Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Continue Dream Season, Win Gold in Salt Lake City

By Tanya Randall

"Beyond comprehension. Beyond understanding. Mind blown."

Is how Hailey Kinsel described her $53,200 victory at the Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo in Salt Lake City aboard her beloved 6-year-old mare DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis").

With all the money won counting toward the WPROA World Standings, the recent Texas A&M University graduate from Cotulla, Texas, jumped to seventh with $92,812. It's highly possible that Kinsel will add her first National Finals Rodeo qualification to her College National Finals Rodeo Championship and record-breaking victory at RFD-TV's The American. (Note: adding her $433,333 American win with her 2017 WPROA/PRCA earnings, she is already at $526,145 total earnings already for 2017!)

Kinsel started her run for the Cowboy Games gold medal in the qualifier on Tuesday, July 18. The top four contestants from the qualifying run would join the field of contestants who advanced straight to the semifinals via their previous accomplishments.

The automatic qualifiers included the Top 10 from 2017 World Standings as of July 5, the 2016 Yearend Circuit Champion from each of the 12 circuits, the 2017 RNCFR champion, the leader in the WPROA Rookie Standings as of July 5, and the top four from participating 'trial' rodeos. Ivy Conrado, Jackie Ganter, Kinsel and Kelly Tovar ran their way into the rodeo via the Qualifier.

Kinsel was an earlier draw in the qualifier. Although she had a nice run, she was concerned about her chances of advancing as the ground got faster.

"They had watered it and it was still a little heavy when I had ran," she explained. "It didn't feel deep or anything. As it got later, it just got packed and got awesome. There were some really good runs earlier that just literally didn't have the right steps to make it fast, but they were awesome runs."

Kinsel ran at the Ogden Pioneer Days on Wednesday and Spanish Fork on Thursday before returning to Salt Lake for her set on Saturday night. She said that Sis, a 6-year-old daughter of WPROA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Dillon Mundorf's Royal Shake Em mare, Royal Sissy Irish, got a little wild in the open pen at Ogden, so she tuned on her before her run at Spanish Fork, and ended up sixth for a nice $2,395 check.

On Friday, Kinsel took her back up horse Thunder Stones ("TJ") to Cheyenne for the Cinch Chute Out, while her mom Leslie kept Sis in Utah. She met her dad, Dan, en route and had him to help her drive back to Salt Lake.

Kinsel and Sis won their performance with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 16.94, for $3,200. With the top two from each of the four

Gold Medals Awarded at Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo

History was made on Monday night, July 24, in Salt Lake City at the Days of '47 Arena. For the first time at a regular season PRCA Rodeo gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded to the winners.

Wyatt Denny of Minden, Nev., was the first to receive the gold medal at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo. He had to get on two different horses but it was well worth it. His ride horse, Diamond G Rodeo's Diamond Hope, was just what he needed as he posted a ride worth 88 points to win not only the gold medal but a check worth $50,000.

"It's the first of its kind and it's awesome," said Denny of being the first one to win the gold medal. "It's almost a little bit of history. I'm the first one to win it (a gold medal at regular season rodeo), so that feels really special."

He outdistanced current world champion Tim O'Connell of Zwingle, Iowa, who finished with an 87.5 point ride on Rosser Rodeo's Flood Tide. Tanner Phipps won the bronze medal with an 86.5 point ride on Flying U Rodeo's Lil' Red Hawk.

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank, July 19-22 and 24, took at the all-new, $17.5 million, state-of-the-art Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fair Park. The venue—an outdoor arena located in the heart of Salt Lake City—featured over 10,000 stadium-style seats. For the first time at a PRCA regular season rodeo gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded to the champions. The only other time cowboys and cowgirls competed for such a prize was during the 1988 and 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Calgary, Alberta, and Salt Lake City, Utah, respectively.

Ryle Smith of Oakdale, Calif., was the biggest winner of the night winning the gold medal in the steer wrestling and also picking up the bronze medal in the tie-down roping. Smith won the steer wrestling with a 4.0 second run, with Tyler Pearson hot on his heels at 4.2. Jace Melvin and Jon Ragatz tied for third with a 4.4. However,

Melvin of Fort Pierre, S.D., had the faster time in the semifinals, so he received the bronze medal. They both shared the money and added $9,000 to their PRCA World Standings.

"My dad has my winnings all penciled out. I just talked to him. I mean it was huge for me," said Smith. "In the bulldogging, I had $25K won before I got here. Now this gives me $75K—that's more or less in the finals I would say. In calf roping, I had $24 or $25K and now I'm in the lower $40K, so I'm in a good position there. I'm trying to get there in both events.

"I have driven around my whole life dreaming about entering two events (at the Wrangler NFR), but I just thought I don't have enough horsepower and resources and all that. I just didn't really believe I could do it, honestly. I've done all of these events my whole life."

It was a rough night in the team roping with only three qualified runs. Jr. Dees of Aurora, S.D., and Tyler McKnight were the big winners going penalty free with a 4.4 second run. Tom Richards and Kyle Lockett would incur a five second penalty for slipping a leg and would end the night in second with a 10.4 second run. It wasn't pretty for Nelson Wyatt and Matt Kasner with a 14.7, but it earned them a bronze medal and checks worth $12,000 each.

Cody DeMoss of Heflin, La., is hoping Monday night will get him one step closer to the gold buckle in December that he has longed for. DeMoss added $50,000 to his world standings and a gold medal to his trophy case after posting an 87-point ride on Diamond G Rodeo's Owen's Mistake. Crowd favorite Jake Wright of Milford, Utah, took the silver with an 84.5 on Flying Five Rodeo's Gary Young's Spring Planting. Current world champion Zeke Thurston will take the bronze medal back to Canada with him after putting up an 84 on Diamond G Rodeo's A Little Bit of Buddah.

Tuf Cooper came to play on Monday stopping the clock in 7.5 seconds to add a gold medal to his three PRCA World Champion Gold Buckles. Cooper bumped his brother-in-law, the King of the Cowboys, out of the top spot by two-tenths of a second. Trevor Brazile of Decatur, Texas, finished with a 7.7 to add a silver medal to his collection and a much needed $25,000 to his world standings. Ryle Smith took third with an 8.2-second run to add his second medal of the night and bring his night money total to $62,000. When totaled he left Salt Lake City $67,600 richer.

Three-time and current world champion Sage Kimzey brought the sold out crowd to their feet with a 90 point ride on Diamond G Rodeo's Komatsu' War Party. Kimzey, of Strong City, Okla., added a gold medal to his already impressive gold buckle collection. The $50,000 will go a long way to a fourth world title for him in December at the Wrangler NFR. Tyler Bingham and Ty Wallace finished in a tie for second with 87.5 point rides. Bingham of Honeyville, Utah, received the silver medal with a higher score in the semifinals, while Wallace of Collbran, Colo., took the bronze medal. Bingham rode Diamond G Rodeo's Da' Magic and Wallace was on Diamond G Rodeo's Break Dance.

The Gold Medal Round will be televised on CBS Sports Network on July 30 at 8 p.m. ET.

semifinal performances advancing to the Finals, Kinsel was joined by Tovar, Kassie Mowry, Stevi Hillman, Lisa Lockhart, Kellie Collier, Tiana Schuster and Ari-Anna Flynn.

"I was probably nervous all day long," Kinsel admitted. "I was nervous, honored and excited. I was so excited to be there. You're kind of thinking, 'I could even make a great run and not win anything in this field.' You can't really expect anything. At some point, I was able to calm my nerves and say, 'Be happy to be here and just turn three barrels.'"

Kinsel was second out after Stevi Hillman and MCM Imasharp-guy and she described her run as "a little bit wild."

"She ran too fast to the first. I hate it when she does that," she chuckled. "She takes off like she knows where she's going. She turned it nice, but had a little slip. I sent her too hard into the second barrel and then pulled, which she got mad when I pulled. I just kind of left her alone on the third. I didn't expect her to clock quite that fast. I knew it could get faster, so we just had to wait it out."

Her fellow qualifier Kelly Tovar and her talented 5-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding, A Dash Ta Glamour, took home the silver medal and $25,000, jumping them into the Top 25 in the WPRA World Standings. Lisa Lockhart and the immortal An Oakie With Cash ("Louie") took home the bronze and $12,000. Lockhart's $15,000 haul from Salt Lake was enough to push her in to the Top 10 in the standings.

With Kinsel's win putting her strong contention for the NFR, Sis the wonder horse will be getting a break after Cheyenne.

"I have no reason to run her so hard and cripple her, especially if we are making it," said Kinsel, who wanted to thank her parents, Charlie 1 Horse Hat Company, Dr. David Dutton of Hill Country Equine and Lisa Anderson for all their help and support. "Even if we don't, we've had a heck of a year. If I do get to go (to the NFR), I want her to be there and in full force. I'm not saying I'm going to stop going, because I've got my other horse TJ, but she's going to get a break for sure."

Conrado and Fames To Blame Bank $10,000 at Cinch Shootout

Cinch Shoot-out Kicks off 121st Cheyenne Frontier Days Courtesy of Susan Kanode, for the Cinch Shootout

The 121st annual edition of Cheyenne Frontier Days (CFD) began Friday at Frontier Park with the Cinch Shoot-out, an invitational rodeo, created for a new generation of rodeo fan.

Forty rodeo athletes competed in five events. The elimination format featured a preliminary round, with the top three in each event advancing to the shoot-out round. Each shoot-out winner left the arena with $10,000 prize money.

The athletes were divided into eight teams that represented local businesses and competed for area charities. Those charities were also big winners at the CFD Cinch Shoot-out. The winning team represented Cavender's and earned $5,000 for the Cheyenne Chapter of the American Cancer Society. The Little America team finished second and earned $2,500 for Safehouse. A $1,500 donation went to Children's Medical Network due to the efforts of the Ace Hardware team.

Three women clocked times of less than 17 seconds in the barrel racing preliminary round, but only one – Colorado's Ivy Conrado – was able to repeat that feat in the shoot-out. Her time was 16.915 riding a mare that she calls Famey. Conrado purchased the horse four months ago in Mississippi. "I'm proud of her and excited about our barrel racing future," Conrado said.

Harmon & Just The Way You Are Sing the Right Tune at 5-States Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Lacey Harmon of Bluff Dale, Texas, made her annual pilgrimage to Rapid City, S.D., for the 20th Annual 5-States Breeders Futurity a profitable one with a $7,247 championship effort from her homebred Just The Way You Are (“Bruno”)

“I think that futurity is awesome and I hope it just keeps growing,” said Harmon. She joked with her mom, Kathy Donegan that their future supply of 5-States eligible horses was running a little low so they needed to sell some of the horses they’ve raised so they can buy more.

The 5-States Breeders Futurity is made up of stallions standing in Wyoming, Montana, Nebraska, North and South Dakota.

“It’s awesome that all that money comes from the stallion owners,” said Harmon, who also acknowledge the hard work of event producer Lana Ireland. “It’s crazy to be able to run for that much money with such a little entry fee. The entry fee is only $300. It’s a good profit.”

Harmon and Bruno were seventh in the first go with a 17.548 and came back on Sunday to win the second round with a 17.256 on a WPRA Standard Pattern. They were second going into the short go, behind DHR Perks Easy Fols and his owner, breeder, rider Delvin Buhr. Later Sunday afternoon, Harmon and Bruno won the short go with a 17.256 to take the average.

“His first run was pretty choppy,” said Harmon. “He caters more to deeper, heavier ground and it was really fast and firm. He was a lot better in the second round. He still had mistakes; it’s just crazy that he can still clock. I could pick his runs a part, but he’s so crazy fast. He just keeps trying”

Bred by Harmon’s mother, Bruno, 4, is from the last crop of Roosters Fame, a son of Dash Ta Fame, who was out of a daughter of the great barrel horse Dial A Red Rooster. Donegan had caught wind of the stallion while attending a Larry Larson photography clinic and decided to see the stallion herself while attending the Fizz Bomb Futurity later in the year.

Bruno is out of the Bop Trot mare Streakin Scat Cat, a daughter of the Donegan girls’ youth rodeo mare Wampitas Scat Cat. After winning the $100,000 LG Pro Classic Invitational Slot Race with a flawless run, Harmon and Bruno suffered a setback following a serious vehicle accident during The Patriot in Fort Worth. Although Bruno had no visual injuries, he severely bruised his right hindleg and injured his deep digital flexor tendon.

“I ran him at Diamonds & Dirt but we didn’t know he was as hurt as he was,” Harmon explained. “He was getting body sore from compensating from it. I’m still dealing with the body soreness, even today, keeping him comfortable. It’s healed, but he still gets uncomfortable.”

In between runs at the 5-States it was difficult to manage his soreness.

“I don’t have all my usual stuff,” she said. “I did have my Sports Innovations blanket and I used it twice a day on him. I made sure to sweat his legs after every run too.”

The whole week before the 5-States Futurity, Bruno was taking advantage of the rehabilitation facilities at Brazos Valley Equine Hospital’s Stallion Station in Stephenville. He spent time in the salt water spa, received magna wave treatments and stood under the Solarium—a source of infrared light therapy.

“He pretty much got the works for a week before I left,” she laughed.

Harmon has the Dash N Dance Futurity this coming weekend in Spearfish, S.D., where she’ll run Bruno and her other $100,000 slot race champion Flashin Flitter. She’s also out in Thursday slack for the Deadwood, S.D., pro rodeo on last year’s futurity horse, Guys Fame N Fortune, owned by William Hommertzhaim. Afterward, Bruno will probably get a break until the fall futurities.

Eagles Soar's to Victory at the NHSRA Finals

By Hope Sickler

Penrose, Colorado soon-to-be senior in high school, Elle Eagles, has always had a certain love for horses. Her love affair started as a child and has blossomed over the years, and continues as she closes in on her last year in high school. With only a few weeks left before school is back in session, Eagles can now cross a major goal off her bucket list after she was crowned the 2017 National High School Rodeo Association Champion Barrel Racer this past weekend in Gillette, Wyoming.

Eagles' and her 14-year-old gelding Redemptive Fire "Jag", whom her family purchased from Carol Chesher of Devers Performance Horses, made three solid, fast runs which were the key to success at the World's Largest Rodeo hosted by the Cam-Plex. "Jag" is by Bullys On Fire and out of Really Beautiful who goes back to Streakin Six and Dash For Cash breeding. Not only was this win a triumphant victory for Eagles but it was a very meaningful one as well. Last year, "Jag" sustained an injury which could've easily ended his performance career.

"Jag broke his left hind splint bone and was tragically in need of surgery to remove the chips," explained Eagles. "The surgery went well but Jag was out for a year. This win was extra special to me because we have fought so hard to get to where we are at today." Eagles admits that there was a point in time where she and her family weren't sure on how "Jag" would recover and handle the physical demands of barrel racing after his accident. But with the right mindset and lots of prayers, "Jag" made a full recovery and took full huge blessing in my family and I's life."

Eagles had a goal going into Gillette and has learned over the years that what works best for her and her horse is to take her goals one step at a time.

"I set a goal to get faster in each round, and in the first round my goal was to place in the top 15. When I placed 14th in first round, my next goal was to place top 5 in the next round. I won the second go and next up was the short round," Eagles said.

"Going into the short round, I wanted nothing more than to go out and win the whole thing but I also knew that if "Jag" and I went out and made our run instead of going out there to beat the other contestants, that the time and aggregate would take care of itself."

That was exactly the mindset she needed going into the short round! For being so young, Eagles is wise beyond her years. She and "Jag" literally peeled the paint off the barrels with a blistering, smokin' fast time of 17.047-seconds; the fastest run of the entire week that carried them to victory!

Posting a 17.477 in the first round, a 17.103 in the second round, and a 17.047 in the short round, Eagles not only got faster each round, she stole the aggregate by 3-tenths of a second ahead of Reserve Champion Barrel Racer Peyton Glenn from Oklahoma. With a total time of 51.627-seconds on three runs, Eagles was crowned the 2017 NHSRA Champion Barrel Racer.

"After I heard that I had won and I was the 2017 National Championship, it took me a minute to believe it was true. After all the pictures and interviews, it finally (sunk in) but there was no way you could wipe the smile off my face then, or now. I am very grateful," said the champ.

Having ran barrels for most of her life, Eagles credits her losses as much as her wins for making her the competitor and barrel racer that she is today.

"Barrel racing has taught me so much throughout the years and in my opinion, it is one of the most humbling events that you will find. The littlest things such as being last out on the ground, tipped barrels, or hurt horses can make or break you in the barrel racing world. The most important thing that I have learned is to always be thankful for the wins and to always learn from the losses."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We had another incident here at our house yesterday. Grandchildren and horses. When I look back on the time when my son was learning to ride and the times he hit the turf, it didn't seem as nerve wracking. Without fail, I pray over them when they come to ride. And I KNOW that's why nothing bad happened. Mike was leading our middle granddaughter, Darcy, on a horse that we have had confidence in. I'm not sure what happened, but something spooked her and she got away from Mike and took off running.

Now, we were in our indoor arena and she was contained but that does NOTHING for me!! We just kept hollering for her to hang on and the mare ran into the saddling area and stopped. When I got in there, Darcy looked at me and said in her deep, too old sounding drawl, "Wellllll, that was scary." She didn't cry or want off or get excited. I was quite excited though! I said, "Wow Darc, you rode her like a monkey! But Gramma's heart is going 5000 mph." In that same slow drawl she said, "Gram, mine was going 7000 mph."

Now. There is answered prayer here for sure. But as I was looking into her little face, trying to NOT think of all the bad things that could have come of this, I was struck with how she weathered the storm.

Darcy did what she needed to do. She stuck in there, didn't get excited and she came out on the other side just fine.

In Matthew 7:24-27 it talks about a storm coming and beating vehemently against our house. It promises that those of us who are built on the rock (Jesus), will not fall.

It doesn't say we won't have a storm, but we are on rock solid ground with God and we will not be moved. If you are going through something in your life today, fear not and don't quit. Look to God. He will see you to the other side!
