More Than A Dream – Bertina Olafson & Alive N Smashing Win Calgary Stampede

By Tanya Randall

When Bertina Olafson took up the sport of rodeo, she had one goal in mind—to run at the Calgary Stampede. Now she's the first Canadian to win the coveted barrel racing championship since World Champion Lindsay Sears in 2008.

"This is a dream," said the Hudson Bay, Saskatchewan, barrel racer from the arena stage before accepting her $50,000 cheque. "This is actually more than my dream. My dream was just to compete here, so to win it is just amazing!"

Olafson comes from a family of chuck wagon drivers. When her cousin Evan Salmond got his first invite to race at the Calgary Stampede, she decided she wanted to run there too.

"I said, 'I want to make it into Calgary.' My cousin said, 'Well, how do you get there?' So, I looked up the format. I said, 'Well, I have to rodeo and I have to be pro.' So that's really how we got started going to rodeos—to get to the Calgary Stampede," she explained. "My driving force this whole time was to get to Calgary."

She even took a copy of one of her barrel racing photos, auto-graphed it and placed it amongst her cousin's signed Calgary event posters.

"He took it down because it didn't go with anything," she laughed. "I said, 'Well I guess I'll have to make the Calgary Stampede one day and get you that poster!'"

Now she's likely to be on one.

The Duke

Olafson was saddle shopping on the Internet when she found her steadfast equine partner Alive N Smashing ("Duke") as a weanling. The son of Cathy Dickey's Frenchmans Guy, Marthas Six Moons stallion Ante Up Guy out of Lucks Affair, by Lucks Running Bug, was listed on an eBay-style equine website by his owner Leanne King.

"I just stumbled across him and thought, 'That's the horse I want!'" she said. "I actually purchased Duke as a stallion prospect. When I got Duke, I was just going to casually raise a few foals. I bred him when he was 2 and then I gelded him because I knew I wanted to keep him for myself to ride."

Although she had grown up competing in gymkhanas, Olafson had been out of barrel racing for nearly two decades while raising her family when she purchased Duke. She and husband Jason, an oil field consultant, have two grown children Breana, 26 and Justin, 25. When she decided to raise barrel horses, she started going to clinics figuring, "that I'd better get better at barrel racing if I was going to sell barrel horses!"

Her first clinic was with multiple NFR qualifier Molly Powell, who's mom was a Calgary Stampede champion. She also attended several with Calgary Stampede Champion and multiple NFR qualifier Sue Smith.

"Sue Smith is the most influential person who has helped me along," said Olafson, who stands the Frenchmans Guy, Dash For Perks son Perks French Cash at her Sky's The Limit Performance Quarter Horses. "I really respect and appreciate Sue for all the help she's given me over the years. Sue's probably one of the best horsemen as far as understanding a horse."

She recalled a comment Smith had made at one of her clinics that she completely understands now.

"She was talking about how you have to let good runs go just as fast as you let bad ones go before you're making another run," she said. "You can't live in those moments; you've got to keep going forward. But, the Calgary Stampede, she said, 'I live that moment over and over.' I can see why! It's such an amazing experience!"

Duke's first competition experience was the same as Olafson's. She started the gelding off in gymkhanas as a 4-year-old before moving on to aged events.

"I didn't know anything about futurities, but I took him and he did really well," she said. "We did derbies and then we started rodeoing amateur."

They advanced to Canadian pro rodeos in 2018 winning rookie of the year and qualifying for their first Canadian Finals Rodeo. They made it again in 2019. Unfortunately, Canada has no pro rodeos in 2020 due the COVID-19 shutdown.

"The last rodeo we ran at was a year and a half ago at the CFR," Olafson said. "After Covid hit, Duke had a few runs in 2020 through jackpots but otherwise sat on the sidelines. He had four runs at jackpots coming into Calgary. He's the type of horse that it takes a few runs to get him revved up. So, I figured it would take him the first two days for him to get the feel of it all."

Dream To Reality

Olafson's dream came true on her very first run at the Calgary Stampede.

"I was thinking when that run was over 'There, my dream is complete,' because that's all I dreamt about, was making that run through the alley and getting in that arena," she said. "That's all I ever wanted to do. Even warming up that more it was very surreal to be there and look around. It was a very cool moment."

As she figured, it would take a few runs for Duke to chip off his rust. They placed in all four rounds of their poll and advanced to Championship Sunday with $12,250.

As the lone Canadian to advance from the Finals into the Showdown, she had an entire country behind her.

"That last run when I came around the first barrel was the first time I heard the magnitude of the crowd, the arena, everything," she said. "It was just amazing. The other days I pretty much blocked everything out. I could hear it way in the background and was just focusing on my runs. In that run everything just came together. I felt that whole arena."

Running second on the ground, she and Duke posted their best time of the rodeo to win the $50,000 Showdown Championship.

"That last run I didn't even pick up my whip," Olafson said. "I don't wear spurs. He was just running and I was just hanging on. He just ran for that crowd that day. He was pumped."

When they finished their run, Olafson stopped Duke up the track away from the hustle of the arena to keep him calm. In doing so, she couldn't hear what was going on back at the arena.

"You can't hear the times back there," she explained. "Brittney Barnett had gotten off her horse and was walking back up the track. I thought Britney must have beat me. I didn't know I had won it until they were yelling at me to get up there. It was a good surprise. It was so crazy!"

Olafson wanted to thank her family for all their love and support as well as her sponsors.

"It's amazing," she said. "I don't even think it's fully sunk in yet. I don't even know what to say. It's just an amazing feeling."

"Even though Calgary was a lot less than it is in a normal year, I did get to experience what I wanted. It's just me and my horse and those barrels, and that's what I wanted, so I got to experience all of that. It didn't matter that we didn't get to take in everything else. Who knows, maybe we'll get to experience it all again another time!"

Jessica Routier & Fiery Miss West Top 5 With Pikes Peak Or Bust Championship

By Tanya Randall

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jessica Routier and her great mare Fiery Miss West, owned and bred by Gary A. Westergren, jumped to fourth in the WPRA World Standing with a $15,508 Pikes Peak Or Bust Championship in Colorado Springs.

"I'd never been there before, but I think she likes it," said the mother of five from Buffalo, South Dakota.

Routier's Colorado Springs championship actually started with a qualifying round on June 28, the Monday at the start of the Fourth of July run. The top 39 contestants from the qualifier joined the 2019 Pikes Peak Or Bust Champion in the four rodeo performances, held July 14-17.

After the first four contestants fell during qualifying, the judges stopped to have the ground reworked.

"We didn't really know how it was going to be after they reworked it," she said. "We didn't have a terrible week before the qualifier, but we didn't have our best. I think she was just so determined to make a good run that day that it was going to happen no matter what the conditions! She made an awesome run and won the qualifier."

Routier also commended the efforts to improve the ground.

"They went above and beyond to make the ground good, which we so appreciate," she said. "They brought a tractor in and that wasn't getting it done, so they went and found a Caterpillar with the big teeth so they could rip up the hard pan. I really feel like they went the extra mile to make sure it was good and safe for everyone. That was really nice to see. It's nice when it's not a contest to see who can stand up in the end.”

Routier started off her week of Colorado Springs, in Casper, Wyoming, on Wednesday night. A storm came through Tuesday night and footing was still wet for Routier and Missy’s run. Although the ground got drier and faster throughout the week, they still placed in the first round there and qualified for the short round but turned out because more money was at stake in Colorado Springs.

Following their first run in Casper, they made a quick trip north to Sheridan, Wyoming, where they placed ninth and picked up a nice $1,389 check. From Sheridan it was down to Colorado Springs on Friday night, where they won their performance.

“She continued to run great,” said Routier. “I had heard the ground was a little bit dry and it would be a big advantage to be out first or second on the ground. I think we were 5th but it rained that afternoon before our performance so the ground was actually really good the night I made my second run.”

With Colorado Springs being a bracket style rodeo, the top two fastest times from each of the four performances advanced to an eight contestant Finals. The top three from the Finals went to the Cinch Championship Shootout.

Routier and Missy finished mid-pack of the top three with Jimmie Smith and her newly acquired mount Manny Dot Com leading the way and Ashley Castleberry and Calfee Stormy Dash following.

With only three contestants in each event, Routier said they had less than an hour between the two runs.

“It was the fastest eight to three round I’ve ever experienced in my life!” she said. “The other two stayed in the warm arena behind the rodeo arena. I just feel like my horse doesn’t ever really relax if I keep her up there. It’s a bit of a walk back to the trailer but I took her back. I took her leg wraps off, gave her a drink of water and

SHOEING: Rims on front, plains on back

FEED: Woody’s

HAY: Grass, alfalfa mix

SUPPLEMENTS: Zesterra mineral and liquid, Top Performance Equine ulcer supplement from her mom, Silver Lining Herbs as needed

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PEMF therapy, XLR8 blanket

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: “Right now, there’s really not more than a couple of days off between runs so I try to let her relax. If there’s more time between runs I just try to ride her outside away from the arena, around the cows and up and down hills—things to relax her mind.”

SPONSORS: Westergren Quarter Horses, Martin Saddlery, 5 Star Equine Products, Zesterra, Silver Lining Herbs, Cowgirl Tuff, Woody’s Feeds, Ultimate PEMF Therapy, Whinney Wear, Dakota Western Bank, Badlands Distillery, Rodeo Rigs, Hay Chix, Hinman Custom Performance, Equi-Racks, Rahn Performance Equine, Thunderbird Brand

unsaddled her. It wasn’t that hot but I wanted to let her cool off as much as I could. I think I only had the saddle off for five minutes. I wanted to start getting ready when the bareback started. They flew through it. By the time I got done saddling her back up and walking back up there they were finishing the saddle bronc riding and it was just three calf ropers then us. It went really, really fast!”

They turned in their best run of the rodeo to take home the $12,500 first-place check. Overall, Routier and Missy collected $17,439 on the weekend to sit fourth in the WPROA World Standings with $53,812.

Routier said her season didn’t really start until the RAM National Circuit Finals in Florida this past spring because there weren’t as many winter rodeos to go to as usual.

“We went to Florida again and won some there and that got us in a decent position,” she said. “After that I didn’t really go in the spring. We had kids rodeos and stuff like that to go. I didn’t really start going again until the week before (the Colorado Springs) qualifier. She’s been great the last few weeks. She’s really made some good runs and moved us in the standings.”

With the big bump in the standings, Routier is hopeful that she’ll only have two more big trip weeks before she can finish her season in her home circuit. She has Nampa, Idaho, Ogden, Utah, Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Spanish Fork, Utah, this week.

“This is probably my second to last big trip for the summer,” she said. “I usually go down for the Kansas run the first week of August and I plan on doing that this year. Other than that, hopefully these next couple of weeks go well so I can be home when school starts again in the fall and not have to go too far once that starts.”

Cooked to Perfection.

The way horse feed should be.

For over 35 years, HYGAIN® feeds have been perfected with painstaking attention to every detail. Our feed range includes a not-so-secret ingredient: the Australian Sweet Lupin, a soluble super fiber that is low in starch and sugar with high energy sources for optimal conditioning with more control.

Made in an equine-only manufacturing facility for product purity with no cross-contamination, each of our feeds is formulated to deliver optimal health, enhance nutritional value, improve palatability and increase feed efficiency.

Samantha Flannery & Lenas Smooth BF Tad Top 5-State Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Multiple futurity champion trainer Samantha Flannery got her first 5-State Breeders Futurity Championship with Deloris Adamson's homebred 5-year-old mare Lenas Smooth BF Tad. The duo picked up $7,654 for winning the $30,000-added Futurity, held July 15-18 in Rapid City, South Dakota.

"I've had a horse entered every year since it started," said the Mission, South Dakota, based trainer. "I bet I've been every single placing but first! I'd always go in there thinking this is the horse I could win it on and not thinking run per run. I've always had bad first go's and had to play catch up in the second round."

Aboard Tad, Flannery nearly got the sweep of all three rounds. She and Tad won the first round with a 17.186.

"When I turned the third barrel I just started smiling," she said. "That was a good run. She was just hauling the mail!"

She won the second round with a 17.455 and had the two run average lead going into the short round.

"I knew I was half-a-second ahead," she said. "I knew I just had to keep them up. She's fast enough that I didn't have to lay one down. I sure didn't want to make a mistake trying to be a show off. There was just a little bit of handling going on out there. She still ended up third in the round and I was pretty tickled with that."

Flannery said that Tad's a "fun" and "easy" mare.

"She's a neat mare," she said. "She's got a ton of heart, a ton of grit. I don't know if I want to say she's arrogant, but she's pretty full of herself. You can kind of see it when you watch her come up to the gate in the videos. She's raring to go! Let me at 'em!

"I think the biggest thing we have to watch is that she doesn't get too fat! She loves to eat. I kept taking the hay bag away an hour to two hours before she ran and that had her miffed!"

Tad, who is by A Smooth Guy, is out of Lenas Last Streaker, who Flannery also rode for Adamson.

"I've known Deloris forever," said Flannery. "She really took me under her wing as a granddaughter almost in some ways. She was a cutter. She'd always say I'm going to get you a barrel horse. I always told her don't worry about it because my hands were full with kids and work. I just always thought I would get some cutter. Then she bought Lena."

Bred by Brian Fulton, Lena is by A Streak Of Fling out of Easy April Lena, by Doc O Dynamite. She was the high seller at the 2014 Fulton Prospect and Performance Horse Sale commanding a bid of $26,500.

"I sent her a text to tease her because she bought the high seller," laughed Flannery. "It was a little bit of a joke. She told her husband that she liked that horse. She did not know he was going to buy it! She was about half miffed that he bought it, but she was also excited. She told me she hoped I had a spot on my schedule."

Flannery won a couple of futurities on Lenas Last Streaker in 2017 and Tad was born via embryo transfer a year earlier.

"Tad's not a whole lot like her," she noted. "Lena was humble and big strided, really smooth. Tad's a little more full of herself, a little pushy and quick strided."

Flannery also made the short go on a second horse by A Smooth Guy, A SouthDakota Smooth, owned by Julie Wetering. Trained by Cheslie Cunningham, Dakota found himself in Flannery's hands after Cunningham got hurt right before the BBR Finals in late April

"I ran him cold turkey at the BBR Finals and Ruby Buckle. We didn't win any money, but he did good. I took the month of May to get to know him. This sucker is really cool. I'm pretty comfortable on him now."

The 4-year-old buckskin gelding is a three-quarter brother to BFA Super Stakes Champion Frenchmans Perks, who is by Frenchmans Guy. Both horses are out of the Perks Alive mare Our Blue Velvet.

Flannery said she really thought Dakota could win the futurity short go.

"I really thought the (he) could lay down the fastest run of the weekend and I wanted him to have a chance at it," she said. "He's really stepping up to the plate."

What's In A Name

Lenas Smooth BF Tad is an oddly put together name, but each of it's four parts have special meaning to her owner and breeder Deloris Adamson.

Lenas is for her dam Lenas Last Streaker, a daughter of leading barrel horse sire A Streak Of Fling out of Easy April Lena, a daughter of Doc O Dynamite and full sister to Rachael Myllymaki's NFR qualifier and Calgary Stampede Champion Easy Does It Doc.

Smooth is for her sire A Smooth Guy. The late son of leading barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy is out of the Dry Doc, Jet Smooth mare Docs Movida.

BF stands for Brian Fulton. When Adamson purchased Lenas Last Streaker at the Fulton Performance Horse Sale, Fulton wanted to 'no sale' the filly, but agreed to let Adamson have her.

Tad is for legendary cowgirl Tad Lucas. An inductee to both the National Cowgirl Hall Of Fame and Cowboy Hall Of Fame, Lucas was known as the world's greatest female rodeo performer prior to the formation of the GRA. Her fame came as a bronc rider and trick rider. She grew up in Adamson's hometown of Cody, Nebraska.

"Dee wanted this mare to be as tough and gritty as Tad Lucas, and she is," said Samantha Flannery.

WNFR® payout climbs to record $13.3 Million

The ProRodeo Cowboys Association's 2021 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® will see an increase in the payout at the world's largest rodeo in December.

The Wrangler NFR, which returns to Las Vegas Dec. 2-11, will have a record-setting competition payout of $10,257,048. This amount includes guaranteed prize money of $1.2 million for all NFR qualifiers and $9,057,048 in competition prize money.

Between 2015 and 2020, the NFR paid out a total of $10 million – $8.8 million in competition prize money and $1.2 million in guaranteed prize money to qualifiers.

The increase will see round winners take home $26,997 per round and average winners earn $69,234. Each go-round will pay a total of $87,087, while the average total will pay $261,261 per event.

The stock contractor pay – which is 30% of the contestant payout – is increased to $3,077,114.

After taking place at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, in 2020, the Wrangler NFR will be back at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas this year.

Known as the richest and most prestigious rodeo in the world, the Wrangler NFR attracts the top 15 contestants in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding to compete for a share of the increased purse and the coveted PRCA Gold Buckle.

WCRA Announces $360,000 Major Event in Ft. Worth

WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) today announced that the final leg of the 2021 Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) will culminate at the historic Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas December 15-18. The WCRA "Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo" will air on the CBS Television Network on Saturday, Dec. 25 (2:00 PM, ET) and stream live on Paramount+ Premium. The event will have no entry fees and will payout more than $360,000 with $40,000 guaranteed per discipline.

"Bringing a WCRA Major to one of the most historic rodeo districts has been a bucket-list item since our inception," said WCRA President, Bobby Mote. "For the first time ever, America will be able to wake up Christmas morning to world-class rodeo as Western sports will now join the holiday broadcast ranks alongside nationally televised events like the NBA and NFL."

Nominations for the Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo Leaderboard (Segment FW21) are open until November 28 at 11:59 p.m. CT. The top 24 timed event athletes and the top 24 riding events athletes on the leaderboard at that time will qualify for the event with the No. 1 athlete on the leaderboard in each discipline being automatically seeded into the showdown round on December 18. The No. 1 athlete will also be given the opportunity to compete in the progressive rounds without risking their seeded position.

A total of 24 athletes (eight athletes per night) in each of the nine disciplines will compete in the December 15-17 Progressive Rounds with the top two fastest time or highest score in each discipline of each performance advancing to the Showdown Round. The six qualifiers from the progressive round along with the WCRA Leaderboard No. 1 will create for a total of seven athletes competing in each discipline of the December 18 Showdown Round. The top three fastest times advance to the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round where the fastest time or score will walk away with a minimum of $12,500.

Fans will be able to mark their calendars for a multi-day holiday shopping experience in the heart of the Fort Worth Stock Yards. A week-long festival complete with shopping, food and time with family will be available to fans looking for a hometown holiday experience. Information regarding the western weekend bonanza and on-sale ticket dates will be announced in the coming weeks.

The TCR is an annual bonus that will pay $1 Million to any one eligible athlete or collection of eligible athletes who win the Event Championship and place first in the same discipline of any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos.

The TCR bonus will be available to all athletes from around the globe who nominate their current competitive efforts through the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) and earn a minimum of 15 points on the Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo leaderboard.

All information regarding the four-day event can be found at HERE while all questions regarding entries, and nominations can be directed to support@wcrarodeo.com.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $9,000,000 in new money to rodeo athletes. All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA or the VRQ should be directed to wcrarodeo.com.

Star-studded class inducted into ProRodeo Hall of Fame

The wait was worth it for the ProRodeo Hall of Fame Class of 2020.

After the ProRodeo Hall of Fame induction ceremony was canceled last year because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the award-winning, eight-member, 2020 class of inductees got their moment in the spotlight as they were enshrined in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame Saturday.

Inductees included Cody Ohl, Graded Coconut, Jim & Julie Sutton, Butch Kirby, El-lensburg, WA rodeo, Sunni Deb Backstrom, Randy Witte & Martha Josey.

Josey rewarded for all-around work

Many Women's Professional Rodeo Association world champions credit Martha Josey with helping them achieve their goals.

On Saturday, Josey's talents and those she helped discover landed the 11-time NFR qualifier in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

Josey made the NFR 11 times on six different horses across four consecutive decades. She won the barrel racing world title in 1980 on Sonny Bit O' Both, the same year the duo also won the AQHA World Championship, a feat that's never been duplicated.

A highlight of her career was competing in the rodeo exhibition during the Cultural Olympiad at the 1988 Winter Olympic Games in Calgary, Alberta, winning an individual bronze medal and helping Team USA win the team title.

"This is such an elite bunch of people who are being inducted this weekend," Josey said. "I'm just honored to be with all of them."

Josey, born in 1938 in Longview, Texas, was a true all-around cowgirl, riding bulls and broncs, cutting horses, tying goats and roping calves while competing in all-girl rodeos. In 1969, Josey won the reserve all-around world championship title in the Girls Rodeo Association.

Not only did she make a name for herself in the arena but also gave back to the sport through her countless clinics. She and husband, R.E., started conducting barrel racing clinics in 1967 at their ranch in Karnack, Texas.

Her clinics have grown to average more than 2,000 students annually with students ranging in age from 5 to 80, and many return yearly to participate in the annual Josey Reunion Barrel Race.

Josey enjoyed her days leading up to the induction ceremony.

"The whole highlight is getting to see so many people and getting to see the beautiful city of Colorado Springs again because I rodeoed in this part of the country so much," she said. "Everything has been so wonderful."

WCRA Announces 2021 Days of '47 Cowboy Gams & Rodeo Finals Roster

Ahead of the 2021 Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo (D047), the World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) and the D047 Committee have announced the final roster of the 288 athletes (eight athletes per performance) who have qualified for the July 20-24 event and their date of competition.

The D047 is playing host to the second stop to the WCRA's Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) during the 2021 series and will have a guaranteed payout of $562,500. Each champion will walk away with a minimum of $25,000 and a D047 Gold Medal.

The roster is comprised of the top 24 timed event and rough stock athletes on the WCRA VRQ leaderboard along with a total of eight D047 Committee qualified athletes (5 athletes from Association Standings and 3 athletes from medalizing at the 2019 event).

Caleb Bennett (Bareback Riding), Will Lummus (steer wrestling), Kolby Wanchuk (saddle bronc), Kaleb Driggers (team roping-header), Junior Nogueira (team roping-heeler), Hallie Hanssen (barrel racing), Riley Webb (tie-down roping), Joao Ricardo Viera (bull riding), and Josie Conner (breakaway roping) all earned the No. 1 position on the leaderboard to be seeded into the Gold Medal Round on July 24.

The following eight athletes are entered and eligible for the Triple Crown of Rodeo - a $1 Million bonus to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos:

Bareback Riding: Richmond Champion

Saddle Bronc Riding: Kolby Wanchuk

Header: Kaleb Driggers

Heeler: Junior Nogueira

Breakaway Roping: Madison Outhier

Barrel Racing: Maggie Polonic

Tie-Down Roping: Riley Webb (Two Consecutive Wins)

Steer Wrestling: Will Lummus

17-year-old Riley Webb is fresh off his win at May's Rodeo Corpus Christi, the event marked his second consecutive WCRA Major, putting him in contention to be the youngest millionaire in the history of rodeo. If Webb triumphs on July 24 at D047, he will be the first victor of WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo.

Athletes in each of the nine disciplines will compete in the preliminary performances starting July 20 with the fastest time or highest scores in each discipline advancing to the gold medal round. The three fastest times or highest scores not already advancing will also advance to the gold medal round.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A way from the normal this last two weeks has yielded time for me to hear Him more. We truly are living in a pressure cooker. And we need desperately to know and to obey the Word of God. Ask yourself? Just exactly WHAT do I know and WHO do I believe?

There are a lot of voices out there. Some are good. Most are bad. You and I must be absolutely certain of what we believe. Not what your church says. Not what the news says. Not your best friend. HIM. . . .we need to know HIM!

How do we do that? Well, let's say that for years you believed that God takes babies to heaven because He needs them. Where is that in the Bible? It's not. So why would we believe that lie?

Maybe you believe you had that horse wreck so God could teach you something while you were laid up. Where is that in the Bible? It's not. If we are God's children, we need to be absolutely certain of what He says so we are never deceived again. We must believe His Word over what WE think or feel, what the NEWS reports, or what my denomination has taught me. HIM. . . .we need to believe HIM!

The only way to do that is to read the Bible for yourself. Prove to yourself with the Word what and why we believe what we do. It'll take some work. But we aren't afraid of work are we?

Check your thoughts. Prove to yourself the goodness of God, not that He is a punisher. Heb. 11:6 says He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. Rewarder, not punisher. See how easy it is to make a switch?

Go on the adventure of changing what needs to be changed and rejoicing in the truth you know!
