Jill Wilson & Lean Mean Blue Dean Top Fourth of July Run With $13,654

By Tanya Randall

Jill Wilson of Snyder, Texas, was worried she'd made a mistake when she only entered four rodeos over the Fourth of July, forgoing all of the lucrative rodeos in the Dakotas.

"I really worried about my plan," said Wilson, an accountant for an oil field chemical company. "I was worried I was going to lose ground because so many were making all of them. I'm by myself, I just have the one horse and I'm still trying to work, it just wasn't going to work for me to make the full big circle."

Yet, she and her 15-year-old gray gelding Lean Mean Blue Dean, her No. 1 and only one, won two of the four and finished second in another to lead all barrel racers over the Fourth with $13,654.

"I'm grateful to have the weekend that I had so I have a little bit of breathing room, so I'm not having to look weeks and weeks ahead to every $1,000 added rodeo," she said.

Wilson started her Fourth of July run at the two go-round World's Oldest Rodeo in Prescott, Arizona, on Wednesday, July 1. She had her heart set on the rodeo because she had never been there before and knew with this year's strange schedule it might be her only chance. Unfortunately, she didn't have any luck on either of her runs there. Her next run was at the Friday performance of Oakley Independence Day Rodeo in Utah, where she and Blue Dean's 16.91 bumped Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Ima Famous Babe out of the No. 1 spot they'd held since slack on Wednesday afternoon. Their victory was worth $4,905.

"Last year I actually hit the second barrel there pretty hard, and it hurt my leg bad," she laughed. "It's such a tight pen and the barrels right on the fence and with a big crowd, it just made it feel like the people were in the arena with you. I said when I left there last year that I would never go back there in a performance again! The only way I could make it work (this year) was to go back in a performance. I was a little bit dreadful of the run just because I knew he got so tight on me last year. I was very pleased with him running so free and giving me a little bit more room."

Wilson's next run was the last performance at the Cody Stampede in Wyoming, which is traditionally the richest one-run rodeo of the year, on Saturday night. Rookie leader Paige Jones and High Cotton Lane had taken the lead during Friday's performance with a 17.10. Wilson and Blue Dean were just 1/10th back to take second and $6,709, their largest check of the Fourth.

She concluded their Fourth with Monday morning slack at Big Fork, Montana, which started on Independence Day and concluded with a performance Monday night.

"It was a really neat rodeo," Wilson said of Big Fork. "It was a beautiful drive over there."

The portable arena was made a little bit bigger for this year's event, which also drew way more entries due to COVID limiting options.

"The ground was a little bit deep but it wasn't unsafe deep by no means," said Wilson, who got the victory of slack. "I had watched the performance the evening before slack and I thought, 'Man if you're towards the bottom of the ground, you've got to have a horse that would trudge through that soft ground.' I was seventh out and I was a little bit concerned; it wasn't the best draw. He just trudged right through it. I was super proud of him."

Wilson's fantastic Fourth bumped her from fourth to third in the WPRR World Standings, even though her $2,040 from Big Fork won't be included until next week's standings.

"It gave me a pretty good boost," said Wilson, who was on her way to Vernal, Utah, where she runs Wednesday night. "I know there's going to be a lot of shuffling in the next few weeks and months. I've had a few girls tell me that you're probably good even if you didn't go to another rodeo. I'm going to continue to go to the ones that I can and want to and the ones I think he'll do good at. I feel like I don't have to make every one of them and have me and him make a lot of extra miles that aren't needed."

Wilson will run at Elko, Nevada, on Friday and plans on staying out on the road through Spanish Fork, Utah, and Deadwood, South Dakota, before making her way toward home through Dodge City and Phillipsburg, Kansas.

"This honestly threw me for a loop because I wasn't expecting to do this well," she said.

Paige Jones & High Cotton Lane Win Cody Stampede for $8,387

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Rookie contender Paige Jones of Wayne, Oklahoma, and her 6-year-old gelding High Cotton Lane topped the richest, one-run rodeo of season, the Cody Stampede in Wyoming for $8,387.

"It was a pretty cool experience," Jones said of her first experience at the historic rodeo.

Initially Jones was unsure of which horse she would ride Famous Hayday or Cotton, the 2018 BFA World Futurity Champion, in the Friday night performance.

"I hadn't been riding him very good at the first few rodeos I took him to, so I almost ran my other one, but everyone told me to ride him," she said. "I just let him cruise to the first and once we got it I knew we were in time and I just kept him off the barrels at the second and third. When I got done, they would never say my time. The timer didn't work and I was hoping I didn't have to run again."

Jones and Cotton's 17.10 held through the last performance, which saw Jill Wilson and Lean Mean Blue Dean come within a tenth of a second.

The win pushed her season earnings $12,715, placing her 33rd in the WPRA World Standings, and gave her a $3,500 lead in the Rookie Standings.

Jones, who turned 18 in December, filled her permit and bought her card in January.

"I'm trying to win Rookie," she said. Winning Cody is a good sign, since last year's Rookie Champion Carly Taylor did the same. "I don't know if I have a chance at the (NFR), but it would be awesome if I made it."

Jones also ran at Prescott, Arizona, Belle Fourche, South Dakota, and Mandan, North Dakota. She had planned on running at Killdeer and Oakley but had to turn out after she got into Prescott late. She drew out of Mobridge, South Dakota, due to extremely muddy ground conditions.

At the time of this interview, she was on her way to Vernal, Utah, before heading home for the National High School Rodeo Finals in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The Oklahoma High School Champion Barrel Racer will then return to the road for Spanish Fork, Utah, and Deadwood, South Dakota.

As of 7/7/2020 Paige Jones lead the 2020 WPRA Rookie with earnings of $12,715 and Kindly Scruggs sits 2nd with $9,257.*

Lisa Lockhart & Rosas Cantina CC Save Best Run For Last, Win Black Hills Roundup

By Tanya Randall

Multiple NFR qualifier Lisa Lockhart got to finish her Fourth of July Run on a high note, winning the Black Hills Roundup in Belle Fourche, South Dakota, for $6,507.

"I got to end on a good note, two hours from home," said Lockhart, who hails from Oelrichs, South Dakota. "It was a little pot of gold at the end of the rainbow."

She also got to have some of her family present.

"It was fun to have my family there," she said. "Not my whole family, but my hubby, father-in-law and youngest son surprised me. It was kind of nice to have some family there and have a driver on the way home! I slept! I was tired and worn out!"

With her daughter Alyssa competing in the breakaway, the two weren't able to haul together so that left Lockhart traveling alone.

She started her Fourth in Oakley, Utah, where the she ran fan favorite An Oakie With Cash ("Louie"), but the heavy footing hurt them on the clock. Lockhart rode Alan Woodbury's speedster Rosas Cantina CC at Cody, Wyoming, but they tipped the first barrel.

She and Rosas next runs were at Killdeer and Mandan, North Dakota. Both of those rodeos were hampered by heavy rains, but the rodeo committees quickly hauled out the mud and replaced the footing.

"At Killdeer she worked good but was pretty hesitant," Lockhart related. "I thought I had a really good run at Mandan. There were a couple of us that left there thinking we had really good runs and would be placing, and they spanked us!"

She was supposed to run at Mobridge in between Killdeer and Mandan. Like those two rodeos, Mobridge had received a lot of much needed rain, but it made for poor rodeo conditions.

"I knew it was muddy and had rained for that first performance," she said. "I thought, well, Louie doesn't mind the mud. It was just such a nasty mess that morning of July 3. I think out of 100 girls in slack, maybe 15 or 20 ran. Long story, short, they went through more than 100 barrel racers in 35 minutes...does that tell you anything? They weren't even three calling them. They were just rolling. The money was definitely won at the end. Louie's a mudder, but the ground was just too treacherous. I just couldn't do it."

Lockhart was adamant that she ride the sensitive mare correctly.

"If I can do my job and stay really quiet and trust then I don't have to help her much..." she explained. "That's hard. We anticipate them wanting to turn and then I want to pick up my hand and that's her cue to turn. It's really hard because she doesn't allow you to handle her. It's really hard for me to do less even when you want to do more. It's a barrel racing thing I guess!"

Lockhart currently sits 15th in the WPRA World Standings with $23,121. Thankfully, she has several upcoming circuit rodeos close to home, so she won't have to travel too far from home often.

"I'm still trying to go in moderation because we don't know what lies ahead," she said. "I'm trying to still be smart and businesslike about it but not sit at home and do nothing."

Lockhart wanted to thank the Black Hills Roundup committee as well as all the other committees that stepped up doing the Fourth of July.

"I want to thank the Belle Fourche Roundup Committee and all

Managing Mobridge — Jessie Telford & Famous Cool Whip Win Sitting Bull Stampede

By Tanya Randall

While Mobridge, South Dakota, got some much needed precipitation to easy drought-like conditions, it made for a muddy mess at the Sitting Bull Stampede.

Luckily for former NFR qualifier Jessie Telford of Caldwell, Idaho, Mobridge was the last rodeo in the Dakotas on her itinerary.

"I was up in the last perf when the ground was better than it had been for all the other girls," said Telford, who pocketed $5,843 for the win. "It had dried out some."

Telford had prepared for poor footing and had another horse to run, just in case the footing looked too perilous, but ended up running her homebred star, Famous Cool Whip.

"When I watched the calf roping and the bulldogging, it didn't look slick. Obviously, I wish it was better ground, but it didn't scare me that much. I was fifth out on the ground and after I watched the first few go I was fine with it. I wasn't worried about it."

Telford had started her Fourth of July run in Belle Fourche, South Dakota, with a July 1 slack run. She and Whip ended up placing 12th for $732. Their next runs were supposed to be at Cody,

The two times he's been lame for weeks were both from over reaches. It's not an over reach where it like cuts him; it's up on his actual heel bulb. It swells up like a giant golf ball on the top of his heel bulb. Knock on wood, since I've been double bell booting, I have not had that happen."

SHOEING: Glue-On Polyflex shoes on front; glue-on Kahn Forge Concave Hinds on rear (with two toe nails to prevent twisting). "He has very thin walls and has got a lot of hot nails in his life, so he's really sensitive to nails. Those Polyflex shoes also allow his heels to expand. I started using those about a year-and-a-half ago. It took about a year, but his foot size has expanded. He wears a size 2 now when he used to wear a 1. To me that's been the biggest benefit of all with Poly-Flex. His feet look bigger and healthier."

HAY: Homegrown alfalfa, grass mix, probably 75 percent alfalfa, 25 percent grass.

SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum Performance CJ. "In the middle of the summer when it's really hot, I'll start adding some Red Cell for the extra iron."

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Ice boots. "I try to ice his legs and front feet almost every time I'm done running him."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I ride a lot of ditch banks. The kids ride him a lot for me. They both like riding him and it gives him something else to do with no pressure. We all rope the hot heels and stuff like that on him. He's a pretty busy horse so boredom can be a problem for him."

Wyoming, and then at the Oakley, Utah, a circuit rodeo for her.

"Every year I'd been able to do Cody Slack in the morning and Oakley in a perf that night. This year I had to turn out of Oakley because the slack at Cody took so long, with having all the break-away ropers first. It just had to do with the timing of everything being different this year."

That left Mandan, North Dakota, and Mobridge. Her final run on the Fourth of July run was at Big Fork, Montana, where and she and Whip finished 10th for $306.

All totaled, Telford won $6,881 over the Fourth of July. She moved from 39th in the WPRO World Standings to 22nd with $16,678, even without Big Fork, which will be included in next week's standings.

Telford has Wolf Point on July 9 and then Vernal, Utah, on the 10th, followed by Spanish Fork and Nephi, Utah, more Wilderness circuit rodeos, later in the month.

August 15 Stampede at the E to Award $12,500 to each Discipline Champion

-- Event Champions Are Eligible For The $1 Million Triple Crown of Rodeo Bonus--

WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) today announced payout details regarding the August 11-15 Stampede at the E - a WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo event set to broadcast on CBS Television Network. The Stampede at the E will be coupled with the historic Bullnanza, a PBR (Professional Bull Riders) event, creating a weekend of "edge of your seat" western sports action.

The August 15 Stampede at The E will be preceded by a qualifier for the timed event disciplines which will raise the week's total payout to upwards of $600,000.

The main event will consist of the number one athlete from the WCRA Leaderboard, the top qualifying DY (youth) athlete, and eight athletes from the qualifying rounds, totaling ten athletes in each timed event discipline.

Rough stock athletes ranked 1-10 on the segment six WCRA Leaderboard as of July 26 will earn a direct position into the $300,000 main event.

All 10 athletes in each discipline who qualify to compete in the main event will receive a paycheck. Bull riders in Guthrie will compete for a $78,000 purse as the $50,000 event champion payout from Kansas City will be carried over after no qualified rides in the showdown round at the Royal City Roundup.

The complete payout for the championship round featuring the top 10 athletes in each discipline of the main event will be as follows:

PAYOUT: 1st Place - $12,500 ($62,500 in bull riding); 2nd Place - $6,250; 3rd Place - $2,250; 4th - 10th Place - $1,000

Athletes in nine disciplines—bareback riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, tie-down roping, barrel racing, bull riding, and team roping (heading and heeling)—will compete for their piece of the $300,000 purse. Athletes in each discipline will compete for a share of $28,000 in the main event with the champions walking away with a minimum of $12,500 each.

WCRA also announced that each Stampede at The E champion will be eligible for the Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) - An annual bonus that pays a $1,000,000 cash award to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Triple Crown Designated Rodeos

All athletes ages 13 and older who are competing in the Open To The World or DY Pools at the Stampede at The E must nominate the event in the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) prior to competing in the qualifier round or main event to be eligible for the TCR bonus. Stampede at The E Event Ground Rules will serve as official information on the TCR bonus and eligibility.

Athletes from around the world competing in the nine disciplines have the opportunity to nominate and earn points with the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) until July 26. All athletes competing in the WCRA Pools are automatically eligible for the TCR bonus.

Timed event athletes will have the opportunity to compete in the Stampede At The E through the WCRA Pools or through the "Open to the World Qualifying Pools". These pools will give any athlete the opportunity to enter and earn a spot in the August 15 one-day $300,000 rodeo. In addition, the timed events will be multiple entry allowing athletes to potentially compete in both the WCRA Pool and Open Pool.

Entries for the Open to the World and DY pool will open July 13 at Noon CT and close August 5 at 5 p.m. CT. Entry fees for the open division will be $625 while DY fees will be $500. All entries will be taken on entrytool.com.

The CBS Television Network will broadcast the Stampede At The E on Saturday, Aug. 29.

All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the VRQ should be directed to wcrarodeo.com or contact support@wcrarodeo.com

Shelby Boisjoli Top Breakaway Roper Over Fourth of July

By Ann Bleiker for the WPRA.com

The week surrounding the Fourth of July has become known as Cowboy/Cowgirl Christmas in the sport of rodeo and while WPRA barrel racers have become accustomed to this time of the year, WPRA breakaway ropers got their feet wet in 2020 with six rodeos featuring breakaway roping. Breakaway ropers had the opportunity to compete in Mesquite, TX; Cody, WY; Belle Fourche, SD; Mobridge, SD; Abbyville, KS and Killdeer, ND.

It was a Canadian cowgirl that took home the most money during this inaugural WPRA Breakaway Roping Cowgirl Christmas. Shelby Boisjoli of Langdon, Alberta, now making her home in Stephenville, Texas, added $9,198 to her 2020 total. Shelby, the middle of three Boisjoli sisters, has joined her older sister Makayla in the WPRA ranks. These were her first ProRodeos to compete in and man did she make it count. She competed in three out of the six rodeos over the Fourth of July and took home second, third and fourth.

She had her best showing in Killdeer, N.D., stopping the clock in 1.9 seconds winning $4,973 for a second place finish behind Amanda Hodges. She was third, behind world champions Jackie Crawford and Lari Dee Guy, in Mobridge, S.D., in a time of 2.1 seconds for $1,613 and finally was fourth in Cody, Wyoming, with a time of 2.3 seconds to add another $2,612. Shelby is now ranked sixth in the WPRA ProRodeo Breakaway Roping world standings.

Another rookie roper Katie Mundorf of Mullen, Nebraska, was hot on Boisjoli's heels finishing the week with $8,648 in earnings, also her first of the 2020 season. Mundorf finished in a tie for first in Cody with Tanegai Zilverberg in a time of 2.1 seconds good for $4,012 and tied for first with Kayelen Helton in a time of 2.0 seconds pocketing $4,636 in Belle Fourche, S.D.

Jill Wilson of Snyder, Texas, leads the pack in the barrel racing over three-time Wrangler NFR qualifier Cheyenne Wimberley and 2019 NFR qualifier Dona Kay Rule. Official amounts for each will be released once the WPRA office confirms payouts for both Cody, Wyoming and Prescott, Arizona. Wilson took home the title in Oakley City, Utah, picking up $4,905 and was second at the Cody Stampede.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are so many sayings that people quote as scripture, that aren't. I've done it myself many times.

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness, God helps those who help themselves and God needed a baby in heaven and that's why He took yours" (don't get me started on all the wrong in those 12 words!)

And have you ever used scripture to justify your actions? I'm about to be guilty of that one.

We have a large storage room attached to the Church. We keep supplies, chairs and decorating tubs in there. It was decorating day. It was hot. There were three women working hard converting the main room from spring décor to the 4th of July theme.

Recently, we had new shelves built on rollers to better handle the tubs. Everything had not been transferred to the last rack. We got everything onto the rack and started moving it to its new location. It was heavy. Very heavy. We rolled it about two inches and BAM - it tipped to the back.

Upon further investigation, we ascertained that the frame had bent on the two back sides, wheels now slung underneath. Have you ever been around three hot women? And I don't mean sexy. I mean, hot and tired?

We had to unload the whole rack. Now what to do. If men would have been there, we would have waited while they engineered and reinforced said rack. We had no tools. We had no patience. So. Our thinking was...we need to even it out. Soooooo, three hot, tired women JUMPED on the other side in unison until the front wheels collapsed!! Perfect match! We carried the rack to its now permanent location and filled her up!

The scripture I'm going to use when Mike finds out... Isa. 43:18-19, "behold I will do a new thing... I will make a road in the wilderness..."
