KariAnn Cross & DK Star Biankus Take Salt Lake City Gold, Pocket $21,147

By Tanya Randall

KariAnn Cross of Blackfoot, Idaho, spent more time team roping than barrel racing until DK Star Biankus came along.

"I wasn't really a barrel racer, per se," said Cross. "It was just a fun thing to do when I wanted to get away from team roping for a while. Then Star came along, and I just felt like I owed it to her to go out there and see what she could do."

Thanks to Star, Cross left the Utah Days of '47 with a gold medal and $21,147 after besting a field of National Finals Rodeo contenders.

"She probably could have won a lot more (in her career)," said Cross, "but I've done all the work on her, and I have just not let go of the training reins until the other night. I was like, 'You've got to let go of the training reins. We're not going to win anything here if I don't.'"

In the championship round of the rodeo, held July 21-25 in Salt Lake City, Cross and Star nipped new WPRA World Standings leaders Hayle Gibson-Stillwell and Buncha Dinero by .01.

"She loves that arena," Cross said of her 7-year-old mare. "When I entered Salt Lake, I actually thought with all of the qualifications that I was going to get kicked out, but I entered it just because I knew she liked that arena."

"Somehow we got in. I think it's all in God's plan, because I'm honestly not sure that we should have gotten in. I must have been wherever I needed to be to get qualified. I'm sure happy we did!"

The rodeo was limited to 40 contestants with 10 in each performance. The top two from each performance advanced to the clean-slate finals on Saturday.

Cross and Star won their performance with a 17.22, but she wasn't happy with their run.

"Even though she won her set, I felt like I let her down," said Cross. "I didn't ride good. I was just trying to be too fast. That run was sloppy and ugly, and I didn't like it even though she won her set."

Her goal for the finals was to ride better.

"I told my husband that I'm going to try to clean some things up and still try to be fast," she said. "That was my goal because I was kind of embarrassed about my first run."

They made their winning run, a 16.96, as the last team out on the ground. For all of the commotion, neither Cross nor her husband Dan knew the outcome.

"I didn't catch the time completely when I came under the sign," Cross explained. "It said 16 something, and I thought, well, I knew she was first or second, but I didn't know that I had won it until I was actually almost to the podium!"

Star is a completely homemade horse. She is by A French Shawne Bug out of Cross's former barrel horse Friday Girl Biankus, by Sox Em Biankus.

Cross purchased A French Shawne Bug as a weanling and had planned on cutting him until a longtime horse breeder, whom she respected, talked her out of it.

"I ran the stud on barrels for a while," Cross said. "He really showed a lot of potential and did really well for the little bit I got to run him. He got hurt and has just been in the pasture breeding

Cross said of all the horses that she raised, Star was the most difficult to halter break, but the little filly was always determined.

"She's very headstrong and super confident," she said. "I think that's what makes her so good at whatever you want her to do."

Typically, the Cross program consists of 14 days with an outside colt starter after the ground work has all been done and then the horses get their handling polish under her saddle.

"I ride them until they're 3 or 4 and then depending on what event they're going to do, they'll go over to my husband if they're going to rope. If they're going to barrel race, then they stay with me. We have several that we rope and run barrels on, so he might ride them a month or two roping and then I'll take them back to the barrel pen. We kind of run our program back and forth.

Star didn't fancy being a rope horse.

"When I first started riding her at 2 and 3, I would gather and bring the cattle from the catch pen and she'd bite through the bars at them. I'd run the chute off of her while they were roping, and I really thought, 'Man, she might just be a really cool cow pony. Then when we roped the dummy on her a few times, she's like, 'Eh, whatever.' When we chased a few steers on her it was obvious that her heart was not into it."

Star started her career at a few futurities and amateur rodeos before finishing the year at the pro level. Former NFR qualifier Sue Smith encouraged Cross to test the waters.

"She said, 'You have a really nice mare,'" Cross recalled. "You should go run her somewhere. So I just ventured out a little bit.

"After her 5-year-old year, I was like, 'You know what. I think she has a chance. So I set the circuit finals as a goal. She achieved that, and I thought, you know, I'll stay out there a little bit just because I owe it to her and she loves it. She loves the crowd. She loves the noise. She loves all of it.'"

Cross and Star qualified for their first Wilderness circuit finals last season after "what seemed to me like a ton of rodeoing, which to the normal rodeo girl was not very much. This year, she backed off on hauling but is currently in contention for a second qualification.

"I've got 25-plus horses standing here," she said. "I ride 10 to 12 head every day when I'm home. I just don't like being gone. I like the process more than the end result, not that I didn't enjoy winning all that money at Salt Lake. My husband thinks I'm crazy. I like riding my colts. I like going to time onlies. I like roping on them when they're young. I like seeing the progress. That's my deal."

Bucket List Win for Tayla Moeykens & KN Fames Best Yet at Cheyenne Frontier Days

By Tanya Randall

It was only a matter of time.

Since their first appearance at the Cheyenne Frontier Days three years ago, Tayla Moeykens and KN Fames Best Yet (“Yeti”) proved to be contenders.

The first year, JM Pocketsdoubledash (“Lizard”) qualified Moeykens to the famed rodeo’s performances, where Yeti—who was just 6—took a liking to Cheyenne’s pebbled beach footing.

Moeykens and Yeti finished fifth in their first Cheyenne finals in 2024, and a year later, were reserve champs to Lisa Lockhart and Rosas Cantina CC.

This year, Moeykens and Yeti chased down former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jana Bean and Flashin Bills to take the victory, 17.41 to 17.43, for a $16,266 total payoff.

“Cheyenne is one of those prestigious bucket list rodeos and it’s cool that I can put it on my resume,” said the Three Forks, Montana, barrel racer. “To be able to put it on my resume is mind-blowing. It’s one of those things that you’re going to look back on 10 years from now and still think it’s the coolest thing in the world.”

This year’s edition of the Cheyenne Frontier Days, held July 17-26, was markedly different from previous years with the elimination of the qualifying first round that was held in slack. Rather than being open to all WPRA card members, the rodeo took just 72 that were filtered into performances of 12 contestants with the top four from each advancing to one of three semifinals. The top four from each semifinal advanced to the final championship round.

Moeykens and Yeti won their first round with a 17.55.

“He likes Cheyenne for some reason,” said Moeykens, who qualified for her first NFR in 2025. “That first round, he just went in and did his job. It was a really pretty pattern.”

They squeaked into the finals in last hole in their semifinal with a 17.90.

“I had a little rider error at the first barrel, so Yeti had to boot, scoot and boogie,” she said. “He nailed his second and third barrel, which helped us make it back.”

Moeykens and Yeti were 11th out in the finals on Sunday.

“He handled it amazing,” said the former Montana State Bobcat, who wrapped Yeti’s legs in the school’s blue and gold. “He adjusted really well. I have no explanation for why he likes Cheyenne so much, but he does.”

Yeti, now 8, joined Moeykens’ team when injuries left her without a mount to finish out her junior season of college rodeo in 2023. Kava Huestis loaned her the Dash Ta Fame gelding, that Kenny Nichols and Dale Barron had raised out of the Frenchmans Fabulous daughter KN Fabulous N Khaki. Moeykens purchased Yeti after taking the reserve national championship at the College National Finals that year.

Moeykens also picked up $1,909 for placing at the Central Montana PRCA Rodeo in Lewiston aboard Lizard, her Pendleton Roundup Champion mount, during the week.

The two horses have made a very formidable team as they both can excel everywhere.

"I think that's why I love these two so much is I can put them in any situation, and they're going to give me their best that they have for that day. They just don't care.

"They definitely have rodeos that they like better than others, but they never go through the gate and not try for me."

In the beginning, Lizard handled "more rodeo" of rodeo ground due to his age and experience, but now Yeti is proving to have the same abilities.

"When (Yeti) was 5 and 6, I wanted to make sure to give him confidence," she said, "so he got the better of the rodeo ground and Lizard took the other stuff because he has more experience on bad ground. The past two years, we've started branching out a little bit (with Yeti) and he adapted well. This year, Yeti has really grown up and matured and has learned how to handle the not so perfect dirt."

Unofficially, Moeykens now sits No. 7 in the WPR World Standings with projected season earnings of $105,747.

"We're a bit ahead of where we were last year at this time," she said, "but we know how tough it is out here. There's still a long way to go, so we're going to keep our heads down and stay focused on each rodeo."

Skyler Nicholas & Perrywater Dash Close Out High School Career as National Champions

By Tanya Randall

On the trip home to Rockdale, Texas, it hit her. Skyler Nicholas had competed at her very last high school rodeo.

"We had our last (high school) region rodeo. I didn't cry. At my last state finals, I didn't cry. Then it hit me yesterday coming home. That was my last high school nationals that I will ever go to."

Nicholas and her great mare Perrywater Dash ("Jessie") closed out their high school career winning the barrel racing championship at the National High School Finals Rodeo, held July 19-25 in Lincoln, Nebraska. The pair, who won the National Junior title in 2022, won the three-run aggregate on a WPRA Standard Pattern by nearly half a second.

The incoming Tarleton State University freshman had taken three horses with her to Lincoln: her 6-year-old gelding The Dream Crusher ("Crush"), her futurity colt Stole The Lead ("Taki") and Jessie.

"I had taken Taki really to just get some seasoning, and in my head, I had planned on running Crush. I wanted to give him a shot on the big stage. Like it's time, you know."

"That first night before I ran, I prayed and prayed for a sign. It was supposed to rain, and I didn't want to run him in the mud because I didn't know if he could handle it yet. So, I prayed, and that night, we got some rain. I woke up that morning thinking it needs to be Jessie."

Nicholas and Jessie were fifth in the first round with a 17.332.

"She kind of safety-ed up but clocked really well," said the future nursing student and college rodeo athlete. "The ground wasn't bad, but it wasn't the best it had been all week."

Sticking with Jessie in the second round, Nicholas posted the fastest time of the rodeo thus far, a 17.036, to take the two run aggregate lead into the short go.

"I knew I could send her a little bit harder because she also had first on the ground," Nicholas explained. "She was the fastest time of the week, and I was like, 'OK! Alright Jessie!'"

Nicholas briefly thought about switching horses for the finals but opted to stick with her partner of the last 10 years.

"I went back-and-forth on who to run," she said. "I knew I had to be fast, and eventually, I decided to go with Jessie. I knew I wanted to finish out my high school career on her. She started my NHSRA career in the eighth grade. I wanted it for sentimental reasons. No matter what, at least I'll get to finish out this on her. She came out and ran the fastest time of the week. It was a very special moment."

They clocked a 16.986 to win the short and aggregate in their third appearance at high school nationals, having qualified as a freshman and junior as well.

"I actually almost fell off at the end," she chuckled. "We don't run to close gates here in Texas, and Jessie got a bit smart to it. She kind of hit hard and went out right as I was trying to look back at the timer. Yeah...I almost fell off."

Nicholas, who got the horse training bug from her parents Jeremy and Lisa, hasn't run Jessie as much as she has switched her focus to her younger up-and-coming horses.

"I've been running Crush a lot and the futurity horses," she said. "I ran Jessie the first round of state, and she didn't clock really great, so I pulled out Crush, and he did really good."

"She's kind of just been on the semi-retirement train. I just run her where I think she'll do good, where I think she wants to run. I might pull her out for some college rodeos, if there's some big outdoor (pens) that I think she'd like, but I'm kind of just going to do whatever I think she wants, because it's her world. I'm just living in it!"

The 14-year-old mare has been her championship mare since they were paired together when the mare was just 4.

Fire Waters Free, was raised by Vickie Adams for Rod and Georgina Mattinson and sold to the Nicholas family as a prospect. Jessie was started under saddle by Jeremy and trained for barrels by Lisa before becoming Nicholas' step-up horse.

Together they've won $427,000.

Now Nicholas is riding Jessie's babies. She's been winning local races on her Tres Fortunes, Stratosfortune, and has a Shawne Bug Leo out of her as well.

Like her parents, her passion is training horses.

"My heart is training colts," she said. "That's where I'm happiest."

Teen World Champions; Summer Muhlenkamp & TS French Traffic Triumph at NBHA Youth World Championships

The heat of summer not only means a bunch of big rodeos but it is also the time of the year where the most talented youth barrel racers in the country head to Perry, GA for the NBHA Youth & Teen World Championship! We caught up with both champions to get a little more info on their big win. The first one we caught up with is a name we have been seeing a lot in the barrel races east of the Mississippi; Ts French Traffic & Summer Muhlenkamp!

BRR: Can you walk us through your winning run at the NBHA Youth Teen Finals?

Muhlenkamp: My winning run was a 14.596, which took the lead by one thousandth of a second! I went into my finals run with a plan to 100% go for it. Flame nailed the first barrel and set up for a great second. Heading to the third I knew I just needed to push her all the way to her pocket. Flame hit her points perfectly and made a beautiful third turn. I was so excited and in shock when they announced that we took the lead by 0.001 seconds!

BRR: Can you tell us a little about your horse up to this point in her career?

Muhlenkamp: TS French Traffic has had several big wins in her career including the MEGA open barrel race in 2025 and Reserve Champion of the All American Youth in 2025. She is an American Semi-finals qualifier and arena record holder, and winning the 1D NBHA Youth Teen World Championship puts her at 140k LTE.

BRR: What did you do this past couple weeks to have your horse at her best?

Muhlenkamp: I did a ton of long trotting out in the pasture to get Flame in really great shape to take on the heat of Perry, GA.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend prior to entering the arena?

Muhlenkamp: I mentally prepared for this run by listening to pump-up music and taking my horses for walks to calm my nerves.

BRR: How did you get started barrel racing?

Muhlenkamp: I started barrel racing in 4-H and in at my local saddle club, Harry Hughes Speed Series in 2018. It was just something fun for me to do outside of jumping or doing the pleasure classes.

BRR: Who is your favorite barrel racer?

Muhlenkamp: My all time favorite barrel racer is Fallon Taylor. Her online platform has helped me build habits that will benefit me for a lifetime both inside and outside the arena. She was so encouraging to me before I was even 4D at the local level, and I will never forget that.

BRR: What is the funniest thing your horse does?

Kadisson Shank & Biankus A Fortune Win NBHA Youth World Championship

We caught up with the NBHA Youth World Youth Champion Kadisson Shank to talk to her about her great horse Biankus A Fortune and her big win this past weekend!

BRR: Can you walk us through your winning run at the NBHA Youth Finals?

Shank: I had a really solid first go, my second go was pretty shaky, and it took me into the finals a little worried about the first barrel. He had a lot of energy that I had to work out of him, before we ran.

My dad told me "Now is not the time to be shy, push hard, be loud, sit hard and don't let up until you get back to this gate". So that is what I did. I really didn't think that we were that fast leaving the first barrel, so I knew we had to make up ground coming up to the second barrel, pushed hard to the third, and I never let up.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about your horse up to this point in his career?

Shank: Colt was trained by Melissa McDonald and came from Double Nickle Ranch in Texas.

He has several Futurity & Derby 1-D wins on his record. I won the Buckeye Futurity with him and the Derby Slot Race a month and a half ago. We also had a great show, winning the Cooper Steel Classic Derby in Shelby, TN last month.

BRR: What did you do this past couple weeks to have your horse at his best?

Shank: I ride a lot and just try to keep him in the best shape I can. My dad keeps me on a good riding schedule and really works with our horses to keep them looking good.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend prior to entering the arena?

Shank: I always pray with my Dad before we run. Then I take a couple of deep breaths and really just focus on keeping Colt calm.

BRR: How did you get started barrel racing?

Shank: I did my first barrel pattern with my older sister's pleasure horse and just liked it. I didn't want to do pleasure like my sister, so I would just run her old pleasure horse.

BRR: Who is your favorite barrel racer?

Shank: -Hailey Kinsel

BRR: What is the funniest thing your horse does?

Shank: He will only eat apples, real slow like a human. Sometimes it takes him six bites to eat an apple. It always makes me laugh.

BRYEL MULLIGAN BENEFIT AUCTION

All proceeds will go to help Bryel Mulligan & family with treatment and expenses, as she battles metastatic breast cancer.

In May, life changed forever with what was initially believed to be a Stage II breast cancer diagnosis. As plans were being made for treatment, additional testing—including CT scans and a bone scan—revealed devastating news: the cancer had already spread to her bones. At just 48 years old, she was diagnosed with Stage IV metastatic breast cancer.

She has to continue this fight as hard as she can because she has a seven-year-old son, Mason, who needs his mom. More than anything, she wants to be here to watch him grow up, celebrate his milestones, and make as many memories with him as possible. While Stage IV metastatic breast cancer is treatable, it is not curable. She is now facing a lifelong battle that will require ongoing chemotherapy, immunotherapy, routine scans, blood work, specialist appointments, medications, and treatments to help manage the disease and strengthen her bones. She also hopes to pursue complementary therapies to support her health and improve her quality of life, many of which are not covered by insurance.

The emotional and financial impact of this diagnosis is overwhelming. The cost of continuous treatment, medications, travel to appointments, lost income, and everyday living expenses will continue to grow. This fundraiser has been created to help ease that burden so she can focus on what matters most—fighting this disease, making precious memories with Mason, and living each day to the fullest.

Every donation, no matter the amount, will go directly toward medical expenses and treatment-related costs. If you're unable to donate, sharing this fundraiser and keeping her in your thoughts and prayers would mean more than words can express.

Thank you for your kindness, generosity, and support during this difficult journey. Every act of compassion brings hope and reminds her that she is not fighting this battle alone.

Gold Medals Awarded in Salt Lake City

In front of the sold-out crowd gold medals were awarded to close out the 2026 edition of the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo presented by Zions Bank.

The night got underway with No. 1 ranked bareback rider Bradlee Miller posting a 90-point ride aboard Championship Rodeo's Hooey Rocks to stand atop the medal stand for the first time in his career. He is hoping to parlay this gold into a gold buckle in December in Las Vegas at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. Kade Sonnier took silver with an 89 and Jess Pope a bronze in 88.5.

The Gold Standard in Rodeo featured a total of 360 competitors, that took their shot at a share of over three-quarters of a million in prize money and a gold, silver or bronze medal that. There were 40 competitors in all events

Utah cowboy Cash Robb stood atop the steer wrestling medal stand for the second time after stopping the clock in 3.7 seconds. The Altamont cowboy won his first gold medal in 2022 and now he adds a second to his trophy case in 2026. Mason Couch grabbed the silver with a 4.2 and Rowdy Parrott the bronze in 4.5 seconds.

The timed events, excluding barrel racing, were a two-go average with the top two advancing to the final round. The roughstock was a one go with the top two advancing to the gold medal round.

There was a tie atop the leaderboard in the team roping with Clay Smith and Coleby Payne along with Cody Snow and Lane Mitchell stopping the clock in 5.1 seconds. The gold went to Smith and Payne as they had a faster average time coming into the final round. Capturing the bronze was Brye Crites and Ross Ashford with a 5.2.

Scores/times did not carry forward to the Gold Medal Round (only to break ties). The eight (8) competitors in each event in the Gold Medal Round competed in a sudden-death format with the winner collecting a Gold Medal and $18,000 cash.

Brody Wells took home the gold in the saddle bronc riding after posting a 91.5 on Carr ProRodeo's Larry Culpepper. The silver is staying in the Beehive state with Ryder Wright of Beaver turning in an 89.5 aboard Andrew's Rodeo's Optiwise's All or Nothin and Sage Newman took home the bronze with an 89. Newman tied with Cash Wilson but Newman had the higher score coming in giving him the bronze.

Tyler Calhoun of Richards, Texas, left Salt Lake City a year ago with the bronze so he was determined to stand atop the medal stand in 2026 and he did just that. Calhoun won the gold in the tie-down roping with a time of 7.2 seconds edging Joel Harris of San Angelo, TX with a 7.4. Blane Cox took home the bronze to Stephenville making it a Texas sweep in the tie-down roping.

Beau Peterson of Council Grove, Kansas, was all smiles standing atop the medal stand in the breakaway roping taking home her first gold medal from the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo. She edged 2023 world champion Shelby Boisjoli-Meged, who welcomed her first child in May. Boisjoli-Meged stopped the clock in 2.6 seconds and Maddy Jacobs was hot on her heels with a 2.7 for bronze.

While top of the ground is preferred in the barrel race it was bottom of the ground that landed atop the medal stand. KariAnn Cross of Blackfoot, Idaho stopped the clock in 16.96 as the last lady out edging Hayle Gibson Stillwell and Piper by the narrowest of margins having stopped the clock in 16.97 seconds. Taking bronze was McKenna Coronado of Kanarraville, Utah.

Tristen Hutchings brought the night to an close taking home the gold in the bull riding as the only man to ride in the finals with an 85 on Diamond G Rodeo's Tesla. John Crimber secured the silver after posting a 90 during the long round and TJ Gray got bronze based on his previous score.

130th Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo Crowns 8 Pro Rodeo Champions

The 130th Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo (CFD) ended its 10-day run with an electric final championship round. Champions were crowned in all eight professional rodeo events, plus the all-around and the wild horse race.

Three champions were following a legacy at the Daddy of'em all beginning in the saddle bronc riding with three-time world champion Ryder Wright. The second-oldest son of Cody Wright, who won two world titles but never won the rodeo here, followed the success of his younger brother Stetson who has won the all-around, bull riding and saddle bronc riding at Frontier Park.

Three cowboys scored 92 points on Championship Sunday, beginning with four-time CFD champ Brody Cress on Summit Pro Rodeo's horse called Heavy Feathers. Then Montana's Sage Newman matched with Sankey Pro Rodeo & Phenom Genetics' THE Black Tie, a horse that has carried the past three CFD champs to the title. Newman scored 92 and tied with Cress. Wright was next to leave the chute on Rafter S Rodeo's horse named Cancun Moon. The bronc has a hard-to-track style, and Wright said he "had never seen a right-handed guy get along with this horse." Wright, who rides right-handed, marked 92 points for a three-way tie which was broken by money won at CFD before the championship round.

"I've competed here 11 years and it finally went my way," Wright said. He commented on the intense competition, adding that he "likes to beat people at their best, not when they fall off."

In team roping the championship was also a close race with world champions Kaleb Driggers and Junior Nogueira stopping the clock in 7.6 seconds to take the lead with one team to go. Texas young guns Tyler Tryan and Nicky Northcott, the final team, matched the champs' effort. Both teams had earned the same in the earlier competition, so the championship went to the duo with the fastest time before the finals — the Texans.

Tryan, 20, and Northcott, 19, are sons of champion ropers Clay Tryan and Steve Northcott and have been roping together since they were about 10 years old. In May they decided to rope together professionally and that decision proved wise. They are ranked seventh and sixth respectively in the world standings. Tryan is the second roper in his family to win a CFD title. His father Clay won in 2013 and 2022.

Cole Eiguren of Fruitland, Idaho, earned the all-around title, competing in the tie-down and team roping. His grandfather Jack Hannum won the CFD all-around title in both 1977 and 1979, competing in steer wrestling and tie-down roping. Hannum also won event titles in both of those events in 1979 (steer wrestling) and 1977 (tie-down roping).

The first cowboy to compete on Championship Sunday was steer roper Slade Wood of Stephenville, Texas. He set the pace with a time of 12.3 seconds that none of the other ropers could beat to win the title. Wood, who has competed at the National Finals Steer Roping four times at age 23, had been concentrating more on team roping this year.

The bareback riding competition was tight with four rides in the 90s. The first to score 90 was former high school national champion Kash Loyd. Montana's Trevar McAllister then scored 91.5. Oklahoma's Jayco Roper, a third-generation rodeo athlete who has been to the National Finals Rodeo (NFR) twice, came within half a point of tying the CFD record with 93 points on Summit Pro Rodeo's horse named CC Blue. Former CFD champ Kade Sonnier, the last to ride, scored 91.5 to tie McAllister.

Idaho cowboy Britt Bedke took the win in the tie-down roping with a time of 10.3 seconds. Bedke has competed at CFD four times, making the finals three of them. "This is a dream win for me," he said. Bedke was riding an eight-year-old horse he calls Rico.

Cheyenne McCartney took the breakaway roping win in Cheyenne. The Louisiana native who now lives in Oklahoma is having her best pro rodeo season. She vaulted to the world standings earlier this month by winning the Calgary Stampede. The final roper on Sunday, McCartney roped her calf in 4.3 seconds for the championship.

Cole Pugh, a two-time College National Finals Rodeo qualifier for Sam Houston State University in his native Texas, bested two-time NFR cowboy Tristan Martin by one-tenth of a second to win the steer wrestling.

Montana's Tayla Moykens finished as reserve champion here in 2025. This year she was back on her horse KN Fames Best Yet that she calls Yeti who seems to love Frontier Park. Moykens, a former college national champion, was the 11th of 12 women to compete. She took the lead with a time of 17.41 seconds, but had to wait for reigning and two-time CFD champion Lisa Lockhart to run. Lockhart knocked over the first barrel and Moykens knew she had won the championship.

The bull riding winner, Luke "Colorado Kid" Mackey, was aiming for redemption after he was unsuccessful during the CFD Xtreme Bulls event this past Monday and Tuesday. His 90-point ride on Dakota Rodeo's Tiger King took the championship. Mackey, who was 15th going into the end of last season, is ranked sixth in the current world standings and should avoid the nerve-wracking end-of-season race to qualify for his second NFR.

The 131st edition of Cheyenne Frontier Days is planned for July 2027.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I love when you have "one hundred easy steps to weight loss". Or "two easy steps to better communication". How about "13 easy steps to parenting"? (LOL). Steps are great with me.

So, at Bible study last Tuesday night, Mike gave us 6 "steps of discipline" to develop. Oh, I was so excited. I can do 6 steps! Church got over at 11:15. By 2:30 I had completely violated step 4...

It was "how to have emotional control in the middle of chaos"...

Although I can justify my actions, my delivery was more a hammer than a still small voice...

And to make matters worse...on the way to Bible study, I had told Mike that a good message would be one on how a person should act when everything is going beserk!!!! I did not know anything about what he was teaching.

God had my answer before I even asked. And I blew it. Have you blown it lately?

I John 1:9. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteous!
