On Target -- Morgan Beckstrom & Slingshot Lane Take National High School Finals Rodeo Title

By Tanya Randall

Spanish Fork, Utah, barrel racer Morgan Beckstrom and her family-raised mare Slingshot Lane took home the 2022 National High School Finals Rodeo Barrel Racing Championship from Rock Springs, Wyoming.

"I redeemed myself," said the two-time Utah State Champion Barrel Racer.

Last year, as a high school freshman, Beckstrom earned her first state title and made her first trip to Nationals, but it didn't go as planned.

"It didn't go very well for me," she admitted. "Slingshot tripped her first round and I tipped a barrel the next run."

After winning the Utah State Championship again as a sophomore, Beckstrom first had to overcome a bigger obstacle than last year's performance. Slingshot was battling abscesses for the two weeks leading up to Nationals.

"It was kind of weird," Beckstrom explained. "She had an abscess and we got it out. We thought, 'Oh that's fine. It's two weeks before Nationals; it will come out.' Well, it came out and I went to ride her but she was lame on it again. She had two abscesses, one one week and another the next week."

While Slingshot got her hoof soaked every day, Beckstrom started getting MJ Lola Lane ready in her stead. Luckily, Slingshot's second abscess blew in time to run at Nationals.

Since she hadn't ridden the mare in two weeks, Beckstrom was just looking for a solid, clean run in the first round, where they placed 10th with a 17.362 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

"I was really happy with that," she said. "I just wanted to keep my barrels up and just go in and have a nice run. I hadn't been riding her since her abscess. The next round I was hoping to be a little bit faster."

They were second in the second round with a 17.097 and second in the aggregate going into the short round.

"I was just so happy," she said of her 17.0. "The short go, I just knew I was second in the average and I had to keep my barrels up to be placing good."

Slingshot clocked a 16.892, the fastest time of the event, to take top the short go and take the National title.

"I had no idea that she had a 16.8 in her," said Beckstrom. "It was really good!"

Immediately following her run, Beckstrom was whisked away to wait in the victory lap Polaris while the remaining 10 barrel racers competed, including the remainder of the Top 4 in the aggregate. "It was really nerve wracking," she said. "When it finally got over it was like a weight had lifted off my shoulders!"

In the meantime, her grandfather Mark Jarvis took care of Slingshot—the horse that led the family to owning the great stallion The Goodbye Lane.

"I was really proud of the horse and her," Jarvis said. "Both of them were so spectacular all week. For Morgan to step up and win like she does... I can't believe how she rises to the occasion at just 16 years old. She and that mare just fit."

Jarvis explained that Slingshot, a 9-year-old daughter of The Goodbye Lane, out of SKS Running Faucet, by Diamond Faucet, is the reason that he purchased the Lanes Leinster, Dash Ta Fame stallion.

THE RUNDOWN w/Morgan Beckstrom

Slingshot Lane ("Slingshot") 15 h, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Elliot long shank lifter no gag

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: Felt

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice 2X Cool or Classic Equine

SHOEING: Aluminum on all four

FEED: None

HAY: Grass

SUPPLEMENTS: Max E Glo, MVP Exceed 6-Way, Zesterra, OE Revive and Wind

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: MagnaWave and Acuscope

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I ride her almost every day. After I get done from a big week, I'll give her week off. Since I'm going to Rexburg, I'll probably give her three days off and then get back on her. I still do some slow work on her. Sometimes she'll get a little short on her second barrel so I have to make her go bigger and make sure I push her into it."

SPONSORS: Kingsville Brand and OE Nutraceuticals

THANKS: Aunt Marcie Wilson, parents Mike and Jodie Beckstrom, grandparents Mark and Linda Jarvis, Beau Beck, DVM, and Chad Hunter, farrier

"I was wanting to breed him to that mare's mother (SKS Running Faucet)," he said. "I bought him to get that cross. That's where all this started. I was trying to come up with this mare (Slingshot). It's just so perfect. It's pretty exciting."

2 Hearts Barrel Racing - Martha Reyenga 318.560.7583

Slingshot was trained by Beckstrom's aunt, Marcie Wilson. Her older sister Gracie got to run her first. When Gracie took the reins of CM Waitin On Lane, it was Beckstrom's turn at Slingshot. They've been a team for the last three years.

"She'll turn them really tight," said Beckstrom of the very ratey mare. "All I have to do is keep pushing and she'll do her job. Everyone always says if you think you want to go to the horn, kick five more strides to the fence!"

Beckstrom will be a junior this fall. She attends public school and is involved with FFA though most of her time is devoted to rodeo. Growing up in a horse family, Beckstrom started riding very early and was running barrels by the time she was 6.

"My whole family was into the horses and rodeo and I always thought it was really cool," she said. "I had the people who could teach me. I always wanted to do it."

Although her mother Jodie has a pro rodeo winning record herself, she spends most of her time hauling her two girls and son Kaiden.

"We all tell her she should start running again," said Beckstrom.

Wilson is the trainer in the family. Both Beckstrom girls spend their time in the arena with Wilson. They ride and get the colts ready for Wilson to work on the pattern.

Beckstrom said she'd like to follow in her aunt's footsteps.

"I think I want to train and work with the horses," she said. "It's just been really fun watching Marcie train all these horses. I think I want to do the training and rodeo. I haven't trained one on my own yet, but I'll probably start this next year or the one after next. It's just hard with school and everything."

Jordon Briggs and Rollo Win WCRA in Salt Lake City Against a Field of Champions

By Britany Diaz

Jordon Briggs and her amazing horse, Famous Lil Jet, better known as Rollo, came out on top of a star-studded field at the World Champions Rodeo Alliance rodeo held during the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo in Salt Lake City, Utah on July 25. This duo added a gold medal to their accomplishments to go with the gold buckle they won in Las Vegas in 2021. The reigning world champions completed the cloverleaf pattern in 17.195 seconds, adding $25,000 to their winnings. Stevi Hillman finished second with a time of 17.220 seconds to win $12,500 and a silver medal. Wenda Johnson was hot on their heels with a time of 17.266 to win the bronze medal and $6,000 for their efforts. Fourth place was filled by Jana Guthrie, who ran a time of 17.311 for a check worth $3,000.

The field started with 32 competitors. These contestants were split into four groups of eight to compete during the first four performances on July 20-23. The fastest time from each of those four performances advanced to the Gold Medal Round. In addition to those four, the next three fast times overall that had not already advanced, would get added to the Gold Medal Round. The field of eight would be completed with the #1 ranked barrel racer from the audited WCRA Days of '47 leaderboard standings. None of the Semi-Final performances times carried over. The eight competitors in the Gold Medal Round competed in a sudden-death format to determine the champion and medal winners. After a very tough race, Briggs came out on top.

The Utah Days of '47 Rodeo does not count towards WPRA standings, but with its convenient time, location and big payout, the best cowgirls all wanted their chance to compete at this prestigious event. Briggs did not win her set of eight to guarantee her a spot in the Gold Medal Round. In fact, Briggs, Hillman and Johnson all competed the same night in the Semi-Finals round. Briggs laughed, "They only take the fastest time of each night to the finals. I told them we should have called each other and planned this better. Luckily, they take the top three fastest times overall. Stevi kicked our butts the first round and had the fastest time, but Wenda and I got through on being one of the three fastest times overall." All three of these cowgirls are having standout seasons and are currently ranked in the top four of the Women's Professional Rodeo Association standings. This race couldn't have been any tougher.

This was Jordon's first time to compete at a WCRA event. They invited the top five in the world to compete with all of the qualifiers. This rodeo is held during a run of large WPRA rodeos that take place from Nampa, ID, Ogden, UT, Spanish Fork, UT and Cheyenne, WY. Briggs shared, "I got invited two months ago. Last year I was so shocked with the payout at Ogden, I knew I wanted to come back. It worked out good to go to Salt Lake and focus on Ogden and Spanish Fork." Briggs did not enter Cheyenne or Nampa. Between Salt Lake City, Ogden and Spanish Fork, Briggs pocketed $36,125!

Jordon and Rollo are currently at the top of the WPRA standings. Briggs says, "Being the number one barrel racer is very surreal, but every run you have got to be perfect and at the top of your game. There is always so much competition coming after you." The championship duo just came off of a big win in Ogden, UT, where they set the arena record with a time of 16.96 and won $8,584. "I just set the arena record in Ogden, but then went to Spanish Fork and ran a 17.06 and split seventh and eight. It is absolutely amazing how fast and tough you have to be. Kudos to the ground crews, tractor drivers and all of the people who are taking care of the ground for us now days and make it possible for us to run these fast times," said Briggs. In fact, in the past two weeks, arena records have been set at the Calgary Stampede, Cheyenne Frontier Days, Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo and at the Snake River Stampede in Nampa, ID.

Rollo seems to like every set up. Briggs has been running him in some large pens and credits that for him being spot on in Salt Lake. "He had a couple days off. He is running so hard from being in these big pens, so to go into a pen where the second and third barrel are so close to the pen, he was just really sharp," said Briggs.

In between runs, you can find Jordon riding Rollo every day. "I want to know how he feels and how he is moving every day. I don't like to warm him up very long, so I will ride him in the afternoon before a night performance. A lot of the time our warm up areas are packed so hard by the time we get to barrel race, so it prevents me from having to lope him a lot on it," said Briggs. "I work barrels a couple times a week on him to just work on my spots and keep him listening good. I work on keeping him collected and breathing hard to keep his lungs fit."

Keeping Rollo happy and rested is of utmost importance to Briggs. "I'm so thankful for Josie Hales (co-owner of stallion, The Goodbye Lane). She let us stay at her place this week in Spanish Fork. She gave Rollo an amazing place to stay and took good care of us.” Briggs has a game plan for this successful season. “I try to enter in a certain mile radius. I try not to run him more than four times a week and not have him in the trailer long. I’m able to take advantage of my RodeoHouston win and just have a very enjoyable summer.” Rollo also stays happy eating as much grass hay as he wants and some alfalfa. He gets Purina Ultium Performance as well.

Briggs is proof that you do not need a trailer full of horses to make the NFR. Obviously Rollo is a great horse, but it also takes entering smart. Briggs has the best person to go to for advice and learn from. Her mother, Kristie Peterson, World Champion Barrel Racer, is full of knowledge. Briggs shared, “My mom only had one horse. Bozo made the NFR eight years in a row, you don’t see many horses last that long anymore. But, my mom only went to 30 or 40 rodeos a year and only took Bozo to places she felt he would shine and do good. I have definitely learned that from her and to take very good care of him. I don’t think it is necessarily the runs that take it out of them. It is the trailer ride and the miles and quality of rest they get. Even if you have two or three horses and they are in the trailer with you, they are still taking the same mileage. If you spend all night driving, every horse in the trailer will feel those miles even if they are not running.” This duo tries to run for two weeks and then have a week off. You will watch them at a few more big rodeos like Dodge City and Phillipsburg and then the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, WY. They will then head home and rest until the Breeders Challenge Derby in Fort Worth in September.

Briggs runs in the Kerry Kelley ported chain Hemi bit at the outdoor rodeos. “The more runs I make on him, the stronger he gets in the alleyway. I use this bit so I can hold him up in the alley.” She will run him in a hackamore indoors. Jordon rides in a Shiloh Contender saddle with a Classic Equine ESP pad. She uses the Classic Equine Flexion by Legacy protective leg gear. Jordon’s husband shoes Rollo. They use a concave steel rim shoe on him. His feet don’t grow as fast as his shoes wear out. They also give him a lot of traction and he does not get sore in them. Briggs also uses ice boots and magnets to keep him feeling good.

Briggs and Rollo have a supportive team behind them to keep them successful. Thank you to all of her sponsors: Durango Boots, Classic Equine, Purina, Horse Hair Analysis, Rodeo Rigs, Shiloh Saddlery, Quanta Services, American Hat Company, Community Coffee, Rock and Roll Denim and of course her family.

Give Me Five -- Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi Captures Fifth California Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

Two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi had won the California Rodeo in Salinas four times with her great horse Yeah Hes Firen ("Duke"), whom she lost late last year. Now, her homebred star Babe On The Chase is keeping her streak alive with a $11,362 victory at the $40,000-added rodeo just off the central California coast.

"How can you not like Salinas? The beach. The cool weather. The good strawberries. It's hard not to like Salinas," said Tonozzi.

The rodeo itself with its three round and short format means contestants are in one place for four days, and it's a nice change of pace in the middle of the summer run.

"There's no other rodeo that I can think of that is a four head average," said Tonozzi, who last won the rodeo with Duke in 2018. "It's so nice because you've been on the road, you've been rodeoing, going here to there. It's such a neat spot to stop and rest. The horses enjoy it because it's cool. It's a really fun spot."

The majority of contestants run in slack earlier in the day with just 12 running in the performance each night.

"Sometimes the perms get a little faster there, but I enjoy running in the slack," said Tonozzi. "That way we can run and leave and go do other things. I was planning on going whale watching, but I couldn't get my kid on the boat. Maybe next year."

Tonozzi's mother Denise Pozzi flew in to spend the long weekend with her granddaughter Tinley, who preferred to do her fish viewing at the world renowned Monterey Bay Aquarium, just a short drive away on the coast.

"We went to the beach. Ate good seafood. There's a lot of really fun things to do there. The rodeo is really fun to watch too. I'm not a person who sits and watches the rodeo, but the rodeo is entertaining and the bullfights afterwards are fun. It's just a neat experience," added Tonozzi.

Competition-wise her 11-year-old Chasin Firewater mare out of the legendary mare Streakin Six Babe, by Streakin Six (owned by Teton Ridge), excelled on the Salinas track.

"I ran her there last year when it was the Tour Finals," Tonozzi explained. "That was the first time I'd ever ran her at Salinas. She did really well so I knew I had to enter again. It's more Birdie's element with the barrels on the fences."

The barrels are held on the race track between the arena, where the roping and roughstock events are held, and the enormous grandstand. A temporary fence is positioned behind the third barrel. The pattern has an "Eiffel Tower" type look to it with a close first and second and a seemingly further than normal run to the third.

They won the first round with a 16.05, split fifth in the second with a 16.25 and were out of the money with a 16.50 in the third.

"She smoked a run the first day," Tonozzi said. "The second day I don't think she fired as hard between one and two. She was still a 16.2, but when you're running against that many tough horses, the difference between an .0 and .2 is huge. The third day I had a horrible run. I went into keep the barrels up mode and I ran her off at the third barrel. I was really mad at myself because I had such a good lead. I was mad at myself because I didn't have that cushion going into the short round."

In the short round, she and Birdie posted the fastest time of the "Bayleigh (Choate), Kris (Gadbois) and Margo (Crowther) all ran before me, so I knew what I had to do," she said. "When Margo and Bayleigh ran such fast times I knew there was no time to safety up. I just went for it."

Tonozzi didn't get to enjoy her win for long because she was up in the Monday night performance in Spanish Fork, Utah.

"I was so excited to win Salinas but then I was like, 'Ugh, now I have to get in the truck and drive!' I didn't even get to bask in my glory," she laughed.

Tonozzi, who is currently ninth in the WPRA World Standings with more than $75,000 won, has some interesting choices ahead with all of the lucrative stallion incentive-funded aged events later this summer and fall.

"I've got to decide what I'm going to do," she said. "I'm entered in the Royal Crown (in Rock Springs, Wyoming) and I'm going to the Breeders Challenge (in September) for sure. Winning that $11,000 helped give me some cushion where I feel a little bit better about going to those."

One thing is for certain, she'll be back at Salinas next year. "Year after year the committee has always been so good," she said, praising the committee. "They've always drug after six even before everyone started dragging. It's so nice to go there and know you're going to run on good ground. They've done an incredible job with that rodeo. The hospitality is amazing. They give the contestants a goodie bag. It's just so fun to go to that rodeo for so many reasons."

Hip Hip Hooray – Dona Kay Rule & High Valor Dominate Snake River Stampede

By Tanya Randall

Dona Kay Rule and High Valor nearly had a clean sweep of the $30,000-added Snake River Stampede, held July 19-23 in Nampa, Idaho. The $12,802 has the three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Minco, Oklahoma, pushing the $100,000 mark in season earnings.

“Is that not amazing!” said Rule, who had hip replacement on April 25. “Boy, it felt great! Nothing hurt! I got a little choked up, honestly, for it not to hurt!”

Rule had battled hip pain for almost two years.

“We spend our lives as cowboys and cowgirls—don’t show any weakness and dang sure don’t whine, but I got pretty good at both of those things. This spring, I said, ‘Golly, I can’t go another mile. My horse is suffering. He’s doing what I’m telling him, but what I’m telling him is wrong because I’m not riding well.’ I had no choice.”

A year earlier, Rule had gone to Dr. Bradley Riddick, a former veterinarian turned orthopedic surgeon. He was the perfect doctor for her because he could explain things in ways that she understood.

“I had gone a year ago and got the pictures and the explanation of you’ll see me sooner or later,” she said. Rule tried to manage the pain with biologic treatments, but the writing was on the wall this spring. “I was sitting in Lufkin, Texas, and called and said, ‘I’ve got to get it done.’ He shuffled some things around and get me in on April 25.”

Rule was pretty good about her physical therapy too. “I did everything he told me to do,” she said. “He said, ‘I know you’re darn well going to do what you want to do’ and I said, ‘No, I’m going to do what you tell me to do, because I don’t want to do this twice!’ I was a good girl. If he said, ‘Do these exercises five times a day,’ I did them five times a day.”

In the meantime, her equine partner Valor got some time off from the road. The 13-year-old gelding, by Valiant Hero out of Rare High, by Rare Form, has been on fire since the break.

“KK (her daughter) took care of him for me,” Rule said. She ponied him every day. He just looks amazing and feels great. It was probably a God thing for Valor to have some rest.”

They made their first run back at the Wainwright Stampede in Alberta, Canada, at the end of June.

“Everybody drives to Canada to make their first run after hip surgery because that makes so much sense,” she laughed. “I did lope through at the little Pauls Valley jackpot just to make sure it didn’t hurt and that I wasn’t going to fall off and ruin something. I loped through and it felt fine so three days later I headed to Canada.”

Rule’s trip north of the border, her first, was very productive. She and Valor got in a speed duel with Kassie Mowry and Famous Ladies Man for one of the most thrilling races of the year at the Calgary Stampede.

“Wasn’t that amazing!” she said. “Everybody wants to win first, that’s our goal when we run, but wasn’t that the funnest [sic] thing to be involved in?”

Now Rule’s back stateside and will stay out a few more weeks before returning home before the Northwest run hits Washington State.

“I love the Northwest, but my daughter is getting married September 24, so I have to get home and do some wedding planning.”

Pure Possibility. Pure Results.

she said. "I'm plenty excited about that. I'm going to carry on through Caldwell (Idaho) at least."

Rule is currently No. 3 in the World Standings and has her fourth NFR qualification well in hand at this point.

"I've very grateful for that," said Rule. "I've been extremely blessed this year with my new hip. The six weeks off didn't hurt Valor at all. He's healthy and seems anxious to go. It sure feels good to feel good again."

She wanted to thank her sponsors for their support and her family for being just a phone call away as well as the countless others who have helped her along the way.

"If I could give you a full list it would take a month to write it all down," she said. "I'm sure I'd forget someone and hurt their feelings, but I would never mean to in the whole wide world. Everybody matters, whomever you touch, and it's up to you to make sure you pass it forward."

WCRA and Lazy E Arena Set to Make Announcement

WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) and the Lazy E Arena will make a breakthrough announcement regarding youth rodeo during the Lazy E Arena's Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo. The press conference will be held in the main arena at the Lazy E Arena and will be available via web stream on the WCRA DY Facebook Page.

The Lazy E Arena centrally located in Guthrie, Oklahoma, is host to such popular permanent fixtures as the Cinch Timed Event Championship and National Little Britches Rodeo Association Finals. The Arena made events like the National High School Finals Rodeo and Bob Feist Invitational Team Roping Classic possible in 2020 during COVID Shutdowns.

In 2021, the Fabulous Lazy E added the Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo presented by Montana Silversmiths to its all-star lineup. Setting the high bar for the rodeo record books, the event plans on paying an estimated $271,000 in 2022 with the goal of being the richest youth rodeo in all of western sports.

The WCJR includes bareback riding, breakaway roping, steer wrestling, team roping, goat tying, saddle bronc riding, pole bending, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding.

RC Landingham Remains in Contention for Million Dollar Bonus

Riding an incredible wave of momentum, RC Landingham (Hat Creek, California) produced what was one of the most ferocious bareback title races in WCRA history. The 30-year-old was the undeniable star of the rodeo going last in delivering what would be the most groundbreaking performance of the event. As only one of two athletes remaining Triple Crown of Rodeo eligible in the Gold Medal Round of competition, his 90.5 ride elevated him to a $25,000 payday. For Landingham, fresh off his win at May's Rodeo Corpus Christi, the event marked his second consecutive WCRA Major, putting him in contention to be a millionaire. If Landingham triumphs at WCRA's Cowtown Christmas Championship, he will be the first victor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 Million Bonus.

Not only did Landingham emerge victorious but did so by defeating 3x World Champion Tim O'Connell (Zwingle, IA) and Dean Thompson (Altamont, UT).

The Steer Wrestling was a tightly contested battle with three athletes notching times under five-seconds. Cash Robb (Altamont, UT) was second to last to go and found himself trying to beat Mason Couch's (Cassville, MO) impressive 4.43-second time.

WESTERN SPORTS ROUNDUP
HOSTED BY STEVE KENYON
JULY 25 | 6PM ET, RE-AIR 7PM ET

The 19-year old emerged victorious after a 4.38-second time, defeating Couch and Sam Power's (Sonora, TX) 4.76-second run. Robb's performance bested Riley Duvall's (Checotah, OK) time, the victor from the 2022 Rodeo Corpus Christi who was seeking his second win in the Triple Crown.

Junior Nogueira (Stephenville, TX) and Kaleb Driggers (Hoboken, GA) was unstoppable in the team roping where they delivered the fastest time the Utah State Fairpark saw all week. The World Champions and now 2x WCRA champions recorded a 4.06-second run in the Gold Medal Round, besting Andrew Ward (Edmond, OK) and Buddy Hawkin's (Stephenville, TX) 4.36-second time.

As the one of only three tie-down ropers to deliver a qualified run, Shane Hanchey (Sulphur, LA) found himself with a edging out Ace Sloan's (Cuero TX) 10.33-second time and Nate Baldwin's (Blackfoot, ID) 9.12-second run.

20x World Champion Jackie Crawford (Stephenville, TX) loaded into the box after no other breakaway ropers earned a qualified run. The 2x WCRA Champion, who set an arena record on Thursday afternoon with a 1.91, sprung out of the box in the Gold Medal Round to earn a swift 2.36-second time. Coming into the event as the No. 1 leaderboard athlete, Josie Conner (Iowa, IA) loading into the box with a winner-take all mentality. The Louisiana native not only won the event and beat the world champion, but set an arena record with an 1.85-second run.

Jordan Briggs (Tolar, TX) won the barrel racing courtesy of her 17.195-second run in the Gold Medal Round, the second fastest time of the week, behind Stevi Hillman's (Granbury TX) 17.111-run on Thursday afternoon. Briggs' time topped Hillman's 17.220-second time in the Gold Medal Round.

On July 31 at Noon ET fans will be able to tune into the Gold Medal Round at the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo on a CBS network broadcast.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $12,772,500 in new money to rodeo athletes.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Since none of us are perfect, I'm sure that we all need corrected from time to time. If you have children, you know that they need direction and a wakeup call sometimes. We are God's children. He loves us and He is trying to grow us up.

So my latest wakeup was this. "Behave like you believe." It was a passing thought by a Bible teacher I was listening to. He might as well have shouted it out because that's how I heard it in my spirit! Road rage, unforgiveness, frustration with the current state of events in our country, and many other things ran through my mind.

Instead of letting all these things dominate my thinking, I should be behaving like I believe. I believe in God. I believe His Word is true. I believe He will protect me.

I believe He is raising up people to lead this country out of its current sorry state. I believe I'm protected from Covid and any other disease, real or imagined.

Why do I believe that? Psalm 91. James 1:25-26. I Peter 5:6-9. I John 5:14-15. Gal. 6:7-10. I Pet. 2:24. John 16:33. Put your eyes on these scriptures this week. You'll be encouraged and hope will arise in your heart! God bless you!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
