Reno Repeat for Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday

By Tanya Randall

Four-time WPRA World Champions Hailey Kinsel and her great mare DM Sissy Hayday captured their second straight Reno Rodeo Championship. The pair from Cotulla, Texas, picked up $14,834 at the 106th annual event, held June 20-28 in northern Nevada.

"It's an interesting place," Kinsel said of Reno. It was the only rodeo she entered last week so she spent the week in Nevada's Biggest Little City In The World. "It's a cool rodeo. It's old west-y. It's almost like Cheyenne. You need a tough horse because of what gets thrown at you."

Luckily for Kinsel, Sis knows the routine. She's made five appearances at the rodeo with two championships and two reserve titles. The rodeo's format has each contestant take their first round run in a morning slack with their second round being that night in a performance.

"She knows the Reno song and dance," she said of her 14-year-old campaigner. "I got to the grounds on Wednesday. I went in the afternoon before to ride. I watched the slack and then rode. That's your best chance to get in the arena there—after the slack ends and before they get ready for the perf."

"Obviously, Bob Tallman starts talking at 7 and Wayne (Brooks) at 6:30, and she hears it. Like normal, she pays attention to the perf and all and is very chill. The fireworks go off and I'm standing by more horses and they're like, 'Alright, typical day.' The next day I run in the morning, and she's looking around, like 'Yep. Been here.

Know the drill.' She digs in a little more and uses herself a little more during that slack run."

They posted a 17.05, their fastest run ever in the first round at Reno, to finish third in the round. That evening, Sis knew what was coming in the performance.

"We start getting ready for the perf. I feed. Typical routine," Kinsel explained. "When Bob starts talking at 7, that horse comes alive! Pretty much tries to knock the stall door down for the first hour and half of the perf. When I got her out and started brushing her, she got happy."

"She was waiting on me for the first hour and a half. She was like, 'I know I go!' The only reason she knows she goes is because we ran that morning. We were in exactly the same place and the night before she was kind of complacent about it. Then you rev the engine, and she's like, 'Oh yeah! we go again!'"

Even though Sis was a handful, Kinsel kept her routine, watching a few of the first runs in the performance from the roping box before making her run.

“When she goes in that night, I set her about the same place—three strides out from the first and drop my hand and she just stands up and places herself,” Kinsel continued. “She knows when we go in at night and it’s loud that the ground is going to be hard and firm and she can’t go bury up like she did that morning. I know so much of that is memory as much as it is sense of what’s going on that day. She started that perf knowing that we were entered that night and I think that’s just because we’ve done the Reno routine a few times.”

They clocked a 16.78 for another third-place finish in the round and the lead going into the short round on Saturday.

Reno is the only rodeo that still runs slowest to fastest in the finals, so Kinsel and Sis were going to be last out in the Finals on Saturday night.

“If you are last out and know it’s going to be a little bit junky and have some ruts—that told me what I needed to do,” Kinsel said. “Just ride smart. Get her to her spots and stay out of her way in the turns the best I can because she’s going to need to find her feet. That’s what she did. She was gritty. I was gritty. And it just worked out. I came in with a little bit of a lead in the average, but it wasn’t like I could kick back. The girls in front of me were laying down runs. I still had to go do my job, and thankfully, every time I do my job, she does hers without fail.”

The victory unofficially jumped Kinsel from fifth in the WPR World Standings to third with $82,659. Sis, the all-time richest performance horse with more than $3.3 million in earnings, has won the lion’s share.

The daughter of PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em, has drawn a check at every rodeo that she’s competed at this season: Mercedes, Houston, San Angelo, Fort Smith, Woodward, Vernal, Nampa, Elko and Reno.

“That’s been her schedule and she’s been 100 percent everywhere,” Kinsel said. “Reese (TR Judges Doll) grabbed a check at Pleasant Grove last week so that was handy.”

This season has been a little different for all the contestants as the schedule changed with more rodeos to go to in June. “It’s like, ‘Why am I tired? It’s only June?’ It’s because we’ve been going. Normally, I’m easing out here going to one a week. I still left early like I always do to get my Canada paperwork. I was going to leave anyway but not necessarily go to THAT many rodeos! I don’t even feel like I went very hard; I just feel like it was busier than it normally is. So it just seems weird.”

Kinsel started her summer, winning Woodward, Oklahoma, before heading West for Monticello and Vernal, Utah. She had her first runs in Nampa, Idaho—a rodeo normally in July—and headed south for Elko, Nevada—another rodeo that swapped to June—and then Pleasant Grove, Utah, before returning to Nampa for the short round.

She put all her eggs in the basket at Reno last week. “I just thought if I go there and it works, great,” she said. “If not, I don’t have to drive my butt off for a week before it gets busy.” Kinsel is currently hanging out at a friend’s house in Utah until she starts her Cowboy Christmas run. She doesn’t make her first run until July 3.

“I think I’ve got five rodeos in two days,” she said. “It’s a little bit morning and night, morning and night and then one more night. They’re all decently close together. I drew good. I’m just going to wham, bam, bam from the 3rd to the 5th.”

Her run takes her through the Gateway Rodeos of Cody, Wyoming, and Red Lodge and Livingston, Montana—all of which are at gateways into Yellowstone National Park. She’ll finish up through the Dakotas with Mandan, North Dakota, and Belle Fourche, South Dakota.

Kinsel will have one more rodeo stateside after her Fourth run in Sheridan, Wyoming, before pointing her rig north for the last set of the Calgary Stampede in Canada.

Seis Martinis & DaCota Monk Sweep Ruby Buckle West Futurity & Open

By Tanya Randall

Seis Martinis is making a habit of doubling her lifetime earnings with each futurity championship. At the Ruby Buckle West, held June 21-28 in South Jordan, Utah, the 4-year-old Tres Seis mare, ridden by DaCota Monk for Missy Jean Etheridge's Belle Terre Ranch, collected $57,000 to jump her lifetime earnings to $116,000.

"That would be amazing if she kept doing that," chuckled Monk, who trains in Emory, Texas. "We've got to catch up! I knew she was a winner, but we just had some mess ups. It's time to do it now and I'm glad she agreed."

Marti Jane and Monk topped the 214-entry, $280,000 Futurity for $33,500. They also won $23,500 and the Open 1D aggregate of the 626-entry, $600,000 Open 4D by a mere .04 over Caitlyn White and John Nielsen's Ruby Buckle Stallion Mr Soul.

Monk said the mare had been building toward this win since they left Texas in early June. He and Marti Jane were the reserve champions at the Run At The Rose Futurity and placed fourth the following weekend at the Colorado Classic. During his down week, Monk laid over in Spanish Fork, Utah, ducked over to Idaho to conduct a clinic in Idaho and headed into South Jordan the Friday before Ruby.

That early arrival gave him a chance to try new head gear on Marti Jane, who had been gaining confidence and running stronger with each futurity.

"One of the girls who was in the clinic told me there was a jackpot there on Saturday," Monk explained. "I thought that was a good idea because I had been wanting to try (Famous Lemon Drop's) bit on her. She won it."

Marti Jane was always challenging when it came to headgear. He'd had most of his recent success with the mare, including the BBR World Finals Futurity Championship, with an L&W locked O-ring. However, it was becoming apparent that he needed a little more bridle, so he wanted to try the little L&W gag that he used on the great mare Famous Lemon Drop.

"Before I left for the Rose, she was still being pretty rate-y at her second and third barrel," he explained. "I didn't feel like I needed to do anything different. At the Rose, she kept getting freer, running harder to her spots, but every barrel was different. Every run was different until her last run at the Colorado Classic. She was pretty free going up into her spots at all the barrels. I just felt like my reaction to help her and tell her was really delayed. So I had been working her and warming her up in Lemon Drop's bit, so I knew she really liked it because she's really weird about her face. I decided to try it in that jackpot, and I felt like I was able to help her but stay out of her way. I didn't have to help her as much."

When it came to the Ruby Buckle the following weekend, Monk just wanted to stay clean.

"I was tired of hitting barrels at the Buckles to win a lot of money," he chuckled. "I have to be smarter than this. I did figure out as she got easier the weeks before that I had to slow my body down at the barrels. I had been riding her so aggressive because as soon as I would tell her to get in there, she would try too hard. It definitely got easier as she freed up and I wasn't having to ride her so aggressively."

Monk thinks the biggest factor was the mare's confidence at the futurities themselves.

"She's always been confident at jackpots around the house, but when we'd go to the futurities, she would run reserved a little bit. She really liked the BBR pen but after that she went back to being a little bit reserved. So, it was cool to have her free up and be consistent at the futurities."

They won the first round of the Futurity at the Ruby with a

THE RUNDOWN w/Dacota Monk

Seis Martinis ("Marti Jane") 15.2 h, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: L&W with 1" gag with a twisted wire three-piece mouth with a copper roller, rope curb

SADDLE: Circle Y Jackie Jatzlau Treeless — SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine fronts only

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: Rice bran — HAY: Alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Gastro-Plex, Equinety, Wild Gold Omega 3 Camelina Oil, Serraquin ES15, Succeed

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Cold water spa, BEMER, aquatred, MJ Balm leg poultice

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "She gets worked on the barrels or poles twice a week. Other days she goes on the walker, or I just long trot in the pasture."

SPONSORS: JW Brooks Custom Hats, Wild Gold Omega 3 Camelina Oil, Double XX Equine, MVP, Equilume, Reata Equine Hospital, P&P Custom Designs, Hart Trailers, Classic Equine, L&W Bits, Caliber Equine, LLC, MJ Balm, Equinety, Two Knotted Mares, Riot Leather & Designs, Belle Terre Ranch, Beus Quarter Horses

15,800.

"That run was insane," he said. "It felt just like the run the Saturday before, just super sharp. She did get really tight at the second on the backside and we left it tight, but she stepped out going to the third. Sometimes when she does that, she won't have a sharp third barrel. Well as soon as I got her to backside (of the barrel) and asked her to come, she just smoked it. That was a really fun run."

Monk admitted that he got to thinking a little bit about the arena record before his second run, too.

"I kind of had that in my mind a little bit," he chuckled. "I messed her up a little at the first. Her cue at the first is still a little weird sometimes but I think she'll get better. I don't think she's ever ran as hard as she did to her second and third barrel. Even though we didn't have a good first barrel and the ground was a little heavy at the second barrel, she made up her time running to the third and home."

Marti Jane was originally purchased as a yearling by Chad Beus from her breeder Michelle Darling, who raised the mare out of her great Frenchmans Guy daughter Morning Traffic ("Martini"), an earner of nearly $500,000 in the arena. She was started under saddle by Logan Jensen before starting her barrel training with Monk and his sister Brittainy Hill, who patterned the filly. In March, she was purchased by Etheridge.

Monk said the mare is going to get a little break after her month-long haul. She'll just go to bigger, added money jackpots to stay sharp for the Royal Crown Futurity in August.

Montano and Repete The Beat Win Ruby Buckle Derby, $29K

By Julie Mankin

Riding her mom's 7-year-old mare, hair stylist Jamie Montano of Las Vegas, Nev., clinched a career win at the Ruby Buckle West in South Jordan, Utah, June 24-28.

"This honestly was so big and rewarding, to see all the blood, sweat and tears kind of pay off," said Jamie. "This past week has literally been a dream."

Montano's 15.870 aboard Repete The Beat ("Echo") won the first round of the Derby by more than a tenth of a second to earn $5,100. Despite a 16.4 in Round Two which Montano attributed to her own nerves, she still won the average on two runs, barely edging Bailey Alvarez to earn $15,300 total, while another $1,913 sent to both her mom, Kathy Montano, as the breeder and sire Repete Offender.

That 15.8 also placed second in the Open 1st Go for $4,080 and the two runs placed Jamie seventh in the Open average for another $2,208. Add to that her win in the first round of the Owner/Rider sidepot for $2,000, and the young mare earned the Montanos $23,588, plus another $2,949 to both Kathy as the breeder and for sire Repete Offender. Their total earnings at the Ruby Buckle Western Regional were $29,486.

"She's really good-minded," said Jamie, who works at a hair salon daily until 7 p.m. and then rides until midnight to beat the Vegas heat. "To warm up and ride, she is just the sweetest mare I have ever been around. She's a wide little thing; built like a tank."

Montano said she needs to drive Echo into the first barrel with two hands, and for second and third, stays careful not to move because the mare's so light that if she bumps her at all, she'll turn. Kathy Montano of St. George, Utah, raised Echo out of her own mare, Lane's Melody, out of another of her own mares. She trained her slowly, without entering any futurities. After Kathy hurt her back, Jamie became the mare's rider about a year ago.

"We get to train and ride together a lot even though we live a couple of hours apart," said Jamie. "The main thing was my mom just took her time and built her confidence and kept her so correct. That really made it easy for me to jump on her and go do what we've done on her so far. That's what Mom does with all the babies she starts. We want consistent and confident and happy horses. We don't rush anything."

Danyelle Campbell had bred Echo's sire, Repete Offender, out of her NFR mare, Repete Fame, by Fire Water Flit.

"Mom saw a video of Repete Offender that Danyelle posted from when he was about 3, and she decided she loved him," recalled Jamie. "Plus, we'd always loved Repete and the Fire Water Flit lines. Today, I think Echo is the perfect blend of her sire and the dam. That mare was just gritty — just a hard-running, hard-turning mare."

Jamie's father, a jockey, trained racehorses and Kathy almost made the NFR in the 1990s. Jamie herself trained Hesa Mr Moonflash, purchased by HighPoint and taken to the NFR under Wenda Johnson. Currently, Jamie's training a couple of other First Moonflash-bred 5-year-olds and recently bought a two-month-old foal by Adios Pantalones out of a ¾ sister to Pritzi Maker.

Repete The Beat

BIT: Medium-shanked locked Ed Wright two-piece snaffle

SADDLE: Masters — SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine or Iconoclast

SHOEING: Rims on hind feet; aluminum on front

FEED: Total Equine — HAY: free choice grass with alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Vitamin E

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: LameAway, mud and icing legs

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: We do a lot of walking and trotting warm-ups plus loping small circles. We don't show her the pattern unless she needs it. Mostly we just ride, making sure her hind end is underneath her, shoulders are up, she's soft in the ribs and soft to our hands and legs.

THANKS: The newest owner of Repete Offender has been so supportive of us! It's been really fun to have the backing of the stallion owner. And my mom and dad, for always being there and training amazing horses with me.

On Echo, she has another derby season to go and would like to dip her toe back into rodeos at some point. She plans to enter the American qualifier coming up in South Jordan.

"I'm also super excited to be breeding my old mare to Repete Offender," said Jamie. "She's a little granddaughter of Easy Jet and Band Of Azure."

Armenta Sweeps NJHFR on Hes Got Cat Style

By Julie Mankin

Taylor Armenta, 14, got sick on the thousand-mile drive from the National Junior High Finals Rodeo, June 22-28 in Des Moines, Iowa, back home to Bloomfield, N.M. But she had plenty of medicine in knowing she'd not only won the national barrel racing championship, but won all three rounds.

The NJHFR, which will move for the next two years to Guthrie's Lazy E Arena, was the first for Armenta to attend at the Iowa State Fairgrounds. Her folks figured she was in her final year of junior high and it was a good opportunity to showcase her good gelding, 11-year-old Hes Got Cat Style ("Thor"). She also breakaway roped in Des Moines but didn't draw very well, her mother said.

Taylor won both the long rounds out of 187 horses, each by more than two-tenths of a second when she clocked a 14.7 and 14.6. Then in the short round, she posted a 14.621 – the fastest time recorded all week – to edge Idaho's Saige Hartman by three whole tenths of a second. It won her the average and roughly $7,500 total in jackpot money. Taylor's no stranger to amazing runs – her family friends Byron and Mary Walker let her run Mary's world champion, Latte, one time at their home.

"In the past, Taylor kind of struggled in high-pressure situations," said her mom, Audra Armenta. "So, a couple of months ago, we hired her a mental performance coach who works with a lot of MLB players and pro golfers. She really dove into that aspect of mental performance and it's been a game changer for her to stay in control of her emotions and just execute."

Taylor's chestnut gelding, Thor, is by a son of High Brow Cat crossed on a Peppy San Badger/Doc's Lynx mare, and out of an appendix mare that was out of a great-granddaughter of Secretariat. The pair graced the cover of Barrel Horse News this spring after they won the Xtreme Million Arizona.

"I was nervous in the first round, but then not for the second or short rounds," said Taylor. "I don't know the word for it, but it just feels great to be able to have a horse that can do that, and I can jockey him and be capable of being the junior high world champion. I plan to qualify for the American and win the $2 million next April."

The Armentas bought Thor in February 2022, but he needed a full year off after tearing the deep digital flexor tendon in his right hind foot. He was purchased not far from their Bloomfield home from his trainer, Patti Carlile of Ignacio, Colo.

"Patti does a really good job making horses," said Audra. "They're really broke and really honest and do their jobs. It was pretty easy for Taylor to win on him. She probably won $55,000 on him while we were in Arizona this winter."

The family, who owns a construction business and does a little trucking, saves Thor for the biggest or highest-paying races. "The Des Moines arena reminded me of Cowtown in Fort Worth," said Audra. "He just wants to go in the arena and work. She can run him as hard as she wants to the first barrel and he just eats it up. He's real turny, but a free runner between the barrels."

Taylor's mom ran barrels when she was pregnant with Taylor, so you could say the soon-to-be high-school freshman has been doing this a while. In fact, as a toddler she drove her mother crazy wanting to be horseback all the time, until they bought her a pony when she was 2.

"We joke around that Thor is my best friend," said Taylor. "In his pen, he tries to cut me and wants to play, running me up and

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

This week, take some time and put your eyes on them. In every one of them, we win. If the news station tries to put fear in you, read them and be encouraged in the Lord! John 16:33. Psl. 23. 1 Pet. 5:9-10. 2 Cor. 1:3-4. 1 Pet. 5:8-11. Romans 8:31-39. These are just a few.

Be mindful this week of our freedom and let the Word of God carry you through this year, ever victorious in Him!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

It's 4th of July week! What does that mean to us? Liberty. Liberty means 'free from restraint'.

My dad was a navigator on a bomber in WWII. He never talked about it until I was older. It is humbling to hear what men and women sacrificed for the freedom of the United States. Dad enlisted at 17. I think you must be very fierce at 17. Bible scholars say that David was a teenager when he killed Goliath.

This life we live is a fight. There is always something that will try to steal, kill and destroy us. His name is satan. John 10:10. BUT GOD! In the Bible, there are MANY scriptures that reveal God's will for us. Psl 34:19 says, "Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them ALL!" I'm going to list a few others here.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!
