Taylor Jacob Pockets $28,316 During Cowboy Christmas

By Tanya Randall

"I won more over the Fourth than I have all year," laughed two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Taylor Jacob.

The Carmine, Texas, barrel racer was the winningest cowgirl over the Fourth of July weekend, pocketing $28,316 over the holiday, also known as Cowboy Christmas due to the overwhelming number of rodeos. The profitable Fourth jumped Jacob to eighth in the WPRA World Standings with $50,051.

Jacob "buddied" with fellow National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sarah McDonald, and the two ladies split their horses in two rigs and flew to make all of their rodeos.

"We had really high expectations going into the Fourth and it turned out really good," said Jacob, who jokingly added she had "a hard time remembering where I was," but would "do it all over again in a heartbeat!"

Jacob's mother Robyn manned the northern trailer that contained Honor Thy Frenchman ("Bo") and McDonald's Fame Fling N Bling, while McDonald's boyfriend Wade Whatley took care of the southern outfit that had Jacobs' two mares—This Firewater Rocks ("Tink") and Sissy B Gold ("Madonna"), owned by Rick and Dawn Ringstaff—and McDonald's Foxys

Driftin Jewel, owned by Trip duPerier and defending WPRA World Champion Callie Apffel.

Rather than going to Colorado Springs for the Pikes Peak or Bust qualifier the Monday following Reno, Jacob returned to Wainwright, Canada, where she had sent Bo after the first two rounds at Reno. She started off her Fourth of July run at the Ponoka Independence Stampede in Alberta on June 27. Jacobs and Bo had two days to make the 18-ish hour drive from Ponoka to Greeley, Colo., where they ran on June 29th. From Greeley, it was on to Oakley, Utah, on the 30th.

On July 1, Jacobs climbed aboard Tink for St. Paul and Molalla, Ore. Then it was back to Bo at the Cody Independence Stampede in Wyoming on Saturday. On the 3rd, Jacob and Bo ran in the short go at Ponoka, before flying south to meet with Whatley's rig in Arizona. On the Fourth of July, she ran Madonna at Prescott, which was two back-to-back runs, before finishing up at Window Rock on Tink.

Bo, Jacob's WNFR record-holder, did the lion's share of the work, earning $22,285. The 11-year-old buckskin gelding, by Frenchmans Feature out of Honey Ofa Jet, by Jet Of Honor, placed second at Ponoka for $10,430 (Ponoka Shootout money does count toward the WPRA World Standings.), placed seventh at Oakley and won Cody with the only sub-17-second run of the rodeo.

"I always thought he'd do well there," said Jacob of Cody, where they pocketed $10,583, their biggest check of the Fourth, "but we'd never done as well as I thought we should during the Fourth of July rodeo until this year."

Tink, a 7-year-old buckskin mare, by Firewaterontherocks out of Long Sixes, by Packin Sixes, placed ninth at St. Paul for $1,644, and Madonna, a 7-year-old palomino daughter of Letta Hank Do It out of Sissy B Bug, by Shawne Bug, placed second at Prescott for $4,387.

"I think I got a little bit of confidence at the right time," said Jacob. "I was trying not to run Bo too terribly much, just run him at the good ones. I wanted to run the horses where I thought they'd excel and I think that's what I ended up doing."

Jacob wanted to thank her mother and Whatley for taking care of the horses and having them where they needed to be. She also wanted to thank her sponsors Classic Equine, Nutrena, Standlee Forge, Carmine Feed, Safe-Guard, Rock-N-Roll Cowgirl, Platinum Performance, Elgin Veterinary Hospital, Coach and Bloomer Trailers.

WPRO Reserve World Champion Lisa Lockhart also made a bold move over the Fourth of July. The Oelrichs, S.D., barrel racer and mother of three drew checks at four out of the eight rodeos she entered to earn $23,729 and jumped all the way to 12th in the WPRO World Standings with $41,702.

"I'm very fortunate that I had a good Fourth of July," said Lockhart. "I tried to do the same thing last year and didn't have a very good Fourth."

Lockhart started her Fourth of July run at Greeley and Oakley before heading back to the Dakota's to work her top paying Badlands' Circuit Rodeos—Mandan, Killdeer and Belle Fourche. She finished up with the Gateway Rodeos of Red Lodge and Livingston, Mont., and Cody, Wyo. (They're called the Gateway rodeos because all three towns are near entry gates of Yellowstone National Park.)

"I think all the committees tried really hard and that's always so appreciated," said Lockhart, who is sponsored by Cowgirl Tuff, Priefert Ranch Equipment, Classic Equine, Circle Y Saddles, Polaris Ranger, Platinum Performance, DeTye Vet Supply, Woody's Performance Horse Feeds and B Bar Heart Performance Horses. "They worked really hard to accommodate us and that's really tough with a lot going on. Other than getting a little rain for the short go at Greeley, the weather was great for the most part. It was fun to see a lot of new faces winning."

"Barrel racing is just a roller coaster. You think you have a good run and you don't win something, and then you have an okay run and win something—that's just barrel racing. You just have to roll with it."

Lockhart swept Greeley, winning $12,216. The 13-year-old buckskin gelding, by Biebers Oakie out of Lady Kaweah Cash, by Judge Cash, also won Oakley, Utah, for $5,357, placed second at Livingston, Mont., for $4,241 and placed deep at Mandan, N.D., for $620.

She also picked up a fifth-place check at the Home Of Champions Rodeo in Red Lodge, Mont., aboard Fast An Gold ("Chism"). The 18-year-old sorrel gelding by El Roco out of Romanna Glass, by Raise Your Glass (TB), earned $620.

Lockhart, who is a part of Elite Rodeo Athletes, spent most of her spring at home outside of a few ERA events.

"It was mostly kid stuff," said the mother of three, including a recent high school graduate. "We've been doing a lot of high school rodeos. Between riding young horses, high school rodeos, branding and haying—ranching and family life—I just chose to stay home until after the state high school rodeos were done."

Her first three rodeos back were the last weekend of June and her rodeo count toward the WPRO World Standings just moved into the double digits after the Fourth of July run.

She's only entered and competed at 16 rodeos for the 2016 season.

"It was just easier. Rather than mixing and matching, it was all that and now it's my turn again," she said. Although it should be noted that she was on her way home to help the family pack up for the International Finals Youth Rodeo in Shawnee, Okla., before heading to the Calgary Stampede, where she's out in the second set.

For the third straight year, Carley Richardson of Pampa, Texas, had a stellar Cowboy Christmas. She and her great horse Doda Flit ("Radio") won $18,545 placing at three of the six rodeos she entered.

"I've been really blessed the past three years over the Fourth," said Richardson, who is sponsored by Cinch, Horse Hydrator, Polyglycan, CSI Saddle Pads, Flavio Ribiero Leather Maker and her dad Jim. "My dad said I need to tell Radio it's the Fourth of July every day!"

Richardson and Radio started out at Greeley, but hit a barrel. Their next run at Oakley was better, but a bad slip on the third barrel cost them a check. She made the winning run at St. Paul, Ore., before tipping another barrel to win at Molalla. The ran in slack at Cody before finishing their Fourth of July run in Livingston, Mont.

"I had a really easy schedule," said Richardson, who currently sits fourth in the WPRA World Standings with $57,467. "We didn't have any all-night drives. We had a couple of days off in between. I did the Fourth a little bit different than I had in the previous years. I just tried to pick the pens that he liked and hoped that it worked. I kinda took a gamble not entering a whole lot."

Radio, a 12-year-old gray gelding by Dodadash out of Flit Priss, by Flit Bar Beggar, had to pull the load this Cowboy Christmas since her other horse Fashionable Boy was recovering from stifle surgery. She hopes to have Boy back for his favorite Northwest rodeos later this summer.

Richardson, who is currently laying over at Copper Spring Ranch, has a light weekend coming up with just Estes Park, Colo., and Ver-

Wrapping up the top four Fourth of July money-earners was McDonald, who picked up $17,468. The Brunswick, Ga., barrel racer is currently fifth in the WPRA World Standings with $54,716.

"This was the first year that I've gone a good bit over the Fourth," said McDonald. "It was good, but busy; it paid off." She and her great mare Bling, a 10-year-old bay roan daughter of A Streak Of Fling out of Short Penny, by Dash Ta Fame, placed

THE FRENCHMANS FOUNDATION

Frances Loiseau & Family

"A program built upon a broodmare," Casey's Ladylove, 2017 AQHA Hall of Fame inductee!

These two great ladies were featured in Western Horseman's Legends 6 book ...Frances as the owner, and Caseys Charm as one of the greatest producing dgrs. of foundation mare Casey's Ladylove!

Open Box Rafter Ranch congratulates the late Frances Loiseau, her Family and their Frenchmans Foundation, a 50-year breeding program based on world-class broodmares headlined by the great mare Casey's Ladylove!

Frances Loiseau's vision and enthusiasm will benefit horsemen for generations to come ...these horses carry the direct influence of her breeding program and efforts!

A youthful Frances ...cowgirl in bibs!

FRANCES LOISEAU

1924-2015
Breeder of 4-time World Champion Barrel Horse French Flash Hawk "Bozo"; multi-million dollar sire Frenchmans Guy, and of many more race, rodeo and show champions! Featured in the April '06 Quarter Horse Journal.

JAMES LOISEAU

James saddling one of his favorite mares, Frenchman's Fox, before a race. James and Frances founded the Frenchman's line together, starting with mare Casey's Ladylove, and crossing her with Laughing Boy, keeping the fillies and racing them. Frances carried on after he lost his battle with leukemia in 1977. He would be pleased to see how those mares have impacted the industry, but perhaps not surprised.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are leaving for British Columbia on a ministry trip in a few days. It takes two days to get to the landing where we will load up on a boat and travel for an hour and a half to our destination. I don't mind boats. But I shouldn't have watched Jaws while I was packing!! When we arrive, we will stay in a nice home. However, all electricity is by generator and there isn't any cell service! YIKES! The people we will minister to are from foreign countries far and wide. We have so little in common!

In the first paragraph of this article I have pretty much outlined situations that are totally out of my box. I have friends that are very envious and wish they could go and do this! But for me, ole "don't do anything different, Sherry", it is a little unnerving.

Well, how do I handle it? WITH THE WORD OF GOD! (I hope you all had the right answer.)

VERY often at church, people will ask us to pray for them when they travel, that "God will be with them". And like many other situations in our lives, God already has us covered. In the latter part of Hebrews 13:5, it says "For He Himself has said, I WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU NOR FORSAKE YOU." If He promised it, He will do it!

So, since I trust God, I will pry my fingers off my eyes. I will enjoy the scenery that is nothing like my beloved eastern Wyoming. I will meet and enjoy new people from different cultures. I will make memories. And like the article a few weeks back, I will listen to people to hear what THEY know that I do not! Does anyone know if there are sharks in 50 mile long lakes?

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
