SPEEDHORSE February 2026 1

A Golden Return for Adios Pantalones & Tricia Aldridge at Salinas' California Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Tricia Aldridge's golden stallion, Adios Pantalones, is back on top of the pro rodeo game with a $14,420 victory at the $52,000-added California Rodeo, held July 16-19 in Salinas. They've also unofficially cracked the WPRA's Top 15 with a projected $65,485 in season earnings.

"I'm so excited he's feeling so good," said Aldridge of the 6-year-old stallion, who missed the late winter and spring run due to injury. "He's come back so good. He's won a check at every rodeo but one since he's been back."

The California Rodeo showcased the stallion's incredible consistency and honesty. The set up is extremely challenging with four straight days of runs on the narrow racetrack while other events compete simultaneously in the infield arena.

"That's a very tricky setup," said Aldridge. "It's hard when people are like running at you from the other side. He's pretty forgiving, so when he kind of gets a little bit off track it's easy for me to follow back through, and he's fast. He just makes up for it."

They split fifth in the first round with Hayle Gibson-Stillwell and Buncha Dinero on identical runs of 16.27. A 15.97 got them third in the second round. They got seventh-place money for a 16.18 in the third.

"The third round, I was pretty impressed that I got a check and that he was still a .1, because he definitely took a hard right detour running to the third when they (the team ropers in the infield arena) were running at him. It's crazy!"

Aldridge also modified her start, opting to set up a little to the left of the third barrel for her approach to the right barrel, to compensate for the extreme narrowness of the track.

"Last year, I had a little bit of trouble there and caught barrels. The approach is kind of weird. You have to start a little over (to the left for a right first or right for a left first) just to have a better angle, where you can stay a little more forward. It's so important to leave your first good there because it's only like two or three steps across to the second. It's tight!"

Aldridge and Adios went into the short go second in the aggregate and were second to last out of the drag halfway through the round. They were the only team to go under 16 seconds with a 15.98 to secure a nearly .6 victory in the four run aggregate.

Adios, the all-time leading money earning stallion as well as all-time leading futurity horse with career earnings approaching $1.1 million, fractured a hock back in February.

While surgery successfully repaired the injury an amazing breeding opportunity to send semen to Brazil, which required a quarantine, delayed the start to his summer run and ultimately left him unable to cross into Canada for the Calgary Stampede. (Horses had to be out of the state of Texas at least 21 days prior to crossing.)

"He's just so fun and easy to run," Aldridge said. "He's such a team player. He loves his job so much I definitely missed having him at some of those places because he did so much to earn those spots."

Adios, a son of Tres Seis out of the Frenchmans Guy mare French Bar Belle, made his return to the arena the Reno Rodeo.

"He's been out here a month and won $30,000," Aldridge said. They've picked up checks at the Reno Rodeo, at Cody, Wyoming, Livingston, Montana and Oakley City, Utah, over the Fourth of July and Sheridan and Casper, Wyoming, the week prior to Salinas. "I know he can do it like those top horses can. It sucks coming from the back again but he's catching up pretty fast.

"This year I do have a couple of other horses that I'll be running so that will help keep runs off of him. I just don't want him to have to make that many runs if he doesn't have to. He doesn't have anything to prove, and he always comes through for me. I just want to take him to the places he likes, where he's the most confident and can be the most successful."

Aldridge has Blazin Sugar Daddy ("Preacher"), the stallion she rode at the Calgary Stampede, in her arsenal as well as Designer-leaptoheaven ("Penny").

$16,750 Championship for Caitlyn White & Mr Soul at NFR Open

By Tanya Randall

Wilderness Circuit Finals Champions Caitlyn White and Mr Soul topped the NFR Open at Pikes Peak or Bust, held July 14-18 in Colorado Springs. They collected $16,750 at the rodeo for each year's circuit and circuit finals rodeo champions.

"I was super proud of Mr Soul," said White, a barrel horse trainer from Spanish Fork, Utah. "He just knows when to step up. Honestly, I was so thankful to just be there and compete with who I competed against."

The NFR Open splits the 27 contestants into three sets of nine. Each set makes two runs and the fastest three in the aggregate advance to the Final.

White and Mr Soul were out in the last set, so they had three runs in a row. They were second in the first round of their set on Friday night with a 17.31. (Lisa Lockhart took the round with a 17.11, the fastest run of the event on Rosas Cantina CC.) A 17.35 got them a third place check on their second run in Saturday's matinee performance. They were third in the aggregate on their set to just make the cutoff to advance to the one-run, sudden-death finals on Saturday night, where they clocked a 17.31, their fastest yet of the rodeo, to take the title.

"He was super consistent through all three of them," she said, recalling her runs. "I put a little pressure on myself the first two runs, but as soon as I knew that I made the top three to get into the Final... I just went in and let him do his thing. There was no pressure. I was just super thankful to even make the Finals and run against who I was running against. So, I had zero expectations. I just stayed out of his way and let him do his job. He just knew to step up."

White started riding Mr Soul four years ago. The son of the late leading barrel horse sire Furyofthewind, out of the Dash Ta Fame mare McKaizlees Kiss, won two races on the track and was a finalist of the Jake Kapp Memorial Stakes, Wyoming Downs-Renegade Sport Derby and The Plan Handicap for breeder John Neilsen.

Mr Soul took up his second career in the arena with White's friend Taylor Kramer, who jockeyed the stallion. At the end of his futurity year, Mr Soul fractured his hock and was given a gracious amount of turnout time for recovery.

"My friend had moved out of state at that point," White explained. "I got a hold of her to see if she knew of anybody out here that was just kind of looking for somebody to jockey for them. She gave me Mr Soul's owner's information."

It was a great pairing from the start.

"From the very first time I was on him we just instantly clicked," said White. "There was just something about him. I just knew something was there."

Their first year together in 2023 was highlighted by their first pro rodeo checks and placing in the Open 1D Average at the Ruby Buckle West. In 2024, they narrowly missed qualifying for the Wilderness Circuit Finals. Last year, they were the Reserve Open 1D Average Champions at the Ruby Buckle West, won their first pro rodeo and qualified for their first Wilderness Circuit Finals, where they won the aggregate to qualify for the NFR Open.

White also won the 2025 Glen Wood Memorial Futurity on Soul

Mr Soul, 2015 Bay Stallion, 15.2-.3 h, 13-1400 lbs.

BIT: Typically runs in a locked snaffle, but used a small, shanked bit for the NFR Open. "If there are runs that I feel like he's really wanting to go, like if there's a longer alley way (like at the NFR Open), I put the super small shank on him. It's more for the alley so he waits a little longer for me."

SADDLE: Martin Stingray | SADDLE PAD: Relentless

SHOEING: Aluminum on front, regular steel on rear; shod by husband Clint White

FEED: Whole oats | HAY: Alfalfa and grass

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP products

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Acuscope from RSY Equine Therapy

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I just keep him in shape. He gets rode two or three times a week and that's it. I've never had to work him on the pattern or anything like that. Just keep him in shape and that's it."

SPONSORS: Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals, RSY Equine Therapy, South Valley Equine

THANKS: Husband Clint White

Fury, one of Mr Soul's first offspring to the arena. He's now winning at the high school rodeos with his owner's daughter.

"They're barely starting to run," White said of Mr Soul's offspring. "He just has such a small foal crop right now, but they definitely have a lot of potential."

While Mr Soul has a proven barrel horse pedigree, his jockey did not. Other than her mother having a horse to ride, White came into the sport on her own accord.

"I grew up riding the neighbor's horse and mom's horse," she recalled. "I'd just go out and ride all the time. My parents said if I wanted my own horse, I had to get a job. So I got a job at 12-years-old, halter-breaking horses for a family down the road. I bought my first horse for $300 and trained him myself. I did everything on him. I retired him about five or six years ago now. He's 20 now and still around."

It was the neighbors who got her into barrel racing.

"That was just the end of it for me," she chuckled. "I was like, 'Yep! This is exactly what I want to do all the time! But I didn't really start being serious about it until five or six years ago.'"

Rick Ford MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

2025 RECIPIENT: Raegen Delancey

Breeders Challenge Rick Ford MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

He was loved, respected, and admired by his family, colleagues, and those who were fortunate to work alongside him. Rick was an innovator and problem solver, he dedicated his experiences and mind to making everything and everyone around him better. He strived to live his life quietly, but his actions and who he was to so many was vivacious and left a lasting impact. This fund is in his honor and memory, with the hope of helping those in receipt of the scholarships to go out and live their lives, pursue their passions, do the unthinkable, challenge themselves daily, and strive for excellence in every endeavor they seek.

(2) $3,000 SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE AWARDED IN SEPTEMBER 2026

Canadian Rusty Rae Quam Sweeps 5 State Breeders Futurity on CC Jess Streakin Knud

By Julie Mankin

With a pair of near-perfect 17.1-second runs on the big standard pattern inside Rapid City's James Kjerstad Event Center (sweltering more than usual amid an extreme heat wave), Canadian trainer Rusty Rae Quam won all three rounds and the average of the 5 State Breeders Futurity on July 16-19 to bank $7,292 with Open money.

"His first run was just about perfect," said Quam of 5-year-old CCJess Streakin Knud ("Coffee Bean"). "He was dead on the money in all his turns. In the second round, he stepped on himself at first. I heard it. Then he stepped off that barrel and I had to hustle to move him back over for second, but he still clocked faster than in the first round."

In fact, the gelding by French Streakin Jess topped the other colts in the second round by .25 seconds. That run also placed in the Open 1D for another $1,133. The 5 State Breeders is only eligible to horses sired by enrolled stallions. Coffee Bean's sweep earned stud owners Tom and Barb Westover $1,200, additionally.

Quam's 17.2 won the short round and claimed her the aggregate victory by almost a full second over Amelia McCumber and her 5-year-old son of Ain't Seen Nothin Yet.

"That 17.2 in the short go was me," said Quam. "I didn't want to tip a barrel so I pushed him an extra step on the backside of second. And I still don't think he has all his air just yet!"

The 5 State Breeders was just the colt's second race back from a full eight weeks off due to a leg injury. After placing at the spring futurities in the Pacific Northwest, Coffee Bean got a minor cut on an ankle. It got infected and was further banged up during a run at Claresholm's Yellow Rose Futurity.

The horse was bred by Crystal Christman and was in Arizona getting some breakaway training in January 2025 when Quam first saw him. His owner at the time, Lorie McIvor, offered to send him to Canada with Quam if she liked him.

"I really liked the way he moved," Quam said. "That's a big thing with me – a horse has to be a big mover. He just felt good when I rode him."

Coffee Bean is by the standout barrel horse French Streakin Jess, a red roan son of A Streak Of Fling out of a full sister to Frenchmans Guy. And he's out of Gramma Ella, by the First Down Dash/Reb's Policy stallion Knud With Wings and out of the Bully Bullion/Mr Eye Opener/Fol's Native mare WhereSheSupposedToBe. Quam, who summers in Alberta, grew up in Montmartre, Saskatchewan, where her parents were stock contractors in both the CPRA and PRCA. Her mother ran barrels and her dad picked up broncs for years before they sold the business to Harper and Morgan in 1998. She winters in Texas, renting a place between Stephenville and Dublin thanks to a tip from realtor (and NFR barrel racer) Molly Powell.

Back in Alberta last summer, Quam learned McIvor decided to sell Coffee Bean. Quam didn't have the purchasing power, so she hustled to find a buyer who might keep the horse with her for continued training.

"I went down my list and the last person on it was Ward Macza," she said of the Canadian stock contractor. "He had absolutely zero interest in owning a barrel horse. But I told him I was pretty sure he would make some money on this really nice colt."

Quam said Ward drinks coffee basically all day every day, so it's fitting that he bought a horse named Coffee Bean.

"He's so busy right now, hauling broncs to rodeos, that I just send him a video or tell him I won and sometimes he replies," she said. "I keep it general. If I told him I won the round by three-tenths, it would be like speaking Greek to him."

Last week after two months of healing, Quam and Coffee Bean placed in the second round of Montana's Glacier Chaser Futurity despite the day's temperature of 111 degrees smashing the all-time heat record in Billings. Then, in Rapid City, a record was broken for most days of temperatures above 95 degrees.

"It was so hot," said Quam, who killed time between futurities with Coffee Bean, two 4-year-old prospects and four Boston terriers by shading up under Buffalo, Wyoming's big Cottonwood trees.

5 State Breeders Futurity Continued on Page 35

Quam thinks Coffee Bean will make a superb rodeo horse because of how well he stands up straight in his turns and doesn't use a lot of ground. The original plan was always for Macza to sell the gelding, and he's had phone calls already, Quam said.

"I would really like to finish the year out and take Coffee Bean to the Pink Buckle, so I'm hoping Ward will keep him until then," said

Quam, who hopes also to enter the Cornhusker and Fizz Bomb futurities. "I really enjoy all the northern futurities in the U.S." She stands to really enjoy her next one this coming weekend (July 29-Aug 1) – the first-ever Royal Crown Futurity in the exact same pen in Rapid City.

I've got a theory that if you give 100% all of the time, somehow things will work out in the end.

BRYEL MULLIGAN BENEFIT AUCTION

All proceeds will go to help Bryel Mulligan & family with treatment and expenses, as she battles metastatic breast cancer.

In May, life changed forever with what was initially believed to be a Stage II breast cancer diagnosis. As plans were being made for treatment, additional testing—including CT scans and a bone scan—revealed devastating news: the cancer had already spread to her bones. At just 48 years old, she was diagnosed with Stage IV metastatic breast cancer.

She has to continue this fight as hard as she can because she has a seven-year-old son, Mason, who needs his mom. More than anything, she wants to be here to watch him grow up, celebrate his milestones, and make as many memories with him as possible. While Stage IV metastatic breast cancer is treatable, it is not curable. She is now facing a lifelong battle that will require ongoing chemotherapy, immunotherapy, routine scans, blood work, specialist appointments, medications, and treatments to help manage the disease and strengthen her bones. She also hopes to pursue complementary therapies to support her health and improve her quality of life, many of which are not covered by insurance.

The emotional and financial impact of this diagnosis is overwhelming. The cost of continuous treatment, medications, travel to appointments, lost income, and everyday living expenses will continue to grow. This fundraiser has been created to help ease that burden so she can focus on what matters most—fighting this disease, making precious memories with Mason, and living each day to the fullest.

Every donation, no matter the amount, will go directly toward medical expenses and treatment-related costs. If you're unable to donate, sharing this fundraiser and keeping her in your thoughts and prayers would mean more than words can express.

Thank you for your kindness, generosity, and support during this difficult journey. Every act of compassion brings hope and reminds her that she is not fighting this battle alone.

Casper to be home for College National Finals Rodeo until 2037

Casper, Wyoming, in the heart of the "Cowboy State" has been home to the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association's (NIRA) championship event, the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR), since 1999.

Because of the dedication of the entire community, sponsors, athletes and schools, the organization and CNFR has seen steady growth. Ticket sales have increased with sold out performances on championship Saturday the past three years. During the 2026 CNFR a contract extension was signed that will see the best collegiate rodeo athletes making their way to Casper through 2037.

Jim Dewey Brown, NIRA Commissioner, serves on the CNFR Executive Committee. It also includes Kim Furnival, Angela Berry, Gena Jensen from the city of Casper and Jim Milne representing Natrona County. The contract extension was presented to the NIRA Board of Directors in Casper. The board, which includes faculty and student directors from each of the 12 regions of the NIRA voted for the extension.

"I competed at the CNFR the first year it was in Casper," Brown said. "I've watched this community embrace the event. We have volunteers that have been involved from the beginning. The support that we receive from Casper and Wyoming is unprecedented and it's hard to think of one without the other."

There is a community steering committee that works on the event throughout the year and while the CNFR is the highlight, other local events, like the softball and golf tournaments, and the Special Olympics Rodeo give athletes plenty of options to stay busy.

"The athletes work hard throughout the school year to qualify for the CNFR," Brown added. "But we couldn't have this championship event without a great support system that includes the local community, our rodeo coaches and NIRA staff. For 10 days in June we all become part of the CNFR family. It's very gratifying to have experienced the growth of college rodeo and its championships in Casper."

The agreement is between the City of Casper, Natrona County and the NIRA and represents a long-term commitment from all parties to continue building on the event's success. The 2027 CNFR will run June 13-19 at the Ford Wyoming Center.

Champions Crowned at the 34th Annual IFYR

More than 1,000 youth rodeo athletes took center stage this week at the 34th Annual International Finals Youth Rodeo (IFYR) in Shawnee, Oklahoma, competing for championships and a share of more than $277,740 in prize money. After six days of performances, the 2026 IFYR concluded by crowning its newest set of champions. Jacob Stansbury and Kayson Lasyone entered the IFYR Championship Round after putting together two consistent runs of 5.7 and 6.2 seconds to sit tied for second in the team roping average at 11.9 seconds on two head. The duo rose to the occasion, stopping the clock in 5.60 seconds in the Championship Round, earning a 17.5 on three head to capture the IFYR team roping championship.

Gracie Snyder saved her best for when it mattered most at the IFYR. After putting together a pair of smooth runs in the opening rounds to earn a spot in the Championship Round, Snyder laid down a 20.618-second run in the finals to secure the pole bending title. Her three-run total of 61.808 seconds was enough to earn the coveted IFYR championship.

Kyanne Casey delivered when the stakes were highest, recording times of 2.9 seconds in round one and a 2.7-second time in round two to advance to the Championship Round. Casey turned in a lightning-fast 1.9-second run in the finals to finish with a three-head aggregate of 7.5 seconds and claim the IFYR breakaway roping championship.

Luke Sengbusch put together a complete performance to earn the IFYR steer wrestling championship. After qualifying for the Championship Round with a two-head total of 10.8 seconds, Sengbusch tipped his steer in just 3.9 seconds to finish with a three-head aggregate of 14.7 seconds and claim the IFYR title.

Braxton Guillot put together three solid runs to capture the International tie-down roping championship. After positioning himself near the top of the average leaderboard with times of 11.0 and 8.8 seconds in the qualifying rounds, Guillot sealed the title with a quick 7.7-second run in the Championship Round. His three-head aggregate of 27.5 seconds secured the IFYR championship.

Raegan Chance finished the week claiming the barrel racing championship. The Mississippi cowgirl carried the momentum from her opening-round performances into the Championship Round, where she stopped the clock in 16.506 seconds. Her three-run aggregate of 49.854 seconds secured the IFYR title.

Addi Carney put together three outstanding runs to capture the IFYR goat tying championship. The Crockett, Texas, cowgirl opened the week with matching 7.6-second runs in the first two rounds to position herself near the top of the leaderboard before sealing the title with a 7.1-second run in the Championship Round. Her three-head aggregate of 22.3 seconds earned her the coveted IFYR championship.

2025 IFYR All-Around Cowboy Colt Bass delivered a clutch performance in the Championship Round to capture the saddle bronc riding championship. The North Carolina cowboy entered the finals after rides of 72.5 and 74.0 points in the qualifying rounds, then sealed the victory with a 79-point ride in the Championship Round. His three-head total of 225.5 points earned him the IFYR title.

Whitt Barnett made the most of his opportunity in the Championship Round to capture the bull riding championship. After opening the week with an impressive 84-point ride to qualify for the finals, the Arkansas cowboy climbed aboard for an 80.5-point ride in the Championship Round. His two-head total of 164.5 points secured the IFYR title.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame celebrates the induction of 2026 class

The stars converged Saturday morning at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame as it opened its doors for the 2026 induction class.

Western lifestyle media mogul Jeff Medders, and a pair of PRCA World Champions – late steer wrestler Butch Myers (1980) and bull rider Jerome Davis (1995) – headlined a banner 2026 ProRodeo Hall of Fame class of inductees.

The trio was joined by Keith Isley, a legendary bullfighter and rodeo clown; stock contractor Ike Sankey; notable, tie-down roper Bobby Goodspeed, a 12-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier (1959, 1962, 1963, 1967-71, 1974-77); Beutler & Son Rodeo's star bareback/saddle bronc horse Killer Bee; San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo; and WPRA World Champion barrel racers Loretta Manuel (1963 and 1967) and Mary Burger (2006 and 2016).

MARY BURGER: It seems only fitting for Burger to be going into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame 10 years after her last world title (2016), because after all, her second world title came 10 years after her first (2006). Burger, at the young age of 68 years and 4 months in 2016, became the oldest world champion, male or female, a record that still stands today.

"This (being inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame) is just the top of the line," Burger said. "Everybody says this is the most prestigious (honor) you can get in PRORODEO, and my response is 'Yes, it is, I know.' I just don't know how I got here, but I do know it is something else."

She was born Aug. 18, 1948, in Decatur, Ind., but now makes her home in Pauls Valley, Okla. Horses were commonly used on the family farm and viewed as a tool. One of six children, Burger was diagnosed at a young age with Perthes disease in both hips, a condition that causes inflammation and arthritis-like symptoms. The disease rendered her unable to walk and she required crutches. As a result, her father bought her a pony that served as her transportation until she was 10.

Burger was able to recover from the disease with treatment, and it's believed that horseback riding helped her hips spread, allowing her to heal.

She first made a name for herself in the AQHA ranks winning the world titles in junior barrel racing and pole bending in 1974 aboard a horse named High Bars Wimpy. Burger added seven more AQHA World Titles in barrel racing (1985-86, 1995, 2001-03, 2005) aboard three different horses, Showum The Gold, Miss Mergie and Rare Fred, before turning her attention to the PRORODEO ranks.

Burger joined the Women's Professional Rodeo Association in 1985 when she moved to Oklahoma with her husband, Kerry, but just dabbled in the PRORODEO ranks until 2006. That year a horse named Rare Fred carried her to her first WPRA World Title. She not only etched her name in the record books for the 2006 world title, but she also became the oldest world champion in the WPRA at the age of 58, a record she would break 10 years later.

Burger qualified for the National Finals Rodeo two more times (2008-09) with Fred. In 2010, Fred was sold and so began Burger's search for the next great ride. Enter a buckskin gelding registered Sadiefamouslastwords, known as Mo.

Mo took to PRORODEO circuit like a champ, collecting his first big win at Rodeo-Houston and followed that up a few months later with the title at the Calgary Stampede. The first week of August, Burger surpassed Lindsay Sears' record for most money won prior to the NFR with $185,439. Sears set the record in 2008 with $184,567. Burger set a then regular season record earnings mark with $190,977 and became just the third WPRA contestant in NFR history to wear the No. 1 back number, joining Charmayne James and Sherry Cervi.

Burger finished the 2016 season with $277,554 in earnings, capturing her second gold buckle at her fourth and final NFR.

LORETTA MANUEL: Manuel won the 1963 and 1967 barrel racing world championships aboard a black horse registered Full of Pep, that she simply called Spade.

Manuel, born Aug. 19, 1939, in Winamac, Ind., is well known for her accomplishments both aboard barrel horses and jumping horses.

She qualified for the National Finals Rodeo a total of nine times (1962-67, 1969-1971), winning the coveted world championship twice with a reserve finish in 1965.

She partially credits her success in rodeo to her days as a teen performer in Wild West shows, in which she did trick riding and Roman riding.

She transitioned from trick riding to barrel racing shortly after getting Spade as he was fast and agile, so she thought he was well suited for the cloverleaf pattern. She trained him and believed they only hit a barrel twice during his whole career. They captured the RodeoHouston title in 1968, the second year it was held at the Astro-dome. Spade also spent some of his career as a bulldogging horse and she thought that made him tougher when it came to barrel racing.

"This is kind of hard to believe," Manuel said about her induction. "It has been a long time since all of it happened. You kind of accept whatever goes on, but then when they let me know it was like thinking about it all over again and it really means a lot. I really spent a lot of time rodeoing and this ended up as my climax for what I set out to do."

PWR Sanctions Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo, Expanding Opportunities for Female Rodeo Athletes

Premier Women's Rodeo (PWR) is proud to announce a new sanctioning partnership with the Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo, set for Wednesday, July 29, 2026, at the Benton County Fair. The partnership creates another qualifying opportunity for female rodeo athletes while continuing PWR's mission of building the premier competitive pathway for women in rodeo.

The Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo will feature competition in: Team Roping; Breakaway Roping; Goat Tying; Pole Bending; Barrel Racing; Ranch Bronc Riding; Bull Riding

As an officially sanctioned PWR event, competitors will have the opportunity to earn valuable points toward the W27 Premier Women's Rodeo season while competing for partnership exemptions into the 2027 Premier Women's Rodeo Championship, scheduled for May 13–16, 2027, at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas.

"At Premier Women's Rodeo - we believe some of the strongest opportunities to grow women's rodeo come through partnering with outstanding events like the Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo," said Lindsay Rosser Sumpter, Commissioner of Premier Women's Rodeo. "Sanctioning quality events across the country allows us to support the incredible work rodeo committees are already doing while giving cowgirls more opportunities to compete, earn points, and pursue their dreams of qualifying for the PWR Championship. We are proud to stand alongside the Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo in celebrating these talented athletes and helping create more pathways for women to succeed at every level of our sport."

Champions in the following timed-event disciplines will earn partnership exemptions into the 2027 Premier Women's Rodeo Championship:

Team Roping Header; Team Roping Heeler; Breakaway Roping; Goat Tying; Pole Bending; Barrel Racing

In addition, PWR will award three partnership exemptions in women's roughstock competition to support continued growth in Ranch Bronc Riding and Bull Riding. Qualified times and scores are required to earn a championship exemption.

Rylee Henderer, Vice Chair of the Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo, shared her excitement about the new sanctioning partnership. "Since its founding, the Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo has been committed to creating meaningful opportunities for female rodeo athletes while continually raising the standard of our event," said Henderer. "Each year, our committee works to enhance the contestant experience, invest in our facilities, and provide a level of competition that reflects the incredible talent of the women who compete here. Becoming an official Premier Women's Rodeo qualifying event is an exciting milestone and a testament to the dedication of our founders, volunteers, and supporters. We're proud to provide another pathway for athletes to advance to the PWR Championship while continuing to strengthen and grow the Pacific Northwest's premier all-women's rodeo."

All competitors are encouraged to purchase a PWR ID Card and nominate the Larry Bell Memorial All Girls Rodeo through the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). Eligible athletes will earn points toward the W27 PWR Leaderboard, helping them advance toward qualification for the 2027 Premier Women's Rodeo Championship.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are blessed to be able to spend time with our granddaughters for a few weeks this summer. Of course, they will want to ride bikes with us in the mornings, right? So, we better dust off those old bikes hanging in the garage, air up tires and get leg length set. Sure.

The first two bikes, after all that, were too tall. Turns out, reaching the pedals is important. Back up they go. Two more down. Tires aired up. Away we go! Forty-five minutes, two seat malfunctions, two chains off the rails and some sore butts later, we get back home. Who knew the seats weren't quite tight? Who knew you can't shift a three speed nine times?

Well...we should have been ready... Jesus is coming. I'm knowing that He is not going to wait on us...His return will be fast! The blink of an eye! I Cor 15:52.

That's faster than the time between the 1D and the 2D winners at the barrel race! Not going to have time to find our Bible and make any adjustments! It's so easy to be ready. Ask Him to be your Lord. Rom. 10:8-10. Listen to His voice. Obey His instruction. Spend time with Him daily. When He calls, we need only hop on and go! I Thess. 4:16-18.
