Leggett's Legacy - A National High School Finals Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

Just like last year's WPRA World Championship, the National High School Finals Rodeo Barrel Racing Champion went across the northern border to Kamloops, Alberta, Canada. Soon-to-be high-school senior Vanessa Leggett and her mom's Judge Cash gelding FDI Cash To Burn claimed their first NHSFR Championship in barrel racing.

Leggett and "Ice" were making their second appearance at the NHSFR. In 2010, Leggett then a rookie, was third in the barrel racing average going into the short go but hit the third barrel. So, she was understandably "a little scared" when she saw a number of barrels go down in the short go in 2012, but she tried to put it out of her mind.

With a 17.363, their second fastest time of the rodeo, Leggett and Ice captured the average championship. They placed fourth in the first and second rounds and third in the short go en route to their victory.

Leggett, whose plans include college rodeo and possibly a degree in biology or equine sciences, qualified for the NHSFR by winning the barrel racing championship at Alberta Providence Finals. The horse that got her there, High On Patience ("Smarty"), a 9-year-old Judge Cash gelding, was injured at the rodeo, so she climbed aboard Ice, who also serves as her pole horse.

"He's my mom's horse," said Leggett, who got up at 4 a.m. during the school year so she could ride horses and still play soccer. "She raised, trained and started rodeoing on him. I ride him off and on. When Smarty got hurt at Provincials, I ran him and I decided to run him at National's as well."

Ice, a 10-year-old gray gelding by multiple National Finals Rodeo sire Judge Cash is out of Burnit Brownie, a daughter of the Thoroughbred Volunteer. Leggett's mom Julie was just 13-years-old when she got the mare.

"She ran on the track and did everything," said Leggett of the old mare that's still kicking at age 30. "She's a really gritty mare. I remember riding her to my first peewee championship. She was always ready to go. She just never gives up and she gave that to Ice."

Leggett described Ice as "a character, for sure."

"He's very bossy," she said. "He's very business-like and knows what he needs to get done."

On the trip down for the NHSFR, Leggett's mom got to have a little fun at the pro rodeos with Ice. She placed sixth on the gelding at the Casper, Wyo., pro rodeo, the weekend prior to the Finals.

Incidentally, Vanessa Leggett also qualified for the NHSFR last year as well, but chose not to go because of a conflict with one of her mom's rodeos. It was very important for her mom to have Ice for a little function in Canada known as the Calgary Stampede.

"Family is really important to me," said Leggett, who wanted to thank her parents, Julie and Tim, brother, Robert, and grandfather Bob Schmidt for all their support. "They've supported me 100 percent. They've all helped me get to where I am today."

She also wanted to thank the generous sponsors of the NHSFR—Cinch/Cruel Girl, Resistol, Gist and Tod Slone Saddles.

"It was a great experience," she said. "I got to meet a lot of great people."

And, the icing on the cake?

"I got to meet Tuff Cooper too!"

THE RUNDOWN: VANESSA LEGGETT

HORSE: FDI Cash To Burn "Ice"

2002 Gray Gelding, 15.3 hands, 1,200 pounds

BIT: Reinsman Jr. Cowhorse

HEADGEAR: None, but uses a tiedown for pole bending because "he likes to run" when he should weave.

SADDLE: Marlene McRae Special Effx

PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice all the way around

GRAIN: Whole Oats

HAY: Grass/Alfalfa mix, but mostly pasture

ADDITIONAL CARE: Back On Track, magnet therapy, massage therapy, mud poultice to keep legs tight and soft ride boots (but Ice doesn't like them, so her other horse gets them.)

FUN FACT: The FDI in Ice's registered name stands for Forensic Dynamics Inc., a consulting firm founded by Leggett's father Tim.

Former NFR horse Shadow Laid to Rest

Shadow (Ima Native Shadow) was laid to rest on July 21, 2012 due to complications of laminitis. Ima Native Shadow was a 1994 black gelding by Speedy Trip out of the Naturally Tops (TB) mare, Native Woman. Shadow was bred & raised by Chuck & Julie Swanson and helped Molly Powell (Swanson) to 7 NFRs and over $250,000 in earnings. Shadow was bred to be a barrel horse. His dam Blackie (Native Woman) was Molly Powell's first great barrel horse that she won the Montana Barrel Racing Association (MBRA) in 1986 on when Powell was only 10 years old. Powell's mom, Julie Swanson, had seen the sire, Speedy Trip (a son of Triple Chick), also win the MBRA so she knew she would get a true barrel horse from the cross and Shadow didn't disappoint. Swanson trained him and handed him over to Molly to run at the rodeos when he was 5 and in the 10 years Molly ran him she only missed the NFR 3 times. His 2 club feet and crooked legs were overcome by his big heart and try. It is best said as Molly Powell shared on her Facebook page, "He had so much heart and try and I was blessed to have and run him. Thanks Mom. It's your turn."

2012 Cheyenne Frontier Days In Progress

The leaderboard saw lots of changes at the 116th Annual Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo on Tuesday. It all started with cowboys rising early to compete in team roping and steer wrestling slack.

In order to accommodate the contestants and keep the rodeo running quickly for the fans, many of the ropers and steer wrestlers actually compete in slack held in conjunction with the regular rodeo performances. Two of those were Colorado team ropers Jay Tittel from Pueblo and Wade Masters from Durango. With Tittel doing the heading and Masters heeling, they have a total time of 19.5 seconds on two runs and are leading the overall standings.

Another contestant that was successful in slack is steer wrestler Ty Erickson, from Helena, Mont. He had a blazing 5.9 second run in the first round on Monday morning, then came back and was 10.0 seconds on Tuesday morning. Erickson, who was the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Rookie of the Year last year, has a total time of 15.9 seconds for the overall lead. He is a junior at Montana State University and qualified for the College National Finals Rodeo in Casper, Wyo., last June in the steer wrestling and team roping. He is followed by Clayton Hass, from Terrell, Texas, who has a total time of 16.2 seconds. There is more steer wrestling slack to come, so these men's positions on the leaderboard could change, but they are likely to be back here for the finals.

There is a tie for the first place in the bareback riding with a veteran professional and a cowboy making a bid for his first Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. Bobby Mote, from Culver, Ore., who has won four world championships and Winn Ratliff from Leesville, La., both have 169 points on two head for the overall lead. Ratliff had an 86 on Monday and an 83 on Tuesday. Mote took the lead in the second round with an 87-point ride on Stace Smith Pro Rodeo's Sun Kissed and was 82 on Monday.

In the saddle bronc riding, world standings leader Wade Sundell from Boxholm, Iowa, is leading everything here. He had an 86 on Monday and followed it up with an 87 Tuesday to take the overall lead with 173 points. He is seven points ahead of the man in second place, J.J. Elshere, from Hereford, S.D.

South Dakota is well represented here in the bull riding as well. Ardie Maier, from Timber Lake became the second man to have successful rides on two bulls when he scored 83 points on Brookman-Hyland Rodeo's Shredder. He was 88 on his first bull, giving him a total of 171 points. This gives him a seven-point lead over Dusty Elkinton from Moundville, Mo. There is also a new leader in the second round, Trent Cormier from Houma, La., who was 87 points on another Brookman-Hyland bull, #779. Cormier is one of several bull riders hoping to advance to Sunday's final round by virtue of having a high score on one ride.

The fifth performance of the rodeo starts Wednesday, July 24, at 1 p.m. All of the contestants, including reigning world champions Trevor Brazile, Tuf Cooper, Shane Proctor, Luke Branquino, Turtle Powell and Kaycee Feild will be making their first appearance here.

The following are the barrel racing leaders from the 116th Annual Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo, Tuesday, July 24, 2012.

Barrel Race: (first round) 1, Jane Melby, Bachus, Minn., 17.47 seconds. 2, Sabra O'Quinn, Ocala, Fla., 17.61. 3, Kelly Yates, Pueblo, Colo., 17.62. 4, Maegan Reichert, Morgan Mill, Texas, 14.65. 5, Christy Loflin, Franktown, Colo., 17.66. 6, Fallon Taylor, Whitesboro, Texas, 17.74.

National Cowgirl Hall of Fame 2012 Inductees

The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame is proud to announce Mildred Farris, Sunny Hale, Barbra Schulte, and Stacy Westfall as inductees to the Hall of Fame for 2012. These four women will be honored during the 37th Annual Induction Luncheon Ceremony on Thursday, October 25, 2012 at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas.

The purpose of the Hall of Fame is to preserve the history and highlight the impact of Western women living roughly from the mid-1800s to the present: the artists and writers, champions and competitive performers, entertainers, ranchers (stewards of land and livestock), trailblazers and pioneers. Today, there are over 200 extraordinary women who have been inducted into the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame since 1975.

To read about the 2012 inductees and for more information on the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame go to www.cowgirl.net/home/home/hall-of-fame/2012-inductees/.

Mowry Makes a Profitable Trip Across the Border

Just under a 4000 mile round trip from Dublin, TX to an event in Drummondville, Quebec, Canada where most of the people speak French can might make an ordinary Texas girl a little hesitant, but with over $100,000 added at the Ecurie 5-55 Drummond event July 16-22, Kassie Mowry had to load up her 5 horses and make the journey. And boy is she glad she did.

"They put on an awesome event! We had a great time. The ground was very safe and fast. They gave everyone a shot to do well. We go to a lot of barrel races and they really went out of their way to take care of us. For instance, each night they would show the Futurity runs on the big screen while they did awards in the lounge area." said Mowry. Plus the over $40k she won there didn't hurt the experience any!

In the futurity, Mowry hauled in 4 head, Epic Leader, Havana, Miss JB 0842, and Miss JB 0820. The 1st Round went according to plan as she won it on Epic Leader with a 15.96, Havana was second with a 16.125, and Miss JB 0842 pulled in a 7th place in the Go as well. In the 2nd Round she turned out on Epic Leader and Havana, and Troy Crumrine took full advantage winning 1st on Costly Crystal and 2nd on Smashin Ta Fame.

Along the way, Mowry managed to win the Open 4D on Epic Leader and also won 7th in the Grand Prix on Havana and 12th on the one older horse she brought, Missjbrunninwithfire. The Grand Prix was won by the ever reliable 16 year old Down Home Dash son, Sure Dash, ridden by Josiah Clingen.

The futurity paid out in a similar fashion to the BFA World Championships. Two full rounds and carry your best time into the Finals. The money in the Finals was paid out on the average as each of the 50 Finalists received a check for their two run average.

In the Finals, veteran barrel trainer Latricia Duke stormed through the round running a 15.926 on Bobbie Gene, the fastest time of the futurity of 15.787 on LK Watch Me Rock, and then an insane 15.876 on Insane For Fame. Although The Duke fired her bullets, Mowry was left standing running a solid 16.032 within just a few hundredths of her 1st Round time and just a mere 8 thousandths of a second faster than The Duke and Insane For Fame. The 8 thousandths of a second isn't much but it was worth over $5k, with Epic Leader's win netting him and Mowry $18,713 and Insane For Fame and Duke winning $13,209.

Over the past several years, in the summer months after Ft. Smith the futurities took a break until August but with the addition of this new, big money futurity did it change Mowry's normal schedule?

"It didn't really change anything for me, because instead of going to a bunch of runs in a row and then a long break, I like to keep my horses running but only run them in 1 or 2 bigger events a month. In between the events I like to let them down for a couple weeks, just taking the pressure off, letting them chill out and settle down and riding them outside. Then I start getting them ready to peak again at their next event."

After the 4000 mile long journey, her horses are getting a little extra rest time in their turnouts before she starts getting ready for the Mega Race at the end of August and the Fizz Bomb Futurity in September that starts the fall futurity run.

With the $28,137 Mowry and Epic Leader won at the Ecurie 5-55 Drummond Futurity, Epic Leader is closing in on $150k earnings for the year.

When asked what makes Epic Leader such a consistent winner, Mowry commented, "It's easy for him and he loves to do it. He just goes in there and works hard everytime. I never really have to tune him. If he needs me, I'm there but he usually just does what he was taught to do. He is a very honest horse. He doesn't get sidetracked, nothing really bothers him, overall he is just very confident."

The Ecurie 5-55 Drummond Futurity is sure to become a cornerstone for the barrel trainers schedule as Mowry bagged a total of $40,299 on her 5 horses, Latricia Duke earned $38,669, and Troy Crumrine earned $29,625. The rich futurity is sure to lure in people from all over the US and Canada next year.

At the end of the week Mowry, jumped in her truck headed home on the long journey back to Dublin but the $10 per mile she netted for her 4000 mile journey makes it all seem worth while and next year you can bet she will be back in Quebec.

Walker and Perculatin Rise in the World Standings

Interview with Mary Walker, #4 in the World

This year a few new faces have come onto the scene on the rodeo trail, but none have popped up more often than the 53 year old Mary Walker's. Walker and her great mount Latte aka Big Brown aka Perculatin have slowly moved up the standings and after a great Fourth of July and a big win at Nampa, ID over the weekend she finds herself in #4 in the World with $62,182 in earnings and is virtually a lock to make her first NFR appearance. She is a former 3 time Texas Circuit Finals qualifier and is sitting 8th in the Texas Circuit this year. She has been to the NFR with her husband Byron Walker 16 times but this year, it's Mary's turn! We caught up with her again to ask her about her amazing year and the difference a year can make.

BRR: Tell us a little bit about winning Nampa.

Walker: At Nampa, I was just in awe, it was the first time I had seen Martha (Lindsay Sear's great mount) up close and I was in awe. I couldn't believe I outran all those girls, it was such an honor.

BRR: Tell us a little about you and your horse.

Walker: Cheri Cogburn had asked me to ride Latte (Perculatin) in August or September of 2010. She wanted me to get him rodeo ready for her. I had always liked him and had even tried to buy him a couple times. I took him home and started teaching him how to run and we did pretty good. We started at jackpots and went to rodeos and he did well. Then in April 2011, my son, Reagon, died (in an auto accident). After that Byron actually bought Latte for me as a surprise on May 17, 2011. He and Cheri got together and he bought him for me as a surprise. In June, Latte fell with me at the 3rd barrel at Crosby, TX. The fall shattered my pelvis, broke two toes, and fractured 2 vertebrae in my back. So Latte got six months off while I recovered. Byron rode him a couple times for me while I was recovering. He said he is the slowest horse he has ever been on. He is so lazy in the pasture, we always joke that flying turtles could pass him!

After a while, my therapist told me to get back on a horse. I had gone from a wheelchair to a walker. I couldn't even walk yet. I started back on a black and white paint we have that is a grand entry horse every year for Ft Worth and the NFR. I rode the first time for 15 minutes. I rode Paint 4-5 times per week just walking, trying to get my balance back. Everyday I had therapy, I rode. About November 2011, I started riding Latte again. I just worked on getting back to trusting myself. My first rodeo back was Odessa (January 2012) and I placed in the second round and then started heading to rodeos. I was still weak and only 95 pounds but I had to get my strength and courage back. If it wasn't for Latte, I don't know if I would have been able to come back.

BRR: When did you know Latte was something special?
Walker: Every time I saw Cheri ride him, he was real smooth, he looked like he was loping. He was unbelievably smooth. That's probably why I can ride him is because he is so smooth. He's the same every time. He is just that dream horse. After you have seen a lot of good horses and lots of good runs, I think you can see those type of horses. I just knew watching him run and as soon as I started riding him that I just needed to keep him sound and keep him liking it and he will be fine (able to compete at a high level). I just had to get him used to hauling, running and being consistent. He has such a big heart and grit about him. He likes to go and he likes to run. His second run back at a rodeo is always better than the first. He wants to give you everything he has every time you run. This is his first year being hauled, he has never been away from the house for more than a couple days until this year and he is doing really well.

BRR: What is it going to be like to go to your first NFR?
Walker: I am still skeptical to say I will make it with so much of the year left. I still have to make my runs because I want to make it for sure and go into the Finals with a lot of money won. Even though I went with Byron to those NFRs, he was the one who went and exercised the horses and signed autographs. I took care of Reagon. I am already thinking of who is going to help me take care of him (Latte) and get me down the alley and such. I guess I need to start talking to some of the barrel racers that have been there and see what will go on. The person that has helped me through this whole thing is Brenda Barnes. She's been to the Finals twice and we talk everyday and she helps me figure out where to go. She and Byron talk about which arena Perculatin will work the best in and she keeps me pumped up. She will be out there with me. We are already making plans. My horse is handling the hauling, sound as a dollar and I am so blessed to be in this position and I have my little angel that rides on my shoulder and he gets me there!

THE RUNDOWN: MARY WALKER

HORSE: Perculatin "Latte" or "Big Brown"
 8 Year Old Bay Gelding, 15.3 hands, 1,150 pounds
BIT: Draw Big, twisted snaffle mouthpiece
HEADGEAR: None
SADDLE: Larry Coats
PAD: Professional's Choice SMX Air Ride
LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice on all four
GRAIN: Omolene 200
HAY: Alfalfa
SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum
ADDITIONAL CARE: Latte loves treats and attention, he is a real personable horse. I just pet on him and let him do anything he wants. My husband gets mad at me because I let him pull me around! He knows my horse shoers voice and just loves the horse shoer. His ears perk up when he hears him, it's pretty funny.

After another big win in Salinas over the weekend, Brittany Pozzi extended her lead in the World and her season earnings now stand at $152,560. That is the most money won at this point in a season by a barrel racer ever. The regular season earnings record is held by Lindsay Sears with $184,567 during her dream season in 2008. If Pozzi keeps winning at this clip, she could very well set the regular season earnings record without winning the $50k bonus at Houston!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In an effort to improve my skills and my horsemanship, I read, consider and sometimes implement drills or ideas from people in the horse world that I admire and who are successful. Some of these ideas may seem foreign to me. "Well, I've never done it that way!" or "I was taught that just wouldn't work!" are growth killers. Seriously! How can I possibly know everything there is to know about horses or barrel racing? I can't. And neither can you. (Sorry if that stung!)

We grow and change in everything, or we are stubborn and stupid! I remember back in the day (-: when we would walk up to the barrel and lope around it.....walk to the next. It's so different now when we want to have a nice rate with the inside hind leg up there, not speeding up at the turn. So I was out trying some new things and considering just exactly WHY I was training the way I do, when the Holy Spirit spoke something to me.

Most of us know that you and your horse, will go where YOU are looking. So we want to look at our spot all the way around the turn and stay on track. Do you know that that is exactly how everything in our life is? If you and I are looking at the economy, or how our body feels, or worrying about the what if's....that's where we'll end up. BUT! The Bible tells us in Heb. 12.2 in the Amplified "looking away from all that will distract, to Jesus, Who is the Leader and the Source of our faith, giving the first Incentive for our belief, and is also its Finisher bringing it to maturity and perfection....." Let's keep our eyes on Jesus. We'll have great straight lines and very efficient turns in life, making us the winners we all want to be!
