Shaw Quietly Climbing the Ranks

AIRDRIE, AB – Crystal Shaw has been quietly making her way up the Canadian ladies barrel racing standings, placing at the occasional event before returning home to Daysand, Alta., but “we kind of got a little louder this weekend,” she laughs.

Shaw placed second at the Airdrie Pro Rodeo after clocking in at 14.55 for $3,430, then claimed top honours at the Williams Lake Stampede for her first first-place cheque of the 2010 season, worth $3,322 after a 16.30 second run there.

In true barrel racing fashion, she credits her horse, Carter.

“He just worked very well for me; he handled the ground really nice. I was extremely thrilled with him,” she says. “He’s just a young horse that I’ve been bringing along, and he’s just been getting stronger and stronger each trip. He’s starting to grow up and really starting to hit his stride.”

The 10-year-old gelding started running barrels with Shaw in the pros last season, after her main steed, Jag, suffered an injury. Jag, 15, is all healed up now and ready to return to the sport, but Carter has been doing so well that Shaw is going to let him run.

“We were just going to go to a few and pick and choose as we go along, but we might be going to a few more than we had figured,” she admits.

Shaw trains horses for a living, “so I have to be home most of the time to be working my colts, but I might have to put the horse training business on hold a little bit and rodeo a little stronger.”

Shaw, who has been rodeoing professionally since 1992, has yet to make the cut for the Canadian Finals Rodeo (CFR).

“Every barrel racers dream is to make CFR,” she says dreamily. “I’ve come close many times, so it would be nice for a change to make it there.”

But no matter how many checks Shaw and Carter are destined for this season, one thing remains true: “You always try and take something positive away from every run.”

And while she might amp up her rodeo presence, she really won’t be taking that much of a step back from her training.

“I’ve always got young horses coming up and I’ll be packing young horses with me to season and train,” she smiles. “Just the same old business!” --Courtesy of www.rodeocanada.com

Huge Loss For QH Racing

Blane Schvaneveldt, 76, a 12-time AQHA champion race trainer, with 38 training titles at his home base, Los Alamitos Racetrack in Orange County, CA, died at a Los Angeles hospital on July 5, as a result of a heart arrhythmia that he suffered while at the track on July 3.

Schvaneveldt’s richest wins came in 2008 when Janet McKinnerney’s Tres Passes won the Los Alamitos Two Million Futurity and Golden State Million Futurity. He was also the winner of a record nine Champion of Champions.

He was born in 1934 in Preston, ID, where he rode horses in match races as a youngster. In the 1950’s, he became involved with racing full time and by 1977 was the nation’s leading trainer by both racers won and money earned.

Some of the most famous champions saddled by Schvaneveldt include Town Policy, Miss Thermolark, Dash For Speed, Refrigerator, First Down Dash and Cash Rate.

Schvaneveldt also operated Blane Schvaneveldt Ranch in Romoland, CA, where he stood Chicks Beduino, among other stallions.

2010 Calgary Stampede

How do you get rodeo’s roughest champions and the ranch’s toughest stock together? Only by invitation. That’s the Calgary Stampede Rodeo. The world’s best rodeo athletes. Our famously tough stock. Head-to-head for ten days leading into Wildcard Saturday and Showdown Sunday – the biggest one-day prize in pro rodeo.

Tournament Style Rodeo - In 2006, The Calgary Stampede Rodeo roped new ground by introducing the new tournament-style rodeo and this year, for the first time ever, prize money will top the $2 million mark. First, the contestants are divided into two pools.

It’s a new rodeo every day as these talented contestants compete for $60,000 in prize money - $10,000 in each event. The top four money winners in each pool advance to Showdown Sunday. The remaining six competitors in both pools will compete on Wild Card Saturday, with the top two in each event advancing to Showdown Sunday. It’s a one shot go for broke performance.

Rodeos Richest Afternoon - With over $1,000,000 to be given away, Showdown Sunday is truly “Rodeo’s Richest Afternoon”. This progressive final sees all 10 qualifiers compete once, with the four highest scores or fastest times to advance to the Showdown round. These top-four contestants will let it all hang out for the top prize of $100,000 and the Calgary Stampede Championship. It’s straight-up rodeo, an exciting format, top dollars, elite athletes and superstar stock.

HORSES: Ima Guy of Honor (Mo) for Airdrie, Williams Lake and Red Lodge and Sugar Moon Express (Martha) in Ponoka, Greeley, & Cody.

TRAVEL METHOD: 2 Rigs going and I flew between them.

HOW DO YOU KEEP YOUR HORSES & YOURSELF FRESH: Both horses got plenty of rest and flying between rodeos helps me get some too. We just set it up where neither horse has to haul overnight and so each horse would get to rest at night. The horse I would ride for the day had a nights rest before the run.

– THE RUNDOWN:
BRENDA MAYS

RODEOS ENTERED OVER THE 4TH: Prescott, St. Paul, Eugene, Molalla, Livingston, Red Lodge, Cody (then on to Cheyenne to rest)

HORSES: At Red Lodge I made my first run on Judge My Fame (Dora). She's never run at rodeos before! I rode Judge Buy Cash (Jethro) at all the others.

TRAVEL COMPANIONS: Mom (Lynne), and my son Kyle Easterly came with.

TRAVEL METHOD: Truck and Trailer

HOW DO YOU KEEP YOUR HORSES & YOURSELF FRESH: Leaving Prescott I was able to go home and let Jethro out for a day. Every night we were able to get away from the rodeo grounds to rest. The noise from the fireworks can bother horses so it's important to stay away from it if you can.

- THE RUNDOWN:
JILL MOODY

RODEOS ENTERED OVER THE 4TH: Greeley, Belle Fourche, Livingston, Red Lodge, Cody, Oakley, Prescott and I turned out of Mandan.

HORSES: TR Dashing Badger (Dolly)

TRAVEL COMPANIONS: My friend from home, Bobbi Tomes, helped me drive and take care of everything. I couldn't have done it alone and she was awesome help. I didn't enter everything from coast to coast this year. I entered rodeos that I knew would pay well within reasonable driving distance and I tried to make every run count.

TRAVEL METHOD: Truck and Trailer

HOW DO YOU KEEP YOUR HORSES & YOURSELF FRESH: I only had one all night drive and since Bobbi did most of the driving I got lots of rest. We didn't push it too hard and made a few schedule adjustments when we could see the horses getting tired. A tipped barrel at Greeley gave us an extra day of rest we hadn't planned on.

July Expulsion Covers Three States

July Explosion

July 2-4, 2010, Marshall, TX

A great weekend of barrel racing at the July Explosion in Marshall, TX. This year's 1D winners came from three states! An Arkansas barrel racer, Ashley Young, was Friday's champion. She purchased her Sun Frost Wonder horse, SFW Nonstop Frost from local Jody Dorman, Marshall, TX. Freeman also picked up the 2nd hole in the 1D in Saturdays race which was won by Louisiana cowgirl Jill Freeman. The weekend wrapped up with Texan, Brook Broadus, and her horse A Little Bit Tippy winning Sunday's race.

Beautiful monogrammed halters and leads were given to each D winner on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

MILLER HORSE PROPERTY - Beulah, Crook County, Wyoming

Enjoy having your own horse property for personal use or as a horse training facility. This very scenic 28+ acres in NE Wyoming is surrounded on two sides by Red Water Creek and the pasture and hay ground is sub-irrigated. The property has a beautiful 2,730 square foot, three bedroom, 2-1/2 bath, 2006 triple-wide modular home on a permanent foundation that is exceptionally well built, and a detached two-car garage with a concrete floor and pad in front. In addition to the property being fully landscaped, it is well protected by mature trees. Deer and wild turkeys frequent the property. There is a good horse barn with four stalls, hay storage, tack room and a concrete pad for shoeing as well as corrals and pens with automatic waterers, a 70' x 151' indoor arena, and 140' x 280' outdoor arena with return alley. This unique property is situated close to the Black Hills, Bear Lodge Mountains, and within minutes of I-90.

Price: $495,000

Greener Pastures for 2010 WPRA World Finals Rodeo and Members

Colorado Springs, CO - This year the sign above the 2010 WPRA World Finals Rodeo door reads WELCOME ALL WPRA Members. That change, along with other exciting changes are described in the Women's Professional Rodeo Association's Greener Pastures ad campaign which is launching July 1. The Greener Pastures ad campaign spells out how the WPRA is retooling its approach to its Finals and creating an event that is inclusive, exciting and a place where all WPRA members will want to be.

The Finals event has been redesigned on just about every level from the date which has been moved up to October 13-17, to its location which is at the premier Lancaster Event Center in Lincoln, Nebraska - known for its central location and phenomenal facility, to creating an atmosphere that is clearly inclusive and contestant friendly. "We intend to mobilize our nationwide membership, and other barrel racing and roping enthusiasts, with $80,000 Added Money, a new roster of WPRA events, and by opening the WPRA competition up to all current members. We are very excited about this event and its future," says Kathi Myers, WPRA President. Rodeo barrel racers will have a unique opportunity to run in specified classes, one for Card Holders that offers a Gold Card members Sidepot, and one for Permit Only members. The standard WPRA Roping events (Team Roping, Breakaway, and Tie Down) will all be included, as will the WPRA Junior barrel race, the WPRA Futurity (for horses 5 years old and younger) and the WPRA Derby (for horses 7 years old and younger).

The WPRA is also cultivating co-approval alliances which were made with other barrel racing associations through out the 2010 season. This means the co-approved classes, such as the 4D Jackpot Barrels and the Jackpot Team Roping will be open to anyone who wants to enter: children, women and men. BBR, Pac West and NABRC have already co-approved so their members can include the rich event in their point standings. WPRA is currently working on bringing a USTRC affiliate roping into the mix, as well as co-approved breakaway roping jackpots.

Another new aspect to the 2010 World Finals will be the 1st Annual Pro Elite Horse Sale. The WPRA is excited to announce it has contracted with Going Big Time Sale Company, Ada, OK to produce the horse sale. The sale will offer 75 to 100 head of horses carrying barrel racing and timed event bloodlines, from breeding stock to prospects to seasoned and mature age horses. In addition a WPRA Pro Elite Sire Incentive Select Session will also be featured and horses will only be accepted in the Select Session if they are by a PCSI enrolled stallion or in foal to an enrolled stallion. Consignments are currently being accepted and interested parties should contact Going Big Time Sale Company (580) 777-2877.

The WPRA would like to thank the following major sponsors for their continued partnership and support - Lincoln Convention and Visitors Bureau, Stallion Oil, Circle Y of Yoakum, Wrangler, Dodge Rodeo and Montana Silversmiths.

Any associations interested in co-approving the WPRA Finals jackpot classes or if you have any questions please contact Robin Hofmann (405) 615-4998 or call the WPRA office (719) 447-4627. Anyone with a sponsorship inquiry please contact Katie Hollingsworth a (405) 707-7072. --Courtesy of www.wpra.com

Xtreme Draw Posted

The Xtreme Barrel Race draw, stall assignments, time only assignments and schedule is posted on the web site www.horseeventsinc.com.

We are excited for an excellent week of barrel racing July 9-11 in Salina, UT! We have $12,000 added cash and $15,000 in awards. This is the last race to qualify for the $11,000 added Xtreme 15 race that will be held in August. The open check and average winners will be receiving tickets into the beautiful Lakota Living Quarter trailer that is valued at $70,000. The trailer will be given away in August there are no prior races needed to win the trailer you just have to win a check or average prize at any of our 4 shows in 2010.

We have no membership fees, processing fees, arena fees, office fees or any other additional fee. The stalls are available from July 4 - July 12 at the low rate of $50 for the week. --Courtesy Destiny Crane, Horse Events Inc. Staff

Woolman In House at Cherry Creek Equestrian Center

MONT BELVIEW, TX – Southeast Texas equestrians can meet two bona fide rodeo legends when Cherry Creek Equestrian Center holds its open house on July 23, 2010. The doors will open to the public from 12 Noon until 6 PM.

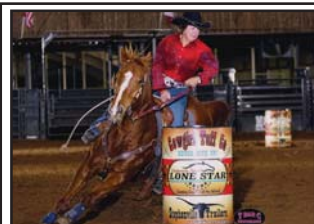

Three time PRCA World Champion Team Roper Tee Woolman and his wife Jacque have moved their family to the Texas coast. Jacque Woolman, NFR Qualifier, Barrels, Texas Circuit Champion and accomplished roper will be teaching roping, barrel racing, and basic equestrian riding skills plus doing private horse training at the site along with her husband Tee.

Cherry Creek Equestrian Center is located 4 miles north of I-10 on Hwy. 146 just East of Houston. For more information call (832) 262-9325.

Headin' For Home

By Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Summertime is the time when flies and biting insects can about drive your horses nuts. A horse can't perform well when it's distracted by painful bites and itching so you use all kinds of wipes and sprays to protect them. Old-timers used to put a small amount of cider vinegar in their horses' grain and they claimed it helped keep the flies from biting.

What about people? People are attacked every day by the fiery darts of the enemy (the devil). The Bible tells us in 1 Peter 5:8 to, "Be sober, be vigilant because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour."

How do we protect ourselves? Is there something we can do or do we just have to jump up and down and have a fit like the horses do in fly time?

The Bible gives us the answer, James 4:7 says to submit ourselves to God and to resist the devil and he will flee. Read Ephesians 6:10-17 for yourself and see how God has provided us with "protective gear" to ward off evil. People working with hazardous materials have to wear special suits and we need them, too, to live and work in these dark and perilous times.

If you've made Jesus the Lord of your life, you can bank on His promises for protection and blessing. Read the above mentioned Scripture and apply it to yourself.

Saturating yourself with vinegar won't protect you but God's Word will. Fill yourself so full of God's Word that it's the first thing out of your mouth when problems arise. Read the Bible, get our free teaching CDs and learn more about the promises of God. God's word is powerful and it can change your life. Try it and see!
