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo presented by Zions Bank in Salt Lake City will kickoff rodeo action on Thursday, July 19 with some of the top names in professional rodeo.

A total of 256 competitors will take their shot at a share of the $1 million in prize money and a Gold, Silver or Bronze medal that will be awarded on Tuesday, July 24. There will be 32 competitors in each of the following events: bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding.

2017 Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo champions in all events, except bull riding, will be back to defend their Gold medals but will face some tough competition with reigning Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA), Professional Bull Riders (PBR) and College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) Champions ready to take aim at the title.

The full field of 32 competitors in each event will be divided into four groups of eight each and will compete in one of the first four performances (July 19-21, 23). The top two from each performance, along with two via the Wild Card category will advance to the Gold Medal Round on July 24. The 10 competitors in each event in the Gold Medal Round will compete in a sudden-death format with the winner collecting a Gold Medal and $50,000 cash.

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank, July 19-21 and 23-24, will take place at the $17.5 million state-of-the-art Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fairpark, custom designed and built for rodeo. The venue—an outdoor arena located in the heart of Salt Lake City—features over 10,000 stadium-style seats.

For only the fourth time in the history of rodeo, riders will have an opportunity to compete for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals. The first two times were in conjunction with the Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988) and Salt Lake City (2002), when rodeo was part of the Cultural Olympiad and the third being the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo in 2017. The medals that will be awarded at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo will be produced by OC Tanner, the same company that made the Olympic medals for the champions of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

Tickets are still available at smithstix.com. For more information on the event visit www.daysof47cowboygames.com.

For those unable to attend in person all the action can be seen live nightly at 8 p.m. MT on Ridepass.com with a subscription. RideTV will air each round, excluding the finals, nightly at 8 p.m. MT. CBS Sports Network will air a recap of each performance on tape delay with the first and second performances airing on July 20 and 21st, respectively at 8 a.m. MT, the third performance on July 22 at 7:30 a.m. MT, the fourth and fifth performances on July 24 and 25, respectively at 5 pm. MT. CBS will air a highlight show of the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo on July 29 at 11 a.m. MT.

PRCA, CINCH Announce New National Partnership

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and CINCH Jeans and Shirts have announced a new national partnership that will provide broad opportunities for the PRCA membership and create significant exposure for the CINCH Brand at selected PRCA events.

"We are pleased to be partnering with CINCH, a brand that embodies innovation and a commitment to excellence," said PRCA CMO Steve Rempelos. "Our announcement today puts into motion the largest new PRCA partnership in over a decade, and is a large step toward continuing the vision of the PRCA by providing new sponsorship to over 130 local PRCA rodeos so they can in turn support their communities and local charities."

As the premier sanctioning body of rodeo, the PRCA is constantly looking for ways to expand and improve the sport of rodeo. The CINCH partnership provides significant support to the PRCA's circuit system including both the contestants, as well as the rodeo committees. Additionally, more than 100 PRCA members professionally endorse CINCH Jeans and Shirts.

The multi-year CINCH commitment to the PRCA fits perfectly with CINCH's existing commitment to supporting youth and college rodeo, including long-term association sponsorships with the National High School Rodeo Association and the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

"We started as a small company with big dreams," said CINCH Marketing Manager Jessica Wahlert. "We're a lot like the youth and college athletes we've watched grow over the last decade. It's really important to us that we help put dollars in the pockets of those athletes who are now professional rodeo cowboys. We're excited about this long-term partnership with the PRCA, which will bring this all full circle."

Rodeo contestants and fans will see CINCH's national partnership for the first time in Colorado Springs. The Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo (July 11-14), which is sponsored by CINCH, is once again sanctioned by the PRCA.

"PRCA and CINCH are both committed to making rodeo as big and bad as we know it can be," said Rorey Lemmel, liaison to CINCH Rodeo. "When the opportunity to partner came available, it was a no-brainer. We're all about growing rodeo."

“God says if you have it to give, you need to give,” said Kinsel, who graciously loaned her backup horse Thunder Stones (“TJ”) to Nelson. They just missed making the Finals, by 1/10th of a second.

“I was happy to see her win some money,” said Kinsel. “I just remember saying to TJ, ‘Be good for her, please.’ Sharing horses is a scary thing to do because they only have so many runs in them. She rode him great for only having loped him through that morning. I was thrilled for her. It also gave me confidence that if I needed to get on, he’s right there with them.”

Decked in her American winning, arena-record breaking blue and white pinstriped shirt, Kinsel and Sis finished second behind Jessica Routier and Fiery Miss West in the Finals to advance to the Showdown. She described the run as “a little wilder” than her others.

“My first run wasn’t bad,” said Kinsel. “She hung a little behind the first and third. The angle (to the third) wasn’t bad, but she left a little soon and in the wrong direction. It wasn’t as fast as it could have been if it wasn’t for all the little mistakes.

She also added the ground felt a little heavier.

“Thankfully, they dragged half way through the round,” she said. “The arena director was behind that and he was pretty awesome.” In typical Kinsel fashion, she analyzed her run and planned to make adjustments for the Showdown.

“I knew I needed a little more pocket on the first so if it was heavy again, I could leave it faster. I also knew to hold her in the third a tick longer, so I could let her leave straighter,” she added. Running third in the Showdown, Kinsel and Sister edged fellow Texans and Texas A&M grad Kelly Bruner and SuzyTresSeis for the $100,000 Championship, of which $50,000 counts toward the WPRO World Standings.

“She came off the first a little long and had a little straighter angle to the second,” Kinsel said of their victorious 17.04. “I didn’t want to her to loop around on the backside of the second, so I sat back and asked her to comeback around. That’s not something you want to get in a habit of doing because it can cause (them) to hit barrels, but it worked that day.”

FUN STUFF: So how did a 5’4” cowgirl on a 15.1 hand horse get to walk-up and run to the Classic Rock tune “Long Cool Woman (in a black dress),” by The Hollies? The blame goes to her friend and Classic Rock buff Chaney Speight. “I was getting ready for the NFR and Crazy Heart Light & Sound made a post asking if you wanted a specific walkup song for the NFR, and I asked Chaney what song she thought had a cool intro. She suggested that song. It’s funny because I’m neither long or wearing a black dress. Sister isn’t even that tall.” Now, when fans hear the laid back guitar riff of the early 70s hit, they know it’s about to get fast--really, really fast.

Kinsel was very complimentary of the Calgary Stampede, from the arena director to the security guards.

“I get it now,” said Kinsel. “Everyone always says their favorite rodeos are Calgary and Houston. They are so friendly and make it easy for you to do your best. They don’t rush you or make it a hassle to get to the arena to practice. They go out of their way to allow you to do your best.”

The entire Kinsel family stayed in Calgary Sunday to celebrate the victory, which solidified her WPRO World Standing’s lead. It also changed her travel plans just a little.

“I turned out of Cheyenne,” said Kinsel. “I really wanted to run TJ there, but I didn’t want to put Sis in the trailer for 14 hours. All she had off was that Saturday. Maybe if I had run in Pool A and she had a few more days off, I would have done it. But, Cheyenne is always going to be there, too.”

She has Ogden and Spanish Fork, Utah, coming up as well as the Days of ‘47 in Salt Lake City, which is a World Champion Rodeo Association event this year.

fier himself, is a full brother to four-time WPRA World Champion French Flash Hawk and is the sire of two-time World Champion MP Meter My Hay.

Fiery Miss West, who carried Jessica Routier to a $15,000 third-place finish, is by Firewater Frenchman, a son of Fire Water Flit out of a full sister to PC Frenchmans Hayday, named PCFrenchmansLisbet. She is out of Frenchmans Bo Dashus, whose fourth dam is also Casey's Ladylove.

Rosas Cantina CC, ridden by Lisa Lockhart to fourth in the Showdown for $10,000, also traces to Sun Frost Casey's Ladylove. The daughter of Corona Cartel is out of NFR qualifier Dash Ta Vanila, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of the Frenchmans Guy mare SX Frenchmans Vanila. Frenchmans Guy is by Sun Frost and out of Frenchmans Lady, a daughter of Casey's Ladylove.

Taking it even further, Ivy Conrado banked $20,300 on KN Fabs Gift Of Fame, by Frenchmans Fabulous. By Frenchmans Guy, Frenchmans Fabulous is double-bred Casey's Ladylove as he is out of her daughter Casey's Charm.

Ripn Lady, who carried Carman Pozzobon to $18,300, is also related through her sire. She is by the Frenchmans Guy son French Hula Guy.

Lastly, Callahan Crossley picked up a round-winning $5,500 aboard Ciscos French Mirage, by Frenchmans Falcon. Like Fiery Miss West and Frenchmans Fabulous, Ciscos French Mirage is double-bred Casey's Ladylove with Frenchmans Falcon being by Frenchmans Guy and out of Frenchmans Bo Jet. Incidentally, Frenchmans Bo Jet, who produced Frenchmans Bo Dashus, is the second dam of Fiery Miss West.

All totaled, the descendants of Sun Frost and Casey's Ladylove earned $201,350 (61 percent) of the $330,800 rodeo.

Riley Shelton-Spargen and T Heart Two Oh Nine Win Glacier Chaser Classic Futurity

Riley Shelton-Spargen and her 5 yr old gelding, T Heart Two Oh Nine, won the Glacier Chaser Classic in Kalispell, MT over the weekend. The Glacier Chaser Classic marks the first of a number of late summer futurities in the north. We caught up Spargen to ask her some questions about her big win!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs in the Futurity? How did they compare to each other?

Shelton-Spargen: In the first go, the ground was a little tricky and almost got the best of us around the 2nd barrel, "Texaco" slipped and luckily I got my leg out of the way so we didn't hit it. I knew we lost a few tenths around it and asked him to run a little harder than normal to the third (he'll over run if we get going to fast...). I said whoa at the barrel and the gamble paid off, he turned it perfect. We ended up 8th in the round with a 17.8. The second go we were top of the ground and it worked for us. I just kept him calm, he walked in focused and made it look effortless. A few friends that watched it said they'd never seen a horse float a 17.4 in that pen!

BRR: What was your prerun mental preparation and warmup routine before your runs in the Futurity?

Shelton-Spargen: He's one of those horses that doesn't need much practice or time onlies. He spots the first barrel every time. I've also found the past few months to keep him away from the warm up pen and other horses. He's full of himself with a big ego and wants to show off in front of all the other barrel horses. He'll buck, fart, and get on the muscle where he's too aggressive in his turns. He also requires a full time "emotional needs" pet, which happens to be my derby horse and his BFF named "Quizno" (Kings Frenchmans, who won the 2D Derby average!). I do everything in pairs. They go from the stalls to the trailer together, to the warm up pen together, then Quizno escorts him to the arena to make his run and then we walk out together. My mom and hauling partner, Cindy Shelton, does a great job helping me mentally prepare. I have a high stress executive finance job in private equity real estate. My mom takes away my phone so I can't respond to emails/phone calls to keep me concentrated to do my job as a jockey.

BRR: Tell us about where your horse came from and what makes him such a winner.

Shelton-Spargen: Some good friends, Larry and Bonnie Blain, told me about Texaco the summer of his three year old year. All summer long Larry kept telling me to go ride this horse, that he was special and couldn't believe he hadn't sold yet. Finally come November, I made the 3 hour drive to go ride him. He'd been lightly started on the pattern by a cutting guy in Delta, Utah. I knew immediately he was the real deal. Long story short, my mom and I drove down in the middle of the night and bought him in the dark without a vet check. I spent the next year just riding outside and hauling to get him used to different placings. Come late summer, he wasn't wanting to turn his left barrels. We found a nickel size OCD lesion on his left hock. I was devastated. Dr. Beau Beck at South Valley Large Animal Clinic did the surgery to remove the lesion in September and I started legging him back up in December not knowing how he'd come back. We entered a few local jackpots early in the year with good success. We've now entered 3 futurities so far this year. The UBRA in Heber, Utah where we were right there to win the average but bumped a barrel. I think we ended up 10th at the SWDC in Salina, Utah. So I guess 3rd time is the charm, with him winning Kalispell! The Glen Wood Memorial is next on the schedule.

BRR: Does your horse have any special humorous quirks?

T Heart Two Oh Nine "Texaco, 16 hands
BIT: A magic one that's been in a drawer for 25 years!
HEADGEAR: Loose metal tie down
SADDLE: Pozzi Double J
SADDLE PAD: CSI
LEG GEAR: Classic Equine leg wraps and bell boots
FEED: Purina Strategy SX
HAY: Grass w/alfalfa as a treat
SUPPLEMENTS: Mineral Block
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Legend shots, occasion chiropractic adjustments
SHOES: Eventers on front, plains on back
CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIME: Lots and lots of galloping, slow work to the left (he runs to the right) once a week.

Shelton-Spargen: He's a big boy over 16 hands. He will throw a monster fit if he doesn't have a friend at the trailer. He screams like he's being murdered. Its really embarrassing... He loves being brushed and I have to pick him first to ride or he pouts.

BRR: How did you end up barrel racing and what do you love about the sport?

Shelton-Spargen: I've been riding horses since I can remember. My parents moved to horse property in Bluffdale, Utah in the early 1990's. As a 9 year old, I was paired up with a 4 year old green horse named Buddy. Without knowing anything but believing, I trained Buddy in barrels and poles during 4H practice. He was a natural athlete and carried me to several state and world level titles as a youth. He was also successful with my sister and mom over the years thereafter. I've also had success on several other barrel horses I've trained but have mostly been focused on my accounting/finance career. I tease my coworkers when I leave work each night that I'm going to my real job! Lately I've been working on building a better barrel horse string. I'd love to make the NFR someday!

BRR: Do you have a role model in barrel racing? Who is it and why do you look up to them?

Shelton-Spargen: I admire every one of us that is out there trying to make it work. It is not a sport for the weak, that's for sure! I am lucky to live in an area where there is a lot of talented trainers/jockeys for me to learn from (#snakepit!). I grew up down the street from Ryan Lovendahl and get to see the great ladies from the Wood & Parker families compete almost every weekend. I couldn't do this without the support of my husband, George, and my mom and dad!

BRR: If you could share one piece of advice to other barrel racers, what would it be?

Shelton-Spargen: Dream big, work hard, and be humble!

Climbing the Mountain -- Stevi Hillman and Cautro Fame Rise to the Challenge

By Tanya Randall

Stevi Hillman of Weatherford, Texas, continues to solidify her bid for a third straight Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualification with a $16,000 Championship at the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs.

"I'm just so grateful and thankful," said Hillman, who rode Jason and Melissa Mouton's Cautro Fame ("Truck") to victory. "God is good."

At Colorado Springs, all barrel racers had their first run on June 25 in a qualifying round. The 39 fastest runs, plus the defending champion on invitation, came back for a bracket-style rodeo, held July 11-14. The fastest two runners from each of the four performances advanced to the Finals, which whittled the field down to three for a Shootout Round.

Hillman qualified for the rodeo aboard Kinda Heavenly, a 5-year-old daughter of JL Dash Ta Heaven out of Kindabugginme, by Bug In My Frosty, that's owned by Jennifer Burgess.

"Last year, I won the first round at Colorado Springs, but I had to turn out because I was up in Calgary," she explained. "So, I couldn't comeback for my second run the Springs, which allowed someone else to get bumped back up. This year, I was one out and Taci (Betis, who finished seventh in the Qualifying Round) had to turn out because of Calgary, so that's how I got in to even make my second run. I think that is really cool; it's funny how God works."

She was especially pleased with Phoebe since it was only their second run together.

"It was neat to run the 5-year-old and have her hang in there like that," she said. "She tried so darn hard. It was pretty darn deep. I was so glad I ran her instead of Truck. I really didn't have any other options anyway because he was up in Ponoka."

After her qualifying run at Colorado Springs, Hillman flew back to Canada to run Truck at Ponoka before flying back to Colorado to run Phoebe again at Greeley. She met up with her husband and Truck for the South Dakota rodeos over the Fourth and hit Livingston before heading back to Ponoka for their Finals. Then it was back stateside, for Cody, Wyoming, and Oakley, Utah, before heading to Oregon for St. Paul and Eugene. She wrapped up her Fourth of July run at Estes Park, Colorado.

As the third high-money earner over Cowboy Christmas, Hillman's Fourth of July haul of $22,572 moved her into the Top 15 of the WPRA World Standings.

Unfortunately, there was no rest for the weary as Hillman was up in Casper, Wyoming on Tuesday and then came back to Colorado Springs for her second on Wednesday night. She and Truck won that performance and earned their spot in Saturday's Finals.

On Wednesday, she ran Phoebe at the Dinosaur Roundup in Vernal, Utah, and placed 10th for $564. She ran next at the Sheridan WYO Rodeo on Truck and picked up another nice check—a $2,651 for fourth before returning to Colorado Springs.

All totaled, her week netted her $19,215.

"It's been a crazy schedule," she said. "It's been me and Ty (her husband) driving the whole time."

On Monday, Hillman and Truck finished a couple of holes out of the money in the first round at the Cheyenne Frontier Days. At the time of this interview on Tuesday, they were on the road to Nampa, Idaho, for the Snake River Stampede, where she runs tonight. She's out at Salt Lake City on Thursday, so she has Wednesday off. She has Spanish Fork, Utah on Friday and then the long drive to Edmonton, Alberta, on Saturday.

"We are hoping to make the short round in Nampa for Saturday and then get bumped at Edmonton to Sunday," said Hillman. "As you can see, I haven't drawn up great this year—lots of extra driving."

Hillman has been extremely proud of how Truck has handled the road this summer, especially after overcoming a minor foot issue that delayed the start to her summer run. The 11-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding, out of Princess Streaks, by Streak Liaco Bird, has come up big when the runs really counted.

"We had some struggles getting gone for this summer," she said. "Several things, back-to-back, kept happening. I had to turn out of two rodeos that Truck had previously won—North Platte and Reno, so that was kind of discouraging. But, we kept trusting and kept going."

"(Truck) really feels good and back to running like himself. I'm so proud of him because Ponoka and Colorado Springs were two runs in one day. Normally, that's not what he's liked in the past. This year, he's really shined. It's like he's trying really hard. It's pretty cool."

A slow winter and slow start to her summer tested Hillman, but she said she and Ty had message from God that they had to trust, and now it's coming to fruition.

“When we were whining at home about Truck and not making Reno, and not having Sharpie, God told us we were going to do more with less,” she said. “At first, we were like what does that mean? As time when on, He just kept reminding us ‘more with less.’ We definitely put all of our eggs in one basket at Ponoka. He definitely showed us to trust Him at Ponoka and Colorado Springs. It’s been a pretty cool two, three weeks.”

HAY: Hay-Rite Cubes and some coastal grass
SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Gastro-Plex, Exceed 6-Way
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Equissage massage therapy, PHT blankets, icing legs.
CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIME: “I’m running almost every day, so I don’t ride Truck a lot. Rest is really important when the schedule is crazy like that. But, when you’re out here on the road and have days off between your runs, I believe your horse needs to be saddled up and rode, whether its just walking around or trotting. They still need to be rode when they’re not making a run. When you have four or five days off in a row and people don’t ride them, they don’t have the air that they should. When the schedule is crazy like it is right now when they’re in the trailer a lot, they need to get out and

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Pinkie swearing...it's probably the ONLY kind of swearing we need to be doing! (The Bible says so in James 3:8-11.) We recently issued a 30 day 'pinkie swear' challenge at The Barn.

Mike didn't know what pinkie swearing was...I didn't either until the grandkids told me. The rules? NO complaining. Just PRAISING. We are endeavoring to hold our peace. Can't complain about the weather, the traffic, our hair, our weight, the government, our job, etc.

Well, that pretty much put a stop to most of my conversations!!! Sheesh. But let's not focus on what we CAN'T say, let's talk about what we CAN do for those 30 days! PRAISE and THANK GOD for every blessing and good thing that we enjoy every day! There is so much to be thankful for!

It is just a heart change, a refocusing. I didn't say it would be easy. The first day of my 30 days I had to run into town. Gone about 20 minutes. When I headed home, I literally put my hand over my mouth because, REALLY YOU PEOPLE!!!! I didn't like the store clerk, the people driving in front of me, lights turning red before I got to them...are you seeing this?

I was embarrassed at myself! Several deep calming breaths later, I began to thank God! It's still GREEN in Wyoming. I drive a nice car. I'm healthy. I'm married to a great guy. I get to spend time with my Grandkids. I'm serving God...as we all should be.

Let's not let the news media frame our thinking and speaking. Let's let God do that. And in 30 days, we are expecting praise reports from all of you! Let's see how it turns us around for the better!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
