Party On -- Piper Cordes & Fiestas Cantina Dominate National High School Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

At rodeo's highest levels, mere tenths of second separate first through tenth place. Yet, at the 2023 National High School Finals Rodeo, held July 16-22 in Gillette, Wyoming, Piper Cordes and her royally bred gelding Fiestas Cantina ("Fiesta") won their barrel racing championship by nearly a second on a three run aggregate.

"I'm very grateful to the Lord for the opportunity to run," said the 17-year-old rising senior from Wall, South Dakota. "He guides me, and He gives me faith and strength."

A three-time NHSFR qualifier having won the last two South Dakota barrel racing titles with a reserve her freshman year, Piper had a lot of confidence going into the NHSFR.

"My freshman year I ended up tipping in both rounds," she recalled. "Last year my goal was to make it to the short go. I didn't have a very good first run but my second run allowed me to make it back. I think last year gave me a huge confidence boost. This year my goal was to be in the Top 5."

She and Fiesta, now 8, assaulted the clock in Gillette. They won the first go by nearly 4/10ths of a second with a 17.015.

"My first run, I was pretty excited," she said. "I wasn't nervous at all. I felt comfortable because my horse had been in the arena before. I just wanted to go make a nice smooth run."

They turned in the fastest time of the event, a 16.725, to win the second round by more than 4/10ths and lead the field of 20 into the short go on the two-run aggregate.

"My second run, I was definitely more nervous," she said. "I didn't want to do anything crazy. I just wanted to make another smooth run to be sitting good in the average. That was probably the biggest highlight of my trip down there. That was really something special to me."

In the hand draw for short go positions, Piper pulled out No. 20 and ran last.

"My short go run, I just thought to myself, 'It's just another run. Less is more,'" she said. "I just wanted to stay away from the barrels, and that's what I did. I was really happy with how everything ended with all of my runs."

They turned in a 17.065 to place third in the short round and win the aggregate by more than 9/10ths of a second.

A second generation NHSFR qualifier and all-around hand, Piper came by her rodeo skills honestly. Her dad roped and cut in high school and continued on through college, even qualifying for the Collegiate National Finals Rodeo a couple times. Her mother rodeoed in high school and made the National High School Finals Rodeo a few times as well.

"We live on a ranch, so I was always riding horses," she said. "It started with little playdays and going to youth and 4-H rodeos and worked its way up to junior high and high school rodeos. I just fell in love with it."

Her family also raised her winning horse, Fiesta, who is out of Alan ("Woody") Woodbury's great mare Rosas Cantina CC, who has carried Lisa Lockhart to several National Finals.

According to QData, Rosa, a 13-year-old daughter of Corona Cartel out of NFR qualifier Dash Ta Vanila, by Dash Ta Fame, has earnings of $488,057, not including her most recent rodeo checks. She has produced six earners of $220,047 including multiple futurity champion Monsterr, by Tres Seis, ($142,301 QData) and

"Woody offered my father-in-law an egg out of one of his mares," Spencer explained. "I had never done anything like that before and haven't done anything like it since. It was just a friendship deal."

They had gone to Gillette, where Woody had five or six mares that were being ridden by Curt LaDuke.

"I could have picked any mare to get an egg out of and I picked this 2-year-old that's Rosa now," he said. "At 2, she was barely broke, but it ended up being a good pick."

For the sire, Spencer picked Fiestas Gotta Gun, a son of Playgun out of the champion barrel horse and producer Firewater Fiesta, by Fire Water Flit.

“I picked Fiestas Gotta Gun because I thought there was enough speed there and I was just wanting something that could be used on the ranch or for roping if it didn’t work in the barrels.”

Spencer said his kids probably put the first few rides on Fiesta as a 2-year-old before he took over the gelding’s start. Emily Pauley started Fiesta on the barrels and Piper took over when the gelding was 4- or 5.

“I think part of his success is that we use him on the ranch, moving cattle and going to brandings,” he added. “We give him another job other than just barrels. I think that helps his mind too.” He said he knew his daughter was capable of winning the national title but was shocked at the times.

“The horse is great, but she rides good too,” said Spencer. “I was pretty nervous, probably more nervous than her. I knew the horse was capable of being competitive at that level. I just thought if we could keep from tipping, we’d be in there pretty tough. I don’t know if I could get that she’d win it by as much as she did. It surprised me.”

Piper wanted to thank Alan Woodbury and Emily Pauley as well as her parents.

“They push me and support me,” she said. “They’d do anything for me to be able to do my best and succeed. I just know they want the best for me and really appreciate them.”

With South Dakota’s high school rodeos all during the month of June, Piper doesn’t rodeo much during the school year. She has volleyball in the fall before going right into gymnastics for the winter. Although she is unsure of where she wants to continue her education after high school, Piper is hoping to college rodeo while pursuing a career in dental hygiene.

“I definitely would like to go pro at one point,” she added.

Sue Smith & Dashes Centerfold Take Two, Win Snake River Stampede and Ogden Pioneer Days

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion and two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sue Smith of Blackfoot, Idaho, picked up $25,960 at rodeos held over the July 24 weekend.

"I was just trying to do well in my circuit and get into the winter rodeos for next year," said Smith, who was ranked No. 24 in the WPRR World Standings going into the weekend. "I might need to go a little more now!"

Smith and her great mare Dashes Centerfold swept the $30,000-added Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho, winning the long go, short go and aggregate for $14,211. They set an arena record en route to a $10,494 victory at the $26,000-added Ogden Pioneer Days in Utah. Smith and Centerfold also picked up another $1,255 for placing at the Fiesta Days Rodeo in Spanish Fork, Utah.

Her great weekend makes up for a lackluster Fourth of July run. "I usually don't have a very good Fourth," she admitted. "I don't know if it's just me mentally, but I always think I've got the 24th as a second chance. When it does work out, it just gives you hope." Smith's goal was to have enough money won to get into the lucrative winter rodeos—although she has qualified for the NFR out of the summer alone before in 2009. She's been running Centerfold, a 12-year-old daughter of all-time leading sire Dash Ta Fame, out of the Proudest Effort mare Diamonds Tiny Effort, at the larger rodeos and has been seasoning the mare's oldest foal, Diamonds Center ("Heff"), a 7-year-old by A Smooth Guy, at the others. Centerfold, who has lifetime earnings of $332,397 according to QData, has been running extra sharp thanks to help of Smith's great veterinary team: Dr. Jason Moulton at Animal Health Clinic in her hometown, Dr. Marty Tanner of Tanner Equine in Brock, Texas, and Dr. Beau Beck and the crew at South Valley Equine outside of Ogden.

"It takes a team," Smith said. "They have my heartfelt thanks for keeping Centerfold—and all my horses really—healthy and on the road."

Smith also made a slight bit change that's been both profitable and possibly prophetic. Dave Elliot and his wife Louise had sent her an embellished version of the bit she used on her NFR horse Real Claim To Fame ("Claimer").

"I call it the Claimer Bit," she explained. "He made it really fancy with my brand. It's really pretty."

The bit is the Elliot Spur Up 03 with the 07 mouthpiece.

"It's my go-to bit. I use variations of it on all my horses. I've got a short shank, a medium shank and a long shank, which is what I'm using on her right now. I didn't think I needed it yet. I had been using a little shorter shanked version of it. My first run with that bit on her was Cheyenne. I felt like I needed a little bit more and it was like magic! It worked!"

She also wanted to thank her huge support system.

"I just have so many that help me: first of all, my husband Kyle Edwards; Jeff and Andrea Busby—they've been so encouraging for me to go; the whole Drosihn family—they've been incredible support," she said. "They've all done what they can to help me go. That's just to name a few. This list goes on and on."

Smith is staying hooked with many great circuit rodeos left. She's also considering a few in the Northwest in the fall, depending on how she's sitting in the standings and how her horses feel.

$27,000 Weekend for Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, Wins Utah Days of '47, 2nd at Rodeo Salinas

By Tanya Randall

Current World No. 1 Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi continues to pad her standings lead with a $27,620 effort over the July 24th weekend. The two-time world champion from Lampasas, Texas, won a $17,688 championship at Utah Days of '47 in Salt Lake City.

"The payoff was phenomenal, especially in that first round," said Tonozzi. "It's nice to have a rodeo that's not super top loaded. There were a lot of girls that got out of there with a lot of money."

Jets Top Gun ("Bennie") carried her to the three-run victory in Salt Lake. The 8-year-old gelding belongs to Jeff and Andrea Busby and is by their late great stallion Blazin Jetolena out of GL Famous First Lady, by Dash Ta Fame.

Tonozzi and Bennie had their very first qualifying run at Salt Lake City way back before their set at the Calgary Stampede on July 12. They were third in the round and picked up $5,688.

The top 40 advanced to one of four performances with each acting as its own progressive round. The top two from each performance made the Gold Medal Round on Monday night, July 24.

Tonozzi, who skipped Salt Lake the past few years while it was a WCRA sanctioned event, said the rodeo had a different feeling from qualifying round in slack to the electric crowd during a performance.

"Slack felt like a good jackpot run," she said, commending Randy Spraggins for his dirt expertise during the qualifying round. "When I went in for my first run in the perms, I was like 'Whoa! This is a way different feel!'"

They won their performance with a 17.17, worth $2,000, in spite of getting a little past the first barrel.

The Gold Medal Round, Bennie made a flawless run. Running last for the night, Tonozzi and Bennie blazed by Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet's 16.91 with a 16.79.

"The last run he was perfect," said Tonozzi. "I ran him at Spanish Fork on Thursday and barely caught the second barrel. It was my fault I just dropped him too soon. Last night (at Salt Lake) I waited until the very last second to drop my outside rein. The barrel is right on the fence and there's tons of people, so it's a little scary."

Tonozzi also took home a reserve title worth $9,933 from the California Rodeo in Salinas, where she rode her homebred Babe On The Chase, now owned by Teton Ridge. The rodeo's unique setup—four possible runs on the racetrack between the grandstands and large arena—is the perfect outdoor setup for the hard-running 12-year-old daughter of Chasin Firewater and legendary producer Streakin Six Babe, by Streakin Six.

Salt Lake's Monday night final allowed Tonozzi to stay in Salinas for the short round on Sunday there.

After a week of flying—she flew from Cheyenne to Salt Lake City, then to Salinas, back for Spanish Fork, and then a final loop of Salinas and Salt Lake—Tonozzi has a slower week. She'll run at Preston, Idaho, before jumping on SR Industry Titan at some of her Mountain States Circuit Rodeos: Rifle, Eagle and Burlington,

Wicked Felina CL & MR Wicked Guy move to Australia

Woodbury Performance Horses of Dickinson, ND, proudly announces the sale of Wicked Felina CL, embryo twin to Rosas Cantina CC, and her 2023 palomino stallion by Frenchmans Guy, MR Wicked Guy, to Mark and Rachel Little Kalone of Wandoan, QLD Australia.

Alan Woodbury stated, "Rachel called and said they had lost their stallion, Miracle Fame, who was purchased from Woodbury Performance Horses in 2008. The loss prompted her to call looking for a replacement."

Miracle Fame was by Dean Miracle and out of the NFR barrel racing mare, Dash Ta Vanilla, by Dash Ta Fame and out of SX Frenchmans Vanilla (Frenchmans Guy). "Wow, we wanted them all, but settled on MR Wicked Guy, by Frenchmans Guy and out of Wicked Felina CL, who is by Corona Cartel and out of Dash Ta Vanilla. We were so excited about the opportunity to purchase MR Wicked Guy that we decided to buy the factory as well with Wicked Felina." Rachel Little Kalone said.

Wicked Felina CL, who saw limited barrel racing due to injury, is a full sibling to Rosas Cantina CC, who now has barrel racing LTE of $530,000+. Little Kalone says, "We're very happy to bring these powerful bloodlines to Australia. I feel like I purchased all of America's best in these two horses."

Wicked Felina CL and her foal, MR Wicked Guy, combine many of barrel racing's greatest bloodlines including sires: Frenchmans Guy, Dash Ta Fame, Corona Cartel, Holland Ease, First Down Dash, Chicks Beduino, Sun Frost, Docs Jack Frost, Laughing Boy. Mares: Wicked Felina CL, Dash Ta Vanilla, SX Frenchmans Vanilla, Sudden Fame, Easy Henryetta, Sizzling Lil, Corona Chick, Frenchmans Lady, Prissy Cline, and Caseys Ladylove.

Woodbury added, "I decided to take my mares back to Frenchmans Guy after watching Molly Otto's and Tyler Waguespack's palomino rodeo horses by Frenchmans Guy. It was a no-brainer to go back to Frenchmans Guy. Wicked Felina is a great mare and producer. MR Wicked Guy is definitely stallion material. I wish Mark and Rachel all the best with their breeding program."

Wicked Felina and MR Wicked Guy will soon make their way south from North Dakota to Oklahoma. Southern Hemisphere breeding season begins August 1st. Wicked Felina will be bred and checked in foal before both horses are transported to California where they will await their airplane to Australia.

Thanks and congratulations to Mark and Rachel Little Kalone. - Alan Woodbury

Roster Announced for $400K Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo

Ahead of the WCJR (Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo presented by Montana Silversmiths) in Guthrie, Oklahoma, the organization today announced nearly 1000 athletes who will compete at the youth rodeo's most prestigious event as the intense battle to be crowned the 2023 Division Youth World Champion approaches a climactic end July 25-29 at Lazy E Arena. The third edition of the Youth World Championship event will shell out a projected minimum payout of $400,000. The 2022 WCJR paid out a little more than $271,000.

In a highly competitive leaderboard race, four athletes have risen to the No. 1 position on the all-around rankings. Kreece Dearing (Chico, Texas) and Amy Ohrt (Victoria, Texas) have distanced themselves from the Junior Division competition by more than 8,000 points, respectively. Alli Autrey (Abilene, Texas) and Briar White (Lawton, Oklahoma) will begin the event edging the No. 2 positions by 3000 points. Junior All-Around World Champions will earn a $4,000 bonus, while each Youth All-Around World Champion will take home $2000 each.

Dearing will compete in four disciplines during the five-day event- Team Roping Heading, Team Roping Heeling, Steer Wrestling, and Tie-Down Roping. He comes into the event qualified in at least the top six positions on each of the four leaderboards-two in the top three.

Ohrt finds herself atop the Junior Leaderboard in Barrel Racing, Breakaway Roping, Goat Tying, and Pole Bending in no position lower than fifth place. She ranks second in pole bending and goat tying and has distanced herself from No. 2 on the all-around leaderboard by more than 10,600 points.

Autrey goes into the world championship in the Youth Division, ahead of fellow breakaway roper and goat tyer Rylie Edens (Hillsboro, Texas) by less than 2,000 points. She is joined by all-around men's contender Briar White (Lawton, Oklahoma) in the division, who will face off against all-around runner-up Cody Gardner in the team roping and tie-down roping.

Athletes entered at the WCJR are eligible to earn Elevated Bonus Event World Points (4X multiplier). They will automatically be eligible to earn Event World Points without a nomination for any disciplines at the event. All WCJR point information can be found here.

According to WCRA President Bobby Mote, round champions can win up to 1200 points in the semi-final rounds and 2700 points in the championship round.

“What’s unique about this event is that the world championship bonuses are not out of reach for anyone on the leaderboard due to the points structure,” said Mote. “At past WCRA events, we have seen athletes come into the event third or fourth on the leaderboard and take the top spot to take home the cash bonuses.”

The top 16 from each WCRA Division Youth Leaderboard earned an automatic exemption into the semi-final round. Each open-entry athlete will compete in the qualifying rounds July 25-27, with up to 14 athletes earning a position in the semi-finals. The top eight from each discipline will advance to the July 29 Championship Round, where the top athlete will take home the title of WCJR Event Champion.

Gold Medals Handed Out in Salt Lake City to Close the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo

The 2023 Utah Days of '47 Rodeo presented by Zions Bank came to a close on Pioneer Day in Utah. The Monday night crowd was treated to an NFR caliber performance as it was great action from start to finish.

Nothing is sweeter than Gold in the world of rodeo whether it be a gold buckle for world champions at season end or gold medals at the Only Gold Medal Rodeo in the World in the heart of Salt Lake City.

For two-time world champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi she continues to add to her legacy and tonight she added a Gold Medal to her collection. Just this summer she has won Reno, Calgary and now the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo to extend her lead in the WPROA World Standings. Pozzi Tonozzi of Lampasas, Texas was the last barrel racer on the clover-leaf pattern and stopped the clock in a quick 16.79 seconds to earn her first gold medal.

“There are no words to describe what I am feeling right now,” stated Pozzi Tonozzi just after coming off the medal stand. “This is definitely an exciting time for me.”

Pozzi Tonozzi has been riding a horse she calls Benny to all these wins and it is owned by Busby Quarter Horses.

“I am so thankful for this horse. I have never felt a horse like this before and how he goes around the barrels. I am thankful for the Busby’s, my husband and my daughter. This is so awesome.”

Jordan Briggs, who won Gold in 2022 finished silver in a time of 16.91 seconds and Rachele Riggers landed on the medal stand for the first time with a 17.19.

Tie-down roper Shane Hanchey defended his title and became the first back-to-back gold medal winner in Salt Lake City. He stopped the clock in 7.9 seconds to easily sail to the top of the leaderboard and medal stand. Kincade Henry was second in a time of 8.3 and Reid Zapalac won bronze in 8.4 seconds.

The saddle bronc riding was one for the history books. Canadian Zeke Thurston added another gold medal to his collection posting a 92.5-point ride aboard Andrews Rodeo’s All or Nothin’. He was definitely riding for all or nothing on Monday night. Stetson Wright and Sterling Crawley tied for second but the tie breaker for the silver went to Wright due to the semifinal round score. This was Stetson’s first medal and probably won’t be his last. Wright and Crawley tallied 91 points on CS Rodeo’s Storm Warning and Sankey Pro Rodeo & Phenom Genetic’s The Black Tie.

It was all Idaho medal stand in the steer wrestling with Dirk Tavenner taking the gold in 3.5 seconds, Stetson Jorgensen with the silver and Riley Reiss with the bronze.

Justine Doka finished atop the medal stand in the breakaway roping with a time of 2.0 seconds, Zoie Bedke took silver in 2.3 seconds and Erin Johnson won bronze in 2.4 seconds.

Cole Reiner was the top bareback rider with an 88.5-point ride on Sankey Rodeo’s Shoutin’ Shoes to win gold and a paycheck totaling $10,000. Orin Larsen added a silver medal to his collection with an 87.5 on CS Rodeo’s Black Feathers and Sam Peterson took bronze with an 87 on Sankey Rodeo’s Bronc Riding Nation.

Brentan Hall and Paden Bray were the gold medalists in the team roping with a 3.9-second run. Ty Arnold and Kaden Profili was silver after stopping the clock in 4.0 and Marcus Theriot and Cole Curry rounded out the medal stand with bronze in 4.8 seconds.

The Utah Days of '47 Rodeo presented by Zions Bank, is held at the $17.5 million state-of-the-art Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fairpark, custom designed and built for rodeo. The venue—an outdoor arena located in the heart of Salt Lake City—features over 10,000 stadium-style seats.

For only the eighth time in the history of rodeo, riders had an opportunity to compete for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals. The first two times were in conjunction with the Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988) and Salt Lake City (2002), when rodeo was part of the Cultural Olympiad and the other five times being 2017-2023. This will be the fourth time for breakaway ropers as their event was added to the roster in 2019. The medals that will be awarded at the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo will be produced by OC Tanner, the same company that made the Olympic medals for the champions of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Like everyone else, I'm sure, I sometimes don't like to practice what I preach... After all, I would like to have a carnal fit from time to time! And there are times when I want to argue with God about a scripture that seems impossible to do.

James 1:2-4 tells me to count it all joy while in a trial, but I want to slap someone! I Corinthians 13:4-8 describes how love acts. Verse 5 in the Amplified Bible tells me that love takes no account of a suffered wrong. I don't???? But I do!

I know that I have buttons that can be pushed. If I listed them here you'd get nothing else done today, but I'm sure you'd feel better about yourself because you don't have those same buttons! LOL!

Okay. It's not always easy to do the right thing. But the Blessing is attached to doing the right thing. Grab yourself by the ear, take a deep, calming breath, and let's all do better today. Ummmmm but wait a few more hours before you call your satellite radio supplier... I just hung up... I will now be using I John 1:9, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins."

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
