Hillman Takes Rookie Lead With Deadwood Win

By Tanya Randall

Weatherford, Texas, barrel racer Stevi Hillman took the lead in the WPRA Rookie standings with a $3,155 victory at the $7,500-added Days of 76 Rodeo, held July 26-28, in historic Deadwood, S.D.

"That was the best run I ever had on that horse," said Hillman of her winning time of 17.22 aboard Rick and Teri Ford's Im A Royal Design ("Hammer"). "It was great. I was there for a couple of days and we had a lot of rain. He usually does better when it's a little wet, so I wasn't worried about it. Mary Walker, the sweet lady that she is, came out and said, 'The ground's great. Go for it.' So, we did and it just worked. He worked every barrel just perfect."

Running in a performance, Walker was first out on the ground and Hillman was on the bottom.

"There were some fast times that night," said Hillman, who wanted to thank the Fords, her farrier Derrick Cooke, Sanders Custom Saddles, InterX Therapy and her husband, Ty, for all their help and support.

With a heavy schedule the prior two weeks that included Salt Lake City, Utah, and Salinas, Calif., Hillman was entered lightly over last week. She ran at Cheyenne, Wyo., on Tuesday, and Hammer was making a good run before the wide-open third barrel got the better of her young mount. Rather than hanging out in Cheyenne, Hillman chose to head to Deadwood early.

"I just ended up there," said the part-time radiography technician. "Cheyenne was pretty crowded and everyone told me to go up to Deadwood and hang out because it was a pretty place. I went up there two days before and got to watch slack. I got to work in the arena a couple days so that worked out good."

Hillman and Emily Efurd, Pittsburg, Texas, are the two frontrunners for the coveted title of best first-time WPRA cardholder. After the Deadwood victory, Hillman leads $24,718 to Efurd's $22,486. Unfortunately, she may not have the lead for long.

"I'm headed home right now," said Hillman. "The owners decided it was time for a break so he's going home to be turned out for a while. I'm fine with that. He deserves it. We just planned on seasoning the horse, but we—the owners and I—knew that it was a possibility to either run for rookie or the NFR. We decided that we would talk about that arrangement when we got to it, and they decided it was time to bring him home. If I can't come back out on him, I'll go back out on some other horses and try to finish the year strong."

Hammer, by Royal Streakin out of Designer Splash, by Splash Bac, is only 5, and has only had a year on barrels.

"He won about $17,000 on the track, and he got bumped really bad in the gate and quit running," said Hillman. "I had just started riding for (Rick and Teri) and I just happened to be at the racetrack with them. Teri said let's just take him home and see what he can do on the barrels. I started him in April, trying to get him to lope circles, and he pulled his first 1D check in July. He took to it really quick."

Since his first jackpot, Hammer has won close to $50,000, which $14,000 of that coming from pro rodeos in July.

Hammer's success has changed Hillman's career path. She took a leave of absence from the hospital where she works, and while she may go back to work a little bit on Hammer's break, she fully intends to turn her avocation into a vocation.

"I've been on a horse since I was 2," said Hillman. "I had an early addiction."

She credits her stepdad, Dave Salzbrenner, for her horse knowledge.

"My stepdad was a really good horse

Broc Cresta: 1987-2012

Two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo team roper Broc Cresta was found dead of unknown causes in his living quarters trailer at the Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days Rodeo on July 28. He was 25.

Cresta, the 2007 PRCA/Resistol Rookie Heeler of the Year, roped at the last two NFRs. He and reigning World Champion Header Turtle Powell placed in five of 10 rounds at the 2010 NFR. Cresta heeled for boyhood buddy Spencer Mitchell at last December's NFR, and after placing in three rounds the lifelong team saved their best for last by sharing the 3.6-second round-10 win with Chad Masters and Jade Corkill.

Cresta, who called Petaluma, Calif., home, is currently ranked 12th in the world team roping heeling standings. Among his many career highlights was the win at the Daddy of 'em All in Cheyenne with Logan Olson in 2008.

"The whole rodeo world is in shock," said PRCA Director of Communications Kendra Santos. "My phone's been ringing off the wall all day with calls from Hall of Famers on down to little kids. Broc's a fourth-generation cowboy in California, and everybody loves him. It's hard enough to lose a good cowboy when he's 90, but losing such a talented and genuinely good person at 25 is just about impossible. Our hearts are with Broc's family and friends. The entire rodeo family hurts right now."

An autopsy is being conducted on Cresta in Loveland, Colo. The results may take from four to six weeks.

Services are scheduled for 4 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 3 at the Wells Fargo Center in Santa Rosa, Calif.

In lieu of flowers, the family of Broc Cresta is asking that donations be made to:

Broc Cresta Memorial Fund; Sonoma County Grange Credit Union 304 Sutton Place; Santa Rosa, CA 95407

More on the untimely passing of Broc Cresta will be posted on ProRodeo.com as additional information becomes available.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Cresta family and friends.

Entries Open for Beef Counts Open Calf Roping and Slot Barrel Race

Caring Cowboys is proud to announce the First Annual Beef Counts Open Calf Roping and Slot Barrel Race. It will be held in Gooding, Idaho, on Sunday, August 19, 2012. Both events will have $5000 added and is open to anyone. The barrel race will have a $300 entry fee, is one round, and is limited to 50 entries. The Calf Roping will have a $550 entry fee, will be 3 full rounds and an average, and will have a clean slate shootout. Entries will be taken by phone on August 6, 5-10pm by calling 208-280-2496.

The action will start at noon with the 3 long go's of calf roping. There will be a cowboy/cowgirl auction on the shootout round of calf roping and the barrel racing at 6:00pm with those events starting at 7:00pm. After the slot barrel race, we will have a WPRCA permit barrel race for those of you trying to fill your permits. Come out and have a great time at this event while helping to put beef on the tables of those in need in Idaho.

Rodeo Houston Awards More than $1 Million to TX FFA

Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo officials traveled to Corpus Christi, Texas, Wednesday, July 11, to award 70 Texas FFA students with four-year, $16,000 college scholarships totaling $1.12 million during the 84th Texas FFA Convention.

The first Show scholarship was presented in 1957 to an FFA student from Bellaire High School in Houston. Since then, the Show has awarded more than 2,100 scholarships to Texas FFA members, totaling more than $20 million.

Recipients are reviewed by an evaluation committee consisting of agricultural science teachers representing the 10 FFA areas in Texas, chosen by Texas FFA officials. Awards are given based on the criteria of academic ability, FFA involvement and achievement, financial need, and leadership.

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is a Section 501(c)(3) charity that benefits youth, supports education, and facilitates better agricultural practices through exhibitions and presentation. Since its beginning in 1932, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo has committed approximately $283 million to the youth of Texas.

The 2013 Show will run Monday, Feb. 25, through Sunday, March 17. For more information, visit www.rodeohouston.com.

Read what past interns have to say about the RVSW Program!

"The RVSW Undergraduate Internship is one of the strongest internships in the nation because the size of the business is paralleled by the involvement of the veterinarians and staff in meeting the individual learning goals of the student. It is very stimulating to work with professionals in the field that welcome interns and are dedicated to teaching them physiological theory as well as practical skills they need for the future." - Megan Born

"All that I am learning is only confirmation that equine reproduction is the area that I wish to work in. This area of study fascinates me... I believe that RVSW has a great internship program. Everyone here is warm and friendly making it a great work environment. Interning (here) has improved my knowledge of equine reproduction immensely. My internship at Royal Vista Southwest has truly been a life changing experience." - Christina Gosch

Gray and Sixums Lady Luck Sweep Teen Championship

By Tanya Randall

With just one run aboard Kassie Wise's great mare Sixums Lady Luck ("Lady") under her belt, Chloe Gray dominated the Teen Division of the NBHA Youth World, held July 22-28 in Perry, Ga. The duo swept the 1D in both qualifying round and the finals en route to an $8,332 1D Teen Championship.

Gray, a 17-year-old home-schooled senior, was last to run in the finals, and she was worried that a stumble had cost her.

"I was at the bottom of the drag," recalled Gray. "She stumbled coming out of the third, and I thought it cost me. My dad sank down in his seat because he thought it was over when she stumbled. She must have been really running. When Kassie screamed from the head of the alley, I knew she had done it."

The pairing of Gray and Lady was simply magical. They won the second go so convincingly that only two other riders finished in the 1D. Kassie, who rides in the same NBHA district as Gray, offered Lady, a 9-year-old daughter of Deep Sixum out of Laughing Glass, by Glassy Go Man, the Thursday before the NBHA Youth World.

"I took her up on it really quick," said the daughter of Christian and Missy Gray. She got to make one practice run on her at a barrel race the day before World started.

"I would have won it by 3/10ths, but I got the third barrel," said Gray. "She's really easy to ride. All you do is point her, trust her and kick. I was just along for the ride."

Gray said she wanted to thank God, Carl and Kassie Wise for picking her to ride Lady and her whole family for their support. After finishing her high school education, Gray plans on taking her core college classes locally and focusing on training horses.

"I want to start going to futurities," said Gray, who credits Cecil Williams with teaching her the feel for training colts. "I went last year and placed at five out of the seven I went to."

Mikayla Almond and Frenchmans Signature capture NBHA's Youth Championship

Like Teen World Champion Chloe Gray, Youth World Champion Mikayla Almond rode a borrowed horse to victory. The 11-year-old daughter of Eddie and Jeani Almond made her first competition runs ever aboard Frenchmans Signature, owned by Kaitlyn Prentice, Bokchito, Okla., at the NBHA Youth World.

"I had just rode her at home," said Almond of her practice runs aboard "Siggy." "I made my first run on her on Sunday. It was exciting."

The duo hit the second barrel leaving it on their second run, so Almond was plenty nervous for her finals' run.

"I was as nervous as I could be," said the soon-to-be sixth grader from Olin, N.C. "Once I got in the holding pen I was better. After my run, my heart was beating so fast, I couldn't even breathe."

The winning run was worth $2,573 in total earnings.

Almond is from a family of barrel racers. Her father trains and her mother and sister also compete. Her uncle, Kebo Almond, is the defending NBHA Open World Champion.

Siggy, like her owner, has strong barrel racing genetics. The

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you ever had a horse that cribs or “sucks wind” you know how irritating those habits can be. Cribbing can also damage paint, stalls and feed boxes or mangers. it’s unsightly. A wind sucking horse can sure startle an unsuspecting visitor to see a horse hook his teeth over a post or rail and emit an unpleasant sound.

Fortunately, not too many horses get in the habit of chewing on things (cribbing) and fewer still suck air unless you look at the racehorse world. These habits can indicate the horse is bored or frustrated.

You might know some people with habits like cribbing or wind sucking. They get on a subject and “chew” it to death. That’s all they want to talk about and bring it up at every opportunity until you’d like to avoid them.

At times like that, it’s important to remember that God loves those people, too, and Jesus died for them also. We don’t know their personal lives and trials. So maybe they are frustrated or bored, like the cribbing horses. The best thing we can do is pray for them and ask God to “create a clean heart in them and renew a right spirit within them.” (Psalm 51:10)

It’s important not to get in offense or resentment with people like that. The Bible has many Scriptures warning that our prayers won’t be answered and we can lose our blessings if we don’t walk in love and treat others as we want to be treated. Look up some of these Scriptures to help you maintain patience. And a sense of humor helps, too. When that irritating person starts beating his favorite subject to death, just imagine that person cribbing or more likely, sucking wind!
