Molly Otto & Teasin Dat Guy Make A Clean Sweep at 5-State Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Teasin Dat Guy, trained and ridden by Molly Otto for her owner and breeder Katie Lindahl, made a clean sweep of the 5-State Breeders Futurity in Rapid City, South Dakota. Wins in both rounds, the short go and the average of the futurity were worth $9,520.

The futurity is only open to offspring of enrolled stallions standing in North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana and Nebraska. It was Otto's first time to have a horse eligible to compete at the event.

"I didn't even know there was a short go when I got there," she admitted. "I was looking at entering the open and a friend made the comment, 'Oh, you're probably going to make three runs anyway when you make the short go on Sunday.' I said, 'There's a short go?'"

Teasin Dat Guy, named Chewy for her impressive demolition of her herd mates tails, turned in a 17.229 on a WPRA Standard Pattern to win the opening round and followed it up with a victorious 16.975 in the second.

Lindahl, who was unable to attend the event, was shocked to learn of the 16.9.

"When she ran that 16.9 on a Standard Pattern, I couldn't believe it!" Lindahl exclaimed. "I always joked that she was going to be kind of slow. I thought she would end up being my kids horse or something!"

For the short round, Otto knew she had a time advantage to play with but wanted to ride with the same focus that got the two previous round wins. The result was another victorious 17.073.

"She just worked so good," said Otto, who hails from Grand Forks, North Dakota. "She was really honest and made nice, smooth runs. It felt really easy. She ran right to her spots. I didn't really have to help her much. I just have to sit up there and go for a ride."

Lindahl raised the daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of her Blazin Jetolena, Juno Dat Cash mare Teasin Jetolena. Lindahl bought Teasin Jetolena right after she finished her nurse anesthetist schooling as a way of getting back into barrel racing.

"I thought she was nice enough to breed," Lindahl explained. "I always wanted a Frenchmans Guy but couldn't afford one that was already on the ground. I did an embryo transfer with her so I could stay running her."

Lindahl had dreamed of training and running her homebred herself, but she quickly discovered it was going to be a bigger undertaking than she had expected. She had tried to gain some experience with Sixappeal ("Jimmy") but ultimately sent him to Otto to campaign.

"I convinced my husband to let me buy (Jimmy) when he was a 4-year-old off the track," she explained. "I thought he'd be a good practice horse for me to get my feet wet with the futurities. I didn't really know a lot about them."

About that time, the Lindahl and husband Dustin had bought a farm and added two small children to their family all the while she was working fulltime.

"I realized I was in over my head," she said. "We didn't even have an arena for me to be even training a horse, let alone any knowledge, so I ended up asking Molly to take him. That kind of opened my eyes to how involved the futurity year is. It's such a big, important year in a horse's career, especially for a mare if you want her to have some earnings behind her name for broodmare possibilities. If I wanted to do it right for Chewy, Molly needed to be the one instead of me."

With Chewy, Lindahl had Nettie Baker start her under saddle. When the mare returned home her husband, a member of the Sheriff's mounted patrol had even used the filly as a 2- and 3-year-old on some of his patrols. Yet when it came time to train her for barrels, Lindahl called Otto.

"When Molly got her last year, I didn't think she was going to run until she was 5 because she's not very big and probably wouldn't be ready," said Lindahl. "I couldn't get her to lope a circle and I sent her to Molly and asked her to tell me what she thought. I swear it was two days later she sent me a video of her on the pattern! She said, 'I think she'll be ready next year!'"

Otto, who started riding Chewy last July, said the mare was a natural.

"Her first time out she broke an arena record," said Otto. "It was just a local jackpot, but I had the previous two arena records there, one horse went to the Canadian Finals and the other won a lot at the pro rodeos."

Otto says Chewy's own introduction to the pro rodeos during the Fourth of July run actually made the mare more confident at 5-State.

"After I hauled her to a bunch of rodeos over the Fourth, I feel like that built her confidence," she said. "After going to all these different places and different setups and then going back to the futurities it's such a controlled atmosphere and different environment, she was like 'Oh, this is easy! All of a sudden she just felt so solid where it was easy to just sit up there. She's such a nice horse!'"

Lindahl says she grateful for all Otto has done with Chewy, and Jimmy too.

"I'm so grateful to Molly for dedicating her time to taking great care of my horses and going the places I ask if she's willing to run," she said. "I'm grateful she's sound after getting cast that first night at Ruby Buckle. We didn't know if she was going to be sound to run there or the rest of the summer. Every run, I'm just so thankful for."

Lindahl also said she plans to leave both horses—Chewy and Jimmy—with Otto to see how far she can take them. She's hoping that both horses can qualify for the American Semifinals, especially after Otto and Jimmy finished one spot out of making it to AT&T Stadium for RFD-TV's The American this year.

WE ARE HONORED TO JOIN some of the top breeders in the country to bring a select group of horses to the Copper Spring Ranch sale. This will be our last sale in Montana and with the help of our consignors we plan to make it the BEST EVER! Because we weren't able to have our 2020 Futurity, Copper Spring Ranch Sale Graduates will be eligible for a $10,000 Sale Graduates Bonus at our 2021 $15,000 Open 2D Futurity in New Mexico.

FACE THE PAYMENT

2019 Sorrel Stallion

out of FRENCH FANCY FACE, by Frenchmans Guy

This is one of our best prospects yet! This colt's Dam, French Fancy Face, has LTE of $20,000+.

She was a 1D money earner at almost every barrel futurity entered. In addition, she's an outstanding roping and ranch horse.

His dam 'Fancy', is a full sibling to Futurity Triple Crown Winner, SX Frenchmans Vanila, LTE $225,000+.

FACE THE PAYMENT is smart, balanced, and beautiful. He'll be a versatile horse that will excel in any event.

Sabra O'Quinn & Slicks Lil Amigo Set Arena Record at Ute Stampede Pro Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Rodeo ground that looks and acts like jackpot ground makes for great barrel racing. Sabra O'Quinn of Ocala, Florida, and Slicks Lil Amigo made the most of the great ground at the Ute Stampede in Nephi, Utah, with an arena record run of 16.86 to win $2,647.

"I had never been there before," said O'Quinn, who was out in slack. "I got to watch two or three people, and I thought, 'This looks like jackpot ground.' It was so nice to not have (the ground) in the equation. I'm so grateful to the committee for putting in the extra effort."

O'Quinn, who makes an annual rodeo and futurity run throughout the West each year, hadn't planned on running 6-year-old Amigo as much as she has this summer. When she got to South Dakota to start her summer run, her good mare Bring It On Guy ("Nosey") accidentally injured herself.

"I was letting her roll in the grass because she was so happy to be back in South Dakota, where she was raised," O'Quinn explained. "She got loose from me and it took us about 30 minutes to catch her, which was a disaster. She ended up hurting herself. She's fine now, but I wasn't able to ride her for two or three weeks. I was like, 'Well, Amigo, you're going to have to step it up, Dude!'"

They picked up checks at Belle Fourche, South Dakota, and Oakley, Utah, over the Fourth of July, but have tipped some costly barrels along the way.

"He would have won Cody," she said. "It was just a timing deal. I needed just two more inches on my second barrel. I hit a barrel to be really good at Vernal. I can't fault him one bit."

At Nephi, she says she was determined to ride Amigo more correctly and she accomplished that goal while besting the arena record by two tenths.

Amigo is a fourth generation barrel horse and represents three generations of the barrel horse program raised by his breeders Charlie Cole and Jason Martin of High Point Performance Horses in Pilot Point, Texas.

He is by High Point's million dollar barrel sire and champion performer Slick By Design out of their homebred mare Bough Chicka Wowwow, by Bully Bullion. Bough Chicka Wowwow is a daughter of AQHA World Champion Barrel Horse Rockette Ta Fame, by Dash Ta Fame. Rockette Ta Fame is a daughter of AQHA World Champion Rods Last Ladybug,

THE RUNDOWN w/Sabra O'Quinn

Slicks Lil Amigo "Amigo" 15.2 hands, 1,100-1,200 lbs.

"He's a good, average-sized horse."

BIT: Troy Flaharty square-mouth snaffle for indoor pens. Dave Elliot for the larger, Standard Pattern runs like the one Nephi.

SADDLE: Ancient Mike Green

SADDLE PAD: Impact gel

LEG GEAR: White polo wraps on all four

SHOEING: Aluminum on all four

FEED: Triple Crown Complete

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: HorseLogic Healthy Gut, Formula 1 Noni

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: MagnaWave

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Just saddle time. At home I have a little race track.

Out here, I just try to keep them rode. If I do any barrel work, it's really slow stuff, just keeping him soft.

SPONSORS: Wrangler, Triple Crown Feed, HorseLogic Professional, Robbie Phillips Saddles

by Sharp Rodney.

Rods Last Ladybug is a full sister to FQH A Sharp Move ("Boomer"), the horse that drew the legendary showmen to the rodeo arena. Boomer was Cole's personal barrel horse. He and Martin lent the horse to Charmayne James, who won her first Cheyenne Frontier Days Championship on the gelding.

Deanna (Mixon) Pietsch purchased Amigo as prospect from Cole and Martin in January 2017. O'Quinn started riding Amigo at the end of his third year and spent her first three months on the gelding away from the pattern.

"I just really backed up and took my time," O'Quinn explained. "They were patient with me. I really took care of him with guarded hands so to speak. He's so talented and so fast, but he has a sensitivity chip."

O'Quinn's main focus was total control of Amigo's mind and body.

"I'm all about mechanics and really teaching horses how to move their body parts," she said. "I teach this in all my workshops and people get tired of hearing me say it. I want to control my horse's body parts—their feet, their minds. I want to have complete control."

"We backed up, went back to walking and trotting and I got control of the body parts. He had to go backwards before he could go forwards. I had to put that on him because he's so fast and so sensitive. I think that was the gamechanger."

Amigo's first futurity with O'Quinn was the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas, in May 2018.

"My goal was to just let him cruise through there and get some confidence," she said, "and shoot, he won fourth or fifth! He did spectacular! We just took him to certain places and didn't really run him a lot as a futurity horse. He still did pretty good. He slipped with me in Utah and broke my ankle, so he missed the Pink Buckle and Oklahoma City and all of that."

O'Quinn eased Amigo into rodeo competition last year. He got his first win at Heber City, Utah, with a 16.8, making just his second run on a Standard Pattern at a rodeo. He's also done well on the short courses, like winning a round at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas, for the Houston Finish this past May.

"He just seems to be getting more solid," she said. "Honestly, his whole career, if I give him the right opportunity and do my homework and can prepare him for certain situations, he can just about handle any situation. He's quite the blessing."

Amigo will get one more run at Spanish Fork, Utah, this week before O'Quinn gets back on Nosey. She's got a futurity horse to run in Spearfish, South Dakota, this weekend before pro rodeos at Deadwood, South Dakota, and Phillipsburg and Dodge City, Kansas. Following Dodge, she has an all night drive to Fort Smith for the postponed Old Fort Days Futurity.

"This is his last year there," she said. "I don't want to miss that opportunity for him. He's made the finals both years he's run there as a futurity horse and as a 5-year-old."

O'Quinn wanted to thank her significant other Tom Clark and Scott Fleming for taking care of things at home, Amigo's owners, her sponsors and the rodeo committees and event producers.

"You need to thank all these producers and rodeo committees who have stood up and given us things to go to," she said. "They're having to deal with more parking, more contestants, more slacks, more help and it's not an easy deal."

MEET SOUL KITTY...

Sabra O'Quinn is typically hauling alone with her entourage of horses. Her only companions in her truck are her dogs, one of which is actually a cat, Soul Kitty.

Soul Kitty was the sole survivor of batch of kittens O'Quinn "rescued."

"I don't have cats," she said, "and he was so little I didn't have any choice but to take him with me. He could fit in my hand!"

While Soul Kitty isn't the only feline hauling companion on the rodeo road, he is the most dog-like in the fact that he roams freely.

"He gets out, goes and potties and walks himself like a dog," O'Quinn said. "He knows his trailer like a dog. If somethings going down or something is going wrong, he's heading to the trailer at Mach 10! He was raised in it. It's really all he knows."

Soul Kitty will meet O'Quinn in the driveway when he hears her truck, eager to be on the road.

"It's crazy really," she said. "He's like my buddy. He's a good little cat. I call him Soul Kitty because you know how some animals just find you? He's my little friend."

Senior Rider over 50: Cathey Vallegra.

Junior Rider 18/Under: Makayla Clarey

Adult Rider Race Ages 19-49: Jandee Smart

Appreciation Race for Riders who have been to over 6 Clinics: Jandee Smart

Target Race Fast time comparison on 1 and 2nd go round: Mary Jo Camera

Kalyn Brooks Memorial to 4D Winner: Cassidy Engelhardt.

A standard set of barrels and three go rounds certainly can add challenges to competition.

Giving contestants a chance to test their skills on larger patterns with the pressure to make consistent clean efficient runs is what the Team Camarillo Barrel Racing Classic competitions are all about. Over $60,000 in Cash and Awards are distributed over the three day annual event established in 1991 to honor and showcase students of the Sharon Camarillo Better Barrel Racing Clinic Programs. Students were allowed this year to bring an invited guest who had the opportunity to experience the venue and share in the awards.

The Fast time of the weekend was set in Round One, by Lower Lake California seasoned competitor Kathy Vallegra with a rapid 17.523, but the Average for the third time in three years was once again Myrtle Point Oregon Cowgirl Olivia Train and her great mare Ought to Streak, "Streaker." This has been a strange year for our professional rodeo contestants. Qualifying for the American and the Ram National Circuit Finals, Olivia set off early in the year for Texas to get ready for her 2nd American competition, planning to hang in Texas for rodeos and jackpots before heading to Florida. Then along came Covid-19 and home went Olivia, disappointed she didn't get a chance to run at some of the bigger rodeos amassing the money she would need to give the NFR a chase in the 2021 season.

Woman's Professional Rodeo Association California Circuit Rodeo Finalist and former WPRA California Circuit Director Stacey Freitas from Galt California riding Fairlea Lucky Gun finished a close 1.593 on three runs behind Olivia Train to win the 2D.

Klamath Falls Rikki Silva riding Juicy stopped the eye in time to take the 3D Awards back to Oregon. Rikki is currently finishing her Masters in Education with plans of becoming a teacher.

20 Year old Cassidy Engelhardt, a 10 year student of the Sharon Camarillo Better Barrel Racing Clinic program and close family friend rounded out the Divisional Champions by riding her green 6 year old, Odair in his first big outing to the the 4D Championship. Cassidy is a Business marketing Major and a long time supporter of the Sharon Camarillo Better Barrel Racing programs. Cassidy also won the Kalyn Brooks Memorial Award presented to the 4D Champion in memory of a past 4D Winner Kalyn Brooks.

Each of the Divisional Champions won a Sharon Camarillo BRX Barrel Racer with matching Breast collar, supplies of MVP and Equithrive. The Grand 1D Champion was also presented a $4000 Spectra Laser horse blanket from owner John Stephens, Presented by Breck Phillips.

Our Team Camarillo Eastern Barrel Racing Classic will be held in Cloverdale, Indiana September 25-27, 2020. For additional information to SharonCamarillo.com

On Sunday, Aug. 29 fans will be able to tune into Stampede At The E on a CBS network broadcast.

All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA should be directed to wcrarodeo.com or contact support@wcrarodeo.com

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $7,300,000 in new money to rodeo athletes.

The GREATEST GIFT you can give to somebody is your OWN personal development.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Joshua 1:6-7 tells us, "Be strong and courageous, for you are the one who will lead these people to possess all the land I swore to their ancestors I would give them. Be strong and very courageous." Does that describe you and me?

Courageous? Or are we fearfully watching the news to see what calamity is next? Courageous! The right answer is courageous!! LOL! Of course you were going to say that, right?

Well, we must ACT on our faith, not just give it mental assent. We must stand up for what's right. We must be the light in the darkness. God is, and has, all the answers. It's up to us to speak them out. It's up to us to walk fearlessly when others are so afraid.

If we know someone that is afraid, we need to help them recoup, regroup, refocus and push forward! The life of faith and victory is not for the fainthearted.

If we didn't have what it takes to live in these times, God would have had us born in another time! Think about that!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
