Tiany Schuster Shines By Design at the California Rodeo Salinas

By Tanya Randall

Tiany Schuster is well in the hunt for her third National Finals Rodeo qualification after a $17,789 victory at the $45,000-added California Rodeo in Salinas. She won the four-run aggregate by a full second with the 5-year-old gelding Shines By Design (“HR”), who was making just his second rodeo appearance.

Schuster had an eye on the big, sorrel gelding by Slye By Design when she saw Haley Fauste run him as a futurity horse. Raised by Fauste’s grandmother Terri Freeman, HR was the first foal out of the Zans Diamond Shine mare SSheShinezLikaDiamond, Fauste’s previous barrel horse.

Schuster first inquired about HR after he made the finals of the Old Fort Days Futurity in May 2023. Although Fauste wasn’t ready to sell at the time, she kept watching the gelding, who won an American qualifier and the junior barrel racing at the Quarter Horse Congress and stayed in touch.

At the OKC Futurity in December, Schuster and Fauste were fortuitously stalled next to each other. After talking all week, Fauste said that she’d probably sell him after The American given that she was graduating from college and starting a job.

Schuster got HR bought this spring but didn’t start running the gelding until recently.

“I wanted to have him ready to go August 1,” she said. “I wanted to take my time getting to know him, not rush anything.”

The morning of the finals at the Calgary Stampede, Schuster sent HR through a set in practice that morning.

“He worked amazing,” she said. “Right before that I had taken him to a jackpot—I think it was my third run on him—and ran a 17.1 on a Standard Pattern. We were pretty happy about that.”

HR’s first rodeo was slack for the Days of ’47 in Salt Lake City, where he placed eighth in the qualifying round with a 17.1. From there it was on to Salinas.

in the third round with a 15.97.

Their only appearance in a performance—HR's first—was the short go.

"They've got the TV going, the tractors going, the team ropers going..." chuckled Schuster. At Salinas, the barrel racing takes place on the track around the arena that's hosting the men's events simultaneously. "I found that he was more focused during the performance than he was in slack. In slack, he was more looky."

The only thing that made HR somewhat apprehensive before his final run was the fact that he was the last horse to run, so he was alone on the track for a time.

"They were taking the time and effort to drag and hand rake," she explained. "It was taking a little while. I don't mind. I was standing there by myself, and my horse was wondering where did all his friends go, looking around. Monty Joe (Petska) comes trotting and loping up. I knew right then and there everything was going to be okay. I told him that he was my hero! He saw that I was standing there alone and knew that the horse was just young and worrisome because he was by himself."

Schuster and HR won the short go in 15.98 to slam the door on the title.

Afterwards, Schuster made a heartfelt post on Facebook lauding HR's family.

"I really can't thank them enough," she added. "I really am grateful for the opportunity."

Schuster also placed on Famous Mic Guy Ver at the $30,000-added Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho. She made her first run there earlier in the week before leaving for Salinas. Since she made the short go at both rodeos, she had to fly to Nampa and back on Saturday.

First round:

"I left Mic Guy Ver at Idaho Equine, which is right next door, and went to Salinas," she explained. "I was fortunate enough that calf roper Ty Harris had chartered a plane going from Salinas, so I caught a ride. Then team roper Jaxson Tucker had a plane going back Saturday night. I'm very grateful for that. I was gone from Salinas about 12 hours. I'd never had the opportunity to do that before, and I highly recommend everyone do it at least once. It was a really cool experience! It was fun!"

Schuster, who qualified for the NFR in 2017—the year she set the regular season earnings record until Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi broke it last year—and 2020, currently sits sixth in the WPRA World Standings with $83,255. Earnings from the Calgary Stampede are not yet included in the World Standings as they are pending the outcome of results to the equine drug tests.

She is also currently sitting well to qualify for the Canadian National Finals. She went up early to prep for the Calgary Stampede and its qualifier.

"I went up there May 21 and it didn't go so well the first few weeks. Once I got into the groove of things, I became a better rider, a better competitor. It's been a long time since I've been in big outdoor pens. I had to learn to RIDE again, not just run a barrel race. Those pens helped me learn to place myself, not override and feel the ground again."

After this week's Utah rodeos, Schuster is headed back to Canada to run Mic Guy Ver, while HR will get a break until she returns stateside.

"I plan on saving HR for the great runs in Utah and Idaho in Wilderness Circuit because they take such pride and care on the ground conditions," she noted.

Makayla Coffelt Calls On Tres Aces For 5-State Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Up-and-coming barrel horse trainer Makayla Coffelt got her first major futurity win at the $35,000-added 5-State Breeders Futurity, held July 18-21 in Rapid City, South Dakota.

Coffelt and her 4-year-old gelding Tres Aces (“Mamba”) collected $7,192 at the event that was open to the offspring of stallions owned by residents of North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana and Nebraska.

“He’s pretty cool,” Coffelt said of the gelding. “I’m pretty lucky to have him.”

Mamba, by Webb Ranches’ Magnum, a futurity winning son of Frenchmans Guy out of National Finals Rodeo qualifier Tell Em Belle, by Tres Seis, is a half-brother to AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year, National Finals Rodeo qualifier and two-time College National Champion Fame Fire Rocks (“Poppy”), ridden by Taycie Matthews.

His dam is W R Aces Fame, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of WR Red Ace, by Lucky Aces N Eights out of WR Cassia. W R Aces Fame is also the dam of Chasin Aces N Fame, Luara Lambert’s pro rodeo winner by Chasin Firewater.

Mamba’s second dam WR Red Ace is a full sister to LA Cassia, the dam of barrel racing champions LA Fame and Lady La Dash, both by Dash Ta Fame. His third dam WR Cassia, a daughter of Casady Casanova out of an Easy Jet, Joak mare, is the dam of futurity champion Miss Fortunes Fool and finalist Silver Creek Dash, by Dash Ta Fame.

He was bred by Rustic River Ranch and Coffelt purchased Brazilian-owned Mamba as a yearling through Rafeal Celeste. She also purchased his weanling half-brother by Epic Leader at the time.

Coffelt did all of Mamba’s training herself, from starting him under saddle to the barrel pattern.

“He was incredibly easy,” she said. “Everything came incredibly natural for him. He could lope a circle in just 10 rides. He definitely made himself. I can’t take credit for training him. I think you could put anyone on him, and he would have made.”

Mamba’s futurity career started at the OKC Rookie last December.

“He’s kind of placed everywhere since then,” Coffelt noted.

His breakthrough event was the Ashley Brooks Memorial Futurity in Memphis, Tennessee, in early January, where they were eighth in the average.

“That’s when I realized I had something nice,” Coffelt said. “I think that’s when I realized that I could start going. I’m just an amateur. I’m trying to get my foot in the door (as a trainer), and you really have to have a nice horse these days.”

The early portion of their season was plagued with down barrels that cost them several average checks. After winning the 2D at the Colorado Classic, Mamba got a month off after it was discovered that he was ill.

Although she was concerned his lack of physical fitness would be a factor, Mamba was “just on” at 5-State.

“I didn’t know how he was going to do,” she said. “I didn’t know if he was going to have enough air because I hadn’t ran him. I just wanted to get by the barrels. I didn’t necessarily want to be fast the first two rounds.”

They were seventh in the first go with a 17.790 on a WPRA Standard Pattern but won the second go with a 17.425. They led the aggregate on two runs by more than .3 going into the short round. “When I realized that I got in the finals and was sitting good, I wanted the average win,” she said. “I didn’t want to win the round necessarily. I wanted to make sure he got by (his barrels) and we left them all up.”

They maintained their .3 lead to win the three-run aggregate & $6,490.

THANKS: Organnact, Yoder Barrel Horses

Meet Makayla Coffelt

5-State Breeders Futurity Champion Makayla Coffelt didn’t come from a horse family.

“I didn’t even know how to put a halter on a horse until I was 16 or 17,” laughed the 24-year-old from Ponce de Leon, Missouri, south of Springfield.

Coffelt talked her parents into getting her lessons and later turned to trainer watching to further hone her skills.

“I started watching trainers,” she said. “I rode with Ashley Schaffer for a while. Andre Coelho helped me in a really big way as well. I was just trying to pick up bits and pieces here and there, and it seems to have worked out for me so far.”

Coffelt worked as a home builder before hanging out her shingle as a horse trainer this year.

Morgan Beckstrom & Slingshot Lane Win Second National High School Title

By Tanya Randall

Morgan Beckstrom and her great mare Slingshot Lane closed out their high school rodeo career with a second championship at the National High School Rodeo Finals, held July 14-20 in Rock Springs, Wyoming. They were undefeated Utah state champions for four straight years and won their first national barrel racing title in 2022.

“Slingshot just loves these high school rodeos,” said Beckstrom. “We definitely went out with a bang and got the most out of high school rodeo!”

Beckstrom’s winning effort was a family affair. Slingshot was bred by her grandparents Mark and Linda Jarvis and trained by her aunt Marcie Wilson. The 11-year-old mare is by the family’s stallion The Goodbye Lane and out of the Diamond Faucet mare SKS Running Faucet.

The Jarvis family purchased The Goodbye Lane for the express purpose of breeding him to SKS Running Faucet, a cross that also produced the million dollar champion of The American, MJ Segers Fast Lane, ridden by Brandon Cullins.

At this year’s NHSFR, Beckstrom and Slingshot led the field into the short round after winning the first two rounds.

“My first run was Tuesday morning,” she recalled. “Me and my grandpa were looking at the ground. It rained last night. It looked good but slower because it was heavier. The first girl out had an amazing run, but it was a little slower time. My grandpa was like, ‘You’ve just got to ride as hard as you can and get what you can get.’ I ran a 17.1 and we were amazed! ‘How did she run that on that ground!’

“The second round I was just going for clean, trying to stay in the average. I ended up running a 16.9, which I was really happy about.”

Their run in the short round was all about staying clean.

“That mare tends to rate her barrels really hard and sometimes we’ll hit them,” Beckstrom said. “I just tried to work on keeping her off of them. She did what she was told to do, and we did what we needed to do.”

They were sixth in the short with a 17.352 but still won the aggregate by two tenths.

Like many who have gone before her, Beckstrom wants to parlay her high school success for a pro rodeo career. She’s currently a WPRA rookie and is sitting well in the Wildness Circuit. She even placed at the Elko, Nevada, pro rodeo right before the NHSRF and left for the Ogden pro rodeo the day after winning her title.

Beckstrom also wants to train horses as well. She’s currently training a colt by The Goodbye Lane for the 2026 futurities.

“I’m kind of thinking about going to school later on,” she confessed, “but I don’t know yet. I’m really set on seeing what rodeo does for me, seeing if I can do that full time.”

2016 World Champion Barrel Horse Sadiefamouslastwords Passes

Last week the gritty buckskin who carried Mary Burger to her 2016 World Title at the age of 68 passed away. Sadiefamouslastwords, better known to the performance world as Mo, was bred by Jeff & Kristie Thorstenson who owned his sire Sadies Frosty Drift at the time and was born in May 2009. Mo was by Sadies Frosty Drift and out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Porky And Bess. Mo was a winner from the start; he won right away at the futurities and the derbies and was winning at the rodeos by the time he was 5 years old. By the time he was just 7 years old he carried Mary Burger to the World Title in 2016. They were an amazing team to watch! He was a quick and strong horse that ran on all kinds of ground. According to QData he earned $399,765 during his barrel racing career and was retired with the Burger family.

Below is the passage from the "Mary Burger- 2x World Champion Barrel Racer - WPRA" Facebook page:

With great sadness, the Burger family announces the passing of Sadiefamouslastwords "Mo." As the 2016 World Champion Barrel Horse, he won both Calgary and Houston in the same year and set a new season's earnings record. His most important role was being Mary's best friend. Mo was eager to get his cookies every morning – and night-- and was part of the family. We loved him fiercely and are heartbroken that he is gone.

By Sadies Frosty Drift and out of Porky And Bess by Dash Ta Fame, Mo was 15 years old. Kerry and Mary purchased him around two years of age, and Mary trained him to be a champion like she had many before him. As a four-year-old, they started off winning at futurities, and then in later years, derbies and rodeos. He won the Ft. Worth Stock Show Timed Event Challenge as a 4-year-old and the Diamonds and Dirt Derby the following year. Mo ran from 2013 to 2016 and earned roughly $530 thousand dollars in that short time. In his rodeo career, he won numerous rodeos. Mo's efforts led to Mary being inducted into the Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Museum, where you can see a picture of them running barrels on the large exterior window and an exhibit at the national museum in Fort Worth. Due to Mo's phenomenal showing in 2016, Mary holds the record for the oldest World Champion and oldest NFR qualifier at the age of 68. She is also only the third woman in history to be given the coveted #1 back number at the NFR after winning more money than any of the cowboys and cowgirls in 2016.

Mary and Mo are often still featured on the Cowboy Channel for throwback stories to this day, despite him never returning to the arena after 2016. Mary knew him inside and out. Every time she walked in the barn, he would knicker at her, stick his head out, and nudge her with his top lip. The rest of the family felt blessed to also get this type of attention from him. To know him was to love him. He was beautiful, strong, an exceptional athlete, with the biggest heart there was.

We know that Kerry is now giving him cookies in heaven. But we still miss them both here.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It would be easy to become frustrated with all the nonsense going on around us... and the evil... and the lies. BUT GOD! He always has our answer!

And if we are listening to the Holy Spirit, not the news or forwarded Facebook posts, we will sail right through those frustrations. This week I received a forwarded Facebook post from a friend.

The item forwarded was written by someone I didn't know. I normally read them and consider them. But this time, the Holy Spirit stopped me. Who is this person I'm reading? What do they know? Do they know HIM? If I don't know THEM, why would I consider what they say? I shouldn't. And from now on, I won't.

John 10:25-30 says in part, "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand." I'm not saying that they are wrong.

I'm saying we should ask the Holy Spirit FIRST! He may have already put a knowing in your heart about the truth of those things we are reading. If we do this, we won't waste our time, or risk being deceived!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
