All Tied Up – Shali Lord & Nellie Miller Named Co-Champions at Cheyenne Frontier Days

By Tanya Randall

After a day of uncertainty, Shali Lord and Nellie Miller were named co-champions of the new tournament-style Cheyenne Frontier Days, held July 20-28 in Wyoming.

In years past, Cheyenne was a two run, finals and average championship. This year, the rodeo committee chose to go with a tournament style rodeo, with a qualifying round held over two slacks, sifting 72 contestants into individual quarterfinals during the performances. The top four from each quarterfinal advance to one of two semifinals. The top six from each semifinal advanced to a clean-slate Finals on Sunday.

Initially both Lord and Miller had clocked a 17.22 in the Finals. The championship honors and prize package were awarded to Miller immediately following her run based on published tie-break rules for the previous rounds—quarterfinals and semifinals.

However, closer inspection of the ground rules gave no detailed procedure for ties in the clean-slate Final round itself. It was announced that the Frontier Days Committee was naming Lord co-champion and having the prize package replicated for her.

“It was awesome,” said Lord, who praised her mount, the 10-year-old stallion Freckles Ta Fame (Can Man). “He did great. He loved it. I’m grateful and so happy with him. I’m so happy that I was in the position to run that time.”

The Lamar, Colorado, barrel racer was also happy to have Joe and Carla Spitz, who own and bred Can Man (Dash Ta Fame x Frenchmans Freckles x Frenchmans Guy) on hand to see their stallion win the prestigious rodeo.

Lord and Can Man made their first run at Cheyenne in the first set of slack on Friday, July 12. They were tied for 26th with a 17.84. Their second run the quarterfinals was on Monday, July 22, where they earned $1,958 for a 17.65 that finished second to Meg Champion, who was riding Rachel Tice’s 12-year-old mare TivitosAtTheGoGoBar (Tivitos Sugar Bar x Red Oak Doll x Flips Red Oak).

Immediately following their run, Lord hopped a plane for the Fiesta Days Rodeo in Spanish Fork, Utah, where she rode the 9-year-old mare Frosted In Fame (Dash Ta Fame x Judges Fancy Frost x Sun Frost). She also ran the mare at the Days Of '47 in Salt Lake City before returning to Cheyenne.

Can Man, meanwhile, rested at home, for the second performance of semifinals on Saturday, July 27. A 17.56 gave Can Man and Lord the win in the semifinals and $3,786.

Gold Medals Awarded at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo

What a great night to cap off Utah's Pioneer Day at the Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo presented by Zions Bank in Salt Lake City on Wednesday night. A total of nine gold medals were handed out along with silver and bronze in each event as the rodeo came to a close in 2019.

Reigning world champion barrel racer Hailey Kinsel was the only defending champion to claim another gold medal and set two records – an arena record and the only contestant to win three gold medals from the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo.

"It is definitely all Sister," said Kinsel, of her great horse DM Sissy Hayday that she calls Sister. "She loves this arena and the format fits her. I am so proud of my horse. Every time I ask her to throw down in a pressure run she does. She tries so hard."

Kinsel stopped the clock in a record setting time of 16.794 seconds on the final night to claim the back-to-back-to-back title in Salt Lake City. With it she also added another $50,000 to her bank account.

"It is such a blessing," said Kinsel about winning her third gold medal. "My first two medals are on display at my parents' house on the TV stand as I am not very good about putting holes in a wall but now that I have three maybe I can do something cool with them."

Taking the silver and bronze for the first time in their career were Maggie Polonic of Gillette, Wyo., with a 16.834 and Michelle Darling of Medford, Okla., with a 16.860.

A total of 288 competitors took their shot at a share of the over $1 million in prize money over the 5-day rodeo and a Gold, Silver or Bronze medals were awarded in the following events: bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, women's breakaway roping, barrel racing and bull riding.

World Champion Zeke Thurston added a gold medal to his gold buckle after scoring 89 points on Bar T Rodeo's Son of Sadie. Thurston of Big Valley, Alberta, just edged Cort Scheer of Elsmere, Neb., by one point. Scheer rode Bar T Rodeo's Hell Boy for 88 points. In fact, Bar T had all three top horses on the night as Lefty Holman took bronze with an 87.5 on Bitter Dan.

Winning the inaugural breakaway roping gold medal was 16 year old Jordi Edens of Gatesville, Texas. Edens stopped the clock in a blistering fast time of 2.58 seconds to edge 18-time world champion Jackie Crawford for the title. Crawford finished in a time of 2.76 to win the silver and Nicole Baggerley-Sweazea of Las Cruces, N.M., took home the bronze in a time of 3.03 seconds.

The night began with fans and officials on the edge of their seats in the bareback riding. When the dust had settled and official scoring was reviewed seven-time Wrangler NFR qualifier Caleb Bennett recorded the highest score on the night with an 89 on Northcott-Macza's Stevie Knicks, while Utah favorite and four-time world champion Kaycee Field tallied 88.25 points on Sankey Rodeo's Sozo. Due to a technical scoring error resulting in a wrong order of finish initially being reported the committee opted to award both Bennett and Feild Gold medals for 2019. Orin Larsen and Clint Laye tied for third with 85.75 but Larsen received the bronze medal after having a higher spur ride on the night.

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank, is taking place at the $17.5 million state-of-the-art Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fairpark, custom designed and built for rodeo. The venue—an outdoor arena located in the heart of Salt Lake City—features over 10,000 stadium-style seats.

For only the fifth time in the history of rodeo, riders had an opportunity to compete for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals. The first two times were in conjunction with the Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988) and Salt Lake City (2002), when rodeo was part of the Cultural Olympiad and the other two times being the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo in 2017 and 2018. This was the first time for breakaway ropers as they were not part of the aforementioned events. The medals that were awarded at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo were produced by OC Tanner, the same company that made the Olympic medals for the champions of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games. For more information on the event visit www.daysof47cowboygames.com.

A highlight show of the 2019 Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo will air on CBS on July 28 at 10 a.m. MT.

Rodeo Logistics Changing the Landscape of Rodeo

In comparison to other sports and business industries- rodeo is starving for technology upgrades in current processes industry wide. Today, Rodeo Logistics publicly launches offering the world's leading technology to the entire rodeo ecosystem.

"We saw an industry hungry for innovation," said Rodeo Logistics COO Jeff Hermon. "Rodeo Logistics is devoted to transforming current processes in the rodeo world through the implementation of technology. We are leading the future of rodeo innovation and will continue to release new software tools to advance the entire industry."

Prior to taking the reins at Rodeo Logistics, Hermon has been dedicated to assisting companies in achieving their business development goals through technical solutions. With more than 20 years under his belt, he has vast experience in the areas of software engineering, technical solution development, software development, and project management.

Unbeknownst to many, Rodeo Logistics has already proven themselves to the rodeo industry over the last 18 months. As the tech developer of the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) for the World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA), the firm and its software has successfully managed tens of thousands of rodeo athlete nominations worldwide. In addition, Rodeo Logistics developed and launched the WCRA VRQ Entry Tool which has processed several thousand rodeo entries for all WCRA semi-finals and major rodeos, including the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo.

"As an independent rodeo in 2018, we took our entries for our invitational athletes internally while the tool was used for qualifiers," said Days of '47 Cowboys Games and Rodeo General Manager Tommy Joe Lucia. "After seeing the ease and performance of Rodeo Logistics' entry tool last year, we decided to have them take all of our entries for the 2019 event and the entire process has been very efficient."

The Austin, Texas based company is taking a different approach to the rodeo industry. Historically, the orchestration of rodeo was led by organizing bodies developing processes for their own business needs independently. Uniquely, Rodeo Logistics is developing its software with the enormous capacity to serve every level of rodeo competition and everyone in the ecosystem including; organizers, athletes, secretaries, committees, producers, promoters and contractors.

In the Finals on Sunday, Lord and Can Man were fourth out on the ground. The talented crowd drew a lot of admirers from potential breeders when he showcased not only his prowess on the pattern, but his great disposition as he walked flat-footed toward the barrel pattern.

"He is just so calm and so relaxed," said Lord. "Normally at any other rodeo, I collected him and get him in my hands. I feel like when I get him in my hands and get him where he's giving to the bit, that makes him more excited, so I don't do that there (at Cheyenne). I try to keep him quiet and he responds so well. He was looking around even. I was like 'Okay buddy, pay attention!' He was just 'Oh, what's going on here?'"

The split in the Final round was worth $6,919.

All totaled, Lord collected $12,663 at Cheyenne. She's currently fourth in the WPRA World Standings with $96,585.

Lord has a relatively close little run in Kansas with Phillipsburg on Wednesday, Abilene on Thursday, and Dodge City on Friday. She'll run Frosted In Fame at Phillipsburg and Abilene.

For Miller, it was her second-straight Cheyenne Frontier Days Championship with her 11-year-old homebred mare Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister"). They collected the lion's share of the purse, $20,887.

"It's great!" Miller said of her win. "I think every win is special, from the smallest to the biggest. Winning it one time...I never thought I would win it twice! Sister just loves that arena!"

Miller and Sister actually started their journey to the Cheyenne championship before they'd wrapped up the Calgary Stampede in Canada. They were out in Pool A in Calgary, which allowed them to duck back down stateside for a few rodeos including slack for the first round at Cheyenne, held on July 12.

"We went to Cheyenne during the second set of girls at Calgary," explained Miller. "I was dead last, but I was first on the drag."

After their slack run, Miller loaded Sister right back up to return to Canada for Championship Sunday at the Calgary Stampede. Miller and Sister advanced to the Showdown, where they finished fourth. With $27,000 in their pockets, they headed home to Cottonwood, California, after Calgary to rest for a few days before attending their richest circuit rodeo in Salinas.

Meanwhile, Miller and Sister's 17.44 held throughout the second set of slack on Monday, July 15, to win the first round for $8,224.

"I hit a barrel in the first round at Salinas, so we didn't make the short round there," she said. "We actually got to go home from there and rest a day before we left to go to Cheyenne."

Miller and Sister won their quarterfinal on Wednesday, July 24, with a 17.28, worth $2,610, and hung out in the area until their next run in the first performance of semifinals on Friday, July 26. In the semifinals, they finished second with a 17.43, worth $3,133, to Cheyenne Wimberly and KN Fabs Mist Of Fame (Frenchmans Fabulous x Mistys Dash Of Fame x Dash Ta Fame)'s 17.21, the fastest run of the rodeo.

In the Finals, Miller and Sister were 11th on the ground, and they threw down again with a 17.22 to earn $6,919 for the first-place split.

Miller said having time to rest has kept Sister running strong this year.

"The way it worked out we got to spend some more time at home and that really seems to refresh her and get her back to feeling good," she said. "We didn't drive all over the place like we've done in previous years so we just sat in Cheyenne for the week. I think all of that adds up."

Miller currently leads the WPRA World Standings with $145,945. The 2017 WPRA World Champion said she'll take it pretty easy the rest of the season.

"I've entered a few, a handful, in the Northwest that I really like," she said, "but it's pretty quiet for the rest of the summer. I'll just ease around and hopefully get my younger horse going better. We're not going to be too busy the next couple of months."

Format Change

The format change to the Cheyenne Frontier Days was one of the most widely debated rodeo topics of the summer. By electing to go with the tournament-style format, which was promoted as TV-friendly, the committee was able to jump the added money to $65,000, thanks to RFD-TV/Cowboy Channel.

Many of the top competitors in the steer wrestling and calf roping opted out of entering "The Daddy of 'Em All" due to potential scheduling conflicts with other lucrative summer rodeos.

"There's pros and cons both ways," said Miller. "Obviously, I've had success in both formats, so I can't really complain either way."

Only having one horse to run, Miller was content to sit and see how her draw played out.

"I do things a little differently," she said. "I generally don't go to as many as I can get to. If you're picking and choosing like I try to do, it makes it a little easier to do a format like that."

For Lord, she was able to make it work by flying to another horse, but she did have to turn out of one rodeo with how she drew up in the semifinals.

"I think making one more run and coming back it was a little bit harder to get to the other rodeos," she said. "I was up at Deadwood Saturday night and I turned out of it. I sent a different horse to Utah just because I knew he was going to have to run again for the third time in the semifinals. I definitely think it changed how we approached that week, which it all worked out well. You just have to think about the situation and where you're going to be. Cheyenne suited (Can Man) the best. He liked it so well there."

Kinsel & Sister Win Third Straight Days of '47 Gold Medal

By Tanya Randall

Since 2017, Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday ("Sister") have set fire to barrel racing's record books. From earnings totals to arena records, nothing is safe from the South Texas duo.

Their latest championship was a $53,200 championship and new arena record at the Days of '47 in Salt Lake City, Utah. It was the third straight gold medal for the pair at the World Champions Rodeo Alliance-sanctioned event.

In the past three years, Kinsel and 8-year-old Sister (PC Frenchmans Hayday x Royal Sissy Irish x Royal Shake Em) have won nearly $160,000 at Salt Lake City. They've also set the arena record three times.

In 2017, they set the mark at 16.94 in their qualifying performance. This year, they smashed the record in their qualifying performance with a 16.842. In the Gold Medal Round, Maggie Poloncic and her 7-year-old mare Aint Seen Me Yet (Aint Seen Nothing Yet x Jumping Sugar x RR Milk Bones Shorts) broke that record with a 16.834 only to have Kinsel and Sister reclaim it with a 16.794.

"I think the competition is tougher every year," said Kinsel, "and the ground is getting progressively better due to the knowledge of the committee. The first night, I was second out, so I didn't get to watch or hear much before me, so we just made our run based on previous years' experiences.

"For the (Gold Medal Round), I was about halfway down, so I watched the ground a little and heard the times, and knew it was good and fast, and (I) just went for it. Regardless of who's entered and how they did, all I can do is the best I can do."

On the WPRA front, Kinsel currently sits second in the WPRA World Standings with $141,689.

She and Sister picked up $10,824 at other Utah rodeos in the days prior to their Salt Lake City runs. They won the Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo for $5,352 and placed third at the Fiesta Days Rodeo in Spanish Fork for $5,472.

"I hadn't planned on running her at Ogden," said Kinsel, "but after making some mistakes at (the Snake River Stampede in) Nampa, I figured I needed a practice run for Spanish (Fork) and Salt Lake."

The 2018 WPRA World Champion celebrated her lucrative weekend by running the colts, that she owns and trains with her mother Leslie, at the Dash N Dance Futurity in Spearfish, South Dakota. Her 5-year-old mare Corona Share of Fame (Lions Share

"Slowing down to run our two 5-year-old mares was refreshing for me!" she said. "I was excited to get to run them both and to go to a barrel race with good weather and great ground."

Kinsel, who is based out of her fiancé Jess Lockwood's eastern Montana home, plans on hitting a few more rodeos close to her northern base before heading back south to finish out her Texas circuit rodeos. She wants to stay out of the South Texas heat as long as possible and save them miles on the trailer.

She wanted to thank her sponsors—Cavenders, Classic Equine, Cinch, Purina, Platinum Performance, Yeti, Bloomer Trailers, P&P Trailer Sales, Capital Farm Credit/Agri-Insurance, 12 Gauge Ranch—her horses and their team for backing her goals. She also wanted to thank her family, fiancé and extended family and friends for their continued help and support.

Choate & Miss JB 1214 Crowned NBHA Teen 1D World Champions

By Tanya Randall

Bayleigh Choate and her infamous 7-year-old mare Miss JB 1214 (“Side Chick”) claimed the Teen 1D World Championship at the NBHA Youth World Finals, held in Perry, Georgia. The 16-year-old from Cohutta, Georgia, and her 7-year-old mare collected $5,159.

“It was a great experience,” said Choate, who wanted to thank her parents Mike and Mandy Ralston, Brett and Nicole Monroe and her sponsors for all their help and support. “It’s something I’ll never forget. I’ve been going to Youth World since I was 5-years-old. I’ve been close, but I’ve never won it, so that’s definitely cool. It was on my bucket list.”

Choate and Side Chick placed fourth in the first round with a 14.801 and then clocked a 15.036 to place sixth in the second go.

“My first go-round run, she threw a shoe before we went in the gate,” she said. “My second-go run, she worked her barrels but she didn’t really fire. She wasn’t feeling like she normal does. The ground wasn’t really holding her. She was kind of falling all over the place. We came back in the Finals and she just made one of her Side Chick runs. Those are the fun runs!”

In the Finals, Choate was draw 173 out of 177. Her good friend and defending Teen 1D Champion McKenzie Morgan was right behind her. She and Side Chick posted a 14.694 to take the lead.

Choate was surprised by the time.

“When she went in to the first barrel, she got way by it,” she explained. “I honestly didn’t think she was going to clock a .6. I was thinking an .8 or a .9. She surprised me.”

With Morgan right behind her, she immediately jumped off and handed Side Chick to her dad so she could watch her friend. After watching Morgan and her great horse In Firewaters Honor clock a 14.801 to finish right behind her, Choate went to find her mother in the stands.

“My mom was stressing out,” said Choate, who got the horse bug from her mother. “She was a nervous wreck and just couldn’t be still. I went and sat with my trainer Nicole Monroe. She was down where all the tractors were parked, so I was just sitting there watching the barrel race with Brett Monroe and Mike Green. Nicole was telling me, ‘You’ve got this! Today’s your day!’ When it was all over I paused for minute. They were all screaming for me. Nicole says, ‘Bayleigh do you realized what you just did?’ I took off running and gave my mom a hug and then went back to see my dad and Side Chick. There was like a racetrack where he’d been walking in circles.”

Side Chick and Choate have been partners for just eight months. She purchased the JB Quarter Horses-bred daughter of the late Chasin Firewater, out of Ta Tornado, by Dash Ta Fame, from Tricia Aldridge. Side Chick, known then as “Minnie,” was trained and futuritized by Kelly Allen before being turned out. Aldridge, who had previously sold Choate another JB-bred winner Mr JB 092, picked up the mare at the Triangle Sale as part of the JB Dispersal. The fit was instantaneous.

Choate and Side Chick’s first major victory was the 1D Championship at the World Barrel Racing League Finals, held in Perry this past February. Since then, they’ve become an internet sensation for the mare’s salty warm-up antics.

“I get on her and everybody stops to watch me warm her up,” she said. “She does it because she’s feeling good. That’s her thing. Her personality is just that way.”

Ronda Butler, a Florida trainer who has had several Chasin Firewaters for JB Quarter Horses, told Choate that Side Chick had picked her.

“Ronda said, ‘I’ve been watching this horse for a long time and she’s chosen you to be her person,’” she said. “Ronda told me that Chasins pick their people. When they pick their people, they’ll do whatever they can for them. Since I’ve had her, she’s just been amazing. I think we have a special connection.”

Ava Grayce Sanders & Tampa Bay Rey Deal Capture NBHA Youth 1D World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Ava Grace Sanders of Vero Beach, Florida, and her 6-year-old gelding Tampa Bay Rey Deal (“King”) captured the NBHA Youth 1D World Championship at the Youth World Finals, held in Perry, Georgia. They picked up $3,944 for their efforts.

The soon-to-be 14-year-old ninth grader topped the first round of the Youth with a 14.823.

“I had no intentions of winning (the first round),” she said. “I just wanted to make a smooth run because I wanted to make it back to Finals. That’s normally our goal in the first round—just make it back, and he blew it away.”

With the Finals made, Sanders decided to skip her second run with King.

“We scratched the second round,” she said. “I decided to give him the rest of the week off so he’d be ready for Finals.”

Running third to last in the Finals, Sanders was surprised she changed the leader board.

“I didn’t know he was going to do that,” she exclaimed. “I had a feeling, but I wasn’t 100 percent sure that he was going to be able to go in there and change it, but he did. I was just so excited.”

Unlike many of her competitors, Sanders didn’t grow up in a horse family. It wasn’t until her family took a trip to a Montana dude ranch that the horse bug became evident.

“I wanted to take the horses home,” she laughed. “When we came home, my mom put me in a little horse camp, and few weeks later they called my mom and said, ‘We want to put her on the competition team.’ My mom was like ‘She doesn’t even know how to ride!’ They said, ‘Yeah, she can! She has so much confidence and you can’t teach confidence.’”

Sanders stuck with the Indian River Riding Club and little local races until two years ago when King came along, her mother Cathy explained.

“We really couldn’t afford that 1D horse so she stayed the 3D queen for a really long time,” noted Cathy. “Her dad and I just talked. Her ability was outpacing what we could put under her. Her dad and I came the conclusion that this wasn’t a phase. This wasn’t going away. This is who she is, so we better start making some investments in some horses.”

Surprisingly, her dream maker was 3- coming 4-year-old cutting reject.

King was bred by Ora and Frank Diehl of Dunn Diehl Farms in Ruskin, Florida. He is by the High Brow Cat, Peppy San Badger stallion Dealnwithacoolcat and out of the Dual Rey, Doc’s Oak mare Emily Rey. Dalton Locke of Lakeland, Florida, purchased King from the Diehls and started him on the pattern.

The Sanders had seen King advertised but had just purchased another horse so another was financially out of the question.

“We had to sell one to get one,” noted Cathy. “We weren’t in the position to buy another horse. It wasn’t going well with her existing horse and her trainer said to me, ‘Look Cathy, this isn’t fun for her. You need to find something for her that’s going to be fun.’”

King happened to be at the same show and his rider told Sanders that she thought she’d be a perfect fit for the gelding. Sanders ended up winning the barrel race when she tried him.

Cathy said things just lined up for them to be able to buy King, whom they had taken home without exchanging a dime.

“Dalton was very trusting of us,” she said. “We wrote it down on an invoice in the back of his truck—this is what the purchase price is going to be. I told him I had to make payments because I had to sell one to get one and we hadn’t sold the other one yet. We loaded him up and brought him home. When we got home, my best friend call and said, ‘What are you going to do with that other horse you’ve got?’ I said, ‘I don’t know.’ She said, ‘Well, bring him to me. I think he'll be a perfect fit for my little girl,' and he was. They bought ours and we turned around and paid Dalton."

Although Sanders was a youth rider and King didn't have much competition experience, they just clicked.

"We didn't know what we had," said Cathy. "Nobody knew. He was a 3-year-old coming 4 and hadn't been hauled at all. That first year we went to the state show and she won 2nd out of 800. Then at Triple Crown she won 2nd out of 700 behind Marne Loosenort. So, we knew he was pretty special."

After their success at the large local races, they started branching out to bigger barrel races across the country. They've done well at the BBR Finals and All-In Barrel Race as well as having qualified for the Jr NFR.

"King is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity," added Cathy. "We're so grateful to have him."

Cathy said she and her husband Walter never expected to be on this journey with their daughter.

"When we got back from Montana, it was something that was just supposed to be fun," she laughed. "We didn't realize it would turn into her passion. We certainly didn't realize at 5-years-old that she was going to be good at it. It became really evident early on to other people, not us, that she really did have what it takes to be competitive and ride successfully."

Sanders is very appreciative of her parents' efforts and wanted to thank them for believing in her and hauling her around the country. She also wanted to thank her sponsors, and most importantly, God.

Shields Wins $20K at Ponoka's Leather N Lace

Shelly Shields & Toast To Val won $20k for winning the $100k The Runaway Slot Race that is part of the Leather N Lace Barrel Race held in Ponoka, AB, Canada. We caught up with Shelly to talk about her big win!

BRR: Could you tell us a little about your experience at the Runaway barrel race?

SHIELDS: Well, going to the Runaway is rather de-nerving for me. 2 years ago in the warm up race in Ponoka (site of the Runaway race) my barrel horse bucked me off before we even made first barrel! I left the arena in an ambulance and spent 2 weeks in the hospital. I broke my pelvis in 3 places, my tail bone in 2, my wrist in 3 places and suffered a severe concussion. I wasn't sure if I would ever be able to ride again let alone walk, I was told I could never ride again! Which honestly just made me more determined to prove everyone wrong but more importantly to let my 3 daughters know that your will and determination will mold your future. That no matter what, keep going, keep trying and stay true to your heart and soul.

My biggest accomplishment in my life is my three beautiful and incredibly talented daughters Taylor, Sierra, Rylee. All 4 of us are trainers and highly competitive on the pattern! I live for being able to be a part of their life. I raised them to be wonderful responsible horse women, so if I still wanted to be part of it all I needed to find my core strength to overcome all my injuries. Everyday can still be challenging with aches and pains but my reward is still to be riding and competing with my daughters as long I can.

I pray each and everyday thanking the good Lord for helping me through this and to help me overcome my fear of running in that arena. So I guess you could say the Runaway has been a life changing event for me! Was quite challenging competing in Ponoka to accomplish this; this win was a real challenge for me. Not in my wildest dreams did I ever think I could do something like this! My daughters yes, me no way!

BRR: Could you walk us through your preparation for your winning run?

SHIELDS: Well for the most part with Toast I say "Jesus please take the wheel". 2 weeks prior to the Runaway, the girls entered us all in the Glacier Chaser in Montana. I was planning on running 2 horses, Toast To Val and my little 4 yr old filly Streakers Queen, just before we headed for Montana, Carmen Pozzobon tried out both my horses at the Calgary Stampede, Carmen liked my filly better than Toast and she ran her in round 3! She kept my filly to keep her as an option for wild card round! In any event the point is I only took Toast with me to Montana. But while Carmen had Fancy, Carmen introduced me to a wonderful lady that did some energy work on my filly, while Carmen had her; Carmen was gracious enough to also give us a name of a lady that does personal energy work. So while my daughters and I were in Montana we connected with Marion the energy gal; she helped us all focus on our energies. And boy did she ever help me! I went on to win the Open 1D Championship of the Glacier Chaser in Montana.

Now again I was in true disbelief that I made 4 incredible runs in a row there. I kept saying to my daughters I can't believe that was me! So ... preparing for the Runaway I had a lot of fear in me. The energy lady, Marion, worked with me and gave me a bunch of exercises to do. I have also been really working hard on my core strength and rebuilding, stretching all the muscles and tendons in my hips. I have been told that if I am in pain and not able to ride centered then I can't expect my horse to stay centered. So focus, focus, focus on fixing me mentally and physically.

So here it goes- that morning of my winning run. I got up at 5, I relax have coffee till 6, I do about an hours worth of quiet stretching to calm and focus myself and then I spend about an hour loving on Toast to Val. Rubbing out his sore spots. I used our Respond blanket on him and alternate his Back on Track with his magnetic blanket. I get him to stretch out his neck and legs and rub his legs down with blue lotion. I saddle him an hour prior, I use a Back on Track saddle pad with a 5 star pad, and a g bar g saddle, iconoclast boots, and I use an O ring snaffle. I focus on the winning run, I just kept telling myself to stay calm, stay focused and trust Toast. I do pray that the good Lord and my Dad ride with me and Toast and help us stay safe. I pray for Toast to be the wind beneath my wings. I know that all sounds corny. But these are some true thoughts that do go through my mind. I make sure I always hug and kiss Toast before and after every run. Before I ask him to take care of me and after I thank him for doing just that and much more.

BRR: Tell us a little about Toast To Val and what are some of the big wins he has had during his lifetime?

SHIELDS: Toast is an incredible horse. He came to us about 3 years ago from Dennis Beaty who raised him! His main jockey for quite a while was Nicole Love. We had

THE RUNDOWN w/Shelly Shields

Toast To Val, "Toast" 15.2 h. 1,200 lbs.

BIT: O Ring Snaffle

SADDLE: G Bar B Saddle

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Pad & Back On Track pad

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast Boots

SHOEING: Every 5-6 weeks

FEED: Lifeline Equical morning & night

HAY: Free choice alfalfa & pasture during the daytime when home

SUPPLEMENTS: Milled Flax, Formula 1, Lysine, MVP 6 Way, MVP Gastroplex, apple cider vinegar, spirulina, Gastogard

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Terri Lee Sapergia (Chiropractic Energy) every couple weeks, Lacy Hallett with Magnawave every week or two, in between times use Respond blanket & Theraplate. (At the Runaway I would like to thank Nikki Holmes for working on both my horses with her machine and especially for all the extra time she spent on Toast!) rry Juice under leg wraps, monthly massage therapy from Elite Equine.

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: He is rode just about everyday, after a big weekend he will get one day off sometimes 2. Toast knows his job so we never pattern him. We try to keep it fun for him. So we lope pastures, move cows and in the arena or pasture 20-30 minutes long trotting both extended and collect, we also spend about 30 minutes loping, galloping and breezing him. Breezing is his favorite thing, it can be scary because he is extremely fast and powerful. Our slow work at the walk and trot we do a lot of bending and counter arching to make sure his rib cage, shoulders and hips move freely.

My biggest fan, cheerleader, the most supportive person that truly helps me believe in myself is my loving husband, John Shields bought him for my youngest daughter Rylee to rodeo on; she did well with Toast but they weren't quit clicking so Taylor went on with him in 2018 and did better with him. I think our Canadian rodeo ground was a huge change for this horse being Toast came from the eastern US! Toast did make a lot of money for the girls. Then this past February Rylee jump rode Toast at the American Semi Finals as her horse got hurt and wow!

They did great. They almost made AT&T stadium. After that my daughters Taylor and Rylee headed back to Canada and I stayed in Oklahoma with my daughter Sierra and her fiancé Colton Melby. Toast stayed with me and we were considering selling him, in the meantime I thought I might as well ride him. I had never rode him till then, I always thought he was too fast for me or I was not good enough to ride him. Well the first couple jackpots in Oklahoma were shocking, granted they were really little jackpots but I did really well. Then went to a larger jackpot at Parker County Texas and won it. My daughters back in Canada said to my daughter Sierra is that mom on Toast!! They couldn't believe it. Then I come back to Canada went to a couple pro rodeos and omg I was on the score board (we ran in the mud lots & we did place 2nd in Coronation Pro Rodeo and 10th in Airdrie). Before us buying Toast, His win list across the USA is amazing, NBHA win, Congress Win, Easter Classic Win, Sherrylynn Johnson Win, lots of pro rodeo wins and placing. Toasts LTE as of January 2019 was 120k, I think since I started riding him in April we have earned approximately 40k; I haven't added it all up. His equistat report is 3 pages long! This horse is just truly amazing!

BR: What is his personality like and what makes him so special?

SHIELDS: Toast is an interesting character, he is usually a very kind quiet individual, but don't get me wrong he definitely has his quirky moments to. Sometimes he prances around like he is a frisky 2 year old. And flags are not his favorite thing. Toast does better if he has a girl friend with him. He doesn't like to be by himself; he loves my futurity filly which actually works out good. Toast is always looking for attention, he will nicker at you if you ignore him

BR: What was your mental preparation to run for that much money? Was your preparation any different than on your normal runs?

SHIELDS: I haven't had that many runs on Toast so far, but what I can say is we are gaining confidence together and I'm working really hard to be a better jockey/friend for him. He is so sweet and so simple, and so honest, I just need to trust him and stay out of his way. He truly looks after me!!! It's amazing. My dad always said to me, "honey it's just a barrel race just do the best you can do and have fun doing it. Don't think about anything else." So before every run I have to keep repeating it's just a barrel race.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Last weekend I took my three grandchildren to the futurity with me. It was very hectic, very fun, very eye opening! It's really interesting to be in a pickup with them for longer than 15 minutes. The conversation topics are, at best, startling. They have challenges and interests that are waaaayyy different than Grams. And there were problems. The youngest one 'ACCIDENTALLY' poked the middle one with my vet scissors and drew blood.

One thing led to another and when I scolded her, the little one dramatically said, "I'm going to dieeeee!" Her brother told her that the Bible tells us not to speak things that we don't want to come to pass. Romans 4:17. And then he told her to watch what seeds she's sowing with her mouth. Gal. 6:7.

NEVER to be outdone, she wailed, "Oh great you guys! Now you've ruined the BOOK for me! I haven't gotten to THAT page yet!" I said, "Well, what page have you gotten to?" Her reply..."Genesis 1:2"

It was all I could do not to laugh out loud! I hope that all of us have gotten past Genesis 1:2 and made it all the way through Revelation! You haven't yet? Well, don't wait another moment. Get started on the best book you've ever read!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
