Gift Unwrapped -- Stevi Hillman & Cautro Fame Dominate at Ponoka Stampede

By Tanya Randall

Two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Stevi Hillman got a massive boost to the start of Cowboy Christmas—the lucrative Fourth of July run—with a $19,342 Championship at the $50,000-added Ponoka Stampede in Alberta, Canada.

Riding Jason and Melissa Mouton's Cuatro Fame ("Truck"), Hillman won the first round, placed fourth in the Final (short go) to win the two-run average and advance to the Showdown, which they topped for $7,500.

"I'm so, so proud of him," said Hillman, who calls Weatherford,

Texas, home. "He was due for a good win like that. He just liked Canada, so that was fun."

Bred by Brandy Wilson-Mehl of Satanta, Kansas, Truck is by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Streak Laico Bird mare Princess Streaks. Truck has helped Hillman qualify for the NFR in 2016 and 2017.

Knowing that Truck does well with more runs, Hillman, who had split her horses into two rigs—Truck with her husband Ty and her two mares with Stevie Perkins, made the decision to try to work some ting a run. So, Ty and I tossed around driving back down."

Hillman had flown south to Colorado to run Jennifer Burgess' 5-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven, Bug In My Frosty mare Kinda Heavenly ("Phoebe") at Colorado Springs and Greeley. Meanwhile, her husband headed to Belle Fourche, South Dakota, with Truck. "Belle Fourche was wet and sticky, so it wasn't going to be fair across the board, and I didn't want to waste a run on Truck," said Hillman. "We decide to run him at Dickinson (North Dakota) that night and it was underwater really bad, so I turned out of there. Our next option was Livingston (Montana), but that was the night before Ponoka Finals.

"We decided to stay, and I ran him at Livingston. It was disappointing to hit a barrel there and then we had an all-night drive, all-day drive back to Ponoka, but at least I was keeping some air in him."

Hillman and Truck had two runs in Ponoka yesterday, the Finals in the afternoon and the Showdown later that night, running about 9:30. Their next run is at Cody, Wyoming, on Tuesday night. Hill-

Leading Sire Firewater Ta Fame Laid To Rest

Proven performer and sire Firewater Ta Fame was laid to rest Saturday, June 30 after a brief bout with colic. The striking buckskin stallion was just 15.

Affectionately known as Stitch, the stallion was purchased as a yearling from his breeder Elyse Cullum of Williams, Arizona, by Billy and Shelly Martin of Sealy, Texas. He was by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Fire Water Flit mare Fashion Star Flit.

Under the direction of Andrea Cline, Stitch was an open 1D and WPRA money earner. Cline, who described it best when she said that the Martins had lost a family member, said the stallion was "a pleaser."

"He just wanted to please and (was) so incredibly kind," she said. "He had a monster stride and most of the get do too."

Firewater Ta Fame was an exceptional sire with 51 money earners of $863,458 as of July 2. His leading performer is current futurity sensation and recent Old Fort Days Futurity Champion JS Milo And Stitch with earnings of $207,885. He also sired multiple pro rodeo and 1D winner Stitchs Streaknfame ($179,586), Old Fort Days Futurity Champion KN Panellapie ($98,168) and Old Fort Days Derby Champion KN My Mamas Famous 2 ($96,623). His oldest colts are just 11 years old.

"Most are 'Yes, ma'am. Anything else I can do for you?' type horses," said Cline, who owned and rode several including her beloved Stitchs Streaknfame. "Just overall, happy horses. He was my all-time favorite sire, hands down."

Our thoughts and prayers are with Billy & Shelly Martin on the loss of their beloved Firewater Ta Fame. We had the honor of being able to follow Firewater Ta Fame's life from a promising prospect to being a proven performer and then move on to be a proven sire. His legacy will be carried on in his offspring for many years to come...Rest In Peace Firewater Ta Fame.

Vegaspeed Passes

Vegaspeed, better known as Speedy, passed away this past week. Ridden for 14 yrs by Kim Schulze, the 2002 son of Frenchmans Vegas out of the Doctor Greyboy mare, Crystal Philly, was a winner at every level. He placed at the futurities and then went on to win major rodeos such as Cheyenne and helped Schulze to a 16th place in the World in 2013. Bred by Chuck & Kristie Peterson, the sorrel gelding was the Mountain States Barrel Horse Of The Year in 2010-2011.

This is Kim Schulze Facebook post on the loss of Vegaspeed:

I did not know this would be the final run I would ever be so blessed to make on this INCREDIBLE horse! God truly blessed me when he brought this horse into my life 14 years ago! This horse taught me so many things that I will cherish forever! This horse had the biggest heart, I have NEVER seen so much try! I was told several times in his career that he was probably done, and the next thing you know he would show me he wasn't done, he truly loved to run barrels.

Speedy was laid to rest yesterday evening, he fought until the bitter end,

If it hadn't been for that horse I wouldn't have been blessed to have the wonderful friends that I have. I don't know what my future holds but I DO KNOW that I am in God hands and I WILL get through this and He will give me the strength to persevere , Speedy taught me, life can knock you down but you don't have to stay down! I know the ultimate reward for me is eternal and I will never loose that focus, and so I will continue to look to God and His direction for my life, and I know God will bring something good out of this! If my pain, suffering & perseverance can help someone else I know it was worth it as hard as it's been! God his faithful, I encourage you all to Seek Gods face instead of what he can give you, that is where true joy is, material things will all fade away but in the end we win if we live for him! Rest In Peace Speedy I love you!

Graves Launches Youth Trainer/Race Horse Challenge

Twenty-six-time World Champion barrel racer, Lance Graves, announces the start to the first season of The LG Legacy Project. He has hand-selected a group of three, 12 and 13 year-old girls, to compete in this contest. Each of the girls has been assigned racehorse, and over the course of 7 months they will train them to be competitive barrel horses. The girls will have the help of three highly skilled and respected trainers that will serve as their mentors. The journey will be filmed and allow fans an intimate look at the triumphs and challenges of the entire process. The contest will culminate with a high-stakes barrel race at the Lance Graves International Barrel Racing Championship in February 2019 at the Lazy E Arena, in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Following the race, the horses will be offered at auction at the LGI Barrel Horse Sale.

The young trainers will be meeting their equine partners for the first time at 11:00 A.M. (CST) on July 3, at the Tulsa Holiday Circuit horse show, at the Tulsa Expo Center. The event will be available via Facebook Live on The LG Legacy Project Facebook page.

As a leader in the performance horse and racehorse industry, Lance Graves has achieved global recognition for not just his skills in the arena but his passionate advocacy for ethical competition, cross-disciplinary cooperation, and the advancement of the sport of barrel racing. He has rallied the support of like-minded equine industry professionals to develop a program that brings young equine athletes, budding trainers, seasoned professionals, and committed horse breeders together for a "once in a lifetime" opportunity.

"I have spent my lifetime dedicated to the sport of barrel racing.

man was entered at Red Lodge, Montana, for the perf Tuesday as well—the two towns are only an hour apart but turned out in favor of Cody's much higher added money-$25,000 compared to $6,000.

"We drove all night and got to Shelby, Montana, at 4:30 this morning and let him rest for a few hours here," she said. "Now, we're headed over to Cody. I was up at Red Lodge at 6:30 and Cody at 8, but we're not going to chance missing Cody, so we're turning out of Red Lodge and going straight to Cody."

Truck will get the night off tomorrow at Oakley, Utah, and likely won't run again until St. Paul, Oregon, with it's $28,050 added on July 6. Phoebe will get the call.

"She's never been to rodeos like this," said Hillman, who said the mare has been making great runs in spite of her inexperience. "I'm excited to have her in the trailer. It's a huge blessing. I'm very thankful that Jennifer did that."

Hillman also has her Dash Ta Fame mare Luv My Fame ("Layla") in the trailer.

"She ended up bruising her hip right before we came out here," she said. "As soon as that hip heals up I'll run her at a couple of places. Hopefully, at Edmonton, because it's a 12 second pattern and I'd like to run her. I ran her at a jackpot the other day and she worked good. Crossing our fingers, we're getting closer."

After a very disappointing and challenging winter, Hillman had all-around trouble getting started on her summer run.

"I don't even have time to tell you everything that happen," she said. "It's been obstacle after obstacle to get out here. We had to turn out of North Platte and Reno, which was so discouraging because Truck had won both of those rodeos previously. We had just strange little soreness come up with Truck's foot. We think it was just a thin sole issue where he just needed a little time. The vet was baffled and the shoer was baffled. All we can say is God healed him and we were able to come out."

Truck's first run back after a two-week layoff was at Pleasant Grove, Utah. From there, they went to Canada, were they found their grove. Thy ran at Wainwright, High River and Sundre, winning High River and was third in Sundre in the mud.

"Canada was good to me," she said. "I would stay up there if I could."

The whole trip, especially Ponoka, was a bucket-list run.

"It was so neat," she said. "I had been wanting to go up to Ponoka, or Canada, period, for some time. I got to go up for Calgary last year, but that was it. It was really neat, and the people are so great. The arenas are great setups for Truck. Ponoka kind of reminded us of Cheyenne. Big crowds and afternoon perfs. To win Ponoka after all we been through is just a huge blessing. I'm so thankful to have Truck feeling good and to have these wonderful opportunities." Hillman wanted to thank her team from her veterinarian and shoer to family and entry-master Ann Thompson as well as "Jason and Melissa Mouton, who own Truck, for their continued support. Jennifer Burgess for sending her mare out her with me this summer, and all my wonderful sponsors."

"The craziness that's Cowboy Christmas is upon us. The vast number of lucrative rodeos held over the Fourth of July can make or break a barrel racer's season.

The WPRA office is counting any rodeo that ends between July 1-8 as part of the Fourth of July Run. The only outlier is $6,300-added Estes Park, Colorado, that runs July 5-10.

Cowboy Christmas - Part 1

By Tanya Randall

The lucrative Fourth of July Run, known as Cowboy Christmas, is well under way. The WPRA office considers any rodeo that ends between July 1 and July 8 as part of the Fourth of July Run with the $6,300-added Estes Park, Colorado, that ends on July 10, being the only exception.

As of the day before July 4, Stevi Hillman has the biggest Christmas gift so far with a $19,342 Championship at the Ponoka Stampede in Canada. She's back stateside for the remainder of her Fourth of July Run, which concludes in Estes Park, Colorado on July 9.

Defending Canadian Champion Carman Pozzobon and her tough mare Ripn Lady have had a pretty strong Cowboy Christmas as well, winning $5,000-added Airdrie for $2,500 and $12,500-added Williams Lake, Alberta, for $4,291. She also placed at Ponoka for total earnings of $11,263 thus far.

Tammy Fischer of Ledbetter, Texas, and LK Shesa Hayday finished second at Ponoka, earning $11,307, on Monday. At the time of this article, Fischer was making a mad dash to Greeley, Colorado, 18.5 hours away, for the short round of the $20,000-added Independence Stampede that starts at 7 p.m. MST. Including her tie for ninth-place in the first round at Greeley, Fischer has won $11,700 so far over the Fourth.

Over the night of July 3, we'll find out the winners of both Greeley and $3,214-added Folsom, California. At the time of this writing, the afternoon of July 3, Andrea Busby and Dial It Fast won the first round at Greeley, while Briana Benavidez currently leads Folsom, according to ProRodeo.com.

Of the rodeos ending on the Fourth, Nellie Miller leads the two-run average with two performances left at the $15,000-added World's Oldest Rodeo in Prescott, Arizona. Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday currently lead $7,000-added Belle Fourche, South Dakota, by nearly 4/10ths with two performances left. With storms making a mess of things, Sissy Winn is currently winning $7,000-added Mandan, South Dakota. Hallie Hanssen and Tres Movidas lead $5,000-added Killdeer, North Dakota, with two performances remaining. Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi is in the lead at $5,500-added Mobridge, South Dakota.

At the Gateway Rodeos—named for their access to magnificent Yellowstone National Park—Lisa Lockhart leads $12,500-added Livingston, Montana; Jana Bean is winning $6,000-added Red Lodge, Montana, with two performances left and Katie Jolly is currently topping the leaderboard at $25,000-added Cody, Wyoming. There's a performance Tuesday at Cody and the bulk of the contestants will run in slack Fourth of July morning. The rodeo will conclude with a performance the afternoon of the Fourth.

In Oregon, Jordan Minor is winning the $8,000-added Molalla Buckeroo Rodeo with two perfs left. $5,000-added Eugene, Oregon, starts the night of July 3 as does the $28,050-added St. Paul Rodeo. While Eugene and Molalla end on the Fourth, St. Paul, which is currently being led by Morgan Breaux, won't be over until July 7. Other rodeos included in the Fourth of July run are $10,000-added Oakley, Utah, $1,000-added Crawford, Nebraska, $2,225-added Belton, Texas, $7,150-added Spooner, Wisconsin, $5,000-added Window Rock, $5,100-added Hamel, Minnesota, $2,000-added Park Rapids, Minnesota, $3,000-added Isanti, $1,200-added Toppenish, Washington, $3,000-added Big Fork, Montana, and $2,000-added

"The last time I ran her was at the WCRA in Las Vegas in May," said Kinsel. "I thought about taking her to a jackpot, but she knows her deal. I just went to Pecos and hoped for the best."

Kinsel's mom, Leslie, also got in on the action at Pecos. She placed 12th earning $431 enough to fill her WPRA permit. Incidentally, Thunder Stones ("TJ") carried the way for both Kinsels to fill their WPRA permits.

"He's still special, even though he doesn't get the spotlight," she said.

After running at Pecos on Tuesday, the Kinsels headed north for Greeley on Thursday morning. Unfortunately, Kinsel and Sister hit a barrel there.

"I was entered in Ponoka, but ended up turning out," she said. "It was a lot of driving and tight schedule. I went to Livingston last night and hit a barrel. I have five good rodeos left. Hopefully, I can get something done at those."

The evening following this interview, Kinsel took the lead at Belle Fourche, South Dakota, on Monday night. She was out at Mobridge on Tuesday night and had plans to run TJ and save Sister for Cody the next morning. Their only all-night drive of the Fourth will be from Mobridge to Cody.

Unlike years past, Kinsel headed out a lot later since she didn't have the College National Finals in early June.

"I left with a fresh horse for the Fourth of July," said Kinsel. "She felt great and was winning in May, but it's so hot down here. In years past, I would leave early and hit a few rodeos on the way to the College Finals. This year, I stayed home and stayed on our colts longer. I didn't go out to Reno because I didn't want to drive all the way there and back. We thought we'd just wait for the Fourth of July and stay out longer.

"Last year, we came home in August, but I'd like to stay up north through the hottest months in Texas. I'll only have to come back for two circuit rodeos at the end of September.

"My timing is different this year and having a good winter helped that."

Molly Childers and Just My Choice Set Pace in Springdale

Molly Childers of Mead, Oklahoma, and her 10-year-old cuttingbred gelding Just My Choice ("Ozzy") topped the $10,000-added Rodeo of the Ozarks in Springdale, Arkansas, for $3,403.

"I was surprised," said Childers, who was out in the first performance on Wednesday night. "I thought it was probably going to get a lot faster. I guess they got quite a lot of rain the night before during the slack. We were a little worried that it was going to be a muddy mess when we got there, but it was not."

She commended the rodeo committee for the excellent job on the ground, which allowed for a really fast performance.

"The rodeo committee did an outstanding job on the ground," she Childers, who has placed at Springdale on three different horses over the years. "Our set that night was really fast. He worked really well. I've been running him since he was 4, and I feel this year that he's finally maturing. He craves the rodeo atmosphere."

Childers said she doesn't have big Fourth of July plans as she has clients, who have purchased horses through her, to help get ready for the International Finals Youth Rodeo in Shawnee, Oklahoma, and the National High School Rodeo Finals afterwards. Plus, her daughter, a competitive gymnast, has some things to get ready for.

"We thought about going out earlier, but we've got some things to take care of around here," she said. "We're not even going to go out for Cheyenne (Frontier Days). We'll make a little run later on some circuit rodeos through August."

"I've just been busy with work and kid stuff," she said. "I've also got three really nice colts for next year. I've been trying to get them lined out. I had a really nice horse, Gray Ghost Frost, that I had qualified for the American Semifinals on along with Oz, and he sold right after that. It's hard to leave the area when you're only down to one horse. Something always happens when you get out there."

I began riding at age 3 on a pony that cost $5 dollars. By the time I was 7, I was a paid professional, riding the finest horses in the industry. My goal is to share my "rags to riches" story with those that share my passion and shine a light on the path to becoming a moral, ethical and professional horseman", says Graves.

The young contestants selected are all from Oklahoma and include Graves' daughter Macie Marie Graves, Sydney Hollingsworth of Stillwater, and Jaycie Johnson of Hartshorne. Macie has been paired with a 3-year old gelding, DF Corona Cash, owned by Darling Farms. Sydney will be working with a 4-year old gelding, Vixen's Ivory Hero, owned by Diamond R Ranch. Jaycie is going to be training a 4-year old gelding, Closing Odds, owned by Reliance Ranch. Mentors Lance Graves, Liana DeWeese, and Mark Bugni will be there to kick off the start of the LG Legacy Project as well.

"I'm very excited to have an opportunity to be involved with this idea of enlightening and promoting the proper education of young people coming into the sport of barrel racing", says mentor Mark Bugni.

Gallup's Best of the Best Becoming Youth Rodeo's Premiere Event

When the dust settled on the 5th Annual Bloomer Trailers Best of the Best Timed Event Competition, it was evident it was in fact, the best yet! 372 high school and junior high contestants from 13 states spanning from Florida to California, brought 511 horses to the beautiful Red Rock Park in Gallup, New Mexico and competed against the toughest competition for a large purse.

The City of Gallup and producer Walt Eddy went above and beyond for the 2018 event. They upped the ante by adding $3,000 added money to each standard event and included the addition of steer wrestling. The event champions came from a total of eight different states, proving the event lives up to the name, drawing in the best competitors in the nation to the event.

Paige Jones, a sophomore from Wayne, Oklahoma, was the barrel racing champion on her extremely talented four-year-old, High Cotton Lane, winning both long rounds and the average, pocketing over $5,200 in one event!

"The Best of the Best is one of the most prestigious events to compete in as a high school student. Winning it and receiving the payout that it offered is a very rewarding accomplishment!" Wyatt Bray of Stephenville, TX was the team roping champion with his partner, Zant Lewis of Snyder, TX. This is Wyatt and Zant's second year to compete at the event, and between the rodeo and the nightly jackpots they took home nearly $7,000 each. The Best of the Best is one of Wyatt's favorite events all year.

"My Gallup experience was nothing short of outstanding. The weather was great, the rodeo was awesome, and the payout was exceeded expectations. No words can express the gratitude I have for Walt Eddy and the City of Gallup for producing this event. I'm deeply honored by the title I have won and I'm ready to try for it again next year!"

A unique element to the event every year is the parent team roping and ribbon roping. These events are always a hit, getting everyone up on their feet in the stands to cheer on their favorite team! Ribbon roping champions this year were mother/son duo Colton and Erin Oliver from Utah and the team roping champions were father/son team Jaylen and Marlow Eldridge of Idaho. Each winner was awarded a CSI saddle pad as well and the ribbon ropers took home a Charlie calf dummy and sled, and the team roping champions took home a Hot Heels SureFire dummy.

Martin Saddlery trophy saddles were award to each standard event champion as well as American Hat and Cinch Jeans certificates. The All-Around Champions, Kenna Hayes McNeil of New Mexico and Kash Cattoor of Utah, were awarded new iPads and hand tooled leather cases courtesy of Red Rock Security. New to this year's event was Red Bluff Buckles to each winner, each round, courtesy of Lansing Construction. Additionally, Classic Equine awarded Classic Fit leg boots to each round winner as well.

From the parent events, to the jackpots, wooly riding, junior looper roping, and junior incentive side pot, there is something for everyone in the family in Gallup at the Best of the Best. This year's event paid out over $130,000 and only looks to keep improving. The hospitality and scenery are second to none at this event, with the vision to do everything possible to make rodeo better for the next generation. Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

oday we celebrate the freedom that men and women before us fought for. Those freedoms include the freedom of free speech, freedom to worship as we want, the right to carry guns, to name a few. But freedom does have a responsibility.

Telling lies about someone or something isn't using your freedom of speech as it was intended.

Shooting someone for no reason is wrong, but defending yourself or your country with a gun is not. So it is our responsibility to use our freedoms wisely. Defending our freedom is honorable.

There is a man I know who fought a fight to win our freedom. Jesus. He came to earth to live. Then He went to the cross and died for our sins so when we ask Him to be Lord, we will live in heaven for all eternity. Then He was raised from the dead and ever lives to make intercession for us. John 3:16 and Heb. 7:25. It's the perfect freedom.

As we enjoy this day of celebration of our hard won freedoms, let's not forget to honor Jesus. He fought the sin battle by Himself for us....and He won!
